

Mana 1661

Chapter1661 LETHE! IV

10,000 was a hard restriction for the maximum reserves of the Essence of Reality that was set for those in the Seventh Firmament. 100,000 was another limitation above that that was set for those on the Eighth Firmament!

It didn't mean that most existences in the Eighth Firmament reached the 100,000 cap- just that the most astounding and genius of existences had this as their limitation.

This was the limitation Noah faced now while still in the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy...so what could stop him now if he swallowed multiple Liquified Realities to break apart this limitation!?

It was an action that would further build his foundation to ridiculous levels as he exceeded all known boundaries before even breaking his shackles.

The Resplendent Treasure Caches from the three Olden Emperors always went above and beyond to surprise as after a TABOO Relic and something like Liquified Realities, a single Dimensional Essence Shard was replenished as there was even another item from the set of the Warring Emperor- this time a Helm!

Unlike the Aegis of the Warring Emperor that granted the 20 True Reality Defense Values, the Helm of the Warring Emperor granted 5 True Reality Damage Values and 5 True Reality Defense Values as it wasn't as domineering.

But if Noah gained the third item from the Warring Emperor Set...his destiny told him there would be a boon to look out for as one of the Set Effects should be achieved at that time!

Then, there were the Dream Stones and the last item Noah controlled himself to gaze at last- the Blueprint of the <Kainos Orbs of Transmogrification>.

<Dream Stones>(100/100):: Crush a single Dream Stone in your hands and fall into a Dream that lasts a million years. Dream Stones are rare materials found across the Dream Dimensions as they temper the disposition and soul of an existence, allowing them to live a million years with the passage of mere hours in the outside Cosmos. An existence before and after crushing a Dream Stone could be vastly different in their thought process as the strength of their soul will experience varying levels of elevation depending on what they accomplished in their Dream...

<Blueprint of the Kainos Orb of Transmogrification>:: The methodology to craft an Amalgamation of authority privy only to the Kainos Era, with its usages indicating a relation to TABOO. The materials required to forge it are 1,000 Naturally Formed Primordial Treasures, 5,000 Ascendant Breaths of Reality, 5,000 Mirror Essence Crystals, and 50,000 Units of Golden Sand. More information of the usage and applications of the Kainos Orb of Transmogrification will be available once forged....

Stupendous new forms of loot appeared as the Dream Stones had their own wonders, and then there was the Blueprint of the Kainos Orb of Transmogrification.

"Another pathway towards TABOO, is it?"

A devilish smile rose on Noah's face as he read all the materials required to even forge a single Kainos Orb of Transmogrification, a decent amount of work laid on his plate to find even more materials at this moment!

BZZZT!

His body even released pulses of profound light at this time as the Assimilation of three Olden Bloodlines into his Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline continued, Noah turning his sight to the many tasks he had to accomplish.

With the materials he had on hand, it was also possible for him to bring to fruition a goal that he thought would take weeks to achieve!

"RUINATION."

WAA!

The crimson gold humanoid figure of the treasure with spectacular capabilities appeared, emotionless on the surface as always but...one could see a hint of excitement hidden deep within the endlessly red eyes.

"There are many things to do...but why don't we get started with you?"

...!

The cards were set.

A great number of materials and means were laid out before Noah's hands as he had many tasks to do, proceeding first with the elevation of RUINATION as there were many other tasks that required to make use of all the things he had gained!

Now, it was time to utilize everything as by the time his True Sanguine Clone reached the Pure Blooded Domains...his power would be entirely different from what it was now.

Within the Cosmic Holy Land, many actions began to be taken as in the outside Realities, time passed.

War bloomed across the vast realities as within a certain hidden Infinite Reality, there was only calmness and peace as the inhabitants within were isolated from any form of conflict!

They would never know the effort and sweat that went to make all this happen as only those in the vast Realities suffered as many Bloodlines became entangled in conflict- each side seeking supremacy as a new Era ushered in.

Due to the level of power of the beings involved, countless events and things could occur within a single second- much less a few hours that they could fill many pages of one were to write them down.

Such events bloomed as the river of time and destiny flowed...a mere 2 days passed just like this.

Merely 2 days...yet the changes to the Hegemony of many Bloodlines and Realities were greatly different as past all of this- there were the biggest changes that would occur with the being that had hidden himself in his Reality to utilize the many boons he had on him!

—
Across the vast Realities.

A vessel in the form of a flat Reality was tearing across the Boundary Between Realities, beautiful structures akin to a fantastical small metropolis being seen atop this vessel as the aura of three prominent beings could be felt!

Atop one of the tallest skyscrapers, an exquisite scene of a grill could be seen. The glistening golden meat of Ninth Firmament Primordial Beasts could currently be seen simmering as the Unnamed Kainos Emperor poured golden liquid over it that caused crimson flames to rage even higher around it- a shocking smell erupting out that would cause anyone to drool!

To the opposite end of the skyscraper, the figure of Empress Genevieve adorned in a free flowing white fluffy cloak and the tight golden wrappings would be seen- her figure putting most ruling queens to shame as Beatrix could be seen dressed similarly to her left.

The two of them were staring at the scene of Noah freely grilling Enders while they neared the Pure Blooded Domains, but their eyes weren't on the meat that was even affecting their senses as they were instead staring above the head of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor.

"You have lost your crown."

...!

The eyes of Empress Genevieve were exceedingly cold as she finally spoke about the disappearance of the solidified crown on top of Noah.

Yet Noah continued grilling freely as he replied back.

"I will never lose my crown."

WAA!

A play of words as the Unnamed Kainos Emperor asserted that he would never lose his authority...even if they could not see it!

Genevieve's lips curved into a sneer at this reply as she gazed out from the Quasi-TABOO Relic Iridescent Reality and into the vastness of space they were crossing.

"You know that in the Olden Times, any existence who was capable of hiding their Authority as an Emperor was called a coward...and also someone that was feared as one would never know when they would make a move."

She seemed to be thinking of the past as she spoke, Noah's voice coming to ring in her ears as it took her out of her memories.

"Does the Empress think of me as a coward or someone to be feared?"

BZZZT!

Dazzling waves of destiny erupted from the stating of these words as Noah even turned away from the meat he was grilling to gaze at the Empress while waiting for her reply.

But...

HOOONG!

Before the conversation could even continue, a burst of violent spatial essence could be felt towards the distance that the Iridescent Reality was actually going Towards.

"Hmm?"

The eyes of all three beings atop it gazed forward as since they were nearing the Pure Blooded Domains, they would naturally start coming across terrifyingly powerful and important existences!

But the aura and destiny of the ones that could be felt up ahead...was something entirely unexpected.

The Unnamed Kainos Emperor was arriving into new lands as along the way, an unexpected welcome party came across them!

Chapter 1662 A Meeting and Progress! I

Three personages had been on the road for the past two days as they neared the Pure Blooded Domains at this moment, the Iridescent Reality flowing freely with stellar bodies as when it felt the vibrant force coming up ahead, it slowed down and calmly came to a stop.

The Pure Blooded Domains were different compared to the stretches of the Boundary Between Realities in other regions under the Authority of other Bloodlines, where one could routinely see vessels and the auras of existences floating throughout as there were even check points and stations to eventually cross as one delved in further!

This was because once they entered the periphery of these Pure Blooded Domains, they could have access to the lands of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Reality Ursidae, Infinite Willow Trees, and Humans along with the two other profound Primordial Bloodlines stretching their influence across Realities.

The 5 Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodlines held the most power among Primordials, with the normal Cardinal Royal Bloodlines like the Royal Wolf Bloodline or Royal Spirit Bloodlines were considered second class.

Most Legends that have propagated outside the vast Realities stemmed from the 5 Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodlines, with their history among the Primordial being deep and entrenched throughout as it was even rumored that the last True Emperor who had obtained authority had stemmed from these 5 Bloodlines!

Eons of history, and immeasurably powerful.

These were the lands Noah was entering as at this moment, the profound coagulation of auras they felt spatial essence from began to materialize before their eyes.

"Hmmm?"

Noah's eyes sparkled as he gained even greater interest, his will seeing the appearance of a small Legion of white robed Primordials who were mostly in the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy, with the front most beings actually letting out power as A Legend's Visage at the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy!

A few hundred beings...all in the same stage!

It was a profound party to come across as Noah had a fair knowledge of such small Legions from the memories of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans he had decimated and the Will Bearers of the Olden Emperor of the Golden Eye.

There were a few specialized groups hidden as the core power of Primordial Bloodlines.

One was the Will Bearers that acted under the Authority of Legends, dispatched to eradicate vestiges of existences, Disaster Remnants, or particularly heinous existences on the Primordial Blacklist.

Then there were small Legions like the one that rose before them.

"Primordial Adjudicators..."

BZZZT!

The words stemmed from Empress Genevieve as she and Beatrix closely gazed forward at the coming party and actually recognized some of the beings within it, seeing those with authority clearly as among the sizable Legion of Ninth Firmament existences, there was one fairly young man floating at the forefront with a dazzling solidified crown above his head, and a cosmic toppling young woman with a cold expression that had an illusory crown above her head!

Her skin was tanned with a bronze hue as dazzling hair flowed to her shoulders, her eyes covered by a multicolored stellar hue as the White robe was barely able to hide the curves underneath them, and her expression was akin to an empress that oversaw vast Grotto Sanctums with everything under her feet.

The man floating next to her had an astound identity as he had crimson and gold hair dancing with soul shaking light, his skin fair and his eyes entirely black as if they could swallow everything!

His visage was more astounding and wild than anyone else here as it seemed just from a flick of his fingers or a blink of his eyes, he could tear apart the Natural Laws of Reality!

But even though this was an astounding personage who had even attained authority as a Kainos Emperor, Empress Genevieve was staring at the dark haired brown skinned beauty beside him as she called out with genuine surprise.

"Nefertiti..."

WAA!

The uttering of the name caused a sharp light to cross in the eyes of the dazzling woman as she replied coldly.

"It is Adjudicator Nefertiti. How many times must I remind you of this, Genevieve?"

Boundless authority leaked from her as she held profound power at the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy!

"It's Empress Genevieve..." Genevieve spoke while actually going forward and tapping the solidified crown above her with a smile. "It's not the young woman who you barely gazed at in the past when you left everything behind. With this, you might actually have to call me Bloodline Master."

...!

The two spoke as if they knew each other, and they truly had a deep history as the Primordial Adjudicator Nefertiti stemmed from the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans!

But over a million years ago, she had left all her authority within her Bloodline to join the Legion of Primordial Adjudicators under a single being.

One of the beings talked about in the core circles of Primordials as one of the true Candidate Emperors of the coming Era due to his profound disposition and power- and this was further proved by the fact that he had already attained his solidified crown!

He had many titles, but one of the most known ones...was Adjudicator Ezekiel.

His eyes were calm even while seeing a fellow Kainos Emperor, only flashing with brightness at the Quasi-TABOO Relic they stood one while his gaze passed by Beatrix and then Noah!

"Hmm?"

Ever so briefly, his gaze passed on Noah just for an extra second before it faded, the voice of Adjudicator Nefertiti ringing out to cover everything once more.

"Bloodline Master...merely an authority in name for cowards to fight for! It is why I left it behind for you and that weak naive girl who should have been ahead of you, but you seemed to have not perished amidst this blooming chaos and even made great gains!"

She was also gazing at the solidified crown above Genevieve as it truly represented too many things.

For a Candidate Emperor of a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline to have Candidacy to become a True Emperor of an Era...their ascension was nearly guaranteed as boundless glory awaited for them!

But shockingly, Adjudicator Nefertiti actually referred to those acting as figureheads of Bloodlines an authority in name for cowards!

This was because genius Primordials at the Eighth and Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy truly had many options to choose from for their destiny, and some believed that the most opportune destiny lay in other paths and positions as they even disdained the figureheads that would be tasked with overseeing the day to day of workings of their Bloodline.

"A weak, naive girl..." Empress Genevieve said these words as the image of one a young girl with exceeding disposition and beauty appeared in her mind, with her eyes trembling with light an instant later as they rose to gaze towards another direction in space!

Their party and the party of the Primordial Adjudicators were facing each other, but they felt a third part with yet another profound aura come towards their left as another entrant party appeared at this meeting today!

They moved quickly as golden robed existences making up a small Legion similar to the first party they had met appeared, this one having a single young woman at the forefront that held dazzling white hair and fair skin, her eyes glazed over by illusory Realities as she held a shocking disposition that could make average Ninth Firmament existences have their souls shatter from her mere look...even though she herself seemed like a precious creature that evoked feelings of protection the moment one saw her!

"Weak and Naive...it is always great to hear you talk about me, Big Sis Nefertiti."

WAA!

With astounding visage, the last entrant of this meeting today appeared.

An insignificant meeting that shouldn't hold too much importance as the vast majority of participants didn't even gaze towards the direction of Noah who was watching everything with shining eyes.

None of them gazed at him even though under his eyes, beams of profound loot light were filling everything in his sight as all the existences before him were termed as possibilities of loot!

None of them gazed towards him...but they would come to know him soon enough!

Chapter 1663 A Meeting and Progress! II

Multiple new existences came across Noah at this moment in time as nearly all of the new beings barely spared him a glance.

Adjudicator Nefertiti and the newly appearing woman she referred to as weak and naive who was actually her sister of the same familial Bloodline, but of a different mother...they only faced each other at this moment as no other beings mattered.

The hundreds of Primordial Adjudicators within their legions at the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy only kept their heads straight like perfect soldiers as they also didn't even spare a glance towards Noah!

But a single being had spared him a glance and even gave a thought about him.

Standing beside Adjudicator Nefertiti, it was Adjudicator Ezekiel whose black eyes seemed capable of devouring everything.

He couldn't help but gaze at Noah as under his inquisitive mind, he noticed the sense of profound calmness and even curiosity that this being had when he gazed at the unfolding situation around them.

Since he was with Genevieve, he should know her status and the status of the beings she addressed. He should know about Primordial Adjudicators and more than anything, he should know a great deal about Adjudicator Ezekiel that stemmed from a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline at the same level if not higher than the Infinite Willow Tree Bloodline!

There was the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human, Reality Ursidae, Infinite Willow Tree, and another pristine Bloodline that made up the core power of Primordials was a species that always reigned Supreme even within Beasts in extremely low worlds that barely had a mimicking trace of their grandeur.

A species commonly mentioned in myths and legends...with the Bloodline that Adjudicator Ezekiel belonged to being the perfect fusion of two of such mythical species that bore fruit to the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline of the Dragon Phoenix!

Not merely a stupendous Bloodline of Dragons or Phoenixes, but a perfect Bloodline that was of pure blood! Even the Reality Ursidae were only equal to them as they were a ruling class that deserved respect across the vast Realities.

More than this, Adjudicator Ezekiel and Nefertiti's titles were further elevated as they were the progeny of powerful families within their respective Bloodlines- families filled with Legends that oversaw Grotto Sanctums and much more.

They were existences that had long since exceeded all parameters of power at the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy that even those at the stage of A Legend's Visage were looked down on when compared to them, as they had long since the qualifications to break past the shackles of the Firmaments of Ascendancy and reach the stage of a LEGEND whenever they wished!

But they did not. They forged their foundations further and were existences who sought to exceed any limitations and restrictions as they built such strong foundations that the moment they broke into the stage of Reality...their power would be propelled upwards so crazily that common Legends would be like children to them.

This was how high the status of the leaders of Primordial Adjudicator Legions was! So high that if they came across actual Legends...these beings actually acknowledged them with respect as they knew it was merely a choice for them to achieve the same stage!

Genevieve had not yet reached such a stage before, but her solidified crown and current realm meant she would rise to this when she was recognized after her return to her Bloodline.

So this existence beside her...

How could he be surrounded by such prestigious personages and look utterly calm and even show curiosity?

This was the thought that the perceptive Adjudicator Ezekiel had as when any beings looked at the figure of Noah, their wills felt the aura of an existence at the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy stemming from him!

Of course, this was only what others saw as this was a done by Noah- with the identity of Alexander following Genevieve being taken to the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy while also being a genius Enlightened Peerless Alchemist.

A single set of eyes were on him as this Destined meeting continued.

The new entrant was a white haired young woman that had a figure and face sculpted so well that one would only wish goodness towards her. What was most shocking was the fact that she was the third existence to now appear here who had her own solidified crown, the other two only being Genevieve and Adjudicator Ezekiel!

She was known as Adjudicator Katelyn!

This being led her own Legion of Primordial Adjudicators as she only looked at Genevieve and her party briefly before locking her gaze on her sister and Ezekiel.

"You've come back into the Domains of Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans, does that mean..."

"I am merely passing here to finish eradicating any more Primordial Beasts as my duty ordained me...and to affirm with my own eyes if the weak willed girl had actually attained a solidified crown!"

...!

Nefertiti replied coldly as the shoulders of Katelyn slumped ever so slightly.

"I see."

Immense heartache and disappointment seemed to be hidden within her two words as she stayed silent briefly before she went on gaze at the figure of her sister closely.

"Then you should have seen everything...and should now be on your way."

WAA!

Words that should have been cold, but one could see the glazed eyes filled with illusory Realities were filled with emotion as when Nefertiti saw it, her multicolored eyes seemed to get even angrier!

"Until now...you still cannot keep your emotions in check. Still naive!"

...!

"Let's go!" She reached out to hold on to the hand of Adjudicator Ezekiel as her eyes sent her a message, the calmly laid back existence that even Legends would show respect to nodding as a surging spatial light went on to cover their Legion...and they very quickly disappeared from everyone's eyes.

"..."

Silence reigned in the surroundings as the glazed eyes of Adjudicator Katelyn fluctuated with emotion before she gazed towards Empress Genevieve and spoke as if what just happened had not occurred.

"Sis Genevieve, you seem to have lost your Guards and even arrived at a higher stage. Let's head back...some of our brothers and sisters have actually perished in the past days."

...!

The repercussions of the actions of Primordial Beasts began to show themselves at this moment as Genevieve and Noah arrived in the Pure Blooded Domains and were received by a powerful party of Royal Human Primordial Adjudicators, but not before they had met a party of a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Dragon Phoenix Primordial Adjudicators who actually had a sub commander that was a Royal Human!

A small meeting that might have been considered insignificant right now, but countless Grotto Sanctums would bleed from the weaving of Destiny around these beings and those they would entangle with when the Age of Emperors reached full bloom.

—

Far away from the Pure Blooded Domains, within the Infinite Reality.

Noah's main body could be seen floating in the space of the Novus Universe within the depths of the Infinite Reality, his figure alone being a feast for the eyes as one could see his whole body covered head to toe with dazzling cerulean blue Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy, his body even further being surrounded by multiple Runic Escritures passively rotating around him as they read !

This was, of course, the mere visage of the completed Limit Breaking Extreme Mana Physique that was carried to completion- one of the many wondrous changes in the past two days that caused the Noah of then and now to be akin to two different people.

His gaze was stellar and profound as his eyes seemed like they had seen millions of years of history- an extremely contrasting look when looking at his actual age that was still edging towards 27!

He was staring at a party of his people before his eyes as atop the Serendipity of the Cataclysmic Reality, Little Henry could be seen having grown up at a fantastical rate in the past few days- where from a tiny chubby baby, he now looked like he was one or two years old as his chest showed an illusory sight of 10 Billion Royal Cosmos!

Bouncing on the head of Little Henry was a certain Universal Emperor Slime that showed a similar Realm of power- with the maximum 10 Billion Cosmos allowed at the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy displayed as such a stage was actually portrayed by all the clones of beings Noah was sending off on the Serendipity of the Cataclysmic Reality Vessel.

Tiamat, the Obsidian Panther, the Leviathan...all of Noah's Animus Summons had made their return to power as in the past days, Noah had the completed Nomological Edict of the elevated to Quasi-TABOO and was able to elevate the stages of these beings easily with Shards of a Seed of Reality, this being at an even faster rate of mere minutes compared to Kazuhiko, Barbatos, and all the other generals that took a few hours to absorb their Shards of a Seed of Reality to obtain their 10 Billion Cosmos!

Each of them ridiculously stood at the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy as they were about to set off to seek their own destiny in the chaotic Infinite Realities, but before they did so...Noah wanted to show them something.

"You will decide for yourself how much you want to build your foundation before breaking through, and we will have Natalya show us the process of breaking one's shackles and forming Reality Passages today."

WAA!

Something as grand and glorious as breaking apart one's shackles was being used as a teachable moment, many beings in the surroundings who weren't on the Serendipity of the Cataclysmic Reality also watching closely as Adelaide and others who didn't care to explore outside watched on with interest!

The newly joined Overseer Natalya Rostova had eaten up the Limit Breaking Tools Noah had given her these past two days as she was ready to be the first existence to break past their shackles and form Destiny Reality Passages from the Azure Emperor's Runic Escriture of Modus Operandi!

"RUINATION..."

Noah's mesmerizing voice rang out as he looked to his side where one could see the figure of a unique Relic.

Her humanoid form had entirely changed as she was currently adorned in a crimson gold robe that flashed dangerously with a Runic Ecriture reading behind it, the aura of a Relic she released having long since exceeded Sui Generis Enlightened and gone straight to a Quasi-TABOO Relic after the upgrades in the past days as her capabilities had entirely changed!

"...set up a Mirror Reality to contain everything."

She received Noah's command as she moved her dazzling fingers, reality itself Breaking into countless mirror like shards as a shocking show was about to start in the Infinite Reality!

Chapter 1664 A Meeting and Progress! III

The Infinite Reality under Noah was extremely vast, yet the figure of RUINATION adorned in a bright crimson gold cloak with the Runic Ecriture of RUINATION written behind it merely tapped her fingers as in the next moment, the Boundary of this vast Reality became covered by mirror like layers of shattered space as aside from being veiled...the whole Reality was entirely shifted into a special pocket of the Mirror Dimension!

This was just one of the enhancements that had occurred under RUINATION's advancement to QUASI-TABOO, where her control of the Mirror Dimension even exceeded Noah's own control that he had begun to play with through the abilities gained from the Assimilation of the Olden Emperor of Speculum that stemmed from the Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird who could manipulate the Mirror Dimension.

HOOONG!

An air of power was released frightfully from RUINATION after such a move as everything settled, Noah's stellar eyes coming to focus on Natalya along with everyone else as he spoke.

"Go ahead."

He seemed to hold ultimate confidence as while being in the middle of everyone's gazes, Natalya breathed out while nodding- the method of revolution of her Cosmos as written in the Azure Treasure Emperor's Runic Ecriture of Modus Operandi flashing before her mind as her origin surged and began to move.

...!

Halcyon, Athena, and many other distinguished existences nearby watched with rapt eyes as Natalya went on to close hers.

OOOOM!

She felt the stellar bodies within her that sought for direction.

She felt her origin that wanted to know how to move to mimic a genuine Reality!

Normally, the Origins of many existences would be sluggish and not move at all as their foundation wasn't the best, but Natalya had exceeded the number of her Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality and even greatly elevated the strength of her soul to be above any average Seventh Firmament.

For her, it was only a few seconds of a delay before her origin began to move.

BZZZT!

Arcs of profound light instantly began to form around her as it seemed swirls of black holes bloomed, absorbing light and mass itself around them as her figure remained stable!

Noah watched the process with sharpness as bountiful information was being discerned by him as well- the scene of the Illusory black holes being seen closely as next, they began to spin and form quasars as after that, they became swirling Galaxies!

5...8...12...18!

18 swirling illusory Galaxies appeared around Natalya as they even ate up the surrounding space, these Galaxies tinged with a golden hue as next up...they began to fracture and expand into countless Galaxies.

HOOOONG!

Essence and destiny raged madly.

From the surroundings, a nearby sea with the Golden Essence of Destiny surged forward and went to fill the now 18 illusory clusters of Galaxies, but it still wasn't enough!

"Reality Passages..."

Noah began to speak as his hands moved, vibrant golden Essence of destiny and fortune erupting from him endlessly as he actually aided in the formation of the Destiny Reality Passages before him- this move even being something that would greatly benefit Natalya as it was the destiny Essence of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor that went on to help her, this being something that would make her future even more splendid!

"Are something that one can forge whenever they break their first shackles imposed upon them. Three is enough to consider you a genius who has a fairly good chance to become a Legend as 5 means you are a monstrous being who can easily become a Legend in time!"

WAA!

"Yet the first being in our Reality...shall form 18 Reality Passages when she breaks her shackles."

BOOM!

The 18 clusters of Galaxies shattered into profound golden light that began to spin and erect outwards from Natalya's body after receiving such robust Essence of destiny, forming sharp swirling edges that seemed connected to Natalya by a thin line as they expanded outward to form dazzling illusory mountain like Passages of a Reality!

From black hole to Quasar, to Galaxy, and then Galactic Filaments, they then formed into Reality Passages that connected to Natalya and began swirling to suck Essence from the surrounding reality itself!

All of this essence...surged towards the single being who had broken her shackles as her origin was already rotating a certain way.

And as it rotated, Essence of all types began to gush out of her 18 newly formed Reality Passages that all surged into her body, making her skin glisten like an ancient spiritual existence! This bountiful Essence sunk into her muscles and bones as they were being reformed in real time, being turned into crystalline Treasure like objects as Cosmos began to bloom in her Origin by millions, very quickly breaking past the limitation of 10 Billion and beginning to edge upwards!

"If your foundation is profound enough and you have a similar number of Reality Passages when you reach the stage of a Legend...very few of such beings could stand before you."

WAA!

Noah's body pulsed with the countless Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy as multiple Runic Ecriptions that read ancient words of rotated around him majestically, the TABOO Relic still wrapped over his back as it made him look like a taboo Emperor that should not be seen by the eyes of others.

He watched the successful formation of 18 Destiny Reality Passages as he learned more from it than even his Vassals that watched it, many possibilities blooming in his mind as he watched how the Passages formed from beginning to end!

They constantly gushed out multicolored waves of essence that ceaselessly sunk into Natalya who finally opened her eyes at this moment, Pearls of light released from them as her Ascendancy Value was crazily climbing up above 100 Million.

"I succeeded..."

OOOM!

Rainbow colored light of pure essence gushed from her mouth as she spoke, her body barely being able to contain and refine the rushing waves of essence surging out from the mountain like Destiny Reality Passages as Noah and the other smiled when they saw that in the corner of her eyes...tears had begun to fall.

"With this...it is possible! With this, that Legend...!"

As she felt the boundless waves of essence, she couldn't help but choke with multicolored tears in front of everyone as she remembered how her own father had been butchered by another Legend before her eyes! That Primordial Legend had die. And she would...

"I will..!"

"We will."

HOOONG!

Noah's voice boomed out as everyone stared at the dazzling 18 Destiny Reality Passages around Natalya, the eyes of this being falling onto Noah as she experienced immense gratitude in her tears.

"We will pay back any of those that have wronged our people. You will not be alone in this. If a Legend has to have their Reality shattered, then so be it!"

RUMBLE!

"If multiple Legends need to perish, they dually perish! If entire Grotto Sanctums have to tremble and cry...they shall do so."

The will of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor raged out with even more fervor as it seemed to have grown wilder than two days ago, the wills and souls of all beings in the surroundings who were watching everything feeling a sense of wildness and exhilaration as they bellowed out with destiny raging around them!

OOOOOH!

Chapter 1665 A Meeting and Progress! V

Seas of destiny raged as many existences saw the breaking of shackles, Natalya Rostova alone and a single other being seeing the boosts of Reality Passages being quantified in real time by the Infinite Reality as even Noah raised his brows at the capability of the Destiny Reality Passages!

It made him all the more expectant when he forged his own Modus Operandi to break his shackles and observe just what ridiculous scenes he would cause.

"Exceed the limits of your souls, bodies, Edicts...exceed all the limitations imposed on others as this is the only way to gain true power. With the chaos stretching out across Realities, countless opportunities await as you all have the chance to go out and seek them!"

WAA!

There were too many Realities.

Too many Bloodlines and Domains!

Noah could not cover them all as now, it was time for his forces where a single one had power exceeding any common Seventh Firmament Overseer to head out and seek their own fortune.

"We won't let you down, father!"

OOM!

The vibrant voice of Little Henry traveled out as after witnessing the formation of the Destiny Reality Passages, the hunger for greatness only grew as every part of his soul sought to see what was out there.

Noah let out a light smile as he nodded and waved his hands.

"Finish the preparations and set off...I myself will have to slumber into an Infinite Dream soon..."

His words seemed ancient and Archaic as he spoke, the many existences around him nearly being lost in them before they awoke from their stupor and moved to do their own tasks!

Meanwhile, Noah himself reflected on the astounding changes he had gone through in the past 2 days.

First were the astounding changes after actually reaching the limit of Runic Dao Lines on his body with nearly every part of his stellar skin becoming etched with Runic tattoos, and then the elevation of these Dao Lines with Runic Kainos Lines of Ascendancy that after the Limit Breaking Extreme Mana Refinement...they all further elevated into Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy!

They pulsed and coiled over his body like countless ancient snakes as his stellar Cosmic form could only distinctly be made out amidst the brilliantly shining cerulean blue lines if he didn't dim them just a little. Their power was so unique and potent that when the 100 rounds of refinement finished, Runic Ecriptions reading began to naturally rotate around Noah as each one actually granted Resource Regeneration that included Essence of Reality!

The quantification of the boons was much more wondrous to visualize.

:: Runic Lines that stem from the extreme refinement of the body, origin, and soul with mana and the Essence of Reality. The Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy complement and add on to all the sources of strength culminating within your Body, Origin, and Soul- allowing for all of them to surround your body with passive strengthening and defense. The Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy are even more unique as they cut the required resources of all cast abilities by half, with this including the resource of Essence of Reality. Your body has experienced extreme refinement with the Essence of Reality and Mana your affinity to the Natural Laws of Reality is increased by 25%. Conceptual Runic Ecriptions begin to naturally form around you as the surging Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy further grant a daily passive regeneration of 50,000 Units of Essence of Reality, and they effectively double the regeneration of the Essence of Destiny and Fortune. Current Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy- 100. Current True Reality Value Boost(Defensive & Damage)- 100

Their usage was stupendous as apart from causing his body to seem like an ancient being made entirely out of energy, they came with many unique perks.

The reduction of the required resource was now much more prominent from one fourth to half...where ridiculous abilities like that cost Noah 100,000 Units of the Essence of Reality would actually be cut in half due to the vibrant Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy!

Furthermore, there was the ridiculous daily passive regeneration as the most astounding thing of all...was the 100 True Reality Damage and Defense Values boost that was akin to the boosts of a TABOO Relic!

It was even more dreadful with the Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy as they didn't require huge units of the Essence of Reality to activate and simply granted a 100 base boost to Damage and Defense...making Noah's offensive output an even more horrific concept.

This was just a single one of the many astounding changes that had occurred in the past days, with the strengthening of his soul and the number of Concepts he squeezed into himself being something dreadful to even imagine!

—

Across the vast expanse of the Boundary Between Realities.

The Legion of Primordial Adjudicators led by Ezekiel tore across space as swirling essence wrapped around their group, heading towards another destination quietly as their dreadful power was kept in like a sleeping beast.

Adjudicator Ezekiel and Adjudicator Nefertiti were at the very forefront as a hazy golden barrier of light wrapped around them to isolate them from everyone else, Ezekiel looking ahead with his abyssal stellar eyes as he spoke while thinking of many things.

"You never told me why you dislike your sister so much."

His voice carried immense authority as someone like him who even common Legends showed respect towards wouldn't bother talking to existences he didn't look at in high regard, with there obviously being some form of connection between these two beings!

Nefertiti's eyes also gazed afar at the swirling space around them as her dark skin shone, her eyes thinking back to many years ago as she spoke lightly.

"My father took a concubine from a unique Dimension as she was the ultimate result, being born with an Innate Physique and Bloodlines so profound that even powerful LEGENDS envied her."

...!

As she spoke, the memories she dredged up seemed to make her angry as she continued to speak with frustration.

"We were inseparable while growing up...but an incident occurred that made me realize just how naive and weak willed she was. Given the chance to obtain something that even Grotto Sanctum Masters would fight for, she...she actually turned it down while using me as the reason for it!"

WAA!

Flames of anger and pain rose in the eyes of Nefertiti as the hazy golden veil around them became even thicker, the nearby Ninth Firmament existences not being able to see anything between Ezekiel and Nefertiti as she continued.

"I didn't want to leave you...these were the words that naive girl who could have had entire swathes of Grotto Sanctums under her feet by now said to me. She really ignored her destiny for...for what?"

Her words finished quietly as Adjudicator Ezekiel silently listened.

Waves of destiny surged up and down around them as silence reigned until the archaic voice of the Dragon Phoenix Ezekiel echoed out.

"The time is coming for me, you, your sister...all of those who have been building their ultimate foundation and accumulating destiny until now. The time for us to explode with fortune and exceed any of the established Legends as we contend for supremacy. The strings of destiny of the Age of Emperors will pull everyone in whether they like it or not..."

WAAA!

"When the dust settles...you might never see that naive girl you loved so much in the past."

BOOM!

Arcs of light exploded from Nefertiti as she came to angrily gaze at Ezekiel due to his words, but his gaze was focused as he only stared ahead, rivers of illusory Realities flashing in his eyes as he was one of the few riding the rough waves of destiny to hegemony!

Chapter 1666 The Pure Blooded Domains! I

The Iridescent Reality surged forward silently as dozens of Ninth Firmament Royal Humans surrounded it.

The figure of Adjudicator Katelyn floated down towards Empress Genevieve as her dazzling white hair left behind wisps of Flames, her stellar eyes shining with clashing illusory Realities as she seemed entirely ethereal!

She seemed like an upcoming queen in her late twenties as her gaze alone carried shocking power, yet it seemed full of calmness and mercy as she finally took the time to gaze at everything after coming out of her thoughts about Adjudicator Nefertiti.

Her eyes glanced over to Beatrix who bowed down with respect and then towards the unknown figure of a man with a devilish charm who currently had a human form glittering dark hair...this being actually nonchalantly finishing the cooking of an enou4mlus thigh of a Primordial Beasts!

"..."

Adjudicator Katelyn blinked her eyes to make sure she was seeing right as Empress Genevieve saw this scene and snorted while voicing out.

"Don't take heed of that arrogant guy. He is just an Enlightened Peerless Alchemist who can forge Limit Breaking Tools that I brought back from my journey- Alexander King!"

...!

The brows of Katelyn raised slightly at this as she nodded, Noah's eyes and hers locking briefly as she gave a nod of acknowledgment that Noah returned in kind.

Thereafter, Adjudicator Katelyn simply turned towards Genevieve as she didn't even stay on the subject of Noah and instead spoke of other events.

"Three Future Candidate Rulers in line to become Bloodline Masters perished...this list including Jordan, Aegon, and Brightspark."

Genevieve didn't show an ounce of her coldness and callousness as Katelyn spoke. In the domains of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans, she was an Empress that was now one of the few Candidate Rulers of this bloodline...and she had to act like it!

But she still replied with words of wisdom as she heard half of her competitors had died.

"Their destinies simply were not meant to witness the coming era."

Katelyn turned to look closely at Genevieve after these words as she only nodded a while later, their surroundings beginning to brighten up at this moment as the authority of the Pure Blooded Domains they were entering began to show!

Near the large grill, Noah's hands moved as the meat was cut up into glistening pieces that floated towards his mouth, his eyes bright as he felt his Iridescent Reality pass through a form of a field!

'The Pure Blooded Boundary...'

A Boundary instituted by the terrifying existences of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodlines as this Expansive illusory boundary stretched to cover the expanse of the lands they controlled.

When one passed it, they would truly enter the lands of the most pristine beings that ruled over the past eons.

BZZZT!

Past the barrier, the space of the Boundary Between Realities continued as now, the dazzling sight of anchored vessels and stations could be seen stretching out for countless light years as space didn't seem barren and filled with rivers of Reality anymore!

It seemed full of life and power as powerful auras of existences could be felt in the myriad of vessels floating silently, and even more hardened soldiers were in unique circular towers like stations when they merely gazed out towards the Pure Blooded Boundary.

"Security is tighter due to the disruptions from Primordial Beasts, with the Legions of Primordial Adjudicators and Will Bearers sent out having pushed back their strongest forces so far."

Adjudicator Katelyn spoke as the Quasi-TABOO Vessel floated in, the scene within being one of wonder as past all the clusters of vessels and stellar circular space stations, one could see nearly lined shimmering Rivers of Reality flowing upright and endlessly stretching out in the distance.

This was unique as it wasn't how Realities normally were positioned, meaning a powerful existence had dragged genuine Realities and neatly arranged them near each other as if they were trees, Noah being able to see thousands of such endless rivers of Reality pulsing all around him!

He wasn't surprised by the shocking scenes he was seeing as they were in the memories of Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans who had already lived here for millions of years, much of the places here Noah already knowing the names of as at this moment...they were heading towards the first multicolored cluster of many Realities that had a specialized domain at the very center that was enacted by none other than a LEGEND!

Hundreds of Realities surrounded his one location as one could see surging circular golden light wrapping around it, this domain mimicking a Grotto Sanctum even though it was nowhere close to it.

'The White Outer Peninsula, was it?'

The outermost area where the authority of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans congregated. There were many other Peninsulas surrounded by clusters of Realities that were domains LEGENDS had enacted further in, but most of those entering the Pure Blooded Domains would first arrive into an Outer Peninsula as they could teleport to any other locations in the Pure Blooded Domains from there...so long as they had the proper authority!

"I escorted you here because things are rapidly changing due to the starting war."

As they floated forward serenely, the voice of the dazzling Adjudicator Katelyn continued to ring out.

"This also caused the tides of destiny to shift as the name of the one to become the Bloodline Master in the future has to be confirmed soon...with the Elders proposing sending you, George, Namur, and Rosanne into the Grotto Sanctum that will be used at the field where Commanders of Primordial Adjudicators and Will Bearers will seek their last glimpses of destiny before they become LEGENDS!"

WAA!

She finally mentioned something of great substance as even Noah's eyes perked up at that and listened closely!

"Oh? Have they already chosen the Grotto Sanctum they will allow the commanders to enter? Is it already explored or..."

"It is an unexplored Sanctum that was found by Legends of the Reality Ursidae, Infinite Willow Trees, and our Bloodline." Adjudicator Katelyn replied calmly as her dazzling eyes gazed forward.

"So the opportunities within are boundless as nearly all existences at the stage of A Legend's Visage and above who can obtain a spot for this are planning to go."

"Oh?" Genevieve's eyes raised at Katelyn's words as she poked back with her own devilish words.

"Does this mean that even you will be going in?"

BZZZT!

Waves of destiny silently weaved as the Iridescent Reality vessel came to a stop.

Noah could not take it any further as they neared the entrance into the White Outer Peninsula, the figure of Adjudicator Katelyn not even turning back towards Genevieve as she replied to her question while gazing into the unknown- bright emotions rising in her glazed eyes as her fair hands moved to touch the solidified crown above her head!

"I did not want to set that destiny for myself...but it seems I have to make a move this time around in order to make a certain person understand."

WAA!

"In the unexplored Sanctum filled with enough destiny to birth the next generation of Kainos Emperors...even I shall delve into it!"

...!

A deeply hidden aura bloomed out at her words as even the calm gaze of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor behind her tightened, but this was nothing compared to how much his destiny was currently raging about when the unexplored Grotto Sanctum that Commanders of Primordial Adjudicators and Will Bears would be entering was mentioned!

Chapter 1667 The Pure Blooded Domains! II

Due to the war, a Destined event that the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodlines undertook was brought to the forefront as those who had been accumulating fortune so far and building their foundation could finally take this chance to seek something that would make their advancement even more profound.

Noah's destiny spun wildly as he heard about this, pulling upon the memories of his defeated enemies as this instance became clear.

The last time such a thing had occurred was hundreds of millions of years ago as if the chance was rising again now, Noah had to obtain entrance into such a mesmerizing location!

He was already seeking entrance into a great deal of things as while his True Sanguine Clone with the Character Selection of a Ninth Firmament Enlightened Peerless Alchemist entering into the Pure Blooded Domains, his main body was about to enter into an Infinite Dream.

And it wasn't just for the purposes of his portions of souls seeking Realities...but he was also seeking conscious entrance into the Dream Dimension!

This was because he had to obtain certain materials in order to forge the Blueprints of TABOO Relics, and some of them could only be attained in the Dream Dimension and even the Mirror Dimension.

The Dream Dimension would be the hardest one to navigate as Noah...actually wasn't all too worried about the Mirror Dimension! This was all due to the Bloodlines of the Olden Emperors he had assimilated into the Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodlines, with the Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird holding the Olden Bloodline of Speculum granting a particularly unique ability that was seamlessly added onto his Kainos Bloodline!

Speculum was another word for mirror, and this Olden Bloodline had granted Noah the stupendous ability that the Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird had displayed before that was termed Mirror Manipulation!

<Mirror Manipulation>:: An innate ability of an Olden Bloodline that was influenced by the ravages of the Mirror Dimension. The boundaries between dimensions can be breached as you gain the capability to withstand the Mirror Essence within the Mirror Dimension and traverse through it. A small amount of control of the Mirror Essence can also be utilized by you to call forth the walls of the Mirror Dimension to surround your enemies. Every activation of this ability required 30,000 Units of the Essence of Reality and grants a 24-hour authority to utilize the Mirror Essence of the Mirror Dimension.

The assimilation of the three Olden Bloodlines brought a few new features onto the Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline, but this particular skill was the biggest gain as it allowed Noah access into the Mirror Dimension apart from the ability of RUINATION!

After she was elevated to Quasi-TABOO, RUINATION had also attained similar means to peer into the Mirror Dimension, but Noah would not have gained the authority to utilize Mirror Essence himself unless he had the ability of <Mirror Manipulation>.

Many cards were in place as at this moment, Noah's main body returned to the Cosmic Holy Land while the Serendipity of Cataclysmic Reality set off with his son and many other powerful Vassals.

His figure was utterly mesmerizing as he went on to sit on his golden throne, his stellar LETHE draping over everything in the back with the glimmer of illusory realities as akin to an ancient king pondering upon the mysteries of reality itself, Noah thought back to his other points of advancements.

His soul.

OOOM!

The mere mention of it caused his surroundings to tremble at the sheer pressure as after the passage of two days, the strength of his soul had come to exceed any parameters as even those at the stage of A Legend's Visage could not be comparable to him!

He had burned so many Minor, Greater, Quasi-INSUPERABLE, and even a few hundred weak INSUPERABLENomological Edicts with the authority of the Throne of Arcadian Tyranny that this single action had already crazily stretched the strength of his soul. When he then devoured the many Soul Crystals that he Quintuplicated with RUINATION, the current terrifying result was achieved.

And that's right...he could utilize Quintuplicate with RUINATION after her elevation instead of Quadruplicate as this was another reason for his ridiculous rise in Soul Power and many other things. The description of this feature had to be looked at closely as it had more than just the feature of multiplying loot by five times at this moment.

<Quintuplicate> ::...This feature of RUINATION has been elevated even further as previously unreplicable items can now be utilized so long as they have a single aspect that RUINATION could not multiply before.

WAA!

Items that previously could not be multiplied.

One of these items...was the Olden Orb of Transmogrification!

After her elevation, the 1400 Olden Orbs that came from Resplendent Treasure Caches and could produce Quasi-TABOO Edicts became 7,000.

"..."

7,000!

A number that guaranteed a ridiculous assortment of only Quasi-TABOO Edicts would be enjoyed by Noah's hands as they were also the reason why at this moment, Noah's soul had 1,200 Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts branded to his soul.

From the measly restrictions where his soul couldn't even handle a few Quasi-TABOO Edicts, it had now grown to the ridiculous levels that allowed it to seamlessly withstand 1,200 of such concepts!

600 had their flames utilized under his own 10 Black Tier Ascendancy Halos, and another 600 had their flames of authority fused into the 10 Malleable Ascendancy Halos that were provided by LETHE.

With this, the number of Flames of Edicts he had making up his Ascendancy Halos entire exceeded any limits that even the most talented Ninth Firmament existences could achieve!

'And this..is just the beginning!'

HOOOONG!

His will surged out madly as his soul began to pulsate, Noah pulling upon the Primordial Epitaph of his System as he prepared to expand his will even further.

"Begin the Second Infinite Dream...and this time, there shall not be a mere 100 portions of souls stretching out."

WAAA!

His body was situated upon his throne as his eyes released a hazy luminous light, the essence of Reality blooming around him as Infinite Dream was called upon!

From Noah's soul, hundreds of twinkling lights began to shine as his domineering will swept out.

"1,000 portions of souls...stretch out into the unknown!"

...!

Chapter 1668 Into the Dream Dimension! I

Pulsing waves of cerulean light emanated from Noah's figure as his Runic Kainos Mana Lines of Ascendancy danced in vibrant waves, his will surging out as 1,000 twinkling specks of light moved from his body and began floating out!

They disappeared silently into the surrounding space as they didn't just drill through its fold, but they flashed with a regal authority of Infinite Dream as they crossed into a pristine new Dimension.

Melded with the very space around them and yet at the same time entirely separate, the walls of the Dream Dimension were breached as Noah's soul released 1,000 portions of itself seamlessly!

For an existence to take a significant portion of their soul, and then spread it into 1,000 parts...this was an extremely arduous task that very few could handle. Dividing 1,000 portions meant 1,000 differently thinking souls with each of them seeking their own purpose. Even with Noah's ridiculously strong soul, this might not have been possible even now. But what did make it a possibility was the fact that Noah had utilized the Dream Stones that he had obtained from the Resplendent Treasure Caches.

The Dream Stones that allowed one to dream for a million years with a single use!

When Noah had used a single one of his dazzling stones, his consciousness was taken from his main body as he slumbered and experienced a shocking dream every single time.

He rose from humble beginnings having absolutely nothing, and yet by the end of the dream...he was always battling for supremacy!

In very few dreams did he live a simple life.

One of them a farmer. Another merely a king. A human, an elf, a dragon...any of the myriad of races had been lived by him!

Every single dream stone took a few hours to experience while it granted the soul one million years of experience. One million years of refining and fortification! And he couldn't consciously control any of these dreams as while in them, he truly felt like that was his genuine life as he didn't recall yesterday he was Noah during the dreams.

Every single day of these years felt entirely real as after Noah spent his time in the cosmic holy land and utilized over 50 dream stones, he had come out as a new man with his eyes shining their brilliant visage an existence that had seen too much.

It only took him a microsecond to reflect on the many dreams he had lived and on the many lives he had led as he came back to his singular real life with ease.

After the 50th Dream Stone, he stopped solely because his destiny told him to, the uses of these stones being more than how he utilized them in the beginning as they were still something he could do that would grant him even more boundless benefits with the remaining half of the stones.

But through them, his soul gained a sense of stability and strength that very few could achieve as even the existences that had already lived for hundreds of millions of years...all of these weren't spent just thinking and tempering their souls. So the portions of Noah's souls that set off right now...each one was filled with purpose as they were carried with the essence of the Dream Dimension along with the silent waves of destiny leading the way!

999 souls were carried silently to look for Prime Realities. Emerging Realities, and other unique realities that lay out there. But...there was a singular portion of a soul remaining that did not take the same route.

It was larger than all the others and while wrapped by the essence of the Infinite Dream, it dug deeper into the veil of the Dream Dimension as it did not seek other realities!

It instead sought to enter the depths of this unknown dimension.

HOOONG!

The Unnamed Kainos Emperor entered a deep slumber as he focused a major part of his will and power into this singular portion of soul, with him actually traversing across the veils of the Dream Dimension!

He felt as if he was stuck in a quagmire, his soul floating slowly as if countless chains were pulling on him.

Yet he continued relentlessly.

He felt close to piercing an unknown barrier- a layer of a bubble that he was ready to burst and pierce through as the moment he did so...he would be allowed into a new land of wondrous opportunities and untold dangers!

BOOM!

At this critical moment, his will surged out with intensity, smashing apart whatever restrictions that were suddenly placed to prevent him to forge forward.

This portion of his soul passed through one veiled barrier as it seamlessly entered into a brand new space!

"..."

Austere silence prevailed.

It might have taken him long to wake up in the past and have his portion of soul to observe his surroundings, but with his overly strong soul and fortified will- only a mere instant passed before the will contained within the soul woke up with fervor and began to look around.

The very air and surroundings felt different.

Every area around him was hazy and filled with gray sparkling misty light.

This misty light made it hard to move even a single step as one could feel themselves bound and shackled by an unknown force!

You couldn't see what lay in front of you nor could you see what lay behind you, and the more that you tried to struggle against this force, the heavier and more constricting the force became.

Against such a force, the answer was not aggressiveness and exploding out power.

OOOM!

Noah's soul calmed.

He pulled upon the Infinite Dream as his mana and thousands of units of the essence of reality surged into it, pulling upon the surrounding essence of the Dream Dimension to wrap around his soul.

The restrictions began gradually getting looser and looser as he began to move freely across the misty sparkling gray light.

At the same time, the soul fully awakened and formed into a body, bright stellar eyes coming in place as at this moment- the far-reaching sight of The Watcher and The Gazer were activated!

Chapter 1669 Into the Dream Dimension! II

Noah's mission for this portion of his soul was to withstand and not fall from the perils of the Dream Dimension while locating tens of thousands of units of the Golden Sand that could only be found within this dimension.

He didn't know how powerful the existences he would come across would be, nor what other treasures might be waiting for him. But he did know that this soul would not leave until it either perished or came back with glimmering Golden Sand to help him forge yet another TABOO Relic!

He began to wade across the gray misty light and into the unknown as before he could even get too far, his soul began to feel wavelengths of dangerous essence emanating from different directions, this essence carrying with it a resonating voice that seemed to be repeating the same thing over and over again that surged into his mind with purpose!

<Dreams and Realities...what is reality, and what is a dream?>

HOOONG!

With ancientness, this voice felt thick and aged as it came in sequence while Noah floated across the thick gray mist!

<Are the vast Realities themselves not merely an extension of dreams...>

A penetrative will that seemed like an attack onto the soul itself surged towards Noah as if he wasn't able to bypass it and move to explore the Dream Dimension even more, the journey of this Clone would end very soon!

—

One thousand portions of his soul were sent out as this was not the end of Noah's plans. Even as his mesmerizing main body slumbered, there were still five other True Sanguine Clones that currently did not have any major tasks.

Now one by one, they moved to accomplish even more things!

One of the True Sanguine Clones floated in space with the figure of the dazzling RUINATION while adorning the cosmic form- this clone speaking out calmly at this moment.

<Mirror Manipulation>.

BOOOM...CRACK!

Space shattered and cracked into countless edges of mirror-like shards as Noah looked around him before seamlessly stepping into these shards of mirrors, with his figure beginning to disappear into the unknown!

The figure of RUINATION followed close behind as she stepped in with even more ease, their destination being the wondrous and more than likely just as dangerous Mirror Dimension.

Here, Noah could find the Mirror Essence Crystals that were also required to form a TABOO relic, and this True Sanguine Clone along with RUINATION would take care of this task.

Around the same time, another True Sanguine Clone was wrapped in a spatial light as he actually disappeared from the Infinite Reality and traveled fast distances, crossing the folds of space to finally appear close to the border of the Primordial Royal Wolf Bloodline that he had he had taken the life of one of its princesses!

He had made an enemy of a Bloodline Master of this Primordial Bloodline in the past, where he only knew this existence to be in the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy then. With his more recent knowledge, he could ascertain that they were more than likely A Legend's Visage or an existence with even more power who was close to becoming a Legend as when he did so...he would more than likely be replaced by another Bloodline Master as no Legend would wish to merely oversee the day to day workings of their Bloodline!

The clone had teleported to his region not just because this being was a target, but because he was the only one among the many targets.

This was because this True Sanguine Clone had the task of farming.

Yes. Farming!

OOOM!

Waves of destiny echoed out as they were pulled upon, a few strings loosened in relation to the veil of his own identity, but only in focus with this particular clone!

And he was loosening it for no other reason than the fact that after he reduced it to a certain level, the concepts of existences overseeing the Primordial Blacklist would be activated as those who sought to hunt him...would be directed towards him.

It was akin to setting bait as he now merely waited for the fish to come to him!

This was a task of this particular clone as, taking our eyes away from this one, we would come upon another True Sanguine Clone that was currently in the depths of the Blacksmith's Forge where at this moment, the glimmer of bountiful Limit Breaking Tools could be seen.

Dazzling elixirs that would even make normal Ninth Firmament existences drool were lying out in mountainous piles as nearby- another True Sanguine Clone could be seen hammering down as the allure of an enlightened Primordial Relic could already be seen forming!

Refining pills and elixirs, and even enlightened Primordial Relics or even Sui Generis Enlightened Primordial Relics generous primordial relics!

WAA!

This was what some clones were taking care of!

And then apart from all of this, the other clone that remained had the task of seamlessly forging even more concepts.

It didn't matter if there were Minor, Greater, or even Insuperable.

Any clone that didn't have a task to do was in charge of coming up with unique concepts that would soon after be corrupted by RUINATION and then elevated to Quasi-TABOO with an Olden Orb of Transmogrification just like all of the 1,200 nomological edicts that Noah currently had swimming within his soul!

And their job also went past this as after studying and comprehending over a thousand Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts, Noah also wanted to try naturally forming them.

He better understood what requirements they held and what conditions had to be met for someone to exceed Insuperable and begin coming towards Quasi-TABOO or even TABOO itself!

And of course, the answer lay in the affinity to the natural laws of Reality and how one Influenced these laws themselves as ultimately- the concept of TABOO was one that could ignore and eradicate the natural laws of reality and allowed one to instantly achieve the power of A Legend's Visage!

Chapter 1670 The Bloodline Library! I

The myriad of Primordial Adjudicators following them stayed back as the figures of Adjudicator Katelyn and the party of Empress Genevieve entered the White Outer Peninsula.

A mere mimic of a genuine Grotto Sanctum that a LEGEND had enacted- a land that was surrounded by hundreds of Realities as inside of it...boundless splendor could be seen.

Even though one could consider it a small sized False Grotto Sanctum, it was still a Domain that twisted and folded space as the sheer space itself within it was too extensive to wrap your head around!

Vast.

This was one of the renowned features of Grotto Sanctums as a single one could have space within it equivalent to hundreds of Realities.

SHAA!

Passing through the barrier, uniquely established rules wrapped around the bodies of Adjudicator Katelyn, and the Empress- the two of them carrying the highest recognized authority here as the established rules were extended to the other beings in their party...a spatial light wrapping all of them up and sending them to a certain location in the White Outer Peninsula!

If other beings with different authorities entered this false Grotto Sanctum, the established laws would recognize them and also teleport them to the areas that they were granted access to as for the recent entrants...they were instantly teleported to one of the core areas of this False Grotto Sanctum where true Royalty and distinguished Primordial Adjudicators were allowed.

The area inside was mesmerizing as their figures appeared above a Runic magic circle inscribed onto an expansive square like white slab where dozens of other teleportation magic circles could be seen!

Cylindrical golden pillars were situated on the left and right of this square as they shot upwards endlessly into a clear blue sky.

Yes- a sky!

Not endless stellar space filled with Cosmos or universes, but a vast blue sky one couldn't see the ends of as it stretched across all directions.

This was one of the unique features of a Grotto Sanctum- where even a false one was designed to mimic this domain where much of its space was actually covered by paradisiacal land or bodies of water instead of stellar bodies as it was akin to one gargantuan world- a world where occasionally, rivers of Reality could be seen coursing through it as one could enter them to find endless stellar space within.

So Realities themselves would only be mere pockets of space that one could enter within a Grotto Sanctum!

The area that the four new entrants appeared in was extremely infinitesimal compared to the vastness of this space, with the golden cylindrical pillars leading towards a massive rainbow colored tree that shone of illusory Realities- this tree shooting up in an endless manner as on its branches, crystalline glass like castles could be seen.

The auras of countless existences in the Firmaments of Ascendancy could be felt as it was akin to bright twinkling fireflies showing off their light, with hundreds of auras of the Ninth Firmament existences also prevalent as once more...this place was merely a small corner of the White Outer Peninsula that was a false Grotto Sanctum built by a LEGEND!

But this wasn't all.

"Oh?"

Genevieve raised her head up as pervasive and all around them, they could feel a calm and oppressive aura that made itself known to all. An aura that far surpassed any others in the Firmaments of Ascendancy as it felt like an unshaken sea constantly pressing down over their wills that they couldn't overcome.

This...was the will of a LEGEND.

Katelyn saw the surprise in the eyes of Genevieve and Beatrix as the former even asked.

"This aura is..."

"Uncle Brightborn happened to be over this time around, you should go pay your greetings after you get settled and meet with the Elders."

Katelyn replied with a light smile as she felt the familiarity of one of the false Grotto Sanctums she had spent a lot of her life in, momentarily letting go of the painful thoughts in her memory as her observatory eyes now captured more things.

Things like the fact that Genevieve and Beatrix felt surprise when the aura of a LEGEND pervasiveness crashed onto their souls, and yet the existence they brought...he actually gazed up towards this descending aura as his eyes sparkled with defiance and challenge!

'Who did little Gen bring...for them to be so boisterous as to have such a reaction against the will of a LEGEND?'

This was the thought that crossed through her mind as her eyes refocused on the one introduced as Alexander King.

Her gazed eyes were hiding many things as beneath the multicolored light, there was an illusory light of shattered mirrors within them as this granted Katelyn a unique sight that specifically saw things only someone of her origin could decipher!

Being born of a unique existences in the Mirror Dimension and the Bloodline of a LEGEND, Katelyn had many things that even LEGENDS envied.

One of them was .

An ability that allowed her to see any interferences of the Mirror Dimension and recognize any other existences that had connections or Bloodlines stemming from such a dimension.

She had long ago seen that this Alexander King actually held a thin trace of a Bloodline tracing back to the Mirror Dimension- a trace that even LEGENDS would not be able to find even if they looked with their TABOO Nomological Edicts!

She was only able to gaze upon it due to holding a Lineage from the Mirror Dimension as this was a point that had caused her surprise while wondering why he would hide such a thing- but that was all.

It didn't draw her interest too much as even the fact that he was an Enlightened Peerless Alchemist...didn't make her give him a special treatment as while they were rare, such distinguished beings existed in the Pure Blooded Domains!

Some even tried to form connections with her in the past by bringing their hard forged Elixirs or Relics!

So none of this drew her attention, but his defiant light while under the will of a LEGEND did as from his eyes...Katelyn was able to see boundless confidence.

A light smile couldn't help but appear on her face as she could recall only a single other being that had such an expression when they faced the will of a LEGEND.

'Perhaps someone exceptional hiding themselves?'

Only a passing thought in her mind as she saw lines of attendants in the Seventh and Sixth Firmament of Ascendancy adorned in matching golden attire appear from the Reality Tree ahead of them and come to their sides while bowing.

"ADJUDICATOR! EMPRESS!"

OOOM!

Their respectful voices echoed out as for royalty like Genevieve and Katelyn, average Sixth and Seventh Firmament existences with abysmal Destinies being mere servants to them as Katelyn nodded with acknowledgment while turning towards Genevieve.

"After you freshen up, come to the Peninsula Observatory, that's where Uncle Brightborn is currently at."

She had spoken out and was about to move to her own matters when Genevieve's next words stopped her in her tracks.

"Oh, I have to pay a visit to the Bloodline Library first. Then I'll head to meet Uncle."

...!

The Bloodline Library!

A location that could be accessed from any Peninsula across the Pure Blooded Domains where Cardinal Royal Humans controlled- one that contained large amounts of techniques and books that taught of unique ways to manipulate essence to unleash devastating skills...and also the vault that contained other techniques like the Runic Ecriptions of Modus Operandi under the Authority of their Bloodline!

Why would Genevieve wish to visit such a place as the first thing after her return?

The starry mirror-like glazed eyes of Katelyn glimmered as a calm smile began to curve within them. She had been swamped with too many thoughts recently that she needed something to take her mind off other matters.

Her interest was piqued, her unique will focusing on Genevieve and the actions of her party!