

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 5277

Full Read Online Chapter 5277 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5277

“Young Master, don’t worry!” Zhao Jingfeng nodded.

In the following match, Zhao Jingfeng continued his unstoppable momentum. Leveraging the dominance of his “Sky-Splitting Sword Technique,” he defeated two opponents of the fourth rank of the Earthly Immortal Realm, advancing to the quarterfinals.

Li Hanjiang of the Seven Star Sword Sect also performed impressively. His “Seven Star Linking Sword” was unpredictable, with seven interlocking sword shadows resembling the Big Dipper, catching his opponent off guard. He also advanced smoothly.

In the quarterfinals, David faced a disciple from the Ice Valley, a fifth rank Earthly Immortal Realm cultivator whose “Ice Sword Technique” could freeze his opponent’s spiritual energy.

At the start of the match, the disciple swung his sword, creating a cloud of icy mist that enveloped the entire arena.

From the icy mist, countless cones of ice rained down upon David, bringing a bone-piercing chill.

To the audience below, David’s figure flickered in and out of the mist, as if strolling leisurely in a garden.

With each swing of the Dragon Slaying Sword, he shattered the incoming cones with unerring precision. Wherever the sword’s light passed, the icy mist dispersed, preventing him from getting close.

“This... is this ‘Sword Domain’?” a sword master exclaimed in shock.

The Sword Domain, a realm attainable only by sword cultivators in the Earthly Immortal Realm, allows one to influence their surroundings with their sword intent, creating a unique realm.

But David, a mere eighth-rank Loose Immortal, how could he possibly comprehend the Sword Domain?

Just as everyone was stunned, a sudden scream echoed from the icy mist.

Then, as the mist dissipated, the Ice Valley disciple clutched his chest and stumbled back, blood oozing from the corner of his mouth. The longsword in his hand had already broken in two.

David stood, sword in hand, the blade still pristine, as if never wielded.

"I surrender..." The Ice Valley disciple uttered those three words with difficulty, then turned and walked off the stage.

The entire arena was in a dead silence .

An eighth-rank Sanxian Realm cultivator, comprehending the Sword Domain, defeated a fifth-rank Earth Immortal Realm cultivator!

This wasn't just "unbelievable," it was simply unbelievable! Mo Chen, standing in the audience, trembled with excitement. He could sense that David hadn't truly mastered the Sword Domain, but rather concentrated his sword intent to its utmost, forming an invisible barrier.

While not as powerful as a true Sword Domain, it was still far superior to cultivators of the same level. Even he would be ashamed of his mastery of sword intent.

"Brilliant! Excellent David!" The Sword Saint City leader suddenly stood up, clapping his hands and laughing. "I'm truly fortunate to have met such a genius in my lifetime!" The other sect leaders and elders at the VIP stage nodded, their eyes filled with admiration and amazement as they looked at David.

Only Zhao Jingfeng's face was gloomy, as if water could drip from it. He had originally thought David was just a lucky, casual cultivator, but he hadn't expected him to possess such prowess.

A sense of crisis washed over him, a vague feeling that David might become the biggest obstacle on his path to victory. "Master, this kid..." Zhao Jingfeng looked at Qin Fenglie, a hint of unease in his voice. Qin Lie said coldly, "They're just some unorthodox methods. In the quarterfinals, his opponent is Li Hanjiang.

I want to see if he can handle this." Li Hanjiang's "Seven Stars Linking Sword" had already reached the realm of mastery, reaching the peak of the fifth rank of the Earthly Immortal Realm, a level higher than the disciples of the Ice Valley.

\ Many believed that even if David could defeat the Ice Valley disciples, he would be no match for Li Hanjiang. The final match of the quarterfinals was between David and Li Hanjiang, a match that captivated everyone's attention.

On one side stood the dark horse of dark horses, David, a man whose cultivation, at the eighth level of the Sanxian Realm, had defeated powerful foes in a row and mastered the Sword Intent Barrier. On the other stood Li Hanjiang, a long-established core disciple of the Seven Star Sword Sect, possessing peak cultivation at the fifth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm.

Even before the two clashed, an invisible pressure permeated the arena. Li Hanjiang, clad in a blue robe, wielded a silver longsword inlaid with seven blue gems—the Seven Star Sword, the Seven Star Sword's most precious treasure

Full Read Online Chapter 5278 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5278

He looked at David with a solemn expression, his previous disdain gone. "Brother Chen, I admire your swordsmanship. But today's battle concerns the honor of our sect, and I will show no mercy."

David bowed and said, "Brother Li, please advise."

Li Hanjiang said no more. With a flick of his wrist, the Seven Star Sword hummed, and seven gems illuminated simultaneously, emitting a faint blue light.

"Seven Stars in a Row, First Move, Starry Sky!"

With a low shout, he swung his sword, and countless blue sword lights, like a galaxy of stars, shot towards David, blocking all his escape routes.

This seemingly chaotic sword movement contained a sophisticated array of techniques. Each sword beam echoed with the others, and a single move affected the entire body.

The audience was dazzled, and many sword cultivators were filled with astonishment.

"What a move! 'Starry Sky'! Senior Brother Li's swordsmanship has improved again!"

"This sword light is so dense, there's no way to dodge it. David is in trouble this time!"

Facing this sea of sword light, David remained calm and composed.

He took a deep breath, and the Dragon Slaying Sword slowly spun in his hand, forming a visible sword wheel.

As the sword wheel spun, it emitted a faint golden glow, a testament to his ultimate concentration of sword intent.

“Ding, ding, ding...”

Countless blue sword lights collided with the golden sword wheel, making a dense sound, but none of them could penetrate the sword wheel’s defense.

Li Hanjiang frowned slightly; he had not expected David’s defense to be so strong.

“Seven Stars in a Row, Second Move, Shifting the Stars!”

He formed a seal with his left hand and swung his right sword fiercely. The deflected blue sword lights suddenly reversed direction, like boomerangs, shooting towards David from all directions again, at even more cunning angles than before.

This sudden change of moves was lightning-fast, impossible to defend against.

But David seemed to have anticipated this, employing his “Treading No Footprint in Snow” technique to its fullest potential, his figure darting through the sword light like a ghost.

With each swing of his Dragon Slaying Sword, he managed to avoid the sword flashes by the tiniest fraction of a second, while occasionally counterattacking with a strike, forcing Li Hanjiang to focus on his defense.

The two exchanged blows, and in a blink of an eye, dozens of rounds had passed. Li Hanjiang’s “Seven Stars Linking Sword” was unpredictable and deadly; David’s swordsmanship, seemingly simple, was able to turn danger into safety, using softness to overcome hardness. The audience was mesmerized.

This was no longer a simple fight, but a display of exquisite swordsmanship. “Good job! Well done!” “Keep fighting, David!” “Brother Li, you’re mighty!” The cheers echoed, deafening.

At the VIP stage, the head of Sword Saint City stroked his beard and nodded repeatedly. “Excellent! A masterful example of using softness to overcome hardness, a masterful example of unpredictability!”

These two young men are the future of our Sword Saint City!” Qin Lie’s expression grew increasingly grim. He had initially expected Li Hanjiang to easily defeat David, but he hadn’t expected the two to engage in a close fight.

“Seven Stars in a Row, third move, Seven Stars Breaking the Moon!” After a prolonged battle, Li Hanjiang grew increasingly impatient. With a sudden roar, he unleashed an unreserved burst of spiritual energy.

The seven gemstones on the Seven Star Sword simultaneously blazed with dazzling light. Seven blue sword beams, like seven giant dragons, circled in the air before coalescing into a massive sword shadow.

With devastating force, it struck David headlong. This strike was the most powerful move in the Seven Stars in a Row sword technique, combining the power of seven sword beams and delivering a force comparable to the full force of a sixth-rank cultivator in the Earthly Immortal Realm!

Everyone in the audience gasped, their breathing becoming strained. “It’s over! This sword is too powerful! David might not be able to block it!” “What a pity! He’s already done really well!” Ling Xue and the others were so nervous that their palms were sweating. Hu Mazi even closed his eyes, not daring to watch. Facing this earth-shattering sword, David’s eyes flashed with excitement.