Chapter 5175

“Senior Chiyun, thank you for this time.” David said softly.

After a moment of silence, the lazy voice of the Demon Lord Chiyun sounded in his mind: “Boy, don’t be too happy too soon. Those two old guys are just minions. An organization that can send out such characters must have more powerful old monsters behind them. With your level of cultivation, you still have to run if you meet them.”

Ping’s mouth curled up a smile: “Run? There is never the word ‘escape’ in my David’s dictionary.”

“Damn, you only know how to brag. If I hadn’t taken action these few times, you would have died long ago if you hadn’t escaped!”

The Demon Lord Chiyun did not hesitate to expose his shortcomings!

David was embarrassed for a while, and his body moved, turning into a golden light and rushing out of the Demon Suppression Tower and landing in the stone chamber.

“David!” Huo Jingjing saw the stone door open and rushed up immediately. Seeing his energetic appearance, her heart finally settled down, but her eyes couldn’t help but turn red. “You scared me to death!”

Mo Qingyun also rushed up. The two girls hugged David tightly, not caring about other people’s eyes!

These days, they were really worried about David’s injuries!

The Seventh Palace Master followed closely behind, and felt the aura of the sixth level of the scattered fairyland on David, and his eyes almost popped out: “It’s only been a few days? You... You broke through?”

It is difficult to upgrade to a higher level in the scattered fairyland. Ordinary cultivators may not be able to reach the threshold after spending ten or eight years. However,

David broke through two levels while he was seriously injured. This speed of cultivation simply overturned his cognition.

David smiled and did not explain: "Thank you for your trouble, Seventh Palace Master."

In the Demon Suppression Tower, one year in the outside world is a hundred years in the tower. Although David only stayed for three days, he spent nearly a year in the tower.

David felt the surging power in his body, and when his eyes fell on Huo Jingjing and Mo Qingyun, they softened instantly.

He had noticed it when he just broke through. Although the two girls did not say it clearly, they could not hide their fatigue between their brows, and the circulation of spiritual power around their bodies was also slightly sluggish.

It was obvious that they had been injured in the previous battle with the shadow guard, but they were just holding on so as not to make him worry.

"You two, come here." David waved his hand, his tone full of unquestionable concern.

Huo Jingjing and Mo Qingyun looked at each other and walked in front of him obediently.

Mo Qingyun subconsciously wanted to hide the bruise on his wrist, but was grabbed by David.

"You're still trying to hide this minor injury from me?"

David's fingertips brushed the purple bruise on her wrist, where the cold and sinister aura of the Shadow Guard's poisonous blade remained. "And Jingjing, the spiritual energy in your dantian is blocked. Do you think I can't see it?"

Huo Jingjing's cheeks flushed slightly, and she whispered, "It's okay. Just rest for a few days."

"No."

David shook his head. A faint golden light appeared on his palm, and a warm breath enveloped the two of them. "The evil energy in your bodies has invaded your meridians, and ordinary elixirs are difficult to eradicate.

I will use my golden dragon bloodline to help you dredge it, and by the way..."

He paused, looked at the two people's instantly blushing cheeks, and smiled, "By the way, I'll borrow the method of dual cultivation to help you stabilize your realm."

“Dual, dual cultivation?!” Mo Qingyun retracted his hand as if he was scalded, and his ears were so red that blood could drip out. “David, this, this is too...”

Huo Jingjing also lowered her eyes, her long eyelashes trembling, and her fingertips twisted the corner of her clothes, but she didn't directly refuse.

After all, it was too embarrassing for David to directly talk about dual cultivation in front of so many people.

Hu Mazi on the side suddenly laughed, crossed his arms and teased: “I say David, if you want to be intimate with the girls, just say it directly, why bother talking about healing? We are all men, who doesn't understand who?”

“You know shit.”

David laughed and scolded, “The cold energy in their bodies conflicts with my golden dragon bloodline. Only by guiding it with the method of dual cultivation can it be completely eliminated. Besides, they have accompanied me through life and death, and I help them improve their cultivation. Isn't it right?”

Hu Mazi laughed and said, “It's right! It's right! Then you guys hurry up, I'll be guarding outside, and I guarantee that no one will disturb you!”
