Chapter 701 - Old and New Shall Work As One! I

At this moment, it seemed to be the period of the calm before the storm as many beings moved about and prepared.

The clone of Alexander used the medallion that granted the Authority of an Imperial Ruler to occupy the fortress that the Imperial Adjudicator had given him. This Dannicus fortress was filled with protectors and maids as it brimmed with life, but like much of the Nexus Galaxy, Noah would not get to enjoy it too much!

He thought this because even though he had been in the Nexus Galaxy for over half a month now, he had only remained in the Brightgold Monarchy Realm where the core of the Imperials resided. Even though this was the location where the most powerful gathered, there were still millions of other Realms and billions of worlds in the starry space of this Galaxy that he did not explore, simply because it wasn't his focus and he did not need to.

Noah was lamenting this fact as he loved exploring and enjoying the cultures of different beings, but his focus had been very narrow and locked on as time passed! Even now, the clone was helping with enhancing his Realm by absorbing Cores at the rank of Black Hole, utilizing the loot he received from the Fiends himself.

His Manifested Black Hole merely devoured all the coming Cores as it only got larger and enhanced its gravitational force, where even as Noah took out and absorbed the QUASAR Ranked cores that shone with multicolored splendor and were the size of his head, his Black Hole only grew ever larger as the oppressive air it released increased. But he did not break through!

Traversing through the Realms while keeping oneself at Grand Completion was hard, where the resources required to advance were even more numerous. This was why Noah had to absorb the cores of multiple beings a stage above him just to obtain the Manifested Black Hole while advancing forward.

"If I have to butcher tens of QUASARS or even a Lower Tier GALAXY expert to advance, so be it!" His gaze was cold as he said these words, continuing to absorb the many cores as he thought about the body of Noah in the Novus Galaxy.

Because of wanting to bring as much fire power as possible to the Galaxy he wanted to besiege, he would have both his bodies work together on the raid mission of the Burning Domains Galaxy.

This was also because if he did not put his other body to use, it would mean that an hour of [Invulnerability] gets simply wasted as both his bodies shared the effects of the Traits he held.

With his split Origins, some things between his bodies were separate, but the inscribed Traits given by his home Galaxies were one and the same! An example was the progression Realm being somewhat interlinked but separate, or how some skills like [Ancient Blood Clone] were treated entirely separate as he gained clones past the limits because of both bodies. The inscribed Traits of Infinite Mana and Protagonist were the things that were shared! When he activated the [Plot Armor] ability with the body of Alexander, it would also apply to the body of Noah in the Novus Galaxy as under Traits, both bodies were one and the same!

So why not have his other body participate when there was no threat to his life? Thus, he would have both the old body and the new one work together as they procured the most loot!

This was especially so since in the past few hours after the body of Noah in the Novus Galaxy obtained the wisps of the Dao of Summoning, two additional pets were also summoned! His Origin in the Novus Galaxy summoned and contracted the Animus Pets without any problems, whatever Universal Rules or Dao existing not being able to stop him as his two bodies exceeded possible limits on this aspect as well.

The Animus Summons brought forth by Noah were just as shocking as the ones the body of Alexander summoned, with two Ultra Rare Summons being brought forth!

Since he began on the path of a Summoner, not a single Common or Rare Pet, but all his pets had been of the Ultra Rank or above.

He even considered the Noah in the Novus Galaxy unlucky as no PRISMATIC Summons took the bait for him! Yet the summoned pets had their own splendor as both of them held Ancient Bloodlines!

[Variant Oculothorax](Ultra Rare) :: An Animus Summon at the Black Hole Realm. Its body is primarily an eyeball, and this particular Oculothorax has undergone a mutation through pure willpower after rejecting its grotesque appearance, mastering the Laws of Light and Fate in an effort to change its destiny. It contains a dreadfully strong soul as all its abilities carry potent Soul Damage. Abilities include Eye of Doom, Fate Extinguishing Light...

[Millennium Calamity Bear](Ultra Rare) :: An Animus Summon at the QUASAR Realm. A unique species of Bears that takes on the mantle of [Calamity], this Summon has mastered the Laws of Life and Earth as its body can barely be penetrated by physical attacks. Within it, the Bloodline of the Archaic Void Calamity Millennium Bear dwells. Abilities include Shield of Beginning, Hug of Life and Death...

From his two summons, Noah was able to bring forth two Ultra Rare pets, with one in the realm of Nebula that he raised to Black Hole, and the terrifyingly large Millennium Calamity Bear standing at 300 meters large that was already at the QUASAR Realm!

All he did for the Calamity Bear was enhance its Realm to Grand Completion, his heart trembling in excitement as he looked at its tanky abilities that would even be able to withstand attacks from a Lower Tier Galaxy expert once he merged with the pet.

You read that right! The defences of this Millennium Calamity Bear seemed terrifying enough that after Noah merged with it and enhanced its strength, he expected this Summon at the QUASAR Realm to be able to at least defend against a Lower Tier GALAXY Realm expert!

As for the Oculothorax...all he could say was that it was extremely interesting! What should have normally been a grotesque-looking summon as it was an eyeball floating in space actually contained within it the brilliant light of fate, resplendent white wings erupting on the back of the eye as the pupil shone half gold and white!

Who could have imagined that he could summon pets with such uniqueness? He was looking forward to advancing through Realm quickly so he could summon even more, wanting to catch as many unique Animus Summons as he could!

Chapter 702 - Old And New Shall Work As One! II

When looking at the current number of Summons he held, one might be asking themselves how exactly he planned to utilize them when besieging a Galaxy?

The effect of [Plot Armor] would only apply to him, not his pets. If he wanted it to apply to them as well, this would only be possible while utilizing the skill, [One Body, One Soul] to merge with them!

But that would mean that only two pets would be able to be utilized by the bodies of Noah and Alexander...that is if he didn't have clones that could exhibit 100% of his strength for both of his identities.

This meant that as his domineering raid mission began, all four pets would have a body they would merge with as he would release for combatants that each carried power capable of reaping the lives of QUASAR Realm experts, and in the case of the bodies merging with the Void Serpent and the Calamity Bear- two of them would even be able to match Lower Tier GALAXY Realm experts!

Ah!

Two of his main bodies and two of his clones, each one merged with an Animus Summon as all of them had the status effect of [Invulnerability] as they wreaked havoc in the Burning Domains Galaxy! Can one even f.u.c.k.i.n.g imagine this sight?!

It would be an event for the ages as Noah finalized his plans and monitored things on both Galaxies before moving out.

The Novus Galaxy continued its Era of Peace as the Chosen Extras were rapidly forging their stars in the Nebula Realm.

Noah didn't know if they would have the talent of forming 100,000 stars even with all the Effulgent Star Pearls given to them, but all he cared about was that they already passed the average benchmark of many beings as they garnered above average strength!

They could break through into the Black Hole Realm whenever they wished, and Noah was already thinking of ways of getting his own people to step on the path of the Dao early.

He could pass down is [Dao of Summoning Traverser] and the [Animus Summoner Trainer] skill tree as they were normal skills, but the Absolute Skill <<Archaic Void Summoning>> that summoned forth the pets in the first place could not be passed down through the Library feature. He would have to possibly create another skill that would have the same function if it wasn't insanely expensive so that the strength of his subordinates can explode even more!

But aside from those in the Novus Galaxy, preparations were getting even busier in the Nexus Galaxy as the Imperial Adjudicator felt a sense of impending loss, not finding any options to save him and the two women he could not live without.

They reinforced their defenses as they prepared, the genius Imperial Ruler known as Alexander being given time to consolidate his rapidly enhancing strength as they hoped he would soon be able to stand as a pillar for the Nexus Galaxy.

Yet they didn't know that at this moment, the being in question was finishing chugging Cores at the Black Hole and QUASAR Realm as he brought himself to his optimum strength!

The body of Alexander rose in the hidden star in the Starry Sky Galaxy as around him, a shimmering Three-Legged Fate Crow plucked its fiery golden feathers while an enormous 500-meter tall Void Serpent literally vibrated with strength as its scales shone with a terrifying l.u.s.ter.

His eyes shone as the image of a stat panel that could only be seen from the Noah in the Novus Galaxy reflected on his eyes, checking this panel after what seemed like a long time even though it had only been over half a month!

Many laws were nearly fully comprehended as he would soon be able to follow the shocking methods laid in the Page of Ruination he obtained to begin the process of Assimilation for all his laws simultaneously!

He had become a Grand Controller in the Law of Aether as this law was fully comprehended, and planned to see the extent of the help of the |Intents| of the combined Supreme Laws would be in the coming battles as he chained multiple words. He would be able to freely do this without worrying about those watching, which was the reason he still somewhat held back while taking care of the Fiends in the Stellar Sky Galaxy.

He had laws, boosts from numerous skills from <<Absolute Sin>>, which had especially potent abilities when it came to matching those a realm above his own...he just had many things he would be using as he would try to go all out for his siege mission!

RUMBLE!

His Summons were taken into the swirling Rift on his chest as the enormous snake and shimmering young Golden Crow appeared within his Origin, his figure teleporting away from the hidden Star in the Stellar Sky Galaxy.

When he reappeared, he was in a region of the chaotic void that wasn't too many light years away from his target- the Burning Domains Galaxy!

Around him, a clone from the body of Alexander appeared as a second later, the body of Noah and his clone also made their appearance in the chaotic void.

Four bodies, a single being!

As he looked at his four bodies, a deadly smile filled with wild excitement could be seen appear on each of them, their thoughts one as they prepared to do something grand!

Chapter 703 - A Majestic Line Up!

RUMBLE!

In the chaotic void not too far away from the Burning Domains Galaxy, Summoning Rifts erupted from his two main bodies as terrifying Animus Summons that released an ancient stepped out.

The terrifying chaotic void around them did bother them one bit, each of their bodies appearing in a stellar fashion as they looked around curiously!

The biggest Summon was the 500-meter large Void Serpent whose twisted body overtowered all of them, only the 300 meter-sized Calamity Bear being able to turn its face towards him as it didn't seem as minuscule as everyone else.

The unique Variant Oculothorax shone with the essence of Light and Fate as the enormous pupil was about 20 meters in size, ten times the height of an average man as it matched the size of the arrogant Three-Legged Fate Crow that glanced around each of them while keeping its beak high.

"This is..."

OOOM

The ancient voice of the future Jormugandr rang out as it glanced towards Noah's two bodies, finding out with surprise that aside from the Alexander it was contracted to, it could also feel a link to the newly appearing body of Noah as it felt even this being could give it commands as well!

This unique situation caused the eyes of the Void Serpent to shine, this being something it had not yet seen in its thousands of years of living. The other pets also noticed this oddity as it shocked them to accept, but the truth was clear as they could feel it with their souls.

Two bodies, a single Master!

The clones could be differentiated as the Animus Summons looked towards each other with an unknown light, the Three-Legged Fate Crow speaking out as it acted like an older summon amongst all of them.

"As the first summon by Master, you all can call me Older Sister Crow. Do you all know what we are about to do?"

Its fiery gold feathers shone splendidly in the chaotic void as its eyes tried not to tremble when the terrifying gaze of the Void Serpent looked towards it with a smile, the eyes of the Crow focusing themselves on the Oculothorax and the Calamity bear as it tried to insert its authority!

"Older Sister Crow, aren't we besieging a Galaxy filled with powerful enemies? It is nothing much." The strong voice of the Calamity Bear rang out calmly as it didn't seem bothered by anything, its eyes only locked on to the Void Serpent as it felt its very bloodline quiver when looking at this being.

A second later, the piercing mental voice of the Oculothorax also rang out in the minds of all the beings here as it carried with it a tone of battle intent!

"Master has shared the information of these so-called Fiends. My attacks layered with Soul Damage will reap the lives of those QUASAR Ranked Fiend Rulers as easy as plucking the feathers of chickens...with the Elder Fiends at the GALAXY Realm...being my main targets!"

CAA!

The future Golden Crow was nodding mysteriously while trying to look wise until it heard the last sentence of the Oculothorax, bringing its fiery golden wings close to it as its golden eyes locked with the enormous eye filled with the essence of light and fate.

The Void Serpent looked at all of this calmly as its gigantic head turned towards the two Noah's and asked calmly.

"You seem confident to walk into this Galaxy and come out alive even when it is filled with enemies of higher Realms than us, what is the goal?"

"The goal...is simply loot! As for our lives, I can guarantee that all of us will walk in there and leave without so much a feather falling off our bodies." Noah answered calmly as he prepared, the body of Alexander going towards the Void Serpent.

"Before we teleport into the Burning Domains Galaxy though, we will merge and bring ourselves to the peak of our strength. The moment we enter will be the time when blood will overflow."

RUMBLE!

Words filled with confidence spread out in the Void as even the pets weren't fully convinced, but they trusted their Master when he said none of them would lose their lives, even if they could not explain it!

"The mana expenditure to maintain the merging state not just with me, but with these other three...I know that most Summoners can barely merge with their Summons for a few minutes, are we only going in and out in a matter of minutes?"

The curious Void Serpent continued to ask questions as it tried to get to the root of Noah's strength, the being in question only smiling as he said simply,

"Mana? That's something I have even fewer worries about. If I wanted to remain merged with all of you for days, it would not be an issue. Much less a few hours. Let us begin- [One Body, One Soul]!"

RUMBLE!

Baleful Essence erupted out in large amounts as a golden line appeared between the body of Alexander and the Void Serpent, a hazy light covering the two of them as with another flash of light, they were pulled towards each other as they became one!

WAA!

Bubbling essence continued to emulate out as when the light died down, the enormous body of the Void Serpent had shockingly grown by another 200 meters, its scales seeming even thicker and l.u.s.trous as its eyes now shone with a gold-red l.u.s.ter.

"Woah."

When the eyes opened, the joined consciousness of two beings was finalized as Noah felt the immense power of the Void Serpent, especially the archaic bloodline hidden deep within it! Memories of its numerous terrifying skills and abilities poured into his brain as they felt like his own, the power of this creature at the QUASAR Realm being elevated by a great amount from the +200% boost in power of the enhanced [One Body, One Soul] perfect merging ability!

But he wasn't done.

Merging with a summon was only the first step, and he would be bringing out even greater power as he began buffing himself with shocking abilities!

[Incandescent Emperor].

The ability that granted him +1000% to Damage, Attack Speed, Cast Speed, Law Resistances, Defence, as well as +50% Decreased Damage Taken from all sources was activated as on the body of the Void Serpent that had mastered the Laws of Death, Ather, and Chaos- the light of Fate began to dr.a.p.e over it with ease.

Vibrant golden runic lines began to be drawn throughout the enormous body of the creature as on top of its draconic-serpentine head, a golden crown began forming!

The aura it released was only rising higher and higher as the other three Animus watched on in shock at the pressure the Void Serpent released that seemed to be soon going way past the realm of QUASAR.

A shocking powerup and transformation session was just beginning as Noah fully prepared many abilities, planning to be at the absolute peak of strength the moment that his four bodies merged with Animus Summons teleported into the Burning Domains Galaxy!

Chapter 704 - Spam All the Buffs!

A magisterial sight was taking place in the chaotic void as a stellar Void Serpent adorned with a golden crown appeared, numerous runic sigils branded on its purple-blue scales as the pressure it released was not something a QUASAR Realm being should have!

The other pets looked at each other in excitement while observing this scene, turning their eyes to the three remaining Noahs as each of them smiled calmly while calling out- [One Body, One Soul].

RUMBLE!

A light that linked the original body of Noah and the two clones to the three remaining pets shone out, another 3 fusions of Summoner and Pet occurring as the blinding light spread out for miles.

[Incandescent Emperor].[Incandescent Emperor].[Incandescent Emperor].

The descent of the strong golden light of fate then came down as the runic lines were carved like archaic tattoos on each of the pets, a shimmering golden crown adorned on each of them as they shone with ridiculous power!

CAA!

The cry of the future Golden Crow resounded as the chicken grew twice as large, its wings shining with even more golden light. But it seemed tiny in comparison to the enormous Void Serpent as well as..the Calamity Bear that looked like an Archaic King while now sitting at 500 meters while adorned with a golden crown.

Its obsidian-colored fur seemed thicker and stronger than the rarest diamonds as its face was filled with a regal aura, its thick bear claws shining menacingly as the essence of Life and Earth abundantly leaked from it.

Meanwhile, the Oculothorax's shimmering crown nearly covered all of this creature, the huge eye shining even brighter as it gained enticing beauty to those who deeply favored eyes!

"This power..."

The ancient voice of the Void Serpent was filled with surprise as it sensed its aura actually nearing the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm even before it used its abilities.

'With such supporting skills...if they last long enough...'

Numerous thoughts crossed the ancient creature's mind as at this moment, the voice of its master rang out.

"We aren't done."

[Yggdrasil].

RUMBLE!

His word was filled by the repetition of the same word by the other three merged pets, the colors of the dark chaotic void changing as above them, rivers of the essence of life dripped down like a broken dam as it went to coalesce around them, thick branches and leaves beginning to shroud their 4 bodies as they didn't take the form of the enormous Tree of Life, but instead, the thick branches and leaves wrapped around them as they began to form a primal looking visage.

The form of the Tree of Life was that on an ancient armored visage that went on to fully cover every spot on the bodies of the four merged summons, each of them gaining a thick layer of protection as the main use of this covering was to reinforce their power- enormous amounts of Life Essence pumping into them every second as they looked like huge creatures of the forest!

The aura of power they released continued to shoot ever higher as from the body of the Void Serpent, the aura it now released was no less than a being at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm.

All the other pets...were releasing horrendous aura at the peak of QUASAR Realm that threatened to spill out to GALAXY at any time!

One must recall that Noah himself...was only at the Black Hole Realm.

Manifested Black Hole, yes, but still at the Realm of Black Hole!

Yet combined with his pets and while adorned with [Incandescent Emperor] and [Yggdrasil], one of his pets already released an aura able to match a being at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm while the others could reap the lives of QUASAR ranked experts with ease.

Yet even at this juncture...stupidly and unbelievably- Noah was not done.

He ridiculously wasn't f.u.c.k.i.n.g done!

Ah!

"[Death Scythe]"

WAA!

The immense aura of death began to permeate out as before the rivers of the essence of life could even finish granting the primal armor of Yggdrasil, a flood of the essence of death rumbled through to wrap around the bodies of the summons as above their crowns, the illusory image of a shockingly long Scythe began to appear.

The Death Scythe was constantly thrumming as it released a thick barrier of death around the bodies already layered with numerous buffs, this being a new ability that Noah obtained from the techniques of the Law of Death!

One must recall that previously, we only mentioned the cultivating ability of <<Death's Apostle>> but not the other abilities that came with the techniques from the Imperial Library. The skill he just cast one that came from the skill tree under the techniques of the Law of Death! The boosts of the ability were also very similar to Yggdrasil.

Death Scythe :: Death is something no being can escape, something that many run from but never find success! This ability grants the user an illusory protection in the form of a Scythe, this protection giving them the possibility of interfering with death. While active, the user gains +3000% Physical and Soul Defense, +3000% to All Damage, +1000% Extra Death Essence Damage, +3000% Increased Attack Speed, +100% Universal Laws Resistance Penetration, +100% to all Universal Laws Resistance, and All enemies struck by you abilities gain the [Death Leech] status effect. The user will also gain a Death Shield after every 10 minutes this ability is kept active. (The skill is currently being enhanced by the [Death] ability.)

It was literally just the boosts of the Yggdrasil abilities with a few extra additions or differences, but it contributed even greater percentages of boosts as aside from the Primal verdant armor given by Yggdrasil as the Scythe constantly pulsed and released a layer of death essence to cover all the pets.

As Noah got to this point, he could feel a tremendous strain on his soul as he knew these transformations were the max that he could do even while being reinforced with the souls of the merged pets, that if he tried to add the [Terror of Aether Form] or the [Arch Demon Lord] form from the Seven Deadly Sins abilities...he would only get a momentary boost before his origin and soul could not keep that many transformations together as they would fall apart in the next minute.

But what he had now..should be more than enough!

When he looked around at the four Summons he had merged with, each of them looked like a Primal Archaic Beast that could tear apart anything they faced with ease as the strongest Void Serpent and Calamity Bear seemed particularly monstrous.

The layers of boosts from merging, [Incandescent Emperor], [Yggdrasil], and [Death Scythe] made them and the Three-Legged Fate Crow and the Oculothorax look so damn sturdy and ancient!

They looked so f.u.c.k.i.n.g sturdy as they emanated a horrendous pressure that seemed to say nothing would be able to bypass them!

Ah!

Chapter 705 - The Siege Begins!

Immense auras of shocking proportions were pulsating in the chaotic void a few light years from the Burning Domains Galaxy.

This was especially so for two of them- the Void Serpent and the Calamity Bear!

The Void Serpent was already releasing a suffocating aura that only those in the Lower Tier GALAXY Realm could release with the boosts of [Yggdrasil], but with [Death Scythe] on top- this suffocating aura approached the peak of the Lower Tier GALAXY Realm!

This was what an Animus Pet of the Prismatic Rank and holding an Archaic Bloodline could achieve when supported by tremendously powerful skills.

The Calamity Bear that was also only at the QUASAR Realm similar to the Void Serpent but did not have a ridiculously powerful bloodline like it was only able to release the aura of a being at the Lower Tier GALAXY Realm after the last boost of [Death Scythe], its enormous towering body seeming like a building that would destroy anything in its path.

The Three-Legged Fate Crow and the Oculothorax each shone menacingly with their golden crowns and fully covered up bodies, each of them releasing shocking auras at the peak of the QUASAR Realm even though they stood in the Realm of Black Hole.

The pressure that each of these pets released was suffocating as on each of their bodies, the Manifested Black Holes and QUASARS could be seen swiftly rotating as each of them were at the Grand Completion of their Realms!

"With this...we are ready."

"With this...we are ready." "With..."

Each of them spoke the same sentence simultaneously as the minds of all of them were linked by a singular being, their goals made clear as the Animus Summons followed Noah's will while keeping their shock and surprise to themselves for now!

At this moment, the memories of the Fiend Rulers Noah had taken down flowed freely into the minds of the Summons as multiple locations on the Burning Domains Galaxy were seen, and each of them would be sent to separate locations that held cl.u.s.ters of powerful Fiends for them to rampage.

Across the Dark Universe, the Galaxies were innumerable with the numbers of beings as vast as could be!

In the fringes of the Dark Universe, there existed the Burning Domains Galaxy which had unique stellar bodies that were filled with abundant essence of flames.

Shockingly, each of its stars carried with it scorching environments as they created for many domains of cl.u.s.ters of stars, granting it the name of the Burning Domains Galaxy. Within this Galaxy, the singular race of Fiends were the ones reigning Supreme, with them being the only beings that thrived and survived in the scorching atmospheres.

Among the Fiends of the Galaxy, Six Domains were known as the most important, where an Elder Fiend ruled each Domain with strength and valor. This was how things were a few hundred years ago, but they had changed rapidly with the advent of an Entity coming to reside in their Galaxy- this Entity overtaking their entire power structure as she inserted herself on top and used shocking abilities to increase the power of all the Fiends as she gained their unfilial loyalty!

The Elder Fiends that ruled the Six Domains were elevated to the Ranks of Low Tier GALAXY, with many Fiends at the levels of Black Hole and QUASAR being produced, and even more numerous Fiends at the Realm of Black Hole.

Among the many Galaxies around it, the Burning Domains Galaxy actually had an overpowering battle power that could easily take down any that it set its sights on. Yet after showing some of their power by releasing a single Elder Fiend to take care of a few Galaxies, they unexpectedly met with loss as the Entity above them was filled with wrath!

The Six Domains were in a bustle of activities as numerous Fiends moved in each of them while continuing to train, every now and then bringing themselves to a unique glimmering green body of water that was placed in the middle of each of the Six Domains by the hands of the Entity.

The green bodies of water were placed on the starry space of the Six Domains, at the very center as they looked like an enormous green liquid star!

The Fiends would make a trip away from their planets and Realms as they dove into this green body of water as they came out of it extremely rejuvenated, with their cells screaming for them to continue cultivating as this was how their rapid growth came to be- through the hands of the Entity proficient in the Dao of Vitality!

At this moment, only one of the Six Domains did not have an Elder Fiend presiding over it, this being the Low Tier GALAXY Realm expert that had fallen by the hands of the Aurora Galaxy Dragon. But on the other Five Domains, an Elder Fiend at the Realm of GALAXY presided over the training of the many Fiends as they oversaw numerous Realms and Planets surrounding each of the green bodies of water filled with Vitality that they termed...Vital Life Water.

Across the many Realms and Planets on each of the Domain, the Fiends continued their battle driven lifestyle as in one of the Domains, an Elder Fiend situated on an asteroid stationary on the starry space who was observing the Fiends coming and going into the Planetary Body they called Vital Life Water in their Domain- this Elder Fiend felt spatial fluctuations that foretold of a long-distance teleportation being cast, and the being utilizing it was particularly large as the senses of the Fiend spread out towards this fluctuation a few hundred thousand miles away!

The Fiend then abruptly rose as a wild pressure released from it, the eyes on its head incredulous as its senses told it that...an enormous coiling being in the form of a serpent had appeared at that location, the aged eyes of this Serpent briefly looking over its direction as the Elder Fiend was actually ignored and watched on with his aura as this Serpent...delved towards the nearest Realm that was filled with Fiends in ranging from the ranks of QUASAR all the way to the lower ranks.

At the same time, the incredulous Elder Fiend could distinctly pick up words that seemed to travel through space, and the words said simply- [Plot Armor]!

RUMBLE!

A brilliant light shone on the body of the Void Serpent right before it dove into the Realm filled with Fiends, something similar happening onto the bodies of three other beings as at this moment...a terrifying Siege had begun in the Burning Domains Galaxy.

Inside three other Domains where other Elder Fiends oversaw, the enormous bodies of the Millenium Calamity Bear, Variant Oculothorax, and the Three-Legged Fate Crow all made their appearance as the moment they entered, a unique light that represented the ability of [Plot Armor] went on to cover them, their eyes blazing with a domineering light as some dove into the nearest Planet or Realm that held a multitude of Fiends, while another summon went on a completely different mission!

On the bodies of each of these creatures, a potent armor of Life that represented [Yggdrasil] and a horrid Scythe released deathly essence while situated atop shimmering golden crowns floating on top of each of their heads, making these creatures looking like Archaic Kings that had come down to rain judgment.

At this moment, the Siege had begun!

Chapter 706 - A Light Tears Through Space, A GALAXY Falls!

The next set of events have to be described separately, but they happened simultaneously the moment that Four Archaic Animus Summons descended on four separate Domains of the Burning Domains Galaxy.

Each Domain was under the rule of a GALAXY Rank Elder Fiend, and the Animus Pets teleported into the Domains as they descended on the nearest Realm or Planet that held training Fiends!

"Enemies!"

"Move!"

In a particular Domain, an enormous Void Serpent that was hundreds of meters descended into a Realm filled with a blazing atmosphere and an abundant amount of Fiends, this Realm holding two Fiend Rulers at the QUASAR Realm.

The eyes of the Void Serpent buffed with multiple skills shone as it moved at speeds that its enormous body should have in no way been capable of, going to the center of this Realm where the two QUASAR Fiend Rulers resided as the Fiends sensed his terrifying aura and began to mobilize!

RUMBLE!

Essence flew about wildly as not too far away from this Realm, the Elder Fiend at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm was already moving as a streak of light towards this Realm that was only a few hundred thousand miles away, and he would be getting into it in a matter of seconds.

But these seconds...would be extremely crucial as the reason that this Elder Fiend was hurrying towards this enemy was because it could sense the horrifying aura that was no less than its own from the spot it stood!

Few Seconds! But in these few seconds, Noah who was merged with the Void Serpent came across the fortress where two QUASAR Fiend Rulers stood, Fiends of lower levels spread out all over this Realm as they all steaked towards Noah's aura fearlessly.

"Hold until the Elder arrives!"

The two QUASAR Fiend Rulers shone with power as their eyes remained unshaken at the rushing enemy, their bodies reinforced with potent abilities as they threw out their most powerful attacks to stop the advance of this enormous snake just for a matter of seconds!

OOOOM

But the moment the Void Serpent neared them, its eyes shone even brighter as it seemed space came to a halt, an aged voice resounding out from all angles as a skill was cast.

A single skill. One that stemmed from the Animus that held the bloodline of the Galaxy Devouring Serpent- Jörmungandr!

[Annihilatory Death Devouring].

A mixture of the extreme essence of Chaos, Death, and Aether overflowed from the body of the Void Serpent!

It felt like space and time had come to a stop as the Fiends were held captive, the eyes of the QUASAR Ranked Fiend Rulers only seeing one thing on their sight- the mouth of the enormous Void Serpent adorned with a golden crown and deadly Scythe overtaking everything they could see as from it, an appalling devouring force assisted by multiple Laws erupted out.

RUMBLE!

The force affected the surrounding miles as any and all Fiends no matter their rank, from EPIC and the way to the two QUASAR Fiend Rulers...all of them were frozen in space as a second later, they instantaneously disappeared!

Devoured!

Not one at a time, not while the strongest at QUASAR struggled. All at once and without question, devoured instantly!

CRACK!

A horrid sound seemed to occur the moment that the Void Serpent closed its wide jaws, seemingly brought to a close with difficulty but the moment they fully closed...the lives of all those devoured were fully lost as the appalling cracking sound represented their very souls shattering.

At the same time, loot from all the devoured Fiends appeared in Noah's [Expansive Space] as he didn't get any time to even target other Fiends, an immensely powerful aura of a being at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm that was only a few seconds late finally arriving!

BOOM!

The Elder Fiend arrived with an enclosed fist that held within it a rotating Galaxy, the Void Serpent turning to meet this fist with its jaggedly scaled and armored tail as the impact between the fist and tail...entirely shattered the portion of the Realm they were in.

OOOM!

"Alert the Master!"

In the shattered space, the Elder Fiend had a disgusted look as its eyes and aura locked in with the terrifyingly large Void Serpent, its fist that shone with a l.u.s.ter of a Galaxy actually trembling as one could distinctly see bloody bones protruding from this fist.

A single strike, and a Lower Tier GALAXY Realm expert was left with a bloodied fist!

But something worthy of mentioning with even more importance at this same period of time was another area in the Burning Domains Galaxy entirely, moving away from the Void Serpent that was confronting an Elder Fiend after reaping the lives of multiple QUASAR, Black Hole, and Nebula rank Fiends that were concentrated in the center of an entire Realm.

We have to mention another Summon, the summon that held terrifying proficiency in Soul Damage- the Variant Oculothorax!

When Noah entered another one of the Domains of this Galaxy with this merged summon, he didn't delve into a Realm or Planet that held many Fiends at the realms of QUASAR or below, he directly teleported to an area from the memories of dead Fiends that he knew the Elder Fiend of this Domain would be located.

His aura had spread out the moment he appeared, seeing the Elder Fiend floating a few thousand miles away near a bubbling Planetary Body of liquid that was filled with Vitality. This Lower Tier GALAXY Realm expert noticed the mesmerizing Eye that was the Oculothorax the moment it appeared as well, the shocking aura it released causing the eyes of this Elder Field to open wide as its body began to bubble with power!

Yet the Oculothorax moved forward with purpose as its goal was this GALAXY Realm Elder Fiend itself, its eye filled with the essence of Light and Fate opening extremely wide until golden drops of blood could be seen tearfully dropping from it.

[Envy the Mighty].

First, a skill from the Seven Deadly Sins series, the ability from the Sin of Envy that lowered the abilities and stats of an opponent by one stage was cast! At the same time, a golden light that represented the abilities of the Sin of Pride being activated from facing a stronger foe shone brightly!

[Enhanced Soul Damage] . [Extreme Soul Damage Penetration] . [Soul Lock] . | Non-Evadable Attack|

Numerous Intents combined from multiple Supreme Laws were also brought forth.

RUMBLE!

The wings of the Oculothorax shimmered with immense strength as thereafter, another skill was cast- a skill that caused a brilliant light to tear through the thousand-mile distance between Noah and the Elder Fiend as it reached its target in an instant.

[Eye of Doom].

RIIIIP!

A harrowing light filled with the essence of fate and light.

A light released from a Variant Animus Summon that was proficient with Soul Damage. A light that was enhanced by the Sin of Pride, multiple Intents, [Incandescent Emperor], [Yggdrasil], and [Death Scythe]. A light that was directed against a Fiend whose abilities experienced a sudden debuff, whose one weakness was its Soul!

"IMPOSSIBLE!"

A deathly scream was the only thing that could come out from the Elder Fiend as this appalling light reached it instantly, the illusory stars from a rotating Galaxy it was trying to summon dimming a second after the light touched him, his eyes that were blazing like lanterns struggling with fear as something that should have not been possible occurred.

The blazing eyes of the Elder Fiend that had achieved an extremely high Realm shone brilliantly for just another second...before they dimmed entirely!

Dead!

A single skill from the stupidly enhanced and buffed Oculothorax, and an Elder Fiend...lay dead.

In this Domain that the Oculothorax had teleported in, it wasn't the weakest Fiends that had fallen to it first, but the strongest!

This Oculothorax was at the Realm of Black Hole! Yet! Yet! A Lower Tier GALAXY Elder Fiend lay dead the second it released its attack!

Yes, it was extremely proficient in Soul Damage that was the Fiend's greatest weakness. Yes, it had a ridiculous amount of boosts while the Elder Fiend was debuffed by the Sin of Envy. But still, this was a genuine GALAXY Realm expert...and it still lay dead.

Within the first few seconds of the Siege of the Burning Domains Galaxy...there was one less GALAXY expert within it!

One must know...the battle had just begun!

Chapter 707 - What Can They Do But Die?!

In another Domain of the Burning Domains Galaxy, a piercing cry of a future Golden Crow rang out in a stellar fashion.

CAAA!

This cry was accompanied with a flaring of wild and brilliant golden flames, the Three-Legged Fate Crow that was descending onto a nearby Star filled with Fiends up to the Rank of Black Hole shining brightly as with every passing second, the flames around it exponentially increased in size as the descent of this Animus Pet soon seemed like a wild golden sun was forming to strike the entire Planet and its inhabitants!

[Fate Flames of the Void].

A single skill from the merged and enhanced pet was released as Noah already backed it up with multiple specific Intents of laws, and the flames called forth by the Three-Legged Fate Crow had coagulated around it as they expanded rapidly, burning the very atmosphere it was entering as within an instant, it smashed into the planet.

BOOOOM!

Horrific flames shone in a cross shaped manner as from the position the Crow landed, the flames had actually spread out rapidly to cover thousands of miles as they instantly covered the entire planet, this entire star and all the Fiends on it being covered by scorching Fate Flames that burned their very souls, the star itself beginning to implode right after!

"Coward!"

A resounding call erupted out the moment the planet became engulfed in flames and imploded right after, every soul within it dead as among the imploding chunks of earth and flames, the glimmering body of a stellar Elder Fiend instantly appeared above the Three-Legged Fate Crow and struck down.

OOOM

The fist carried with it the force of a shining Galaxy as it smashed into the body of the Crow instantly, a blinding impact flashing as the Crow shot downwards for hundreds of miles in the starry space before coming to a halt.

"..."

The Elder Fiend looked on with incredulousness after landing the strike with his full power, multiple illusory stars from his inner GALAXY that he had called forth to aid him were still rotating on his fist.

Yet the enemy he struck...did not have an ounce of Damage as the moment they recovered from the inertia, the arrogant golden beak on the enemy only rose up in disdain before it completely ignored the GALAXY Realm expert and streaked towards a nearby Planet where more Fiends lay!

"Hold!"

The Elder Fiend put away his questions as he chased, passing messages to all other leading Fiends as he continued to ask himself how this being was not injured by his strike. But he would never find out as this was...[Invulnerability]!

From the casting of [Plot Armor], Noah had Invulnerability for the next hour...and there were four of him that descended onto the Burning Domains Galaxy as the Fiend would soon be faced with ridiculous enemies that could not even be damaged.

In another Domain, the mountainous form of a Millenium Calamity Bear had descended into a Realm that turned out to be one of the core Realms of Fiends, holding within it 5 Fiend Rulers at the QUASAR Realm with millions of other Fiends training within.

The Calamity Bear appeared in the skies of the Realm as the mountainous body cast a shadow, its gaze that of solemnity and regality that was unique to its bloodline as the golden crown and Scythe shimmering atop its head only went towards increasing its grand stature!

As the Fiends cl.u.s.tered together with the 5 QUASAR Fiend Rulers leading them with wrathful faces, the Calamity Bear spread its paws out in a welcoming manner as it called forth-

[Hug of Life and Death].

RUMBLE!

Calmly, the skill was enunciated as it rang in the ears of all the beings in the surrounding miles, a hazy green-grey essence shining out from the Calamity Bear as its widespread paws and chest shone with an enticing l.u.s.ter!

At the next instant, the 5 QUASAR ranked experts and a few hundred Fiends around them at the Realm of Black Hole and Nebula felt a strong gravitational force that they could not deny, a force that wrapped around each of them and pulled them towards the welcoming hug of the Calamity Bear without question!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The bodies of the Fiends were pulled in as they stuck on the covered fur of the Calamity Bear, their eyes filled with terror as in the next instant...the paws of the Calamity Bear began closing to tightly hug all the Fiends that had been pulled into its embrace, a horrendous pressure grinding down onto each of them as flesh and bones began to tear and break.

SQUELCH!

A shower of blood could then be seen thereafter as the palms of the Calamity Bear touched, the 5 QUASAR Fiend Rules and a few hundred Fiends that had fallen into its hug only becoming a mass of flesh and bones as they perished!

If one could not survive the [Hug of Life and Death], there was only one outcome!

The remaining Fiends on this Realm shook as they saw their strongest combatants wiped out in an instant, their hearts only being lifted as in the next second, a wrathful Elder Fiend at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm made his entrance into the Realm, his body pulsating with strength as he bellowed while shooting towards the Calamity Bear.

At this powerful expert making an appearance, the regal gaze of the Calamity Bear remained as its enormous paw simply waved down with a grand aura of majesty!

The battles had begun simultaneously, and only a few seconds had passed in reality as the Fiends of the Burning Domains Galaxy reacted.

At the same time, in the depths of the Galaxy where the core of it lay, a terrifying Entity opened her eyes as a mystical light swam within her, her gaze rising high as it pierced through the veils of space and sensed the commotion while receiving word from multiple Elder Fiends of what was happening!

"Who dares?!"

RUMBLE!

Chapter 708 - What Can They Do But Die?! II

In the Central Realm of the Burning Domains Galaxy, a terrifying Entity disappeared as her body bellowed forth with power!

She had received numerous communications from multiple Elder Fiends of attackers besieging their Galaxy, and she also felt the life force of one of the Elder Fiends perish a second later.

Her face was filled with wrath as she warped through space and neared the closest Domain where she could sense the aura of one of the enemies that was currently facing another Elder Fiends. No more of her tools would be killed today no matter who the enemies were, they had to die!

RUMBLE!

The Entity appeared instantly in the domain where an enormous Void Serpent had actually enclosed the GALAXY Realm Elder Fiend within its large body as its serpentine body constricted, its tail striking out constantly while the Elder Fiend defended with starry attacks.

The moment that the aura of the Entity spread out to announce its arrival, Noah in the merged Void Serpent glanced towards this titanous being with shining eyes as one of the most powerful skills of the Void Serpent were cast towards the Elder Fiend he had been dealing with this entire time!

[Annihilatory Death Devouring].

WAA!

The essence of Death fully erupted out to cover the surrounding hundreds of miles, submerging the Void Serpent and the Fiend it was battling within as the entire affected space...came to a halt. The only thing moving was the widening jaw of the Void Serpent, this jaw showing a transparent light connecting to the shocked Elder Fiend whose body was vibrating in the halted space while trying to move.

"Great Master!"

The Elder Fiend at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm that was actually on the losing side of the battle utilized all of its essence to try moving in the halted space as a terrible devouring force began to call out to it, calling out to the newly arriving Entity with excitement and fear the moment she appeared!

The Entity herself glanced at this situation with experienced eyes as her body bubbled forth with power, seeing that the enemy was actually at the QUASAR Realm, yet its body released a terrifying aura at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm.

Seeing this sight calmed the wisened Entity much, the first thing she did was waving her hands as an overpowering pressure spread out over the surrounding thousands of miles as she locked the space. She then glanced at the Void Serpent that had activated a skill that was releasing a horrible devouring force that even a Fiend at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm could not defend against.

Amongst the wrath of the Entity, a light of interest appeared as when she looked closer at this creature, she picked up the aura of...an Animus!

This was a type of creature she was familiar with, and from an Ancient Power she had come across before! As she stared at the Elder Fiend that was in a perilous situation, her bellowing voice resounded out.

"No matter your connection to the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, attacking a domain I have claimed will only result in your death!"

RUMBLE!

Her gaze was filled with wild power as the aura of the Dao erupted out, this aura going on to surround Noah in his Void Serpent form along with the Elder Fiend that was in the process of being devoured.

"Abysmally low comprehension in the Dao, and you dare to try and kill one of my people? You shall not touch a single hair on their bodies when I am here! What do you have to say for yourself before I erase your soul?"

The voice seemed to have everything under control the moment the immense aura of the Dao of Vitality spread out to cover everything, seemingly bringing all things around her control as even the horrendous devouring force released by the [Annihilatory Death Devouring] ability was reducing, the Elder Fiend gradually regaining control of its body as it stopped going towards the jaws of the Void Serpent!

This was the power of an Entity! A being that Noah could not even hope to defeat at his current state even if he brought all four of his Animus Summons to group up. This was because this being, even while injured, was at the Peak of the GALAXY Realm while backed up with the comprehension of a powerful Dao!

Noah's eyes shone with l.u.s.ter at this progression as in the halted space, he looked towards the Entity he had only seen in his memories as the ancient voice of the Void Serpent he merged with resounded out with calmness and arrogance.

"A mere Entity, and you think you can stop me from achieving what I want?!"

His shocking words were followed with him outwardly releasing the little comprehensions he had of the Dao of Summoning, a unique pressure that only those who had begun embarking on the Dao could release permeating out to offset the horrific pressure of the Dao that the Entity released just around the Void Serpent and the Elder Fiend. The moment Noah did this, he spammed the same ability that nearly devoured the Elder Fiend as immense mana was utilized!

[Annihilatory Death Devouring]![Annihilatory Death Devouring]![Annihilatory Death Devouring]!

CRACK!

"NOOO!"

Space seemed to crack and fracture at the casting of the ability multiple times, the devouring force from the jaws of the Void Serpent becoming unbearable as the Elder Fiend was sucked towards its jaws instantly.

SNAP!

The jaws snapped shut as the immense pressure of the Dao of Vitality that the Entity released covered Noah again, but the Elder Fiend was already being devoured inside it through and through as the gaze of the Void Serpent stared at the Entity fearlessly!

Even in its presence, he had broken control of its oppressive power for a second as he utilized this to cause the downfall of another Elder Fiend in the Burning Domains Galaxy.

At this time, Noah's voice in the form of the ancient Void Serpent rang out again in an arrogant fashion, his eyes locking with the newly enraged Fiend that had her authority questioned!

"I shall not touch a single hair while you are here? Hmph. If I want them dead, what can they do but die?! Even an Entity cannot change that!"

RUMBLE!

His words were released with regality and majesty as the crowned head of the deadly draconic-serpent rose up arrogantly, its body that was hundreds of meters large actually looking down at the powerful Entity that was proficient in a Dao!

Domineering! Shocking!

Noah could say such arrogant words and act so tough...because he knew he still had [Plot Armor] active for another 57 minutes...

Even a terrifying Entity that he knew he could not defeat, as long as he had [Plot Armor] active...he did not fear them!

Chapter 709 - Merely an Entity!

In life, many beings have many different ways where they carry themselves.

Some are servile and some are overbearing, with many more staying in between these extremes as they simply pass through life. Some may confidently raise their heads to the skies while strutting about while others hunch over and keep their heads very close to the earth!

Those who can confidently raise their heads and those who can be overbearing- a lot of the time there is something within their psyche that grants them such a disposition. Something that is there to back up their confidence in the face of anything.

Some had wealth or high societal position to back them up, others simply cultivated a strong belief in themselves as they raised their heads high through pure hard work. When it came to the being holding the Trait of Protagonist though...his assurance to act high and mighty in the face of a powerful Entity was his fear of Death being removed!

Backed up by [Plot Armor], Noah in the form of the Void Serpent glanced at the Entity with his serpentine head held high.

The Void Serpent towered over 700 meters with all the buffs, its red eyes glancing towards the Entity who towered over 20 meters. This Entity had a humanoid shape with a face similar to that of human females...yet at the same time, it seemed different!

The face seemed like a mixture of human and devilish features as at this moment, it was filled with wrath at having its authority violated, and violated by someone at a much lower status than her!

"I have traversed the Dark Universe more than many can even dream of, seen things that you cannot even imagine. I have fought Entities proficient in terrifying Daos and come out alive, conquered multiple Galaxies and destroyed even more with ease! Yet today, a creature at the Lower Tier of the GALAXY Realm dares to be wild under my gaze?! You dare to kill when I say you cannot?!"

RUMBLE!

Each of her words were filled with wrath as the oppressive aura she released rose higher and higher, the space around her trembling as the unique essence of the Dao swirled around her.

One must recall that this was an Entity! A title that was given to a being that the prerequisite alone was for them to be in the Peak Tier of the GALAXY Realm. The power of this being...was immense!

Yet Noah glanced towards her with even more calmness and arrogance as the rising pressure she released seemed to not make him falter a single bit.

"I dared! Will you continue talking and spreading out that vile aura, or will you act?!"

SNAP!

His words made all hell break loose as a grey-green light covered the Entity and caused her to instantly disappear, her titanic body reappearing right above the head of the Void Serpent as she pushed out her palm.

Only a palm, but it was filled with a terrifying power that would wipe away a Middle Tier GALAXY expert and heavily injured normal Peak Tier ones!

Her eyes shone with innumerable lights as her gaze became cold, this palm of her seemingly eclipsing everything as it expanded to be even larger than the enormous head of the Void Serpent. It was releasing a devouring power that sucked away all the nearby Vitality, even space itself as it began to turn grey and lose l.u.s.ter.

"Perish."

Cold! Powerful!

BOOM!

The strike fully shattered and devoured the surrounding space as a void was created, the body of the Void Serpent shooting out like a cannon ball as it was pushed back for tens of thousands of miles, eventually coming in contact with a planet as...

His body actually pierced through the planet and caused it to implode a second later!

WAA!

Noah only came to a stop after another few thousand miles as he came to a halt, breathing hard as he checked his body thoroughly to find...no injuries whatsoever.

"Haha!"

Raucous laughter erupted in the starry space as the Entity reappeared above the Void Serpent once more, her eyes glowing with a cold light as she shockingly observed the creature laughing wildly...to not have been injured even a little!

"That was all? Merely an Entity! Now move, I have work to do."

The body of the Void Serpent turned into a streak of light as its aura spread out and looked for more Fiends in the near cluster of stars. He actually ignored the Entity who could not injure him as he went to collect more loot.

The Entity herself hid the shocked look within her eyes as she appeared in the path of the Void Serpent once more, her palm shooting out as it carried with it fearsome essence of the Dao of Vitality!

BOOM!

Yet another strike from a powerful Entity, throwing Noah back for another thousands of miles before he came to a stop.

All he felt when the strikes hit him were a sense of pressure that pushed him away, but no pain or injuries whatsoever! He shook his head towards the Fiend as he teleported away.

"Just stay here and relax for a bit, I'll be done and take my leave after I achieve my goal!"

He teleported away as he appeared in another quadrant of the Burning Domains, in the domain where the Elder Fiend taken down by the Aurora Galaxy Dragon used to oversee.

He left behind a stupefied Entity that was looking at her palm and sensing the Dao to make sure that she wasn't seeing things, her face turning ugly as her body disappeared to chase the nearest enemy aura once more!

In a few seconds, the Entity appeared in front of a flaming golden chicken- the fearsome Three-Legged Fate Crow who was going from star to star burning everything down to cinders.

BOOM!

A palm struck out against this unsuspecting chicken as she was thrown back for thousands of miles, but the same thing repeated itself as the chicken only looked towards the Entity with an annoyed expression after coming to a stop.

That's right! Annoyed!

The Entity saw this expression as she couldn't hide the stupor on her face anymore, the golden beak of the crow raising up as its voice was heard in passing while its body teleported away.

"Little Entity, don't bother us! We'll be gone in a bit!"

The aura of the chicken reappeared in another corner of the Burning Domains Galaxy as its Siege continued, the Entity sensing this with shock and bubbling fury as she went towards the other 2 attackers!

Chapter 710 - An Entity chases to no avail, Noah Farms!

This powerful Entity had many questions as she moved, the words of arrogant golden chicken ringing out in her mind as her fury only grew!

'Little Entity...Little Entity...Little...'

RUMBLE!

Wrath of unbridled proportion erupted out at this moment!

In a few seconds, the powerful Entity reappeared in another Domain of the Burning Domains Galaxy as this time, she faced a Kingly Bear that was swiping its powerful paws left and right, each time a Fiend falling from it.

This time, the Entity was careful as she called out, her words changing the very surroundings themselves.

"One With the Dao! [Vitality Reversal]!"

RUMBLE!

At this moment, it seemed like all the surrounding space and stars lost color, everything gradually turning grey and lifeless as they were all taken towards a singular being.

Even the remaining Fiends that the Calamity Bear had not taken care of became lifeless husks as in the surrounding thousands of miles, it became a lifeless world!

Everything in the surroundings became lifeless...except the Entity that had cast the terrifying skill, and the regal Calamity Bear that actually gazed towards this Entity with disdain.

His snout twitched to the side as the paws of the Calamity Bear shimmered, its voice ringing out before spatial essence covered it.

"So damn annoying!"

These were the only words left behind as the Entity looked on in a wrathful stupor as the Calamity Bear disappeared as well.

'This...'

Numerous thoughts crossed the Entity's mind as she tried to make sense of the situation in front of her.

'I cannot sense anything that would make such a thing possible! A Grand Dao? A protective Dao Weapon?'

Many thoughts crossed the terrifying mind of the Fiend as nothing made sense, she could not figure out how this being was escaping any and all damage she dealt- even when she utilized the very essence of her Dao to deal horrendous attacks that would shatter a Middle Tier Galaxy expert in a few moves.

Yet no answer came as the Entity could only continue to chase the attackers besieging the Burning Domains Galaxy to no avail!

She threw out an attack that drained the essence of an entire star the moment she neared another one of the attackers, and it was the Variant Oculothorax this time around.

The planet that the Oculothorax was rampaging around in was drained entirely with everything on it as one could shockingly see chunks of it turning to earthen dust, yet the Oculothorax wasn't harmed one bit by the attack as the huge eye stared at the Entity.

A light of curiosity twinkled as before teleporting away, the eye was buffed by Intents as the ability of Sin of Envy was also utilized, [Eye of Doom] being cast a second later as a shocking ray of light erupted out and struck the body of the Entity!

OOOM!

The light encompassed her as she harrumphed, the light of Dao shimmering off of her as the skill that killed a Low Tier GALAXY expert did absolutely nothing against this being. Noah affirmed his thoughts that he could not defeat this creature no matter what he did at this moment, teleporting the body of the Oculothorax away as he continued his Siege to collect more loot.

He couldn't take care of the most powerful being in this Galaxy, but his goal of obtaining a large number of cores from Nebula, Black Hole, and Quasar rank experts was proceeding smoothly!

None of the Fiends at the Realm of QUASAR could stand against him, and he had already taken down two at the Low Tier GALAXY Realm as the three remaining Elder Fiends were among his targets before his [Invulnerability] effect was taken away.

So while being chased around by a furious Entity that could do nothing to him, he continued to amass more and more loot that would for sure bump him to the QUASAR Realm while keeping his Grand Completion, and it still remained to be seen whether it would be enough to rise to GALAXY!

When he was running rampant throughout the Domains, his Three-Legged Fate Crow appeared near the green Planetary Body of water that all the Elder Fiends were guarding, glancing over its description with shining eyes.

[Vital Life Water] :: A treasured vital water that was drenched in the Dao of Vitality. To those delving into it or drinking it- Enhances Realm Progression by 200%. The Vitality Essence will gradually fade away after 1 year.

Yet another treasure lied in front of him as he waved his hands and used an enormous amount of mana to place all of it in his [Expansive Space]. He also made it his goal to steal the rest of the Vital Life Water that was in the other Domains- the thing that caused the battle driven Fiends to elevate themselves and create many experts over the last hundreds of years!

"Wretched creature!"

BOOM!

The Entity appeared before him again as she continued to release attacks without giving up, with his reaction being to ignore her as he knew he couldn't defeat her at this moment, only collecting information on all the skills and abilities she used while trying to observe the powerful Dao she wielded.

Like this, minutes passed in the Burning Domains Galaxy!

There was a powerful Entity still recovering from injuries chasing away four attackers, while each of them continued to release terrible skills that reaped the lives of Fiends over and over again.

The loot piled up in Noah's Expansive Space as he enjoyed the perks of [Plot Armor], moving freely in the Burning Domains Galaxy while not worrying about the powerful Entity attacking him!

It was only after half an hour of him scouring the multiple Domains that the Entity came to stop, her gaze being extremely cold and filled with immense wrath as she only watched the four Animus Summons continue their rampage.

Even an Entity who had comprehended a powerful Dao had to come to stop!

In front of [Plot Armor] that granted the carrier of the Protagonist Trait [Invulnerability], what could an enemy do but despair?!
