

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 5521

"What...what kind of power is this?" a guard cried in horror.

The princess' eyes widened, a look of disbelief on her face.

He hadn't expected David to be so powerful. A single threat from him had deprived his carefully trained guards of their fighting spirit.Chen

Ping stepped toward the princess, the ground seeming to tremble with every step.

The princess stared at David in horror, her body involuntarily stepping back.

"You...you don't come over here! I...I have the support of the Temple. If you dare to touch me, the Temple will not let you go!" the princess stammered.

David sneered, saying, "The Temple? I'm just about to settle accounts with the Temple! You've colluded with the Sixth Palace and committed countless evil deeds. Today is your death!"

"Who...who are you?" the princess asked in horror.

The entire Seventh Heaven had never seen anyone so brazen as to declare themselves against the Divine Temple.

The princess couldn't understand how David could dare to say such a thing.

"Who I am doesn't matter," David said coldly. "What matters is whether you're willing to tell us the Sixth Palace's location."

The princess hesitated, then said, "I... I don't know where the Sixth Palace is. I'm simply following its instructions."

"You don't know?" A murderous glint flashed in David's eyes. "It seems you're refusing to accept my offer."

With that, he approached the princess.

Seeing this, the princess hurriedly called out, "Wait! I'll tell you! I'll tell you!"

He knew that if he didn't speak, his life would be in real danger.

David stopped and looked at him coldly.

The princess took a deep breath and said, "The location of the Sixth Palace is... on a mountain deep in the wilderness. I'm not sure of its exact location, I just know the approximate direction."

"The approximate direction?"

A hint of displeasure flashed in David's eyes. "You'd better think it over before answering, otherwise you'll bear the consequences."

The princess quickly said, "I really don't know the exact location. I just know that the Sixth Palace is in the northwest of the wilderness. There is a huge mountain there, and the Sixth Palace is deep in the mountain."

David thought for a moment, then said, "Okay, I'll believe you this time."

With that, he turned and headed out of the hall.

Lin Yuner was stunned by this. She didn't understand why David didn't kill the princess.

But since David wouldn't attack, she had no choice but to follow him. With her strength, she couldn't kill the princess.

Just as they were about to leave the hall, the princess suddenly shot a beam of light towards them.

Like a venomous snake, it hurtled straight towards David's back.

"Be careful!" Lin Yuner shouted.

David, unfazed, simply waved his hand, deflecting the princess's attack.

"How dare you sneak attack me?" David asked coldly.

With that, he turned and walked towards the princess.

The princess's face paled instantly, realizing she had thoroughly angered David.

"Mercy! Please, spare me!" The princess quickly knelt and begged for mercy.

But David remained unmoved. He walked up to the princess and said, "A scum like you who colluded with the temple and harmed your own people does not deserve to live in this world."

After that, he slapped the princess's head with one palm.

The princess fell to the ground without even having time to scream, and her life was completely cut off.

Seeing that the princess was dead, Lin Yuner couldn't help but frown.

Because of her father's soul, she hadn't asked the princess whether it could be found again.

"It seems that only the Sixth Palace can know whether your father's soul can be found. Your princess is just a puppet."

Seeing Lin Yuner's expression, David explained.

Lin Yuner nodded, and then said, "Are you going to the Sixth Palace or not? I will go with you..."

"We are not going to the Sixth Palace yet. We have to stay in Dongxiang County for two days to take care of our physiological needs."

Hu Mazi said hurriedly.
