Chapter 1611 Quasi-Venerable!

Noah's newly unlocked Bloodline that was cemented in his Lineage came with truly too many things!

Each of them had wonders of their own, but this Quasi-Venerable Bloodline still stood a chance of becoming Venerable and even possibly going higher- a ceiling that Noah did not even know what came after!

The abilities that came with this Quasi-Venerable Bloodline were many, but Noah quickly skimmed over them as his eyes lit up when he focused on a single one- his time being extremely limited at this moment even with his thoughts processing rapidly while in the Cosmic Holy Land.

The battle was unfolding in the locked down domain as his True Sanguine Clone had to soon make a move, and Noah felt his preparations were already as overboard as they could be at this moment!

This was because after his increased Affinity granted him 65,000 total Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality, his reformed body allowing him to feel an endless sense of strength that was actually explained in the <Destined Physique> under his new Quasi-Venerable Bloodline, and also his elevation of just everything about him with Empowerment, Corrupting his concepts, and forming multiple new Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts...it brought his Ascendancy Value to 100,000,000!

The peak of the Seventh Firmament.

The barrier...that could not be broken until someone tore apart the shackles placed on them by the natural laws of the Infinite Realities themselves by forming Reality Passages!

Noah had reached 100 Million as he finished forging the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict of the Sanguine Emperor as it should have increased even more when he was blessed with increased Essence of Reality and from the completion of his Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline- but this 100 million did not move an inch or even budge!

Even though Noah knew he was stronger than this. Even though he should have gone past this number, his system respected the significance of the shackles imposed upon by the Infinite Realities it was a part of as it didn't even try to estimate how much higher Noah's value would be until this barrier was broken.

The day that Noah broke past his shackles and forged his Reality Passages would be the day that his Ascendancy Value would change once more as until then- it would only be seen as a barrier!

Noah was bound to break this barrier as he already knew a shocking truth.

The truth that he...was capable of achieving power equivalent to the Eighth Firmament of Ascendancy and possibly even the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy without having to break through the limits and forge his Reality Passages!

That he could exceed all known parameters and continue to exceed them in such a Tyrannical manner that when he did forge his Reality Passages...ah, it would be a sight that might even cause Legends to tremble at its majesty.

He could rival weak Eighth Firmament existences with a single Reality Passage before he even began upgrading his Edicts to Quasi-TABOO and unlocking full Olden and Kainos Emperor Bloodlines. After the round of power ups that he just went through...was he already capable of trashing Eighth Firmament existences that had forged two or three Reality Passages?

As he continued to exceed all limits, one must not forget that he had yet to forge his Limit Breaking Extreme Physiques that he could actually get from multiple concepts- with Apocalypse giving him a method of swallowing Realities to achieve an Extreme Physique, and the Tyrannical Emperor that gave way to the Olden Bloodline of the Arcadian Tyrant allowing Noah to forge another Extreme Physique from the blood and Bloodlines of Eighth Firmament Existences!

Now, there was yet another Extreme Physique from an ability under the Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline that Noah would focus on now as one of the few last things he would do before his True Sanguine Clone made a move.

<Limit Breaking Mana Refinement> :: Mana is one of the major concepts that signify the Progenitor of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline, and this ability conforms to that principle as it allows you to refine your Origin, Body, and Soul with pure Mana and Essence of Reality to achieve the Limit Breaking Extreme Mana Physique. To achieve a Limit Breaking Extreme Physique through sheer mana usage, extreme amounts of Mana are required as a single round of refinement required 100 Trillion Units of Mana and 10,000 Units of the Essence of Reality. During the first round of Refinement, the physique of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor will begin to be branded by Runic Mana Lines of Ascendancy, with any other previous Runic Lines like Dao Lines being elevated to become Runic Mana Lines of Ascendancy as their boosts are tenfold. The Runic Mana Lines of Ascendancy go towards constantly strengthening and reinforcing the Origin, Body, and Soul of the Progenitor as this is one of the strongest Limit Breaking Extreme Physiques one could attain for the sake of forming numerous Reality Passages. The number of possible Reality Passages that this physique could contribute is unknown as it can only be realized during its completion. Current progression of the Limit Breaking Extreme Mana Physique- 0%>

100 Trillion Units of Mana and 10,000 Units of the Essence of Reality to cast this ability!

In comparison, even casting the newly unlocked <Hematopoietic Progenitor> ability that could replicate Olden and Kainos Emperor Bloodlines only required 1 Trillion Units of Mana and 20,000 Units of the Essence of Reality.

And yet...this ability was truly stupendous as it was one that was geared towards something only Noah could utilize in crazy amounts- Mana!

All of the abilities under his Kainos Emperor Bloodline were geared toward Noah's nature like this as even though the other abilities were yet to be fully explored, what Noah had at this moment was more than enough.

His preparations were already in place.

The only thing he had left to do was to make his move as to obtain the largest number and quality of Loot possible...he just had to do the last preparation of elevating the Nomological Edict of the Resplendent Treasure Emperor!

"We can begin..."

OOOM!

As a Path to Victory already formed in his mind, Noah got ready to make three moves simultaneously. One was the elevation of the Resplendent Treasure Emperor as he waited for more True Stars of Conquest to arrive from the remaining Prime Realities that were still fusing with his Infinite Reality, the other being his True Sanguine Clone breaking out of its crimson gold cocoon and making a move in a shocking domain of battle, and the last thing was....

"<Limit Breaking Mana Refinement>."

RUMBLE!

Noah pulled upon 100 Trillion Units of Mana and the barely replenished reserves of Essence of Reality to call out 10,000 Units, the maddening color of cerulean blue mana beginning to surround his body as the faint Runic Dao Lines on his crimson gold Cosmic form began to be tinted a beautiful blue!

The first refinement to obtain a Limit Breaking Extreme Physique began at this moment.

At the same time, in the enclosed domain under restrictions by Enders...the aura of a neglected Seventh Firmament Clone began to rise as the already shocking battle was about to turn utterly chaotic!

Chapter 1612 An Emperor of the Kainos Era Makes an Entrance! I

"For you to even dare!"

OOOM!

The wrathful voice of Empress Genevieve rang out as her dark hair flew around madly, her hands sinking into the crimson skull she called MADNESS as it seemed to have become extremely energized in the last microsecond, beginning to enlarge crazily as crimson tendrils of blood continued to shoot out from it and surge towards 4 Ninth Firmament Enders that actually evaded them.

This was an extremely shocking scenario as Empress Genevieve still gave waves of power at the Eighth Firmament, and yet she held back 4 beings a stage above her for no other reason than the fact that the essence contained in the tendrils of blood being shot out from MADNESS...they held a poisonous type of essence that affected everything below the rank of Reality heavily!

Items such as MADNESS were termed TABOO as normally...only Legends were able to get their hands on them and utilize them!

If a Ninth Firmament existence even obtained one, they wouldn't have the unique types of methods or essence to activate them. Not unless you were extremely special.

Or in Empress Genevieve's case...if you were already an owner of such an item as its essence fully recognized and had yielded to you eons ago!

"Remember why we are here! Do not fall back!"

OOOM!

The voice from the brilliantly shining White Dragon Ender facing an enlarged buffed Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human echoed out as the obsidian Scorpion and other Enders had their eyes shine with a red glint, their essence weaving in shocking ways as with slight hesitation...they made their way towards Empress Genevieve while trying their best to evade the countless tendrils of blood shooting out from the cackling skull near her.

Empress Genevieve watched this scene coldly as 30 brilliant gold Ascendancy Halos rotated around her body madly, her eyes releasing scintillating light as she seemed to have full control of the ongoing situation and wasn't the least bit flustered at such a shocking attack where they shouldn't have any chance of surviving! But as she was about to make another decisive move...

"Huh?"

Her brows fluttered as her eyes snapped wide open, her awareness widening to focus towards a certain location!

BZZZT!

It wasn't just her, but all existences in the surrounding light year felt something unique that caused their very souls to feel a reaction- and this reaction varied depending on their level of power!

Empress Genevieve only felt it as her brows fluttered, while the bodies of the Ninth Firmament Enders and Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans shook briefly, the Eighth Firmament Enders shockingly going on to actually tremble!

As for the hundreds of Seventh Firmament Primordial Beasts...their souls shuddered as they and everyone else in the surroundings momentarily halted in their attacks as if their wills were forcefully pulled towards a certain being.

A being that many of them ignored and simply waited for him to perish amidst the attacks...they finally noticed that this being had a crimson gold cocoon enveloping him as at this moment, this cocoon broke and released the shocking aura that was felt by everyone!

The figure released from the cocoon was glorious to see, the sight of a stellar Cosmic being whose entire body was littered with billions of Cosmos painted with a crimson gold hue revealing itself in a shocking manner as the transformation of Noah's body and soul was present and displayed on all of his Clones!

Faint lines of blue could also be seen flashing over his body as this wasn't the sight that caused the hearts of Seventh Firmament Enders to shudder! It was the sight and aura of a solidified crown rotating above the head of this being that sparked pristine Runic Ecriptions to float around it- this solidified crown was what caused the very blood of Seventh Firmament beings to shudder fearfully while Eighth Firmament beings only trembled...and even those at the Ninth Firmament felt the overbearing and inexplicable aura that could enamored one's soul.

Others might not be able to understand what a solid spinning crown atop the head of someone meant.

Others might have only heard it in legends.

But those around this locked domain...were all powerful existences as the highest ones knew a great deal about history!

This was especially so for those who had lived history!

"Impossible..."

WAAA!

The resonant voice of the Empress could be heard as for the first time, her gaze wasn't utterly cold, smiling, or domineering as she displayed a light sense of shock on her face.

"This...!" Beatrix's body that had fused with her Ascendancy Halo released waves of light as her very Origin trembled- her gaze also locked onto the solidified crown as she understood what it represented!

The Ninth Firmament Enders looked on in stupor as the calm and collected pure White Dragon Ender was actually the one to spill waves of oil into the fire- its majestic voice resonating out loud in measured shock.

"A Candidate Emperor for the current Age of Emperors!"

RUUUUMBLE!

As if a nuclear bomb had exploded.

The Seventh Firmament Enders that hadn't fully understood trembled as their eyes could not pull away from Noah's exceedingly cosmic figure. All the other beings trembled at such a reality as nobody had expected to come across a genuine Emperor that was qualified to toil for Hegemony in the ushered Age of Emperors!

"...!"

Looks of alarm and shock.

Eyes that opened wide with disbelief.

Eyes that stared incredulously as in a short period of time...these eyes began to change as shockingly, greed actually appeared on every single pair of eyes from the Ninth Firmament Enders!

Even the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans looked towards Noah as after their gazes of shock, they began to look at him greedily as if they wanted to devour him right here!

This was because all beings that knew of the history from the Olden Times were very clear about one thing.

The Authority of an Olden Emperor that had a solidified crown and was considered as one of the genuine candidates to fight for Hegemony within that Age of Emperors could never be disrespected. If an Emperor could not protect his authority...it would be taken by whoever managed to trample upon him!

The austere position and authority of a genuine Emperor with a solidified crown...it was enough to cause even Legends who had not achieved it to make a move if a weaker existence was exceptional enough to obtain candidacy.

This...was the path of the Age of Emperors!

One could not hide their status once they obtained it, and others could steal your status so long as they killed you!

Chapter 1613 An Emperor of the Kainos Era Makes an Entrance! II

An existence with an average destiny could be changed overnight if they were able to take the authority of such a Candidate Emperor of any Age...so the eyes of powerful Ninth Firmament existences locked onto Noah's glorious figure with extreme focus as they momentarily forgot their current situation.

It was an extremely rare thing to come across an existence that had solidified their crown and become a Candidate Emperor for that Era. It was even rarer for that existence to be something so weak as at the Seventh Firmament!

So when everyone ascertained Noah's power, even against the unique palpating aura he gave off...

BZZZZT!

Essence crackled and burst as their powerful auras burst forth like a broken dam.

Powerful auras of the Ninth Firmament experts that were undoubtedly more decisive than anybody else began to move while ignoring everything else- all going towards a single stellar existence who held a solidified crown rotating above him with austere power!

Wisps of nine lights shone like dazzling rivers as the white Dragon Ender that was further away was shockingly the fastest, being a mere white light that tore across spacetime!

The situation became clear to all.

The eyes of Empress Genevieve shone with murderous coldness as she couldn't help but release an expletive as she moved instantly, her fair hands smashing onto the crimson skull as they caused an enormous crack to spread- the skull releasing even more maddening tendrils of bloody light to cover everything!

"Fuck!"

Her figure flashed as since she was already near him, she arrived and stood before Noah mesmerizingly as the color of her Halos caused the surroundings to brighten up and show Noah's visage even more.

When one looked at him now, they would notice exceeding coldness and tyranny as even while Ninth Firmament Tyrants thundered toward his direction- he was not flustered or nervous!

He watched the figure of Empress Genevieve appear before him as if he had known this was what would happen, his stellar eyes actually ignoring the Ninth Firmament Enders as he looked at the dozens at the Eighth Firmament and hundreds at the Seventh Firmament.

Thereafter, the shocking visage of Ascendancy Halos bloomed from him while Empress Genevieve had a stern expression that seemed to be conflicting with herself, her voice echoing out with shocking authority and wrath as she made her stand clear.

"This...is mine!"

WAA!

Mine.

The Empress declared as such for an existence as if he was a mere tool that she already possessed!

A tool that no others should even dare to get their hands on!

Genevieve's chest rose and fell in calm waves.

Her luminous eyes captured everything as her robust aged soul saw all moving figures as if they were stuck in a quagmire when they moved across space- with only her eyes across this entire battlefield being able to see the astounding amount of shackles that weaved around every single being.

Limitations and restrictions imposed by the vast Realities themselves until they broke them by entering the realm of Reality!

Only her eyes could see such a unique scene as she had broken these shackles before.

She had a goal to break them again soon as her plans were immeasurably deep and unfathomable, accounting for everything around her as with her knowledge- it was only a matter of time!

Then, a certain variable appeared that she merely added on to her plans as another being for her to devour to achieve what she wanted.

Yet now...this variable revealed itself to be even more valuable as it had already achieved candidacy on the path of Emperors of this Era! A solidified crown that she had nearly forgotten the visage of as she herself held one similar to it eons ago!

But she lost her qualifications.

She had not been able to reclaim it as other beings had fought for the Hegemony in the Olden Age of Emperors until a single one came out on top.

The Emperor to prevail at that time...his will was too tyrannical as their current situation was all attributed to the actions he took after he gained his undeniable authority!

Genevieve wanted to claim such an authority in this Era.

She was confident in solidifying her own crown and obtaining candidacy as soon as she began unlocking her past TABOO Nomological Edicts, so she wasn't worried about this! But if she could swallow another existence with a solidified crown as well...

'What this Empress claims as hers...nobody can have any designs on it!'

BZZZT!

Such were her thoughts as she appeared in front of the stellar looking Enlightened Peerless Alchemist.

She didn't make a move to kill him as she knew the current body here was merely a Clone, and killing would merely grant a minuscule portion of his authority as this didn't mean much to her! So she would protect what was hers now as when she locked down where his main body was...she would then eat everything up!

'Then...I'll break a few more shackles.'

RUMBLE!

Her will was utterly domineering as against the surging auras of Nine Ninth Firmament Enders surging towards her and the being behind her, she moved her fair hands to grasp around invisible multicolored chains that only her eyes could see around everyone.

CRACK!

With purpose, she began breaking these chains as every time she did it, her luminous eyes lost a small amount of luster as she hid the immense pain she was feeling- only showing an exceedingly cold expression!

CRACK!

As she broke the chains, her aura began to rise as it instantly spilled from the Eighth Firmament and into the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy, and it only continued to rise higher!

HOOOWL!

Turbulent waves of essence surged around her as her fair body began to swirl with multicolored light, the illusory Reality Passages on her back spinning even faster and surging with essence as she gazed with murderous coldness towards her coming enemies while voicing out.

"Let me show you power."

As she said this, her body began to enlarge, her aura continuing to climb up the Ninth Firmament as she seemed like an unshakable post that nobody would ever be capable of bringing down!

She made a move as at this moment, dazzling multicolored lotuses began to bloom one after another as they grinded out with devilish fervor.

Ridiculously, the existence behind her also made a move as Genevieve's awareness became even more focused on him as this being had erupted with 10 Golden Ascendancy Halos!

'You little shit...'

10 Golden Ascendancy Halos that showed this being had been hiding himself deeply, with the shocking thing being the terrifying crimson gold eyes that were regally seen on all of these Halos!

He cared not for the powerful enemies coming towards him as he seemingly didn't put the Ninth and Eighth Firmament Enders in his eyes- focusing on the trembling Seventh Firmament Enders who seemed most affected by his authority as his cosmic eyes glared at them with undeniable authority.

Like an Emperor gazing at his subjects, his solidified crown spun while his golden Ascendancy Halos spread out with a terrifying will...his voice coming out mesmerizingly as he laid down a command!

"Break."

...!

The Unnamed Kainos Emperor gave a command as the fused and unfused Ascendancy Halos of hundreds of Seventh Firmament Enders shuddered, a shocking scene blooming out at this moment that any beings who would come out of this event alive would never forget it!

Chapter 1614 Utterly Trampling Seventh Firmament Enders! I

The present and very real threats of genuine Ninth Firmament existences did not even appear in my mind.

This was because after a sufficient period of time, I had learned to instinctively trust the indications of destiny as at this moment, they told me I could focus on the Little Enders at the Seventh and Eighth Firmament without worry!

So I didn't question it when Genevieve appeared in front of me and this past Olden Emperor so easily shifted from the Eighth Firmament and into the Ninth while protecting me from the most powerful Enders, my focus only remaining on the culmination of what I had been powering up for this whole time.

As a solidified crown shimmering with crimson, gold, and blue colors rotated above me, it washed down a unique essence that caused an exhilarating feeling to permeate through every single cell in my body.

As the sheer power and uniqueness of the newly formed Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline was replicated in the body of this True Sanguine Clone, torrential waves of mana and all the other essences I had now turned Infinite surged through every single cell as the exhilarating feeling of unstoppable power they gave...this was what I sought for the most!

BOOOM!

A stellar explosive light shattered in a portion of my Origin, a concept that was hidden there shining with a pristine white light as it was the indication that the Resplendent Treasure Emperor had been Dual Empowered with the True Stars of Conquest.

Prompts of information crossed through my soul about the elevated percentages of Increased Loot Quantity and Quality. A prompt that the maximum number of times that Resplendent Treasure Cache could be used had been increased from 4 to 6!

There were even more fantastical bouts of information, but my focus remained on the trembling Seventh Firmament Enders before me that from my sheer aura alone...they were afraid!

As 10 Golden Ascendancy Halos undulated over my body, their Ruined Eyes of Ascendancy vibrated as their authority painted over 327 Seventh Firmament Enders exactly, the feedback that my own soul received being that these powerful existences...I could do what I wished with them as not a single one could deny my authority at this moment.

Not a single one could deny the elevated concepts of Apocalypse, Tyrannical Emperor, or Sanguine Emperor as while being urged by the budding light of authority- by the budding will of an Emperor that I was only truly learning about ever so slightly...I laid out a command.

BZZZZT....CRACK!

327 Seventh Firmament existences.

Whether they were fused with their Ascendancy Halos or not, each one came to a stop as from their eyes, I could see their fear from my mere authority turn very real as shockingly- their vibrant Ascendancy Halos fractured simultaneously!

BOOOOM!

Billowing waves of essence echoed out as the authority of the Ruined Eyes of Ascendancy had painted over all of their Halos and simply told them to break, and these Halos that did not contain any QUASI-TABOO concepts could do nothing but follow these words as on 327 Primordial Beasts, shining rings of light broke as the Origin and souls of these existences faced immense injury!

These powerful existences that I could not even raise my eyes to days ago had their hearts quivering and their eyes looking at me in shock and horror, the budding will of tyranny within me reacting with fervor as the more powerful the beings I could gaze down to and dominate, the more powerful this will became!

The authority of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline had even spread to the nearby Eighth Firmament of Ascendancy as from them, I could also begin to smell the scent of shock and fear as these beings were asking themselves whether what I just did to the Enders was something that they could defend against.

The answer to that...would be ascertained very soon!

"You little...!"

Genevieve's awareness was wrapped around this location as her eyes released bursts of anger, but I simply ignored this once more as destiny locked my focus onto my prey.

My prey that at this moment, they weren't just 327 Enders of Reality- but a representation of 49,050 Flames of Nomological Edicts.

Each one held 10 Ascendancy Halos that contained 15 Flames of Edicts as when these beings fell, all of these concepts would land under me as the strongest Insuperable Nomological Edicts among them would go towards filling up the remaining slots under my 600 Flames of Edicts limit of my very own Ascendancy Halos!

BZZZZT!

My body coursed with more and more Essence as while watching the shocked and pained expressions of Enders while they stared at their broken Ascendancy Halos, the budding will within my Origin unconsciously waved over me as I tapped the solidified crown above me while calling out.

"Throne of Unnamed Tyranny."

WAA!

Glorious waves of mana and Essence of Reality burst forth as a throne made from these stellar resources formed behind me.

Grand and striking, the throne was not illusory as it seemed very real- its surfaces lined up with countless willing Runic Ecriptions as it gave off undeniable waves of authority! The cerulean blue of mana to represent me covered a large portion of it, the multicolored hue of the Essence of Reality covering the rest as it caused the surroundings to brighten up due to its sheer light.

My body went to naturally sit upon this throne as for these beings before me...I did not even need to stand!

These weren't just the actions I wanted to take, but it was the manner that the budding will of an Emperor within me implied I should be acting in.

To emulate a true Emperor after I had solidified my candidacy in the coming Age of Emperors!

BOOM!

The throne of a Kainos Bloodline connected with me as what I can only assume to be pure majesty shot out, even Genevieve's angered figure shifting in front of my eyes as while surrounded by powerful enemies- I was the only one comfortably sitting upon a throne!

Thereafter, it was time for me to collect my loot from enemies that I had already destroyed the wills of as my Ruined Sanguine Eyes of Ascendancy flashed 327 times in an instant.

I could degrade their Edicts and very souls or even break them under Apocalypse and the Tyrannical Emperor. I could also control their very Edicts they held so dearly as at this moment, the pieces of broken Ascendancy Halos that caused them so much pain flashed.

The Flames within these Halos they had forged over the millions of years came to life as they actually pulled upon the remaining dredges of Essence of Reality either the very bodies of these Seventh Firmament Enders and activated their strongest ultimate skills!

Bolstered by the very authority of my Ruined Sanguine Eyes of Ascendancy and the essence of my Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts that these eyes were activated through- a shocking attack that these Enders could never manage to dish out erupted as the target of these attacks were their very own Origins and souls!

Ah!

Can you imagine that?

The very concepts you had forged for millions of years turning their back against you as at your final moments, you received an attack you could not even defend against as your own Flames of Edicts and concepts battered your origin and soul!

BOOM! BOOM!

Stellar waves of light exploded out as without question, every single Seventh Firmament Ender had their Origins battered and ruined beyond repair.

My concepts were already tightly wrapped around their authority as the Essence of Apocalypse that could entirely and completely erase their souls across the spacetime Continuum was the concept to wash over them in their last moments, the newly Empowered essence of the Resplendent Treasure Emperor shining with an austere golden light as beams of Loot and thousands of Flames of Edicts erupted at this moment!

Chapter 1615 Utterly Trampling Seventh Firmament Enders! II

Loot.

Something that out of the many changing constants in my life- it would remain the one thing that I would always marvel at!

As 327 Origins of Seventh Firmament existences were ended due to me simply calling for it with my authority, the origins and souls of these beings were looted as all their achievements were turned to me with some of them magnified by multiple factors.

The golden boxes of Loot prompts rained over my luminous eyes as I could already feel my Expansive Space filled with dazzling splendor!

[+6,937,200 Cosmic Filament Cores obtained...] DING! The effects of Loot Multiplier are applied...[+693,720 Shards of a Seed of Reality are obtained.]

"..."

Was it something unexpected? Maybe not, but it was still utterly unbelievable!

693,720 Shards of a Seed of Reality!

When I took out the Gazer and Seventh Firmament Wolf Guard in the Forsaken Treasure Reality, I had only obtained over 4,000 Shards of a Seed of Reality from these beings that had reached the peak of the Seventh Firmament.

That alone was enough to grant me 4 Billion Cosmos as every single shard gave 1 Million!

But the numbers popping up now were utterly preposterous as they represented 693 Billion Cosmos.

Enough for anyone to attain the requirements to step upon the folds of Reality 6 times over!

This...was what I attained from this Nexus Event that was only beginning.

If it wasn't for the restrictions binding me right now to only 10 Billion Cosmos, achieving one of the conditions of Reality could already be considered to be in place!

But the limitations imposed by the very vast Realities would remain until one forges their Reality Passages.

And I wasn't planning to forge mine until cultivating my body and Origin with all the different methods to achieve Limit Breaking Extreme Physiques and designing my own Modus Operandi...so I was really putting my patience to the test as the tools I needed were already there!

But I could not rush it.

The establishment of Reality Passages would lay down a road and foundation that would decide everything for the future.

I was very young. There were old monsters that had lived for eons- creatures like Genevieve who were still alive from the Olden Times.

They were dreadfully powerful as while I had a mere handful of Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts, this being had over 30 that could be confirmed just from looking at her Golden Halos. And this was only if every Halo represented having a single Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict- but there could be 15 of such concepts in every Halo as that was even more dreadful to think about!

Such were the beings I would be up against if I truly wanted the solidified authority of my Kainos Emperor Bloodline to achieve anything in the future...I had to catch up with these beings one way or another.

Exceeding all possible known limitations when it came to establishing Reality Passages...this would be something crucial to bridge the gap against beings that had lived for countless eons!

So the 693,720 Shards of a Seed of Reality would simply lie in wait for me to use as something even more fantastical was the fact that this number was one that was yet to be Quadruplicated by RUINATION.

BZZZT!

My body's essence buzzed excitedly as I couldn't help but form a smile, my eyes gazing at the lifeless bodies of Seventh Firmament Enders floating motionlessly as more golden prompts of Loot rained over my eyes.

[+8,200,520 True Blood Pearls obtained...] DING! The effects of Loot Multiplier are applied...[+820,052 Existential Pearls are obtained.]

[+7,925,540 Runic Dao Line Enhancers obtained...] DING! The effects of Loot Multiplier are applied...[+792,554 Evolutionary Runic Lines of Ascendancy are obtained. ]

[+111,180 Trillion Skill Points obtained...] DING! The effects of Loot Multiplier are applied...[+111 Reality Resource Points obtained.]

Boundless prompts of glory spun out as the surrounding battlefield had turned exceedingly quiet.

The gazes of the Ninth and Eighth Firmament Enders were sharp as they gazed back and forth between my throne and the lifeless Seventh Firmament Enders, a sense of inexplicable dread beginning to spread in this enclosed domain!

But my eyes still focused on the prompts of Loot as the last prompt had a change from Cosmic Resource Points to Reality Resource Points that deserved a look into its own time. I couldn't place too much thought into it now as at this moment, the addition of Edicts at a scale I had never experienced before began!

<The effects of Absolute Looter are applied.>

<The ownership of the Insuperable Nomological Edicts and Flames of the Eight Legged Emperor, Lunacy Enthronement, Instinctual Emperor, Eyeless Beast, Fate Deceiver, Cosmic Shatterer, Firmament Scaler...have been granted.>

OOOM!

Thousands of Edicts flowed in as anything Minor, Greater, and Quasi-Insuperable surged through my very soul and then they were all instantly placed in the Soul Library.

As for the Insuperable Nomological Edicts?

OOOM!

They began to sink into my 10 Ascendancy Halos as luminous rays of crimson gold light began to blast out from the Ruined Eyes of Ascendancy!

More Edicts than even what a Ninth Firmament Tyrant could hold!

And all of them were condensed into 10 Ascendancy Halos as the moment they began to fill the remaining hundreds of slots, the vibrant Ascendancy Halos began to undergo fantastical changes.

And my aura only rose higher as even though the 100 Million Ascendancy Value remained the same, my Origin felt ceaseless and unstoppable strength that should be more than enough for me to turn my eyes towards the most prized Loot on this battlefield today!

As beams of splendorous light shot forth from my Ascendancy Halos, I raised my eyes to see the oppressive auras of the 9 Ninth Firmament Enders that were almost here.

Their eyes held grim expressions as greed still overcame them, each one having released their Reality Passages while surging towards my location!

Yet I looked forward calmly as once more- there was my belief in destiny.

There was the monster from the Olden Times who was under the delusion that I was hers to claim as she had her own sense of greed, but she knew well enough that this was a mere Clone as she wouldn't receive anything if she attacked me!

So this past Emperor from the Olden Times now protected me as the battle between me and her would be decided depending on when I obtained my TABOO Nomological Edicts.

BZZZT!

Her body caused the surrounding space to tremble as it gave off a torrential aura at the Ninth Firmament, the 30 spinning Ascendancy Halos flashing around as her as they seamlessly went to sink into her body.

...!

To protect what she thought to be her possession, this monstrous existence fused with her Ascendancy Halos to attain her true form while Reality shattering attacks rained down!

Chapter 1616 BLACK! I

A shocking development!

The existence that had revealed himself to be a Candidate Emperor for the coming Age of Emperors made a single move that caused all those on this battlefield to view him in an even more astounding light.

He had used the authority of his solidified crown to call out a dazzling throne that shone with an austere blue color at its core, its edges lined by multicolored light as it gave off unstoppable waves of mana!

With a single word, this being had broken the Ascendancy Halos of every single Seventh Firmament Primordial Beast as in the next moment, the terrific crimson eyes on his golden Ascendancy Halos flashed as they called forth destruction of these beings simultaneously.

Their own Halos...their very Essence turned against them as they effectively lost in a battle of wills against this Candidate Emperor and died on the spot!

Thereafter, this enthroned existence seemingly gazed over his work as if it was artistic perfection- his eyes flashing with a domineering golden light as what caused somberness to course through the backs of the Eighth Firmament Enders was the fact that they saw a smile light up devilishly on this being.

A smile that they felt signified cruelty and tyranny of the utmost degree as which type of being could smile like that after massacring over 300 Seventh Firmament existences in a mere instant?!

They didn't know what Noah was flashing this smile simply due to the abundant loot rushing into his Expansive Space.

They didn't know the Tyrannical Emperor was merely enjoying the fruits of his labor!

He prepared and powered up for what seemed like forever so that when he came to destroy his enemies- they could perish in an instant!

But even as he released this grandeur and shocking authority that even made the dozens of Eighth Firmament Enders somber, the surging lights that were the Ninth Firmament Tyrants actually surged down even faster as the Essence of Reality wrapped around their bodies to unleash attacks capable of folding and twisting the very Reality itself.

They sped up even faster as Noah's actions only further showed just what stupendous power and authority a Candidate Emperor of the Age of Emperors could wield- where an existence at the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy could obliterate hundreds of those in the same stage without barring an eye!

They wanted such a Bloodline.

They wanted such an authority as the assassination of Empress Genevieve actually took a back seat!

The mission of one's race and Bloodline was important....but was it more important than the seeking of Reality? These beings that had lived for millions of years answered this question as they put aside their mission to try and capture something for their own gain.

But...someone else was there who already considered herself to have laid claim to this as while her cackling crimson gold skull maddeningly surged with boundless tendrils of blood, her golden Halos surged into her body as she went to take on what should have been her True Form.

But halfway there as an aurora of Resplendent wings of light began to emerge from her back while she enlarged, her incandescent hands reached out to grasp tightly onto the cackling skull as thereafter...its crimson light began to merge with her as it eventually fused!

THUMP!

Everyone's soul skipped a beat as they saw the shocking scene of an Item at the level of TABOO actually merging with a living existence.

Even the regal enthroned Unnamed Kainos Emperor's eyes flashed as his throne leaked seas of Mana with his eyes rising up in slight surprise!

BOOOM!

A storm of essence burst and surrounded the figure of Genevieve as pure madness leaked from her, the visage she took on being displayed in a shocking fashion as she enlarged to be bigger than all other beings here. Her form...it was utterly serene and in no way matched her demeanor as everyone's eyes locked onto a black and white furred magisterial creature that was dazzling with profound light.

Pairs of aurora wings erupted from its back as an enlarged illusory crown spun above it, its head filled with crimson gold fur unlike the black and white of its whole body as three regal furred tails waved majestically behind it!

Floating on its four glorious bestial furred legs, the head of this creature was the most shocking as two crimson gold skull horns erupted from its sides that weaved together to form the Runic Ecriture that meant <MADNESS>.

The face seemed like a mixture of a lioness and dragon as the most striking thing about it was its eyes. Exceedingly large eyes for its face as they shone of a stellar endless river within each of them- immense wrath being felt within as these eyes flashed out with a glorious and unstoppable light.

An endless river of star light that divided into nine rivers that surged towards every single Ninth Firmament Ender- the very Reality being pierced and torn as the impact was disastrous!

BOOOOM!

Billowing spatial storms rose as the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans looked towards Empress Genevieve in shock and confusion.

Her True Form was not that of a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human. It was instead of an unknown species of a beast that shone with unbound majesty as they found themselves questioning if they were seeing properly!

"What are you fools doing?! Aid the Empress!"

...!

It was only Beatrix's voice that shook them out of their stupor as they moved to block and oppress the bestial Enders that had their eyes shining with a light fall of unbound greed.

A light that the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human Guards tried to repress as one could see the Ninth Firmament middle aged Pure-Blooded Royal Human gaze at Noah in the corner of his eyes with a cold glint!

Yet the Kainos Emperor on his throne had only given his few microseconds to the true form of Genevieve before he even turned his eyes elsewhere- not paying attention to any of them as his Ascendancy Halos vibrated and spun around him while releasing beams of multicolored light.

The oppressive air he released seemed to be condensing as his surroundings twisted and churned, and this was because hundreds of Flames of Edicts were being pumped into the mere 10 Ascendancy Halos as they pulsed with shocking might that didn't seem to be capable of being held in!

CRACK!

A sound akin to glass shattering echoed out once.

CRACK!

Then for a second time, and then a third...until it reached the tenth!

The 10 golden Ascendancy Halos could not withstand the sheer amount of Concepts within them as...

<The number of Concepts within a single Ascendancy Halo has exceeded established limits and parameters as a higher tier of Halo is required to contain them.>

...!

<You have reached the Boundary of the Tier of a Halo of Ascendancy only accessible with the inclusion of the Flames of a TABOO Nomological Edict.>

WAA!

Chapter 1617 BLACK! II

In the hidden folds of space veiled by a Mirror Reality.

"...do you guys have a record of that one?"

The Nine Reality Horned Unicorn had its horn releasing multicolored light as it spoke lightly while watching the black and white furred bestial form that a certain being had taken. The pairs of aurora wings on its back and the crimson gold demonic horns twisting to write MADNESS took their attention as no matter how one looked at it- they couldn't find out its species! Even its head seemed like a mixture of a lioness and a dragon as its eyes of brutality shone with a stellar light!

"If it is just a mixed blood Disaster Remnant, this will be even easier. The worry of the Olden Emperor of the Golden Eye when he sends us out is if we come across a Pure-Blooded Disaster Remnant trying to reestablish themselves."

The Eclipsing Celestial Void Eye's words rumbled out with ancientness as it gazed down, all three of these beings becoming quiet as even though they were speaking about the Disaster Remnant they came here to kill, their eyes were currently locked onto another being entirely!

The revolving luminous eyes of the Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird shone with gorgeous splendor as its maddeningly oppressive voice echoed out.

"A Candidate Emperor has risen...this one being beside a Disaster Remnant."

WAA!

The words were stated coldly and callously as the eyes of all of these three beings maintained their regality, but another emotion was budding with them!

Silence reigned as they watched this being's figure suffused with light, the scene of his golden Ascendancy Halos shedding their outer layer and releasing a terrifying new color! The rising emotion in their eyes only became firmer at this scene as the Eclipsing Celestial Void Eye's voice boomed out.

"We are simply observers and cannot make a move against Candidate Emperors of the coming Era."

"..."

"Yet the will of the Past Emperor has stipulated that when a future Candidate Emperor associates with any of the Remnants...we have the right to eradicate them if we can."

OOOM!

Waves of destiny exploded out silently at these words as the three beings went quiet.

They were utterly unique creatures who came from an astounding Lineage- their backs carrying the weight and will of the existence who had taken reigns and all the authority in the Olden Times!

His will stretched out far as those who carried it...were purely dreadful existences that others of the same stage could not compare to.

"Then...destiny shall decide which one of us lands the killing blow to obtain Candidacy for the coming Kainos Era."

....!

Such a decision was made as their choice only became firmer when they saw what was happening around this existence that still released an aura that had not exceeded the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy!

<You have reached the Boundary of the Tier of a Halo of Ascendancy only accessible with the inclusion of the Flames of a TABOO Nomological Edict.>

WAA!

The Ascendancy Halos surrounding Noah pulsed with vibrant light as they seemingly couldn't hold the concepts surging within them anymore- cracks beginning to spread out as the golden grandeur of the Halos was gradually washed away!

With the gold fading away, a new color was blooming as shockingly...dazzlingly glorious rays of utter blackness pierced out and covered everything.

CRAAACK....BOOOM!

Like a prisoner freed. Like shackles that were binding it down.... The color gold faded from the Ascendancy Halos as their outer exterior entirely shed to reveal pristine and breathtaking Ascendancy Halos that were utterly Black!

A black that shone with a dazzling aura as those who gazed at it might never be able to look away.

<An Astounding Achievement! You have exceeded the possible limits of a Golden Tier Ascendancy Halo that can be obtained through the inclusion of a Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict and unlocked the Black Tier Ascendancy Halo that can be obtained through the inclusion of a TABOO Nomological Edict.>

WAA!

<By exceeding the limit of 50 Edicts within a single Ascendancy Halo, the condition to unlock the authority of a Black Tier Ascendancy Halo was achieved. Your Affinity to the natural laws of the Infinite Realities has risen as your Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality are raised by...>

Prompt after prompt cascaded down as a shocking reality unfolded!

Pristinely Black Ascendancy Halos surrounded Noah as they surged with unworldly grace and might, the hearts of all beings quivering in fear as the only one who only batted him an eye...was the bestial form of the Empress!

"What the fuck?!" A sonorous voice that seemed to come from a sacred beast.

The pace of the battle was interrupted yet again as shock ran through the hearts of every existence here.

This obscene Candidate Emperor seemed to be showing off one thing after another as what he had shown right now was simply too unbelievable!

Pure obsidian Black Ascendancy Halos! What did they represent? What exactly did they mean?! All existences remaining alive on this locked down domain knew.

The eyes of the Empress were not filled with shock or trembling- simply disbelief from the sheer fact that she did not agree that the black Halos of Light she saw stood for what they really represented.

She had tangled with this being before for hundreds of days as if he had the sufficient requirements to actually make his Ascendancy Halos Black- she would be in a worse state right now!

No. He was a unique existence with the right to become a Candidate Emperor by himself, but he could not have TABOO Nomological Edicts to make this possible.

And yet there he was situated upon his throne majestically as 10 Black Tier Ascendancy Halos undulated around him, giving him an austere light of shocking authority as his eyes opened at this time to lock onto specific beings!

The Eighth Firmament Primordial Beasts.

BZZZT!

Their hearts shuddered as they had the illusion of a billowing beast far greater than them locking onto their very souls as prey, this beast grandly sitting on a throne as he actually raised his right hand at this moment and beckoned.

A beckoning...that caused an illusory flash of Reality to appear as a menacing Spear of Reality thundered down- crying out with fervor as it seemed to be calling for blood!

Chapter 1618 BLACK! III

[<Back Tier Ascendancy Halo>:: A tremendous achievement that can only be brought about by touching upon the stage of TABOO concepts that irrevocably alter the very Reality. Other methods of obtaining this Tier of Halo exist as the exceeding of 50 fused Bloodlines of Nomological Edicts into a single Halo has allowed for this Halo to come to fruition. The concepts contained in this Halo are granted the Reality Altering Affix [Evolvable] as they automatically become concepts that can be elevated through their own specific means. A permanent and thorough method of elevation of Concepts can also be done through transferring the Tier of one concept to another- where the Quasi-TABOO Tier of a Nomological Edict contained within this Halo can be transferred to a lower tier Edict within the same Halo permanently. Abilities that require the Essence of Reality utilized through the authority of the Black Tier Ascendancy Halo only require half the normal amount of such a resource as offensive abilities are granted a multiplier of 100 True Reality Damage Values and defensive abilities are granted a multiplier of 100 True Reality Defense Values. A single True Reality Damage Value is equivalent to the explosive force of an imploding Reality while a single True Reality Defense Value is a barrier only broken by a force capable of shattering a single Reality...]

[...Along with this, a single Black Tier Ascendancy Halo grants the generation of 1 Million Royal Cosmos Daily- with this number increasing even more over time as the True Blood within your origin is passively refined. The daily passive generation of 1,000 Units of the Essence of Reality is granted, and the chance to increase this will come when TABOO Nomological Edicts begin to occupy the Ascendancy Halo. The Eyes of Ascendancy permeating across an Ascendancy Halo have also received a great elevation in their authority as denying them will require a great deal of Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts. The results of the fusion of Black Tier Ascendancy Halos are still unknown as the true value can only be ascertained when you fuse with them for the first time...]

Many things rose up as Noah's focus had locked in a singular new concept.

True Reality Damage Value!

Normally, the most powerful Seventh Firmament existences across the vast realities could display a Single True Reality Damage Value as they could release attacks capable of shattering Emerging Realities.

An example was Overseer Natalya or the Heartsplitter Bow that Noah had crafted which could release attacks with a force of a single explosive Reality!

Then you had common powerful Eighth Firmament existences who had obtained 1 or 2 Reality Passages after breaking their shackles- and such beings could use their Essence of Reality to rain down damage equivalent to the force of 10 exploding Realities, or they could release 10 True Reality Damage Values at their base.

Of course, you had truly exceptional existences in the Eighth Firmament who could exceed this value and even display 20 or 30 True Reality Damage Values as it was a force equivalent to 30 Realities exploding simultaneously on your face!

Then...you had singular unique cases like Empress Genevieve.

An existence from the Olden Times as she had seamlessly stepped onto the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy and released nine rulers of shining rivers of Reality that thundered towards Nine Ninth Firmament Enders!

For her to be capable of matching the strikes of Ninth Firmament Enders, she had to release 9 attacks that held equivalent damage to 100+ True Reality Damage Values as that was the norm for existences of this level!

Under what seemed to be her true form and while fused with MADNESS, she had shockingly been capable of achieving such a feat.

Now, there was Noah.

Through his sheer shocking powerups in the last few hours, he had conducted multiple actions that all culminated into a Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict that allowed him to fuse 60 Flames of Edicts into a single Halo.

An action that broke apart a Limit and allowed him to unlock Black Tier Ascendancy Halos that allowed any abilities released with their authority to dish out a multiplier of 100 True Reality Damage Values! Attacks equivalent to the powerful Ninth Firmament existences!

This applied to any and all abilities utilized with the Authority of a Black Tier Ascendancy Halo as when one recalled the fact that Noah had unlocked Instant Cast, he could theoretically release waves of attacks equivalent to the explosive force of 100 shattering Realities.

"..."

Dreadful.

An utterly dreadful path had been unlocked at this moment by the Unnamed Kainos Emperor!

100 True Reality Damage Values were granted to Noah purely through the Black Tier Ascendancy Halo he cast an ability from, and then there was the factor of the cast abilities themselves one had to consider.

If Noah cast an Ability that could release an explosive force of 1 Reality, then the released multiplier True Reality Damage Value would still be 100. But if he released an ability with a base offense of 2 shattering Realities, the Multiplier True Reality Damage Value would be 200...and so on!

This single unlocked feature that only came after Noah upgraded a great deal of things could now allow him to dish out damage equivalent to Ninth Firmament experts as he could even act this way defensively with a multiplier of True Reality Defensive Value.

This was just one thing that the Black Tier Ascendancy Halo granted as apart from this, each Ascendancy Halo granted 1,000 Units of daily passive generation of the Essence of Reality!

Each!

It meant that Noah currently had a passive generation of 10,000 Units of the Essence of Reality from his 10 Ascendancy Halos as on top of this, there was the formation of 1 million Royal Cosmos for each Halo, and his Eyes of Ascendancy having their authority even further strengthened.

This was what the Tier of Black granted!

It was...

"Glorious!"

RUUMBLE!

His voice rumbled out explosively for everyone to hear for the first time, the Throne he sat on vibrating as he swung the Spear of Reality within his hands with utter majesty, his essence moving onto a single Black Tier Ascendancy Halo as he called out again- but this time he Infused his voice with <Emperor's Haki>!

"GLORIOUS!"

"...!!!"

BOOOOOM!

Chapter 1619 Refine with the Blood of Enders!

Situated atop a multicolored throne, an Emperor called out with a devilish smile as he pulled upon a shocking newly granted authority.

"GLORIOUS!"

BOOOOOM!

Horrifically, an area of effect ability was the first thing Noah utilized.

It did not differentiate against friends or foes as the will of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor traveled through sound waves and smashed onto every single existence here!

SQUELCH!

The dozens of Eighth Firmament existences felt their Origins tremble as all of them spat out blood and felt as if they had the wind knocked out of their very origins.

The innate defenses of the Ninth Firmament existences buzzed and trembled as they felt this attack nearly pass through, their auditory senses buzzing as they looked towards the shocking existence atop the throne with pure shock!

The Candidate Emperor of the coming Kainos Era had spoken a single word as he utilized an area of effect ability to do it, his mere voice carrying with it the force of 100 shattering Realities as it caused Eight Firmament existences to nearly face the destruction of their Origins right then and there!

Beatrix had blood leaking from her mouth as she ground her teeth dangerously, while Empress Genevieve's fur fluttered as her eyes also showed a true trace of genuine shock!

Genuine shock!

And how could one not be shocked at such a reality when if they looked at this being- they saw that he had not even achieved his Reality Passages or broken through any of his shackles.

He was still bound below the Eighth Firmament...so why could he release an attack of a Ninth Firmament existence with his mere voice alone?!

Such a question was asked in all their minds as it was actually one that was answered moments ago...this answer also clicking in their minds soon after.

There wasn't a reason to ask how.

The only reason one needed to explain this was the fact that this existence before them was a Candidate Emperor of the coming Age of Emperors who had already solidified his authority and crown!

Of course his capabilities were disastrous!

Of course he could do something as shocking as what he just did!

It was just...his Realm confused them as even now, they had not seen him call upon his Reality Passages even once as their senses truly told them he had yet to reach the Eighth Firmament.

If this proved to be true, then this existence before them was just...

"Monstrous..."

WAA!

The holy voice that seemed to be coming from a Sacred Beast rang out from Genevieve, her black and white fur swaying slightly as her crimson gold winding horns shimmered with an austere stellar light.

Yet the existence upon the throne did not pay attention to this as with his scintillating Spear of Reality waving majestically, he came to point it towards the cluster of shaken Eighth Firmament Enders as his throne began to float forward.

OOOOM!

His movements caused cold sweat to run down the souls of these Enders as they recalled how their very origins had tumbled and shook from this being's mere voice carried by his will, some of these Enders being in the far back of the locked down domain as they unconsciously pulled back until they felt the Boundary of the laid down domain stop them from going any further back!

Fear.

These beings were truly feeling fear as they had felt the damage to their Origins close hand, knowing they couldn't handle anymore of such damage as with such an existence turning his attention towards them, they could do nothing but tremble as their eyes pleasingly gazed up towards the Ninth Firmament Enders!

Ninth Firmament Enders who at this moment were also looking towards Noah with somber gazes after deflecting the fearsome strikes of Empress Genevieve.

The Eighth Firmament existences were scared, and those at the Ninth were somber!

And then there was Noah himself.

His eyes spun with luminous light as with a devilish smile, his crown floated forward while his stellar Cosmic form could be seen releasing waves of austere resplendence, his Spear of Reality pointed forward as he once more called upon his will and cast <Emperor's Haki> through the authority of a Black Tier Ascendancy Halo while suffusing his voice into it!

"PERISH!"

BOOOM!

The area of effect will that dispersed the explosive force of 100 shattered Realities boomed out indiscriminately once more as chaos ensued.

"Ah..!"

"Ancestral Enders!"

SQUELCH!

The body of the weakest Eighth Firmament Ender could not handle it as its Origin received an impact it could not defend against, its Reality Passage flickering and dwindling soon after as its body cracked apart into a golden shower of True Blood and gore!

WAA!

The throne of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor neared the area of this exploded Ender with his spear pointed forward, the exploding blood surging and seething as it began to coil around his spear and surge into his body- arcs of crimson gold tendrils beginning to form around him as he looked entirely devilish.

<Arcadian Body and Soul Refinement> was activated.

The glimmer of Loot Prompts with the exception of racial Bloodlines rang out as the Bloodlines and True Blood of these existences...they went towards the refinement of a Limit Breaking Extreme Arcadian Physique at this moment!

Noah's actions caused the bodies of the remaining Eighth Firmament existences to turn ragged as they called upon everything they had to defend themselves against a spread out force of 100 shattering Realities.

The Ninth Firmament Existences felt as if a sharp hammer was billowing on their defenses as if they were weak existences of this level...they might already be injured!

But each of them were shockingly powerful in this stage as every single one had more than one Reality Passage.

They were powerful, but they were becoming increasingly somber as the damage they still defended against right now was potent as this being...it didn't seem like he was going to stop after he bathed and consumed the blood of a single Eighth Firmament Ender.

His shimmering throne turned towards those nearby and those scrambling to get out of the way as he ridiculously spoke out with a booming voice once more.

"EXPLODE!"

BOOM! BOOM!

Over three Eighth Firmament Enders could not handle it as their bodies erupted in a shower of blood that all surged towards the Unnamed Kainos Emperor, his throne floating forward with an unmatched visage as the True Blood and Racial Bloodlines of these existences all surged to his body to refine a stellar Physique- his skin and muscles releasing a multicolored light as this was the second Limit Breaking Extreme Physique he was cultivating at the same time!

"Fucking stop! Please!"

Off to one side of the locked domain, Beatrix's voice echoed out as she kneeled in space, her body bleeding all over as her Ascendancy Halos released a cocoon of light around her. She was battered and beaten to the point that she was bleeding, and she could at most take another set of these attacks before she actually perished just like these Enders as she called out to Noah murderously while also gazing towards Empress Genevieve.

The other Eighth Firmament Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans were in the same state as the Empress turned towards the visage of the shocking existence with a sharp gaze, Noah only smiling as he didn't pay any heed and instead continued to lock onto the scrambling Eighth Firmament Enders.

None of them dared to even come close to him as they truly were scrambling out of the way, some even rushing towards their Ancestral Enders that were the Ninth Firmament Primordial Beasts!

As the gaze of Empress Genevieve locked onto him dangerously, Noah pointed his Spear of Reality forward as a Black Tier Ascendancy Halo flashed, another ability being cast.

An ability that would carry with it the multiplied force of 100 True Reality Damage Value as it was equivalent to the force of 100 shattering Realities!

It was...

"Fireball."

...!

BRRRR!!!

Chapter 1620 Refine With the Blood of Enders! II

A Tyrant sat on a throne as shockingly, an assassination of an Empress of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline by the Enders of Reality had now turned to something with him at the center of focus!

Wielding a glimmering Spear of Reality, he pointed towards extremely powerful existences that had opened their Reality Passages.

Existences that would normally be looked at as Grand Elders of Bloodlines- these ones being magisterial beasts that could devour entire Emerging Realities!

Variations and combinations of Foxes, Draconic Beasts, deep sea creatures, and even ancient Frost Beasts who had lived for hundreds of millions of years. Each of them had a Reality Passage glittering behind them as no matter their grandeur before this- they currently ran away while scrambling towards the nearest Ninth Firmament Ender they could find!

Golden blood was already leaking profusely from their bodies as they had already suffered disastrous injuries just from the words of the Tyrant upon a throne as now...this being spoke once more as his voice caused them to shudder.

"Fireball."

BRRRR!!!

Pure fantastical wonder bloomed as crimson balls of Flames that glimmered with the illusion of a stellar river of Reality reverberated out.

Each one shone with the blinding light of stellar bodies as they seemed to contain a whole illusory Reality within them, dozens blooming out as when they exploded- they would release the shocking force contained within them that could rip apart Realities!

They shot out with speed and haste that the moment they bloomed...they instantly arrived at their targets an instant later as explosive sounds that tore apart space itself and caused Unstable spatial storms ruptured the bodies of any Eighth Firmament Enders they came across!

Unstable spatial storms that raged with crimson flames of extreme heat that caused the surrounding space to turn molten!

BOOOM...RIIIP!

Horrific sounds echoed out as it seemed like exploding balls of Realities had been thrown over, bestial limbs and True Blood flying out on all sides as the being to cause all this simply raised his spear thereafter and spread his will out, the 8 Eighth Firmament Enders that had fallen to a mere cast of [Fireball] that carried with it the True Reality Damage Value of 100 having all their True Blood and Bloodlines surging towards him.

As this occurred, his luminous eyes that spun with palpable excitement gazed around to lock onto the remaining Eighth Firmament Enders that actually prayed that he wouldn't turn his eyes towards them!

They continued to scramble as far away from him as possible, while some were finally able to hide behind the visage of the Ninth Firmament Enders!

And as all of this occurred, prompts of loot continued to descend before Noah's eyes as he watched them in passing, his eyes only twinkling when something truly special came around!

<The ownership of the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict and Flames of the Nine Tailed Emperor has been granted.>

Every now and then, an Eighth Firmament Ender that had a golden Ascendancy Halo would fall as a Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict or two would be granted to Noah.

This was what caught his eyes the most as a large number of Insuperable Nomological Edicts also flowed in, Noah placing everything he couldn't use towards the Soul Library while he continued to marvel at the results of his actions and what he had now grown to be capable of doing!

And this...was just the cusp of the possibilities as the methods of Empowerment he had in his hands were simply monstrous.

The tens of thousands of Nomological Edicts he received from the Seventh Firmament Enders and even the top tier Edicts he was receiving right now from the tens of Eighth Firmament Enders...any of those that he didn't need, he could burn them under the Authority of the Throne of Arcadian Tyranny to elevate his soul even further.

The stronger his soul was, the more concepts he could handle. The more concepts he could handle, the more terrifying the power he could display! Theoretically, the possibilities truly were endless as what Noah was doing was akin to a positive feedback cycle of just more and more!

SHAA!

The surroundings calmed as Noah's disastrous attack died down, leaving over 17 Eighth Firmament existences dead from a mere cast of Fireball as the equivalent of 100 imploding Realities honed in on these beings and battered them to the point that they could not defend.

Fiery Unstable spatial storms and molten space stretched out in arcs as Noah tested the True Reality Damage Value of his Black Tier Ascendancy Halos, coming to few conclusions after testing abilities a few times!

One was the fact that the authority to grant the 100 True Reality Damage Value multiplier was permitted only through the Halo that cast the ability, where Noah could not pull upon all 10 Black Halos to cast a single ability and stack their 100 True Reality Damage Multipliers until they reached 1,000!

The most he could do was Instant Cast the same ability ten times or ten different abilities at the same time through the 10 different Halos, being capable of achieving multiple attacks that each contained 100 True Reality Damage Values- effectively being capable of landing 10 basic consecutive attacks of a Ninth Firmament existence.

'But...what will happen when I seamlessly fuse with the authority of all 10 Ascendancy Halos? What True Reality Damage Value will be attained then?!

...!

His thoughts were wild and untamed as he had truly stepped onto a grand stage when he still hadn't broken his shackles and forged his Reality Passages.

What an achievement this was!

Most Ninth Firmament existences touched upon 100 True Reality Damage Values with their most powerful attacks as those within this rank that were the most powerful could dish out 200 to 400 True Reality Damage Values- if not more depending on what type of existence they were!

This was the stage Noah had arrived at as he reveled in it while his body was refining the Limit Breaking Extreme Mana Physique and the Limit Breaking Arcadian Physique simultaneously.

As the blood of Enders rushed into his body and coursed through him, faint blue lines that shone with beauty were becoming etched onto his stellar skin as these represented the Runic Mana Lines of Ascendancy whose description was gradually forming in Noah's mind- this concept containing its own unique surprises!

BZZZT!

The Blood in the surroundings fully surged into Noah as the chaotic space still held raging flames that could burn apart any below the Eighth Firmament, all those left in the battlefield entirely somber as they watched Noah turn his Atlatl of Reality towards the 28 remaining Eighth Firmament Primordial Beasts.

It was time for him to wipe out these existences and use their blood merely for refinement, where his eyes would then target the main course of this Nexus Event- the Ninth Firmament Enders!

Those were the beings that Noah would utilize his Resplendent Treasure Cache on!

WAA!

He wanted an attack to eradicate all his chosen enemies at this moment as for the purposes of testing things, he now moved on to how the authority of the Black Tier Halo of Ascendancy could be used when an ability of a Relic was cast while he utilized this same Relic.

...!

He wanted to see just what the Atlatl of Reality would cause as this weapon now carried the weight of over 80 fused Emerging Realities and as of now, 10 fully assimilated Prime Realities!
