

Mana 781

Chapter 781 - Aptitude, Quality, Battle!

Next to all the treasures listed on the illusory screen, a set of points could be seen as these were required if one wanted to obtain any treasures within the Great Sage Aoin Tower!

As for the points...the way to get them was given to every single being that entered the Tower.

At the very center of the expansive first floor of this tower, a contestant had to step in as they would go through a series of tests. These tests and trials are what ultimately granted the points that a being could use to claim the stellar rewards listed above!

To go in order, the one undertaking the trial of the Legacy would be tested based on their Aptitude, the quality of their pets, as well as their Battle Power.

Everything fell under the Dao of Summoning, where even though the Great Sage Aoin also mastered the Dao of Voidspace, the former Dao was the one that he had handed down to his people!

"Haha, truly our Forefather's Legacy!"

The experts that were residents of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter were ecstatic, especially the Dragonoid beings that were looking at the treasures with shining eyes.

The treasures deserved such looks as Noah himself could not take his eyes off the things numbered 1-20.

These spots all had a name and picture of a Peak Tier GALAXY Realm Animus Summons, with those in the top 10 all being at the PRISMATIC Rarity and the remaining ones all being Ultra Rare!

It was a truly shocking scene as from this list, Noah could see names such as Abyssal Black Tyrant Dragon, Monkey King, Galaxy Devouring Wolf, Blue Slime, Tiamat...and other shocking names that made him want to tear down this entire place and get all of these pets for himself!

"Princess, please allow me to be a test subject for the trials of this Legacy!"

Even the GALAXY Realm experts by the side could not help themselves as one spoke up with a devout expression to Anna, this Holy Princess merely looking towards Noah before she nodded as this Holy Descendant rushed towards the center of the expansive floor they were in.

THRUUM!

The moment he delved deeper in, runic circles lit up under his feet as essence raged, a strong voice reverberating out from the tower as an entrant took the legacy for the first time!

[Legacy Disciple #17(Axin) currently undergoing the Trial.]

The voice was monotone and calm, filled with depth as all who heard it could only think of an aged wise being speaking with a full white beard speaking.

[First Trial- The Test of Aptitude...]

The takers of the trial would first be tested with their aptitude as their comprehension of the Dao of Summoning were evaluated based on their age and time they spent studying it!

The gaze of the Holy Descendant who was termed Legacy Disciple #17 was ecstatic as he waited to hear of his aptitude. After all, he was a genius from the young generation of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter.

[Legacy Disciple #17(Axin)- Average Aptitude!]

BOOM!

Like a strike of thunder, the words smashed into the Holy Descendant as he turned ashen, the blank voice not paying attention to him as it continued.

[Second Trial- The Test of Quality. Summon all of your Animus Pets!]

The Holy Descendant very quickly used his essence as four Animus Summons appeared, 2 having the lineage of dragons as the others were a Flaming Golden Lion and a Verdant Turtle.

Even with the blow of the Test of Aptitude, the Holy Descendant was at least proud of his pets of which he had two at the rarity of Uncommon, and the other two being Rare!

BOOM!

The merciless voice rang out again as the Holy Descendant was nearly pushed to depression, Noah looking at this scene while chuckling inside as in the next second, the figure of the Holy descendant and all of his pets disappeared.

[Third Trial- The Test of Combat!]

The only thing the others heard was the resonant voice ringing out again as with the disappearance of the Holy Descendant, the upper area of the floor they were in had another illusory screen light up, this one showing the image of the teleported being on the 2nd floor of the Tower as directly opposite him, a fearsome Animus Summon at the Low Tier GALAXY Realm stood!

[Begin!]

RUMBLE!

Without a pause, the last trial commenced for this contestant as his pets had to face a Low Tier GALAXY Realm Summon of the Rare rarity, passing this level without too many issues.

On the next floor, he faced 2 Animus Summons of the same Realm as he struggled and barely passed, and on the third floor...his pets were incapacitated as he was stopped by 4 Rare Animus Summons of the Low Tier GALAXY Realm!

THRUM!

Essence waned as the Holy Descendant was brought back onto the base floor, his gaze ashen as he looked towards the others with his gaze downcast. A hint of shame could be seen on his face as he turned his gaze up to the ceiling of the floor they were in, yet another illusory screen appearing as it listed the Trial takers of this tower!

[Legacy Disciple #17(Axin)- 50 Points...]

A measly number of points was listed for this being as 50 was barely enough to get a Low Tier GALAXY Realm Animus Summon from the rewards ranked 500-2000, with 50 points only being able to get something in the upper hundreds!

A Legacy Disciple needed a few hundred points to even be able to claim a reward of a Middle Tier GALAXY summon, with 1000 points required to get one of the Rare or Ultra Rare rank.

Meanwhile, one had to have a few thousand points to even touch the pristine rewards of Peak Tier GALAXY Realm Animus Summons, with each of the PRISMATIC Summons in the top 10 being 10,000 points each!

THRUUUM

Noah looked at this scene with shining eyes as after the Holy Descendant came back, none of the others seemed to want to go forward as they lost their confidence.

At this scene while they were looking at each other hesitantly, Noah stepped forward without worry as he wanted to see just where he would stand as a Legacy Disciple of a Great Sage!

Chapter 782 - Exceptional!

His steps were light as he stepped forward free of worries, the others only glancing at this genius as they recalled that he had three PRISMATIC Summons.

Their gazes rapidly changed at this as they thought of the three tests, with their hearts pounding the more they realized just what was about to happen!

Anna simply stood behind as she sighed while getting ready for a show, her twinkling eyes watching as essence began to converge after Noah reached a certain point.

THRUUUM

Runic circles appeared beneath his feet as a unique light was over him, the cold voice they heard before ringing out.

[Legacy Disciple #1(Alexander) currently undergoing the Trial.]

[First Trial- The Test of Aptitude...]

The test that would measure Noah's aptitude started off as it would see his comprehensions in the Dao of Summoning relative to his age and time he embarked on this Dao!

He didn't know how the shining light that came from the Tower and washed over him did this, but he knew that it was harmless as it washed over him and very soon shone with luminous splendor.

Seconds passed as the light only increased in color, this process taking much longer than the first trial taker as the entity monitoring the Tower seemingly had to be sure of the results it was seeing!

[Legacy Disciple #1(Alexander), Test of Aptitude- Exceptional!]

The Holy Descendants looked forth with alarm as Noah merely nodded, Anna merely shaking her head behind him as he continued.

[Second Trial- The Test of Quality. Summon all of your Animus Pets!]

Before the words even finished, Noah erupted forth with a grand light as his three PRISMATIC pets came forth.

The shimmering figures of the Colossal Helios Leviathan, Void Serpent, and the Mercurial Obsidian Panther appeared grandly as the light of the Tower scanned over them, another few seconds passing as the voice only came out some time later!

[Legacy Disciple #1(Alexander), The Test of Quality- Exceptional!]

THRUUM!

Wild essence waved out as Noah only nodded grandly, his figure and the three summons disappearing as they entered deeper into the Great Sage Aoin Tower.

[Begin!]

He appeared in an expansive room similar to the first, with an Animus Summon at the Low Tier GALAXY Realm releasing a powerful air roaring out towards him.

SHAA!

The Obsidian Panther moved in an instant as it pounced on the beast that looked like an Armadillo right away, its single claw leaving a gash on its hard skin as it cried out painfully.

A few seconds later, the Armadillo received even more gashes as it wailed painfully, its huge size and speed not being able to even see the Panther as it seemed like it would be facing death soon!

Yet the moment the Obsidian Panther was about to land the last attack to reap its life, a spatial light covered it as it was teleported away!

Noah sighed at this scene as his conjecture was proved correct- the Animus Summons they would face on the last Trial were actually the rewards listed on the illusory screens, and they wouldn't be allowed to kill them as the moment they were defeated with their lives threatened, they would be taken away.

This meant that he wouldn't be able to farm GALAXY cores from however many Summons he would end up facing!

RUMBLE

Yet the Tower cared not for his thoughts as the next two enemies were teleported in, both his Void Serpent and Obsidian Panther moving against them. The past stage and this one were all beasts of the Low Tier- so they posed no challenge for Noah as he cleared the first, second, and third round of enemies with ease.

After the third round which consisted of four Low Tier GALAXY Realm Animus Summons, the fourth round was a Middle Tier Draconic Phoenix!

Yet even this Middle Tier GALAXY summon faced defeat when ganged up against Noah's 3 pets...

Those watching the illusory scenes on the screen had agape expressions as those that considered themselves geniuses had to change their opinions on what that term truly meant!

As the Holy Descendants watched the scenes of Noah's battles, they were all so mesmerized that all of them failed to realize that even until now, none of the beings from the delegation of the Primal Winged Expanse had come into the Tower.

This would be a shocking realization later as they watched the culprit of wiping away this delegation exceed all they knew about geniuses as he passed the fourth round and went on to the fifth.

The fifth round was against two Middle Tier GALAXY Realm Animus Summons, and when they were faced with Noah's pets that were all at the Low Tier- the two summons were still beaten!

"No way..."

"Is the gulf of a PRISMATIC summon that huge?! That they can even match those a realm above them...!"

The Holy Descendants could not help but exclaim as they watched the scene of 4 more enemies being brought to face Noah, each of them of the Rare rarity and being at the Middle Tier GALAXY Realm.

When the battle began against these powerful enemies, even Noah's pets felt the strain as the battle actually wasn't decided in just a few minutes!

Sighs of relief could be heard from the Holy Descendant as they saw that even a monstrous genius such as this could have limits. They were about to watch the eventual defeat of this round as they wondered how many points Noah would gain from the Exceptional Ratings of the first two trials, as well as what ratings he would receive for this last trial.

Yet their expectations...would be shattered once more as the moment Noah's pets began feeling the strain of fighting 4 enemies a level above them all at once...he finally moved himself as he...provided support!

||Ashes to Ashes, Dust to Dust||.

RUMBLE!

The Holy Descendant watched in a stupor as they had forgotten the combat power of the Summoner himself, watching as a single cast skill from Noah brought down an oppressive air against the four Middle Tier GALAXY Summons.

A second later, Noah did something that the audience would never get to understand, his body shimmering with a golden light as the Sins of Envy and Pride were activated, the attributes of the enemies being dragged down a level while Noah's strength was enhanced, his palm stretching out as the swirling essence of the Dao of Summoning pumped into his pets grandiosely!

THRUUM!

With this change in battle, his pets used the disruption to their advantage as very quickly...the enemy summons began to be defeated.

"F.u.c.k.i.n.g hell..."

"This...this isn't real..."

Disbelief was the only thing present from the Holy Descendants as even Anna shook her head on the side!

They watched on with bated breaths as all 4 Middle Tier GALAXY Realm Animus Summons were defeated as they were taken away in a flash of light.

Even the entity overseeing the regulations of the tower seemed to be at a loss as nothing happened for a few seconds, and the resonant voice resounded out once more.

THRUUUM!

The moment the words finished, an even brighter spatial teleportation occurred as a single creature flashed in.

Majestically at 300 meters with a dark coating and beady eyes, a terrifyingly large Tarantula had made its appearance as it roared in front of Noah!

Its rarity was Ultra Rare.

Its rank was Peak Tier GALAXY!

ROAAAR!

It let out a terrifying bellow as it thundered forward!

Chapter 783 - Against Peak Tier!

As Noah was about to face off against a Peak Tier GALAXY enemy, his subordinates in the Burning Domains Galaxy were doing something shocking in their own right!

CAAA!

The resonant cry of the Holy Millenium Phoenix could be heard as Barbatos grandly stood atop it. Holy white flames were constantly washing off of the body of this Millenium Phoenix as they actually went on to strengthen the enormous figures of Abyssal Undead that Barbatos commanded, giving a horrendous contrast as the essence of death was mixed in with something it should not have been.

Yet it molded together perfectly as the strengthened undead swarmed the Low Tier GALAXY Elder Fiend constantly for the past hour while backed with the support of other Harbingers, this powerful enemy currently being on his knees as he was disbelievably being taken down by being of a rank lower than it!

"This is the GALAXY Realm? Hmph, Little Phoenix, immolate this dumb thing!"

CAAA!

Barbatos called out to her Holy Millenium Phoenix arrogantly as the Elder Fiend was swarmed to his death, a similar scene occurring in another domain as the Emperor Penguin has become gargantuan while moving with his Mythical Frostbourne Mammoth to domineeringly smash into another Lower Tier GALAXY Elder Fiend.

The starry space around them was frozen with ice as it created a unique scenery, the golden light of pride shining brilliantly from the Emperor Penguin as its flippers smashed into the Elder Fiend the same time that the deadly tusks of his Mythical Frostbourne Mammoth pierced into its body.

With this, the most powerful experts of the Burning Domains Galaxy were no more as they were actually taken down by beings a Realm above them, this event occurring silently within this Galaxy as it would have no audience. Yet in the coming future, many beings and Ancient Powers would come to know of the unique figures of an Emperor Penguin sitting atop a Mythical Frostbourne Mammoth arrogantly, while the image of an Undead Legion crossing through the chaotic void while strengthened by a holy essence from a Millenium Phoenix would etch itself into the eyes of all!

Back in the Great Sage Aoin Tower, Noah's face was cold as he faced the oppressive pressure of a Peak Tier GALAXY Animus Summon.

Most Animus Summons at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm would have fully awoken their bloodlines as they each cultivated their own unique Dao, those in the Ultra Rare and PRISMATIC rarities being especially deadly as they could have bloodlines that granted them comprehensions in Grand Daos!

The Wandering Void Tarantula in front of Noah wasn't that deadly, his Eyes of Truth telling him it was a creature proficient in the Lesser Dao of Poison as he could already see extremely verdant liquids leaking out of its grotesque jaws.

Its many eyes seemed mesmerizing as its numerous legs wriggled towards him terrifyingly!

THRUUUM!

The Colossal Helios Leviathan moved first by shooting out numerous plasma beams, Noah turning into a figure of light as he shot into the body of the Void Serpent and instantly merged with it.

The abilities of [Yggdrasil] and [Incandescent Emperor] were cast as a thick armor and golden crown appeared on the Void Serpent, its draconic head raised arrogantly as it went on to clash with the horror of a Wandering Void Tarantula!

Of course, the lights of the Sins of Envy and Pride were already cast as the boost in abilities was applied to Noah while the attributes of the Tarantula were reduced, but the reduction of attributes wasn't enough to hinder this Peak Tier creature.

BOOM!

Space quaked at the impact as the Void Serpent was pushed back, the thick armor of Yggdrasil having numerous cracks as it tried to heal rapidly. Noah only nodded at this scene as even while facing such a creature, he was merely using it as a chance to test out his new skills from the upgraded skill trees.

This Summon had only embarked on the Dao of Fortification and had not mastered or assimilated it, so it was nowhere near the level of an Entity as it was only a Peak Tier GALAXY beast.

So he further explored his new skills from the upgrades of the Tree of Life as next up, he utilized [Galactic Tree] and [Life Seed]!

Galactic Tree :: The ability of Yggdrasil is further enhanced as it gains the force of a small galaxy, its defenses boosted to a great degree as only those proficient in an offensive Dao are the only ones capable of shattering it.

Life Seed :: A delicate seed forms above the caster as they are granted constant regeneration and the constant enhancement of 500% in all abilities. When the seed blooms into a flower, it collects all the damage dealt to the user since its formation as all of this damage is redirected onto the enemy with a single deadly strike.

Essence raged out wildly as Noah used the support ability of Galactic Tree to cause the armament around the Void Serpent to become even thicker as instead of the verdant green sheen it had, the glimmer of stars could be seen on it as it now had the image of an illusory Galaxy!

Above him, a verdant light also erupted as a shimmering seed appeared, this seed releasing waves of light over the merged Noah and Void Serpent as the moment these two skills were cast, Noah fearlessly went back to clash with the Wandering Void Tarantula!

SHAA!

Its dense green poison was shot out as Noah watched it splash onto the body of the Void Serpent, this deadly poison merely bouncing off the starry verdant armament of Yggdrasil as he moved forward unhindered.

Meanwhile, the Obsidian Panther and Colossal Helios Leviathan provided support as Noah actually created for a stable battle where he tanked a Peak Tier GALAXY Animus Summon with the use of many support abilities, his pets gradually getting in the groove as they avoided any injuries and began to grind down this enemy that was actually 2 levels above them!

Chapter 784 - Successor of a Great Sage!

On the base floor of the Great Sage Aoin Tower, the Holy Descendants were watching in pure shock as a monstrous being actually faced an enemy at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm without being killed right away.

"That is the essence of the Law of Life? It can be used to stand against a Lesser Dao like this?!"

"None of that matters, how the hell has his essence not run dry while supporting all of his pets with Dao Essence and using all these abilities..."

Discussions ran rampant as they watched the shocking scenes, these beings not being able to explain what they were seeing as they could only speculate!

Anna watched the entire battle with shining eyes as she looked at this figure with many mixed thoughts.

Appearing as a genius in front of her just weeks ago, and finding out he was the Ruler of an entire Galaxy- along with the one that used to be her home, not too long ago!

Yet he didn't act high and mighty as many other Rulers, aside from being overbearing and domineering towards his enemies of course. When she looked at his figure, she only saw the wild eyes that seemed to always be filled with a myriad of thoughts, his figure getting increasingly bigger in her eyes as her pride made her strive to achieve the level of strength she was seeing.

She was a genius too. She held a shocking Trait of a Vector Controller. She embarked on Dao while using the bland technique from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter in a short period of time! So why could she not do what Noah was doing right now?!

RUMBLE!

Her thoughts remained hers as she only watched while the Peak Tier GALAXY Wandering Void Tarantula had its numerous legs begin to be devoured, a flash of an Obsidian Panther rupturing its eyes every now and then as the deadly plasma rays from the Colossal Helios Leviathan thundered down.

It was the first battle that actually took Noah some time, having to spent over half an hour to get through the defenses of this being that was utilizing the Dao of Fortification!

ROAAR!

The Wandering Void Tarantula let out an unwilling bellow as the light of teleportation covered it, the entity overseeing the Tower observing that its life was actually in danger as Noah...cleared the last fight in the combat test!

[Legacy Disciple #1(Alexander) Test of Combat, Exceptional!]

The cold voice reverberated out as Noah unmerged himself from the Void Serpent, giving a command as all his three pets returned into his Origin. He waited expectantly as he wondered how many points he would receive, and which Peak Tier GALAXY Animus Summons he would choose with them.

[Legacy Disciple #1(Alexander)- Points...Null]

RUMBLE!

Noah's gaze shook at these words as he looked around him incredulously!

On the base floor, the screen that showed Noah disappeared as the Holy Descendants and Anna looked towards each other questioningly, not knowing what had exactly occurred.

All the eyes turned on the screen where the name of the first Holy Descendant who had taken the Trial first was listed as they hoped to see an extra name and points, but nothing appeared!

"What happened..."

Even Anna had a worried look as she looked around pensively!

Yet at this moment, Noah's figure was teleported away without any explanation from the room he was in, his senses spreading out as he found himself in a mystical area that was surrounded by colorful rolling clouds.

His senses could not spread too far away as they seemed contained within this area, the nearby cloud rumbling as they formed into the shape of a being Noah had seen in the skies above the Tower before.

[The number of points are null because you will not need them.]

The strong voice of the bearded being made of clouds floated into his mind as he listened with great focus!

[Given your Exceptional talent and aptitude, you more than meet the conditions to be the True Successor of Aoin, the Great Sage that founded the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter!]

RUMBLE!

The words came down shockingly as Noah's eyes shone, this being that was the consciousness of the Tower- a mere sliver of a soul that the Great Sage Aoin left behind...this being wanted to make him the True Successor of a Great Sage's Legacy!

[The only condition is for you to bear the weight of protecting the Dragonoid and human race of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter. Can you bear this responsibility and become my Successor?]

Not even a second had to pass as Noah would have promised this consciousness whatever it wanted to hear, his mind already imagining what he should choose from all the Peak Tier GALAXY pets.

"I will bear the responsibility and be the True Successor!"

[So it shall be.]

RUMBLE!

Waves of essence raged out as the multicolored clouds raged towards Noah, most of them going towards his forehead as a unique sigil was burned into his mind.

This sigil was truly unique as it held an abundant amount of information, many of them being skills and abilities!

[With me coming to be at this moment, it means my main body and soul have perished in the mission to isolate our Dark Universe from the Primordial Cosmos. But coming across someone like you...]

The cloudy form of the residual consciousness of the Great Sage continued to ring out as Noah let the Legacy freely flow into him, his attention on this former big boss that was now monologing.

[Coming across a being with such ridiculous talent means I can grow a powerful Great Sage to defend my home and fight any future battles with those thieves! For this...I am truly happy!]

The light of melancholy could be seen on the Great Sage's face as his eyes honed in on Noah.

[The abilities I used to traverse and assimilate my Daos, you shall have. The treasures of this Tower, you shall have. Whatever you wish to achieve...you can have as long as you put in the effort!]

RUMBLE!

At this moment, the runic sigil etched itself onto Noah's mind as he sorted a great deal of information, turning his starry eyes to the illusory figure of the Great Sage as he spoke out with shining eyes.

"Strength is everything, and I wish to increase mine! Can I see the 10 Peak Tier GALAXY PRISMATIC pets? I would like to start with them!"

He made his wishes blatantly as the figure of the Great Sage had a light smile, waving his hand as the cloudy area around them parted to reveal one of the most beautiful scenes Noah had ever laid his eyes on in his entire life.

More beautiful than any exotic foods or gorgeous men and women!

More beautiful than even a father watching their first child be born!

As the clouds parted, what was revealed was a line up of PRISMATIC pets at the forefront, each humongous in stature as their bodies let off horrendous auras.

Behind them were rows and rows of other Animus Summons of all species and colors, Noah's eyes lighting up with beams of golden light as he laid his eyes on all of this!

The sight of a magisterial Galaxy Devouring Wolf, of a dreadful Tiamat, of a glorious Monkey King, of a resplendent Blue Slime...

It was truly too beautiful!

Chapter 785 - Advance into Middle Tier!

[After fully assimilating the Dao of Summoning, you can easily call forth rare beasts from the Animus Universe as even without contracting them, your essence is enough to let them remain in our Dark Universe for quite some time. I utilized my mastery in the Dao of Voidspace to create a unique environment in this spatial realm thereafter that mimicked their homes as they could remain here for as long as possible.]

[The Animus in this tower were the closest to it as they weren't affected by the ravages of time, but those outside of it entered into Disordered States after so much time has passed without a contract with inhabitants of this universe. Among the ones you can choose, of course the PRISMATIC Summons at the Peak Tier Realm would be best, but it would not increase your strength right away as you won't be able to contract them for the next tens of years until you breakthrough to Peak Tier GALAXY Realm!]

The wisdom of the Great Sage leaked out as he evaluated Noah differently, thinking that a genius as horrendous as him should be able to advance from Low to Middle and Peak Tiers of the GALAXY Realm in just a few decades compared to the hundreds of years that others took!

Yet...even the wisdom of this great sage would be wrong as Noah finally turned his eyes away from the resplendent sight of summons, turning his gaze to the illusory figure of the Sage as he smiled lightly.

Take him decades to advance to Peak Tier? Only able to contract pets after he reached that same realm as them?

All of this was wrong!

RUMBLE!

His eyes shone with strength as he made visible the stat panel he hadn't looked at in a while.

[Skill Points :: 2,623,643]

Many things stayed at 100% as his skill points had even exceeded the count he had before he used Skill Creation not too long ago, but one of the more eye catching things was the percentage on the progress of his Universal Laws Assimilation!

In the past weeks, it had risen to a grand 4% as this number had a shocking meaning. It meant that any normal person would be able to completely assimilate all universal laws as at the end of it, the reward of opening a pathway to a Cosmic Dao opened up. Yet to Noah...he saw the many months it would take being simply too long!

To change this fact, he continued to save up his skill points as he eyed a skill that he had already tested in the Skill Creation tab, an ability that would allow him to increase his progress in his law assimilations. Yet this skill would cost him over 10 million skill points as this would be the goal he would work towards in the near future.

His eyes then turned towards his Dao percentages that were increasing nicely before he stopped at the attributes that showed his Realm at Low Tier GALAXY.

It was these words that he wanted to change at this moment as he climbed from Low to Middle, where he was planning to utilize all of the Low and Middle Tier GALAXY Cores he had obtained from the Wild Animus on the way here to push himself forward as contract two of the 10 PRISMATIC beasts in front of him!

The consciousness of the Great Sage thought he would not be able to contract them for a while, but with his [Archaic Contract] ability would allow him to contract any being a stage above him as he shattered this norm also.

'Should be light work.'

His domineering thoughts came out as he sat down while waving his hands and pulling out multiple glimmering GALAXY cores that he began to absorb right away!

The consciousness of the Great Sage looked towards him with a shining gaze as it witnessed this phenomenon, Noah merely voicing out as the multicolored magisterial light of essence already began washing over his body.

"Give me a few hours to advance my Realm, then I'll contract with my next two pets."

His simple words brought alarm and confusion to the Great Sage as he could not help but voice out.

[Realm advancement in a few hours? Contract two pets? A being can only ever contract with 1 Animus every time they advance through a realm after Nebula...]

The confusion of the Great Sage would be cleared up soon enough as Noah was already lost in a deluge of essence being absorbed by him, beginning the process of enhancing himself into the Middle Tier of the GALAXY Realm merely days after he entered into Low Tier GALAXY!

At the base floor of the Tower, the Holy Descendants could not make heads or tails of what was going on as more than an hour passed, the rest of them choosing to hold on before taking the Trial of this Legacy as a portion were about to head out of the Secret Realm to let their Holy Emperor know of the recent advancements.

"We'll be back with the words of the Holy Emperor soon as we figure out what happened to Alexander and the delegation from the Primal Winged Expanse."

They said these words to Anna who was situated on the floor meditating as she merely nodded, her expression actually calm as she had received Noah's mental message a while ago that he was just accepting the full legacy of the Great Sage for himself while advancing into the next realm for the next few hours!

'Just ridiculous...'

She could only shake her head at the incredulousness as she waited, not taking the test of the Legacy herself as she had only summoned 1 Animus Pet so far. She would come back as soon as she was ready as her eyes were also set on getting [Exceptional] results on all 3 Trials, or simply leech off the being who was receiving the full legacy at this moment!

In the belly of the draconic shaped Expansive Holy Land where the important personages of two Ancient Powers were waiting, new figures flashed as they took the attention of all the beings in the surroundings!

"What happened in the Primal Holy Land?"

RUMBLE!

The robust voice of the Holy Emperor locked onto the 5 figures of the Holy Descendants that had come out of the Secret Realm, his fiery eyes filled with excitement as he thought of all the possibilities! Of the Legacy left behind by their forefather and what it contained!

Yet the information that came out...would be something that held grand consequences for both of the Ancient Powers!

Chapter 786 - A Balance Shattering Pet! I

Near the golden door that led to the Primal Holy Land, multiple Entities from different Ancient Powers looked at the 5 Holy Descendants that had come out of this Secret Realm.

"Emperor, the Holy Princess was able to unearth the legacy of the Great Sage..."

The breakdown of the events as well as the mysteries of what the Holy Descendants had seen in the Secret Realm were relayed as the surroundings became bustling with excitement!

"Half Dao Weapons? Treasured Materials? PRISMATIC Animus Summons as the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm?!"

The gaze of the Holy Emperor was heating up as he heard everything, his mind already imagining the 10 PRISMATIC Summons as future Entities that would work under him!

"Why hasn't Kirigan or the others come out? Where's my delegation?"

THRUUUM

The strong voice of the Primal Emperor rang out at this moment as many beings came to a pause when they realized this. The Holy Descendants collected themselves as they voiced out.

"This is also what we came to relay, we have not come across Prince Kirigan and the other Aileron Royals ever since we separated when we first entered the Secret Realm. Even when we all saw the changes within the Secret Realm as well as the Tower that rose and could be seen from anywhere in the secret realm, we still weren't able to locate them ..."

The gaze of the Primal Emperor turned cold when he heard this as he looked towards the resplendent golden door that had the inscription label AOIN!

"Brother Windsor, what is the meaning of this? What other mysteries are there in this Secret Realm?"

The atmosphere had turned sour with the disappearance of the delegation from the Primal Winged Expanse, the Holy Emperor's mood also brought down as he replied calmly.

"They might have run into a wild Peak Tier GALAXY Summon or are simply in far regions of the secret realm at this moment. We shall send in more beings inside to check the progress as we also explore the Great Sage Aoin Tower!"

This was the only choice the Holy Emperor could make at this moment as the gaze of the Primal Emperor remained cold, waving his hands as he selected some more beings from his Aileron Race to accompany those who would be delving into the secret realm once more.

He wanted to get to the truth of where his grandson was!

RUMBLE!

At this moment, the being responsible for the deaths of the entire delegation from the Primal Winged Expanse was actually enjoying eating up resplendent GALAXY Cores, his body brimming with power as after absorbing tens of cores at the Middle Tier stage, his body was finally stepping into this same Realm as his vibrant Galaxy expanded rapidly while adding millions of stars per second.

The gorgeous array of colors had the consciousness of the Great Sage Aoin looking forward in a stupor as this genius really had accomplished what he said he would just a few hours prior- which was to advance into the next Realm!

But the other thing he said was being able to contract a Peak Tier Animus Summon thereafter, and two of them at that. The consciousness of the Great Sage thought about these words and how he had truly advanced into another stage within just a few hours as it wondered...would he also accomplish this?

WAA!

Without paying any heed to his surroundings, Noah finished his last GALAXY Core as the advancement from Low into Middle Tier GALAXY was finally complete.

His Galaxy was even more vibrant as it had more than doubled in size, his senses telling him that a couple of billion more stars were condensed within as he felt boundless power!

At this stage, he felt like even if he didn't have Infinite Mana, he would be able to carry out an ability capable of affecting an entire Galaxy at least once, something that only those in the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm would be able to do with their dense mana reserves.

Yet his astounding Grand Completion while in the Middle Tier granted him such boosts as when he entered Peak Tier in the future while keeping his Grand Completion...well, only the future would tell!

But he had genuinely gone from Low Tier and into Middle Tier GALAXY in just a matter of about a day or two!

Ah!

[Truly a once in a lifetime genius! I'm not sure how true your latter words of being able to contract 2 Summons are, but I can use my authority within the tower to transfer an Animus of your choosing into the Luminous Star Pendant you received when you entered the Tower. This allows me to lock in and restrict a summon until the one awarded can contract it for themselves.]

The uses of the necklace that condensed on each person who entered the tower was revealed, Noah simply shaking his head as he came out of his thoughts and walked towards the rows of Animus Summons that were held in place.

"No need."

RUMBLE!

Domineering words erupted out of him as his steps were light, yet seemingly indecisive as they could not fully choose which direction to go towards in!

This was because the PRISMATIC Summons in front of him were truly majestic and powerful, and it pained him that he had to choose just some out of the 10!

As his eyes looked over the information provided from the Eyes of Truth on each of the treasured Summons- From the Abyssal Black Tyrant Dragon, Monkey King, Galaxy Devouring Wolf, Blue Slime, Tiamat and five others...

He breathed out slowly as the tension left his body, taking light steps towards the line where an individual that could be considered the smallest in stature stood.

This creature was at the center of the line up of 10 PRISMATIC Summons, and yet was the smallest in size! Bounded to its left and right by a terrifying Galaxy Devouring Wolf and an Abyssal Black Tyrant Dragon, the Animus that Noah went towards...was a small blue blob that had innocent eyes!

It was the Blue Slime!

A mere slime, and yet his eyes of truth told him of its terrifying origins...

Blue Slime :: An Animus Summon at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. A unique species rarely seen in the Animus Universe, this Blue Slime comes from the thought to be perished lineage of Universal Emperor Slimes that were hunted down to extinction in the Animus Universe by a coalition of beings from the Primordial Cosmos. The defining racial skill that made it a target for extinction is <<Universal Devouring>>, an ability that brought about a Universal Emperor Slime that held an entire Universe in the Primordial Cosmos hostage for 1000 years. Its unique composition gives it complete immunity to physical attacks and 50% Damage reduction to all other forms of damage. This Blue Slime has nearly mastered the Grand Dao of Devouring, but is also proficient in the Grand Daos of Four Elements, Slaughter, and Macrocasm, along with the Lesser Daos of Alacrity, Voidspace, and Vitality. When it fully becomes a Universal Emperor Slime, it will naturally awaken the Cosmic Dao of Annihilation...

A ridiculous, nonsensical, and simply balance-shattering pet had entered the stage!

Chapter 787 - A Balance Shattering Pet! II

The Blue Slime that was the blob surrounded by terrifying figures of terrifying beasts looked towards Noah innocently as it seemed like the most innocent thing one could come across.

Its jelly form wiggled as Noah went down and took it into his arms.

[The Blue Slime...this was the last Animus Summon I called forth before I set off with the other Sages. I knew it was a rare creature, but I didn't have time to explore its full bloodline and abilities so I simply locked it up here along with all the others. Are you sure of choosing this one?]

The voice of the consciousness of the Great Sage rang out with a tinge of melancholy as Noah nodded with a light smile.

"Oh, this is definitely the one." He said these words as his body erupted with essence, the ability of [Archaic Contract] being cast as his body and the blob of the Blue Slime became covered with essence and runic sigils.

THRUUUM!

As if witnessing a monumental event, the very surrounding space shook as the illusory figure of the Great Sage Aoin could only look forward in disbelief as he saw a contract be formed between two beings of different stages!

[Monstrous...]

Only a single word could be uttered as the light died down, showing Noah and the Blue Slime that had bounced from his arms and gone on top of his head.

It had lost the restrictions that the Great Sage placed on the Animus Summons within the Tower as it moved freely, its blob of a body bouncing atop Noah's head as it seemed to enjoy its freedom!

Its bouncing was accompanied with a shy voice ringing out in Noah's mind.

"Master, your head is very fluffy..."

The terrifying Blue Slime bounced up and down Noah's head as it rolled in his dark gold hair, not giving any feeling of being the only living member of the terrifying lineage of the Universal Emperor Slimes that were hunted down by powerful beings in the Primordial Cosmos!

"You like staying on my head?" Noah had a smile as he spoke to the slime, its bouncing only becoming more excited as he chuckled and continued. "Then you can play there for as long as you want!"

"Un!" A cute reply came out as Noah looked at the panel that showed the information of this balance shattering Animus Summon once more.

Being a Universal Emperor Slime, this summon had the singular ability of <<Universal Devouring>>, something that made it possible for its power to grow where it was today, and also the reason why one of its kind could grow to a stage where it was capable of holding an entire Universe hostage!

<<Universal Devouring>> :: Any life form that is devoured will be fully assimilated seamlessly as their abilities, Realm, Law Comprehensions, Dao Comprehensions, and anything else within their existence will be obtained. This is an ability unique to the Universal Emperor Slimes.

This was the ability that this Blue Slime used to somehow put multiple Daos under his belt, with 4 Grand and 3 Lesser Daos being comprehended by it as it had simply Devoured beings that were studying such Daos! It had taken whatever Origin they had along with their abilities, Laws, and Dao comprehensions fully as at this moment, it was more terrifying than any of the other Animus Summons that still remained on the line up in front of Noah!

This was a summon that had nearly completely comprehended the Grand Dao of Devouring, a summon that would very soon be a genuine Entity the moment it did so!

He had truly obtained something ridiculous as the possibilities for the future were truly too many.

There was also immense hidden danger as this Blue Slime was a type of creature that was hunted down by the big bosses running around the Primordial Cosmos, but to this this thought Noah only had a single reply-

So what!

Even if some powerful beings he didn't even know about targeted his Summons, they would just get in the long line of people that Noah wanted to confront! There were those that attacked the Dark Universe while trying to obtain the Cosmic Treasure Ruination and ultimately cause its Sages and Great Sages to perish as this entire universe could now face an Apocalypse at any time, and now whatever beings hunted down Universal Emperor Slimes to extinction would just have to get on this long line of enemies.

Oh and of course, he couldn't forget the stupendous fact that next to the name of this Blue Slime, a + sign could be seen next to PRISMATIC as it showed even within this rarity, this Summon was the very best there was.

'Ah!'

He sighed with contentment and achievement as he turned his gaze towards the other 9 PRISMATIC Summons in front of him!

"Master, you want to choose another one? Get Big Sister Dragon, she has a lot of heads..."

The Blue Slime chirped in as it noticed Noah's gaze, its eyes looking towards the terrifying visage of Tiamat, a dreadful looking dragon that simply had too many heads.

Each of them a different color and shining with a dangerous luster as the eyes seemed to blaze with immense anger and madness!

"Oh? Why would you choose her?"

"Mmm, when we could freely move in the Tower tens of thousands of years ago, all the others were scared of her...and she was always in a bad mood somehow." The slime bounced up and down as it spoke of the passing of tens of thousands of years like nothing.

But Noah agreed with the words of this terrifyingly cute slime as he looked at the information of the multi headed dragon!

Queen Dowager- Tiamat :: An Animus Summon at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. It was a ruling force in the Animus Universe as it is the Progenitor of one of the 9 Supreme Bloodlines of All Animus Creatures. Stripped down from its high throne by the Alliance of the 5 Supreme Clans and having its Origin and Soul completely destroyed, Tiamat underwent rebirth from the Innate Skill of the Dragon Progenitor Bloodline as portions of its memories are slowly coming back. The Queen Dowager has currently assimilated the Laws of Life, Death, Fate, and Chaos. She has also nearly finished comprehending the Grand Daos of Slaughter and Destruction. When she completes the process of her rebirth and regains all her memories, she will awaken her comprehensions in the Cosmic Dao of Annihilation...

Seeing Noah nod with shining eyes as he evaluated Tiamat up and down, the Blue Slime bounced happily as it called out.

"Get that Big Sister, Master! She's nearly as cute as me..."

RUMBLE!

The words of Blue Slime caused the restricted eyes of Tiamat to shine a dangerous light as Noah moved forward!

Chapter 788 - Pompous, Arrogant, and Frightening!

Not too far in the unique space, the sliver of consciousness of the long gone Great Sage watched as his chosen Successor continued to live up to the words he said, where he was now really going towards the Tiamat with the intention of contracting it!

He couldn't help but speak out.

[As my successor, you can choose how to handle the rewards of the Tower, which means saving any Animus Summons you want for yourself and contracting them when you advance in the future! This is especially so for the PRISMATIC Peak Tier Summons, as many of them are nearing the Realm of Entities and would help you greatly on your journey...]

Yes! Many of the Animus Summons within the tower were very close to becoming Entities, and this was especially so for the PRISMATIC and Ultra Rare Summons who had powerful bloodlines. As they were locked within the Tower for tens of thousands of years with special restrictions, even though they were not contracted to anyone and weren't in their Animus Universe- they had still been able to comprehend laws and Daos as the years passed!

This was the case for the Blue Slime, Tiamat, and many others on the line up that Noah faced.

[They have been comprehending for the past tens of thousands of years, but none of them have mastered their respective Daos as they have never been able to apply them. The moment they are contracted and step into the outside world as they utilize their Daos will be the time when they enter the ranks of Entities.]

The voice of the Great Sage Aoin rang out sonorously as Noah merely smiled, waving his hands beside him as a spatial wave erupted, another one of his bodies appearing in front of the Queen Dowager- Tiamat!

Since he was born from two Galaxies and shared two separate yet uniquely connected bodies, he effectively had a cheat on the number of summons he could contract with. But his bodies had to establish the contracts themselves first before he could place the pets into his shared Origin, where he could choose to transfer any of the pets that he or the body of Alexander contracted without any issues.

To him, both of these bodies were one and the same, and he would not even be using the identity of Alexander soon enough as he was gaining terrifying power that would slowly make him able to move with even more vigor in the Dark Universe!

RUMBLE!

Essence erupted out as the sliver of consciousness of the Great Sage watched a new being with the same fluctuations as the one that should have been his successor appear, this being easily forming a contract with the Queen Dowager as the restrictions of the Tower were lifted from her.

[Ridiculous...!]. Even the consciousness of a Great Sage could not help but lament in shock at the event!

ROAAAR!

A loud bellow of freedom reverberated out from multiple heads as this creature stood in front of Noah, its multicolored heads that numbered not 5 but 10- all of these draconic head roared out with anger and majesty!

Noah simply felt the oppressive aura as he smiled, a cold harrumph ringing out from each of the heads as a second later, a red cloud of smoke descended into the enormous 500 meter Queen Dowager as it rapidly began shrinking in size.

RUMBLE!

Noah watched this unexpected scene with surprise, his eyes observing this dense smoke miniaturized the enormous body of the Queen Dowager until everything coalesced into red smoke around 2 meters!

"Being summoned into this trash Universe by a stupid little sage, locked into an even more trash tower and wasted thousands of years, and then contracted by an even weaker being. I've truly fallen!"

With a shockingly melodious voice that would cause the souls of weak men to tremble, the figure of a drop dead gorgeous woman walked out of the red smoke in a shocking fashion as she walked with light steps towards Noah!

It didn't take her long before her shocking figure came just inches away from him.

Noah only watched in a stupor as this figure came in front of him and used her slender arms to grasp his head, turning him side to side as she seemed to be looking for something.

"Hmmm..."

A thoughtful look appeared the more she examined Noah's face, even placing her head that was full of luscious dark hair on his c.h.e.s.t as she seemingly listened for his heartbeat!

"Well, not bad at least. A Grand Completion realm as a human, and I can even sense a whiff of something greater than a Dao Treasure from you."

RUMBLE!

The arrogant and pompous voice of this curvaceous woman that was the transformed Tiamat finally shook Noah out of his stupor as his face turned grave.

His eyes carefully glanced at her as he thought that she truly had no need to give herself such a blessed c.h.e.s.t and curves in her human form!

Even what she wore...was too revealing as it barely covered the things that should be covered!

This was one of the first summons of his that was able to change into a human form, and he thought it was rightfully so because her identity was simply too great.

She used to be the Progenitor of one of the 9 Supreme Bloodlines of the Animus Universe, a reality bending expert that was ganged up on and killed, and even then she still had ways to return as she now stood in front of Noah!

"Listen up."

THRUM!

Her words were mesmerizing as she spoke while raising her head pompously as every single one of her moves demanded attention.

"I have many plans and goals as I enact revenge against some cowards. Since we are now bound to each other and you've freed me from this stupid prison, I'll help you for a bit. If you can keep up with me, maybe I'll keep you around as my pet. But if you disappoint me and don't become a Great Sage in a few hundred years, I will break off this contract!"

RUMBLE!

Even though her curves and everything about her was gorgeous, her words were cold and merciless as this Queen Dowager that used to rule an entire region of the Animus Universe before stood in front of Noah.

Faced with this pompous dragon queen, Noah's gaze turned cold as his eyes shone with a dangerous l.u.s.ter!

The Blue Slime atop his head bounced up and down as it seemed to be having fun, but the air turned even colder as even more domineering words erupted from Noah.

"Just who do you think is the Master and Pet in this contract?"

BZZT!

It seemed like two domineering auras erupted against each other as a Summoner and an Animus Summon looked towards each other coldly, the very space in the surroundings beginning to crack as a dangerous force threatened to erupt out from the pompous Queen Dowager...

Chapter 789 - Glorious Rewards and a Shocking Return! I

"Guess I'll have to give out a beating against my so called Master for him to understand."

The Queen Dowager raised her slender fists dangerously as a nearly completed Dao erupted from it, a Dao that very infinitely neared the power of a genuine Entity as it was a Grand Dao!

Yet against this scene, Noah's eyes remained cold.

In this state of tension, the chirpy voice of the Blue Slime also rang out as it seemed excited.

"Master, didn't I tell you Big Sister would be powerful and fun?"

Noah ignored the words as he raised his hand and utilized something he never had before- the contract that was inscribed deep in his soul and the soul of the Animus in front of him!

RUMBLE

"Hmph, you think a mere contract ability that at most a Great Sage created would be enough to bind me? I've ruled countless lands and even destroyed cl.u.s.terers of galaxies, what makes you thin- Ahhh!"

A painful m.o.a.n escaped the Queen Dowager as she clasped her head in shock and fell to the ground!

Noah walked up towards her as his gaze arrogantly looked down.

Yes, maybe a being of her caliber would have been able to cause problems with an animus contract and even possibly break it if she grew to be more powerful. But the contract he used...was one backed by skill points as its effectiveness was elevated multiple times.

Even this terrifying being felt intense pain from her soul if she ever wished to rebel!

"You little...!"

Yet Noah also watched with surprise as even with a pained expression, the Queen Dowager still rose up slightly before she remained in place while bearing the pain, the aura of a Grand Dao around her palpating as it threatened to erupt!

His eyes shone with intense light at this scene as he waved his hands, causing the pressure of the soul contract to subside as Tiamat looked towards him dangerously!

"I do not wish to have a conflicting relationship with my own contracted Animus, so let's do this."

His words came out calmly as he walked towards the Queen Dowager and looked her in the eyes.

"If I really get left behind in terms of Realm and I don't even become a Great Sage in just 10 years, not even hundreds of years, I'll break off the contract I've created with you myself and let you off!"

RUMBLE!

"...!!!"

Domineering!

Shocking!

His words were simply too shocking!

"Great Sage in less than 10 years...hmph, so be it!"

The Queen Dowager was reined in as she thought of the pain she just had to endure, as well as this incredulous promise of this human she knew he could no way accomplish!

Great Sage in just 10 years? What, did he think he could advance through Realms and master Daos that easy?

'You'll need to fully assimilate a Grand Dao and have advanced above the GALAXY Realm, even I would need at least a hundred years! Yet you're just a human...'

"Let's get out of this musky tower, I've been in here for too long."

"..."

Noah felt a headache coming as he looked at this Peak Tier GALAXY Summon, another one still bouncing above his head as the terrifying Blue Slime that seemed innocent was actually much more monstrous than even Tiamat herself.

In this trip, he had truly obtained a great deal as his source of strength was expanded greatly, and he hadn't even gone through all of the rewards yet as of right now!

He still had the Ruination Page from the dumb prince to go through, remaining Low Tier GALAXY Cores he had in abysmal amounts after absorbing nearly all of them just now to pass to his subordinates, and all the rewards of the Tower that included a great deal of things- along with the Legacy of the Great Sage Aoin that included skills relating to the Dao of Voidspace!

When it came to skills relating to the Dao, Noah was filled with curiosity as most were skills designed by beings over the years, the [Animus Summoner Trainer] from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter being an example.

This meant he could create his own skill trees that related to any Dao he was focusing on, and he wanted to fully do this when the time came for Grand Daos!

If a unique Lesser Dao like the Dao of Summoning granted him this much power, just what would happen if he fully utilized the others?

Of course, he knew the Dao of Summoning was unique in the way it boosted him because of his Infinite Mana and Protagonist trait, where he utilized this Dao to an extreme that even exceeded the Ancient Power that was focusing on it for the past tens of thousands of years!

The Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter also comprehended this Dao and even had Entities that had begun assimilating it, and yet even they had not been able to have the line up of pets like Noah nor accomplish the things he had. Even now, their Ancient Power was merely equal to the Primal Winged Expanse as other Powers eyed their Legacies.

So how powerful one could be from any Dao depended on how it was utilized and the power of the being themselves!

'Ah...'

Noah lamented at this fact and his own genius as he turned towards the consciousness of the Great Sage Aoin that was still looking towards him in a stupor.

He had defied every single thing this Great Sage knew as common sense, where at this point the sliver of soul didn't even have words!

"The Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter has enemies within our ranks currently. Close off the Tower for now until we successfully bypass some of these dangers, I shall bring worthy geniuses to claim powerful summons here then!"

"We have to move..."

He gave commands as huge changes began to occur in the Tower...

---

As Noah reigned in an unruly Animus and gave out commands, changes soon occurred in the secret realm where many new Low and Middle Tier GALAXY experts had entered!

First was the Tower itself, where every being inside was ejected as they found themselves warped outside of it.

"What happened..."

"We can't get back in!"

The Holy Descendants tried to enter the same way they did before, but they were bounced back as if rejected and not allowed to enter!

Anna didn't panic as she looked around, her eyes soon noticing spatial fluctuations as two figures appeared in front of her.

It was the genius she knew all too well, but he was accompanied by a curvaceous woman whose expression dripped of elegance and power!

In addition to this woman, Anna squinted her eyes as she also saw a cute blue blob situated happily atop Noah's head!

Chapter 790 - Glorious Rewards and a Shocking Return! II

"This is...?"

Anna's eyes carefully looked at the human form of the Queen Dowager as she seemed to sense immense danger from her.

Noah had a light smile as he looked around and replied.

"Just a summon. Come, we have to head out."

Anna seemed unconvinced as she stared at Tiamat, but the latter ignored her as the bountiful c.h.e.s.t attached to the Queen Dowager's c.h.e.s.t shook while she spread her arms out wide and took a deep breath!

"Never thought such a dry environment would ever smell so good..."

She spoke domineeringly about the atmosphere of a secret realm that was filled with dense essence, leaving hints that where she came from was multiple times grander than this!

Noah didn't pay attention to her as he raised his above them, seeing the figures of multiple Holy Descendants and Aileron Royals coming towards them and the Tower.

The second party was just arriving as Noah didn't even want to bother with them, sending a message to the consciousness that controlled this secret realm!

"Eject all of us out of this Realm for now, I should be back with a few people in a bit."

RUMBLE!

The moment his words ended, the entire Primal Holy Land shook as a bountiful amount of essence erupted out, the Wild Animus roaring out as all the humans, Dragonoids, and Ailerons felt spatial essence cover them as they were unwillingly thrown out!

At the same time, Noah's own essence overflowed as he changed the affix on the Ruination Core to be [The act of not taking damage for 10 seconds grants a Ruination Shield capable of withstanding a single strike from a Sage].

He was merely getting ready because as of this moment...things were about to get wild!

SHAA! SHAA! SHAA!

The gazes of the Primal Emperor, Holy Emperor, and many others rose up as they sensed changes near the golden door of the Primal Holy Land, seeing multiple figures teleported back.

Those that entered first and even those that had just entered a few minutes ago, every single being was teleported out!

Of course, every single being but the 20 Aileron Royals from the first party to enter...

The expressions of many beings shifted at this scene as the air was very oppressive and filled with power!

This was because currently, there were 4 Entities present in this very tense situation!

The Holy Emperor was overseeing things as Old Man Khan wasn't too far away with the Holy Price Rudolf and other important Royals, while the remaining delegation of Aileron Royals were the Primal Emperor bound by an Aileron Entity behind him, as well as the remainder of their Royals that were led by Prince Kirigan's father.

OOOM!

The pressure was mildly reduced as the Holy Emperor went towards the teleported figures, his eyes landing on Noah and his granddaughter as they shone with brilliance.

This was especially so as his eyes landed on the curvaceous figure of Tiamat, his eyes beginning to shake with happiness as he sensed her aura at Peak Tier GALAXY!

Yet his eyes didn't catch the even more fearsome blue slime atop Noah's head as it seemed like the most non-threatening thing there, no aura leaking from its body.

"What happened?"

His question was directed at all of them, so a single Holy Descendant went forward as he bowed while speaking apprehensively.

"Emperor, our group was forcefully ejected from the Primal Holy Land as we appeared here..."

The face of the Holy Emperor lost its happiness at this as nearby, the resonant voice of the Primal Emperor rang out next!

"All of you?"

RUMBLE!

His words came out like a rolling tide as they held immense pressure, the second group of Aileron Royals that were also just ejected nodding towards their Emperor with cold faces.

"We were all ejected, meaning that all of us here are the only ones alive to be teleported out..."

THRUUUM!

The moment these words finished, the horrendous aura of a peak Entity erupted out as the 5 pairs of wings on the Primal Emperor quaked with power!

His gaze was extremely cold as with the warping of all of these beings here forcefully, they confirmed that the initial 20 man party of Aileron Royals were dead!

All others were ejected out of the secret realm, but not them!

The significance of this was soon understood by all as the atmosphere became extremely oppressive.

It meant that under the watch of the geniuses of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, the guests they invited had lost 20 of their people- and it was those with extremely high status at that!

"Windsor, what is the meaning of this?"

THRUUM!

The words were cold and biting, filled with zero cordiality as even the 'Brother' that the Primal Emperor normally used was dropped!

"I'm sure there is an explanation of what happened to the young Prince Kirigan and others. You all, what did you see?"

The Holy Emperor remained impassive as his might was unrelenting when faced against the aura of the Primal Emperor. Turning his gaze to Noah and the other Holy descendants that had entered first!

At the same time, the Holy Emperor sent a telepathic message towards Noah as his shining eyes remaining on the curvaceous figure of the Queen Dowager who was only looking around with her mesmerizing red eyes, this entire tense situation seemingly not worth her attention...

"What happened with our Great Sage's Legacy? Is that creature in front of you from the Legacy? What about all the other treasures...?"

A barrage of telepathic questions entered Noah's mind as his eyes looked up to meet the Holy Emperor.

All of the others also focused on this scene as among everyone there, nobody even raised their heads as they knew nothing of what happened, only this single genius raising his eyes to meet the Holy Emperor!

The powerful beings all around watched with careful eyes as they wanted to know, just what exactly had befallen the 20 Aileron Royals inside?

At this juncture, Noah replied with two sentences.

One was a telepathic one that entered the mind of the Holy Emperor and caused his body to nearly shake out of happiness.

The other was a verbal message that he said for all to hear.

"In the Secret Realm, the consciousness of the Great Sage saw my talent as he chose me as his successor, bringing the rewards of the Legacy that contain multiple PRISMATIC, Ultra Rare, and many more powerful summons under me to do as I see fit!"

This was the telepathic message to the Holy Emperor that nearly caused a wide smile to break from him, containing his emotions as his shining eyes called for him to continue for the other question he had asked.

When Noah answered this question for all to hear, the happiness bubbling within the Holy Emperor would very quickly be doused as the atmosphere would turn terrifying!

With a blue slime sitting happily on his head, Noah raised his head grandly and spoke with utter calmness, his words being a shocking spark that would cause the eruption of deadly events.

"The 20 Aileron Royals including that Prince Kirigan...I actually killed them all."

Silence!

Silence so deep and terrifying that I made the blood of many run cold!

This silence...was followed by mayhem!

RUUUUUUMBLE!
