

The Mans Decree Chapter 2325 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2325

A Man Like None Other Novel

“All right; stop being such a coward! You’re a man, so you should take responsibility for sleeping with her! A dragon and a phoenix make a perfect pair anyway! Also, that girl has given you all of her power, so she must be deeply in love with you! You should marry her if you have the chance. Anyway, let’s put that aside for now. Hurry up and help me find the location marked on the treasure map!” Ranzoph urged him.

Kai took a deep breath to calm himself down before heading out using the treasure map as a reference point. Although his strength was restricted by Heavenly Law, there was no one else in the secret realm, so he had nothing to worry about.

Chester and the others figured Kai must have entered the secret realm as he had been inside the vortex for far too long. Quindon was injured by the strong current of the vortex and got ejected out of there, but. Kai was always full of surprises.

A loud rumbling noise echoed throughout the area as the ground beneath their feet began to shake violently all of a sudden. “Oh, no! This secret realm is about to collapse! We need to leave right now!” Quindon shouted at the top of his voice.

Hearing this, everyone quickly ran toward the Teleportation Array and returned to their respective secret realms. Chester glanced at the black vortex one final time before he was forced to leave as well. The appearance of a new secret realm meant the destruction of an old one.

However, none of them expected the secret realm that would disappear to be the one they were having their Secret Realm Conference in. It was most likely related to the Dragon Bell that Kai had taken away.

It wasn’t long before everyone inside the secret realm had evacuated the place. There was a loud boom as the secret realm broke into several pieces and disappeared completely.

Kai was still rushing toward the location marked on the treasure map, so he was completely unaware that the secret realm used for the Secret Realm Conference had collapsed and disappeared.

He suddenly paused in his tracks after making it through a dense jungle, and the look on his face grew anxious in an instant.

Kai had detected multiple different auras that were closing in on his direction. "Huh? Why are there people here in this secret realm?" asked Ranzoph in confusion. Kai, too, was just as surprised.

Could it be that the others came in when they didn't see me come back out? With my strength being restricted, I don't want to run into these people until I know who they are! I should hide somewhere and see how things go!

With that in mind, he quickly hid himself and waited to see what would happen. Soon, dozens of figures slowly came into view. Kai was frozen in shock when he saw who they were.

These people aren't from the Eight Major Secret Realms! They're from the hidden realm! I may not know most of them, but I do know Garthor from Stormwind Sect and Isaac from Alchemical Sect! There are a few more middle-aged men among them. Judging by the strength of their auras, I'd say they've achieved Martial Arts Sovereign! They're most likely sect leaders!

"Who would've thought an entrance to a secret realm would open up near our hidden realm, huh? This place is amazing! Simply breathing in the air is enough to make one feel refreshed and relaxed! I think I'll move my sect here!" Wrey said enthusiastically.

Isaac's eyes lit up with excitement when he saw the herbs growing all over the mountain. "Yes, you're right! The herbs in this place are rich in variety! I think I'm going to move Alchemical Sect here too! This place is many times bigger than our hidden realm, so we won't have to compete against each other for territory and resources!"

"Don't get too carried away just yet, you guys. If this secret realm has an existing owner, then we could get into very serious trouble for trespassing without permission! I think we should explore this place thoroughly before making any further plans. If there really is no one here, then we can consider moving here," Hugh said.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2326 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2326

A Man Like None Other Novel

Isaac nodded in agreement. "Yes, that's right! Let's explore this place thoroughly! I'm pretty sure the other sects have made it here as well. We just don't know where they got transported to. Let's see if we will run into them or something!"

Kai was starting to get the gist of the situation after listening in on their conversation. I see... Another entrance to this secret realm has opened up in the hidden realm. That's why the people from the hidden realm are able to get in here!

Seeing as the guys were getting closer and closer, Kai held his breath and suppressed his aura completely for fear of being detected. Hugh from Stormwind Sect and Wrey of Flying Star Sect believed that Kai killed their sons, so they were hunting him down to get their revenge.

With Kai's strength being restricted by Heavenly Law, all he could do was pray that those guys would not find him there. On top of that, he also wished he could run into Matthew and the others from Luminous Sect. That way, he would at least have some allies to back him. up in case he got into a fight.

Kai also wished Yashur would enter the secret realm with him. With someone as powerful as Yashur on his side, Kai would have no reason to fear those guys at all.

Although he was already doing his best to conceal his presence, Wrey still noticed him when passing by. Wrey then paused in his tracks and turned. toward the direction Kai was hiding in. "Who's there? Come on out!"

With that, the entire group followed his gaze and stared in Kai's direction. Since he could no longer remain in hiding, Kai slowly rose to his feet. Wrey had never met Kai, so he asked the latter with a confused frown, "Who are you?"

All he knew was that Kai was not from the hidden realm. "Kai? What are you doing here?" Garthor exclaimed in surprise when he recognized Kai.

Wrey's entire body exuded a strong murderous intent when he heard Kai's name. "This secret realm doesn't belong to you, so why can't I be here?" Kai snapped back at Garthor. "You..."

Garthor was about to attack Kai in frustration when Hugh stopped him. "This guy is very powerful. You might not be able to defeat him in a fight."

If Tucker was no match for Kai, then Garthor definitely doesn't stand a chance! Little did they know, Kai's strength was being suppressed so much that even Garthor would be able to beat him with ease..

"So, you're Kai?" Wrey asked while stepping forward menacingly.

"Yes, that's right! And who might you be?" Kai responded. "I am Wrey Lindt of the Flying Star Sect. You killed my son, Avery Lindt!"

The murderous intent in Wrey's eyes intensified when he mentioned Avery. "I told you: I didn't kill Avery! It was Elgado of Scorching Heaven Sect who absorbed his powers! His death had nothing to do with me!" Kai explained.

"Do you really think I'd believe you? I know you're very powerful. In fact, you're so powerful that even our best assassin, Sonyx, has died at your hands. However, you were unlucky to have run into me today! I won't let you off so easily!"

Kai froze in confusion when he heard that. Sonyx escaped long ago, and I didn't even bother to go after him, so how did he end up dead? While he was still stunned, Wrey unleashed his aura as a Martial Arts Sovereign. The immense pressure he emanated felt as if a mountain was descending upon Kai.

This young punk was able to kill Sonyx, so let's see how tough he really is! Right as Wrey's intimidating aura began to surround Kai, the latter instinctively retaliated with his own spiritual energy.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2327 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2327

A Man Like None Other Novel

Unfortunately, his abilities were being suppressed. The portion of both his spiritual energy and the Power of Dragons that he could utilize was very little. Kai had just released his aura to resist but was instantly pushed down to the ground by an immense force.

The tremendous pressure caused cracks to appear beneath Kai's feet. He lay on the ground, gritting his teeth as his expression became contorted in agony. If it weren't for his robust physique, Kai would've been reduced to a bloody pulp by then.

Wrey retracted his aura and gazed at Kai in slight astonishment. "Is that all you've got?" The former furrowed his brows. With that limited capability, how could Kai have killed Avery, let alone Sonyx?

Garthor was also astounded to see Kai in that state. When he first met Kai, the latter wasn't that weak. "Kai, enough with the pretense. You can't be this weak. Are you attempting to deceive us with this fragile act?" Garthor questioned Kai, his voice filled with doubt and disbelief.

Kai slowly rose to his feet, a trickle of blood escaping from the corner of his mouth. However, he chose to remain silent. There was no way he would expose his current condition of having his strength suppressed.

Sensing Kai's silence, Garthor thrust a palm in the man's direction. A dazzling surge of martial energy surged forward, striking Kai forcefully in the chest with immense power.

Kai furrowed his brows and swiftly mobilized the Power of Dragons, attempting to activate his Golem Body technique. Golden lights erupted as a layer of shimmering golden scales began to envelop Kai's entire body.

However, to Kai's dismay, the moment the golden scales formed and enveloped his body, he felt the Power of Dragons quickly dissipating. His body weakened, and the Golem Body he had just activated dissipated into thin air.

Bam! The force of the palm strike sent Kai hurtling backward, his body crashing through more than a dozen trees as they snapped and splintered in his path. The momentum carried him until he collided forcefully with a massive rock, his body coming to a sudden and painful stop..

Kai felt his internal organs churning and spat out a mouthful of blood. "How could this be?"

Garthor took in the scene in disbelief. He hadn't even exerted his full strength earlier, yet his attack had left Kai unable to retaliate. "His aura is scattering. It seems he's injured, so he couldn't gather his power," Hugh piped up at that moment.

He had been observing Kai. As he witnessed Kai's failed attempt to harness the Power of Dragons and activate Golem Body, Hugh couldn't help but notice that the dissipation of power was not due to Kai's inherent weakness. Instead, it seemed that Kai was unable to concentrate his energy effectively for some unknown reason.

“I don’t care if he’s weak or injured or can’t garner his power. Someone must answer for my son’s death. I will avenge my son today!” With that, Wrey swung his hand at Kai.

As Wrey unleashed his power as a Martial Arts Sovereign, the atmosphere around him shifted dramatically. The sky darkened, and the ground quivered beneath his immense aura. With a single gesture, a colossal palmprint materialized in the air, descending upon Kai with an overwhelming force, akin to a mountain descending from the heavens.

The tremendous pressure emanating from the descending palmprint bore down on Kai, pushing him forcefully into the ground. The sheer weight of the attack immobilized him completely, preventing any chance of him rising to his feet.

Kai lay on the ground as the bones within him protested with agonizing creaks. The substantial pressure was shattering his body, causing blood to seep out of his skin.

Glancing at the giant palmprint in the air, the realization of his impending demise washed over him. The aura of death permeated the air, and he could feel its icy grip tightening around him. I’m on the brink of death!

As Kai’s life teetered on the edge, his mind became a canvas on which memories and images painted themselves with vivid clarity. Faces of women surfaced in his mind, one after another.

In the midst of the swirling memories and impending darkness, a familiar figure emerged from the depths of Kai’s consciousness. It was his mother, her gentle smile radiating warmth and comfort as she slowly approached him.

Kai also saw his father, a formidable presence with a towering stature. However, a veil of obscurity shrouded the man’s face, preventing Kai from gaining a clear view. Even so, Kai found solace in the memories of his loved ones. A sense of contentment washed over him, and a faint smile graced his lips.

“It seems like I need to find a new host...” Ranzoph’s voice rang out. He couldn’t help Kai as he wasn’t even considered a spirit at that instant..

The Mans Decree Chapter 2328 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2328

A Man Like None Other Novel

Just as Kai awaited his impending death, the pressure on him suddenly eased. Immediately afterward, the giant palmprint atop him also gradually vanished. A figure stood beside Kai with his hands thrust forward, resisting the enormous palmprint with all his might.

“Mr. Chance, are you all right?” At that moment, Archer and Skyler helped Kai to his feet, and the man holding out against the giant palmprint was none other than Matthew from Luminous Sect.

“Mr. Campbell, thank you,” Kai expressed his gratitude upon taking in that scene. Matthew withdrew his aura and said, “You’re too courteous, Mr. Chance. I didn’t expect you to have entered this place as well.”

“Matthew, are you going to openly oppose Flying Star Sect for this brat?” Wrey’s voice carried a cold undertone as he addressed Matthew, “Anyone who tries to harm Mr. Chance is an enemy of Luminous Sect,” the latter replied firmly.

Just then, dozens of people from the hidden realm’s nine sects rushed over from various directions. However, many sects had no grudge against Kai, so they harbored no hostility toward him.

Although they didn’t regard Kai with enmity, that didn’t mean they would lend a helping hand to rescue him. Those people stood on the side, quietly watching the standoff between Matthew and Wrey.

Considering their strengths, Luminous Sect was inferior to Flying Star Sect, but Wrey wasn’t inclined to clash with Luminous Sect at that instant. If they both suffered devastating losses, it would be difficult for them to stake a claim in the secret realm.

Despite the usual harmonious coexistence of the sects on the front, the balance was actually backed by their relatively equal strength. However, if one party were significantly weakened, it wouldn’t take long for the other sects to swallow it up.

Precisely because of that, no serious confrontation occurred among the nine sects after so many years. After all, none of them was willing to be swallowed up Wrey's gaze shifted to Hugh, his voice dripping with iciness as he questioned, "Hugh, your own son was killed by Kai. Don't you have the desire for vengeance?"

If Flying Star Sect and Stormwind Sect joined forces, Luminous Sect could be easily wiped out. "He did kill my son, but I haven't thought about revenge yet," Hugh responded nonchalantly.

Emiliano wasn't Hugh's biological son, so the latter couldn't care less. Besides, he had instructed Emiliano to undertake the mission with the intention of letting Kai eliminate Emiliano.

"Hugh, the murderer of your son stands right in front of you. How can you stand idly by? If we join forces, Matthew won't be able to stop us," Wrey tried to convince Hugh.

"I may not be able to stop you, but I am willing to self-destruct and take you all down with me!" Matthew declared, his voice resolute. "Listen to my command, disciples of the Luminous Sect. If anyone attempts to harm Mr. Chance, self-destruct without hesitation, even if it means we all perish together!"

"Understood!" All Luminous Sect's disciples' auras began to intensify. Seeing that, Wrey was dumbfounded. Even in his wildest dream, he didn't imagine Matthew would make such a choice. "Matthew, do you think it's worth it to go to such length for Kai?" Wrey shouted in bafflement.

"Yes!" A determined look spread across Matthew's countenance. Members of the other sects were unnerved upon sensing Matthew's resolve. If he were to self-destruct, the consequences would be dire..

"Calm down, Mr. Campbell. Don't be so tense. There's always room for negotiation." Isaac stepped forward and tried to talk some sense into Matthew.

Nevertheless, Matthew paid no attention to Isaac. The latter was a despicable man who had colluded with the Scorching Heaven Sect to deceive Matthew for many years. It was no surprise that Matthew harbored deep resentment toward him.

"Mr. Chance, can you still move?" "Yes." Kai nodded. Hearing this, Matthew instantly urged him to flee, saying, "Mr. Chance, leave at once; the farther, the better. Leave the matters here to me!"

