A Man Like None Other Chapter 1741

A Man Like None Other Novel

Meanwhile, Kai leaped into the air and instantly disappeared. Kazuo turned around and realized that Kai had already escaped. "Just you wait, brat! I'll kill you!" Kazuo roared. It's all right. Although he had escaped, he left that magic sword behind.

To Kazuo's surprise, he saw that Dragonslayer Sword was also missing after he turned around. Since Kai's body and Dragonslayer Sword had already merged and become one, there was no way Kazuo could ever get it.

After escaping, Kai didn't dare to stop, and he was rushing toward the nearest city. The beast core in my body is constantly releasing the power of a demon beast! I must find somewhere to refine the beast core!

Indeed, the power of the beast core was releasing its energy within Kai's body. At that moment, Flaxseed and Evangeline, who were in a city nearest to Kai, were waiting for him.

"Mr. Flaxseed, do you think Mr. Chance will be okay? Evangeline was overwhelmed by guilt.. After all, Kai was only in that situation because he was saving her.

"Don't worry. That fellow is a lucky man. He's not going to die..." Although Flaxseed was speaking in a casual tone, his face was filled with concern.

Soon, they both sensed Kai's aura. Elated, they quickly rushed toward the aura they felt. They were stumped when they saw Kai with his face reddened and looking disheveled.

Besides, his skin was turning green. "What happened to you, Kai?" Flaxseed asked.

"Mr. Flaxseed, I swallowed a spider beast's beast core, and it hasn't been refined yet. I need a safe place to refine the beast core..." Kai explained. "Follow me..." Flaxseed hurriedly brought Kai to a hotel.

After checking in, Kai instructed Flaxseed to find a way to contact Jadeborough and tell them that Evangeline had been rescued so that they wouldn't gather up.

Knowing that it would take some time to refine a beast core of that grade, Kai also told Flaxseed and Evangeline to stay at the hotel to be his guardians.

Upon giving out his instructions, Kai quickly went into his room to cultivate and refine the beast core in his body. Meanwhile, Flaxseed and Evangeline took turns guarding the door.

Time ticked by, and Kai suddenly opened his eyes after two weeks.

He let out a heavy sigh and muttered, "It seems like the spiritual energy here isn't replenished, and that's why it took me such a long time to cultivate in the mundane world."

After refining that beast core, Kai still couldn't achieve Third Level Greater Martial Arts Marquis at his cultivation level. Although Kai wasn't restricted by the laws of nature, he still considered his cultivation speed slow.

Little did he know, his speed was ridiculously fast. No one else could achieve Greater Martial Arts Marquis cultivation level within such a short period of time.

When Kai opened the door, he saw Evangeline guarding the door. Seeing that Kai was awake, Evangeline asked, "How did it go, Mr. Chance?"

"I've already refined the beast core, but it didn't go as well as I imagined it would. I still have the same cultivation level." Kai looked rather dejected.

"Spiritual energy cultivation is about progressing gradually. In order to speed up their cultivation, plenty of spiritual energy cultivators gave up and joined the demons instead.

Hence, more and more spiritual energy cultivators turned demonic. That's how the Celestial Battle happened. Everything then became chaotic, celestials fell, and the realm was never the same again," Evangeline comforted Kai.

"Where's Mr. Flaxseed?" Kai asked. Evangeline blushed and whispered, "I-I think he's in his room..."

"That fellow! Did he bully you and let you guard on your own?" Kai asked while walking toward Flaxseed's room. The moment he arrived at the door, he heard a woman's voice coming from inside the room.

Right away, Kai knew why Evangeline was blushing. "Is the old man possessed by a sex demon?" Kai stepped forward and kicked the door open. "Ah!" a woman screamed and ran out of the room with her clothes undone.

Flaxseed saw Kai and grumbled, "I acted as your guardian for so many days. Why can't you just let me relax? Why must you disturb me?"

"Mr. Flaxseed, I'm doing this for your own good. What if you exhaust your body and end up being unable to become immortal?" Kai replied.

"Immortal? I'm just living my life to the fullest..." Flaxseed put on his clothes and added, "Since you're awake now, I'm going back to Whitesea. I can't leave the ancient ruins of Skywrath Sect unguarded..."

Kai knew Flaxseed wanted to go back to Whitesea because he was missing the girls from the Simmonses dearly instead of wanting to guard the ancient ruins of Skywrath Sect. "Accompany me to Encanta Island first before you go back to Whitesea..." Kai uttered.

"Encanta Island? What for? The arcane array there has already been broken, and there isn't much spiritual energy left. Why would you want to go there?" Flaxseed asked.

"Have you forgotten about the statue? That statue contains a huge amount of spiritual energy. Come with me and keep me company, will you?" Jaren asked in a slightly begging tone.

"Forget about it. I don't want to travel anymore. Besides, don't you have a girl accompanying you already? You guys can do whatever you want without having an old man present." Flaxseed waved dismissively.

"I'm not like you. If you don't follow me, I'm not going to help you with matters concerning Skywrath Sect anymore. Moreover, I also won't risk my life to inherit those charm spells."

With that, Kai turned around to leave. In response, Flaxseed immediately went after Kai. "I was just joking! Why would you think I was being serious? Let's pack up and leave. I'll treat it as a break."

Kai smiled when he saw how Flaxseed was acting. The three of them packed up and set out for Encanta Island. After two days, they finally arrived on Encanta Island.

The second they set foot on the island, Evangeline suddenly halted in her tracks. "What's the matter?" Kai asked. "Why is a blood demon's aura present in the area?" Evangeline looked pallid.

"The blood demon is on the island, but it's just a statue!" Kai explained. "A statue?" Evangeline was confused.

"Come! You'll understand it once you see it!" Kai brought Evangeline to the palace on Encanta Island. Norm found out that Kai had returned, and he quickly brought his men to welcome the guests.

"Now that you're the boss, it seems like you've been living well!" Flaxseed saw Norm and went up to the latter to pat his shoulders.

"You're here as well, Mr. Flaxseed! Come on in." Norm flashed an awkward smile. "Hey, I have a question for you. Do you guys have..." Flaxseed finished his sentence by whispering it into Norm's ear.

Upon hearing Flaxseed's question, Norm nodded vigorously and said, "We do! I'll arrange it for you, Mr. Flaxseed."

"Haha! Nice!" Flaxseed laughed and entered the palace. Seeing how Flaxseed was acting, Kai knew exactly what Flaxseed requested from Norm.

"After I left, have there been any changes in the forbidden ground?" Kai asked Norm. "After you left, Mr. Chance, I ordered my men to seal the forbidden ground. No one has been there ever since," Norm answered.

"Good. Let's go to the forbidden ground." Kai wanted to check out the statue.

Kai was utterly stunned when he arrived on the forbidden ground. There, he saw the statue had cracked and fallen apart, and there was a corpse lying inside.

Based on the pristine condition of the corpse, it seemed as though the person had just died not long ago. It was in so good of a condition that even the skin was still supple. Needless to say, Kai was perplexed. How did a corpse end up here?

When Kai eventually turned toward Norm, Norm was sweating bullets when he said, "Mr. Chance, I-I don't know what's going on. No one has been in here... I-I don't know who that is!"

Upon hearing those words, Kai frowned. Why is there a fresh corpse here?

Right then, Evangeline, who was next to Kai, looked as pale as a sheet when she saw the corpse. "T-That's a blood demon..." she stammered.

"A blood demon?" Shocked, Kai glanced at the corpse once more. The man looks young, and he was at most in his thirties when he died. He had nice facial features, and he didn't even look like a demon! Besides, it's obvious that the man had just died. It doesn't look like a blood demon that died thousands of years ago.

"Hey, what do you mean by blood demon? You know this man?" Flaxseed asked. He didn't know anything about blood demons.

Evangeline nodded. "I've seen blood demons. They were the ones who carried out the massacre in Lunarius Palace back then."

“Who would’ve known that this blood demon could be that young? Besides, how is the body still in such good condition even though he had been dead for thousands of years?” Kai was flabbergasted.

“No. He isn’t dead. I can still feel his aura. A dead person wouldn’t have an aura,” Evangeline remarked.

Kai jumped in alarm when he heard that. If the blood demon is still alive, we’re all going to die! After all, he’s thousands of years old. He must be strong!

Upon noticing how nervous Kai was, Evangeline said, “Don’t worry. Although he isn’t dead, that doesn’t mean he’s going to wake up. I think he kept a breath of vitality in his body to prevent his body from decaying.”

As soon as those words fell, Kai breathed at sigh of relief. “That’s good. Now, we shall burn the body so that the others wouldn’t get scared.”

With that, Kai lit up a light blue flame on his palm and infused his spiritual energy into the flame. In the next second, a huge fire appeared.

Kai then threw the fire onto the blood demon’s corpse, and the corpse started burning. After burning for half a day, however, the blood demon’s corpse was still unharmed.

Kai was astounded when he saw that. That’s my true fire! It’s supposed to burn everything! How is it not even harming a corpse?

“What on earth is happening?” Kai asked in puzzlement. “The blood demon is extremely strong. Its corpse can’t be destroyed that easily,” Evangeline answered.

Kai frowned and scrutinized the blood demon’s body. Right then, Flaxseed uttered, “Since this fellow has such a strong body, you’re going to be undefeatable if you could make it into a zombie puppet.”

Kai’s eyes lit up when he heard that. Flaxseed is right. If I can transform this blood demon’s corpse into a zombie puppet and make it listen to my command, I’m going to be undefeatable!! can topple Warriors Alliance and rescue Josephine! However, I don’t know how to train a corpse. Heck, I don’t even know how to create a zombie puppet!

“Mr. Flaxseed, do you know how to turn the blood demon’s corpse into a zombie puppet?” Kai asked.

“How would I know how to do that? That’s a form of black magic! I’m a proper spiritual energy cultivator instead of a demonic cultivator.” Flaxseed waved dismissively.

“What do you guys think blood demons are? Transforming his corpse into a zombie puppet, you said? You must be joking!” Evangeline rolled her eyes at Kai and Flaxseed. Thousands of years ago, these blood demons were superior beings.

Although the corpse only has a breath of vitality left, that doesn't mean someone can just transform it into a zombie puppet. Kai sighed upon hearing that. “It's just a shame to waste a strong body like that. We can neither destroy it nor use it...”

Just then, Evangeline suddenly uttered, “Although you can't transform it into a zombie puppet, you can still use a spirit to possess it and control it. However, it needs to be a strong spirit. Besides, you can't control it for long because the body is going to devour the spirit.”

“Possessing the body with a spirit?” Kai was stunned. He then shook his head and said, “If I use my spirit to possess the body, my body would be a walking corpse.”

“Are you stupid? Why must you use your spirit? You can always find a spirit and bind it with a spiritual sense. After that, let the spirit possess the blood demon's corpse. That way, you can control the corpse!” Evangeline laughed at Kai.

Comprehension dawned when Kai heard that. Upon smacking his forehead, he said, “Right! Why didn't I think of that?”

“That's a good idea, but where are you going to find a spirit? Besides, it has to be a strong spirit. Otherwise, you won't be able to control the blood demon's corpse,” Flaxseed asked.

Kai was stunned momentarily, but he quickly remembered that he had kept Gilbert's spirit in his Storage Ring. That guy is a Top Level Martial Arts Marquis! I should be able to use his spirit to control the blood demon's corpse!

With that in mind, Kai quickly opened his Storage Ring and released Gilbert's spirit. The moment Gilbert's spirit appeared, Kai controlled it by using his spiritual sense..

At that moment, Gilbert's spirit was extremely weak. Hence, Gilbert had no choice but to submit to Kai. “Gilbert, I kept your spirit and spared your life. Now, I've found you a body. You can live again,” Kai said.

Upon hearing that, Gilbert was stumped. Who would've known that Kai would actually find me a body? Is he not worried about me taking revenge on him?

Kai knew what was on Gilbert's mind, so he added, “I'm leaving a spiritual sense on your body. If you dare to betray me, I'll reduce you to ashes.”

Gilbert immediately dropped to his knees when he heard that. "I won't betray you, Mr. Chance!"

Kai nodded. After that, he shot a ray of golden light toward Gilbert. "This is the body. I'm giving you. You may possess it now!" Kai pointed at the blood demon's corpse.

Gilbert was delighted when he saw the blood demon's corpse, and he instantly lunged toward it. However, as soon as he did that, the blood demon's body released an intense ray of light and expelled Gilbert's spirit.

Everyone at the scene was stupefied. Gilbert gasped and uttered, "That's such a strong body! I-I can't even possess it."

Kai then shot Evangeline a confused look. "The spirit is too weak. It can't even penetrate the shield on the blood demon's corpse," Evangeline explained.

"Is a Top Level Martial Arts Marquis considered weak?" Kai felt helpless. Gilbert is a Top Level Martial Arts Marquis, and he's still not able to possess the blood demon's corpse. What can? A Greater Martial Arts Marquis? Where am I supposed to find a Greater Martial Arts Marquis' spirit?

At that moment, Kai looked dejected. Since Gilbert's spirit can't possess it, I should return his spirit to the Storage Ring. Just when Kai was about to do that, Gilbert suddenly asked, "Mr. Chance, do you want to revive that corpse?"

"That's right!" Kai nodded. "Although I can't possess it, we can make this body into a zombie puppet, so that way, it'll listen to Mr. Chance still," Gilbert quickly said, not wanting to be shoved into the Storage Ring by Kai.

"Do you know how powerful this zombie puppet is? Are you really thinking of making it a zombie puppet?" Flaxseed questioned with a huff.

"Any body will do; any body can be made into a zombie puppet. I can even use the bodies of those who are of Manifestor level," Gilbert uttered confidently.

"Can you really do that?" Kai dubiously asked. "Mr. Chance, I wouldn't dare to lie to you," replied Gilbert in a polite tone. "All right. Create it, then. If you succeed, I'll get a body for you," Kai promised.

However, Gilbert said with a stumped look, "Mr. Chance, I'm only a spirit right now. I won't be able to create it. I'll only be able to do it with a body."

Kai stared at Gilbert for a long time in silence. A moment later, he inclined his head and said, "Okay, I'll get a body for you, but if you dare lie to me, I'll definitely make you regret everything."

"Of course. Mr. Chance, you're a Greater Martial Arts Marquis. Even if I get a body, I still won't be a match for you, so why would I have the courage to lie to you?" Gilbert blurted out.

"Norm, get him a body," Kai ordered. Norm nodded. He soon found a body whose face was bearded and ugly.

Even though Gilbert did not find its appearance good, it was his only chance to have a body, so he steeled himself and took it. Soon, Gilbert possessed the body. Shortly after, the eyes of the dead, bearded man open.

Gilbert had woken up. He was thrilled upon seeing his body. "Now, you can start creating zombie puppets," Kai reminded Gilbert. "Mr. Chance, I'll have to build a stage to create a powerful zombie puppet like this," Gilbert told him.

Kai furrowed his brows. "How long will you need?" "Just a few hours."

"All right. I'll have Norm get some men to help you out, but time is of the essence." Kai nodded at him before leaving the forbidden ground.

He and the others had a tiring journey, and they needed to rest. "Kai, do you really believe that guy?" Flaxseed queried.

"I don't think he'll dare to lie to me. As a Demonic Cultivator, maybe he really has a way to make that blood demon into a zombie puppet."

The only option Kai had was to believe Gilbert. Hours went by in the blink of an eye.

Soon, Norm sent someone to call for Kai and the others to come to them. The moment Kai stepped into the forbidden ground, he was greeted by the sight of a six-meter-tall stage built in the middle.

Around the stage were some magical items that Kai assumed were meant to stabilize the stage.

"Mr. Chance, the stage has been built, but there aren't any magical items good enough to properly stabilize the stage. I'm scared that the stage will collapse midway. May I know if you have any higher-quality magical items, Mr. Chance?" Gilbert asked.

Kai pursed his lips and shook his head. "I don't have any magical items either, but I have a spiritual sword. Will that be good enough?"

Gilbert shook his head as well. "To play it safe, I'll have to get some proper magical items." But where was Kai going to get magical items at a time like this?

Right then, Flaxseed stepped forward and uttered, "Why would you need magical items? I can just draw a few talismans to ensure that this stage is as sturdy as a mountain."

As he spoke, he took out a few pieces of paper and started mumbling under his breath as he drew something on the paper. In no time, Flaxseed was done with his talismans and stuck them at all four corners of the stage.

Gilbert was taken aback by the way Flaxseed drew his runic talismans. He could not believe someone would be that skilled in talismans.
