The Mans Decree Chapter 2385 -

"I'm not running, and I don't need anyone to save me. I'll just stay here and listen to your shameless big talks. You should know better than anyone how many times I've evaded you," Kai uttered nonchalantly while leaning on his Dragonslayer Sword.

Kai's remark made Wrey seethe with anger. He hadn't expected Kai, who was on the verge of his limits, to still dare to talk back to him in that insolent manner.

"Brat, you're bloody stubborn. I swear I'll torment you to my heart's content today." Enraged, Wrey unleashed his overwhelming aura to envelop Kai. At that moment, Ultimate Force within Kai's body glimmered, but Kai continued to suppress it from bursting forth.

He gritted his teeth, struggling to resist the profound aura emanated from Wrey while saying disdainfully, "I heard someone peed in his pants from fright when encountering a Manifestor. Was that you? Wetting your pants when you ran into a Manifestor while acting haughtily toward those inferior to you. You're no different from a spineless cur!"

Kai provoked Wrey continuously because when someone was beside themselves with fury, they wouldn't be able to think straight and would also be less observant. Kai wanted to make Wrey lose his keen vigilance. Otherwise, the latter would soon discover the force within him.

"Brat, go to hell!" Wrey's anger peaked right after he heard Kai saying the words "peed their pants." He balled his fist and punched Kai's abdomen with all his might.

Kai's body was instantly blasted backward like a piece of leaf. Only after flying hundreds of meters did Kai land heavily, forming a deep crater on the ground. Kai, who had initially managed to escape to the entrance of the valley, was now thrown backward again.

Blech! Kai propped his body up with his hands and spat out a mouthful of blood. At that moment, his forehead was drenched in a cold sweat, and the pain from his internal organs was unbearable.

Although Kai's physique was already robust, he still got hurt after enduring a punch from Wrey. If it weren't because Kai had unleashed a trace of Ultimate Force when Wrey assaulted him earlier, that attack would've killed Kai.

Meanwhile, when Wrey and the others noticed Kai was still alive and even used Dragonslayer Sword to pull himself up, they were astounded and rendered speechless. "That guy's body is insanely tough!" "Who exactly is he? Is there no way to kill him?" "How strange. Very strange indeed…"

Everyone stared at Kai, who had risen again and began to speculate. A darkened expression spread across Wrey's countenance. Kai was already at his limits, yet his punch still couldn't kill Kai.

With so many people from the hidden realm watching, Wrey felt utterly humiliated. Wetting his pants was very embarrassing for him, yet he was being put to shame once again.

"Is that all you've got? Feels more like a tickle to me," Kai jeered at Wrey after wiping the blood. trickling down the corner of his mouth. Wrey blew a gasket, listening to Kai's mockery. The hair on his scalp bristled, and his clothes billowed even in the absence of wind.

"I'm going to kill you! I'll kill you! I'll tear you to pieces!" Wrey bellowed. His figure turned into a blur as he materialized before Kai the next instant.

Immediately afterward, bursts of golden light, which was dazzling like the sun, erupted from Wrey's fists, and he struck Kai ferociously. Kai hastily surveyed his surroundings.

When the potent punch collided with Kai's body, he flew backward once again. This time, he was sent even further, but while his body was still in midair, he let out all the Ultimate Force within him.

Kai's figure shone with blinding radiance, and a powerful aura cocooned him as he traveled through the air to the distance.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2386 -

At that sight, Wrey let out a loud cry of dismay and quickly gave chase. "This is bad. I walked right into his trap. I can't believe that brat still had some strength left…"

Seeing that, the others also followed suit. It finally dawned on them that Kai had deliberately provoked Wrey, then used the impact force of the latter's punch to escape. That had been his plan all along!

While Kai was up ahead, fleeing for his life, Wrey and his group were hot on his heels. Although Kai had unleashed Ultimate Force, his head still spun, and he felt as though he was about to faint.

"I can't pass out. I absolutely can't let that happen…" He bit his tongue hard in a desperate attempt to remain conscious. However, he soon came to the farthest end of the valley. A dark abyss lay at the end of the path where the altar had been destroyed.

Countless phantoms were still crawling out from the abyss, and after noticing Kai, they brandished their knives and started charging toward him. However, Kai had no wish to fight with the phantoms. Hence, he stepped aside and dodged them.

At that moment, Wrey and the rest finally caught up to Kai. Upon seeing that Kai had nowhere to run, Wrey finally breathed a sigh of relief. Everyone would've laughed at me if I had allowed him to get away!

When the phantoms saw that more people had arrived, they started attacking. As Hugh led the others to slaughter the phantoms, Wrey fixed his gaze on Kai and sneered. "I nearly fell for your trick, you brat. Let's see where else you can run now."

"I've told you that you can't kill me, so there's no way I'll die at your hands. I won't let that happen…" The corners of Kai's lips curved upward slightly. Then, with one sudden leap, he jumped straight into the abyss the phantoms were coming out from!

"What…" Wrey was instantly dumbfounded. It had never occurred to him that Kai would jump in there. He dashed forward, only to discover that the abyss emitted a lethal intent many times stronger than that in the valley. Not only that, shrill screams filled the chasm, and phantoms continuously swarmed out of it. The scene sent a chill down his spine.

He did not know if he should jump down too and kill Kai with his own hands. Whatever was in the abyss was a mystery to him, not to mention the lethal intent was too strong. As such, he could not help feeling at little fearful! Just then, Hugh came over. "What's the matter?

Did Kai jump in?" "Yes," Wrey replied, nodding. Hugh glanced into the dark pit before saying, "There's such a strong lethal intent in there, and many phantoms too. Jumping down there will probably mean the end for him anyway. We should leave this place first, then stand guard at the valley's entrance. If he does make it out alive, that's the only place he can go. We can't kill these phantoms anymore. After we've mastered Yona's techniques, these phantoms will be our best resource."

Hugh's reminder stemmed from his worry that Wrey's desire for revenge would cloud his rationality. Wrey snapped to his senses at those words, and when he saw that many phantoms had been killed, he was deeply distressed.

"Retreat! Let's hurry up and get out of here!" Hearing his command, everyone hastily fell back. When they arrived at the entrance to the valley, Wrey had his men close the gates, which stood dozens of meters tall, that led to the valley. The reason was to prevent the phantoms from getting out.

We need to learn the techniques first. Only then will we open the gates and kill those phantoms! Turning to Yona, Wrey said, "Here's your chance for redemption. Teach us your techniques."

"Very well." Yona nodded and did not dare to say anything else. After that, she began imparting her knowledge to the group. Thus, Wrey and the people from the hidden realm began learning the techniques of Demonic Cultivation from Yona.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2387 -

Inside the valley's abyss, Kai's body was slowly falling downward. He could sense the thick and intense lethal intent around him, and his brain began to get fuzzy.

He vaguely felt something keep brushing past him. It seemed to be the phantoms, but at the same time, it did not seem like them. If it's them, why don't they attack me?

Before he knew it, he lost consciousness. Although his body continued falling downward, it seemed like he was being supported as his speed of descent became much slower.

Finally, his body landed on a circular platform. The moment he stopped falling, numerous phantoms swarmed around him. However, after taking one look at him, they did not attack and merely crawled out of the abyss.

He lay there quietly. Even as scores of phantoms passed by him, not a single one tried to harm him. After what seemed like forever, Kai slowly opened his eyes. Apart from the pitch-black darkness surrounding him, he was also greeted by the sight of teeming crowds of phantoms.

The phantoms emitted a faint white glow in the abyss, and they would float upward one after another. Alarmed to see the sheer number of phantoms, he gripped his Dragonslayer Sword tightly and looked around warily.

A moment later, however, he realized that those phantoms seemed to not see him. None of them wanted to attack him! He heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he began to survey his surroundings..

Although he could not see much clearly due to the darkness, he could clearly see the round platform beneath his feet. He circled it once and found that its diameter spanned a hundred meters. It was massive. However, there seemed to be more space under the platform, and the whole platform appeared suspended in midair.

"What is this place?" he muttered. I remember jumping into the abyss under the altar, but I wasn't expecting it to be so big! He wanted to use his spiritual sense to investigate the space, but no sooner had he tried doing that than he realized he had already depleted the spiritual energy in his elixir field.

Exasperated, he had no choice but to sit cross- legged and start restoring his strength. Fortunately, there was an abundance of lethal intent around him. It was no different to him than spiritual energy, so he could quickly replenish his energy.

However, he had just activated his Focus Technique when he frowned. "Huh? Why does it seem as though this place contains Skylar's aura?" He was surprised, wondering why Skylar's aura would appear in such a place.

Kai could not remember how long it had been since he last saw Skylar. In fact, he had no idea whether the latter was still alive or not. However, the unexpected appearance of Skylar's aura made him suddenly think about the latter.

Nonetheless, his surprise only lasted for a while, and he swiftly entered a cultivation state. I don't believe that Skylar was here. After all, this is a place that I inadvertently stumbled upon. It's impossible that he would've been here. While he was quickly recovering through cultivation, Matthew, Yashur, and the others were on pins and needles inside the secret realm.

They had also regained their strength but were. panicking because Kai was nowhere to be seen, They were worried that things would not turn out well for Kai if he happened to run into Wrey and his gang. Kai alone would not be able to fight against so many opponents. Hence, such an encounter would only mean certain death for him!

"Well? Did you find Mr. Chance?" Yashur asked anxiously, his brows tightly furrowed. Matthew shook his head. "Nope. I covered two hundred miles this time, but I still didn't come across any sign of him."

"Neither did I. I sent all my disciples out to search but haven't received any news," Great Diviner piped up with a shake of his head. A sinking feeling crept over Yashur when he heard that, thinking there was no way Kai would not have returned after so many days if he was indeed fine. He should know we'll worry about him. Since he isn't back yet, he must be in danger!

"Let's split up to look for him. Whether we find him or not, we'll meet back here three days later." With that, Yashur disappeared from their sight in a flash.

Matthew and Great Diviner also split up and headed in separate directions to continue their search.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2388 -

There was a huge amount of lethal intent in the cave, so Kai recovered very quickly. After he had recuperated, he gradually opened his eyes and realized he was still on the round platform.

At that moment, Kai didn't dare to head up because he didn't know if Wrey and the others had left. Hence, he approached the edge of the round platform and looked down. There was nothing but pitch-black darkness, so he couldn't tell how deep the cave was.

"Could it be hell down there?" Kai's curiosity. was piqued as he stared into what seemed to be a bottomless cave. At the same time, the phantoms were still constantly emerging, and as it turned out, they were coming out from within the cave.

"There are so many phantoms. What's underneath?" Kai paced back and forth curiously. In the end, he gritted his teeth and jumped off the round platform and into the bottomless cave.

The moment he jumped off the round platform, Kai felt an intense wave of oppressive pressure preventing him from falling at high speed. Something's holding on to me and preventing me from going under.

Kai had no choice but to use his elixir field to increase the weight of his body. Only then did his speed recover. However, as Kai fell into the cave, the oppressive pressure intensified to the point. where it was enough to crush his body.

If it weren't for his robust physique and Golem Body, Kai would've been reduced to a bloody pulp by now. After some time, Kai suddenly felt. weightless, and in the next second, he plummeted like a meteor. In response, Kai quickly tried to balance his body. As his speed of descent increased, his surroundings became brighter.

Boom! A loud crash rang out, and Kai crashed. heavily onto the ground, causing a crater to form. Kai gathered himself and slowly climbed out of that crater. As soon as he climbed out of the deep crater, he was utterly stunned.

With a gloomy sky over his head, he noticed mountains surrounding him, and the ground was filled with countless skeletons and weapons.

There were also a few crows hovering over the land that seemed barren and lifeless. Apart from the crows in the sky, there wasn't a single sign of life in the area.

"W-What is this place? Is this an ancient battlefield?" Kai's face was filled with disbelief. I don't get it. I was in that dark cave moments ago. How did I suddenly end up here? Could the cave be a Teleportation Array? Did I get teleported here? I don't understand what's happening! Where am I?

Even after Kai had unleashed his spiritual sense to the maximum, he still couldn't detect any source of aura. Well, since I'm already here, I might as well check out the area. Who knows? I might end up finding something mysterious here!

There, Kai noticed that the skeletons were shining brightly. Afterward, phantoms would emerge sky. from the skeletons and float into the Kai then lifted his gaze to see where the phantoms were heading to. Upon lifting his gaze, he saw a black hole swirling in the air and devouring the phantoms.

"What? Did I fall through there?" Kai stared at the black hole in the sky and understood something. I must've fallen through that black hole. Meanwhile, these phantoms are making their way to the mountains through the black hole! That must be it! Otherwise, why would these phantoms float into the sky and get devoured by the black hole?

Seeing that, Kai swung Dragonslayer Sword in the air. There are plenty of phantoms in the sky, so I can kill a dozen with one swing! That way, my Ultimate Force will increase!

To Kai's surprise, something bizarre happened. After he took a swing at the phantoms, the light emitted from his Dragonslayer Sword merely passed through the phantoms without causing them any damage..