Chapter 811 - It Matters Not!

As the heads of many turned with the new information of the grand realms ahead of them, Noah nodded his head simply as he replied while looking deeply into the wrathful eyes of the Queen Dowager.

"Great Sages, Monarchs, Paragons, or even anyone in the Universal Realm...I don't know the extent of their power, but it matters not!"

RUMBLE!

Essence rumbled out from Noah's words as others could not help but look towards him in a mesmerizing fashion.

Their hearts and eyes were pulled towards this being that now had an aura of an Entity, the air he released being extremely unique as his words seemed like they deserved to be heard!

"I myself have many beings I need to find and seek answers from not just in a single Universe, but many of the universes that make up the Primordial Cosmos. This entire Dark Universe we are in...it is headed towards destruction as we speak from the actions of Sages and Great Sages that were forced by the experts of nearby Universes to use a Tool they had no idea how to utilize...this tool allowing them to separate our Universe from the Primordial Cosmos as it placed us in grave danger..."

OOOOM!

Shocking revelations were released from Noah to everyone else at this moment as he chose to use this time to let them all know of the future that lay before them. He explained how the Great Sages had utilized a Cosmic Treasure they did not fully understand to cause the separation of the Dark Universe from the Primordial Cosmos, and exactly what this meant as this Universe was at this moment headed towards destruction!

...!

The Imperial Adjudicator had a blank gaze that was shared by many, their recent power ups that made them feel like masters of their own destinies waning as they realized the truth.

At the same time, Tiamat had a shocked expression while listening to Noah's story, her eyes trembling with excitement as she couldn't help but call out!

"This is the Lost Sundered Universe from all those years ago? The Universe that had a Cosmic Treasure born in it?!"

The gaze of Tiamat was heated as she came close to Noah, her bountiful c.h.e.s.t shaking as she sought to confirm something from Noah!

Noah himself was looking at this being that used to be one of the Ruling Forces of the Animus Universe as he knew she must have a deep history and be extremely knowledgeable! Her words connected to the truth as he replied slowly.

"It should be one and the same."

Tiamat's body thrummed with power at this reply as she voiced out with excitement.

"Good! We have to find that Cosmic Treasure! With it, I can raise past even Great Sage with ease as I make my way back to the top..."

She seemed lost in thought as she paced in the skies, Noah hiding his knowing smile as he probed for more information.

"What do you know about the Lost Sundered Universe?"

"The name only became widely renowned in the Primordial Cosmos after its exploits of withstanding the powers of multiple nearby Universes were spread. It became even more famous after it was somehow separated from the Primordial Cosmos as it became known as the Lost Sundered Universe..."

As she paced, Tiamat continued to reply without too much thought.

"It was a shame for this Universe to be lost as it held a Cosmic Treasure, something so rare that if the truly powerful Universes had heard about it first...a Universal Realm expert would have descended onto the Universe to wipe out all the Great Sages as they took the treasure for themselves with ease!"

RUMBLE!

"But the surrounding Universes that knew of the possibility of this Cosmic Treasure kept this information from spreading for many years, with many only finding out after it was somehow separated from the Primordial Cosmos...Ah!"

Tiamat seemed to be reminiscing as she talked of a great deal of things, Noah's eyes shining more and more as he heard of the information. He had some questions himself as he couldn't help but ask.

"This should be that same Sundered Universe, but since we are separated from the Primordial Cosmos, I have always been curious about how beings utilizing a mere Lesser Dao of Summoning have been able to summon creatures from the Animus Universe that should still be a part of the Primordial Cosmos!"

Tiamat was listening carefully as she waved her hands dismissively at the end.

"Oh, that? This is because of a powerful Universal Realm expert that birthed the Dao of Summoning made it so that the summoned creatures could only come from his Universe, the creatures being able to traverse through Realms and achieve Grand Completion with ease the moment they are given the status of Summons!"

"So even with the Lost Sundered Universe being parted from the Primordial Cosmos, utilizing the Dao of Summoning still means the creatures have to come from the Animus Universe, with the price of summoning being paid by the one who birthed the Dao to begin with as that Universal Realm being gains more understanding of the mysteries of the Primordial Cosmos..."

...!

Noah was nearly speechless at the information as he asked in shock.

"When you achieve a high enough Realm...you can birth your own Dao?!"

"...Yes. But only if you are at a truly powerful stage." The gaze of Tiamat turned mysterious as she seemed to be lost in thought, all the others listening in also reflecting as they felt like their minds were expanded!

The surrounding space turned quiet before the piercing voice of the Emperor Penguin rang out.

"What I don't get is how the Dao of Summoning is considered a Lesser Dao after all that, it seems much stronger than something like Withering and even seems on par with the Grand Daos we have just witnessed!"

The words of the Emperor Penguin made the eyes of many light up as they turned towards Tiamat questioningly.

The Queen Dowager seemed to have gradually returned to her old self as she waved her hands while replying.

"The classification of Daos is based on to what extent they can push the power of the user. Something like Summoning that relies on others will have a bottleneck where the user finds it hard to achieve the stages of Monarch, Paragon, or even the Universe Realm at that."

"Grand Daos such as Destruction or Vastness, or even something like the Cosmic Dao of Annihilation...those will truly allow one to reach the peaks of power!"

RUMBLE!

Noah took in Tiamat's words carefully as he didn't necessarily agree with them.

The Dao of Summoning had been such a huge boost to him that he would even consider it better than some Grand Daos, but he knew it was because of his own unique circumstances that he was able to utilize this Dao with such extreme efficiency and usefulness!

Even the entire Expansive Dragon Cluster with its Entities that studied it could not compare to him, so he somewhat understood what Tiamat was talking about.

He digested the many bundles of information while he spoke to his people.

"You all absorb the Dao Crystals first. Keep in mind our path is thorny and filled with danger, and I even have a solution to the coming Apocalypse that you all will know in time."

...!

The eyes of the beings in the surroundings shone at these words as they looked at each other incredulously while also feeling a heavy weight lifted off their shoulders.

They had just found out they were all heading towards an Apocalypse, only to have Noah tell them he could solve it much later after they accepted their existential crisis. It was truly a rollercoaster of emotions as the words had a different meaning to Tiamat!

Her shining eyes nearly blurted out her question before she chose to telepathically ask Noah.

'You've gotten your hands on the lost Cosmic Treasure?!'

Tiamat's gaze was shining as she stared at Noah, her eyes seemingly trying to devour him as he only smiled.

He only had a portion of the Cosmic Treasure called Ruination!

He had a single Ruination Core as he wanted to collect another from the Holy Emperor of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter! After that...he would track down all the rest as he undertook a grand task, his journey truly beginning at that time!

Chapter 812 - What I Want! I

Before Noah could think about the other Ruination Cores and his grand dreams, there was still the war with the Ailerons that he was very excited to finish!

He left his subordinates to absorb the abundance of information as he teleported from the Infinite Galaxy with the Blue Slime and Tiamat, even leaving Anna within to finish her absorption as he appeared close to the defensive line of the Rising Stellar Peaks.

RUMBLE!

His appearance caused many beings to turn towards his direction, their faces holding a myriad of expressions as Noah saw a particularly important new face!

"Haha, you continue to exceed my expecta-"

...!

The Holy Emperor had jovially begun laughing the moment his eyes landed on Noah, but he had to come to a stop as his eyes widened, his entire body beginning to shake incredulously thereafter.

This was because after lying his eyes for just a second on Noah's body, he sensed the aura of a being that had fully comprehended a dao, the aura of an Entity!

"How..."

He stared in disbelief at this being as Old Man Khan and the others had their jaws wide open, Anastasia looking towards Noah with shining eyes behind the Holy Emperor. Prince Rudolf by side rubbed his eyes as he nearly screamed out.

"Impossible! You...you were just at Middle Tier GALAXY a few hours ago! You can't just...!"

All those around the Rising Stellar Peaks were looking at Noah with alarm as they shockingly found this being not to just have upgraded his strength to the Peak Tier GALAXY, but had also somehow fully comprehended a Dao at the same time as he released the unique aura of an Entity!

"..."

The entire Rising Stellar Peaks went silent as those watching were mute in shock, Noah giving a bright smile as he nodded towards the Holy Emperor and Old Man Khan.

"It's merely an increase into Peak Tier and becoming an Entity, nothing much."

THRUM!

Domineering words erupted as Noah cared not for the reactions of others, continuing with his words!

"So, what's happened with our dear neighbors at the Primal Winged Expanse?"

He asked nonchalantly as the Holy Emperor nearly broke down, sending his aura out to make sure he wasn't mistaken, his gaze turning serious as his eyes contained innumerable thoughts while staring at Noah.

He looked towards their surroundings and the blank chaotic void behind them where the forces of the Primal Winged Expanse were still undoubtedly watching as he waved his hands and spoke grandly.

"Let us have privacy for a second..."

The Holy Emperor wanted to take Noah away and receive him properly with his new identity, but Noah merely nodded as he waved his hands and cast {Life Realm}, bringing his two summons and the Holy Emperor into a separate space as a small green door formed in the skies!

"..."

Old Man Khan looked at this scene in a stupor as he saw the formation of a Realm and was isolated from it a second time...

Within the Realm itself, the Holy Emperor looked towards Noah with shining eyes as he spoke.

"I was truly wrong about you, and I can't help but consider everything you have said to be true- even though that makes you all the more shocking!"

Yes! The Holy Emperor truly could not believe it, but every single word Noah uttered had turned out to be true as he frightfully thought of his assertion that his aid was even better than an Ancient Power! After everything he had done in such a short period of time, the Holy Emperor really did not think he could just ignore the even grander assertion this being made before.

"For gaining such power, I'm sure you have your own secrets...as well as a true aim for coming to my Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter!"

RUMBLE!

"...or do you truly want my granddaughter? Because we can arrange that as well..."

Off to the side, Tiamat was shaking her head with a disappointed expression as the Blue Slime with a heart shaking aura of an Entity wobbled happily on top of Noah's head.

Noah himself smiled as he thought about the question of his aims from this Ruler.

He had planned to crush the Ailerons entirely as he amassed even more strength before approaching the Holy Emperor for the Ruination Core- even if it had to be by force! But he was now here alone with the man in question as he wondered if he could do things differently...

He had many tools up his sleeves, but the biggest thing he could use when it came to the Holy Emperor was the fact that he had an entire Ancient Power to take care of!

Many thoughts swarmed in his mind as he then adopted a wide smile, essence beginning to rumble from him as he did something he hadn't planned to do!

RUMBLE!

The burst of essence came from his very origin, deep inside him where his Universal Law Origins lay as one of them opened and released a resplendent looking red black Ruination Core!

...!

This core materialized in front of him as it shone with a luminous l.u.s.ter, landing on his palm as he glanced towards the shocked Holy Emperor.

"I came with many goals, but this one is first and foremost."

RUMBLE!

He spoke calmly as he twirled the powerful Ruination Core in his hands, even Tiamat beside him trembling as her eyes began to shake while looking towards the Ruination Core!

"You...you truly had a part of the lost Cosmic Treasure on you...!"

She was even more shocked than the Holy Emperor as she knew of the fearsome power of this Treasure. Yet the Holy Emperor himself went through a series of shocks as he then backed away from Noah as he had a grimace appearing on his face.

"That...how do you have that?! How can you handle it...?!"

RUMBLE!

Chapter 813 - What I want! II

The Holy Emperor was careful as he asked the first thing that came to his mind while his essence began to move, ready to summon his PRISMATIC Animus at any time as this advancement was not something that he expected!

His eyes honed in on the pulsating Ruination Core as he matched it with the one he knew, his heart only becoming more shocked as time passed.

Noah ignored the shaken Holy Emperor as he continued.

"This is a Ruination Core. I know there is another in the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, though I don't know how much you know about it."

The question seemed to make the Holy Emperor shake out of his stupor and pensiveness as he stared at Noah in shock. His expression underwent a myriad of changes as he seemed thoughtful and pensive, staring at the calm Noah who had an Entity knowledgeable in a Grand Dao above his head and another being nearing the rank of an Entity by the side.

Yet even at this scene, the Holy Emperor wasn't fearful as he spoke out carefully.

"We have studied the Tools of Ruination for a long time, and we have not been able to discern anything from them nor how to use them! How did you activate that one...how are you using it?!"

The gaze of the Holy Emperor gradually became heated as time passed, Noah merely nodding as he continued to talk.

"I assume you know of the history of the Tools of Ruination? Of the truth behind the event tens of thousands of years ago that wiped out all the Sages and Great Sages?"

"...Yes. Nearly all the powerhouses of the Ancient Powers know about this...whether through the pages of the Book of Ruination or from the messages left behind by Sages and Great Sages..."

The Holy Emperor spoke carefully as his eyes remained on the pulsing Ruination Core in Noah's hands, his mind seemingly connecting many things together as his eyes then shook while he turned to stare deep into Noah's eyes!

"We've only been able to discern the information that a special authority or physique is required for anyone to utilize the Ruination Cores, could it be that you...?!"

The wise old man was smarter than Noah expected as it saved him lengthy explanations, his head merely nodding as he moved on to the next step.

"I am most likely the only being in the Dark Universe who has the physique capable of utilizing the Ruination Cores...and also the one who can save us all from the coming Apocalypse!"

The Holy Emperor shook as he ascertained this truth, his mouth seemingly dry as he spoke once more!

"The coming Cataclysm...? You...!"

The words didn't seem to come to him as the Holy Emperor merely stared at Noah in befuddlement.

All of the Ancient Powers that presided over the Dark Expanse knew or had glimpses of information about a future Cataclysm, and they knew it dealt with the event tens of thousands of years ago and involved the treasure known as Ruination!

Yet neither of them knew what to do to stop it as they all simply searched for the tools of Ruination and ways to utilize them. Very few had the proper knowledge of everything, with beings like the Entity that had appeared in front of Noah when he first formed the Infinite Galaxy.

That Entity had collected multiple Pages from the Book of Ruination as he even knew of the Physique required for one to even think about using the Ruination Cores, but others were even more in the dark than him as they only knew of theories from the Legacies that their Sages or Great Sages left behind!

The Holy Emperor from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter was one of these beings as he now faced a creature he had only heard and read about in hearsay.

"My aim is the Ruination Core that should be under your care, if you would be wise and magnanimous enough to not simply let it collect dust and actually let me utilize it to save us all!"

THUMP!

"The coming Apocalypse is not one that can be survived unless I collect all of the remaining Ruination Cores and undo what the Sages and Great Sages did!"

THUMP!

"...!"

The heart of the Holy Emperor was beating fast as he absorbed the multitude of information while seemingly lost in thought.

As the seconds passed, Noah returned the Ruination Core into his origin, this action bringing the holy Emperor back to attention as he stared towards him with shining eyes.

"This explains your ridiculous genius and talent...even the things you've been able to do, but..."

Noah looked at the gaze of the Holy Emperor and understood, as it was truly hard to let go of a treasure as profound as the Ruination Core! He seemed to see through the mind of this Ruler as he spoke calmly.

"The Ruination Core will only continue to collect dust in your hands, but I can utilize it to save all of us. Your family outside, the trillions of lives in the Expensive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter...all of the Dark Universe! What is a mere treasure in front of this?!"

RUMBLE

The question rang true as it seemed to have woken the Holy Emperor, his shining eyes calming down as he retained the demeanor of a Ruler!

"The news of the Ruination Core had somehow been leaked to the Primal Winged Expanse as I kept them close as allies since I knew full well what would happen when it was spread. This is the reason why the Primal Emperor proceeded with this war...and there is nothing stopping him from muddying the waters further by telling others about it!"

"If the being that can utilize it appears in front of me while fighting for my Ancient Power..."

The rest of his words didn't seem to be coming out as if he was thinking heavily on this issue!

Yet when Noah saw this expression, he smiled as he knew he was already close to achieving his goal.

"I can promise you security for the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, with no Ancient Power being able to bully you. The one I initiated this conflict with...I shall personally set off myself to finish it!"

RUMBLE!

Noah voiced out domineeringly as the Holy Emperor glanced towards him once more with shining eyes.

"You've been saying domineering things and accomplishing them with no issues so far that I subconsciously believe you when you speak now...sigh."

The aged Ruler let out a breath as he seemed deep in thought, thinking about the trillions of lives under him and the reality that a being who could actually utilize the tools of Ruination had appeared right before him!

"Very well!"

THRUUUM!

Chapter 814 - The Second Ruination Core!

When a Ruler made their decision, they acted on it with no hesitation!

The Holy Emperor did just that as he outweighed the risks and rewards after putting the terrifying being in front of him into full account.

His strong voice resounded out.

"Since the Ruination Core reacted some weeks ago, many experts have been moving with more vigor searching for the tools of Ruination. I knew the one I had under my control could invite a disaster...so I always kept it with me since that day!"

RUMBLE!

The Holy Emperor waved his hands the moment he finished his words. as a spatial ring appeared on his palm.

This spatial ring was inscribed with unique runic marking as Noah laid his eyes on it.

[Legacy Ring of Holding] :: An item passed down in the Windsor lineage for generations. It is capable of preserving many items in its isolated space while preventing any prying eyes from seeing within it...

A special item that held an isolated spatial space appeared in the hands of the Holy Emperor, his eyes only growing firm when he pulled it out as his essence drilled into it, a flash of light shining out as something appeared out of it a second later!

SHAA!

Noah watched with shining eyes as a second Ruination Core appeared. His hands nearly reaching out inadvertently as the Holy Emperor looked at the powerful treasures with melancholic eyes.

Tiamat was looking at this scene with disbelieving eyes as she didn't think this backwards looking power also had a portion of the Cosmic Treasure that was sought after by many beings before!

"Our Forefathers obtained this tens of thousands of years ago during their journeys, and it has been with us ever since."

His gaze was filled with reminiscence as his eyes became firm, the Ruination Core in his hands beginning to fly out towards Noah.

"All the Ancient Powers are looking for the answer to evade the coming Cataclysm. It would be selfish of me to not make a move when the answer has come to me!"

With these words, the Ruler of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter made the choice to let go of a treasure that others wanted dearly, something that was worth it enough to even start wars and destroy galaxies!

Noah gained a whole notch of respect for this being as his mana wrapped around the Ruination Core and brought it close to him, the treasure very quickly beginning to react to the one in his Origin as it began releasing a gorgeous red black light.

It seemed like an attractive pulling force was coming from Noah's origin as the Ruination Core was inadvertently going towards it!

The Holy Emperor watched the scene closely as he saw the terrifying Ruination Core enter the glimmering c.h.e.s.t of this genius, soon disappeared as a second later...immense eruptions of essence burst forth.

THRUUUUM!

It felt like a resonance of mana as Noah brought the Ruination Core into another one of his 6 Universal Law Origins, the treasure settling in as if it arrived home!

Noah's body felt like a battlefield of mana as he shone with a l.u.s.trous light, the red black essence of Ruination shooting forth from his domineeringly as for the first time since tens of thousands of years ago, two portions of the Cosmic Treasure Ruination were brought close!

Noah looked inside of his origin as he saw a distinct thin red line connecting the two Ruination Cores together, each of them pulsating with power as at this moment, Noah had obtained 2 Ruination Cores!

He didn't have to do anything grand to get his second, merely talking with the Holy Emperor being enough as his exploits were big enough to back up his words in the mind of this powerful Ruler.

One didn't have to always use brute force to get what they wanted!

RUMBLE

Noah was looking at the second Ruination Core as at this moment, he knew he could choose a second Affix to keep active at all times, his power being boosted by another level as he could be even more monstrous during combat, and also enjoy even greater benefits while cultivating when he switched to the affixes that dealt with increased assimilation and comprehensions!

As light bounced on and off of the Ruination Cores, he was also getting new information about new Affixes becoming available!

In the case of Laws and Daos, a new possible Affix that stated [+2500% Increased Comprehension and Assimilation of All Laws] and one that stated [+2500% Increased Comprehension and Assimilation of All Daos].

His eyes shone at these new possibilities as it meant he could see the terrifying +10,000% very soon if he collected more Ruination Cores!

A variety of new Affixes were added as Noah had many new ideas while going through them!

RUMBLE!

The obtaining of a second core was truly a grand achievement as the light between the two Ruination Cores endlessly bounced back and forth with an ever increasing might.

The resonance of the Ruination Cores continued as at the same time as this occurred, a chain reaction was taking place on all the tools of Ruination across the Dark Universe.

Each of them vibrated intensely for a few minutes as many powers were alerted, those knowledgeable connecting some dots as terrifying conclusions began to be drawn!

Light years away from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter and the Primal Winged Expanse, multiple Entities with unique physiologies stood around a vibrating Ruination Core with blank expressions.

These Entities were extremely unnerving to look at as all of them looked similar, yet they were completely different beings! An even more disastrous thing was the fact that from their bodies, one could sense the swirling essence of multiple Daos!

These were genuine powerhouses that would cause other Powers to tremble, being with immense powers! This was the Ancient Power in the North that was ruled by the Spirit Race!

"It seems the one who can utilize the Ruination Cores has really come to be, otherwise this would not be repeating twice in such a short time span."

"They seem to be able to very quickly find the locations of other Ruination Cores, so we will know who they are very soon as they will actually come to us..."

RUMBLE!

A shocking thought was released as these aged beings nodded towards each other! The swirling light of Lesser and Grand Daos around them only made them only more menacing as they continued to discuss.

In other areas, similar scenes were occurring as whether it was in an Ancient Power or from a lone Entity that held the Tools of Ruination...they all knew something grand was coming as yet another reaction came from the Tools of Ruination within a short period of time!

They knew that grand changes were coming, and each of them had to be prepared!

Chapter 815 - Unlocking the Bloodlines and Daos of Pets! I

The eruption of essence was slowly dying down in the private Life Realm as Noah opened his eyes, his majestic figure made even more glorious by the terrifying Blue Slime wiggling atop his head.

By the side, Tiamat seemed to be thoughtful as the voice of the Holy Emperor rang out once more.

"You said the coming Cataclysm could be stopped by you, what can the rest of us do to help?"

"All that I need to do is collect the remaining 4 Ruination Cores and put them together. Then I can undo the work that the Sages and Great Sages did to cause all of this!"

Noah replied calmly as the Holy Emperor continued to question!

"Undo the work of multiple Sages and Great Sages by yourself? I know you're a genius but..."

The eyes of the Holy Emperor were twitching at the reply as Noah merely smiled while speaking calmly.

"It only requires the mana equivalent to multiple Sages and Great Sages, nothing much on my part!"

"..."

The Holy Emperor could only look forth incredulously at this reply as he had no words, only watching as Noah came forward jovially to express his thanks.

"You've done something great that you will only know the profound results of in the future! And for our nearest future...let us take care of the Primal Winged Expanse first!"

RUMBLE!

Noah's gaze turned ferocious as the Holy Emperor adopted a solemn expression.

Noah wanted to find out more about the powerhouses of the Primal Winged Expanse, so after he obtained the Ruination Core, he continued talking with the Holy Emperor and asked about the true power behind their enemies!

"The Primal Winged Expanse is blessed with around 25 Entities, some of them being wandering Entities that pledged allegiance to them thousands of years ago!"

The Holy Emperor gave an overview of the Primal Winged Expanse and its forces as Noah found out that they had over 25 Entities including the Primal Emperor himself. Some of these Entities were participating in this war, with others being cornerstones of the Ancient Power as they remained as reserve forces to protect their core lands.

"Our Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter has similar numbers, with around 15 Entities deployed to cover numerous regions as less than half are cultivating around the Expansive Holy Land to act as protectors for the core regions."

He thoughtfully put together the information that the Holy Emperor continued to tell him as he thought of it in his own terms.

In his mind, there were around 25 Big Bosses that would drop the most prime loot if he could take all of them down, and they were really cl.u.s.tered in a single location as they waited for him!

When he realized this scene...he knew he had to do something wild as he wanted to target and take down all of these big bosses at once! He didn't want a single one of them to escape as the singular thing that dominated his mind at this moment was...a Siege.

A Siege!

RUMBLE!

He rose up while looking at the Holy Emperor with a smile and spoke out grandly.

"So I'll be personally attacking the Primal Winged Expanse with my own forces. I ask you to trust me once more when I tell you the most important thing about all of this- do not interfere!"

...!

The Holy Emperor looked forth in a stupor as he heard words that didn't make sense.

But Noah's words were because...he didn't want any loot to be stolen away from him by the forces of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, so they had to stay away!

"Can you promise me this?"

Noah's expression was stern as the Holy Emperor sighed while nodding. Even asking on whether he should interfere if Noah's life was threatened- but he still said no!

After all was said and done, the talk between the Holy Emperor and Noah continued for another half an hour before the Ruler was satisfied after listening to Noah's domineering requests, the Life Realm around them beginning to dissipate as their figures soon appeared back in the Rising Stellar Peaks.

Old Man Khan and the others looked at the reappearing figures as they came forward, Noah giving a light smile as he turned towards the dark chaotic void past the Rising Stellar Peaks where he knew the forces of the Primal Winged Expanse were still watching.

His eyes shone as he finalized his plan that he calculated numerous times in his mind...going towards this Dark chaotic void once more as he prepared a show!

This time, the show was to introduce himself- to show the Primal Winged Expanse and any other Ancient Power out there as he gave them a glimpse of Noah Osmont.

As he planned for the Siege of an Ancient Power, he wanted all the spread out Entities of the Primal Winged Expanse to gather as this time around, he wanted them to know he was coming!

RUMBLE!

He floated far past the defense line as he got into the same area where he had taunted them to send an army to him before.

This time, he didn't speak any words as he merely waved his hands to summon his Middle Tier GALAXY Animus Summons.

With Tiamat not too far from him and the Blue Slime atop his head, the figures of the Three-Legged Fate Crow, Oraculothorax, Void Serpent, Calamity Bear, Colossal Helios Leviathan, and the Obsidian Panther all appeared grandly!

Their manifested galaxies shone with splendor as at this moment, the powerful Summoners of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter couldn't even ask why someone had double the normal amount of summons contracted to him, their eyes only watching and opening wider and wider as they saw Noah begin to utilize the [Animus Growth Empowerment] skill on his summons right here and now.

Many quickly realized that as this now apparent Entity was at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm, he could use the [Animus Growth Empowerment] ability to very quickly bring his summons up to the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm over the next few months and years, but they hadn't expected him to begin doing such a thing at this moment!

Was he planning on publicly training his pets even when it would take weeks or months to just fully train one all the way to the Peak?

The forces of the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter were confused as the hidden forces from the Primal Winged Expanse only watched closely from afar.

THRUM!

They observed Noah to cast still after skill on a majestic looking Three-Legged Fate Crow, the mana of an Entity utilized every time as the Animus felt a rush of essence wrap around it constantly!

It's body was changing and growing larger at a visible rate it let out fierce cries, those watching beginning to feel its Realm slowly advancing from the Middle Tier GALAXY...and begin heading up towards the Peak!

The Three-Legged Fate Crow let put piercing cries as Noah cast one [Animus Growth Empowerment] after another, choosing to domineeringly catch the attention of the Ancient Power he would Siege with a grand show nobody had seen before.

"He wouldn't actually be..."

"No way..."

"Did he comprehend the Dao of Vastness as well?!"

Cries began to soon ring out as those proficient in the Dao of Summoning saw cast after cast from this being relentlessly as he didn't stop for even a second to recover his mana- seeing a shocking scene of someone continuing to cast a growth skill multiple times as if he continued like this- they shockingly realized they would watch the advancement of a an Animus Summon from Middle Tier to Peak Tier GALAXY in a matter of minutes!

Minutes!

"No f.u.c.k.i.n.g way..."

It was the conserved Prince Rudolf letting out the expletives as the Holy Emperor and others watched with shining eyes what a true Summoner could do.

RUMBLE!

Noah planned to do this for all of his pets publicly, showing a shocking show of power as he produced multiple Peak Tier GALAXY experts who would awaken powerful Bloodlines and Daos the moment they entered this Realm.

Apart from the Golden Crow, he couldn't wait for the advancement and transformation of the Void Serpent into Jörmungandr!

"Haha!"

His wild laugh bellowed out in the chaotic void as the transformation of a Three-Legged Fate Crow into a genuine Golden Crow was underway at this very moment.

Those watching...would barely be able to close their eyes as a grand show played for all to see!

Chapter 816 - Unlocking the Bloodlines and Daos of Pets! II

"What is he doing...?"

In the core of the Primal Winged Expanse, an Entity voiced out towards his surrounding peers and the Primal Emperor while they watched the scene of Noah constantly spamming [Animus Growth Empowerment] on his pets.

"From the information we've gathered about the Dao of Summoning, he should be upgrading the realm of his pets...though that process should take weeks at the fastest if not months at the slowest!"

The Primal Emperor replied with Eyes blazing with light as those who heard his words quieted down!

"So how is he doing it in minutes..."

"..."

Silence reigned in the surroundings as nobody had answers!

CAAA!

A piercing cry reverberated throughout the chaotic void as golden scorching flames in the shape of a cross brightened up the Expansive darkness, the body of a creature over 50 meters tall registering on the eyes of many.

Everything about this creature was gold as its feathers shone resplendently, its golden eyes releasing an overpowering light as its Expansive wings seemed as sharp as blades while its three feet seemed strong enough to shatter mountains!

CAAA!

Noah laid his shining eyes on it once more.

[Golden Crow](Ultra Rare) :: An Animus Pet currently at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. It has reached a.d.u.l.thood and awakened the bloodline of the Archaic Golden Crow, directly gaining comprehensions of the Grand Dao of Inferno as more techniques will slowly be awakened by it. Its abilities include Fate Flames of the Void, Barrier of Brilliance...

His first ever pet was given the privilege of entering the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm first when one didn't put into account Tiamat and the Blue Slime, Noah gaining a genuine Golden Crow under him as this majestic beast brought its golden beak to slowly nudge Noah, its reverberating flames causing for a magisterial scene to be displayed to many!

Old Man Khan was looking at this scene while shaking his head, this man being a veteran in the Dao of Summoning and saw exactly what had happened, but he still couldn't believe it!

The first issue was the [Animus Growth Empowerment] skill itself that Noah was casting. It seemed to be much too effective and powerful! The other issue was naturally the fact that he had cast this skill way too many times and constantly over the past 15 or so minutes as they wondered a singular thing.

"How has he not run out of mana?!"

RUMBLE!

The disbelieving gazes of those watching would be left in the dust as Noah paid no heed, his body exploding with essence as he began to spam [Animus Growth Empowerment] on the Void Serpent and the others at the same time as well.

It was constant and repeated casting at a rate of multiple times per second, the truly knowledgeable beings nearly shaking from shock when they saw the scene as it entirely defied everything they knew!

The Holy Emperor thought he had been surprised enough, but as he looked at this scene- he couldn't help but think back to something Noah had said when it came to his mana.

["It only requires the mana equivalent to multiple Sages and Great Sages, nothing much on my part!"]

These words rang out in the Holy Emperor's mind as he seemed to understand why these ridiculous words could somehow be true!

RUMBLE!

At the spot where Noah continued to upgrade the strength of his pets, the serpentine body of the Void Serpent was coiling as it became even larger, a hazy dark grey light wrapping around it as draconic roars could occasionally be heard.

The Dark grey light expanded wildly as the shadow of the Serpent became ever so bigger, only a few minutes passing before a luminous dark light shone out while a draconic roar resounded!

ROAAAR!

Off to the side, Tiamat had reminiscent eyes when looking at this creature unlocking a bloodline she was very much familiar with- a sister bloodline of her own lineage where she knew the being at the very peak of strength tens of thousands of years ago.

As the hazy light faded and the image became clear, Tiamat shook her head wistfully as she realized she was nearly looking at the youthful image of an old monster she used to know!

The fearsome and enormous creature she was looking at was the Void Serpent that had finally entered a.d.u.l.thood, a being now touring over 500 meters in size as its pristine dark-grey scales shone even in the chaotic void.

The Void Serpent was gone as finally, the true form of Jörmungandr had come to light!

[Galaxy Devouring Serpent- Jörmungandr] (PRISMATIC) :: An Archaic Animus currently in the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. Entering its a.d.u.l.t stage, this Galaxy Devouring Serpent has awakened one of the 9 Supreme Bloodlines of all Animus Creatures- the bloodline of the Galaxy Devouring Serpent, Jörmungandr. It has directly gained comprehensions in the Grand Dao of Devouring as the further its bloodline awakens, the faster its speed of comprehension and Assimilation will be...

"Ahhh..."

Those weak in the heart slumped to the ground while watching this scene, their brains barely being able to follow as they were watching something that went against everything they believed in!

2 Animus Summons raised to Peak Tier GALAXY in half an hour, and the person in question was relentless as he seemed to be continuing.

"What is this...?!"

"It's not real...it's not real..."

Shock, awe, and disbelief spread out at a shocking scene that would include itself onto the minds of all of those watching!

Yet Noah wasn't done as while he laughed grandly when looking at the resplendent appearances of the Golden Crow and Jörmungandr, he moved on to the Variant Oculothorax and the Calamity Bear to finish their enhancements next!

Chapter 817 - A Tyrannical Entity! I

The Variant Oculothorax was a particularly unique Animus Summon as it didn't have any powerful bloodline or history, simply being a unique creature that had undergone a mutation and was very proficient in the Soul!

When Noah finished admiring the gorgeous sight of a fearsome Galaxy Devouring Serpent, his constant spamming of [Animus Growth Empowerment] had been focused on this Variant Oculothorax and the Calamity Bear.

The winged eyeball that was proficient in laws of Light and Fate had grown ever bigger as it neared its final transformation, a piercing cry erupting from it as it grandly showed itself.

AAAAH!

The cry was one that made weaker beings clutch their heads in pain, just its roars carrying power to affect a being's soul as this Oculothorax bowed its wings towards Noah subserviently!

Its size was now around 100 meters, its wings shining with a contrasting dark and gold color as the main body that was the eye could infuse terror into any normal being.

[Lightbourne Oculothorax](Ultra Rare) :: An Animus Summon at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. Its body is primarily an eyeball, and this particular Oculothorax has undergone a mutation through pure willpower and mastered the laws of Light and Fate. Since advancing to a.d.u.l.thood, it has stepped on the path of the Lesser Dao of Darklight. It contains a dreadfully strong soul as all its abilities carry potent Soul Damage. Abilities include Eye of Doom, Fate Extinguishing Light...

Yet another Peak Tier summon appeared in the bustling chaotic void as all those looking felt their minds grow numb.

The Primal Emperor's gaze was increasingly solemn as he watched the being in the illusory screen continue to cast skills repeatedly, enormous bouts of mana being required every time.

"The show he is putting up is merely a continuation of his boasting after the death of Vast. Since Vast boasted to have enough mana reserves to last for days while fighting, he's merely showing his own reserves to be higher than Vasts!"

An Aileron Entity by the side spoke out calmly as they all watched the illusory scene.

"But such repeated casting and use of mana...even Vast had nothing like this!"

"..."

No other replies came as the powerful Entities continued to watch in silence.

30 minutes passed as in the chaotic void where Noah could be seen by all, another one of his pets entered into the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm after being subjected to his constant spamming.

THRUUUUM!

The enormous Calamity Bear shook the surrounding space as its form underwent a grand change, shining black wings erupting from its back in a shocking fashion after its transformation!

"OOOOOH!"

A bellow was released from it grandly as it looked like a majestic king of all bears, Noah glancing at the new description of this Animus Summon.

[Archaic Void Calamity Millenium Bear](Ultra Rare) :: An Animus Summon at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. A unique species of Bears that takes on the mantle of [Calamity], having entered a.d.u.l.thood, this Millenium Bear has stepped on the Grand Dao of Nature as it strives to become one with those around it. Its abilities include Shield of Beginning, Hug of Life and Death...

The stellar Archaic Void Millenium Bear joined the ranks of Golden Crow, Jormungandr, and the Lightbourne Oculothorax as its aura oppressive stood as the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm as its body swirled with the essence of a Grand Dao!

The summoners from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter watched with agape expressions as they found themselves question whether all of them were studying the same Dao of Summoning.

Had they just been doing things wrong?

Were they just stupid people that considered themselves geniuses?

"Why have we wasted so many years..."

Even Prince Rudolf had a sunken expression as he couldn't explain the scene in front of him!

30 minutes passed!

RUMBLE!

The colossal figure of the Leviathan became ever larger as it nearly covered the sight of everyone, the creature being thousands of meters large as its finished transformation was contrasted by something extremely small that could not be seen by many because of its shocking speed.

Both the Obsidian Panther and Colossal Helios Leviathan had advanced to Peak Tier and transformed at this crucial stage as Noah glanced at their new descriptions as well!

Golden Colossal Helios Leviathan :: An Archaic Animus currently in the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. Being a mythical creature that traverses the Helios Sundering Seas of the Animus Universe, it is nearing full maturity as it has awoken the Golden Helios Bloodline of the Royal Helios Race. Proficient and Assimilated with the Laws of Death, Aether, Space, and Time, this Animus has now embarked on the path of the Grand Dao of Macrocosm. Its abilities include Unremitting Fortress, Realm Depredation...

Tempestuous Obsidian Panther :: An Animus Summon at the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm. It is a unique species with the Bloodline of the Noble Black Panther Clan of the Tempestuous Realms of the Animus Universe. Its proficiency lies in quickness and speed that can even rival beings of higher stages as its deadly claws deal even more dreadful damage, with the laws of Space, Time, and Air being mastered. This Tempestuous Obsidian Panther is nearing full comprehension on the Lesser Dao of Alacrity, greatly enhancing its speed.

The Colossal Helios Leviathan looked like a moving fortress as its thick scales were tinged with gold, the flashing figure of the Obsidian Panther having sleek dark fur as it flashed around at such high speeds that only Old Man Khan and the Holy Emperor could keep their eyes on it!

All those watching could simply observe in silence at this scene as they truly watched from beginning to end as a being took 6 Animus Summons from Middle to Peak Tier of the GALAXY Realm in just a few hours.

"This...is just too domineering..."

"Domineering? F.u.c.k.i.n.g hell, this is just tyrannical!"

"Tyrannical!"

RUMBLE!

It truly was so! Not even domineering anymore as many beings thought this new apparent Entity was simply too Tyrannical.

In the chaotic void, Noah now floated next to the magisterial sight of 6 glimmering Animus Summons in the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm, the Blue Slime wiggling above his head and the fearsome Tiamat looking towards him with shining eyes making it a total of 8 Peak Tier GALAXY experts by his side!

"Haha!"

His bellowing laugh echoed out as the many watching beings nearby and afar looked towards him with still shocked eyes, wondering what this domineering being would do next.

Noah would not disappoint as the moment his bellowing laughter finished, he flew onto the enormous body of the Colossal Helios Leviathan as his other pets did the same, his voice ringing out explosively as the body of the huge leviathan began to move forward.

"Primal Emperor...I am coming to pay a visit to your Ancient Power!"

THRUUUM!

Chapter 818 - A Tyrannical Entity! II

Alarm rose in the hearts of many as their jaws nearly detached, the voice of Noah ringing out continuously in their ears!

"Primal Emperor...I am coming to pay a visit to your Ancient Power!..."

"..."

Old Man Khan had incredulous eyes as he turned towards the Holy Emperor and asked what Noah was doing in shock.

The aged Holy Emperor did not say much as he shook his eyes and he replied.

"He said he would lay siege to the Ancient Power, and he has now set off to do that."

...!

Old Man Khan scratched his ears and checked to see if his old friend had turned senile!

"What the hell do you mean? That doesn't make any sense! He's..."

RUMBLE!

The Holy Emperor raised his hands as he shook his head, his grand voice ringing out after.

"His status represents something more important than what you or I realize. For now, let's just watch."

"...we won't even be sending him support?" Old Man Khan still didn't believe what he was seeing as he still asked!

"No. He specifically asked for none of us to interfere. No Entity from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter will make a move, I will let them all know!"

The walking stick in Old Man Khan's hand shattered as one shocking word after another came out, his hairs turning whiter by the second as he watched the domineering image of an enormous Colossal Helios leviathan moving forward.

The many Holy Descendants on the defensive line looked forth in a stupor as a single word began to spread among them!

"Tyrannical..."

"The pride of Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter!"

"A powerful Entity!"

"Powerful? He's f.u.c.k.i.n.g tyrannical! A Tyrannical Entity!"

"The Tyrannical Entity!"

RUMBLE!

A single word spread across the millions that watched Noah's domineering actions and declaration as he now stormed towards an Ancient Power.

In the heart of the Primal Winged Expanse, wrath was bubbling in the heart of the Primal Emperor as he sent out numerous communications to his powerful experts.

"Be ready to intercept this freakish Entity. If possible, we cannot let him grow any further as he might become someone unbeatable in the future!"

OOOM!

His words were known to be true by the other Entities as they recalled how just a day or two ago, the aura of an Entity was not on this being as he was merely a Middle Tier GALAXY expert. Unless he had a technique that lied to others about his Realm...the truth was terrifying to think about.

"Amass our Peak Tier GALAXY combatants for this frontal attack, we saw how he can also teleport in groups of GALAXY experts..."

Many preparations were made by a singular Ancient Power as Noah made his way over to the Primal Winged Expanse!

His pace while crossing the chaotic void was actually not fast, the Golden Colossal Helios Leviathan seemingly having fun swimming through the darkness as it let out terrifying bellows every now and then.

On its body, the manifested GALAXIES of all of Noah's pets shone brightly as he nonchalantly talked to the Animus Summons to get a better grasp of their abilities.

The fearsome Jormungandr was talking to Tiamat with his head proudly held high while a wiggling Blue Slime that released the terrifying aura of an Entity was the most friendly of them all, going towards every other Animus Summon as it rested on their heads.

When it neared Tiamat, the curvaceous Queen Dowager had thrown it a dangerous look as the body of the Blue Slime wiggled before it just moved along!

It passed through all of them and eventually returned above Noah's head as all the others did not seem to come to its standard.

Such was the scene playing out above the moving Leviathan as Noah neared an Ancient Power with no rush, hours passing by!

If one thought about it just a little, they might even think he was actually giving them time to prepare!

In other parts of the Dark Universe, many pieces were moving back and forth as grand movements were made.

A particular one worthy of note for us was the news that the Primal Emperor had released reaching the ears of far away Ancient Powers from the groups of Ailerons that would not be making it back to the Primal Winged Expanse alive.

But at this moment, the news of an apparent Ruination Core and a Great Sage's Legacy being unearthed was known by many Ancient Powers, the consequences of such a move still being unknown as of right now!

But at this juncture when the Tools of Ruination reacted twice in a short period of time...news about the Ruination Cores could not be ignored!

"Elder Sunflower, lead some of the invited Entities to check out the situation between the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter and the Primal Winged Expanse..."

A majestic voice commanded a group of Entities in one corner of the Dark Universe.

"Borrow one of the Sun Shattering Legions to gather more information...do not join their war!"

Another command was given by a Ruler from another corner of the Dark Universe...

Many scenes like this repeated themselves as scouting Entities were sent out to see exactly what was occurring in the location where spread out news said a Ruination Core existed and a Great Sage's Legacy was unearthed!

Numerous parties made their way over with quick speed, and the setup was glorious enough that they might arrive either just in time as Noah attacked an entire Ancient Power by himself, or they would be there to witness the devastating results after everything was over and done...

Chapter 819 - A Full Frontal Attack!

In the Southern region of the Dark Universe, there existed an Ancient Power with deep roots and history, one that many beings feared and steered clear of.

This was the Ancient Power ruled by the Spirit Race, unique existences that were heavily in tune with nature, laws, and Daos!

These beings had many unique features as among them, they shared a strong link in their souls as they easily communicated with each other.

"Sister Gold, you should have made some advancements in your assimilation of the Daos of Alacrity, Vastness, Frost, and Destruction. Why don't you set off for the outside Galaxies and observe if there truly is another Ruination Core in the hands of this little expansive cl.u.s.ter?"

A message traveled through the connected minds as one being heard it and nodded, the shocking reality of this Entity from the Spirit Race studying 4 Daos being mentioned by them simply!

In the Northern region of the Dark Universe where the Arch Humans ruled, a lone Entity was moving through this Ancient Power after traversing outside alone for so long.

You might recall this Entity as the one that was able to see Noah briefly after he upgraded his Infinite Galaxy, the Entity that has been searching for the being capable of utilizing the Ruination Cores for all these years!

He was grumbling at his bad luck as he enjoyed the companies of other Entities in the Northern Region, friends that he had made over the land thousands of years.

"Oh?"

News about the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter and the Primal Winged Expanse reached the talking Entities as they discussed it without making any moves, but one of them had shining eyes as he stood up swiftly!

"Traverser, don't tell me you're thinking of falling for such an obvious tactic?"

A curvaceous female Entity drank the golden liquid from her cup as she asked curiously towards the dominating Entity that had miniaturized himself from his large size.

"One can never advance in this Universe if we do not take risks! I thank you all for sharing this with me..."

The other Entities shook their heads wryly as they watched one titled as Traverser flying out with a flash of light, yet another powerful Entity joining the fray among the many heading towards the war between the two Ancient Powers in the West!

The distance between the two powers could not be considered too vast or too close, with Entities being able to go from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter and into the Primal Winged Expanse in as long as days or as short as just a few hours.

It all depended on the speed the Entity was moving at!

Noah was moving at an absolute snail's pace as he gave time for his subordinates to finish absorbing the Dao Crystals that would grant them full comprehension in the Lesser Dao of Withering, and he also gave time for the Primal Winged Expanse to prepare him a buffet of loot.

As he slowly moved atop the Colossal Helios Leviathan, many plans swirled in his mind as thought of using [Plot Armor] or [Deus Ex Machina] during the coming battle, and the choice of the two Ruination Core Affixes that would best match him against powerful Entities!

He knew that many eyes were on him as he neared the coordinates of the Primal Winged Expanse he had gotten from the Holy Emperor.

Those from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter he had told to stay away and not interfere were watching, while those from the Primal Winged Expanse were preparing for him!

OOOOH

The bellow of the Colossal Helios Leviathan could be heard as the outline of the nearest Galaxy that made up the cl.u.s.ter of Galaxies that were part of the Primal Winged Expanse appeared.

Noah's eyes shone as he could already see numerous figures littering the area.

At the forefront, the grand image of a majestic Primal Emperor could be seen as he was flanked side by side with many domineering figures, each of them letting out the terrifying auras of Entities as they looked towards Noah and his pets coldly!

THRUUUM!

Palpable waves of power could be felt spreading out at the mere presence of this many experts, Noah's eyes shining brightly as he looked behind the Entities standing next to the Primal Emperor.

For this battle, the Aileron Race did not bring in millions of small dredges that would simply be killed, but only top tier experts as besides the Entities, over 100 Peak Tier GALAXY experts were gathered! Such was the strength of an Ancient Power...

Noah could count around 15 Entities coldly staring towards him, his eyes glancing around as he really expected the 25 that the Holy Emperor mentioned.

"I'm not sure whether to consider you really bold or just plain stupid."

THRUM!

The resonant voice of the Primal Emperor rang out as he waved his hand, spatial fluctuations erupting out behind the Colossal Helios Leviathan and to its left and right sides as at this moment, more Entities appeared to flank Noah's party right in the middle!

Behind him, 5 Entities with world shaking auras appeared, 3 to his left and 3 more to his right as it made 26 total Entities currently encircling him!

"But since you have come here...I might as well make this your grave!"

RUMBLE!

The voice of the Primal Emperor reverberated out as the 4 encircling groups of Entities had one person in each group shatter a crystal, a brilliant light shining out as a circular field of light exploded out to cover all the nearby surroundings- including Noah and his pets.

"I know you like creating Realms and holding your enemies hostage, so I wanted to give you a taste of your own medicine as you get locked in an Illusory Unbreakable Realm that will hold you in while showing all the cowards watching what I will do to unruly Entities that threaten me!"

RUMBLE!

The wrathful voice of the Primal Emperor continued to resound out as Noah's eyes shone brightly, never having expected his full frontal attack on the Primal Winged Expanse to go this well.

The reason for this was the Illusory Unbreakable Realm that the Primal Emperor had just talked about!

"Brother Primal, this Unbreakable Realm will be active for the next hour as nobody will be able to come in or out." The Entity releasing unique spatial fluctuations voiced out as his arrogant eyes landed towards Noah's small figure far in the distance.

Yes! Shockingly, the fearsome ability that used the essence of the surrounding Entities was a powerful realm prison that enclosed and locked in all those in the affected space for a whole hour!

Everyone!

Only the controller that initiated it, the being with unique spatial essence on his body, could choose to cut off his connection as he left alone while dealing heavy self-damage to himself if ever he wanted to get out before the hour ended.

It was a truly powerful ability that had very shocking limitations!

"Ah...!"

Noah couldn't help but tremble at this scene, his eyes not being able to hide their happiness as the single greatest he was afraid of- which was the Entities he wanted to fight running away from him, this problem was solved by his own enemies as they locked themselves with him in a timed prison.

How nice they were!

How magnanimous!

How magisterial!

Chapter 820 - Let's Go!!! I

Within the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, the Holy Emperor and Old Man Khan had returned to the core of the draconic shaped Realm as they were surrounded by 4 other Entities.

Noah had yet to meet any of them as they had been placed at far positions for defense, but the Holy Emperor had called some of them back as they now stood in a Core command room while watching the illusory scene of Noah and the forces of the Primal Winged Expanse playing out far away!

Old Man Khan's face was cloudy as his body palpated with power. His strong voice coming out in anger.

"This being is obviously a once in a life time genius, where we would have grown together in the next tens and hundreds of years as he possibly had the chance to become a Sage...!"

"Yet...yet! You let him go alone and now he is surrounded by 26 Entities that want to put on a show!"

Anger was not hidden from Old Man Khan's voice as he spoke, the Holy Emperor keeping his gaze calm as the other Entities looked at each of them with many thoughts.

Even though the situation looked extremely grim, the Holy Emperor's face remained the same as his majestic voice came out.

"As hard as it is while watching what is happening right now...I am trusting in his words!"

RUMBLE!

The stance of the Holy Emperor was clear as they watched the shocking scene play out with clarity, the Illusory Unbreakable Realm having its unique quality in the name- everyone could see what was happening within it!

"Haha! Very good!"

Noah's boisterous voice came out even while surrounded by a variety of Entities.

When he looked around him, he could see that many of them had the stellar pairs of wings that made them Ailerons, but a few were humans and 2 seemed to be from completely different species as their bodies held unique physiologies!

From them, he could sense the aura of profound Dao essence, each of their bodies thrumming with power as they looked towards not him, but the Blue Slime above his head coldly.

They had seen this creature sneak attack someone as powerful as Vast, and a large portion of their focus was on it!

While the Peak Tier GALAXY Summons Noah brought forth were strong, they weren't seen as threats in front of the Entities' eyes

To them, this battle was over and done with as the domineering Primal Emperor would soon give out a command!

Noah stopped his boisterous laughter as he looked towards them while his body began to explode out with essence.

"Big bird bosses, you see...aside from my many other talents. I'm actually very proficient in making Clones!"

RUMBLE!

The moment his words finished, his c.h.e.s.t shone as Noah made it seem like something was coming out from his origin.

He didn't want to let the Entities in this realm prison know that he could leave at any time due to his Astral Connector Absolute Skill, so he made it seem like he was merely Summoning things from within!

But soon after, the devilishly handsome figures of beings with the same look as him appeared grandly, each of them carrying the same aura of an Entity.

"..."

Their number increased to match the numbers of Peak Tier summoned beasts beside Noah, the figures that looked exactly like him standing beside every Animus Summons but Tiamat!

"Merge!"

With each of these figures relating the aura of Entities, Noah had them merge with the Peak Tier GALAXY pets and the Blue Slime right after as an explosion of essence took place.

Shockingly, the Primal Emperor and other Aileron Entities let him perform all of these skills and transformations before attacking!

RUMBLE!

The Void Clones of both of his bodies merged with the Blue Slime, Colossal Helios Leviathan, Jörmungandr, Golden Crow, Calamity Bear, Oculothorax, and the Obsidian Panther as only Tiamat was not merged with yet.

A the same time, Noah affirmed that the two Ruination Cores affixes were set to [Slain enemies have a 10% chance to drop Dao Crystals based on the Dao they cultivate] and [The act of not taking damage for 10 seconds grants a Ruination Shield capable of withstanding a single strike from a Sage]!

A defensive affix and an auxiliary one to provide him with the most pristine loot were set as his newly created ability of [Loot Drop- Assimilation Crystals] was already working and simply waiting for him to take down his enemies.

Many things were in place as he thought about bringing out the subordinates that had been absorbing Dao Crystals in the Infinite Galaxy, but only a few had managed to bring their comprehensions to 100% as they all still remained in the Low Tier GALAXY Realm!

Due to this and being faced with the pressure of 26 powerful Entities and over 100 Peak Tier Entities behind them, Noah planned to maybe release the Emperor Penguin and others when the odds of the battle were not that dangerous.

He had [Save Point] and multiple other life saving means, while his subordinates were still only budding and had just now barely entered the ranks of power houses. So for this battle...he would take on all of these Entities alone!

The summoned pets that merged with his clones very quickly erupted with power as each of their bodies now held the aura of an Entity, their bodies rumbling with power as they were ready to strike!

The Primal Emperor and his forces still looked towards Noah coldly though, as not a single one made a move.

"Are you done?"

The domineering voice of the Primal Emperor that seemed free of worries rang out.

After surrounding a being with 26 Entities ready to gang up on him, would there ever be a need for someone to worry?

His mystical pairs of wings glimmered sharply as his body shone with l.u.s.ter, the ruler overseeing an entire Ancient Power that had assimilated a large portion of a Lesser Dao exploding out with power as the Entities around him began to move.

"Let me show you despair. Let me give you a taste of the same treatment you gave my people!"

RUMBLE!

The chaotic void quaked at the sight of immense pressures, Noah simply having a bright smile as his hair flung around wildly, the Blue Slime shooting forth from his head as Tiamat's body erupted out and transformed!

"Let's go!!!"

OOOOH!
