

The Mans Decree Chapter 1387 -

Chapter 1387 Exposed

Zion furrowed his brows deeply when he sensed Kai's murderous intent. "Kai, are you an energy cultivator?" Zion asked.

Kai had managed to increase his power in such a short time period. Moreover, Zion had stomped a hole in Kai's chest, but Kai still managed to stay alive. Hence, doubts were starting to form in Zion's mind.

Read more

Kai's eyes shifted when he heard Zion mention energy cultivators, but he did not reply to the latter—he neither confirmed it nor denied it. Instead, he said, "Stop the nonsense. Hurry up if you want to kill me."

With that said, Kai launched his first attack against Zion. Zion dared not underestimate Kai's strike at all. Immediately, he unleashed his aura and channeled his internal energy to envelop his body.

Zion knew how strong Kai's Golem Body was. If the two of them were to confront each other head-on, he had to be prepared.

Thump! A simple collision with none of the fancy moves, but it was also the most intense collision. The terrifying aura spread in all directions when the two men collided, sending the elder of the Warriors Alliance flying.

The wind blew noisily, and pebbles flew. Even the trees in the forest were uprooted and blown away. In the blink of an eye, the two of them had exchanged dozens of blows. Each of their punches was done with full force, and each collision was as loud as thunder.

The more Kai fought, the bolder he became. The Power of Dragons kept emanating from him, and he was completely unafraid of Zion.

In contrast, Zion was grimacing. The more he fought, the more fearful he became.

In a mere few days, Kai's power had reached greater heights. The revelation of that made chills run down Zion's spine. He had seen talented individuals, but none could improve themselves as swiftly as Kai had.

By then, Zion was certain that Kai was an energy cultivator. There was no other explanation for what happened to Kai.

"Marvelous! Keep this up!" Kai roared before throwing another intense punch.

Zion knitted his brows as anger boiled in him. He felt that Kai had been fighting him to use him to sharpen his skills.

“Fool!” Zion cried out before shooting out a fist as well.

Thump!

Yet another deafening sound.

Thud. Thud. Thud.

Zion was forced to take multiple steps back, and the martial energy that had surrounded Zion’s body shattered.

At that, Zion turned to stare at Kai coldly.

Meanwhile, the elder of the Warriors Alliance was gripped with shock.

He had seen everything from the side with his own eyes.

Kai was relaxed during the entire fight, and on the other hand, Zion was not.

They were no longer on the same level as each other.

At that moment, Zion figured that out as well.

He was no longer confident about emerging as the victor in the battle. With that thought, he lost to Kai in the mental fight.

Furthermore, it seemed like Kai still had another ace up his sleeve.

“With things having come to this, I don’t see the point of keeping this from you anymore.”

With that said, a glint flashed past Zion’s eyes. In the next second, a dark golden ray began emitting from Zion’s chest.

The rays of light came from the sphere in Zion’s arms.

Soon, an armor-like veil was cast upon Zion. The armor was glowing in dark gold color, and there were even strands of black mists surrounding the armor.

Kai narrowed his eyes. “I never thought that the president of Warriors Alliance would cultivate Demonic Cultivation too and that you’re a Demonic Cultivator. It seems like the entire Warriors Alliance has become the headquarters for Demonic Cultivators!”

Zion did not answer him; he only glared at Kai.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1388 -

Chapter 1388 Reborn

However, the elder of the Warriors Alliance was taken aback when he saw the armor encasing Zion. He never thought that their president was a Demonic Cultivator.

Even from afar, he could sense the negative energy of the armor. The elder's eyes widened as he gasped. Then, he turned and ran off. Although Zion was the president of the alliance, he was also a Demonic Cultivator, and the elder had no intention of submitting to Demonic Cultivation.

Read more

"Hmph!" Zion scoffed before slamming his palm in the direction of the escaping elder. A dark cloud shot out from Zion's palm and pierced through the elder's back.

Before the elder could even cry out in pain, he was dead. "Those who know my secret must die." Once the elder was dead, Zion narrowed his eyes and turned back to Kai.

"I'll let a loser of the martial arts world like you have a taste of what it's like to be crushed today!" Hearing that, Kai gritted his teeth and made his golden glow radiate brighter.

Then, he launched himself toward Zion. Thump! Thump! Thump! Like a madman, Kai rained punches on Zion with both of his fists. The Power of Dragons was imbued in his fists, and each punch he made was around fifty-eight thousand Newtons of force.

Yet, Zion did not make any move to dodge it. He, too, threw out his fists to strike at Kai.

The two of them continued attacking each other like rabid dogs.

They were both making a bet—betting on their opponent tiring out first and betting on their opponent's armor breaking first.

After what seemed like forever, both Kai's Golem Body and Zion's dark-gold armor were starting to crack.

Soon, Kai's Golem Body peeled and vanished. At the same time, Zion's dark-gold armor was on the verge of destruction as cracks lined all over his body.

Thump!

After yet another punch, Kai's Golem Body disappeared.

Simultaneously, Zion's dark-gold armor cracked and vanished.

Both panted heavily, and sweat was even covering Zion's forehead.

The fight had taken out much of his stamina.

"I'm going to let you have a taste of defeat today!" Kai icily said to the panting Zion.

Nevertheless, just as those words were out of his mouth, Zion burst into laughter.

"Kai, you're too arrogant. You're so young, but you're already so conceited. That's not good. So what if you're an energy cultivator? I'll still end your life today!"

As Zion continued to laugh boisterously, a dark beam glittered on his chest. Soon, the disappeared armor reappeared on Zion's body.

Kai was bewildered to discover that Zion still had the energy to recreate his armor.

"Kai, are you surprised?" Zion questioned with a sneer. "I'll enlighten you. My armor doesn't use my martial energy at all. Even if you can destroy it, I can recreate it. I'd like to see how much strength you still have to destroy my armor again!"

At that, Zion leaped into the air and swung a punch at Kai.

Kai drew his brows together and clenched his right fist. Instantly, a golden glow formed around it.

"Sacred Light Fist!"

Even though Kai no longer had his Golem Body, the sturdiness of his body was far from an average person's body.

The moment the punch reached its target, a powerful wave of energy exploded outward.

Zion was forced backward, and Kai had to take dozens of steps back before he regained his balance too.

It was then confidence returned to Zion.

"Kai, I'd like to feel how it's like to be on the losing side, but alas, you don't have the ability to show me that," Zion jeered.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1389 -

“All right. I’m done playing with you.” Kai then took in a deep breath before opening up his right palm. The Dragonslayer Sword appeared in his hand in a flash. The moment it manifested, their surroundings seemed to change colors for a moment.

A buzzing noise then came from the inside of the Dragonslayer Sword as if it was the cry of a bloodthirsty being. Zion grimaced as he stared at Kai’s Dragonslayer Sword and sensed its aura.

Read more

Meanwhile, after Kai took another deep breath, the spiritual energy in him began to boil. “The first technique of Nine Shadows!”

Kai raised the sword above his head before jumping into the air. Then, he swung the sword downward in a swift slash. A flash from the sword rushed toward Zion.

Thump! It struck the spot right before Zion and left a deep crack in the ground. Zion had to hastily retreat and roll away from the spot to avoid Kai’s slash.

Zion was far from composed by then. Although the slash had not hit him, the sword energy had made white cracks appear on his armor.

At that, Zion turned to gape at Kai in disbelief. He knew that he was no longer a match for Kai. Kai was only fighting him for the sake of practice.

With that thought in mind, pride seeped away from Zion. In the next instant, he clambered to his feet and turned to flee. He was the president of Warriors Alliance, but at that moment, he was like a mutt who had lost its owner as he ran without hesitation.

“Running away, are we? Not that easy!” Kai scoffed and leaped into the air again for another swing of his Dragonslayer Sword. “The second technique of Nine Shadows!”

A ray of white light shot out from the Dragonslayer Sword and headed straight for the escaping Zion. Despite having his back toward Kai, Zion could sense the incoming danger. However, he dared not turn around; he could only zig-zag and leap to dodge the attack.

Swoosh! Zion dodged it, but the beam slashed through Zion’s left arm and chopped it off. Blood spurted everywhere, and Zion frowned from the pain.

Still, he dared not slow down at all. In fact, he never bothered to stem the bleeding as he ran into the forest and disappeared into the woods.

When Kai reached the spot where the chopped-off arm lay, the murderous intent in his eyes grew even more intense. “Hmph. I’m going to kill you even if it means chasing you all the way to Jadeborough!”

A pale blue flame appeared on Kai's palm. Then, with a wave of his hand, he burned Zion's left arm until nothing was left at that spot.

Meanwhile, Zion had fled dozens of kilometers away despite the pain he had to endure. By then, his face was devoid of color. When he noticed that Kai did not come after him, Zion sat down by a tree and heaved a sigh of relief.

Upon looking at his missing arm, Zion was filled with rage. After all, his overall power would drastically decrease because he was missing an arm.

He was even less of a match for Kai by then. In fact, he would even have trouble going up against a Semi Martial Arts Marquis. "I will kill you, Kai Chance, even if it's the last thing I do!" Zion roared.

He then slowly stood up and looked in the direction of Jadeborough, but he did not head toward the city. He knew he was doomed if he were to go back to Jadeborough.

What he wanted at that moment was revenge. If he wanted to kill Kai, he would have to find help. After a moment of contemplation, Zion went back the same way he came from—toward the south.

Not far down his path was the sea. After Zion boarded a small boat, he headed out to sea.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1390 -

Chapter 1390 Locked Up

At the entrance of Warriors Alliance in Jadeborough, Kai was quietly standing still. He was planning to barge into the Warriors Alliance and save Josephine.

Zion had already lost an arm, so there was no need for Kai to fear him anymore. Kai then tightened his grip on the Dragonslayer Sword as he readied his Golem Body.

Read more

At that very moment, it was as if he was a god of war, for anyone who looked at him would be able to sense his homicidal intent. However, just as Kai was about to enter the Warriors Alliance, someone tapped him on the shoulder.

Instantly, Kai smacked a palm in the direction of the other person. However, once he registered who it was, he halted in his tracks. Wind billowed from the force of his attack. Although he had stopped in time, the other person still felt his skin sting.

"Kai, you've really improved yourself!" Xavier commented as he rubbed his face. "Captain Jennings, what are you doing here?" Kai asked, confused.

“I’m here to look for you, of course. Mr. Sanders has expected you to barge into Warriors Alliance again, so he has asked me to come here and take you back,” Xavier answered. “How did Mr. Sanders find out that I’m back in Jadeborough?”

Kai furrowed his brows, but soon, he said in determination, “I’m not going back. I have to rescue my girlfriend.”

At the sight of Kai’s determined look, Xavier muttered helplessly, “Mr. Sanders knew that you were going to be stubborn, so he has told me to tell you that you’re doomed for certain death if you barge the Warriors Alliance this time. Don’t assume that you’re undefeatable because you’re seemingly immortal. Many people know about that little secret of yours.”

Kai froze and widened his eyes at Xavier. That look made the hairs on the back of Xavier’s neck stand. “Don’t look at me like that. It’s what Mr. Sanders asked me to tell you. I don’t know what secrets you could possibly have,” Xavier quickly said as he waved his hands.

Kai was silent. He was stunned to his core, and he was starting to wonder about Mr. Sanders’ identity. Could it be that Mr. Sanders is a powerful energy cultivator as well? But I’m an energy cultivator who has achieved Nascent Soul. Could my current level mean nothing to Mr. Sanders?

Kai could not fathom the answer to his question, let alone why Mr. Sanders was doing such a thing. A while later, Kai finally nodded and left with Xavier.

When he walked off, he turned around to look at the Warriors Alliance and said, “Don’t worry, Josephine. I’ll rescue you one day.” Kai was brought to an ordinary-looking courtyard house.

He was confounded the moment he arrived. I usually meet Mr. Sanders at the Department of Justice, so why are we here this time?

“Captain Jennings, why have you brought me here?” Kai asked, confused. “To meet Mr. Sanders, of course,” Xavier responded. At that, Kai stopped his questions and continued following Xavier into the house.

Upon entering the room, Kai realized that the courtyard house was no ordinary house. He could sense the fluctuations of aura all over the place, as well as the hidden traps and arcane arrays.

This must be Mr. Sanders’ residence and workplace. It’s my first time here. “Kai, please take a seat first. Mr. Sanders will be here in a moment,” Xavier said as he poured a cup of tea for Kai.

“Thank you, Captain Jennings,” Kai said to Xavier as he took the cup of tea from the latter. Xavier then gave Kai a long look before stepping out of the room and closing the door behind him.

Yet, just as Xavier closed the door, the house shook. In the next moment, Kai heard rumbling sounds. Kai’s brows snapped together before his expression changed. He leaped to his feet and rushed toward the outside of the room.

However, just as he reached the doorway, he was greeted by the sight of an iron gate sealing the room off. Then, faint white light glowed around the room and locked Kai inside like glowing screens.

At that, Kai threw a palm at the screens. Thump! After the explosive sound, Kai was propelled away from the edge of the room. Only then did Kai realize that the entire room was covered with restrictions. There was no way he could escape.