A Man Like None Other Chapter 1737

A Man Like None Other Novel

Before they realized what was going on, Kai's spirit delivered a punch that landed on Masamura's black shadow. "Fool, do you think you can control me with your measly skills?" Kai's soul grabbed Masamura's shadowy figure and punched it repeatedly.

The glow emanating from Kai's spirit was so intense that Masamura and Kazuo had to shield their eyes. One could tell how powerful it is just from that glow alone.

"H-He's too strong," Masamura gasped in shock and coughed out a mouthful of black blood. It felt like his spirit was being ripped into shreds, but he couldn't do anything about it.

Boom! Kai's spirit delivered another powerful blow, launching the menacing black shadow away. Masamura tamped down the pain as he opened his mouth wide, consuming the shadow to reclaim it into his being. Fear penetrated his gaze as he locked eyes with Kai.

Kazuo's brows furrowed in concentration. Despite knowing that Kai's physical form was practically indestructible, he was taken aback by the sheer force of Kai's spirit. I cannot believe why the Soul Searching Technique of a Soul Searching Master failed to control him!

Kai's spirit re-entered his body. With a mischievous smirk, he quipped, "I think it's time for you to go home and grow up. Maybe you should drink some more milk!"

Masamura got so furious that he spewed out another mouthful of blood. Meanwhile, Kazuo felt his blood boiling as his aura intensified..

"Brat, I shall kill you today!" Kazuo's hand suddenly clenched around a katana that seemed ancient as its dark aura emanated a sense of dread.

He flicked his wrist, and the katana promptly came at Kai swiftly! The sharp blade charged toward Kai and appeared before him in the blink of an eye. Seeing that, Kai quickly retreated and fled.

Kazuo snorted and gave chase to Kai as his words echoed in the air, "You won't be able to escape!"

Seeing that, Kai promptly threw the bottle in his hands out and chanted the spell.

Boom! The bottle shattered with a deafening sound. The spider beast burst out and grew larger with every passing second.

Kazuo halted in his tracks at the sight of the spider beast. "Eat him!" Kai ordered.

The spider beast lunged at Kazuo without a second thought. Kai promptly spun on his heels and took off. He seized the opportunity to get away from Kazuo.

"Ha! This demon beast was brought up by us. I can't believe you think it can stop us," Kazuo scoffed. With that, he leaped into the air.

With a wave of his katana, he chopped the spider beast's tail off. It was clear Kazuo knew the spider beast's weakness:

Boom! The tail of the spider beast was severed, and its body burst upon impact. Kazuo had killed the huge spider beast with just one swing of his blade!

The sight shocked Kai senseless. After the explosion, an emerald green bead started glowing among the spider beast's remains:

"It's a beast core!" Kai spotted the spider beast's beast core at once. At the same time, Kazuo spotted the beast core and strode forward, about to pick it up.

Kai had originally intended to flee, but he found himself unable to abandon the beast core and stayed put despite his better judgment.

The beast core belonged to a demon beast of the Greater Martial Arts Marquis level! Perhaps it can help me advance to another cultivation level.

With that thought in mind, Kai summoned his Dragonslayer Sword and swung it at Kazuo with all his might.

Kazuo had no idea Kai was bold enough to come back and attack him. Caught off guard, he retreated backward and failed to pick up the beast core. "How dare you return?" he growled as an ugly scowl crept up his face.

Kazuo watched as Kai ignored his threat and sprinted toward the beast core. The latter had put his own life on the line in order to retrieve the beast core.

There was no way Kazuo would let Kai get the beast core. His katana glowed brilliantly as he flicked his right arm to attack Kai with his destructive power.

Kai was just about to grab the beast core when a barrage of powerful, murderous attacks came flying toward him. Not wanting to risk a fight, he quickly backed away.

Boom, boom! The attacks caused a barrage of explosions around Kai, sending rocks cascading down the mountains and creating fissures in the ground.

Kai's heart filled with fear when he saw the destruction caused by Kazuo's attack. Thankfully, he didn't try to block it in order to get the beast core, or else he would have been dead by now.

"I must get the beast core today!" Kai stared at the beast core resolutely and swung his Dragonslayer Sword. A golden glow soared into the air and bolted toward Kazuo menacingly.

At the same time, Kai sprinted toward the beast core. "Ha! You've overestimated yourself," Kazuo mocked in disdain.

He swiftly swished his katana. Kai's attack was swiftly nullified. Following that, a swarm of crescent-shaped blades materialized before him.

They were sharp and zipped toward him menacingly. Seeing that, Kai dared not go any further and backed away almost immediately.

However, the blades were too swift for Kai to dodge. He had no choice but to clench his jaw and activate the power of Golem Body to the maximum in order to survive.

He didn't forget to avoid the blades deftly. Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh! The blades slashed across Kai's body, cutting his clothes into shreds.

Gold scales fell off his body and disappeared into thin air. Despite having Golem Body as a shield, he was still seriously hurt by the strikes. As a result, his Golem Body was severely damaged.

Kai gazed at the cuts on his body, his expression solemn. "He's too fast," he muttered. "His technique is really peculiar."

Kazuo's lips formed a cruel smirk as he looked over Kai's damaged clothing and injuries. "I have warned you, haven't I? You can't compete with my katana skill. I'm much better than Jun, who is a complete fool. If you sacrifice your soul willingly, I will save you from further suffering. Otherwise, you'll have to experience unbearable agony."

"F*ck you! If I were to sacrifice you, will you willingly agree?" Kai hissed. Deep within, he was devising a plan to get away with the precious beast core. Therefore, he was stubborn and refused to give up.

Kazuo's eyes twitched as his fury kicked in. "I gave you a chance, but you didn't appreciate it!" "Stop talking nonsense! You might be skilled in katana, but I'm a skilled swordsman, too!" Kai declared.

As he spoke, the initially damaged Golem Body recovered completely, its body glowing with restored power. His aura reached its maximum as well.

Kai knew he had to give it his all to defeat Kazuo. When the Power of Dragons imbued Dragonslayer Sword, it gave off a perpetual glow and let out an awe-inspiring roar that could be heard as far away as the sky. As Kai looked up, he saw a magnificent golden dragon circling above his head.

The golden dragon was strong and powerful. This time, Kai had put in all his effort, determined to get the legendary beast core. If he succeeded, it would surely be worth it!

Kazuo narrowed his eyes. "Do you really believe you can alter your fate by transforming into a golden dragon?"

With a powerful slash of his katana, he sent multiple strikes flying toward Kai. This time, Kai didn't dodge his attacks. Instead, he held his sword and brandished it forcefully. "Nine Shadows Godly Strike!"

The golden dragon roared and surged forward. Kai quickly activated his Golem Body to its fullest capacity and went after it.

The golden dragon advanced with immense speed toward the oncoming attack. It swooped in and obliterated the attacks, yet a few still managed to reach Kai. Despite the pain brought by the impact, he clenched his jaw and endured it.

The next second, Kai appeared before the beast core and picked it up. Before him, the golden dragon vanished suddenly into thin air. Kazuo's expression changed. "How do you know the Watanabe family's Nine Shadows Godly Strike?"

"Pfft! The Watanabe family's Nine Shadows Godly Strike is not complete, but mine is the original!" Kai declared smugly.

He didn't bother holding back now that he was in possession of the beast core. Kai moved quickly as his shadow clones multiplied rapidly.

Kazuo was unable to tell the difference between the shadow clones and Kai, as each of them wielded Dragonslayer Sword and emitted an identical aura.

"Nine Shadows Godly Strike, ten thousand heart-piercing arrows!" Kai roared angrily. His shadow clones simultaneously waved their swords.

Kazuo was met with a barrage of light from the swords of the shadow clones as they all came together to form a brilliant golden glow. The glow descended upon him and slashed at his chest with a powerful force.

Kazuo glanced at his wound as fury blazed across his eyes. "You're the first person who has ever dared to hurt me!"

He leaped into the air and muttered something under his breath as he threw his katana upward. In an instant, Kai and his shadow clones were surrounded by a sea of tens of thousands of identical katanas that hovered in the air.

The katanas descended on Kai like a torrential downpour. Kai was rendered captive by the katanas that surrounded him.

The blinding lights emitted by each of them caused the shadow clones made by the Nine Shadows Godly Strike to fade away instantly.

The sight of the shadow clones disappearing caused Kazuo's lips to curl. He knew no one would be able to survive his attack. The lights congregated and shone intensely.

Boom! A dazzling light rose up as though thunder had erupted. Kazuo surveyed the messy scene before him, yet he couldn't see anyone.

"Ha! Insolent fool," Kazuo remarked, his face devoid of expression. He had mixed feelings about finally taking Kai down. He had thought it would be a swift victory, but it took more effort than he expected.

Kazuo was ready to leave as he was under the impression that Kai had been annihilated. Suddenly, he spotted a figure rushing ahead at full speed.

The individual whose clothes were in rags was none other than Kai. "How is this possible?" Kazuo gasped in shock and hurriedly gathered his energy to give chase.

Never in his wildest dreams did he expect Kai to escape! Kazuo was perplexed as to how Kai managed to escape the harrowing assault as it seemed impossible to do so.

In no time, he had closed the distance to Kai and swung his katana in his direction.

He wanted to chop Kai into half with this attack! Hearing the howling wind behind him, Kai didn't turn around and thrust Dragonslayer Sword backward.

Under Kai's control, the sword blocked Kazuo's attack. Clang! Sparks flew everywhere, and Dragonslayer Sword was sent flying. Kai leaped into the sky to catch it.

Katana felt the spot between his thumb and index finger going numb from the impact. He nearly lost his grip on his katana. Without looking, Kai caught Dragonslayer Sword and continued sprinting ahead.

Kazuo's eyes widened in disbelief as he stared at Kai's Dragonslayer Sword. A deep frown creased his face as he muttered in amazement, "A sword spirit? This is actually a weapon with a sword spirit."

Kazuo was blinded by greed. "Young man, you have a lot of treasures, huh?" He leaped into the sky, wielding his katana to paint a lotus in the air. The lotus increased in size and covered Kai completely.

Kazuo dared not go against Kai as he was afraid of destroying Kai's Dragonslayer Sword. A sword with spirit was truly priceless. Kai sensed something coming at him and stuck his hand back instinctively to retaliate. A light emerged from his sword..

However, the light merely penetrated the lotus and didn't cause any damage. Soon, Kai was engulfed completely by the lotus.

"Ha! Run if you can," Kazuo mocked when he realized Kai was unable to escape, Kai ignored his mocking comment and held his Dragonslayer Sword silently. A grey light emerged from the sword.

He swung his sword at the lotus with all his might. Despite successfully penetrating the lotus, it remained unscathed.

Kai furrowed his brows. He was perplexed by the mysterious lotus that held him captive and why his sword seemed to have no effect on it.

Kazuo guffawed out loud. "Ha! Stop wasting your efforts. The lotus is not real, so no matter how strong you are, you can't break free of it."

He strode to Kai and glared at him icily. "If you give me the beast core and the magic sword, I might consider sparing your life." Kai stared at Kazuo intently. "Are you serious?"

"Of course. I am a man of my word. If you give me those things as requested, I promise to spare your life," Kazuo promised.

"All right, then. Here you go," Kai responded. He then threw Dragonslayer Sword to Kazuo. Kazuo was overjoyed and eagerly seized the sword.

As soon as his fingers gripped the hilt of the sword, he felt a surge of bloodlust roar through his body. Visions of gruesome battles and unthinkable atrocities played out in his mind.

Shocked, Kazuo dropped Dragonslayer Sword instantly “What about the beast core? Give it to me now,” he demanded. “Will you release me once I give you the beast core?” Kai asked.

Kazuo nodded. “Yes. I promise I’ll let you go!”

After a brief hesitation, he reached into his pocket and dug out the beast core. Kai added, “You must keep your promise.”

“Don’t worry, I will. Hurry up and give me the beast core!” Kazuo urged impatiently. Kai held the beast core and stretched his hand out slowly.

Seeing that, Kazuo reached out eagerly to take it. Right when he was about to get the beast core, Kai suddenly retracted his hand and parted his lips to swallow the beast core.

Kai gave a cold, mocking laugh. “Do you really think I’m going to give it to you?”

Kazuo roared angrily, “How dare you take me for a fool?”

Kazuo was just about to launch an attack on Kai when Dragonslayer Sword, lying on the ground, suddenly flew up on its own and impaled him forcefully.

When Kazuo felt something cooling stab into his back, he quickly turned and blocked Dragonslayer Sword’s attack. At the same time, Kai clenched his fist and delivered a punch in the lotus’ direction.

“Sacred Light Fist!” This time, Kai didn’t bother using his spiritual energy and used his power to punch the lotus, Boom! The lotus shattered into pieces and vanished. under the Sacred Light Fist.
