Chapter 5376

Zi Yuan struggled to break free from her chains, only to be struck by a wave of spiritual energy. She staggered, spat out a mouthful of blood, and her face instantly turned pale.

Simultaneously, a barely audible stream of poisonous gas flowed through her abdomen and entered her system.

“Fellow Daoist Zi Yuan!”

David’s eyes blazed at the sight, and he tried to rush over to help, but Liu Kun slapped him in the back. He spat out another mouthful of blood and stumbled to his knees.

“David! Do you understand how powerful I am now?”

Liu Kun walked up to David, stepped on his back, and sneered, “Hand over the Dragon Slaying Sword and your soul, and I might be able to grant you a quick death.”

David lay on the ground, blood dripping from the corner of his mouth, his eyes still determined.

He looked at the injured Zi Yuan not far away, then at Liu Kun’s smug expression. The rage and resentment within him erupted like a volcano.

He suddenly looked up, a golden light flashing in his eyes. The dragon crystal on his chest lit up again, this time with a brighter light than ever before.

“Ah!”

David roared like a dragon’s roar, and the golden dragon blood within him erupted completely. Golden scales emerged from beneath his skin, and a massive golden dragon condensed behind him. The cave was instantly filled with golden light.

His aura surged, temporarily suppressing the corrosive poison and unleashing a power approaching that of a first-level human immortal.

Liu Kun, shaken by this sudden surge of power, stepped back repeatedly, a look of shock on his face. “A true golden dragon? Impossible! You’re clearly poisoned, how can you unleash such power?”

David ignored him and, in a flash, rushed to Zi Yuan's side, scooping her up.

Simultaneously, he swung his Dragon Slaying Sword, and a burst of golden sword energy drove back the black-clad monks besieging Zi Yuan.

"Liu Kun, I will remember this humiliation today! I will repay you a hundredfold!"

David roared, his body enveloped in an indestructible golden form. He activated his Fire Control Steps and charged towards the cave's ceiling, carrying Zi Yuan.

"Boom!" The

rocky ceiling shattered. David, holding Zi Yuan, rushed out, flying deep into the forest.

Liu Kun reacted and roared, "Chase! We must catch them!"

The black-robed monks scrambled in pursuit of David.

But David, harnessing the immense speed of his Golden Dragon bloodline, quickly outran his pursuers.

Carrying the faint Zi Yuan, he sped until he was sure they were completely out of reach, stopping in a secluded valley.

"Daoist Zi Yuan, how are you?"

David asked anxiously, placing Zi Yuan on the ground.

Zi Yuan was covered in wounds and poisoned, her breathing weak, and she had fallen unconscious.

David quickly took out the healing elixir, pried open her mouth, and fed it to her, then channeled his divine dragon power to help her refine the potency.

Looking at Zi Yuan's pale face, David's eyes flashed with ruthlessness: "Liu Kun, this feud is irreconcilable! I will expose your plot and make you pay with blood!"

Liu Kun led his pursuers through the mountains and forests for a full hour, but with no sign of David, he returned angrily to the Prime Minister's Mansion.

In the study, Liu Kun paced back and forth, his face gloomy enough to drip water – David's escape meant his plot had been exposed. Once David found Wu Hao and revealed the truth, he would be doomed.

"Sir, what should we do now? David has escaped. If he complains to the King, we'll be in trouble!"

a black-robed monk asked anxiously.

Liu Kun stopped abruptly, a fierce look flashing in his eyes: "What are you panicking about! David was poisoned and injured. Even if we find Wu Hao, we may not be able to gain his trust. Besides, I already have a backup plan."

He turned to look at his trusted adviser, "Prepare the car immediately. I want to go to the palace to see the king."

In the inner hall of the palace, Wu Hao was worried because David had not returned yet. Hearing that Liu Kun wanted to see him, he couldn't help but feel a little puzzled: "Liu Kun, what's the matter with coming to see me at this time?"

Chapter 5377

"Summon him in."

Liu Kun stepped into the inner hall and bowed, his face showing a look of concern for the country and the people: "Your Majesty, I heard that there has been no progress in the theft of the Leiyin Bell, and the people in the Divine Capital have been in panic recently. I am anxious and have come to speak to you, Your Majesty."

Wu Hao motioned him to stand up and said in a deep voice: "Just say whatever you want to say."

"Lord, the Demonic Soul is ready to make a move, the Evil Path Palace is eyeing it covetously, and the Divine Temple is unclear about its attitude. Our Divine Kingdom is in a difficult situation." Liu Kun sighed and said slowly, "I believe that the most urgent task is to consolidate our relationship with the Divine Temple. As long as we can form a marriage with the Divine Temple and gain its support, the Evil Path Palace will not dare to act rashly, and the matter of the Demonic Soul will be more secure."

Wu Hao frowned slightly. "I have already planned the marriage, but Fellow Daoist David is investigating the Thunder Sound Bell, so this matter requires further consideration."

"Lord, there's no time to lose!"

Liu Kun said hurriedly. "The Thunder Sound Bell has been stolen for days, and there's no clue what's going on. If we delay the marriage any further, the Divine Temple will probably think our Divine Kingdom is insincere."

The Third Palace Master holds considerable status in the Divine Temple. A marriage with him would not only allow us to leverage his power to investigate the Evil Path Palace, but would also enhance our Divine Kingdom's standing among the gods—kill two birds with one stone!”

He paused, then added, “I’ve heard that members of the Evil Path Palace have been active near the Divine Capital lately, seemingly spying on the demon soul seal beneath our Divine Kingdom.

Without the Divine Temple’s support, if the Evil Path Palace joins forces with other forces to attack, our Divine Kingdom would be unable to resist.”

Wu Hao fell silent. Liu Kun’s words, though somewhat exaggerated, were not without reason.

The Divine Kingdom, currently plagued by internal and external troubles, truly needed external support.

Furthermore, he had originally planned to have the princess marry the Third Palace Master’s son, using this opportunity to investigate his collusion with the Evil Path Palace. Liu Kun’s proposal seemed to align perfectly with his plan.

“You have a point.”

Wu Hao nodded slowly. “Then the marriage will be fully entrusted to you. Three days later, you will personally escort the princess to the Third Palace to complete the wedding.”

Liu Kun was delighted, but his face remained respectful: “I obey your order! I will not let the king down!”

After leaving the palace, Liu Kun immediately returned to the Prime Minister’s residence and summoned his trusted subordinates. “

Sir, has the king agreed to the marriage?” the counselor asked.

“Hmph, Wu Hao has taken the bait.”

Liu Kun sneered. “This marriage? It’s just a delaying tactic. In three days, I will not only kidnap the princess, but also use this opportunity to force Wu Hao to hand over the Sacrificial Manual!”

Everyone was shocked. “Sir, you want the Sacrificial Manual? Are you really going to...”

“Indeed!”

A hint of madness flashed in Liu Kun's eyes. "The Sacrificial Manual contains methods to strengthen and destroy the seal of the Demon Soul. If we obtain it, and then ally with the Evil Dao Hall, we can break the seal and release the Demon Soul. Then the entire Sixth Heaven will be plunged into chaos.

I will then use the power of the Demon Soul to eliminate Wu Hao and those old men in Leiyin Temple, and the entire Sixth Heaven will be mine!"

Upon hearing this, everyone's faces were filled with shock, but more than that, greed – if Liu Kun truly could control the Sixth Heaven, they, as his trusted confidants, would surely rise to great heights.

"Your Excellency is wise!" everyone echoed in unison.

"Alright, everyone, go down and prepare,"

Liu Kun said, waving his hand. "In three days, I will personally lead the escort team for the princess. You will secretly arrange for your men to kidnap the princess immediately after leaving the Divine Capital.

Remember, this must be done in secret; no one can detect it."

"Yes!" everyone replied!

Elsewhere, David gathered a gentle spiritual energy from his fingertips and gently tapped Zi Yuan's brow. "Hold on, I'll take you to a safe place."

Before he finished speaking, David waved his hand, and the Demon Suppression Tower appeared.

Without further hesitation, David helped Zi Yuan through the tower's gate. The next second, the two found themselves in a completely different world.

Chapter 5378

Zi Yuan, drowsy from the poison, was instantly awakened by the overwhelming surge of rich immortal energy. She stared wide-eyed at the scene before her, her breath catching in her throat.

What she saw wasn't the dark, imprisoned cage she'd imagined suppressing demons, but a vast expanse of spiritual land.

In the distance, several rolling hills shone brilliantly white. Upon closer inspection, they revealed they were constructed from incredibly pure immortal stone.

These were the immortal stone veins David had gathered, along with resources plundered from slain cultivators.

Between the hills, a stream formed from liquid immortal energy meandered. Its banks were filled with thousand-year-old spiritual herbs, ten-thousand-year-old Ganoderma lucidum, and even a few rare Enlightenment Tea trees. Spiritual dew condensed on the leaves dripped, forming tiny vortices of spiritual energy in the air.

Farther away, the nine-story Demon-Suppressing Tower hovered in the void, its runes gleaming, illuminating the entire interior with a luminous glow.

Above the void, the traces of time's passage were visible to the naked eye. While the subtle movements of the spiritual herbs growing were clearly discernible, everything seemed to have sped up several times, an eerie harmony.

"This... what is this place?"

Zi Yuan's voice trembled uncontrollably. She had seen the top-tier mineral veins treasured by the Divine Kingdom's royal family, but compared to this place, the difference was a world of difference.

Especially those immortal stone mountains, the pure spiritual energy emanating from them threatened to swell her meridians, suppressing the toxins in her body at a visible rate.

"This is the interior of the Demon Suppression Tower."

David helped her sit down beneath a tea tree. He pulled a detoxification pill from his storage bag and handed it to her. "Time flows differently inside the tower than outside. One day outside equals a hundred inside. Furthermore, the spiritual energy of these immortal stone veins is pure enough for our recovery."

Zi Yuan swallowed the detoxification pill as instructed. She felt a cool sensation sliding down her throat, blending with the spiritual energy within the tower. It instantly enveloped the toxins in her body, gradually removing them.

She gazed at the Immortal Stone Mountain in the distance, then at David's pale yet resolute face. She felt a mixture of shock and relief.

With such a precious treasure at their disposal, they might have a chance of a comeback.

"Uh..."

Suddenly, Zi Yuan frowned, her expression turning grim. "What's wrong with you?" David asked hurriedly

"I... I..." Ziyuan squeezed her legs together, her expression uneasy.

"What's wrong with you? Did you not completely remove the toxin?"

David asked anxiously.

Ziyuan nodded and said, "The poison entered my lower abdomen, and now it's itchy down there..."

David was stunned when he heard this, and unconsciously glanced at Ziyuan's lower abdomen.

Ziyuan blushed and said through gritted teeth, "Don't worry about me. I'll slowly force the poison out myself and see if I can."

"You're very weak now, there's no way you can force the poison out." David shook his head, then, as if he had made up his mind, said, "Miss Ziyuan, if you can let go, I can help you suck the toxin out..."

"What?" Ziyuan was stunned, her face flushing even more.

"Can I?" David asked!

Ziyuan hesitated for a moment, then nodded!

David didn't hesitate, and immediately stripped Ziyuan's clothes off, leaned over, and began to suck fiercely with his mouth.

Zi Yuan felt as if her body was being hollowed out, as if she were about to float!

After an unknown amount of time, Zi Yuan fainted again, still uttering groans.

David licked his lips, glanced at the unconscious Zi Yuan, and after settling her down, he walked to a fairy stone mountain and sat cross-legged.

He took a deep breath and began to practice the Heart Concentration Technique. In an instant, the spiritual power of the entire fairy stone mountain surged into his body like a tide, flowing madly into his dantian along the meridians.

Unlike the outside world, the spiritual power of the fairy stones in the tower could be absorbed directly without refining. Coupled with the hundredfold increase in the speed of time, the efficiency of cultivation instantly increased by more than a thousand times.

Chapter 5379

Within his dantian, a cyclone began to swirl at high speed, its cyan spiritual energy continuously compressed and condensed, gradually shifting from light cyan to deep blue.

David could clearly feel the barrier on his dantian wall, impeding a breakthrough, being continuously assaulted by the immense spiritual energy. Each impact caused tiny cracks to appear in the barrier.

Time flew by within the tower; while two days in the outside world seemed to pass two hundred days within.

During these two hundred days, Zi Yuan's injuries were completely healed by the combined effects of the detoxification pill and the rich spiritual energy. She even leveraged the spiritual energy within the tower to reach the ninth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, just one step away from breaking through to the Human Immortal Realm.

She often sat beneath the Enlightenment Tea Tree, watching David nearby. Remembering the scene of David sucking her with his mouth, Zi Yuan would unconsciously squeeze her legs together.

At this moment, David was surrounded by a turquoise aura of spiritual energy. From time to time, tiny arcs of lightning flashed within the aura, interplaying with the runes on the tower's body. The Immortal Stone Mountain before him shrank noticeably, evidently having absorbed most of its spiritual energy.

That day, as another surge of spiritual energy poured from the Immortal Stone Mountain into his dantian, David suddenly opened his eyes, a gleam of brilliance in his eyes.

With a low cry, he concentrated all his spiritual energy into a spear of spiritual energy, thrusting it fiercely at the barrier on his dantian's wall.

"Crack!"

A crisp, shattering sound echoed within him, and the barrier that had troubled him for so long was shattered!

Instantly, even more immense spiritual energy from the immortal stone poured in from the outside world, causing the vortex within his dantian to expand rapidly, its color changing from deep turquoise to dark green before finally solidifying into a condensed, almost tangible spiritual core, emitting an aura several times more powerful than before.

Earthly Immortal Realm, Second Stage!

David slowly concluded his practice, feeling the surge of spiritual energy within him and the thunder-attributed spiritual energy coursing through his meridians. A long-lost smile finally appeared on his lips.

He stood up and stretched his arms and legs. The hidden injuries from the poisoning and the forced use of spiritual energy had completely healed. In fact, having absorbed the pure spiritual energy from the immortal stone veins, his foundation was even more solid than before.

“Fellow Daoist David, congratulations on your breakthrough!”

Zi Yuan stepped forward quickly, her face filled with joy. She could clearly sense the aura emanating from David: calm and powerful, a completely different person. Chen

Ping looked at Zi Yuan and smiled faintly. “Miss Zi Yuan, congratulations on your breakthrough too!”

“If it weren’t for your Demon Suppression Tower, I would never have achieved this breakthrough in such a short time. Thank you so much.”

“And... and thank you for detoxifying me...”

Zi Yuan finished, her face flushing red as a monkey’s butt!

“It’s just a small matter. If the toxins in Miss Ziyuan’s body haven’t been completely cleared, I can help you,” David said nonchalantly.

Ziyuan shook her head and said, “Maybe it’s not completely cleared. Lately, I’ve been feeling a tingling sensation, like little bugs crawling around. It’s like the toxins are about to erupt.”

“In that case, I’ll help you suck out all the toxins!” David said, leaning forward.

Ziyuan closed her eyes and allowed David to manipulate her, not resisting at all, simply enjoying it.

After a long moment, David finally stopped, looked at Ziyuan, and asked, “Miss Ziyuan, how are you feeling?”

"Much better," Ziyuan nodded. "Let's get back to the Divine Capital quickly. I'm afraid Liu Kun will harm the King."

"Okay!" David nodded.

With that, he raised his hand to open the tower door and helped Ziyuan out.

After David and the others left, the Demon Suppression Tower instantly shrank and returned to David's hands.

At this time, the sky outside was just getting light. David looked towards the direction of the Divine Capital, his eyes flashing with determination.

The two of them concealed their auras and quickly headed towards the Divine Capital.

Chapter 5380

In the Imperial Palace of the Divine Capital, the Hall of Supreme Harmony was filled with curls of incense, and the atmosphere was solemn.

The three-day deadline had arrived, and Princess Wu Yue was dressed in an intricate red wedding dress, with a seven-tailed phoenix crown on her head, and surrounded by pearls and jade. However, her beautiful face did not show any joy, but only a firmness that was inconsistent with her age. Wu Hao sat upright on the dragon throne, looking at his daughter with complicated eyes.

He stood up and walked down the imperial steps, personally straightening the tassels on the phoenix crown for Wu Yue, his voice low and solemn: "Yu'er, this trip to the Third Hall is nominally for a marriage, but in reality it is to investigate the evidence of collusion between the Third Hall Master and the Evil Way Hall. Your father knows that I have wronged you, but the safety of the Divine Kingdom depends on you, you..."

"Father, I understand."

Wu Yue interrupted Wu Hao, her tone calm but with determination, "In the past, I was ignorant and always wanted to escape the engagement. Now I understand your father's painstaking efforts.

The Evil Dao Palace stole the Thunder Sound Bell and coveted the Demon Soul Seal. If the Third Palace Master really colluded with them, it would be a great disaster for the Sixth Heaven. I must act carefully and live up to your trust."

A trace of relief flashed in Wu Hao's eyes, and he reminded: "Liu Kun will personally escort you to the Third Palace. This person is very cunning. You need to be more cautious about him and don't trust him easily. If something goes wrong, crush this jade talisman immediately, and your father will send troops to support you as soon as possible."

As he said, he stuffed a jade talisman engraved with dragon patterns into Wu Yue's hand.

Wu Yue gripped the jade talisman tightly and nodded emphatically, "My daughter has made a note."

At that moment, a eunuch's voice rang out from outside the hall: "Prime Minister Liu Kun, lead the ceremonial guards, awaiting orders outside—"

Wu Hao took a deep breath and patted his daughter's shoulder: "Go. Remember, safety first, evidence second."

Wu Yue bowed, then turned and followed the guards out of the Hall of Supreme Harmony. Outside the hall, a ceremonial guard of a thousand soldiers from the National Defense Corps had already formed up, their flags fluttering and their armor gleaming. Liu Kun, dressed in purple official robes, stood at the front of the procession.

Upon seeing Wu Yue emerge, a gentle smile spread across his face. "Your Highness, the ceremonial guards are ready, and we're ready to depart." Wu Yue nodded calmly, and without further comment, she, supported by her maid, boarded the already prepared imperial carriage. The carriage was pulled by eight snow-white horses.

The carriage was intricately carved with phoenix designs, and a veil hung around the perimeter, obscuring the view from within. Seeing this, Liu Kun bowed to Wu Hao and said, "Rest assured, Your Majesty.

I will protect the princess and ensure the marriage is a smooth one." Wu Hao examined Liu Kun and said slowly, "Thank you, Prime Minister." He felt something was amiss with Liu Kun's smile today, but he couldn't put his finger on it.

He could only mentally instruct the Secret Service to follow closely and monitor the honor guard's movements. Liu Kun sneered inwardly, but remained respectful on the surface. "It's my duty.

Let's depart!" With a command, the honor guard slowly moved toward the south gate of the Divine Capital. Citizens lined the streets, watching and discussing the situation, mostly speculating about the marriage and worrying about the future of the Divine Kingdom.

Inside the imperial carriage, Wu Yue lifted a corner of her veil and gazed out the window, a flicker of worry in her eyes. She knew the journey would be anything but peaceful. Neither Liu Kun nor the Third Palace Master were good people. She had to proceed with caution to complete the mission entrusted to her by her father.

Meanwhile, Liu Kun rode beside the imperial carriage, seemingly commanding the troops, but in reality, observing his surroundings from the shadows. He had already arranged for his trusted aides to set up an ambush in the “Valley of Broken Souls” outside the Divine Capital.

Once the honor guard entered the valley, they would proceed as planned, “kidnapping” the princess and staging a “bride kidnapping” stunt. Thinking of the sacrificial tome he was about to acquire, and the grand ambitions he would realize after unlocking the seal of the Demonic Soul, Liu Kun’s eyes flickered with greed and madness.
