Chapter 5227

“This isn’t a solution,”

Hu Mazi panted. “There are too many forces in Jiupan Mountain. If this continues, we’ll be exhausted sooner or later.”

David was also pondering a strategy.

He knew he had to find a place to hide temporarily, otherwise he wouldn’t be able to continue investigating the truth behind the Hu family’s demise.

Just then, a vast valley appeared ahead.

Mist shrouded the valley’s entrance, and the remains of ancient buildings could be vaguely seen.

“Is that... Luoxian Valley?”

Hu Mazi’s eyes flashed with surprise. “It’s said that it was a battlefield for ancient cultivators, filled with restrictions and traps. None of the major forces in Jiupan Mountain dare to set foot there.”

David’s eyes lit up. “This is exactly the place we need!”

The two men exchanged glances and, without hesitation, rushed into Luoxian Valley.

The pursuers behind them stopped when they saw them entering Luoxian Valley, and no one dared to chase them in.

After entering Luoxian Valley, the air around them suddenly became heavy.

The ancient architectural ruins were looming in the clouds, and rusty weapons and bones were scattered on the ground, with a gloomy and strange atmosphere everywhere.

“This place is really not simple.”

David carefully explored the surrounding environment, “We must be careful and never touch the restrictions here.”

Hu Mazi nodded and held the long knife in his hand tightly.

He could feel that there was a terrifying power hidden in this valley, as if it would wake up at any time.

The two of them moved forward with difficulty in Luoxian Valley, avoiding those obvious traps and restrictions.

On the way, they found some skeletons of ancient monks. Judging from the shape of the skeletons, there must have been a shocking battle here.

"David, what do you see there?" Hu Mazi suddenly pointed to a broken stone tablet in front of him and said.

David walked over and saw some blurred words engraved on the stone tablet.

He carefully identified it for a long time before he could barely recognize a few words: "The passage to the fifth heaven... is open..."

"The passage to the fifth heaven?" David's heart was in turmoil. Could it be that there was a passage to the fifth heaven hidden in this Falling Immortal Valley?

At this moment, a violent energy fluctuation came from a distance, and it was obvious that someone had broken into the Falling Immortal Valley.

David's face changed, and he pulled Hu Mazi to hide behind a huge rock.

A group of monks came over cautiously, led by the Youyue Witch and the Chilian Fairy of the Black Demon Palace.

Behind them were dozens of earthly immortal monks, and it was obvious that the two forces had joined forces.

"How dare they come in?" Hu Mazi asked in a low voice in surprise.

David frowned: "It seems that they have spared no expense to kill us."

He noticed that the Youyue Witch and the Red Snake Fairy were holding a jade pendant in their hands. The jade pendants emitted a faint light, which seemed to be able to resist the restrictions in the Falling Immortal Valley.

"Sister Youyue, are you sure they have entered the Falling Immortal Valley?"

The Red Snake Fairy asked a little uneasily, obviously very afraid of the environment here.

The Youyue Witch sneered: "My tracking talisman can't be wrong. As long as we kill David, the little bas, and the remnants of the Hu family, we can get the reward from the master of the Fifth Heaven. What's the risk?"

A trace of greed flashed in the eyes of the Red Snake Fairy: "I hope what you said is true."

The troops of the two major forces continued to go deep into the Falling Immortal Valley and soon disappeared in the clouds.

David and Hu Mazi walked out from behind the rock, their faces solemn.

"It looks like we are in big trouble." David said in a deep voice, "They know about the Fifth Heaven, and seem to have the support of a big shot in the Fifth Heaven."

Hu Mazi's face also became extremely ugly: "So, the demise of my Hu family is likely related to the power of the Fifth Heaven?"
