

A Man Like None Other Novel

Full Read Online Chapter 5246 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5249

“Are you convinced?” Mo Chen asked with a smile, putting away his wooden sword.

David took a deep breath and bowed, saying, “Senior, your swordsmanship is divine. I am ashamed to be inferior to you.”

“Since you are convinced, then about joining the Sword Sect...”

“Senior, I...” David wanted to say something else, but Mo Chen suddenly stepped forward and slapped him on the shoulder with a palm as fast as lightning.

David felt a gentle but irresistible force surge into his body, and a burning sensation instantly came from his shoulder, as if something had been imprinted on it.

He looked down and saw a pale golden sword-shaped mark appear on his shoulder, emitting a faint spiritual light.

“This is the mark of my Sword Sect’s disciple. From now on, you are a member of the Sword Sect.”

Mo Chen patted his shoulder, his tone unwavering. “With your talent, you are worthy of the position of Senior Brother. Ling Xue is too impatient. You will have to bear more responsibilities regarding the Sect’s affairs from now on.”

Ling Xue, listening nearby, was stunned. Then, a look of joy spread across her face. She bowed gracefully to David, “Greetings, Senior Brother!”

David opened his mouth, then looked at the indelible mark on his shoulder, then at Mo Chen’s expectant eyes. Finally, he could only sigh helplessly.

He knew he had been forcibly “recruited.”

However, despite Mo Chen’s dominance, he held no ill will. His appreciation and desire to cultivate him were evident in every detail, and he could sense this affection.

“Ah, never mind.”

David said with a wry smile, “Since senior is so insistent, I can only obey your order.”

Mo Chen laughed and said, "Hahaha, with you joining our Sword Sect, the Sword Sect will surely prosper. Let Ling Xue take you to the Information Building. She is familiar with the route."

"Thank you, senior."

David thanked them and followed Ling Xue out of the courtyard. After leaving Mo Chen's courtyard, Ling Xue led David and Hu Mazi toward the Xinwen Building in the east of the city.

As they turned a corner, they ran into several young disciples dressed in the attire of the Sword Sect. The leader was a handsome young man with a jeweled sword at his waist, a sign of his high status.

When the young man saw Ling Xue, his eyes lit up instantly, he walked forward quickly with a warm smile on his face: "Junior Sister Ling, what a coincidence? I was just about to look for you. I just got a piece of cold iron, and I want to invite you to go to the Sword Tempering Workshop to see if I can forge a handy sword."

As he spoke, his eyes swept over David and Hu Mazi, his brows unconsciously frowned, and his tone was a bit scrutinizing: "Who are these two?"

Ling Xue pointed at David sideways, her tone was flat but with unquestionable seriousness: "This is Senior Brother David. From today on, you are the eldest senior brother of our Sword Sect.

This is Senior Hu Mazi, a friend of Senior Brother Chen."

"Elite Brother?" Several disciples of the Sword Sect were stunned for a moment, looking at each other, their faces full of disbelief.

The attentive young man laughed out loud and looked David up and down with undisguised contempt in his eyes: "Junior Sister Ling, you are not kidding, are you? Him? A cultivator from the Loose Immortal Realm is worthy of being the eldest senior brother of our Sword Sect?

Although our Sword Sect is not as good as before, we will not let a cultivator from the Loose Immortal Realm be the eldest senior brother, right?"

He took a step forward and deliberately released the aura of the third level of the Earth Immortal Realm, looking at David with a sense of oppression: "Boy, I don't care what connections you have taken; if you want to be the eldest senior brother, you have to ask us old people for permission.

Do you dare to fight with me? If you can take three of my moves, I will recognize you as my eldest senior brother!"

Several other disciples also followed suit: "That's right, Senior Brother Li is the best of our generation. Even he is not qualified to be the eldest senior brother, so why should we let an outsider be the eldest senior brother?"

Hu Mazi was getting impatient watching from the side. Just as he was about to speak, David raised his hand to hold him down.