

The Mans Decree Chapter 1339

Chapter 1339 You Will Never Escape

Thump! Thump! Thump! The two kept slamming into each other, and every collision made the space around them twist and tremble.

Boom! Yet another collision before the two of them moved away from each other. By then, the Golem Body on Kai was barely present. Wounds were also starting to mar his body.

Read more

What was worse was Kai's fists, which were also mutilated and bloody. It was a terrifying sight. In contrast, Zion was mostly unscathed. However, when he took out his Martial Arts Marquis magical item, he was shocked to realize that cracks had manifested on it.

The moment Zion took it out, the magical item shattered into a million pieces and fell to the ground. It was only then Kai realized that Zion had been fighting him with the power of the magical item.

Kai narrowed his eyes and growled out, "You were pulling a fast one on me."

"Pulling a fast one on you?" Zion curled his lips. "Hahaha! I never promised you anything, so how could I have tricked you? Feel free to take out your magical item for the battle as well. Nevertheless, no matter what you use, you're going to die today!"

Zion had made up his mind to kill Kai. After all, if Kai lived, Zion would die.

Therefore, the moment he said that, he lunged toward Kai again.

By then, Kai was already grievously injured, so Zion did not think of him as a threat anymore.

At that, Kai abruptly took out his Dragonslayer Sword and held it across his chest.

Clang! came the clear sound before Kai was pushed backward, his feet leaving two long furrows in the ground.

At the same time, Zion could feel his wrist going numb. In response, he stared at the Dragonslayer Sword in Kai's hands with narrowed eyes.

By the time Kai regained his balance, cold sweat had beaded on his forehead. He was glad that he had taken out Dragonslayer Sword to block the blow for him. Otherwise, if Zion's punch had landed on him, he would suffer from internal injuries even if he did not die from it.

“Hmph! There’s nothing that can save you!”

The intensity of the aura in Zion’s body skyrocketed, and he launched himself toward Kai again.

Kai did not seem to have the intention to dodge. As a matter of fact, he seemed to be contemplating something.

Just as Zion was about to reach him, Kai suddenly kept his Dragonslayer Sword before puffing up his chest.

Zion did not know what Kai was trying to do, but he did not halt in his tracks as he smashed his fist into Kai’s chest.

Kai coughed out a mouthful of blood. Even his organs felt as if they were going to rupture. Then, in the next second, he flew backward like a kite with its string cut.

When he was midair, he gritted his teeth and abruptly summoned the spiritual energy in his elixir field. Then, he kicked against a tree and launched himself a distance away.

Kai had used the force from Zion’s punch to boost his speed as he fled.

However, Zion did not panic when he noticed Kai running off. Instead, an amused smile curled his lips.

Kai turned and saw Zion looking at him, but to his surprise, Zion was not coming after him. That baffled him.

All of a sudden, Kai crashed into something and fell to the ground.

When Kai focused his eyes on the spot in front of him, he realized that the few men Zion brought with him had set up the Heavenly Net nearby. As it turned out, Kai had hit the glowing barrier earlier.

Zion laughed boisterously at Kai’s disheveled state.

“Hahaha! You never thought you’ll end up like this, did you? I did say that you’re not going to escape today! Do you have any last words? I can convey them to your girlfriend. Once your girlfriend has run out of her usefulness, I’ll send her to hell to meet you there!” Zion mocked as he looked at Kai. He was sure that Kai was doomed.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1340

The mention of Josephine made Kai's face turn purple from rage. "I'm going to kill you!" Kai yelled. He then took a deep breath and unleashed the golden light from his body.

The wounds on Kai's body healed at a rapid rate before a beam of light flickered to life on his chest. As Kai slowly lifted his hands, a golden dragon appeared and hovered above him.

Read more

"Sacred Light Fist!" Kai bellowed. The golden dragon let out a beastly roar before rushing toward Zion. However, there was no trace of fear on Zion's face as the dragon approached him. With a swift punch, Zion dissipated the golden dragon.

Then, Zion strode over with a scowl on his face. "I'm not going to keep playing this game with you anymore. Go to hell!"

Kai paled. Not daring to waste a single second, he quickly shot out a fist.

Boom! came the explosive sound.

Zion had gathered all of his martial energy into that hit, planning to end Kai's life with that strike.

Something snapped in Kai's arm, and he flew backward. However, he hit something in midair and ended up crashing to the ground.

Kai's arm had been fractured, and the aura in his body was thrown into disarray, beginning to course to various random spots. At the same time, he kept retching up blood.

By then, Kai could barely see the scene in front of him clearly. Even his consciousness was hazy.

"No, I can't die... I can't!"

Kai promptly bit the tip of his tongue to sober himself up.

With much difficulty, he clambered to his feet. Zion was a little surprised by how Kai still managed to stand up.

As Kai stared at Zion, he muttered, "It seems like I'll have to bring you to hell with me."

With that said, he closed his eyes and mumbled under his breath.

Soon, Kai's wilting aura intensified again.

Moreover, the dim golden glow around him became radiant as well.

“He’s burning up his blood essence?”

Zion could see that Kai was going for a last-ditch effort by burning his blood essence.

In the next moment, Kai lifted his palm, and the golden glow around his body began condensing into a glowing orb in his palm.

The glowing orb released waves of heat that spread in all directions. Then, the trees around them started to wilt as if their moisture had been sucked out of them.

Zion could not help but furrow his brows when he observed that. The alarm bells in his head were starting to go off.

He never thought that Kai’s last attempt to fight back would be of this intensity.

Thus, Zion quickly amped up his own aura before somberly looking at Kai.

Both parties knew that the next attack would be the last blow, so they were putting in all of their might.

The glowing orb in Kai’s palm grew bigger and bigger until its radiance seemed to be swallowing up everything around it.

In the next second, Kai’s eyes flew open. With an angry cry, he threw the glowing orb at Zion to the best of his ability.

The rolling heat waves almost baked the people alive, and the Heavenly Net around them shattered and vanished.

In the meantime, Zion was protected by a layer of faint purple light.

Boom!

The glowing orb exploded, and no one could open their eyes due to its blinding light. Like the explosion of a bomb, its heat waves sent everyone flying away from it.

Slowly, the shockwaves faded, and a huge crater appeared on the ground. The purple barrier around Zion shattered at that moment, and he was sent airborne as well.

By the time he rose to his feet again, he was far from his earlier unmarred state. Moreover, the three subordinates he had brought along were bleeding from their orifices. Their faces were sunken in and dried up. They had been roasted alive.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1341

Chapter 1341 Rebirth

The veins on Zion's temple popped. He never thought that Kai's last attack would be that mighty. When he cast his eyes to the spot a short distance away from him, he saw Kai lying on the ground, motionless.

After inching his way there, he found out that Kai was no longer breathing, and the latter was covered in injuries. "F*ck, this boy is ruthless. I can't believe he tried to kill me at the expense of his life," Zion swore as he looked at Kai's body.

Read more

Nevertheless, he was relieved that Kai was dead, for he could finally hand in a report to his higher-ups. Just as Zion was about to turn and leave, he suddenly paused in his tracks, seemingly having thought about something.

Then, he turned around and returned to Kai before lifting his foot. The next thing he did was slam his foot down on Kai's chest. A hole immediately formed on Kai's chest, revealing the organs in his body. It was only then Zion was certain that Kai was dead.

He was afraid that the other man would suddenly pop back into the living world. After all, David had supposedly killed Kai a while back and even took photos of the latter's body. Yet, somehow, Kai returned to life.

Zion was fearful that Kai would come back to life after he left, and that was why he had stomped on Kai's body. Not even God would be able to save Kai in this state. And so, Zion left in relief.

Once again, news of Kai's death spread across the martial arts forum. The last time that happened, David was the one who posted it. This time, it was the Warriors Alliance.

Kai has already died twice before. I wonder if this time's permanent.

Warriors Alliance is the one who announced his death this time, and President Zeigler was the one who killed him, so I doubt there's any mistake there.

Kai's insane. He just had to cross Warriors Alliance. He really had a death wish.

Kai was murdered the moment Mr. Sanders stopped supporting him. This is how the real world works...

The people were in a heated discussion on the martial arts forum, but most had chosen to trust Warriors Alliance.

After all, Zion was the one who killed Kai himself. It was highly unlikely that Kai would survive.

Both the people of the Village of Villains and Medicine God Sect were devastated upon discovering Kai's death.

Even Cecilia and Millie of Crimson Palace were taken aback when they heard the news. They could not believe that Kai was no longer with them in this world. After all, he had once promised to visit them.

Meanwhile, Kai's body was lying in the wilderness. It had been three days since the battle, but the scent of blood was still thick there.

A few eagles circled the air in the vicinity. They had noticed the corpses on the ground.

After making sure that there was no danger lurking around, the eagles flew down and began digging into the bodies of the Warriors Alliance members.

One of the eagles walked toward Kai. When it saw the bloody hole in Kai's chest and the exposed organs, it opened its beak and pecked downward.

Right then, a beam of white light flickered from inside Kai's body, scaring the eagle away.

In Kai's body, a palm-sized Nascent Soul flickered with white rays. The chest of the Nascent Soul had a visible bloody hole as well.

The white light proceeded to cover the Nascent Soul before covering Kai's entire body as well.

Then, the wounds on his body started to recover. Even the ruptured organs were regrowing.

After what seemed like forever, Kai's finger abruptly moved. A moment later, he slowly opened his eyes.

Kai let out a heavy sigh as he gazed at the dim sky.

After climbing to his feet with some difficulty, he began studying his uninjured body. At last, he smiled.

He had never experienced the rebirth of his flesh body. When Kai had chosen to kill Zion at the expense of his life, he had been afraid that he might die for good.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1342

Chapter 1342 Work With Me

After all, the idea that the flesh body was invincible as long as the Nascent Soul was intact was only a legend. Before the fight with Zion, Kai had never found out for himself whether or not that legend was true.

Nevertheless, after the event, Kai finally knew that the legend was real. After scanning his surroundings, Kai realized there were three bodies around—the bodies of the Warriors Alliance members. However, there was no sign of Zion, so that meant he had not died.

Read more

“That old man’s truly tough,” Kai cursed under his breath before hurrying his way to Crimson Palace. At Wildefield, near the borders of the Southwest Region.

Although the city was not a huge one, it was an important city by the borders. Moreover, there were plenty of mountains and forests around, so there were many sects and prestigious families living there.

Ever since Kai had killed Richard of the Divine Beast Sect, Divine Beast Sect had fallen from grace and lost its status as the top sect in the south.

Desmond had taken over Divine Beast Sect, but it would take him quite a while before he could bring the sect back to its former glory. One day, while Desmond was dealing with Divine Beast Sect’s affairs, one of the members reported to him in a hurry.

“Lord Cowper, Colton of Wildefield’s Rider family has requested an audience,” the man said. “Colton Rider? Why has he come to our sect?”

Desmond was baffled. After all, the Divine Beast Sect had no relationship with the Rider family at all. Moreover, the Rider family had always claimed itself as the top wealthy family in the south and was relatively hostile toward the Divine Beast Sect.

Hence, a sense of foreboding descended over Desmond at the Riders’ sudden visit.

“Lord Cowper, what do we do?” the man asked when he saw Desmond frowning in silence.

“Let them in,” Desmond finally said.

Desmond had just taken over the Divine Beast Sect. Moreover, many old members had left, so the Divine Beast Sect was far from its original powerful state.

Hence, he decided not to cross the Rider family. Otherwise, the Divine Beast Sect would not be able to stay there anymore.

Soon, a middle-aged man was led into the building along with two subordinates behind him.

Upon seeing him, Desmond quickly stood up to greet him.

“Mr. Colton, what a surprise to see you at the Divine Beast Sect!” Desmond politely uttered.

“Lord Cowper, you’ve taken over the Divine Beast Sect, so we, the Riders, should come to congratulate you. However, we were a little too busy previously, so we only managed to come now,” Colton said with a small smile on his face.

“You’re too nice, Mr. Colton. Please take a seat!”

Desmond hurriedly invited Colton to sit down before instructing his men to pour a cup of tea for Colton.

After a while of small talk, Colton said, “Lord Cowper, I hear that the Divine Beast Sect has allied itself with Crimson Palace.”

Desmond nodded when he heard that. “Yes, we’re now in an alliance.”

“That’s good, that’s good,” Colton commented. “I’ve always admired Lady Jingle of Crimson Palace, but I never had the chance to meet her. That’s why I’ve come here; I wanted to ask you, Lord Cowper, to recommend me to Lady Jingle. Of course, I won’t ask for a favor without any intention of returning it. Once you connect me with Lady Jingle, my family will be willing to provide you with a hundred enhancement pills.”

Then, he turned and stared right at Desmond.

Desmond’s eyes lit up when he heard that Colton would be providing him with a hundred enhancement pills. However, he knew what Colton wanted from Cecilia.

In Wildefield and even the entire Southwest Region, Colton was infamous for his perversion. Colton had over a dozen wives, but they were still not enough for him.

Desmond would essentially be pushing Cecilia into hell by recommending Colton to her.

However, Desmond’s stance wavered in the face of a hundred enhancement pills.

“Lord Cowper, I know what you’re hesitating about. Are you worried about Kai? Let me tell you this—Kai’s long dead. He has been killed by President Zeigler of Warriors Alliance. Therefore, your only choice is to work with me. You should know that the Riders will have no trouble destroying the Divine Beast Sect with how weak you are right now.”

It seemed like Colton had come prepared.