

A Man Like None Other Novel

Full Read Online Chapter 5476 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5476

“Who are you?” the mace-wielding demon cultivator asked with a frown. “This is our Demon Stone Sect’s territory. No outsiders are allowed!”

David didn’t answer, instead casting his gaze on the knocked-down beast cultivator and the human woman protecting him.

“Are you all right?” David’s voice tinged with concern.

The woman looked up, and the moment she saw David, a flicker of surprise crossed her eyes.

She hadn’t expected anyone to dare to resist the Demon Stone Sect on their territory!

“I... We’re fine. Thank you for your concern, young master,” the woman said hurriedly. “But young master, you’d better leave here quickly! These Demon Stone Sect members are extremely cruel. They won’t let you go!”

“Haha, let me go?” David sneered. “They’re not qualified!”

He cast his gaze upon the demon cultivators.

“You bass, how dare you mistreat cultivators of other races like this? Today, I’ll make you pay!”

“Boy, you’re courting death!”

the demon cultivator holding the mace roared. “How dare you insult our Demon Stone Sect! Today, I’ll show you how powerful we are!”

With that, the demon cultivator charged towards David, smashing his mace with a whistling sound.

Other demon cultivators also surrounded David, eager to demonstrate their prowess in front of the Dharma Protectors.

A disdainful smile curled David’s lips.

Most of these demon cultivators were at the Immortal Transformation Realm, a level considered highly skilled in this world dominated by spiritual power.

But facing David, who was in the Earthly Immortal Realm, they were no match for ants.

David stood motionless, allowing the mace to hit him.

He didn't even dodge, nor did he use any means of defense.

Relying solely on his physical body, he directly withstood the attack of the demon cultivator.

Not only did he withstand it, but the mace in the demon cultivator's hand was instantly shattered when it hit David.

The demon cultivator looked at the shattered mace in his hand, his face filled with shock. "Who... who are you?"

"You don't deserve to know..."

David sneered, then spat at the demon cultivator. "Pah..."

With just that slight spit, the demon cultivator felt a terrifying pressure wash over him. Before he could react, he was vaporized and vanished without a trace.

This scene stunned everyone!

"Who the hell are you? What kind of magic did you use to dare kill someone from our Demon Stone Sect?"

"Everyone, let's attack together and kill him..."

A demon cultivator roared, commanding over a dozen demon cultivators to attack David!

Over a dozen demon cultivators surrounded David, unleashing their full might and charging at him!

"Impatient..."

David snorted, casually waving his hand.

A sudden gust of wind blew over a dozen demon cultivators, blowing them away. While still in mid-air, they vanished into a puff of black smoke.

He couldn't be dead, not even a trace of soul was left.

“How... How is this possible?”

“How can he be so strong?”

The enslaved monks were stunned when they saw this.

They didn't expect that David, who suddenly appeared, would be so powerful!

The demon monk who called on everyone to join in the fight was also stunned. He didn't expect that more than a dozen people would be knocked to the ground without even touching the corner of David's clothes.

“You... Who are you?” The demon monk asked tremblingly.

David did not answer, but walked towards him step by step.

“Tell me, why did you enslave these monks? Why did you refine spirit stones into immortal stones?” David asked coldly.

Full Read Online Chapter 5477 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5477

“I... I don't know. I'm just watching over these people.”

The demon cultivator trembled with fear and shook his head.

“My benefactor, he won't know what you're asking about. Only the higher-ups of the Demon Stone Sect would know. He's just a small-time henchman.”

At this moment, a middle-aged cultivator in a gray cloth shirt approached and said.

“Oh!” David said, and with a casual wave of his hand, the demon cultivator didn't even have time to scream before he vanished into a puff of black smoke.

“My benefactor, thank you for your help.”

The middle-aged cultivator bowed deeply to David, his face filled with gratitude.

David waved his hand, his gaze sweeping over the surrounding cultivators, whose faces were still etched with fear. He said in a deep voice, “Fellow Daoist, I have a few questions for you.”

"Please ask, benefactor, I will tell you everything I know," the middle-aged cultivator said quickly.

"What kind of world is this? Why are so many human and beast cultivators enslaved by the demons to mine spiritual stones?" David asked.

The middle-aged cultivator sighed, a look of pain on his face. "This is the Yuande Realm, a world primarily devoted to spiritual cultivation.

Originally, our Yuande Realm consisted of three races: humans, beasts, and demons. Although we occasionally fought for resources, there was a certain balance, and a certain give and take."

"Then why did it become like this?" David demanded.

"It all started a hundred years ago."

A trace of fear flashed in the middle-aged monk's eyes. "A hundred years ago, a celestial being suddenly descended upon our Yuande Realm. That celestial being was extremely powerful, and could destroy the heavens and the earth with a single wave of his hand. He chose to help the demons and suppressed the resistance of our human and beast races with thundering means."

"Since then, the demons have begun to enslave us to mine spirit stones, and then use the methods taught by that celestial being to refine the spirit stones into immortal stones."

said bitterly, "That immortal seemed desperate for immortal stones, so he ordered the demons to establish countless such mining sites throughout the Yuande Realm."

"Why didn't you resist?" David asked doubtfully. "Is there no one in the entire Yuande Realm capable of resisting the demons?"

The middle-aged cultivator gave a wry laugh. "Resist? Of course we didn't. But that celestial immortal was too powerful. Even the strongest ancestors of our Yuande Realm were no match for him, and he slew them all. Since then, we've lost the power to resist."

Moreover, the demons have planted a restriction on us. If we even think of resisting, we'll suffer the pain of a thousand ants gnawing at our hearts."

The middle-aged cultivator said, lifting his sleeve to reveal a black rune on his arm. "Look, this is the slave mark planted by the demons."

David looked at the black rune, his eyes flashing with a cold light.

He could sense the evil aura emanating from the rune; it was a vicious restriction capable of controlling a person's mind.

"So you're just going to let them enslave you?" David asked in a deep voice.

"What can we do?"

the middle-aged cultivator said helplessly. "Resistance means death. Not resisting at least allows us to linger. Besides, the demons are threatening us, saying they'll exterminate our people if we don't obey."

"What's the realm of that celestial immortal?" David asked.

"I don't know." The middle-aged cultivator shook his head. "In the entire Yuande Realm, no one can withstand a single blow from him."

David pondered for a moment, then continued, "So, where is that immortal now?"

David wanted to meet this celestial immortal, especially to learn about his technique for refining spirit stones into immortal stones.

"That immortal only occasionally appears at the Demon Stone Sect's headquarters, and whenever he does, he takes away a large amount of immortal stones. Normally, the Demon Stone Sect's leader is in charge of managing our mining operations."

"I don't know where that immortal is now," the middle-aged cultivator said.

Full Read Online Chapter 5478 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5478

"How strong is the Demon Stone Sect's leader?" David asked.

"Very strong," the middle-aged cultivator said solemnly. "It's said that the Demon Stone Sect's leader has reached the peak of the Transformation Realm, and is only one step away from reaching the Celestial Realm. He also possesses some immortal arts taught by that immortal, and his strength is unfathomable."

Hearing the peak of the Transformation Realm, David wanted to laugh. In his eyes, this realm was even inferior to a dog in the Sixth Heaven Layer.

"Fellow Daoist, find a safe place to hide first. Once I destroy the Demon Stone Sect, you will be free,"

David said to the middle-aged cultivator.

But the middle-aged cultivator shook his head and said, "We can't leave this place. As soon as we leave this area, the restrictions on us will activate, making our lives worse than death."

David smiled faintly and said, "That's hard to say. I can help you remove the restrictions."

"My benefactor, this restriction was passed down to the Demon Stone Sect by an immortal from the celestial realm. It's not something that can be easily removed," the middle-aged cultivator said.

David said nothing, simply smiled faintly, and casually brushed the middle-aged cultivator's arm

. The restriction runes on his arm instantly vanished. As the middle-aged cultivator was stunned, David muttered something, and runes appeared out of thin air, then entered the bodies of all the cultivators.

The restrictions on these cultivators were completely eliminated.

Seeing David's awesomeness, everyone fell to their knees and kowtowed desperately.

David simply lifted his palm, and all the cultivators felt an irresistible force, and they stood up.

These people looked at David excitedly, their eyes filled with excitement and envy.

"Is this the power of an immortal?"

Everyone's eyes gleamed.

.....

Deep within the Demon Stone Sect's main altar, in a luxurious hall.

Demon Stone Sect Master Mo Tianxiong was sitting cross-legged on a huge black magic crystal, cultivating. Suddenly, he opened his eyes, a look of surprise and doubt flashing across his eyes.

"Hmm? What's going on?"

Mo Tianxiong frowned. He felt as if all the restrictions he'd placed on the slaves at the quarry had vanished! How could this be possible?

Those restrictions had been personally imparted to him by the Celestial Immortal. Even if he'd tried to remove them himself, it would have required immense effort, and he'd have had to do them one by one.

Now, all of them had vanished simultaneously?

"Could it be that the Immortal was angry?" Mo Tianxiong's heart tightened.

He frantically tried to contact the person in charge of the quarry, but was unable to reach them.

"Not good!"

Mo Tianxiong's face darkened. "Something must be wrong at the quarry!"

He immediately stood up and shouted outside the hall, "Someone!"

An elderly man in a black robe hurried into the hall and respectfully said, "Master, what are your instructions?"

This elder was the Great Elder of the Moshi Sect, Mo Xuanzi. His power was second only to that of the Sect Master, Mo Tianxiong, having reached the ninth level of the Transformation Realm.

"Xuan Zi, take your men to Quarry No. 7 immediately to check the situation."

Mo Tianxiong said in a deep voice, "All the restrictions there suddenly disappeared, and I can't contact the people in charge there."

"What?"

Mo Xuanzi's face changed, "All the restrictions disappeared? How is this possible? Did the slaves rebel?"

"Unlikely." Mo Tianxiong shook his head, "The restrictions on those slaves are extremely vicious. Unless there are masters to help, they will never be able to remove them on their own. And even if they remove the restrictions, they can't be our opponents."

"Who could have done it?" Mo Xuanzi asked doubtfully.

A trace of solemnity flashed in Mo Tianxiong's eyes: "I suspect that someone may have broken into our Yuande Realm, and they are quite powerful. Take the elites of the law enforcement team to take a look and make sure to find out what happened. If you encounter a strong enemy, don't fight hard, come back and report immediately."

Full Read Online Chapter 5479 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5479

"Yes!" Mo Xuanzi replied respectfully.

"Wait." Mo Tianxiong stopped him. "Take this."

Mo Tianxiong pulled a black token from his storage ring and handed it to Mo Xuanzi. "This is a communication token. If you encounter any unsolvable trouble, crush it immediately and I'll rush over as soon as possible."

"Thank you, Sect Master." Mo Xuanzi took the token and carefully put it away.

Then, Mo Xuanzi immediately summoned the twenty elite disciples of the law enforcement team. These disciples were all at the middle stage of the Immortal Realm and above, and they were the backbone of the Moshi Sect.

"Everyone, listen up! There's something unusual happening at Quarry No. 7. We're going to investigate immediately!"

Mo Xuanzi said in a deep voice. "Remember, anyone suspicious will be killed without mercy!"

"Yes!" the disciples of the law enforcement team responded in unison.

A mighty group of people flew towards Quarry No. 7, so fast they vanished into the sky in the blink of an eye.

Meanwhile, inside Quarry No. 7,

David stood in the center of the canyon, gazing at the newly liberated monks.

"Benefactor, thank you so much!"

the middle-aged monk said excitedly. "If it weren't for your help, we would have suffered here forever."

The other monks also thanked David, their eyes filled with gratitude.

“No need to be so polite,” David waved his hand. “I simply cannot bear the actions of those demon monks.”

“Benefactor, we will never forget your kindness!” the middle-aged monk said solemnly.

David smiled slightly and then asked, “By the way, I don’t know your name yet.”

“My surname is Li, my given name is Qingshan, and I used to be an elder in the Human Alliance,” the middle-aged monk said.

“Li Qingshan?” David nodded. “What a nice name. By the way, do you know where the Demon Stone Sect’s headquarters is?”

“I know,” Li Qingshan said quickly. ” The Demon Stone Sect’s headquarters is a thousand miles away, atop Demon Cloud Peak. However, it’s heavily guarded, and there are restrictions placed there by that celestial immortal, making it impossible for ordinary people to enter.”

“Restrictions?”

David’s eyes flashed with disdain. “In my eyes, any restrictions are just for show.”

Just then, a sudden sound of breaking air could be heard from the sky.

“Oh no! The Demon Stone Sect is coming!” Li Qingshan’s face changed, and he spoke nervously.

The other cultivators also looked up, seeing a group of black dots in the distant sky, rapidly approaching.

“It seems the noise I made lifting the restrictions was too loud, and it alerted them.”

David smiled faintly. “That’s good, it saves me from having to go look for them.”

“My benefactor, they’ve arrived in large numbers, led by the Demon Stone Sect’s Great Elder, Mo Xuanzi, who is extremely powerful!” Li Qingshan said worriedly.

“Mo Xuanzi?” David’s lips curled into a sneer. “With a ninth-grade Transformation Realm cultivation, you’re certainly considered a master in this world. But it’s no match for me.”

Mo Xuanzi and his law enforcement team quickly flew over the quarry.

When they saw the scene inside, they were all stunned.

The cultivators who were supposed to be enslaved were standing there, while the demon cultivators in charge of guarding the quarry were nowhere to be seen.

“What...what’s going on?” Mo Xuanzi frowned, a flicker of doubt in his eyes.

His gaze quickly fell on David, the only person he didn’t recognize.

“Who are you? Why are you here?”

Mo Xuanzi demanded coldly, unleashing a powerful aura, attempting to intimidate David.

However, David remained motionless under the pressure of Mo Xuanzi’s aura, as if he felt nothing.

Full Read Online Chapter 5480 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5480

“It doesn’t matter who I am,”

David said calmly. “What matters is that, from today on, the cultivators here are free.”

“How dare you!”

Mo Xuanzi roared, “Do you know where this place is? This is the territory of our Moshi Sect! How dare you act so presumptuously here? You’re courting death!”

“Could you?”

David sneered. “With you worthless people?”

“You... You’re so arrogant!”

Mo Xuanzi chuckled in anger. “It seems you won’t know your place unless I teach you a lesson!”

With that, he was about to strike.

“Wait!”

David suddenly said. “Before I do anything, I have a few questions for you.”

“What are you qualified to ask me?” Mo Xuanzi said with disdain.

“With me, I can kill everyone here,” David said calmly, his tone brimming with confidence.

Mo Xuanzi’s face changed, sensing a dangerous aura from David.

“Who are you?” Mo Xuanzi asked again, his tone more serious.

“My name is David,”

David said. “I want to ask you, who is that immortal from the heavens? Why did he ask you to refine spirit stones into immortal stones?”

Upon hearing David’s words, Mo Xuanzi’s face changed drastically. “How... how did you know about that immortal?”

“It seems I was right.” David smiled faintly. “Can you answer my question now?”

A hint of hesitation flashed in Mo Xuanzi’s eyes. He wasn’t sure whether he should tell David these secrets.

“Why? You don’t dare to say it?”

David sneered. “Or are you afraid that the immortal will kill you if you tell?”

Mo Xuanzi’s expression darkened even further; he was genuinely afraid of the immortal.

“I advise you to answer my questions obediently, or you’ll face the consequences.” David’s tone grew icy.

At this moment, a disciple from the law enforcement team couldn’t help but speak: “Great Elder, why waste time talking to him? Just kill him!” With that, the disciple rushed towards David, his demonic blade slashing down with a whistling sound.

“You’re asking for your own death!” David snorted coldly and swung his hand casually.

The disciple felt a powerful force surge against him. Before he could react, he was sent flying, landing heavily on the ground, his life or death uncertain.

This scene stunned everyone; they hadn’t expected David to be so powerful!

“You... What realm are you in?”

Mo Xuanzi asked tremblingly, sensing a palpable aura from David.

“My realm isn’t important. What’s important is that you now have two choices: answer my questions or die,”

David said calmly.

Mo Xuanzi’s face turned pale, knowing he had faced an unprecedentedly powerful foe.

“Alright, I’ll answer your question

,” he gritted his teeth. “That immortal claimed to be the Yunmiao Immortal Venerable of the Celestial Realm. As for why he asked us to refine spirit stones into immortal stones, I don’t know. He simply ordered us to do so and then came to collect the immortal stones regularly.”

“Yunmiao Immortal Venerable?” David frowned. He had never heard of that name.

Furthermore, David had noticed that when cultivators from the Celestial Realm descended into the lower realms, they liked to be called Immortal Venerables, Demon Lords, and the like. It sounded impressive, but their true strength was merely so-so.

Just as David was thinking this, the voice of the Red Cloud Demon Lord echoed in his mind.

“Boy, who are you messing with?”

the Red Cloud Demon Lord said with some displeasure.

David was stunned, then he remembered that Demon Lord Chiyun seemed to be the same kind of boaster, and quickly apologized: “Senior, I was just thinking about it randomly, and I didn’t mean anything else.”

“I know you think it’s all bragging, but you have to know that when you go out, your identity is given by yourself, especially in this low-level world, it is very important to give yourself a cool title.” Demon Lord Chiyun said!