Chapter 1271 Assassination

The famous restaurant in Jadeborough was the favorite spot where many martial artists loved to hang out. While everyone enjoyed their dinner, two shapely and beautiful ladies entered the restaurant and instantly attracted everyone's attention.

The ladies, namely Melanie and Lyanna, ignored their gazes and took their seats. They didn't visit the restaurant for food but with an ulterior motive.

After sitting down, Lyanna and Melanie fixated their gazes on two adults who had their meals not far from them. Apart from Martial Arts Grandmasters' aura, the words "Norton" was embroidered on their sleeves.

Given the special outfit, the two adults undoubtedly came from the Norton family.

After a while, a waitress came over and asked Lyanna and Melanie, "Ladies, what would you like to order?"

"Oh, I'm sorry. We're waiting for someone and will order later," Lyanna replied to the waitress.

After the waitress turned around and left without saying a word, Melanie and Lyanna continued staring at the two Nortons.

Upon noticing the gazes, the two Nortons turned around to look at Melanie and Lyanna.

The two of them exchanged glances and flashed each other a wry smile. Then, they stood up in unison and sat at the same table with Melanie and Lyanna.

"Young ladies, would you mind if we sit here with you?" one of them asked.

"Of course not. Why would we say no if someone is willing to pay the bill?"

Lyanna smiled and winked flirtatiously at the one who stood next to her.

Instantly, the man looked at Lyanna with his gleaming eyes and a grin on his face.

The other man who sat beside Melanie was also mesmerized by her alluring gaze.

"Boys, it's too packed here. Shall we go to another place?" Lyanna suggested.

Deep down, she knew the two Nortons had been seduced by them.

“Sure...”

Both of them nodded in response.

Soon, Melanie and Lyanna left the restaurant with the two men.

After they entered an alley, Lizbeth suddenly emerged and waved her dagger.

The next moment, the two Nortons collapsed and lay in a pool of blood.

After murdering them, Lizbeth and the rest quickly fled the scene to look for their next target.

They resorted to the method of slowly killing every Norton.

In merely two days, they had killed more than ten people from the Norton family with the same method.

Meanwhile, David paced up and down with uneasiness in the living room of the Norton residence.

In just two days, more than a dozen people in the Norton family had died.

Even though only a few in Jadeborough’s martial arts world would dare to lay a finger on them, David still had no idea who the mastermind was.

“Trash! All of you are a bunch of trash! Why can’t you find any clues after two days?” David roared at the higher-ups of the Norton family.

In that situation, everyone only lowered their heads and kept mum.

“Dad, it’s clear that the mastermind is targeting the Norton family. Based on my investigation, two women are likely to be responsible for it!” Skylar said to David.

David frowned upon hearing it. “Two women? Some of those who died were Martial Arts Grandmasters. Which women are stronger than them?”

“The two ladies aren’t strong enough. Among a dozen of Nortons who died, only two of them were Martial Arts Grandmasters. After we keep our guards up, they only targeted Senior Grandmasters.”

Skylar paused for a while and added, “Hence, they are not strong. It was likely that they could kill the two Martial Arts Grandmasters by seducing them to let their guards down.”

“Continue to investigate and find the two women at all costs. I want to know who the hell targets the Norton family...” David bellowed.

Skylar nodded in response and left to investigate the matter with his subordinates.

Chapter 1272 I Am Still Alive

In Jadeborough's Department of Justice, Mr. Sanders knew a dozen of the Nortons had been killed. "Theodore, who do you think is the culprit?" he asked Theodore.

"Mr. Sanders, I don't have a firm answer. However, David killed Mr. Chance not long ago, and Mr. Chance used to have many loyal subordinates. Therefore, anyone from the Village of Villains, Shadow Estate, and Medicine God Sect could be our suspect. Nevertheless, I guess the culprit isn't that strong, for he only murdered Senior Grandmasters after killing two Martial Arts Grandmasters," Theodore analyzed.

"By the way, I wonder why Kai had such a strong charisma that could make so many people stay loyal to him..." Mr. Sanders said in bewilderment.

Theodore shook his head and responded, "I'm not sure about it. As far as I know, they respected Mr. Chance and always abided by his orders."

"Do you think everything that happened in the past two days was done by Kai?" Mr. Sanders suddenly asked.

Theodore was startled for a while before replying, "Mr. Sanders, are you suspecting that Mr. Chance is still alive?"

"I still find it difficult to believe Kai would die so easily!" Mr. Sanders said and heaved a sigh.

Confidently, Theodore shook his head and answered, "I'm sure it wasn't done by Mr. Chance. In fact, he might have made an entrance by barging into the Norton residence and fighting David to the end. Assassinating someone in the dark is just not Mr. Chance's style."

Before Theodore could finish, Kai came into the room while laughing heartily. "Haha. I never thought General Jackson could understand me so well..."

Theodore widened his eyes in disbelief upon seeing Kai.

"Mr.-Mr. Chance, are y-you still alive?"

Theodore couldn't believe his eyes. Based on the pictures he saw earlier, Kai's body was severely injured beyond the point of recognition.

"Mr. Sanders is right. How can I possibly die so easily?"

Then, Kai smiled and slightly bowed at Mr. Sanders to greet him. “Mr. Sanders—”

Meanwhile, Mr. Sanders burst into a fit of laughter. “Hahaha. It appears that my guess was right. You won’t die so easily! Not only do you stay alive, but you have also made a breakthrough.”

Mr. Sanders was delighted upon knowing that Kai was alive.

“Yes, I’ve achieved Martial Arts Marquis.” Kai nodded.

“Mr. Chance, what happened? David boasted that he killed you and even backed his claim with photos! Also, are you related to the recent assassinations of members of the Norton family?”

Feeling bewildered, Theodore wished to find out the truth.

Kai had no intention of hiding it and slowly explained what happened during his battle with David. Theodore and Mr. Sanders couldn’t help but feel nervous as they listened to him.

Later, Theodore was shocked when he knew Kai had obtained an unexpected reward—becoming a Martial Arts Marquis.

“As for the Nortons who had been assassinated, I have no idea who is behind it. After all, I’ve just arrived at Jadeborough today and heard it from others.”

It took him three days to rush to Jadeborough.

Once Kai set foot in the city, he didn’t head toward the Norton residence but came to the Department of Justice instead. He intended to spread the news that he was still alive.

Moreover, he intended to humiliate David in the martial arts forum to establish his authority.

“Kai, what do you plan to do next since you’ve chosen to come back?” Mr. Sanders asked Kai.

Kai’s expression turned frosty as he said coldly, “I want to challenge David and the entire Norton family. I want everyone to know the consequences of offending me!”

Mr. Sanders sensed Kai’s murderous aura and didn’t utter a word.

Chapter 1273 Challenge The Entire Norton family

After a while, Theodore said, “Mr. Chance, you’ve just become a Martial Arts Marquis. I think you shouldn’t underestimate the Norton family, for they are—”

Suddenly, Kai waved his hand and interjected, “I know! I understand there will always be someone better out there. However, I dare challenge the Norton family not because I’m arrogant. The fact is every Norton deserves to die.”

Just as Theodore wanted to add something, Mr. Sanders stopped him.

“Since Kai wants to challenge the Norton family, let him be. Theodore, please announce the challenge for him. Make it clear that no other families and sects are allowed to interfere with the challenge. Otherwise, don’t blame me for what happens next!” Mr. Sanders said to Theodore.

After all, Mr. Sanders knew Kai had a lot of enemies in Jadeborough apart from the Norton family.

Other sects and families would take the opportunity to pounce on Kai if he were severely injured after going against the Norton family.

In other words, Mr. Sanders intended to help him to resolve the unnecessary troubles.

“Thank you, Mr. Sanders.”

Kai understood that Mr. Sanders wanted to help him.

“Don’t mention it. After all, I’m also helping myself when I help you,” Mr. Sanders said.

Although Kai didn’t know Mr. Sanders’s rationale behind it, he was grateful for the assistance.

After leaving the Department of Justice, Kai began investigating what happened to the Norton family in the past two days.

In particular, he was eager to find out who targeted the Norton family.

At the same time, Theodore released the news about Kai’s return to Jadeborough and his challenge against the Norton family on the martial arts forum based on Mr. Sanders’ instruction.

In addition, Theodore also published Mr. Sanders’ announcement to warn all martial arts families to not interfere when Kai went up against the Norton family.

As expected, the announcement stirred up chaos in the martial arts world.

All martial artists who heard about Kai's death two days ago were shocked to know that he had returned to Jadeborough and wished to throw a gauntlet at the Norton family.

Even though there were no photos of Kai to prove the claim, everyone wouldn't question the credibility of the Department of Justice after the announcement was made.

Being a government agency, the Department of Justice had no reason to disseminate fake news.

Instantly, the Norton family was caught in the eye of the storm. Many ridiculed David for lying and forging photos because he failed to kill Kai.

David almost spat out blood when he read the messages on the forum.

David vividly remembered he had destroyed Kai's elixir field and crushed all his bones.

Kai was confirmed dead, for he had stopped breathing.

Why would he suddenly claim to have returned to Jadeborough and publicly challenges our family?

"Impossible! It can't be! I'm sure it's fake news!" David shouted furiously.

"Dad, since the announcement was made by the Department of Justice, I don't think it's fake news." Skylar analyzed.

The next moment, David stared at Skylar with his widened eyes. "What do you mean by that? If it isn't fake news, does it mean I lied?"

"No. That's not what I meant..." Skylar quickly shook his head.

Deep down, he was afraid when facing his father.

"I won't believe Kai is still alive. He will be a cripple even if he does!"

David believed his eyes rather than the news on the forum.

After a while, David asked Skylar, "Anyway, let's not be bothered by the forum for now. Have you found the two women?"

"I've located the two women and sent my subordinates to catch them. I believe they will be back soon," Skylar reported.

"All right. Once the women are caught, I will strip them naked and force them to walk around the streets to humiliate them." David gnashed his teeth so hard as he spoke.

“Leave one of them to me after your subordinates have caught them. I haven’t indulged myself for quite some time...”

At that moment, a croaky voice suddenly popped into Skylar’s mind.

Skylar was startled and hastily glanced at David. He put his mind at ease after realizing David didn’t notice the change in his expression.

Chapter 1274 Failed

As night had fallen and the weather was slightly cold, the street in Jadeborough was not as busy. Lizbeth and her two partners hid in an alley, waiting for the Nortons to pass by the place.

Since two Nortons had entered a restaurant on the street earlier, Lizbeth believed they would soon come out. Soon, two drunken men came up to them while supporting each other from the other side of the street.

They were none other than the Nortons for which Lizbeth and her partners had been waiting. “They’re coming. Since the two Nortons are drunk, we can take them down easily,” Melanie whispered as soon as she saw them coming.

Lyanna held Melanie’s hand and walked out of the alley.

“Be careful. The two Nortons are likely to be Martial Arts Grandmasters,” Lizbeth reminded them.

Lizbeth and others successfully took down two Martial Arts Grandmasters earlier only because they were mentally unprepared.

Now that the Norton family had kept their guards up, it wasn’t easy to lay a finger on Martial Arts Grandmasters anymore.

“No worries. Since they are drunk, we can finish them off easily,” Lyanna assured her confidently.

As the two Nortons staggered toward the alley, Lyanna and Melanie went up to greet them.

“Hey, handsome! Where are you guys heading to?” Lyanna asked while raising her eyebrows coquettishly.

Meanwhile, a glint flashed across the Nortons' eyes once Lyanna and Melanie came into sight.

"Hahaha. What a surprise to bump into two beautiful ladies tonight! Well, I happen to feel a little bored. Can you come with me to have fun together?"

One of them snickered lustfully and wanted to grab Lyanna's arm.

Lyanna quickly dodged him and said, "What's the rush? Let's look for a place. After all, we can't do it on the street!"

Then, Lyanna and Melanie winked flirtatiously at the two Nortons in unison.

A glint of excitement flashed across the Nortons' eyes but was soon replaced by dullness due to their state of mind.

Thinking they had successfully seduced the Nortons, Lyanna sneered and took out her dagger.

At the same time, Lizbeth also rushed out of the alley to act with Lyanna.

At that juncture, the men's eyes suddenly lit up. The next moment, they seized Lyanna and Lizbeth effortlessly.

The dramatic turn of events shocked Lyanna, Lizbeth, and Melanie.

"Hey, what are you doing?" Melanie asked one of the Nortons gently while trying to seduce him.

"Humph! Your tricks do not work on us!"

Another Norton quickly caught Melanie by her arm.

The three girls panicked upon realizing the Nortons didn't fall into their trap.

"Ah, so that's why. Many of the Nortons died in your hands under this method. Now, let us take you guys to meet Mr. Norton."

The two Nortons restrained Lizbeth along with the other and dragged them to the end of the street.

They tried hard to break free but to no avail. Given that the Nortons were Martial Arts Grandmasters, they had no chance to wriggle free.

As they almost reached the end of the street, the Nortons suddenly noticed a man standing with his back against them.

Immediately, the Nortons exuded a strong aura and braced themselves for a battle.

Moments later, one of them walked toward the man and asked, "Dude, who are you? We are from the Norton family!"

"Release the three ladies," said the man as he slowly turned around.

Upon seeing the man's face, Lizbeth and the other ladies widened their eyes and got emotional.

Chapter 1275 Flirtatious Behaviour

"Kai... Kai..." Lizbeth and the other two girls cried out as they were too excited and surprised to see him. The girls could not believe their eyes when they saw that it was Kai.

Lizbeth was trembling and her voice was hoarse. When the two Norton family members heard that the man was none other than Kai, their faces turned pale!

"You... You are Kai? Aren't you already dead?" One of the Norton men asked with a trembling voice.

"I was dead, but I have come back to life!"

There was a playful smile on Kai's face as he approached them slowly.

"D-don't. come any closer or else, I'll harm them!"

The two Norton men quickly subdued Lizbeth and the other girls with the intention of using them as hostages.

However, Kai did not stop. Instead, he continued to move forward.

"Let all three of them go, and I'll let you live. If you dare harm even a strand of their hair, I'll make you wish you were dead!"

Kai's voice was calm and controlled, but every word struck fear in the hearts of the two Norton men!

"Stay right there. Don't come any closer..." One of the Norton men panicked and trembled violently.

Even though he was a Martial Arts Grandmaster, he felt terrified!

"Are you turning a deaf ear to my instructions? I asked you to let the three of them go..."

Kai's expression turned dark, and in an instant, he looked like a killer about to strike!

A gust of wind blew past Kai, bringing with it the aura of his intention to kill which he exuded towards the two Norton men.

The two men trembled, feeling as if they had fallen into ice water.

"Let them go..." Suddenly, Kai let out a thunderous roar.

In shock, the two men let go of the girls and fell kneeling on the ground with a thud.

Lizbeth and the other girls raced to hide behind Kai.

"Don't kill us. We are just obeying orders..." The two Norton men started begging for their lives.

At that point, the two Martial Arts Grandmasters had turned into frightened little children begging Kai to let them off.

Without moving a finger, Kai had torn down the two men's dignity solely by the aura that emanated from his body.

"I've already said that if you let them go, I shall let you go..."

"You can go now and tell David that tomorrow I shall personally be at his doorstep to exact revenge!" Kai spoke in an icy tone.

On hearing that, the two Norton men turned around and fled. They were so frightened that they hastened off without any hesitation.

"Kai..."

After the two Norton men were gone, Lizbeth buried herself in Kai's arms.

She could not help it as teardrops started to roll down her cheeks.

As Lyanna watched Kai hugging Lizbeth, she experienced emotions that could not be described in words.

She wanted to lie in Kai's arms too, just as she desired to have someone to rely on.

However, that was not for her. From the experiences she had been through since her childhood, she had become stronger than most other girls.

"Don't cry, please. Look! I'm fine."

Kai gently consoled Lizbeth.

“I thought you were really dead and I did not want to go on living anymore. I want to be with you...” said Lizbeth as she cried.

“I’m not going to die just like that. I haven’t even slept with beautiful women yet, so I’m not prepared to die...” Kai said jokingly.

At that, Lizbeth blushed deeply, and she punched him softly. “Don’t talk nonsense. We are not alone...”

“That’s enough. You two should stop flirting because we have to hurry home, or else Mr. Deragon will start worrying.” Melanie could not bear it any longer at that point, so she spoke up.

“Is Mr. Deragon here as well?”

Kai was rather shocked. After all, Rayleigh had lost his powers and had become just an ordinary person. It was dangerous for him to be in Jadeborough.

If the Deragons discover his whereabouts, he would certainly be abducted and tortured.
