

The Mans Decree Chapter 2501 -

Chapter 2501 Mission

Seeing the elderly man, everyone was shocked, completely unprepared to discover that Tanner, the leader of the formidable Evil Heart Sect, possessed a benevolent and gentle countenance.

Even Malphas, who had faithfully followed Tanner for years, was caught off guard, his eyes widening as he beheld Tanner's face for the first time.

"Mr. Sanders, w-what is going on?"

Kai could barely hide his shock. It looks like Mr. Sanders knows Lord Tanner of the Evil Heart Sect. He could even call out his name. Mr. Sanders also mentioned that the Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation is nothing but a scam. What is going on?

"Don't you understand? Is it not clear by now who set up the Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation?" Arthur asked.

"Divine Quest Sect set it up," came Kai's answer.

"Divine Quest Sect may have established the formation, but isn't it peculiar that Lord Tanner of Evil Heart Sect possesses the ability to activate it?" Arthur queried.

Kai was thrown into confusion, finding his brain muddled.

Soon, he seemed to realize something as he gazed at Rudy in shock. "I-Is he the sect leader of Divine Quest Sect?"

He recalled how he used the Wordless Tome to witness the events within the secret realm of Divine Quest Sect.

Initially, the sect had appeared tranquil and undisturbed. However, in the blink of an eye, the people vanished, replaced by an eerie congregation of stone statues, alongside the supposed Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation.

Instead of answering Kai's question, Arthur turned to Rudy. "Is it worth it to sacrifice everyone in the sect to set up this formation and scheme for years in Evil Heart Sect?"

"Of course. You don't understand, but this is my mission," Rudy replied.

"Mission?" Arthur frowned as a scowl crept up his face. "Did you seriously sacrifice that many people for your mission to save someone who deserved to die? Do you know how many people you've killed?"

Arthur glanced at the dead bodies on the ground, courtesy of Rudy. "Cease your attempts to sway my decision. I will not waver," Rudy declared resolutely. "Certain matters lack definitive truths, and there are forces that cannot be halted indefinitely!"

Following his proclamation, the radiant sunshine faded, giving way to an ominous darkness.

From within the abyss, a sinister black mist materialized, coalescing into an enormous face. Its piercing eyes glowed with an otherworldly brilliance. As the ominous face materialized, an overwhelming sense of foreboding enveloped everyone present.

The face's mouth widened, giving passage to a bronze coffin that soared forth. Upon the arrival of the coffin, the motionless stone statues scattered across the ground began to quiver.

Eight radiant glows of various hues burst forth from the statues, converging in mid-air and enveloping the bronze coffin.

The kaleidoscope of colors blanketed the metallic casket, suspending it weightlessly in the atmosphere. The eight stone statues slowly disappeared as Josephine and the rest came tumbling out of the statues.

"Josephine!"

Kai hurriedly approached Josephine and the others; his concern etched across his face as he carefully assessed their condition.

Though their auras appeared feeble, indicating their depleted strength, he was relieved to find no immediate danger befalling them.

"Mr. Sanders, what is going on?" Kai was utterly baffled.

He wasn't the only one, for the others at the scene were equally perplexed, particularly those from Evil Heart Sect, such as Quindon and his comrades.

They had blindly followed Tanner, believing him to be their esteemed leader solely for the sake of the Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation.

Little did they know that Tanner was none other than Rudy, the sect leader of Divine Quest Sect. This revelation left them feeling betrayed and deceived.

Malphas, who had closely interacted with Tanner, felt a profound sense of realization as the truth finally dawned upon him. He recognized that he had been naively trusting Tanner's words, unaware of the lies woven by the enigmatic figure.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2502 -

Chapter 2502 My Life

Instead of answering Kai's question, Arthur asked, "Can you sense the aura of the face in the air?"

Kai nodded. "Yes."

Arthur commanded, "Focus on sensing it."

Kai shut his eyes, allowing the spiritual sense in his brain to spread out to sense the aura of the human face.

Shortly after, Kai furrowed his brows as cold sweat formed on his brows.

"Tell me. What did you sense?" Arthur inquired.

"The face's aura is strange. It is complicated, seemingly encompassing a lot of things. I even sense my own aura entwined within its own aura!" Kai said in anguish.

"This face is made up of your auras. Your fighting auras, anger, and the souls of the dead people were absorbed into this face. You managed to rescue those people from the Evil Heart Sect's dungeon because Rudy allowed it. If he hadn't wanted you to save anyone, do you think you would have been able to save them with your own strength? Think about it. Why were those people from the Eight Major Secret Realms locked up on the third level of the dungeon? Are they really that important? Actually, they're not important at all. Rudy purposely locked them up on the third level because you would have to pass through the first two levels to reach the third level, which would result in saving everyone in the first two levels. He wants you to save them and bring them here. The disciples of Evil Heart Sect were just pawns to him, and their lives didn't matter because they would become his resources no matter what. I don't know if you can understand, but please remember that those from the Ethereal Realm are even more complex than you can imagine."

Kai stood frozen after hearing Arthur's revelation. It all made sense now—why his rescue mission had gone so smoothly, why the relatives of Quindon and others were imprisoned on the third level, and why the Ethereal Realm inhabitants were held captive in the Evil Heart Sect's dungeon.

Those from Evil Heart Sect, including Malphas, Quindon, and the like, stared at Rudy in shock.

They had no idea they were pawns leading up to today's events.

They stared at the dead bodies, feeling their hearts being stabbed by needles. “Why? Why did he plan this for so long? What is his goal?” Kai was utterly confused.

Rudy showed no concern for his own sect’s disciples and had been masquerading as Tanner to control Evil Heart Sect for decades. He had even kept Quindon and others in the dark all these years. Kai couldn’t fathom what Rudy’s objective was.

“That’s because he wants to revive the person in the bronze coffin,” Arthur said, raising his head slowly to gaze at the bronze coffin blanketed in an array of colorful lights.

Kai cast a curious glance at the bronze coffin. “What could be inside that coffin that made Rudy go to such lengths to plan this intricate scheme?” All eyes turned to Arthur, their curiosity piqued about the individual inside the bronze coffin who held enough significance for Rudy to keep his true identity hidden for such a long time.

A faint smile formed on Arthur’s lips. “That’s not information you should be aware of. The truth will be revealed in due time by someone else.”

With that, Arthur shifted his focus to Rudy. “I came here to put an end to your actions. How dare you unleash this bronze coffin?”

Rudy let out an icy bark of laughter. “You won’t be able to stop me. The formation has been activated, and the eight auras belonging to unique constituents have entered the bronze coffin. No one can stop me!”

“Now that I’m here, I’m confident that I can put a stop to your actions,” Arthur said confidently.

“How would you do that?” Rudy asked.

“By sacrificing my life.”

After Rudy heard Arthur’s answer, his expression changed abruptly.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2503 -

Chapter 2503 Stop

“I won’t let you succeed. I’ve planned this for decades, and I won’t let you stop me!” Rudy declared.

Jumping into the air, he swiftly performed a sequence of hand seals, causing an eight trigrams image to materialize and envelop the colossal face.

The expression on the face transformed incessantly until it ultimately contorted in rage and unleashed a fiery blast directly at the bronze coffin. The vibrant rays intertwined with the blast from the face's mouth, resulting in the bronze coffin trembling violently. Soon after, a terrifying aura began to emanate from within the bronze coffin.

Seeing that, Arthur waved his sleeves. A gust of wind appeared out of nowhere, blowing Rudy backward.

"I won't let you succeed. If the person in this bronze coffin gets revived, the mundane world will welcome its doomsday," Arthur uttered.

Bounding onto the bronze coffin, he retrieved a bronze mirror and directed the light to shine upon it. The light bounced off the mirror's surface, aiming toward the face.

Upon being struck by the reflection, the face contorted and distorted. Simultaneously, Arthur's bronze mirror started displaying a series of diverse scenes.

Within those scenes, countless treasures floated and radiated luminosity. A mix of charms and magecraft merged, generating a brilliant and radiant glow. As Arthur positioned the bronze mirror to intercept the light, the colorful rays from the bronze coffin illuminated his back. His eyes twitched at the sensation, yet he remained steadfast, refusing to budge an inch.

"I won't let you stop my plan!" Rudy roared as he charged toward Arthur. However, Arthur remained unmoving.

"Mr. Sanders!"

At that, Kai instinctively ran toward him.

A golden armor covered Kai's body, and the Dragonslayer Sword in his hands let out a roar.

Kai positioned himself in front of Arthur, brandishing his sword.

A magnificent golden dragon surged forth, its form crafted from the formidable energy of Kai's sword. With unwavering determination, the golden dragon soared directly toward Tanner.

However, Tanner appeared unfazed and nonchalantly waved his hand, dispelling the sharp sword energy and causing the golden dragon to vanish into thin air.

Simultaneously, an immense force collided with Kai, striking him squarely in the body.

Kai's sturdy Golem Body shattered, crumbling into powder that dispersed with the wind.

His body was flung backward, hurtling through the air before crashing heavily onto the ground.

“Kai!”

Everyone gazed at him nervously as his body was already dozens of meters underground.

“Master!”

Feenix whirled in a mesmerizing display, transforming back into her majestic phoenix form. With powerful flaps of her wings, she soared through the air, emanating waves of scorching fire from her beak as she advanced toward Rudy.

Quindon, Josephine, and the rest quickly rushed to save Kai from the crater. Even Malphas grew nervous as he glanced at Kai’s unmoving body. He, like the others, didn’t want Kai to die.

The core members of Evil Heart Sect realized that their leader had deceived them by assuming a false identity and manipulating them into sacrificing their lives for his own scheme. Their fighting spirit drained away as they came to this realization, and they ceased their combat, no longer willing to fight.

Once Kai was rescued, he widened his eyes. Though his expression seemed angry, there was no visible sign of injury on his body.

Rising to his feet, Kai was resolute in his determination to protect Arthur from Rudy’s harm.

However, as he stepped forward, he couldn’t suppress a cough, spewing forth a mouthful of blood that made his face paler than before.

“Kai!” Josephine quickly supported him as a worried look crossed her face.

Right then, the roar belonging to the phoenix reverberated in the air.

A loud crash was then heard. Everyone rushed to the scene and saw Feenix’s body crashing to the ground, causing it to revert back to human form.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2504 -

Chapter 2504 Insignificant Beings

Kai panicked when he saw Feenix getting defeated.

“We can’t let him stop Arthur. Otherwise, the entire mundane world will suffer!”

Kai roared.

Just as he was preparing to break free from Josephine's grasp and rush toward Rudy, Zelda abruptly materialized, swiftly advancing directly toward Rudy.

"Kai, you're seriously injured. Let me do it..."

After leaving Kai in Melanie's hands, Josephine leaped into the air.

"Count me in!" Aislin also soared into the air.

Kai had saved their lives, so Aislin couldn't just stand back and do nothing.

"Lin!"

Quindon quickly said, "Given the circumstances that we're facing, it's crucial that we unite our efforts to prevent the destruction of the mundane world."

He stepped forward boldly, followed by Windmist, Angus, and the rest.

"Let's go. This man has imprisoned us for far too long. It's time for us to seek revenge." With unwavering resolve, Ezra took the lead, urging his comrades to charge forward alongside him.

The members of Evil Heart Sect were left behind, looking at each other helplessly.

Malphas raised his arms and declared, "Friends, we've been lied to for years. We need to demand an explanation. If the mundane world gets destroyed, we will also die. Let's go!"

Under his leadership, the members of Evil Heart Sect also leaped into the air.

These people formed a wall in front of Arthur, stopping Rudy from coming any closer.

Rudy directed a cold and disdainful gaze toward the assembled crowd. "You are nothing but insignificant beings. Do you honestly believe you can bring me down?"

He dismissed their united forces, confident that he could effortlessly defeat them all.

Zelda swung her sword out, and the rest also began to attack Rudy.

A deluge of magecraft, spiritual energies, and weapons poured relentlessly upon Rudy.

Yet, Rudy responded with nothing more than a disdainful snort. A faint luminous aura enveloped his body, effortlessly dispersing all incoming attacks.

With a simple wave of his hand, he unleashed a formidable force, directing it straight at the crowd.

The impact was devastating, scattering the crowd in all directions. Many were flung to the ground; their lives abruptly snuffed out by the overwhelming power of Rudy's assault.

Despite their sheer numbers, they were no match for Rudy.

While Ezra and the others possessed considerable power, the years of captivity had taken a toll on them. Their injuries hindered their ability to unleash their full potential.

Arthur was still slowly blocking the glow, but his expression was grim, and his aura was disappearing visibly.

"I said, no one can stop my plan!"

Rudy narrowed his gaze and directed an attack on Arthur.

Right when Rudy took action, he felt his vision go black as a huge bell fell upon him.

Rudy's body was trapped inside as the bell brought him hurtling downward.

Boom!

The Dragon Bell fell to the ground, entrapping Rudy inside.

"Dragon Bell!"

Quindon and the rest could barely hide their shock when they saw the Dragon Bell. They quickly turned to look at Kai.

A crimson emblem blazed on Kai's forehead, emanating a vibrant glow. Simultaneously, the draconic essence within his body also radiated with intense brilliance.

Kai's eyes turned a fiery red as he tightly grasped the hammer, swiftly advancing toward the Dragon Bell with determination.

"Is Kai burning his blood essence? Does he have a death wish?"

The elders of Divine Smithing Sect were shocked to see Kai burning his blood essence.

After reaching the Dragon Bell, Kai hit it with all his might.

Chime!

The Dragon Bell let out a loud peal. Even Quindon and the rest, who were a distance away, covered their ears instinctively.

One could imagine how loud it was inside the Dragon Bell.

Despite getting trapped inside the Dragon Bell, Rudy burst out laughing.

“Dragon Bell is a great weapon, but you are not able to unleash its full potential.”

Clearly, the Dragon Bell didn't affect him at all.