

The Mans Decree Novel Chapter 1003

Chapter 1003 A Bunch Of Useless Clowns

Meanwhile, dead bodies were lying in pools of blood at Shadow Estate. One could easily pick up the smell of blood from hundreds of feet away.

Members from the Shalvis family and Thunderstorm Sect had besieged Shadow Estate.

At the moment, only less than twenty men were there to protect Colin and Leviathan. Should the Shalvis family and Thunderstorm Sect continue with the invasion, Shadow Estate would collapse in no time.

“Leviathan, we’ve known each other for decades, yet you, the master of Shadow Estate, decide to side with Kai. Since you’ve decided to make us your enemy, don’t blame me for not showing you mercy!” Steinar glared at Leviathan while pointing his sword at him.

All hell broke loose when Steinar learned that Kai had killed his son in the ancient tomb, but he was afraid of taking it out on Kai since the latter was in the Department of Justice. Steinar also dared not lay his finger on Kai because of Mr. Sanders.

Advertisement

Nonetheless, Steinar would not let it slide so easily. That was why he reached out to the Warriors Alliance and wanted Zion to give him some suggestions on how to proceed.

Likewise, Zeke from Thunderstorm Sect shared the same thought. When he found out Kai had killed his only son, Kenneth, he got in touch with the Warriors Alliance.

Zion took the opportunity to console the two families and won their trust. When Kai refused to hand over the painting, Zion instigated Steinar and Zeke to launch an attack on Shadow Estate.

Since Zion had access to information about all the influential families and Sects in Jadeborough, he knew Kai would eventually step in to assist Shadow Estate because of how close they were.

Advertisement

“Cut the crap, Steinar! Bring it on!” Unfazed by Steinar’s threat, Leviathan stared into Steinar’s eyes.

“I know you’re not afraid of dying, but how about your son? Call Kai right now and get him to come over to Shadow Estate. We might consider letting you off then.”

Zeke added in an icy tone, "We don't have any desire to kill you or your son. Our aim today is to kill Kai!"

"I won't make the call. Even if I managed to get Kai to come to Shadow Estate, you two are no match for him!" Leviathan had absolute confidence in Kai.

Zeke responded with a cold snort. "Do you really think we can't take him down? Seems like you have overestimated that man's ability!"

Steinar and Zeke had yet to take action against Leviathan because their ultimate goal was to kill Kai.

Mr. Sanders might have warned them not to find fault with Kai, but it was impossible for them not to take revenge against the man who killed their sons. Besides, people in Jadeborough and the martial arts world would see them as laughing stock if they failed to avenge their sons.

Not to mention, they had received support from the Warriors Alliance, as Zion had promised them he would speak to Mr. Sanders on their behalf in case the latter was infuriated by their action.

"It's not that I overestimate Mr. Chance's ability, it's just that you guys are nothing but a bunch of useless clowns." Leviathan's eyes narrowed.

Advertisement

"D*mn you! I dare you to say another word!" Zeke exploded with rage.

Tension in Shadow Estate continued to build up.

Zeke gathered all his energy to his palm and was ready to initiate another round of attack.

"Let's see who's the useless clown now!" he roared and released a powerful wave of aura in Leviathan's direction.

Steinar wanted to stop Zeke but to no avail.

"Bring it on!" Although injured, Leviathan still had no intention to give in.

Boom!

Two powerful waves of aura collided, disrupting the airflow in the sky.

Zeke's aura was so powerful that it sent Leviathan flying, causing him to spew a mouthful of blood.

Leviathan had always been a more powerful fighter than Zeke, but since the former had exhausted his martial energy and had sustained serious injuries, he was not able to deal with the blow.

“Dad!” Colin went up and held his father up. His eyes glowed with a towering rage.

The Mans Decree Novel Chapter 1004

Chapter 1004 An Eye For An Eye

Resentment filled Colin’s gaze. He was angry at himself for not being capable enough, for spending his time indulging in sensual pleasures instead of working hard on cultivation, and for not being able to do something for the estate.

“I’ll kill you guys first before killing Kai.”

Zeke thrust his palm out again.

However, Steinar stopped him and shook his head. “Let’s wait until Kai comes. We’ve deliberately let that fellow from Shadow Estate go free just now. I’m sure he has gone to report what happened.”

Zeke withdrew his arm and glared at the father and son duo furiously. “Fine, I shall let you two live a little longer.”

Advertisement

“I think you guys are the ones who will only live a little longer.”

Just then, a booming voice sounded from afar. It contained terrifying spiritual energy that instantly left those guarding outside Shadow Estate collapsing to the ground.

Regardless of Thunderstorm Sect or the Shalvis family, those on guard were merely ordinary members whose capabilities were that of a Grandmaster level. As Kai’s voice reverberated through the air, many instantly plopped dead on the ground.

“Kai?”

Advertisement

Zeke and Steinar looked over at Kai at the same time.

Despite seeing Kai making his way in from the entrance, no one dared do anything and, instead, automatically made way for him.

The sight of the countless dead bodies lying around the estate and the pungent stench of blood in the air poked Kai's nerves badly.

His eyes began to redden with fury, and his body exploded with aura.

"Kai, how dare you still show up after killing my son? I shall avenge my son today!"

Zeke glared at Kai.

"I not only killed your son, but I'll kill you too. I'll wipe out the entire Thunderstorm Sect."

Kai's voice was cold and emotionless, almost as if it had come from the depths of hell.

"What an impudent fool! Beat him up!" Zeke waved his palm as he snarled.

Advertisement

Members of Thunderstorm Sect immediately charged forward and hurled their weapons in their grip toward Kai.

A golden glow emanated from Kai's body. Even as the weapons landed on him, there was no harm caused to him. On the contrary, those weapons had cracked into fragments upon impact.

"I'll kill you all today to make you pay for the sins you have committed."

At once, Kai's body exuded a powerful aura that resembled countless fiery sickles that began charging toward the crowd.

Like an army of ants, the members of Thunderstorm Sect were crushed by that aura so much so that their bodies were torn apart and flew in all directions.

Even the Senior Grandmasters could not escape the same predicament, leaving the entire site in a complete mess as bodies were strewn everywhere.

Kai's eyes were bloodshot, and like a Grim Reaper from the underworld, he was ready to harvest the souls of the living beings before his eyes.

That strong murderous aura from Kai made Zeke's face fall. At one side, Steinar's eyes also popped in horror. He could not believe that Kai's capabilities had improved remarkably within a short period.

"Mr. Chance..."

"Kai..."

Hope reignited within Colin and Leviathan when they saw Kai's appearance.

Kai walked up to the two. Throughout that, no one dared to stop him.

"It must've been hard on the two of you."

The sight of Colin and Leviathan drenched in blood only made the malicious intent surrounding Kai more intense.

"Mr. Chance, it's a great honor to be at your service. It's a pity..." Leviathan's eyes welled with tears. "It's a pity Shadow Estate has turned into nothing. I'm afraid I won't be able to work for you anymore."

"We can always build it again. From today onward, the properties of Thunderstorm Sect and the Shalvis family will also belong to Shadow Estate. I will let the martial arts world in the whole of Jadeborough know about it. Shadow Estate is now mine, and nobody can lay a finger on it."

Finishing his words, Kai turned around, his right hand glimmering with a glow, and right after, the Dragonslayer Sword was manifested instantly in his grip.

The Mans Decree Novel Chapter 1005

Chapter 1005 A Total Massacre

Kai wielded his Dragonslayer Sword, about to go on a killing spree.

Boom!

Following the loud noise, a golden sheen exploded among the crowd.

Kai's presence was similar to that of the judge of the dead as he used his Dragonslayer Sword to decide the fate of those people before him.

Under the sharp blade of the weapon, everyone, regardless of the members of the Shalvis family or Thunderstorm Sect, had instantly turned into shredded meat. The sword energy was so powerful and horrifying that it left some vanishing into thin air, leaving no trails of their bodies behind.

Advertisement

At this point, many were terror-stricken by the scene before them and hastily ran toward the outside. No matter how Zeke and Steinar shouted for them, it did not help or change the situation.

They were petrified, gravely petrified.

“Kai, seems like you have a death wish, huh?” Zeke jumped in front of Kai after watching how his martial trainees died a tragic death.

Completely ignoring Zeke, Kai swung the Dragonslayer Sword in his hand and pointed the flames-engulfed blade toward the former.

Advertisement

Astounded, Zeke hastily rolled over to dodge the attack. Consequently, the impact of Kai’s strike left a deep crevice carved on the ground.

The slightly disheveled-looking Zeke hurriedly got up. Nevertheless, Kai had already appeared before him just as he managed to pick himself up off the ground.

Appalled, Zeke backed off at once. Unfortunately, it was still too late.

Kai swept his hand across the air, sending Zeke’s body circling mid-air for a few rounds before crashing straight onto the ground. Half of his face was sunken.

Steinar was flabbergasted to see that.

Even though Zeke’s capability is slightly weaker, we’re almost on par with each other. Now that he doesn’t seem to have any chance of defending himself, wouldn’t that mean I won’t be of a match to Kai too?

“This brat is too much. I can’t believe his capability has improved tremendously in just a short time.”

Fear crept within Steinar quietly. Not too long ago, he had fought with Kai, where he accidentally let the latter escape because of mere carelessness. The Kai then was still nowhere comparable to him.

However, Steinar could no longer be so sure if he was capable of surviving Kai’s attacks.

Advertisement

It took Zeke a long while to struggle to stand up again. His half-sunken face made him look like a ghost and was, undoubtedly, a terrifying sight to behold.

“That brat is way too powerful, Steinar. Let’s join forces.” Zeke wanted Steinar to work with him in dealing with Kai.

In response, Steinar began moving from his original spot. But in a turn of events, he was darting out of Shadow Estate instead. He figured protecting his life was of utmost concern in that scenario, and something like forming allies with Zeke should take a backseat. I wouldn't be so stupid to do that kind of thing now!

Seeing Steinar turning around and running away, Zeke was utterly bewildered that he stood rooted to the ground for a long time.

"Steinar, you b*stard!" Zeke broke out into a cursing tirade after recovering from his trance.

But he soon found himself unable to get those curses out his mouth as he noticed the Dragonslayer Sword slashing toward his direction.

The spine-chilling sword energy left Zeke shuddering uncontrollably. Before he even realize it, that raging energy had come right in front of him, leaving him no room for escape.

That strike lopped off Zeke's head effortlessly. The impact was so significant that his head flew out into the air.

It then landed straight onto the ground and rolled right before Steinar's feet, scaring him out of his wits.

The gory scene of Zeke's head only made Steinar increase his speed almost instantaneously.

A spooky sensation blanketed the atmosphere. The martial trainees of Thunderstorm Sect scattered in fear as they saw no point in staying after Zeke's demise.

"Do you think you can leave?"

With his eyes fixed in the direction where Steinar was escaping, Kai leaped into the air.

On the way, he killed everyone in his path. Everyone from the Thunderstorm Sect and the Shalvis family deserves to die!

In the blink of an eye, dead bodies were lying everywhere along the hillside on the other end of Shadow Estate. Kai's ruthlessness had left the members of the two sects fleeing their way, escaping for their lives.

"Wrea, J-Kai's making his way here!"

Wrea almost peed his pants when he saw Kai chasing after him like deicide.

He had been keeping quiet throughout the situation. But at this point, he could no longer pull himself together after seeing the massacre Kai caused and the scene of Zeke's head rolling on the ground.

The Mans Decree Novel Chapter 1006

Chapter 1006 Playing The Same Old Trick

Catching sight of how Kai's merciless slaughter had taken the lives of almost all of his disciples, Steinar suddenly stopped in his tracks and bellowed, "Listen up, members of the Shalvis family. No one is allowed to run anymore. Stay put with me and kill Kai."

As soon as his words rang out, many from the Shalvis family brought themselves to a halt. Several of the elder Martial Arts Grandmasters gathered themselves around Steinar.

In the next second, Kai swayed his Dragonslayer Sword, and its energy blasted in every direction like a brewing storm, instantly killing many of the disciples of the Shalvis family.

A burst of golden brilliance that was extremely blinding to the eyes surrounded Kai. Those scales glistening on his body surrounded him like a set of armor.

Stepping on the corpses, Kai, looking like the Harbinger of Death, was instantaneously before Steinar.

Advertisement

Faced with Kai's appearance, Steinar's expression soured.

Despite having several Martial Arts Grandmasters beside him for protection, he still felt his heart thumping vigorously.

Yet, he knew running away was no longer an option; he had to fight to his death.

Taking a deep breath to suppress the immense fear deep inside him, Steinar uttered coldly, "Kai, you've not only killed my son but even my disciples too. I shall fight to the death with you today!"

Advertisement

Kai, looking expressionless, unhurriedly responded, "You're unworthy to fight against me. One strike from me will leave you dead immediately."

As he spoke, an immense aura rose from his entire being. The outburst of spiritual energy soon gathered a strong gust of whirlwind, leaving Steinar and the other members of the Shalvis family feeling their hearts skip a beat.

"Kai, maybe we should talk it out first..." Sensing the burning rage within Kai, Steinar thought it was wiser to compromise.

“What is there for us to f*cking talk about?” Kai snapped and hurled his sword out.

The feeling of the terrifying sword energy was so overwhelming Steinar hurriedly threw himself to the side in an attempt to dodge it.

Unfortunately, Steinar’s efforts were still futile when faced with that massive burst of energy. Multiple cuts were left across his torso, and blood flowed profusely.

Shifting his gaze to the wounds on his body, Steinar scrunched his brows.

“Kai, w-where did your power come from? H-How is it possible that your strike holds such immense power?”

Steinar gaped at Kai in total shock. He thought the latter’s capabilities were almost as good as that of a Top Level Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Advertisement

From one glance, it’s obvious he’s of a beginner standard. So how did he manage to become so powerful suddenly?

In fact, Steinar had seen many Leap-level Slayers—martial artists capable of battling against opponents of one or two levels above them. But someone like Kai who could leap a few levels was a rare gem, and, without a doubt, Steinar had never come across one before.

“You don’t need to know about that. All you need to know is that you’ll be on your way to meet your son soon!” Kai’s face was cold and indifferent.

“Hmph! Aren’t you getting a little too cocky? Do you think you’re the only one who has such power?” Steinar scoffed.

“What else can you do? Feel free to show me.” Kai glowered at Steinar as though he was looking at someone who was on the brink of death.

Judging from the look in Kai’s eyes, Steinar figured he had no other way out. He stepped backward and roared, “Get in position!”

Upon that, the four Martial Arts Grandmasters of the Shalvis family pulled out their shortsword simultaneously and stabbed it onto the ground forcefully. The next moment, four visibly apparent rays gleam from the weapons.

Alongside the rays of light, an imposing aura descended upon the area.

Following that thrilling pressure laced with murderous intent, an enormous arcane array soon surrounded Kai and Steinar.

At the sight of the arcane array gradually forming, Kai lifted the corner of his lips into a nonchalant smirk.

Steinar has already used this arcane array when dealing with me the other time. But now he wants to play the same trick on me again?

“Don’t you have new tricks? You can’t do anything with me using this formation the last time, and it’ll be the same this time too!” Kai displayed a cold smile as he looked at Steinar.