A Man Like None Other Chapter 1936

A Man Like None Other Novel

Jessica was worried about Flaxseed, so she followed them. "Mr. Chance, thank you so much!" Simon uttered in gratitude. "You don't need to thank me. I'm also doing this for my sake. As for Demon Sect... I'll leave you to it."

With that said, Kai gave one glance at the Demon Sect members before heading off with Verner. What Simon was going to do with Demon Sect's traitor was up to him. Kai neither planned to get involved nor did he want to get involved.

When they were back at the hotel, Jessica started carefully wiping away the blood by Flaxseed's lips again. "Ms. Zimmerman, I'm going to treat Mr. Flaxseed now, so please leave the room for now," Kai said to her.

With a nod, she left. Once she was gone, Kai patted Flaxseed's shoulder and said, "All right, she's outside now." Flaxseed opened his eyes and he looked as if he was intoxicated. "She smelled so good, and she felt so soft..."

Kai sighed. "I thought you have turned over a new leaf, but you're still the same." Flaxseed had changed quite a bit after consuming Cathy's golden elixir, and Kai thought he would undergo a full transformation.

"What do you mean I'm still the same? I really like her, and it's not just because I want to shag her, Flaxseed solemnly said. "So you don't care that someone has slept with her before?" Kai queried.

Flaxseed shook his head. "It doesn't matter. I'm old, and I've slept with plenty of people. All is fine as long as she's fine with me." "All right, then let me help you out. Lie back down."

Kai then asked Flaxseed to lie down and close his eyes again. Once Kai recomposed himself, he exited the room and found Jessica waiting in the corridor. When she spotted Kai, she darted toward him.

"Mr. Chance, how is Mr. Flaxseed?" she asked. Kai sighed loudly before pursing his lips for a while. "The attack has badly damaged Mr. Flaxseed's internal organs. I'm... I'm afraid..."

Kai's hesitance made Jessica tense up. "Mr. Chance, you have to save Mr. Flaxseed no matter the cost. He only ended up like this because he was saving me! If you save him, I'll do anything you ask me to do!"

Then, Jessica shifted to kneel before Kai. Kai hastily stopped Jessica and said, "Ms. Zimmerman, you don't need to do that. It's not as if Mr. Flaxseed can't be saved, but I'll need your cooperation in something."

"My cooperation in something?" Jessica repeated. Kai stiffened before leaning closer to Jessica's ear to whisper to her. By the time he was done, his face was bright red. In contrast, Jessica seemed calm.

"As long as I can save Mr. Flaxseed, I'll do anything. I'm already a rotten apple, so what could I possibly still have fear for?" Once those words were out of her mouth, Jessica opened the room door and went inside.

A wave of complicated feelings washed over Kai as he watched her enter. He did not know if it was right of him to lie to Jessica, but he guessed that Jessica was interested in Flaxseed with the way she responded to him.

Upon checking the time, he realized it was almost sunrise soon, so Kai went back to his room to rest. It was a tiring night, but when Kai lies on the bed, he soon heard the commotion coming from the other room.

Soon, he could hear Flaxseed and Jessica's moans. Kai blinked in bewilderment. Even though he knew that their rooms were right next to each other, he never thought he would be able to hear the sounds from the other room so clearly.

Kai closed his eyes, but he could not fall asleep no matter what he did. Flaxseed and Jessica's voices kept traveling into his ears. Even after dozens of minutes, they showed no signs of ceasing.

Kai shot upright on the bed, an exasperated expression on his face. He had essentially doomed himself to a sleepless night by helping Flaxseed out with his plan. In the end, Kai had no choice but to go to Verner for a chat instead.

When Kai went to Verner, Verner made some coffee for Kai before they started chatting. "Verner, your family and a few other families have suddenly come to this place. Is something big going to happen soon?" Kai asked.

"Mr. Chance, don't you already know this? Encanta Island is where the spiritual energy will first be restored to this world. Our initial destination is Encanta Island. We were hoping to take over the place before the restoration of spiritual energy," Verner explained.

“But there are so many families heading toward Encanta Island. A battle is bound to break out there, and it will be a battle bringing disasters to every family,” Kai pointed out.

“I know about these, but the secret realm’s prestigious families are all trying to take over the land of spiritual energy restoration. That’s the only way they can make proper preparations before the restoration of spiritual energy across the world. Our families are the representatives of the secret realm’s. prestigious families, so we can only heed their orders.”

Verner knew what Kai was trying to tell him, but this was not up to him and his family. “Is there a way to stop the restoration of spiritual energy? If the spiritual energy really restores, and the prestigious families leave the secret realm, we’ll dissolve into chaos. Ordinary people are going to suffer.”

Kai knew that once the secret realm families leave their realm, the mundane world would be crushed under them like bugs. Ultimately, normal people were going to be casualties in the war between the prestigious families. That was why Kai wanted to stop the restoration of spiritual energy and make those families stay in the secret realm.

The mundane world had laws of nature that suppressed the power of the people from the secret realm, and that was how the world was. However, the restoration of the spiritual energy would be turning the world upside down.

“Mr. Chance, do you really want to stop the restoration of spiritual energy?” There was a look of surprise on Verner’s face. He then shook his head and continued, “I don’t know if we can stop it, but I’m afraid the restoration of spiritual energy has been set in stone since thousands of years ago. I doubt anyone will be able to stop it from happening.”

Kai furrowed his brows. Regardless of whether or not he could stop the restoration of spiritual energy, he was still going to take a trip to Encanta Island.

Without knowing it, Kai chatted with Verner until sunrise. When he came out of Verner’s room and was about to return to his room, he bumped into Jessica, who had rosy cheeks and was in the middle of walking out of Flaxseed’s room.

When their eyes met, Jessica’s face turned red. “Mr. Chance, I can’t believe you lied to me.”

That was all Jessica said before turning to dart off. Meanwhile, Flaxseed stretched and walked out, his face glowing. Upon seeing Kai, he patted Kai’s shoulder and said, “Kai, thank you so much. Feel free to come to me if you ever need my help.”

At the sight of Flaxseed’s content look, Kai smiled and said, “Now you’re satisfied. You have to be nice to her from now on.” “Of course. Jessica’s going to be my wife,” Flaxseed answered with a nod.

Right as Kai was about rest, Axton came with Divine Cauldron. Axton had not taken a single break during his trip, fearing that his tardiness would delay Kai from settling his matter.

Kai was thrilled to see Divine Cauldron. He wondered what kind of pills could be made from the ten-thousand-year-old tuber fleecflower.

After exchanging a few words with Axton, Kai asked Flaxseed to guard him as he started creating the pills. However, to ensure that there were no hitches during his creation, Kai also asked Verner to station his men outside his room.

He was afraid that Flaxseed might run off to take a nap. After placing Divine Cauldron properly, Kai gently tossed the ten-thousand-year-old tuber fleecflower into the cauldron.

Then, he sat cross-legged and placed both of his palms upward. Light blue flame manifested. That was the spiritual fire for pill creation. With a flick of his finger, the flame flew into the Divine Cauldron, and soon, intense flames appeared in the cauldron.

Keeping his eyes shut, Kai held his breath. and concentrated on practicing alchemy. Engulfed by the flames of the spiritual fire, the ten-thousand-year-old tuber fleecflower slowly turned into liquid as a refreshing scent drifted out from the Divine Cauldron.

Time flew by in the blink of an eye, and three days soon passed. A brilliant and colorful light shone from the Divine Cauldron at that moment. The light rays grew stronger, enveloping the entire hotel.

Flaxseed and Verner were both shocked by the aura that radiated from Kai's room. Meanwhile, Austin from the Zagorski family quickly rushed to the hotel with Kayson in tow when he noticed the strange occurrences at the hotel. On their way there, Kayson asked Austin, "Dad, what's the matter? What's with that sudden unusual phenomenon at the hotel?"

"It's probably the manifestation of a divine pill! I bet Mr. Chance is refining the ten-thousand- year-old tuber fleecflower!" Austin exclaimed excitedly, quickening his pace. Meanwhile, in the hotel, Flaxseed and Verner were waiting patiently and quietly outside Kai's room. Buzz...

Suddenly, the Divine Cauldron in Kai's room began emitting a buzzing sound before a dazzling light spread out in all directions..

The colorful lights shot up into the sky, and the spectacular sight stopped many passersby in their tracks. Everyone was wondering what was going on.

At the same time, on the top of a mountain not far away from Norham, Skylar watched everything unfold while wearing a solemn expression. He didn't leave after escaping from Norham. Instead, he waited for Patrick's signal to head to Encanta Island, for they had set a trap there.

If Kai headed over to the island, the trap they prepared would be put to use to deal with Kai. Skylar and Patrick could even take advantage of the spiritual energy's recovery to revive the blood demon.

If, by chance, Kai didn't head to Encanta Island, Skylar and Patrick would use the trap to deal with other families because there was no way they would stand by and watch others claim Encanta Island as their own. Staring at the strange phenomenon, Skylar muttered to himself in confusion, "What's that?"

"It's the manifestation of a divine pill. I'm sure it's Kai's doing. I didn't think it was possible that he could create a divine pill from the ten-thousand-year herb he got his hands on." Malphas spoke from within Skylar. "Divine pill?" Skylar was confused. He didn't know much about pills, let alone divine pills.

"A divine pill is a sky-tier pill. The higher the tier of a pill, the harder it is to create it and the harsher the requirements for a pill furnace that works. Who would have expected Kai to be able to create a divine pill? Most importantly, how did he get his hands on a pill furnace that can create a divine pill? Kai harbors too many secrets. Let's hope we can eliminate him for good during the period of spiritual energy recovery this time," said Malphas, his voice laced with concern.

"Sir, Kai has many experts by his side. I'm afraid it's hard for us to eliminate him." Following the battle a few days ago, the thought of Kai invoked lingering fear within Skylar because every time he fought with Kai, he would get defeated. "Are you scared?" Malphas questioned.

"..." Skylar hesitated, not knowing what to say in response. Indeed, his confidence and ambitious personality had begun to waver after he was trounced by Kai time and again.

"Hmph, you lost to him a few times, that's all. How can you be afraid of him just because of that? You're such a loser for an Inferno Devil! You don't have to fear him once you unleash your powerful physique! Plus, I've informed the Black Gold Robe warriors this time around. They will send people over to aid us in the fight!" Malphas sneered.

Hope filled Skylar's eyes when he heard that the Black Gold Robe warriors would be involved. After all, the Black Gold Robe warriors were all Martial Arts Saints, and Kai would only face defeat once such powerful figures were mobilized.

"It's been a few days. Why hasn't Patrick contacted us yet?" Skylar complained while staring in the direction of Norham. They had been waiting for Patrick's message for a few days, but they still hadn't received anything from him.

Unbeknownst to Skylar and Malphas, Patrick had already died, and Demon Sect was currently undergoing major reformation with Simon eliminating Patrick's remaining confidants.

Boom! Suddenly, a deafening explosion rang out in the air while a multicolored light burst out in all directions.

Amidst the blinding light was a pill enshrouded in a golden gleam, radiating scorching heat like a sun. It was so bright that it even outshone the sun. "Is that the divine pill?" Skylar stared at the pill that was floating in mid-air in surprise.

Shortly after, a figure soared into the sky, grabbing the pill. The brilliant light vanished as soon as the figure's palm encased the pill, and tranquility was once again restored in Norham.

Kai opened his palm, looking at the pill that exuded a faint golden glow. Excitement filled his heart. "Is this... the legendary Purple Vitality Pill?" Thrilled, Kai could feel his body trembling slightly.

This Purple Vitality Pill will help me achieve a breakthrough and ascend from the middle-phase of Greater Martial Arts Marquis to the advanced- phase! I might even be able to reach Top Level Greater Martial Arts Marquis!

In fact, Kai was gambling on the success of creating the Purple Vitality Pill. After all, it was a known fact that success wasn't guaranteed in terms of alchemy, and the higher the pill's tier was, the higher the chances of failing to create it.

Consuming the refined ten-thousand-year-old tuber fleecflower would not increase his strength significantly, but it was a different story if the Purple Vitality Pill was created. The pill would vastly improve his capabilities.

However, the creation of the Purple Vitality Pill had its risks too. If Kai failed, he would also lose the precious ten-thousand-year-old tuber fleecflower, and the spiritual energy he exhausted would've been for nothing, too.

Fortunately, Kai succeeded with the Divine Cauldron's help. The power of the ancient cauldron could not be underestimated. Flaxseed and Verner rushed toward Kai as soon as he landed on the ground with the pill in his hand. Flaxseed gushed excitedly, “ Kai, did you....

create a divine pill?”

Kai nodded while flashing a faint smile. Seeing that, Flaxseed was belatedly flooded with fear. “You’re so bold! I can’t believe you made a divine pill! If you fail, the ten-thousand- year-old tuber fleecflower would’ve gone to waste! How are you so sure you’d succeed?”

“Life itself is a huge gamble, isn’t it? Nobody knows what the future holds.” Kai smiled. “You’re awesome. I would never dare to do something like this...” Flaxseed gave Kai a thumbs up.

At the same time, Austin and Kayson finally arrived. Envy was written all over Austin’s face when he spotted Kai. He congratulated Kai, “Well done, Mr.. Chance. Congratulations on the success of making a divine pill!”

“Thank you. I promised to create the Trispirit Pill. I will write down the prescription now, and you can prepare the ingredients,” Kai stated casually. He was a man of his word, so he would create the pill as promised. Moreover, it would be easier for him to create the Trispirit Pill with help from the Divine Cauldron. Even though the Trispirit Pill was no divine pill, it was still a high-tier pill that could boost one’s strength tremendously.

Austin nodded enthusiastically when he heard Kai’s words. “All right. I’ll get them prepared now!”

With that, Kai gave Austin a prescription. The latter immediately sent his subordinates all over Norham on a search for the medicinal herbs written in the prescription.

The herbs were all collected within half a day, which showed that Austin’s influence as the mayor of Norham could not be underestimated.

That night, Kai used the Divine Cauldron to create the Trispirit Pill for Austin. While he was at it, he also made a few Great Supplementation Pills for Flaxseed, for he thought that the latter’s licentious lifestyle would shorten his lifespan and damage his health significantly.

After receiving the Trispirit Pill from Kai, Austin was so immensely grateful that he wanted nothing more than to worship the man. Flaxseed, too, was elated to have been givent the Great Supplementation Pill.

Since there was still some time before Encanta Island's spiritual energy was restored, Kai decided to take the chance to cultivate and improve his abilities. After all, he knew more and more experts would show up when the island was once again brimming with spiritual energy.

It'd be best if the spiritual energy restoration could be stopped, but if not, the entire mundane world would undoubtedly plunge into chaos. All I can do is use my powers to protect those around me...

"Mr. Flaxseed, I will now be using the Purple Vitality Pill for my cultivation. I'd need you guys to protect me in the meantime," Kai said.

"Don't worry," Flaxseed replied while thumping his chest. "With me standing guard, you can rest assured that not even a mosquito will fly in."

Just then, Austin piped up, "Mr. Chance, why don't you head to my place for your cultivation? It's safer there, and I can issue a citywide lockdown to prevent anyone from entering or leaving."

Upon hearing that, Kai pondered for a moment before nodding in agreement. Well, he has a point. The Zagorski residence is definitely much safer than the hotel.

Without further ado, the group made their way to the Zagorski residence. Even Verner, determined as always to protect Kai, led his men to the house instead of rushing to Encanta Island.

Soon, Kai found himself sitting cross-legged in the secret room that Austin had prepared for him. As he held the Purple Vitality Pill in his hand, torrential waves of spiritual energy began surging into his body.

The next second, he opened his mouth and swallowed the pill whole. With that, powerful streams of spiritual energy engulfed Kai, making him feel as if he was bathing in a sea of spiritual energy, floating around freely.

As soon as he activated the Focus Technique, small vortexes of spiritual energy started appearing in his body, causing his surroundings to be shrouded in a thick white mist.

Seconds later, Kai's expression slid into a frown. Although the Purple Vitality Pill could improve one's abilities, the energy waves were so intense that he had to concentrate on guiding and controlling the power.

Just like that, not only did Kai's skills gradually improve, but his physique also became stronger and tougher. Time ticked by, and before long, half a month had passed. Surprisingly, Kai hadn't moved an inch in the secret room during that period.

"It's already been half a month. Do you think Mr. Chance is all right?" Austin asked worriedly. Everyone knew that divine pills were great, but at the same time, the impact they had on the body was tremendous. Needless to say, it'd be dangerous if the body couldn't take the pressure.

"Everything will be fine. Don't forget that Kai's the Golden Dragon's True Form. One divine pill couldn't possibly harm him," Flaxseed replied as he sipped on his wine, not at all worried.

In fact, he had been indulging in the pleasures of life every day, and thanks to the nightly throes of passion, Jessica was becoming even more charming and beautiful. Try as he might, Flaxseed couldn't keep his hands off her.

"Mr. Flaxseed, are you sure Mr. Chance will be all right?" Verner chimed in anxiously. It has been half a month, yet there's barely any movement in the secret room. Worst of all, we can't even seem to detect Mr. Chance's aura!

"Don't worry. You can trust me. Kai's body isn't like the average human's, Even with the help of a divine pill, I doubt he can boost his cultivation level by much," Flaxseed reassured.

Seeing how confident he was and how well he knew Kai, neither Austin nor Verner said anything more. Three more days passed in the blink of an eye, but unfortunately, the secret room remained completely silent.

That night, however, when everyone had fallen asleep, dark clouds suddenly covered the bright moon. The skies instantly turned as black as ink, so much so that it was impossible to see anything.. Just then, a burst of bright light shot out of the secret room and illuminated the dark skies.

Boom! Following an abrupt explosion, the sturdy secret room was reduced to ash while Kai leaped into the skies like a shooting star and dashed to the top of a nearby mountain.
