Chapter 5606

He had fought David and was certain that David's strength was insufficient to kill a Heavenly Venerable, let alone the Grand Elder.

This indicated that David definitely had a powerful backer.

However, the identity and strength of this backer remained a mystery. What was certain, however, was that if King Mu encountered the powerful figure behind David, he would face certain death. What they needed now was to investigate the person behind David, not to directly confront him.

But King Mu wouldn't listen and insisted on causing trouble for David, so he couldn't interfere.

After all, his position wasn't as high as the King's; he was just a gofer.

At this moment, David stood quietly in that somewhat desolate space-time, surrounded by deathly silence, with only the occasional breeze causing his clothes to flutter slightly.

He gripped the Dragon-Slaying Sword tightly, his eyes scanning his surroundings warily, awaiting the arrival of the Yama Heavenly Sect's reinforcements.

However, fate seemed to love playing tricks on him.

Just as he patiently waited, a powerful aura swept in like a whirlwind.

David frowned, instantly becoming alert; he sensed intense hostility within this aura.

Anyone capable of such hostility towards him must be from the Evil Path Hall.

Soon, King Mu, accompanied by four subordinates, appeared in his sight like ghosts.

King Mu stood tall and straight, the long sword on his back radiating a cold, eerie light, as if proclaiming its sharpness and danger.

The four men in black behind him were shrouded in black cloaks, only their cold, sharp eyes visible, like hunters in the night, ready to deliver a fatal blow at any moment.

“So you’re David?” King

Mu spoke coldly, his voice like it came from an ice cellar, carrying a chilling aura.

David’s heart tightened; he knew the newcomer meant trouble, but his face showed no fear. He stood tall and said, “Indeed, you people from the Evil Path Hall have repeatedly caused me trouble. What do you want today?”

King Mu’s lips curled into a mocking smile: “What do I want? Naturally, I’ll take your life to avenge the Grand Elder and the Heavenly Venerable!”

With that, he swung his longsword, and a sharp sword aura shot towards David like lightning.

David reacted quickly, swiftly dodging to the side. The sword aura grazed his clothes, leaving a deep mark in the void behind him.

David was secretly shocked. King Mu’s strength was indeed not to be underestimated; this single sword strike had already made him feel immense pressure.

“Hmph, is that all you’ve got?”

David sneered, flicking his Dragon-Slaying Sword. A golden sword beam shot into the sky, counterattacking towards King Mu.

King Mu’s eyes flashed with disdain. He easily deflected David’s sword beam with his own sword.

Then, he appeared before David like a ghost, his sword flashing with the force of thunder, aiming for David’s chest.

David was startled. He hadn’t expected King Mu to be so fast; he had no time to dodge.

In the nick of time, he hastily dodged, avoiding a fatal blow, but the sword still slashed a deep wound on his shoulder, instantly staining his clothes with blood. Blood trickled from David’s mouth, his brow furrowed, a surge of anger rising within him.

He knew the difference in strength between himself and King Mu was significant, but now he had no way out but to fight to the death.

Just as King Mufa was about to attack David again, a black light streaked across the sky like a shooting star. Immediately afterward, a woman dressed in black appeared before them, accompanied by ten men in white. The woman was graceful, with a cold and beautiful face; her long, black hair flowed in the wind, making her seem like an elf in the night sky.

In her hand, she held a long black whip, its blade gleaming with a chilling light, as if it contained boundless power. It was like a constantly twisting and changing humanoid darkness, with only two scarlet lights shining where it should be the head, filled with indifference and death, locking onto David.

Chapter 5607

He brandished his weapon, attacking King Mufa, but King Mufa easily deflected it.

By this time, several disciples of the Yama Heavenly Sect had already died, and the remaining disciples were all seriously injured; the situation was extremely critical.

“No, at this rate, we’ll all die!”

the woman in black thought to herself. She knew she had to find a way to turn the tide.

Just then, she suddenly thought of something.

She hurriedly pulled a black jade bottle from her bosom, opened the cap, and a pungent odor wafted out.

“Everyone be careful, this is poisonous fog!” King Mufa, seeing the jade bottle in the woman in black’s hand, was startled and hurriedly warned his men.

However, it was too late. The woman in black sprayed the poisonous mist from the jade bottle towards the members of the Evil Path Hall. The mist instantly spread, enveloping them.

“Cough, cough...”

The members of the Evil Path Hall coughed incessantly, their vision blurring.

“Now’s your chance! Attack!”

the woman in black shouted, brandishing her long whip and charging towards the members of the Evil Path Hall.

Hearing the woman in black’s shout, the disciples of the Yama Heavenly Sect and David hurriedly brandished their weapons and rushed towards the members of the Evil Path Hall.

Under the cover of the poisonous mist, they temporarily gained the upper hand.

But King Mu was indeed powerful, and he quickly regained his footing.

He swung his long sword, a sharp sword aura dispelling the poisonous mist, and then he flashed forward, attacking the woman in black.

The woman in black was sent flying by King Mu’s sword, her face extremely pale, wiping the blood from the corner of her mouth.

They had used all their abilities, but they were no match for King Mu before them.

David looked at the injured woman in black, somewhat speechless.

What was going on with this Yama Heavenly Sect ?

They seemed pretty powerful, so why were the people they sent to pick him up so weak?

They outnumbered him and still lost. ” I

‘m sorry I couldn’t protect you,”

the woman in black said to David, somewhat apologetically .

“You can leave now. These guys are after me; I’ll deal with them myself,” Chen

Ping told the people from the Yama Heavenly Sect to leave. After all, the people from the Evil Path Palace were targeting him and wouldn’t stop the people from the Yama Heavenly Sect.

“We won’t leave unless we die. Our mission is to take you to the Ninth Heaven,” the woman in black shook her head.

“Sigh!” David sighed, “Then let’s all wait to die...”

Seeing that David and the others weren't struggling anymore, King Mu coldly smiled and said, "David, if you call out the powerful person behind you now, you might still live."

"I have no one behind me!" David shook his head.

"Bullshit! If you have no one behind you, how could you possibly kill our Evil Path Palace's Grand Elder and Guardian Heavenly Venerable?"

King Mu didn't believe David had no one behind him.

"Since I said I don't believe you, then I have no choice. Now you can kill me." David actually offered his neck.

Seeing David's willingness, King Mu panicked a little. He involuntarily took two steps back.

He had never seen anyone willingly seek death.

Could this guy really have a powerful backer who wasn't afraid of him killing him?

The woman in black, seeing David's reaction, was also full of doubt and confusion. Who would stick their neck out and let someone chop it off?

Was this guy out of his mind?

"Will you kill me or not? If not, I'm leaving," David asked.

Mu Fawang gripped his sword tightly, but didn't dare to strike.

"You coward, too afraid to kill me, then don't bother me anymore!" David mocked Mu Fawang disdainfully! Chen Ping dared to act this way because he had come to terms with it. He was no match for Mu Fawang anyway, so rather than be beaten to death, he might as well take a gamble.

He gambled that when he faced mortal danger, Mr. Shi would intervene and wouldn't let him get away with it.

If Mr. Shi didn't appear, he would just kill him with a single sword strike, at least he would get a quick death, much better than being beaten to death bit by bit and death, locking onto David.

Chapter 5608

"I don't know..."

David shook his head.

Actually, David wasn't sure if Mr. Shi had really made a move.

Seeing David's reluctance to speak, the woman said, "Come with me to the Ninth Heaven..."

The woman in black, along with the white-clad guards and David, headed towards the Ninth Heaven.

Just after David and the others left, the void trembled, and then a black shadow appeared.

This black shadow was the one who had first intercepted David.

Looking at the tragically dead King Mu, the black shadow trembled slightly.

Fortunately, he hadn't gone with them, otherwise he wouldn't even know how he died.

"Report..."

the black shadow uttered two words, then slowly disappeared.

All he could do now was report; as for who would be sent to deal with David, that was none of his concern.

In any case, he was no match for David now.

Meanwhile, David was following the woman in black towards the Ninth Heaven.

"Miss, how are your injuries?" David asked kindly.

The woman in black merely glanced at David without answering, instead asking, "How exactly did that King Mu die?"

"I really don't know..." David was speechless. "Fine

, don't tell me then!" The woman in black rolled her eyes. "Don't believe me then!" David rolled his eyes back.

Seeing David's expression, the woman in black suddenly burst out laughing: "You're really funny. Is the person behind you the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord?" David was taken aback, his face the woman in black explained.

Because your golden scroll was given to the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord by our Yama Heavenly Sect back then. All our golden scrolls are recorded."

"You don't think we send out so many golden scrolls without knowing who they're given to, do you?"

David laughed upon hearing this, neither denying nor confirming.

Now, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord was just a wisp of a remnant soul. Let alone dealing with that King Mu, he was no match for even the ordinary cultivators here.

"What's your name?" David asked.

"My name is Guan Jun," the woman in black said.

"Champion?" David was taken aback: "Your parents seem to have high expectations for you..."

The woman was also surprised, then laughed, "You're so funny..."

David looked at Guan Jun's smiling face and couldn't help but laugh along, the atmosphere becoming much more relaxed.

He realized this might be a good opportunity to learn about the Yama Heavenly Sect and even the entire Nine Heavens, so he dropped his joking tone and asked seriously, "Miss Guan, could you tell me more about the history and current situation of the Yama Heavenly Sect?"

Seeing David's serious attitude, Guan Jun also became serious and began to slowly recount, "The Yama Heavenly Sect is one of the oldest sects in the Nine Heavens, its roots tracing back to ancient times. When heaven and earth were first created and all living things first appeared, the ancestors of the Yama Heavenly Sect were already exploring the path of cultivation in this vast and boundless world.

Our sect takes it upon itself to control the cycle of life and death and maintain the balance of heaven and earth. Over countless years, we have gradually formed a unique cultivation system and a profound cultural heritage."

Listening to Guan Jun's words, only one thought popped into David's mind: this person was bragging.

Ancient times? The beginning of heaven and earth? Maintaining the balance of heaven and earth...

This is too fake!

"Young man, the Yama Heavenly Sect is definitely one of the oldest sects in the Nine Heavens. What this girl said isn't wrong; it's just that the sect has declined and isn't as powerful as it used to be."

"Otherwise, why would I introduce the Yama Heavenly Sect to you? After all, given our relationship, I would definitely help you."

The voice of the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord echoed in David's mind.

Hearing this, David secretly pondered, "The Yama Heavenly Sect is so powerful; it seems I should make friends with them."

Even if they've declined now, if they possess any ancient treasures or cultivation techniques, that would be beneficial."e it should be the head, filled with indifference and death, locking onto David.

Chapter 5609

"Miss Guan, how awesome is your Yama Heavenly Sect? It must be the most powerful sect in the Nine Heavens, right?"

David flattered Guan Jun.

Guan Jun smiled and replied, "We wouldn't call ourselves the most powerful, but we're definitely in the top three. Back then, our Yama Heavenly Sect truly was the most awesome sect in the Nine Heavens." "

Back then, our Yama Heavenly Sect disciples could walk sideways in the Nine Heavens. Other sects would avoid us when they saw our disciples."

Guan Jun's face was beaming with pride, and the Yama Heavenly Sect disciples behind her also felt incredibly proud.

“That’s wonderful! With your Yama Heavenly Sect here, I’m not afraid of anything in the Nine Heavens.”

“What Soul Devourer, what Fire Demon Lord, what Evil Path Hall, I don’t need to fear any of them...”

David said with a smile.

Guan Jun was stunned by David’s words, his pride freezing on his face.

“What did you say? Soul Devourer? Blazing Fire Demon Lord?” Guan Jun frowned slightly. “Didn’t you only have a grudge against the Evil Path Hall? The Soul Devourer was a senior from the past, but he disappeared ten thousand years ago, and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord is an ancient legendary figure from the Nine Heavens. How could you know them?”

The Soul Devourer and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord are no longer figures in the Nine Heavens. The Soul Devourer was suppressed for ten thousand years, and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord was a legendary figure from the Nine Heavens tens of thousands of years ago.

“I wouldn’t say I know them. I have a minor grudge against these two,” David said.

“Impossible! You’re bragging! These two figures were big shots in the Nine Heavens in the past, but they disappeared ten thousand years ago. How could you possibly have a grudge against them?”

“Besides, with your strength, it’s impossible for you to have a grudge against these two. They probably wouldn’t even acknowledge you.”

Guan Jun didn’t believe that David, a mere second-grade Immortal Realm cultivator, would have a grudge against figures like the Soul Devourer and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord.

“Ignoring me?” David laughed. “That Soul Devourer almost died at my hands. He was suppressed in the Sixth Heaven for ten thousand years, and is just a remnant soul. Although he has regained his physical body, his strength has not fully recovered. Destroying him is a piece of cake for me.” “

If it weren’t for the sudden appearance of the Fire Demon Lord, who rescued the Soul Devourer, he would have been reduced to ashes long ago.” David started bragging, completely ignoring the appearance of the Fire Spirit Star Lord.

Guan Jun looked David up and down; she was now certain that David was exaggerating.

“Have the Soul Devourer and the Fire Demon Lord already returned to the Ninth Heaven?” Guan Jun asked.

“Probably. The Soul Devourer is probably recovering, but I don’t know if the Fire Demon Lord is still in the Ninth Heaven.”

David knew that the Soul Devourer’s injuries wouldn’t heal quickly; he had almost been killed by the Fire Spirit Star Lord.

They’re definitely recovering their strength now. As for the Blazing Fire Demon Lord, those old guys had already left the Nine Heavens long ago. Whether they’ll continue to stay there, David doesn’t know.

Hearing David’s words, Guan Jun’s face turned extremely ugly, and she stopped.

“Miss Guan, what’s wrong? Why did you stop?”

David asked.

“I...” Guan Jun opened her mouth, unsure what to say.

“Your Yama Heavenly Sect isn’t afraid of the Soul Devouring Venerable and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord, is it?” David pressed.

Guan Jun remained silent, but her expression showed she was genuinely afraid.

They might not fear the Evil Path Hall, and could even challenge them, since the Evil Path Hall’s main power wasn’t in the Nine Heavens.

But the Soul Devouring Venerable and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord were powerful figures native to the Nine Heavens.

“Your Yama Heavenly Sect is the oldest sect, and it holds considerable influence in the Nine Heavens,” David continued. changing humanoid darkness, with only two scarlet lights shining where it should be the head, filled with indifference and death, locking onto David.

Chapter 5610

At this moment, David's words pierced Guan Jun's heart like thorns.

She had indeed said that the Yama Heavenly Sect was incredibly powerful.

But now...

She never imagined that David would make enemies with such powerful demons as the Soul Devourer and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord.

Suddenly, Guan Jun frowned, and the disciples behind her also paled.

Even David seemed to sense something, his face turning grim.

"Someone is approaching, and it's several experts..."

Guan Jun said.

"What do we do?" David asked!

"These people are very likely after you. Find a place to hide first. We're leaving. We'll take you to the Yama Heavenly Sect another time."

After saying this, Guan Jun and her men disappeared!

Watching Guan Jun and the others vanish, David was completely stunned.

"Damn it..." David cursed, "What do you mean?"

"Senior, what kind of thing did you introduce to me? Why did you suddenly run away and abandon me..." David asked the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord!

"I don't know what happened either. Maybe he was scared by what you said about the Soul Devouring Venerable and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord."

"Now you should quickly find a place to hide and strengthen your strength. With your current strength, you probably won't have a good time in the Nine Heavens!"

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord said to David.

David nodded. He knew that with his current strength, he couldn't survive in the Nine Heavens at all.

If he encountered a single cultivator, he could handle it and even escape.

But if he encountered multiple experts, he would only be slaughtered.

Just then, terrifying auras quickly locked onto him. David's heart tightened, and then he instantly disappeared from the spot.

After David disappeared, four figures quickly appeared, but after a mere glance, they vanished as well.

David was currently in the Ninth Heaven, constantly searching for a hiding place.

He was completely unfamiliar with the Ninth Heaven, unable even to distinguish its regions. Fortunately , the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord was a native elder of the Ninth Heaven, possessing intimate knowledge of it, and directed David to evade the four pursuers.

"Three thousand miles ahead, there is a Broken Sky Mountain, where there is a waterfall. Behind the waterfall is a cave; you can go there."

"That was originally my territory; I've always cultivated there. Moreover, the waterfall is formed from the convergence of Heavenly Mountain water, which can shield you from divine sense detection. If you hide inside, no one will be able to find you for the time being."

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord directed David to the place where he had once cultivated.

Following the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord's instructions, David went to the cave behind the waterfall.

The cave clearly showed signs of long absence.

The space inside was vast, and David immediately took out the Demon-Suppressing Tower.

Looking at the place where he had once cultivated and lived, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord wept with emotion.

"David, let me out..."

the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord pleaded.

"Senior, you only have a wisp of your soul left. If you are suddenly exposed to this space-time, and something goes wrong, you will be annihilated,"

David warned.

“It’s alright, this is where I used to live, nothing should happen, and I’ll only stay for a short while,” the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord said.

He desperately wanted to see and touch his former home.

David nodded and released the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord from his sea of consciousness. Seeing the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord, now only a wisp of his soul and almost transparent, David was also filled with emotion. The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord had been with him for so long, helping him a great deal, but he had promised to help him restore his physical body, a promise he hadn’t kept.

Now, with only a wisp of his soul remaining, restoring his physical body would be even more difficult.
