

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 5341 |

Full Read Online Chapter 5341 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5341

David and Hu Mazi exchanged a glance and simultaneously bowed to the crowd, "Take care, everyone! We're leaving!"

Ling Xue looked at David, her lips moving as if to say something, but in the end, only a single word emanated: "Senior Brother, you must return safely."

David saw the tears in her eyes, his heart softening, and he nodded, "Wait for me."

With those words, their spiritual energy surged, and they unleashed their aerobatics to the fullest extent. Their figures transformed into two streaks of light, soaring into the sky.

Ling Xue watched their receding figures, tears finally streaming down her face. She wiped them away, silently muttering, "Senior Brother, I will cultivate diligently and wait for your return."

Mo Chen, Li Chunfeng, and Nan Batian watched the two figures disappear into the sky, their eyes filled with solemnity.

They all knew that the path to the Sixth Heaven was far more difficult than that to the Fifth Heaven. The Sixth Hall of the Divine Temple and the Main Hall of the Evil Path Hall were both extremely formidable opponents.

"I hope they'll be safe," Li Chunfeng whispered.

Mo Chen nodded, "David is a child with a strong character and extraordinary luck. With Master Hu's help, he will definitely overcome this danger."

After leaving Sword Saint City, David and Hu Mazi sped towards the Sixth Heaven.

The border between the Fifth and Sixth Heavens was a mountain range called "Duanyun Ridge."

The mountains towered into the clouds, perpetually shrouded in thick clouds. This cloud layer was imbued with a rich spatial force that made it impossible for ordinary cultivators to traverse. Only those who had reached the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm could barely withstand the ravages of this spatial force.

“The Broken Cloud Ridge is just ahead,”

David said gravely, pointing to the cloud-covered mountain range ahead. “It’s said the spatial forces there are extremely chaotic. We must be careful.”

Hu Mazi nodded, removed two yellow talismans from his storage bag, and handed one to David. “This is the ‘Fixing Space Talisman,’ which will help stabilize the spatial forces around us and reduce resistance.”

David took the talisman and applied it to his body.

The talisman instantly transformed into a faint yellow light, enveloping him. As expected, he could sense the spatial forces around him becoming much gentler.

Without further ado, the two men vanished into the clouds of Broken Cloud Ridge.

As soon as they entered the clouds, they felt a powerful pull that threatened to tear them apart.

The space around them distorted constantly, and black cracks appeared from time to time, emitting a terrifying aura.

“Beware of the cracks!” Hu Mazi shouted, casting spells in his hand. Rays of yellow light descended upon the surrounding area, temporarily stabilizing the cracks.

David also focused his attention, channeling the divine dragon power within him. Golden scales covered his arms, and a golden glow surged around him, shielding him from the pull of the spatial force.

The Dragon Slaying Sword hummed at his side, and sword energy occasionally slashed, severing the approaching cracks.

The two men struggled through the clouds, their ears filled with the whistling wind and the sizzling sound of space warping. Before their eyes, the ever-shifting clouds and cracks in the space made each step extremely difficult.

After an unknown amount of time, a glimmer of light finally appeared ahead.

“The Sixth Heaven is just ahead!”

Hu Mazi’s eyes flashed with excitement, and he quickened his pace.

The two rushed toward the light, passing through the last layer of clouds. The scene before them instantly changed—the sky was no longer the pale blue of the Fifth Heaven, but a deep azure. Clouds floated in the air like cotton wool, emitting a rich celestial aura.

Below them lay rolling mountains, covered in dense forests. From the forests lingered the roars of demonic beasts, their auras several times more powerful than those of the Fifth Heaven.

“Such a dense celestial aura!” Hu Mazi took a deep breath, a look of amazement on his face. “It’s at least three times denser than the Fifth Heaven! Cultivating here will at least double my speed!”

David, also sensing the spiritual energy in the air, was secretly astonished.

The Sixth Heaven’s celestial energy was indeed far more concentrated than the Fifth Heaven’s. No wonder cultivators there generally had higher cultivation levels than those in the Fifth Heaven.

This was only the Sixth Heaven. By the Ninth Heaven, the Nineteenth Heaven, and finally the Thirty-Sixth Heaven, the celestial aura would be so dense and substantial!

Full Read Online Chapter 5342 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5342

Beneath the azure sky, two streaks of light cut through the clouds, landing steadily in a dense ancient forest.

David retracted the golden light surrounding him, his fingertips still tingling with the spatial force of crossing Broken Cloud Ridge. Hu Mazi eagerly took a deep breath, his face filled with amazement.

“Wow, this sixth-level immortal energy is even richer than the spiritual spring of the fifth level!”

Hu Mazi smacked his lips, his spiritual energy circulating through his body, and he felt his meridians become more relaxed. “I’ve been stuck in the ninth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm for so long. Maybe after a few months here, I can even reach the threshold of the Human Immortal Realm!”

David didn’t respond, his eyes already scanning the surroundings.

This ancient forest was a stark contrast to the Black Wind Mountains of the Fifth Heaven. The trees were so thick they required more than ten people to hug, their trunks covered in pale golden moss, emitting faint fluctuations of spiritual energy.

Fist-sized crystals dotted the ground, reflecting the sunlight and shimmering with a lustrous luster.

The distant roars of demonic beasts were powerful enough to terrify even a cultivator at the early stages of the Fifth Heaven's Earthly Immortal Realm.

"Be careful,"

David said, pressing the Dragon Slaying Sword at his waist. The blade hummed faintly in its sheath, a warning. "The demonic beasts of the Sixth Heaven are not only more powerful, but they may also possess strange abilities nurtured by immortal energy."

As he finished speaking, a loud "crack" suddenly rang out from the dense forest to the left, followed by a gust of wind, sweeping the fallen leaves all over the ground.

A massive creature burst out from behind the trees, its entire body covered in dark blue scales. Its head resembled a giant crocodile, but with three scarlet eyes. A pair of broken wings sprouted from its back. Saliva dripped from its sharp fangs, instantly corroding the ground and leaving small pits.

"It's the Three-Eyed Corrupted Scale Beast!"

Hu Mazi's expression changed slightly, and he fished out two talismans from his storage bag. "I've seen records in ancient books from the Fifth Heaven that this beast's scales can withstand attacks from a seventh-grade Earthly Immortal. Its saliva is highly poisonous, and most troublesomely, its third eye can spew a foul aura that corrodes the soul!"

The Three-Eyed Corrupted Scale Beast clearly mistook the two for prey. Its third eye suddenly glowed red, and a dark green aura shot towards David like an arrow. David took a slight step, unleashing his Fire Control Step. His figure vanished into a shadow, dodging the decaying aura. The decaying aura fell upon the ancient tree behind him, instantly turning the trunk black and rotting. In a matter of seconds, it transformed into a pool of black water.

"Good timing!"

Hu Mazi laughed and hurled the talisman in his hand. "Flame Talisman!" Two beams of fire exploded in the air, transforming into two fiery snakes that entwined themselves around the three-eyed rot-scale beast.

The snakes sizzled as they touched its scales, but were unable to penetrate its defenses, leaving only two scorch marks.

The three-eyed rot-scale beast roared in pain, opening its maw and biting Hu Mazi.

Hu Mazi didn't dare to confront him head-on. He quickly summoned a Wind Talisman, floating several feet backward. Simultaneously, he unleashed a Binding Talisman. Yellow runes intertwined in the air, forming a vast net that entangled the three-eyed rotten scale beast's limbs.

"David, attack!"

Hu Mazi shouted.

A golden light flashed in David's eyes, and the power of the dragon in his body circulated frantically. The Dragon Slaying Sword was unsheathed, and a golden sword energy with a blazing flame slashed out.

"Dragon Flame Slash!"

The sword energy landed on the back of the three-eyed rotten scale beast, and the scales shattered instantly. The flames spread along with it, burning its flesh.

"Roar—!"

The three-eyed rotten scale beast let out a shrill scream and struggled to break free from the binding talisman, but Hu Mazi had already added several talismans, and the runes tightened more and more, binding it firmly in place.

The golden flames continued to devour its vitality, and its breath became weaker and weaker. Finally, it collapsed to the ground and turned into a pile of charred corpses.

David walked forward slowly, and the flames on the Dragon Slaying Sword gradually extinguished.

Full Read Online Chapter 5343 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5343

He looked at the corpse of the three-eyed Corrupted Scale Beast and discovered a pale green crystal within its skull, emitting a faint spiritual energy.

"This is the Corrupted Scale Crystal. Perhaps it can be used to refine an elixir to dispel evil."

He put the crystal away and turned to Hu Mazi. "It seems the dangers of the Sixth Heaven are greater than we anticipated."

Hu Mazi nodded and put away his talisman. "Let's go. First, find a place with many cultivators to inquire about the location of Leiyin Temple and, by the way, find out what's going on with that divine kingdom. I have a feeling that place isn't simple."

Without stopping, the two took off into the air, flying out of the ancient forest. Along the way, they encountered several powerful demonic beasts, but they were easily defeated.

About half an hour later, a wide expanse appeared ahead. A small town nestled in the valley, a wooden sign hung at the entrance, inscribed with the characters "Qingfeng Town."

The town was bustling with people, mostly cultivators. Some wore robes, some wore armor, and some carried massive weapons. The lowest aura was at the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm.

David and Hu Mazi immediately attracted considerable attention as they entered the town. Though their aura had subsided considerably, the pressure of a ninth-level Earthly Immortal Realm still made the lesser cultivators feel uneasy.

"Fellow Daoists, have you just reached the Sixth Heaven?"

A middle-aged cultivator in gray cloth stepped forward with a kind smile. "I'm the guide for Qingfeng Town. My last name is Wang. If you need any information or accommodations, you can come to me."

David looked at Guide Wang and noticed that, although he was only at the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, he dared to approach and speak to him.

"We want to inquire about the location of Leiyin Temple," David said, "In addition, we also want to know about the situation of the 'Kingdom of God'."

When Guide Wang heard the word "Kingdom of God", his face changed slightly. He subconsciously looked around and said in a low voice: "Daoyou, the affairs of the Kingdom of God cannot be talked about casually on the street!"

That is the top power in the Sixth Heaven. It is inhabited by gods, and each of them is arrogant. If we human cultivators offend them, at best our cultivation will be abolished, and at worst we will lose our lives!"

Hu Mazi frowned: "So powerful? What is the relationship between the Kingdom of God and the Temple? I heard that the Sixth Hall of the Temple is also in the Sixth Heaven."

Guide Wang sighed and led the two to sit in the corner of a teahouse. He ordered a pot of spiritual tea and then slowly said, "Although both the Kingdom of God and the Temple of God belong to the Gods, they are two different things."

The Kingdom of God is the orthodox Gods, occupying the 'Godfall Plains' in the eastern part of the Sixth Heaven. The gods there are all born with divine powers and are extremely powerful.

The Sixth Hall of the Temple of God rose to prominence later. They are located in the 'Dark Canyon' in the western part of the Sixth Heaven. The divine arts they practice are somewhat unorthodox, and it is said that they even capture human monks to refine medicine. The Kingdom of God looks down on them, and they do not submit to the Kingdom of God. Over the years, they have been fighting openly and secretly."

"As for Leiyin Temple," Guide Wang took a sip of tea and continued, "it's one of the few neutral forces in the Sixth Heaven, built on Leiyin Mountain. The temple's abbot, Taoist Wuji, is a powerful figure of the Ninth Rank in the Earthly Immortal Realm. He's kind and often helps human cultivators, but he disappeared for many years and only recently reappeared. Starting from Qingfeng Town, walk three thousand miles south and you'll see Leiyin Mountain."

David nodded, took a fairy stone from his storage bag and handed it to Guide Wang, "Thank you, Brother Wang, for the information."

Guide Wang took the fairy stone and his smile widened. "You're too polite, fellow Daoist. By the way, it seems something's happened in the Divine Kingdom recently. I heard that a noble from the Divine Clan escaped, and the Divine Kingdom has sent many people to track him down.

If you encounter cultivators wearing silver armor and bearing winged divine patterns on the road, be sure to stay away. They are the Divine Kingdom's 'Divine Guards', and their strength is at least at the Eighth Rank in the Earthly Immortal Realm!"

Full Read Online Chapter 5344 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5344

The two thanked Guide Wang and left the teahouse.

As they left town, Hu Mazi spoke up, "I didn't expect the Kingdom of God to be so overbearing. And that Sixth Temple sounds even worse than the Evil Temple. The Leiyin Temple we're looking for is in the middle, with powerful enemies on both sides. The waters of the Sixth Heaven are much deeper than those of the Fifth."

David's gaze was profound as he looked south. "The more dangerous, the more cautious we must be. First, find Taoist Wuji and find out the situation in the Sixth Temple, then make any plans."

As the two were preparing to fly away, they heard the sounds of fighting coming from the dense forest not far away, mixed with the muffled groans of a woman.

Hu Mazi's eyes lit up. "Something exciting to see? Let's go check it out!"

David didn't stop him. He, too, sensed a distinct aura emanating from the sounds of fighting. It wasn't the spiritual energy of a human cultivator, nor the demonic aura of a demonic beast, but rather a majestic power, somewhat similar to the divine race Guide Wang had described.

The two men quietly slipped into the dense forest, hiding behind an ancient tree, and gazed in the direction of the fighting.

In the clearing, a woman engaged in a fierce battle with three cultivators in silver armor.

She wore a long white dress embroidered with golden divine patterns, her long black hair flowing in the wind. Her features were breathtakingly beautiful, yet tinged with a cold arrogance.

She carried no weapon, relying solely on her delicate hands to unleash her magical powers. Golden light shone through her fingertips, and with each swing, she forced back a divine guard.

The three divine guards wielded spears inscribed with winged divine patterns. Working in perfect harmony, they formed a triangular formation, trapping the woman in the center.

"Your Highness, surrender!"

the leading Divine Guard shouted coldly. "His Majesty has decreed that if you return and confess your mistakes, your life will be spared! Otherwise, we will be forced to take you back to the Divine Kingdom!"

"Confess?"

the woman sneered, her voice clear but tinged with a chill. "I've done nothing wrong! My father is marrying me to the son of the Third Palace Master to forge an alliance with the Divine Temple. I will never go back!" The leading Divine Guard's expression darkened. "Your Highness, this is a matter of great importance to the Divine Kingdom. You can't afford to be so willful! Since you refuse to cooperate, don't blame us for being rude!"

With a wave of his hand, the other two Divine Guards attacked simultaneously, their spears carrying a sharp aura, aiming for the woman's vitals.

A flicker of panic crossed the woman's eyes. Although her cultivation had reached the seventh rank of the Earthly Immortal Realm, she was gradually losing ground against three Divine Guards of the eighth rank.

A spear grazed her shoulder, leaving a trail of blood, instantly staining her white dress red.

"If we don't act now, this little woman will be captured,"

Hu Mazi whispered, already producing a talisman. "Judging from her appearance, she must be the noble Divine Clan member that Guide Wang mentioned who escaped. Perhaps we can get more information about the Divine Kingdom and the Divine Temple from her."

Most importantly, Hu Mazi had taken a liking to this female cultivator. After rescuing her, being able to have some fun and let off some steam would be worth it.

David glanced at Hu Mazi and knew what he was up to.

However, the woman before him appeared to be from the Divine Kingdom. Perhaps through her, he could learn about the Divine Kingdom and the six halls of the Divine Temple.

So David nodded, "Action!"

Before he finished speaking, Hu Mazi threw two talismans. "Evil-Slaying Talismans!" Two flashes of golden light struck the spears of the two Divine Guards, instantly dimming the divine patterns on them and greatly reducing their power.

David's figure flashed, and he unleashed his Fire Control Step, instantly appearing behind the leading divine guard, with the Dragon Slaying Sword pointed directly at his back.

"Who?"

The leading divine guard was shocked and quickly turned around to resist. But his speed was far inferior to David's. The golden sword energy instantly pierced his armor and pierced his shoulder.

He let out a scream, and blood spurted out.

Full Read Online Chapter 5345 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5345

Seeing this, the other two divine guards quickly turned around to rescue.

Hu Mazi took the opportunity to cast a binding talisman, tying up one of the divine guards, while David swung his sword and forced the other divine guard to retreat. The woman also seized the opportunity, golden light bursting from her fingertips, and slapped the bound divine guard on the chest. The divine guard spat blood and fell to the ground.

The leading divine guard knew that he was no match for them, and gritted his teeth and said, "Who are you? How dare you interfere in the affairs of the kingdom of God!"

David did not answer, but just looked at him coldly: "Get out. If you dare to entangle me again, you will die."

The golden flames on his body ignited slightly, and the invisible pressure was released instantly. The leading divine guard's face turned pale, and he did not dare to say another word. He helped his injured companion and fled in embarrassment.

The battle was over, and only David, Hu Mazi, and the God Clan woman were left in the open space.

The woman put away her magical powers and glanced at the two of them. There was no gratitude in her eyes, but a hint of vigilance and arrogance.

She wiped the blood off her shoulder and turned to leave.

"Hey, girl!"

Hu Mazi couldn't help but said, "We saved you. If you didn't say you would sleep with me, you should at least say thank you, right?"

The woman paused, looked back at Hu Mazi, and said in a cold tone: "Human monk, don't think you can tell me what to do just because you saved me. If I weren't in a bad state today, those three pieces of trash would not be my opponents at all."

After that, she didn't stop, turned around, and walked into the depths of the dense forest, and soon disappeared.

Hu Mazi froze in place, his beard puffing with anger. "What the hell is this? Are the Gods so arrogant? I really want to capture her and teach her what courtesy means!"

David shook his head helplessly. "Forget it, the Gods have always been like this. But she mentioned that the Kingdom of God wants to form an alliance with the Sixth Temple and marry her to the son of the Third Temple Master. This is important news."

"Alliance?"

Hu Mazi frowned. "Aren't the Kingdom of God and the Temple at odds? How could they ally?" David pondered for a moment. "Perhaps it's for mutual benefit. Either way, this isn't a good thing for us. If the Kingdom of God joins forces with the Sixth Temple, it will be even more difficult for us to eliminate the Sixth Temple Master."

The two men stopped dwelling on the God Clan woman and continued flying towards Leiyin Mountain.

Along the way, they encountered several more waves of the God Clan's divine guards, clearly tracking down the woman's whereabouts.

The divine guards, though wary upon seeing David and Hu Mazi, refrained from any rash action after sensing Hu Mazi's aura of the Ninth Stage of the Earthly Immortal Realm.

Approximately three hours later, a towering mountain appeared ahead, shrouded in mist and clouds. The faint outline of a Taoist temple could be seen. A golden lightning flashed from the summit, exuding a majestic aura.

"That's Leiyin Mountain!"

Hu Mazi's eyes flashed with excitement, and he quickened his pace.

The two landed at the foot of Leiyin Mountain. Two Taoists in cyan robes guarded the mountain path. Seeing David and Hu Mazi, they stepped forward and saluted, "My two Taoist friends, may I know what brings you to Leiyin Temple?"

David returned the greeting, "I am David, and this is Hu Mazi. We have come to see Taoist Master Wuji."

The two Taoists exchanged glances, and one said, "So you are David. Please follow us."

"Do you know me?" David asked, curious!

"Our Taoist priest said that if someone named David comes looking for him, he should be brought to see him immediately."

A Taoist priest said!

David didn't expect that Taoist Priest Wuji had already guessed that he would come to Leiyin Temple to find him!

The two followed the Taoist priest up the mountain road. The mountain road was lined with pine trees, and the air was filled with a faint sandalwood and fairy air.

About half an hour later, they arrived at the gate of Leiyin Temple.

The gate of Leiyin Temple is made of rosewood, with three large golden characters "Leiyin Temple" engraved on it. There is a stone lion on each side of the gate, exuding an aura of suppressing evil.