A Man Like None Other Chapter 2301

A Man Like None Other Novel

“It’s all right. Let Kayden defend the arena!” Kai didn’t want to do it because he didn’t know much about the Eight Major Secret Realms. Therefore, he wanted to watch the duels on the sidelines to figure out the true strengths and capabilities of the secret realms.

Since Kai had already spoken, Chester obliged and let Kayden defend their arena. Soon, challengers started appearing in the arenas. Sigwin, the person who ranked first in the Supreme Honor Rankings, was left alone in the arena because no one would be foolish enough to take him on.

At that moment, Sigwin was sitting in his arena smugly. He felt as though he had regained the dignity he lost during the incident concerning the Dragon Bell. No one dares to challenge me because everyone is scared of me!

Right then, Sigwin caught Kai sweeping at glance at him, so the former waved at Kai and asked, “ Kai, you could summon nine golden dragons just now, so you must be strong, right? Are you up for a challenge?”

Sigwin was eager to fight Kai because if he could defeat Kai, he could regain the limelight that Kai had stolen from him. “Oh, no, I’m no match for you...” Kai uttered without hesitation and waved his hand in refusal.

Sigwin was baffled. Cultivators train to fight and make a name for themselves! No cultivator would concede before putting up a fight! Why did Kai admit he was no match for me? What’s going on?

Kai then ignored Sigwin and wandered from one arena to another to watch the battles between different secret realms and figure out the contestants’ strengths. “Mr. Chance, are you not fighting?” Zain asked.

“We’ll see. I want to observe the battles first.” Kai shook his head. Zain knew Kai was waiting to spot weaker opponents to increase his chances of winning.

“Mr. Chance, you’ll have three chances, though.. As long as you don’t lose three battles, you can keep challenging the others, Zain suggested.

Kai merely flashed a faint smile in response. I'm not challenging anyone yet. I need to observe before I decide what to do. "Since you're not challenging anyone, Mr. Chance, I'll go first!"

With that, Zain leaped into the air and landed in an arena to challenge a weak-looking man. Kai spared Zain a glance before shaking his head and turning around to leave. Evangeline saw the look on Kai's face, so she asked, "Mr. Chance, do you think Zain will lose?"

"He's outmatched. At most, Monkey can only withstand one move from his opponent," Kai replied. "One move?" Evangeline was in disbelief. "Zain isn't strong, but-

Before Evangeline could finish her sentence, a thud rang out. Zain was sent flying out of the arena and crashing heavily to the ground. Evangeline was rendered speechless when she saw what had happened to Zain. Moments later, Zain stood up and uttered embarrassingly, "I was too careless..."

Kai smiled and didn't say anything in response. Right then, the shout of a female caught Kai's attention. Kai turned around and saw Hailey in one of the arenas, fighting a man in white.

Hailey was brandishing a long sword and swung it around in the air as she attacked her opponent. The sword resembled a vicious viper, ruthlessly attacking its prey.

With a smile on his face, the man in white was dodging Hailey's attacks calmly. It was apparent that the man in white was going easy on Hailey and not in a rush to defeat her.

"Why did Ms. Hargreaves choose to fight with that man? She's clearly no match for her opponent!" Zain was puzzled.

"Who is the man in white?" Kai asked. "That man is known as Windshadow from Windmoon Valley of the Gate of Mountain. He's a pervert! Although he's a lecherous man, he's strong. If not for his tendency to go easy on his female opponents for the sake of picking up girls, he could definitely earn himself a place in the Supreme Honor Rankings," Zain introduced the man. True enough, Windshadow started teasing Hailey as soon as Zain finished his sentence.

“Ms. Hargreaves, would you consider my offer? If you let me kiss you, I’ll let you win this battle.” Windshadow stared at Hailey lustfully. Hailey’s face flushed bright red, and instead of saying anything in response, she increased the intensity of her sword attacks.

Unfortunately for her, the gap between their strengths was too big, and she was no match for Windshadow. While avoiding her attacks, Windshadow kept flirting with her. It was safe to say he was using the arena to pick up girls instead of battling.

“I’ll kill you!” Hailey thundered and swung her sword in the air. Seeing that, Windshadow reached out his hand. and caught the blade with two fingers. No matter how hard Hailey tried, she couldn’t yank her sword out from Windshadow’s grip.

Clang! A crisp sound rang out, and Hailey’s sword was broken on the spot. While she was still reeling in from the shock, Windshadow grabbed her wrist and pulled her into his embrace.

Panicking, she struggled with all her might, but to no avail. Meanwhile, a lecherous grin spread on Windshadow’s lips as he leaned in to plant a kiss on Hailey’s face.

“You’re a shameless pervert!” Hailey spat on Windshadow’s face. Windshadow’s grin disappeared immediately, and it was replaced by a chilly look. “F*ck! Who do you think you are?”

With that, Windshadow delivered a tight slap across Hailey’s face and sent her flying out of the arena. The members of Violet Cloud Palace caught Hailey before she fell heavily to the ground, so she didn’t suffer any serious injuries.

After throwing Hailey out of the arena, Windshadow glanced around and landed his gaze on Evangeline.

A perverted grin appeared on Windshadow’s face again when he saw Hailey. “Ms. Gunderson, would you like to fight me? I can let you win. All you need to do is let me kiss you. If you allow me to sleep with you, I can get everyone from the Gate of Mountain to let you beat them,” he said to Hailey.

Evangeline saw red and was about to rush into the arena to teach the man a lesson. However, Kai stopped her and said, "You're no match for him. Let me deal with him instead."

Kai decided to teach Windshadow a lesson he would never forget. Right when Kai was about to enter the arena, a figure dashed past him and landed in the arena. Kai realized it was Claus. Prior to that, Claus was defending his own arena, but he rushed to the scene when he saw Windshadow bullying Hailey.

"You're way out of line, Windshadow! I'm going to castrate you!" Claus roared. "You're nothing but a simp, Claus. What gives you the right to yell at me? You're too weak to fight me!" Windshadow didn't take Claus seriously.

"I'm going to castrate you even if it means I'm going to die today!" Claus was so infuriated that his face flushed red, and his aura began raging.

"You're no match for him. Get out of there!" All of a sudden, a beautiful woman appeared in the arena. Claus was about to say something in retort, but he changed his mind the moment he saw the woman.

Claus dared not exhibit any form of disrespect toward Aislin, who had just stepped into the arena. Not only was Aislin a prominent figure in the Supreme Honor Rankings, but she was also the daughter of Quindon, a renowned figure in the Eight Major Secret Realms. "Ms. Yuchamore, I..."

Right as Claus was about to say something else, Aislin shot him a glare. "Leave." Claus shuddered and left the arena. "Ms. Yuchamore, why did you come to my arena instead of staying at yours?"

The lecherous grin was gone from Windshadow's face by then. Instead, he seemed sheepish.

"I can no longer tolerate witnessing your mistreatment of women. I challenge you to a duel. If I lose, you'll have the opportunity to kiss me. But if you lose, I'll ensure your manhood is taken from you," Aislin growled, her eyes filled with menacing intent.

“Ms. Yuchamore, please stop pulling my leg. I know I’m no match for you, and I’m not going to fight you. I’m surrendering...”

Windshadow was no fool. He knew that he could not fight against Aislin and win.

“You’re not allowed to surrender, Aislin bellowed. “Why not? It’s allowed in the rules. You can’t change the rules to your liking just because. your father is Quindon Yuchamore,” Windshadow replied.

Aislin was rendered speechless at that. After all, if she disagreed with him, it meant that she was going up against her father’s rules. However, if she let Windshadow surrender, she would not be able to teach the pervert a lesson.

At that moment, Aislin was stumped. Just then, Kai marched into the arena. “Let me try fighting this shameless man instead.” Aislin turned to Kai and furrowed her brows. “You?”

Even though Kai had rung the Dragon Bell. and even summoned nine golden dragons with one ring, Aislin did not think that he was anyone remarkable.

After all, Kai was only capable of ringing the Dragon Bell because he knew the bell’s secret. What he accomplished had nothing to do with his actual power. How could Kai be a match for Windshadow when he was only a Third Level Spirit Replicator?

“ Kai...”

Hailey promptly stepped forward to stop Kai. “Don’t go. You won’t be able to win against Windshadow.” Claus was livid to see Hailey so worried about Kai.

“Don’t worry. Since he had the audacity to harass you, I’m going to beat the sh*t out of him and make him soil his pants,” Kai reassured Hailey with a faint smile.

A laugh escaped Hailey when she heard that. She then told him, “All right. Be careful then. Just surrender if you can’t handle it, and he won’t be able to keep attacking you.”

Kai nodded and jumped into the arena. “Ms. Yuchamore, he won’t dare to face you, so please step aside. I’ll take your place. If he lacks the courage to confront even a cultivator from the mundane world like me, then he should leave the Eight Major Secret Realms and spare them all the embarrassment,” Kai said to Aislin firmly.

His words were meant to taunt Windshadow and make the latter accept the challenge out of spite. After all, there was nothing Kai could do if Windshadow was adamant about surrendering, for women to Windshadow were far more important than victory.

“Ha! You’re just a nobody from the mundane. world. Why are you still trying to show off? Don’t assume that others are afraid of you because you rang the Dragon Bell. I’ll show you who’s in charge today!” Windshadow shouted, unknowingly falling into Kai’s trap. At that, Aislin left the arena to see how Kai was going to teach Windshadow a lesson.

Many did not know about Kai’s true strength, and since Kai had caught their attention by ringing the Dragon Bell earlier, they all crowded around to watch Kai’s fight against Windshadow.

Even those on the higher platforms turned to watch the fight, hoping to catch a glimpse of Kai’s prowess. Kai was now in the spotlight, and Windshadow was thrilled. If he were to defeat Kai easily, he would become a household name in no time in the Eight Major Secret Realms.

“If I don’t beat the sh*t out of you today, I’ll never step foot into any of the secret realms again.” Right as those words escaped Kai’s mouth, the Dragonslayer Sword manifested in Kai’s hand.

The sword then began humming as it readied itself to attack. Kai sneered at Windshadow. Although his cultivation level appeared unchanged, the Power of Dragons in his body. had secretly surged in strength.

If Kai didn’t intentionally conceal his true power, the roar of a dragon would have shaken the earth the moment the Dragonslayer Sword manifested.

The look of contempt on Windshadow’s faded and was replaced by a solemn expression when he sensed the aura coming from the Dragonslayer Sword.

The second the sword appeared, he knew that Kai wasn't someone to be trifled with. Similarly, Windshadow slowly drew a magic sword that gleamed and exuded murderous intent. Then, both Kai and Windshadow stared at each other, completely still.

In a battle between skilled fighters, the initiator of the attack would gain an advantage at the start of the fight, but in doing so, they would also expose their vulnerabilities and weaknesses.

That one weak point might be taken advantage of by their opponent, and that might spell their defeat. "Come at me! Let me find out how powerful a mundane world cultivator like you can be!" Windshadow beckoned Kai.

Kai scoffed, and in the next second, he made his move. The Dragonslayer Sword in Kai's hands shuddered, and immediately, an aggressive ray of light shot toward Windshadow.

Once Windshadow sensed the light coming from Kai's Dragonslayer Sword, he made his move as well—he began tracing out flowery patterns in the air with his sword..

Boom! A terrifying wave of aura burst out of Windshadow's sword and blocked the light from Kai's sword. Sure enough, Windshadow was powerful, for he had easily blocked Kai's attack.

"Ha! Is that all you've got? I can't believe you had the audacity to brag about this!" Windshadow laughed mockingly as his grim expression from earlier disappeared. Kai's attack had not been a threat to him at all.

"Gathering of the Blades!"

All of a sudden, Windshadow threw his sword into the air. In the next instance, rumbling sounds reverberated in the area. Countless sword shadows appeared above Kai's head and began raining down on him.

Simultaneously, Windshadow stomped his foot, making countless rocks and debris all around. The arena shot up into the sky before burying Kai.

There was nowhere for Kai to flee. Swords were raining down on him, and rocks were locking him in place. "Hahaha! Did you think I was weak because I wasn't on the Supreme Honor Rankings?"

Windshadow started laughing boisterously. Right then, another humming sound echoed in the air. Immediately after that, a flash of golden light ascended and shattered the rock pile Kai was trapped in.

The origin of the golden light was none other than Kai's Dragonslayer Sword. By then, Kai was already covered in golden scales. His Golem Body had been activated and was now protecting him.

Clink! Clink! Clink! The swords bounced off Kai, who was currently enveloped in golden scales, causing no harm to him whatsoever. Those who witnessed the scene gasped.

They could not comprehend what was covering Kai and how it could be that strong. Even Windshadow knitted his brows as he looked at Kai frostily. "Say, who do you think will win this fight? Kai or Windshadow?" Quindon asked as he observed the fight from above.

"Even though it seems like Kai has endless tricks up his sleeve, it's only because he has various kinds of magical items on him. The armor and the sword in his hands are all extraordinary items. If not for these items, Windshadow would have defeated him a long time ago," Lamar analyzed.

"A good analysis, Mr. Macall. Kai doesn't have a high cultivation level, but he is capable of holding his own against Windshadow because of the magical items he possesses." "But it doesn't seem logical for someone from the mundane world to have so many magical items."

Even Angus was convinced that Kai stood no chance against Windshadow. "Let's wait and see. I'm afraid Kai's true strength is beyond our imagination," Santiago uttered, his gaze fixed on Kai.

Santiago had been watching when Windshadow bullied Hailey, but according to the rules, he was not allowed to interfere in the fight, not unless Hailey surrendered and Windshadow continued to harass her. If that had happened, Santiago would have the right to make his move.

Therefore, Kai left a good impression on Santiago when he went into the arena to stand up for the latter's daughter. That was why he was complimenting Kai under such circumstances. “Mr. Chance has yet to take this seriously. Otherwise, Windshadow would have been defeated a long while ago,” Wayne chimed in.

Wayne knew that Kai had a Blazing Tiger as his mount. If Kai were to release the Blazing Tiger and work together with it, Windshadow would not have stood a chance against their combined power at all.

Nevertheless, Kai had yet to release the Blazing Tiger. Wayne guessed that Kai was afraid that he would make enemies if he were to reveal his true power. Meanwhile, the others turned to glance at Wayne in disbelief.

They were unconvinced by Wayne as Kai was only a Third Level Spirit Replicator. The fact that he could handle an attack from Windshadow was impressive enough, but they remained skeptical about his ability to defeat Windshadow quickly.

Wayne fell silent when he realized none of them believed him. Right then, Chester was the only one still paying full attention to the fight in the arena.

On the other side, Windshadow had a grimace on his face as he uttered to Kai, “Boy, you’ve got quite an amount of magical items for a mundane world cultivator, but those items of yours will never be able to make up for the gap in power between us.”

Having uttered those words, Windshadow thrust his sword forward, causing a beam of light to swiftly cleave through the air, hurtling towards Kai’s head.

Windshadow appeared to have figured out how invincible Kai’s Golem Body was, so he was now going for Kai’s head instead. If his attack was successful, Kai was going to die right there and then.

“Kai, watch out!” Hailey shouted when she realized Windshadow was going to kill Kai. At the same time, when Chester realized that Windshadow was unleashing a fatal blow on Kai, he quickly turned to Quindon and said, “Mr. Yuchamore, Windshadow has gone against the rules and is planning to kill his opponent!”

The duels in the Secret Realm Conference were only a test to find out which individuals were stronger than the others and a method to gain more resources. No one in the fights bore a grudge against each other, so they were not supposed to kill anyone.

However, Windmist of Gate of Mountain scoffed in disdain and said, “Mr. Gunderson, this is a fight between elites. It’s inevitable for slip-ups to happen during the duel. Moreover, Kai isn’t an idiot. It’s not like he doesn’t know how to avoid the attack.”

“Windmist, what are you talking about? Do you really think your disciple is slipping up? It’s obvious that he wants Kai dead! If anything happens to Mr. Chance, the Gundersons will never let you off the hook!” Chester snapped, glaring viciously at Windmist.

“Hmph! Who do you Gundersons think you are? Your family is nothing in the Gate of Fire. I can’t believe you were bold enough to threaten me!” Windmist spat, not at all threatened by the Gunderson family.

“You-“Infuriated, Chester began exuding a frightening aura. Windmist did the same. “That’s enough. The Secret Realm Conference isn’t a place for the two of you to fight,” Quindon snapped, and the two of them finally stood down, keeping their tempers tightly reined in.

Meanwhile, in the arena, Kai fixated his gaze on the luminous beam emitted by Windshadow’s sword, subtly adjusting his footing as his form underwent a transformative change.
