

A Man Like None Other Novel

Full Read Online Chapter 5586 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5586

“Who do you think you are, daring to humiliate our Evil Path Hall?” Prince Wu roared. *

Whoosh! Before Prince Wu could finish speaking, his head snapped off, blood gushing from his neck!

This scene stunned everyone.

They hadn’t even noticed Wan Jianxing’s attack; he hadn’t made a move, yet Prince Wu’s head had been severed.

“Prince...”

the Grand Elder cried in shock!

The others were equally dumbfounded, completely bewildered as to how Prince Wu’s head had been severed!

“You dare kill the prince of our Evil Path Hall?”

The Grand Elder glared angrily at Wan Jianxing, but now he was extremely cautious.

“I’m not just going to kill your prince.”

“None of you here will survive!”

Wan Jianxing finished speaking and suddenly drew his sword!

Whoosh!

In an instant, the heads of tens of thousands of demonic cultivators summoned by the Grand Elder all flew into the sky.

Countless pillars of blood shot upwards.

The Third Palace Master and his men were dumbfounded.

Everyone’s heads had been severed, leaving only the cultivators of their three palaces.

David was also shocked. The power and awe of slaying tens of thousands of cultivators with a single sword strike were something David had never experienced before.

But the feeling was definitely exhilarating.

At this moment, David could already understand the exhilaration Wan Jianxing felt—that exhilarating feeling of showing off. The Grand Elder, gazing at the vast mass of corpses behind him, began to tremble slightly. Clearly, the opponent was very strong, extremely strong .

Even with such strength, the Grand Elder wasn't overly afraid, but the other party's bloodthirsty killing intent chilled him to the bone.

Slaughtering tens of thousands of cultivators with a single sword strike—this was outrageous!

Moreover, this strike was a complete annihilation; not a single soul escaped, meaning these tens of thousands of cultivators could never be resurrected!

These people, capable of operating in the Eighth Heaven, were no ordinary individuals; clearly, the person before him was not from the Eighth Heaven, but a cultivator from a higher world.

"Fellow Daoist, what Heaven are you from? Our Evil Path Hall isn't just in the Eighth Heaven; we also have people in the Twelfth Heaven," the Grand Elder could only use the Evil Path Hall's name to intimidate Wan Jianxing.

"So what if I'm in the Twelfth Heaven?" Wan Jianxing said expressionlessly.

The Grand Elder was taken aback, his brows furrowing. "You look down on cultivators in the Twelfth Heaven?"

"Trash..." Wan Jianxing only uttered two words.

"Fine, since you put it that way, then I have no choice but to fight you to the death."

With that, the Grand Elder pulled out a black token, activated it, and it transformed into a beam of black light that shot into the sky.

"Stop him! He's definitely calling for reinforcements..."

Ling Xi knew the Grand Elder was calling for help. If he really summoned cultivators from the twelfth heaven, none of them would survive.

Facing cultivators from the twelfth heaven, they probably wouldn't even have the ability to glance at them; a single breath from them could take their lives.

Upon hearing this, David couldn't help but look at Wan Jianxing.

Wan Jianxing remained motionless and expressionless. David knew he was safe; even if the Grand Elder summoned people from the twelfth heaven, there was no need to fear.

Since Wan Jianxing wasn't afraid of even cultivators from the twelfth heaven, David could now act with impunity below the twelfth heaven. After all, Wan Jianxing was one of David's hall masters and had to obey his orders.

At this moment, the token activated by the Grand Elder began to burn, the flames transforming into fire runes that then formed a massive teleportation array in mid-air.

The instant the teleportation array formed, a terrifying aura surged forth from it!

Just as the black token completely burned out, the teleportation array formed by the fire runes in mid-air suddenly expanded, like a black sun devouring all light!

The spatial laws of the entire Eighth Heaven groaned under the unbearable pressure, shattering inch by inch.

Full Read Online Chapter 5587 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5587

A terrifying pressure, far exceeding the limits of this realm's tolerance, poured forth from the array like a tangible tsunami.

The sky instantly darkened, the sun and moon lost their light, and only the teleportation array emitted destructive light.

"Boom—!"

A deafening roar, seemingly from the primordial era, erupted from the teleportation array. The boot, tanned from the hide of some ancient beast, was covered with naturally flowing Dao patterns.

With just this one step, the earth below collapsed several feet.

If it weren't for the protection of the Myriad Swords Star's aura, David and the others would have been reduced to ashes. A giant clad in black dragon-patterned armor slowly descended.

He wasn't exceptionally tall, yet he seemed to be the center of the entire universe, surrounded by phenomena composed of countless images of shattered stars.

He didn't deliberately exude an aura, but his very existence caused all things to wither and all paths to submit.

"Welcome, Guardian Heavenly Venerable!"

Led by the Grand Elder, all the surviving cultivators trembled with excitement, kneeling down in unison as if paying homage to a deity.

The Guardian Heavenly Venerable's gaze was indifferent, sweeping over those below as if looking at a group of ants.

His voice was deep, yet it resonated deep within the souls of every living being:

"Who dares to offend the might of my Evil Path Palace?"

His voice was devoid of any emotion, yet it caused Ling Xi, David, and the others to tremble violently, spitting out a mouthful of blood. Just hearing the voice had already severely injured them!

The Grand Elder, suppressing his fear and excitement, pointed at Wan Jianxing and shouted sternly: "Heavenly Venerable! This is the man who slaughtered my disciples, defied the Upper Realm, and deserves to die a thousand deaths!"

The Guardian Heavenly Venerable's gaze fell upon Wan Jianxing, a gaze powerful enough to plunge an entire world into chaos.

However, Wan Jianxing remained expressionless. He didn't even look at the Celestial Venerable, simply uttering,

"Noisy."

Before his words even finished, his sword was drawn again. This sword strike lacked any earth-shattering light, any sound that tore through the void, and was so fast that it was impossible to detect its existence.

Time and space seemed to be erased at that moment.

Everyone felt a blur before their eyes, and their minds went blank for a brief time.

When they came to their senses, they saw the Celestial Venerable who had just descended into the sky, his aura overwhelming the universe, frozen in place .

For the first time, emotion flickered in his indifferent eyes—an extreme bewilderment and disbelief. The next moment, under the gaze of countless horrified eyes, the seemingly immortal body of the Guardian Celestial Venerable, along with the shattering starlight surrounding him, vanished like sandcastles scattered by the wind.

Starting from his head, it disintegrated into the finest dust, disappearing without a trace.

Even the massive teleportation array behind him vanished silently, like a candle flickering in the wind.

Silence.

Deathly silence.

The wind stopped, the clouds dispersed, and even the lingering stench of blood seemed to have been completely purified.

The Grand Elder's wild joy froze, replaced by endless fear and absurdity.

His trusted Guardian Celestial Venerable, the supreme being from the Evil Path Palace... was instantly killed?

Wan Jianxing slowly sheathed his sword, his gaze finally settling on the Grand Elder for the first time.

“Anything else?”

The First Elder opened his mouth, but couldn't utter a single word.

The Third Palace Master's pants were already soaked; he had practically wet himself in fear.

He had originally thought the First Elder could find a powerful figure from a higher world, but now, he had still been instantly defeated.

The person before him was simply too strong, far too strong...

“Spare me, senior, spare me! I was forced by the Evil Path Palace; I had no choice but to attack David.”

The Third Palace Master knelt down and crawled before Wan Jianxing!

Although the Third Palace Master didn't know Wan Jianxing's identity, he knew that Wan Jianxing was with David.

Wan Jianxing looked at the Third Palace Master with disgust and gave a bitter smile: "You shouldn't call me senior; you should call me Ancestor..."

"Ancestor?" The Third Palace Master was stunned, his face full of confusion.

The Fourth Palace Master, Ling Xi, was also completely bewildered, not understanding why Wan Jianxing said such a thing.

"This is the creator of your temple, the first Palace Master!"

David introduced.

Full Read Online Chapter 5588 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5588

The moment the first Temple Master uttered those words, everyone was utterly shocked!

Especially the Third Temple Master, who couldn't believe that their temple's ancestor, the first Temple Master, was actually this middle-aged man before him.

The Grand Elder of the Evil Path Temple also stared wide-eyed, his face filled with disbelief.

He never imagined that his opponent would be the first Temple Master.

The Temple had existed for tens of thousands of years, meaning the first Temple Master had also lived for tens of thousands of years.

The Grand Elder swallowed hard, his body trembling instinctively as he retreated.

Facing an ancient monster tens of thousands of years old, he had completely lost his will to fight; his only thought was to escape as quickly as possible.

Whoosh...

In an instant, the Grand Elder turned and ran, his speed astonishing, like a bolt of lightning.

“He ran away...”

Lingxi shouted loudly upon seeing this.

David was also startled and instinctively wanted to chase after him!

But Wan Jianxing didn't move at all, not even glancing at the Grand Elder.

“Ah...”

Soon, a scream came from the void; it was the Grand Elder's voice.

No one knew what had happened to the Grand Elder; perhaps only Wan Jianxing himself knew.

Hearing the Grand Elder's scream, the Third Palace Master was so frightened that he wet himself.

“Ancestor, spare me! Ancestor, spare me...”

The Third Palace Master kowtowed desperately, but Wan Jianxing no longer looked at him.

Wan Jianxing's face turned visibly pale, and his body began to slowly become transparent.

“Ancestor?” Lingxi cried out in shock upon seeing this. “What's wrong with you?”

David asked hurriedly as he saw Wan Jianxing's body becoming increasingly ethereal.

“Mr. Chen, this is the price I paid for forcibly leaving that void passage. I knew you were in danger, so how could I not save you...”

Wan Jianxing smiled slightly, his body beginning to dissipate.

“Leaving that void passage, are you going to be utterly destroyed?” Chen

Ping tried to grab Wan Jianxing, but his grasp fell on empty air!

“No, I left a remnant soul in that void passage. Perhaps one day, when the God Clan Chief releases me, I can reconstruct my physical body.”

Wan Jianxing's voice echoed, but his body had already completely vanished.

“David, what happened? Where is the Ancestor?”

Ling Xi asked, puzzled.

“Your Ancestor offended the God Clan Chief by making a mistake back then, and was imprisoned in the void passage.”

“If I hadn’t come to the Eighth Heaven this time, and the void passage hadn’t been tampered with, we wouldn’t have been able to see him.”

“Now he has forcibly left the void passage, and his body has completely dissipated.”

David’s eyes flashed with intense resentment and anger.

Wan Jianxing was indeed a member of the God Clan, but he was also a hall master of the Heavenly Dragon Palace, and David’s subordinate.

No matter the cost, David was determined to find the patriarch of the Divine Race and have him release Wan Jianxing, restoring his physical body.

“Old Wan, don’t worry, I will personally bring the patriarch to you and have him release you,”

David gritted his teeth, secretly vowing.

At this moment, the Third Palace Master, watching the vanished Wan Jianxing, was filled with excitement.

When he saw that David and Ling Xi were not paying attention to him, he suddenly leaped up, trying to escape.

“You still want to escape?”

David was furious. Seeing the Third Palace Master’s attempt to flee, he swung the Dragon-Slaying Sword with all his might.

Instantly, countless sword beams filled the heavens and earth, cleaving the entire void into segments.

The Third Palace Master, who had just escaped, hadn’t even had time to react before his body was reduced to blood and gore.

Countless sword beams had reduced the Third Palace Master to ashes!

Seeing the Third Palace Master’s tragic death, everyone in the Third Palace knelt down, begging for their lives.

Looking at them, David knew they were merely following orders.

Full Read Online Chapter 5589 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5589

“Today, I spare your lives, but you must atone for your sins and diligently protect the Divine King Palace!”

David declared loudly!

All the cultivators from the three palaces nodded in agreement.

The Divine King Palace’s guards had suffered heavy casualties, and the remaining ones were all injured, so someone had to guard the palace.

David glanced at the countless corpses on the ground, then slowly opened his palm, and countless storage bags flew towards him.

There were tens of thousands of them, all belonging to the slain demonic cultivators.

Seeing these storage bags, David’s lips curled into a slight smile; these resources were enough for him to cultivate for a while.

Immediately afterward, David unleashed a burst of intense fire, and tens of thousands of corpses instantly turned to ashes, vanishing without a trace.

David took out ten thousand storage bags and handed them to Ling Xi, saying, “Fourth Palace Master, the Divine King Palace has suffered heavy damage. You need to recover. Please accept these storage bags and hurry up to recover and improve your strength.”

Ling Xi didn’t stand on ceremony and accepted them directly. Then she looked at David and asked, “So what do you plan to do?”

“Improve my strength...”

David smiled bitterly.

After this incident, David knew that although his improvement speed was fast, the enemies he faced were also getting stronger. If it weren’t for Wan Jianxing risking his life to protect him, he would probably be dead by now. Without strength, it's really hard to survive, let alone if you want to show off. You need real strength first.

Originally, David thought that if he couldn't find out about the Hu clan's soul in the Eighth Heaven, he would try to go to the Ninth Heaven.

But now, David had changed his mind. He needed to improve his strength first.

In addition to dealing with the Evil Path Palace, David also needed to have enough strength to contend with the patriarch of the Divine Clan in order to make the patriarch of the Divine Clan release Wan Jianxing.

Wan Jianxing was already so powerful, yet he was imprisoned by the God Clan Chief. This shows just how terrifying the God Clan Chief's strength must be.

The difference in strength between David and him was simply heaven and earth.

"If only Mr. Shi were here..." David couldn't help but think of Mr. Shi.

If Mr. Shi were here, even the patriarch of the God Clan would be forced to kneel and beg for mercy, right? However , after arriving in the Heavenly Realm, Mr. Shi never appeared again.

David couldn't rely on Mr. Shi for protection forever.

"I'll arrange a quiet place for you to cultivate in seclusion!"

Ling Xi said.

"No need, I plan to go back and check on things. Besides, Master Hu is still in the Seventh Heaven."

David shook his head.

He didn't plan to cultivate in the Eighth Heaven; he planned to go back and cultivate properly.

Going back to the Fifth Heaven would at least be safe, and he also wanted to know how the Sword Sect was doing.

By the way, he wanted to go to the Sixth Heaven to find the ruler of the God Kingdom, Wu Hao, to inquire about the patriarch of the God Clan.

After all, Wu Hao was also a member of the God Clan and should know something about them.

“Alright, since you plan to go back, I won’t force you to stay. I also need to seal the God King Palace and recover properly.”

Ling Xi nodded and said.

David waved his hand lightly, and a void passage opened.

While opening a void passage to reach the Ninth Heaven wasn’t easy for David now, going to the lower worlds was much simpler.

David entered the void passage, which quickly closed.

He needed to go to the Seventh Heaven to pick up Hu Mazi and tell him that the matter of the Hu clan’s soul needed to be temporarily put on hold.

They needed to improve their strength as soon as possible; otherwise, they wouldn’t even be able to touch the edge of the Evil Path Palace, let alone save the Hu clan’s soul.

From the moment the Grand Elder mentioned the Twelfth Heaven and summoned the Guardian Heavenly Venerable, David knew that he couldn’t contend with the Evil Path Palace on his own unless Mr. Shi appeared.

David walked out of the void passage and arrived in Dongxiang County.

Full Read Online Chapter 5590 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5590

At this time, Dongxiang County was under the control of the Lin family.

Hu Mazi was treated as an honored guest by the Lin family, with the Lin family head providing him with different women every day, making him so happy he forgot about home.

Meanwhile, Lin Yun’er had been depressed for some time.

David had gone to the Eighth Heaven, and she didn’t know how he was doing or if she would ever see him again.

When David appeared at the Lin family, Lin Yun’er was overjoyed!

She clung to him for three whole days.

However, even while practicing dual cultivation with Lin Yun'er, David didn't forget to practice his skills.

As the saying goes, sharpening the axe doesn't delay the work...

They didn't stay in Dongxiang County for long before David took Hu Mazi to the Sixth Heaven!

Although Lin Yun'er was reluctant to part with him, she knew David had important business and didn't stop him.

David and Hu Mazi opened a void passage and went directly to the Sixth Heaven, then headed to the Divine Kingdom.

At this time, the Divine Kingdom had not yet fully recovered to its peak, but its strength was already among the top in the Sixth Heaven.

David and Hu Mazi arrived at the capital of the Divine Kingdom, travel-worn. This once glorious city, though not yet fully restored to its former glory, still displayed its important status as a key location in the Sixth Heaven with its bustling streets and rows of buildings.

The two had just reached the city gate when they were stopped by a guard general.

This general was burly, with a face full of fat, and his small eyes darted around, revealing a greedy and cunning nature.

He sized up David and Hu Mazi, and seeing their ordinary clothes, assumed they were easy targets.

"Halt! You two, you need to pay a toll to enter the city!"

the general shouted, hands on his hips.

David frowned, inwardly displeased.

He hadn't expected to encounter such difficulties at the city gates of this divine kingdom.

Moreover, this general clearly didn't recognize him; otherwise, he would never have dared to be so presumptuous. "Toll

? I'd like to ask, when did this divine kingdom establish a rule requiring tolls for entering the city?"

David asked coldly, his voice carrying a hint of authority.

The general sneered, saying disdainfully, "Enough nonsense! My rules are the rules. If you don't want to pay, get lost and don't get in my way!"

Hu Mazi, listening from the side, was furious. He was known for his fiery temper and couldn't tolerate such humiliation.

He stepped forward, pointing at the general's nose and cursing, "Who do you think you are? Daring to act like a bully here! Believe me or not, I'll slap you to death!"

The general was enraged by Hu Mazi's words. He waved his hand and shouted, "Men! Tie these two reckless fools up!"

Instantly, a group of guards rushed over and surrounded David and Hu Mazi.

David shook his head helplessly. He hadn't wanted to cause trouble, but this general was truly ungrateful.

With a light wave of his hand, a powerful spiritual energy instantly emanated, and before the soldiers could react, they were all knocked off balance and fell to the ground.

The general's face turned extremely ugly upon seeing this.

He hadn't expected these two seemingly ordinary people to possess such strength.

But he remained defiant, shouting loudly, "You dare to cause trouble in front of the capital's gates? You have no respect for the law! Men, take them to the palace for His Majesty to deal with!"

Thus, David and Hu Mazi were bound by a group of soldiers and taken to the palace.

Along the way, Hu Mazi kept complaining, while David remained calm, eager to see how King Wu Hao would handle the situation once they entered the palace.

When they were brought to the palace, they were spotted by Zi Yuan.

Zi Yuan, now the Prime Minister of the Divine Kingdom, wore a magnificent purple dress and exquisite hair ornaments, appearing noble and elegant.

Upon seeing the bound David and Hu Mazi, she was first stunned, then filled with rage.