Chapter 5526

Hu Mazi wasn't to be outdone. He pulled out several talismans, which shimmered with a mysterious light in his hands. He muttered something and threw them toward the monks still lying on the stone platform.

The talismans transformed into streaks of golden light in the air, streaking like meteors and landing on the monks, instantly dispelling the evil spells from them.

"Thank you, senior, for saving my life!" After regaining consciousness, the monks kowtowed to Hu Mazi, their eyes filled with gratitude.

Hu Mazi waved his hand and said nonchalantly, "No need to thank us. Just leave now. This place will soon become a battlefield. My brother's wrath is more than these people can bear."

The monks did not dare to neglect and quickly stood up and fled the hall, as if they were being chased by evil spirits.

At this moment, heavy footsteps were heard from the back of the hall, as if the god of death was approaching.

A man in a golden robe walked out. His face was sinister and his eyes were full of murderous intent, like a poisonous snake hiding in the darkness. It was the Sixth Palace Master Jin Fu.

"David, you are finally here? I didn't expect you to find my palace so quickly. How dare you two break into my Sixth Palace and disrupt my rituals!"

Jin Fu shouted sternly, his voice echoing in the hall with an inviolable majesty.

Although Jin Fu was a little panicked at the moment, he couldn't show it.

David looked at the Sixth Palace Master indifferently, as if he was looking at a dead person, and said slowly: "Look at your guilty look. Are you scared to death now?"

Why are you pretending to be so powerful? Kneel down and call me grandpa now, and maybe I can let you die quickly." When Jin Fu heard this, his face became gloomy, and his eyes were cold and he said: "Just you? You want to kill me? You are really overestimating yourself! The temple is above me, and the Fifth Palace Master will be here soon. I think it's you who will die."

Hu Mazi said disdainfully, "Is the Temple so great? Let me tell you, in front of David, the God King of your Temple isn't even worthy of carrying his shoes! David's current strength is beyond your imagination."

Upon hearing this, David quickly glanced at Hu Mazi and coughed, "Master Hu, that's enough. Don't exaggerate..."

David still had the nerve to oppose the God King, and it was impossible for David to oppose the entire Temple. After all, the Fourth Palace Master had actually helped him.

"I was just trying to scare him. Didn't you see that the Sixth Palace Master was almost pissing himself!"

Hu Mazi grinned.

Hearing Hu Mazi's words, Sixth Palace Master Jin Fu's face darkened, as if he had swallowed a fly. He roared, "How dare you insult me? Today, I'll show you how powerful I am!"

Then, Jin Fu unleashed a powerful aura that surged toward David and Hu Mazi like a surging tide, compressing the air until it sizzled wherever it passed.

Hu Mazi's face darkened, and he quickly channeled his inner immortal energy to resist. A faint shield of immortal energy formed around him, but the powerful aura still cracked the shield.

David remained motionless. He simply stared at Jin Fu coldly, his gaze seemingly freezing everything. He then declared, "Your cultivation is indeed remarkable, but unfortunately, you met me. In front of me, you are nothing but trash."

As soon as he finished speaking, David unleashed an aura even more powerful than Jin Fu's, pressing down on him like a mountain.

Jin Fu only felt an irresistible force coming towards him, his body seemed to be pressed down by a mountain, and his legs bent involuntarily.

Chapter 5527

Jin Fu's face instantly turned pale. He stared at David in horror, his eyes filled with disbelief. "You... your cultivation has actually increased again? Impossible! How could you possibly have such a high level of cultivation?"

David replied with disdain, "Nothing is impossible. People like you who rely on sorcery to improve their cultivation have no idea what true strength is. The truly powerful reach the pinnacle step by step through hard work and talent, not through these devious methods."

With that, David rushed towards Jin Fu, his speed as swift as a flash of lightning across the night sky.

Jin Fu didn't dare to delay and quickly channeled his inner spiritual energy, preparing to engage. However, the disparity in strength between the two was too great, and Jin Fu was powerless against David.

David struck Jin Fu's chest with a powerful blow, seemingly capable of piercing anything.

Jin Fu spat out a mouthful of blood, his body flying backward like a kite with its string cut, landing heavily on the ground, leaving a large crater.

"Puff!"

Jin Fu spat out a mouthful of blood. He struggled to stand, but found himself unable to move, his legs feeling as heavy as lead.

"You..." Jin Fu asked in horror, his eyes filled with despair.

David looked at the Sixth Palace Master indifferently and said, "I'll let you die more quickly."

With that, David prepared to strike Jin Fu to death with a palm strike.

Just then, hurried footsteps could be heard outside the hall, and a middle-aged man in a robe entered.

His face was stern, his eyes filled with murderous intent, like a sword unsheathed. It was the Fifth Palace Master.

"Jin Fu, how are you?"

the Fifth Palace Master asked, his voice tinged with anxiety.

When Jin Fu saw the Fifth Palace Master, a glimmer of hope appeared on his face, as if he had grabbed the last straw. He hurriedly shouted, "Fifth Palace Master, you are finally here! Quickly... quickly kill them, they destroyed my ceremony and hurt me!"

The Fifth Palace Master's gaze fell on David and Hu Mazi. That gaze was like two sharp daggers, as if he wanted to see through them, and then he said, "Are you the one who destroyed the soul urn and killed the monks of my temple?"

David glanced at the Fifth Palace Master and said with disdain, "Yes, it was me. If you don't want to die, then get out of here!"

The Fifth Palace Master laughed, and that laughter was full of arrogance and conceit, and said, "How ridiculous! You want to kill me?"

The Fifth Palace Master's laughter echoed in the hall, and that laughter was full of arrogance and conceit, as if David was just an ant in his eyes.

David's face was stern, a fierce murderous intent flashing in his eyes. With a flick of his right hand, the Dragon Slaying Sword appeared.

Mysterious runes swirled across the blade, and a faint dragon's roar emanated. After the sword spirit Zhongli recovered from his injuries, the Dragon Slaying Sword's power increased significantly.

"I alone am enough to kill you here today!"

David declared coldly, his voice as chilling as the wind, echoing through the hall.

The Fifth Palace Master's face darkened. He quickly formed hand seals with his hands, muttering something. Instantly, a powerful immortal energy surged from his body, forming a transparent immortal shield in front of him.

The shield shimmered with multicolored light and exuded a powerful aura, seemingly capable of withstanding any attack.

"Hmph, a mere shield, how long can it hold me back!"

David shouted, tapping the ground with his toes and charging towards the Fifth Palace Master like an arrow from a bow.

He raised the Dragon Slaying Sword high in his hand, its blade ablaze with light, and a sharp sword energy slashed towards the Fifth Palace Master like a streak of silk.

Wherever the sword energy passed, the air was torn apart, making a sharp whistling sound.

Chapter 5528

The Fifth Palace Master's eyes fixed, and he thrust his hands forward. The celestial shield before him instantly expanded, charging towards the sword energy.

The sword energy and the shield collided with a deafening roar, sending a powerful shockwave radiating outward from the point of collision.

The oil lamps in the main hall were shaken by the shockwave, their green light flickering as if on the verge of extinguishing at any moment.

David dodged the shockwave and charged towards the Fifth Palace Master once more.

His Dragon Slaying Sword pierced out like a snake, aiming for the Fifth Palace Master's throat.

The Fifth Palace Master reacted with remarkable speed, dodging to the side and simultaneously clenching his right fist, striking David in the chest.

The fist was enveloped in immortal energy, emanating a powerful force that seemed capable of shattering a mountain.

David quickly retracted his Dragon Slaying Sword and held it horizontally before him to block the blow.

With a dull thud, the Fifth Palace Master's fist slammed into the Dragon Slaying Sword. A tremendous force coursed through the blade, numbing David's arm.

But he didn't flinch. Instead, he used the force to flip backward, creating distance between him and the Fifth Palace Master.

"I didn't expect you to have some skill, but today, you'll still die!"

the Fifth Palace Master declared coldly, his eyes filled with murderous intent, as if he were determined to devour David alive.

David's lips curled slightly in a sneer of disdain. "You alone? You're far from enough!"

With that, he unleashed his acrobatic skills once again, charging towards the Fifth Palace Master.

This time, his speed was even faster, his form elusive and ghostly, making him difficult to grasp.

The Fifth Palace Master frowned, waving his hands rapidly, sending streams of immortal energy shooting towards David like sharp arrows.

Those immortal arrows flashed with a cold light, carrying powerful penetrating power, as if they could pierce anything.

David moved freely among the immortal arrows, waving the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand continuously, cutting off the immortal arrows one by one.

“Liuyun Sword Technique, First Form – Dragon Breaking the Nine Heavens!”

David shouted, raising the Dragon Slaying Sword high in his hand. A massive sword shadow appeared above him.

The sword shadow, like a giant dragon, exuded a powerful aura that seemed capable of rending the heavens. At David’s command, the sword shadow slashed towards the Fifth Hall Master like lightning.

The sword techniques David had learned from the Sword Sect were now incredibly profound!

The Fifth Hall Master’s face changed drastically. He hurriedly channeled all the immortal energy within him, forming an even thicker immortal energy shield before him.

Simultaneously, he formed hand seals and summoned a massive immortal sword. The sword, radiating a multicolored light, collided with the sword shadow.

“Boom!”

With a resounding roar, the entire hall shook violently, as if on the verge of collapse.

The shockwaves generated by the collision of the sword shadow and the immortal sword spread like a hurricane, sweeping across the hall’s stone platforms, runes, and other objects.

The Fifth Palace Master felt a surge of immense power, his body involuntarily falling back, his feet carving deep grooves in the ground.

“What a powerful sword technique!”

the Fifth Palace Master exclaimed in astonishment. He hadn't expected David to be able to perform such a powerful technique.

Undeterred, he steadied himself and charged at David once more. He swung his immortal sword continuously, sending streams of sharp sword energy raining down upon David.

David's eyes focused, and he swiftly swung his Dragon Slaying Sword, creating a curtain of swords that blocked the incoming energy.

Seizing the perfect moment, he flashed and approached the Fifth Palace Master.

When he was only a few steps away, he thrust the Dragon Slaying Sword with lightning speed, aiming for the Fifth Palace Master's heart.

The Fifth Palace Master reacted with incredible speed, dodging to the side and simultaneously forming a palm with his left hand, striking David's chest."

Chapter 5529

David quickly retracted his Dragon Slaying Sword and blocked the attack.

With a muffled "bang," their palms collided, sending a powerful force surging through their arms, shaking their bodies slightly.

"Liuyun Sword Technique, Second Form—Dragon Soaring Across the Seas!" David shouted again, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand transformed into a massive dragon, charging towards the Fifth Palace Master.

The dragon emanated a powerful aura, igniting the air wherever it passed, emitting a fiery glow.

The Fifth Palace Master's expression was solemn. He quickly formed seals with his hands, summoning a massive immortal mountain. The mountain emanated a multicolored light and charged towards the dragon.

The dragon and the mountain collided with a deafening roar, sending another powerful shockwave sweeping across the sky.

The ground in the hall cracked from the shockwave, cracks spreading like spiderwebs.

The Fifth Palace Master felt a surge of immense force, and he was thrown back again, spitting blood.

David was also impacted, his body swaying slightly, but he wasn't seriously injured.

"I didn't expect you to possess such formidable swordsmanship, but you still can't defeat me today!"

The Fifth Palace Master wiped the blood from his mouth and said coldly.

His eyes were filled with madness, as if he was determined to fight David to the death with his last ounce of strength.

David's face was stern, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand shone brightly, as if sensing his master's fighting spirit.

"Let's see who falls first today!"

With that, he unleashed his skills once again, charging towards the Fifth Palace Master.

This time, his speed was faster, his power was greater, and he seemed determined to defeat the Fifth Palace Master once and for all.

The Fifth Palace Master didn't flinch either. He swung his hands swiftly, and powerful magical arts rained down upon David like a torrential rain.

David weaved through the magic arts, wielding the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand, breaking through them one by one. When the two approached again, they engaged in close combat.

David's swordsmanship was extremely sharp, and each move contained powerful force, as if it could split mountains and crack rocks.

The Fifth Palace

Master's punches were fierce and powerful, each one imbued with a powerful celestial energy that seemed capable of shattering a mountain.

The two clashed fiercely in the main hall, sword and fist shadows intertwining in a dazzling display.

The entire Sixth Palace began to crumble amidst the clash, even the mountain itself seemed to be crumbling.

Sixth Palace Master Jin Fu, dragging his injured body, fled, escorted by his men.

Hu Mazi also stayed away, fearing he would be caught in the crossfire.

The two fought desperately, unleashing immense energy.

With Hu Mazi's current strength, he would likely be annihilated if caught in the crossfire.

“Liuyun Sword Technique, Third Form—Dragon Riding the Sky!”

David shouted, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand erupted in dazzling light. A massive sword shadow soared into the sky, seemingly piercing the very heavens.

With immense force, the sword shadow slashed towards the Fifth Palace Master.

The Fifth Palace Master's face turned pale as he felt the immense force of the sword shadow.

However, he did not flinch. Instead, he mobilized all the immortal energy in his body, forming a huge vortex of immortal energy in front of him.

The immortal energy vortex continued to spin, emitting a powerful suction force, as if it wanted to suck everything in.

The sword shadow and the immortal energy vortex collided with each other, making a deafening noise.

A powerful shock wave swept across like a hurricane, blowing everything in the hall to pieces.

The Fifth Palace Master only felt a huge force coming, and his body retreated again, spitting out blood from his mouth again.

David was also affected to a certain extent, and his body shook slightly, but he did not fall down.

He saw the opportunity, flashed, and rushed towards the Fifth Palace Master.

Chapter 5530

When he was only one step away from the Fifth Palace Master, the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand shot out like lightning, aiming straight for the Fifth Palace Master's throat.

The Fifth Palace Master's eyes widened. He hadn't expected David to be able to attack despite such a powerful impact.

He quickly dodged to the side, but it was too late.

David's Dragon Slaying Sword pierced his shoulder, sending a stream of blood gushing out.

"Ah!"

The Fifth Palace Master let out a scream, his body retreating backward.

David seized the opportunity to pursue him, swinging the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand continuously, sending streams of sharp sword energy shooting towards the Fifth Palace Master.

The Fifth Palace Master quickly mobilized the immortal energy in his body to resist, but his immortal energy had been almost depleted, and he was unable to completely resist these sword energies.

A sword energy pierced his arm, and another sword energy slashed across his cheek, leaving a deep wound.

The Fifth Palace Lord's body was shaky, and he knew that he was no match for David.

"You are cruel today, but our temple will not let you go!"

The Fifth Palace Lord said with gritted teeth, his eyes full of resentment. After that, he turned and fled out of the hall.

David watched the Fifth Palace Lord's fleeing back and did not chase him.

He knew that although he defeated the Fifth Palace Lord today, the power of the Third Palace Lord of the Temple was huge, and there would be more trouble in the future.

However, David was not afraid. He believed that as long as he continued to improve his strength, he would be able to defeat all enemies.

"David, are you okay?"

Hu Mazi hurried over and asked with concern.

David shook his head and said, "I'm fine, this little injury is nothing. Let's go after the Sixth Palace Lord."

"Alright!" Hu Mazi nodded.

David and Hu Mazi sped in the direction Sixth Palace Master Jin Fu had fled. Their figures darted through the forest at breakneck speed, like two bolts of lightning streaking through the night sky.

Soon, they spotted the frantic Sixth Palace Master Jin Fu and his loyal, yet visibly panicked, subordinates fleeing in front of them.

David's eyes glared, and he shouted, "Stop!"

His voice resonated like a bell, carrying an irresistible authority.

The Sixth Palace Master's subordinates trembled with fear at the shout.

Turning to see David's murderous expression, they instantly felt a surge of fear.

One of them trembled, "Palace Master, this... this man is too powerful. We're no match for him. Let's run!"

Without waiting for a response from Sixth Palace Master Jin Fu, he turned and bolted towards the dense forest nearby. Seeing this, the other men followed suit, instantly abandoning the Sixth Lord and disappearing into the dense forest.

Sixth Lord Jin Fu watched his men abandon him, filled with shock and anger. He shouted at the top of his lungs, "You useless creatures, come back!"

However, the only response was his shouts echoing through the forest and the sound of his men's retreating footsteps.

David and Hu Mazi quickly caught up to Sixth Lord Jin Fu and surrounded him.

Seeing David's murderous eyes, Sixth Lord Jin Fu's legs gave way, and he nearly collapsed to the ground.

He forced himself to hold on, forcing a smile uglier than crying, and said, "Chen... David, you... don't be impulsive. Let's talk it out."

David looked at him coldly, his eyes filled with disdain and murderous intent, and said, "Sixth Palace Master, you escaped so quickly just now. Why aren't you running away now?"

Sixth Palace Master Jin Fu quickly waved his hands and said, "David, I... I know I was wrong. I'm willing to give up all my immortal stones, just ask you to spare my life."

"These immortal stones were all destined for the Third Palace, and everything I did to you was ordered by the Third Palace Master. I was just following orders."
