

The Mans Decree Chapter 1347

Chapter 1347 Pretending

“This is impossible. It must be fake. That person must be impersonating him.” As Desmond spoke, he got to his feet and walked out of the building. However, he did not dare to reveal himself right away.

Desmond wanted to make sure if the visitor was actually Kai. If it were really the latter, then he would have to come up with a plan.

Read more

Desmond took a peep outside when he arrived at the door. Meanwhile, Kai was standing right in front of the door, frowning. “What’s up with Desmond? Why is he dilly-dallying when he already knows I’m here?” he mumbled under his breath.

Kai had already announced his arrival long ago, but he was still not granted entry. All that made his temper flare.

Losing his patience, he released his spiritual sense and immediately detected Desmond, who was spying on him.

Kai was confused by the discovery. He could not understand why Desmond was secretly observing him instead of letting him in when the latter already knew about his arrival.

Could this punk have done something wrong?

At the same time, Desmond’s legs went weak, and his forehead was covered with sweat as soon as he confirmed it was Kai standing in front of the door.

Noting Desmond’s odd behavior, the disciple called out softly, “Lord Cowper...”

“Bring Mr. Chance in. And don’t tell him I already know about his arrival,” informed Desmond.

The disciple nodded and left. Meanwhile, Desmond quickly returned to the hall and took several deep breaths.

Feeling it was about time for him to head out, Desmond marched toward the exit. Coincidentally, Kai had stepped into the hall.

Desmond said politely, “Mr. Chance! I was about to go out to welcome you. I didn’t expect you to have entered. Please, have a seat.”

Desmond poured Kai a cup of coffee. After all, the former had witnessed Kai's capabilities with his own eyes in the past.

Kai eyed Desmond coldly without blinking, sending chills down the latter's spine. Even beads of sweat were trickling from his forehead.

"Mr. Chance, may I know what's the purpose of your sudden visit at this hour?" Desmond asked anxiously.

"Lord Cowper, did Ms. Jingle come here today?" asked Kai.

"Yes. I had something to discuss with Lady Jingle. However, she left before nightfall. What's wrong? Did she not return to the palace?" Desmond asked, feigning surprise.

Kai nodded. "She didn't. Can I know what was the important matter you had to discuss with Ms. Jingle?"

Desmond tried his best to recollect himself before explaining, "Oh, it's nothing much. It's just that Mr. Rider, I mean Colton of the Rider family, came looking for me a few days ago. He wanted me to introduce him to her, but I rejected him. I was worried the Rider family would stir trouble for me, so I invited Lady Jingle to come here and discuss it. I wanted to get her opinion on how we should deal with them in case they come looking for me for trouble."

"The Rider family?" Kai knitted his brows. He had no knowledge about the Rider family of Wildefield.

Then again, there were countless sects and families in the Southwest Region. Thus, it was normal for Kai not to know about all of them.

"The Rider family is the most wealthy family in Wildefield. In the past, both their family and my sect would never stand in each other's way. Now that Divine Beast Sect's powers have been reduced greatly..." Desmond trailed off and stopped talking. Nonetheless, Kai knew what Desmond wanted to say.

Without their powers, they would naturally be bullied by others.

That was the harsh reality of the martial arts world. Everything depended on how powerful a person or an organization was.

"Could Ms. Jingle be abducted by the Rider family?" Kai asked.

"Uh... I'm not sure about this." Desmond shook his head.

Kai eyed Desmond for a while, making the latter feel extremely anxious.

Thankfully, Kai quickly retracted his gaze and said, "Lord Cowper, please inform me if you have any news about Ms. Jingle's whereabouts."

"Don't worry, Mr. Chance. I'll definitely inform you if I find her." Desmond nodded.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1348

Chapter 1348 What Is The Big Deal

Kai then left Divine Beast Sect. Meanwhile, Desmond remained restless. In the end, he gritted his teeth and stood up, leaving Divine Beast Sect and heading toward Wildefield at the foot of the mountain.

He wanted to go and seek Colton out. Since Kai was still alive, the matter was now a tricky one.

Read more

Divine Beast Sect hadn't the ability to deal with the man right then, so he wanted to see what ideas Colton had.

As he left Divine Beast Sect and was heading toward Wildefield, a figure stepped out of the darkness. It was none other than Kai.

In truth, Kai didn't leave. Instead, he had been waiting for Desmond.

At the sight of the latter's frantic departure, his eyes narrowed into slits. "Sure enough, I hit the nail on the head."

He swiftly followed Desmond, who was completely unaware of it.

At the Rider residence, Colton was thrilled to the core.

Right then, Cecilia was lying on the bed, unable to move a single muscle due to the magecraft that kept her immobile.

Colton, who had just taken a shower, instructed the help, "I'm going to rest. No one is allowed to disrupt me. Don't interrupt my fun!"

The help nodded fervently. "Understood, Mr. Colton!"

When Colton stepped into his room and laid eyes on Cecilia, who was still on the bed, his eyes gleamed predatorily.

As soon as Cecilia spotted the man, she bellowed at the top of her lungs, "You'll rot in hell, you bstard! Hurry up and let go of me!"

Alas, that only excited Colton all the more. His lips curved into a smirk, and he drawled, "Go on, Lady Jingle. Even if you scream yourself hoarse, it isn't going to do you any good."

While saying that, he pounced on Cecilia.

Tears slowly streamed down Cecilia's face, even as scenes of her and Kai kept flashing in her mind.

Just when Colton was about to force himself on her, someone knocked on the door.

At once, his temper spiked.

"Who the h*ll is there? Didn't I say not to disrupt me? You're sick of living, huh?" he cursed.

"Mr. Colton, Lord Cowper from Divine Beast Sect is here. He said he needed to speak to you urgently," the help outside the door reported in a trembling voice.

Colton's brows furrowed. "D*mn it! Why did that fellow come at this hour?"

"Lord Cowper didn't give a reason, but he appeared frantic, Mr. Colton," the help answered.

"Okay, got it!" Colton snapped impatiently.

Subsequently, he turned his gaze to Cecilia on the bed with reluctance written all over his face. "Wait for me, Lady Jingle. I'll be right back!"

Colton left the room and went to the main hall. When he saw Desmond sitting there, he demanded with a dark expression, "What's so urgent that you came all the way here in the middle of the night and disrupted my rest, Lord Cowper?"

He was hopping mad about the man having interrupted his fun.

"Mr. Colton, J-Kai is still alive. He isn't dead!" Desmond revealed in a panic.

"So be it. What has that got to do with me? Did you come in the middle of the night just to tell me this? Have you lost your mind?" Colton snarled, shooting daggers at the man.

"Kai is very close with Crimson Palace, Mr. Colton. I'm afraid... afraid—"

"You're afraid that he would come and kick up a fuss, yes?" Colton interrupted without waiting for Desmond to finish speaking.

“Yes, yes. I’m afraid that he’d come and kick up a fuss upon learning that Cecilia is in your hands.”

Desmond bobbed his head earnestly.

At that, Colton sneered, “Hmph! If he dares to come to the Rider residence to kick up a fuss, I’ll make it so that he can never leave this place. What’s the big deal? Do you think anyone can come and go from the Rider residence as they please? Hurry up and go back. Don’t disrupt my plans here. What a wet blanket!”

Chagrined, Colton gave Desmond the boot and hurriedly spun around to head back to his room.

Seeing that, Desmond could only sigh soundlessly. But just as he turned around to leave, he suddenly froze.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1349

Chapter 1349 How Dare You

“J-Kai!” Desmond had no idea when Kai had appeared behind him. The moment Colton heard Kai’s name, he hastily whirled around. His expression turned icy when he spotted the man standing at the hall entrance. “How dare you, Desmond?”

His eyes narrowing dangerously, Kai glowered at Desmond coldly. Every single word out of his mouth carried infinite murderous intent.

Read more

Such fear struck Desmond at the man’s expression that he trembled violently and took several steps back.

“M-Mr. Chance, I can explain.”

Quivering badly, Desmond attempted to justify things.

“What else is there to explain? Is Ms. Jingle here? Let her go!” Kai ordered chillingly.

Desmond stumbled back several steps before he finally turned his gaze to Colton.

He had no say there, so he could only look to Colton.

“So, you’re Kai Chance, the kid hunted down by Jadeborough’s Warriors Alliance?” Colton looked Kai up and down. Then, he continued, “Cecilia Jingle is in my bed, and she’s already my woman. There’s no way I’m allowing you to take her away.”

The instant Kai heard that Cecilia had been sullied by the man, his aura burst forth. The temperature in the entire hall abruptly plummeted.

A terrifying murderous intent started pervading the air.

“If you’ve really touched Ms. Jingle, I’ll have the entire Rider family pay the price with their lives!”

Kai clenched his jaw, his unfathomable eyes exuding a sense of icy chilliness.

“You want the entire Rider family to pay the price with our lives? What a joke!”

The corners of Colton’s mouth turned up. On the heels of that, two men in robes swiftly charged out from the back.

When Colton saw those two men, his confidence promptly skyrocketed.

“Finn, Yuvan, kill this impudent kid with me!” he cried out at the two men who rushed over.

“Understood!” The two men nodded.

As the three of them stepped forward and faced off against Kai, their auras intensified.

Kai, on the other hand, had disdain written clear in his eyes in the face of the trio before him. Even with such trashy capabilities, they dare to challenge me, huh?

Glimpsing the scorn in Kai’s eyes, Colton felt utterly humiliated. His figure blurred, and he lunged at the man.

“Sagacity Fist!”

In the blink of an eye, he punched out his fist. At once, immense martial energy shot toward Kai like a cannonball.

“Ice Palm!”

At the same time, Finn made his move as well. A thick layer of ice blanketed his palm, emanating a freezing chill that crept toward Kai and enveloped him.

Yuvan didn’t miss a beat. He lifted his leg and kicked forward, his toes glowing. As if they had been turned into blades, the air beneath his feet was all ripped into pieces.

The three of them worked together like a well-oiled machine, attacking Kai from different directions simultaneously and arriving before him at almost the same time.

At the side, Desmond's expression inexorably changed when he witnessed that sight.

After beholding the trio's attack, he knew that the Rider family's capabilities were indeed not to be underestimated.

However, Kai merely regarded them with a snicker, seemingly not planning to dodge or retaliate.

While Desmond was still wondering about his inaction, he noticed a golden light shimmering on the man's body.

As Golem Body was activated, layers of golden scales covered Kai's entire body.

At that moment, he resembled a gold-armored warrior, facing off the three men of the Rider family fearlessly.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Three deafening booms split the air, and the trio struck Kai without fail. The cosmic wave of martial energy had everything in the main hall turning to dust.

However, Kai didn't react in the slightest despite their simultaneous attacks, his expression unchanged. Not a single hair on his head was harmed.

"H-How is this possible?"

Colton gaped at Kai, his eyes brimming with terror.

Finn and Yuvan exchanged a glance, the horror in their eyes evident.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1350

Chapter 1350 What Can They Do To Me

Not only did Colton, Finn, and Yuvan attack Kai in concert, but they had all also used their ultimate techniques. Yet, the latter didn't even suffer a scratch after their strikes landed on him.

Such a vast gap in capabilities was obvious, even to an ordinary person.

Read more

Kai stared at the three men, who were in shock, coldly.

"Hmph."

Following that grunt, a massive burst of energy suddenly exploded from the man.

With him as the center, it started spreading in all directions. Before the three men in front of him could react, they had already been swept away by the tremendous energy.

Rumble!

Under the onslaught of the terrifying energy, the entire mansion started collapsing without warning.

Fanning out his spiritual sense, Kai immediately found the room where Cecilia was held. In a flash, his figure blurred.

In no time, he appeared before Cecilia.

Cecilia gazed at the man before her. Before she could gather her wits about her, Kai had already swept her into his arms.

By then, the bricks and tiles of the entire mansion had begun raining down.

Kai shielded Cecilia zealously, allowing those bricks to hit him instead.

Nonetheless, they couldn't injure him at all.

After the dust had settled, Kai remained standing proudly amidst the rubble with Cecilia in his arms.

Cecilia hugged his neck tightly, even as she stared at him unblinkingly.

It was clear as day that she was incredibly emotional then.

"Y-You're really alive, Kai?"

She bit her rosy lip hard, tears pouring down her face uncontrollably.

"I'm fine. How could I possibly die? Many people want my life, but unfortunately, they can't kill me," Kai assured with a smile.

Right then, Colton, who had been swept out, struggled back to his feet and wiped the blood off the corner of his mouth.

His eyes blazed scarlet when he caught sight of Cecilia in Kai's arms.

"Finn, Yuvan, we must kill him today! He's carrying Cecilia right now, so he can't fight back!" he said to the two other men.

The duo nodded before they started condensing martial energy in preparation for another attack.

“Quick, put me down, Kai! Don’t bother about me anymore!”

Cecilia hurriedly urged Kai to place her down upon seeing that she had become his burden.

Surprisingly, Kai didn’t release his hold on her. Instead, he flashed her a smile and murmured, “What can these three pieces of trash do to me even if I can’t make a move?”

At his nonchalant manner, her gaze gentled considerably.

At that moment, her impression of Kai improved by leaps and bounds again.

Meanwhile, the three men’s fury blazed at Kai’s contempt toward them.

Finn aimed both hands toward the rubble and made a grabbing motion.

Shortly after, the shattered bricks and tiles started swirling in the air. In the next heartbeat, a few-meter-long spear materialized in the man’s hand.

On the heels of that, more spears took shape, suspended in mid-air like sharp arrows notched to a bow, ready to launch anytime.

Colton quickly formed hand seals as well. A terrifying burst of martial energy burst forth, followed by shimmering fireballs the size of soccer balls appearing in mid-air.

Yuvan wasn’t idle either. Condensing his energy in his elixir field, he made hand seals. Innumerable fist shadows manifested around him, each as sharp as blades.

Kai watched as the trio made preparations earnestly, his lips curving upward. “It turns out that the Rider family’s expertise is in magecraft. In that case, I’ll play a bit with you all.”

After he had said that, an invisible shield covered him and Cecilia.

As he was cradling Cecilia in his arms, he could protect only himself but not her if he merely used Golem Body.

Thus, he made some hand seals so an invisible shield materialized out of thin air that could protect them both.

“Attack!” Colton roared.

All three of them attacked at the same time. Countless spears and fireballs shot toward Kai.

The fist shadows followed closely behind, planning to strike the man after the first barrage of attacks shattered his defensive barrier.