

The Mans Decree Chapter 2671 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2671-Ignoring Faiyar, Kai maintained a frosty stare at them. Given that Viola had put a great distance between them, Kai was certain that she had gone to get Ghaylen. The latter's arrival would definitely relieve them of their current predicament.

In the meantime, Faiyar knew that dragging the battle was detrimental to him. Viola's escape had allowed her to potentially return with a horde of cultivators to hunt them down. "Kid, regardless of the black magic you use, there's no escape for you today."

The flames on Faiyar's body soared into the air. "Who says I'm trying to escape?" The instant Kai finished, he raised Dragonslayer Sword and thundered, "Vortex Slash!"

Kai's shout heralded a blistering flash rising into the air from Dragonslayer Sword. The light that resulted seemed to tear the sky apart, before falling down upon Faiyar.

At the same time, the Power of Three within Kai surged out like a tidal wave. This time, Kai didn't hold back as he channeled all his power into his sword to fire it up for maximum devastation.

The sword screamed through the air, causing the sky to tremble under its overwhelming power. The terrifying light from the sword looked as if it was going to pierce through the sky itself. Faiyar couldn't help but frown as he stared at Kai's impending attack.

"Is a Manifestor really capable of wielding power of such magnitude?" As a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, Faiyar's heart began to throb anxiously due to the impressive power Kai had demonstrated.

After being briefly distracted, Faiyar instantaneously ignited his body into a ball of inferno. He then backed off rapidly instead of facing Kai head-on.

Amidst his retreat, he noticed that the sword which was bearing down upon him a moment ago had changed directions toward his subordinates. Startled by the sudden turn of events, Faiyar realized that they were the target all along, instead of him.

“Take cover!” he roared. Unfortunately, it was already too late. All his subordinates could see was a blinding flash by the time they realized the danger.

“Argh!” The lot of them let out a thunderous battle cry as their bodies ignited in flames. Countless infernos subsequently combined themselves into a shield, allowing them to brace themselves against Kai’s attack.

Soon, the blistering light chopped down on the Faiyar’s subordinates. Underneath its terrifying force, the shield formed from infernos easily shattered as if it was just as fragile as glass.

Boom! Along with an earth-shattering rumble, a massive crater with a diameter of a hundred meters appeared. The entire mountain tremored while countless trees disintegrated into dust. Smoke subsequently filled the air, blocking off the sun and obscuring the view of the surroundings.

The scene before Faiyar unsettled him, for he knew that it was unlikely for his subordinates to have survived such a devastating attack.

Once the dust began to settle, Faiyar hurried over to the crater to check. The moment he arrived, he was blown away by what he saw.

All that was left of his subordinates were a pile of mush and a few dancing infernos. He couldn’t even tell one apart from another. Staring at the residual infernos, Kai pulled them into his hand with a casual wave.

He was aware that they were left behind by the dead subordinates and were probably similar to: the golden elixirs of cultivators and beast cores of demon beasts.

“Give me back their life cores!” Faiyar bellowed when he saw Kai take the infernos away. As long as the life cores continue burning, he was still able to resurrect his subordinates.

“These are my battle trophies. Why should I give them to you?” Kai sneered before chucking the infernos into his Storage Ring. “Since you refuse, you’ll have to die!”

Faiyar’s eyes widened with rage burning within them.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2672 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2672-Viola's stern expression softened slightly as she felt the warmth of Kai's hand, and she soon found herself staring dreamily at him. Shortly after, they reached a forest where Faiyar came to a halt, ceasing his attempt to escape.

Kai promptly followed suit upon noticing Faiyar's pause. Why would Faiyar stop running all of a sudden? There must be a trap or something nearby!

With a calm demeanor, Faiyar turned to Kai and delivered his ominous message. "Mark my words, punk! I will avenge my subordinates!"

The flames on his body cascaded down like flowing water, shaping a scorching symbol on the ground surrounding him. After a brief pause, Kai exclaimed, "A Teleportation Array? You're not escaping that easily!"

With Dragonslayer Sword in hand, Kai leaped into the air and sent a light attack flying straight at Faiyar. Right when the light was about to hit Faiyar, he vanished in a burst of radiant white light..

"F*ck! He got away! I can't believe he set up a Teleportation Array here in advance! He sure is a cautious one!" Kai muttered in frustration as he witnessed Faiyar's successful escape.

"Let's hurry up and head back, Mr. Chance. The huge commotion might attract a lot of unwanted attention. We'd be in huge trouble if someone shows up and discovers Ms. Viola," said Ghaylen.

"Very well, let's head back," Kai responded with a nod, and the trio made their way back to the hidden cave. After assisting Viola in donning a disguise, the trio departed from the cave and made their way back to Ghaylen's base.

As Viola's eyes welled up with tears, she witnessed Ghaylen's once majestic and thriving base reduced to ruins. Only a few disciples from Ghaylen's generation remained, solemnly guarding the remnants of their once glorious home.

However, she had to keep her emotions hidden. so that no one would grow suspicious of her identity. Viola's current identity was that of a new disciple that Ghaylen had taken in.

"Ms. Viola, Bilius has laid waste to most of the houses, leaving us with limited accommodation at the moment. Regrettably, you'll have to stay with Mr.

Chance for now. To avoid raising suspicions, we've disguised you as a male, and it would be best not to arrange a separate unit for you," Ghaylen explained.

Viola understood that Ghaylen was deliberately trying to give her and Kai a chance to spend more time together.

"Sure thing," she replied with a nod. Then, turning toward Kai, she asked, "Are you okay with us sleeping together?" Kai nodded as well. "I'll be spending the night cultivating, so it's no problem at all!"

"Very well, then. I'll go prepare some herbs to help Mr. Chance recover his strength," Ghaylen said before heading out.

Kai settled into a cross-legged position on the floor, and with practiced precision, he began performing intricate hand seals to aid his recovery. The medicinal pool would soon be activated, so he would have to be at peak energy levels as soon as possible.

As Viola stared silently at Kai, she found her heart racing again. She couldn't help but reminisce about the intense pursuit of Faiyar, with Kai firmly holding her hand.

"What kind of person are you?" Viola muttered under her breath. "Are you done staring at me? If so, please get some rest," Kai remarked suddenly, catching Viola off guard and prompting her to step back in surprise.

She had assumed that Kai wouldn't notice her staring if he was focused on his cultivation, but he still caught her anyway. Viola burned bright red as she climbed into bed and pulled the cover over her head.

Kai opened his eyes, shot Viola a glance, and broke into a faint smile before going back into his cultivation state.

Time continued to tick away as Kai remained in his cultivation state. In order to maintain her cover, Viola remained indoors and kept Kai company.

Three days later, it was finally time for the medicinal pool to be activated. Hosen returned to the sect after thinking long and hard for three days.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2673 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2673-This was the day the medicinal pool would be activated, so every disciple of Emerald Cauldron Sect was present and dressed in their finest attire.

In the mountains southwest of the Emerald Cauldron Sect, waves of vibrant spiritual energy surged toward the sky, creating a captivating spectacle. The air surrounding the sect became saturated with concentrated spiritual energy, permeating the atmosphere with a sense of profound vitality.

Hosen was dressed in a full set of formal attire as he stood atop a high tower with two elders next to him. With eager eyes, the disciples of the Emerald Cauldron Sect gazed upon the activated medicinal pool, for it was an exceedingly rare and coveted opportunity for them to step foot into it.

Ebenез's gaze swept across the crowd, and as he spotted Kai among the disciples, a slight furrow appeared on his brow, but he was quick to ease up on his frown. When his gaze fell upon Viola, however, Ebenез couldn't help but stare intensely at her.

Although Viola had concealed her identity with a disguise that changed her appearance completely, it was still difficult to conceal her aura and some of her unique physical characteristics. Having noticed someone staring at her, Viola moved her body slightly and hid herself behind Kai

"You've been quite busy with recruiting disciples lately, Ghaylen! One of them seems strangely familiar to me," Ebenез addressed Ghaylen.

Ghaylen knew who he was referring to, but he chose to ignore Ebenез and remained silent. Seeing as the man refused to answer his question, Ebenез had no choice but to drop the topic.

"Have you both selected your candidates? We need a total of thirteen individuals to enter the medicinal pool. With Bilius' demise, Ebenез is entitled to choose four candidates, and Ghaylen is allowed three candidates. Are both of you in agreement with this arrangement?" Hosen asked.

"I'm fine with it!" Ebenез replied with a nod. Ghaylen nodded as well. "Same here." I wouldn't be able to change anything even if I wasn't fine with it, so it makes no difference anyway!

"In that case, please have your candidates step forward. They will be allowed into the medicinal pool once they pass the test," Hosen continued. The chosen disciples then stepped forward. Ghaylen had elected Kai, Viola, and Zebediah.

Most of the people there were confused when they saw Ghaylen grant two of the three opportunities to his new disciples. As Hosen's gaze scanned Kai and the other two disciples, it instinctively lingered on Viola.

Ghaylen's heart tightened with anxiety as he noticed Hosen's gaze briefly resting upon Viola. Things are going to get really problematic if Viola's identity gets exposed!

Thankfully, Hosen's attention shifted away from Viola, and he turned to Ghaylen with a questioning expression. "Ghaylen, why did you bestow such a significant opportunity upon two new disciples? Won't this decision upset the senior disciples?" "I appreciate your concern, Hosen, but my other disciples are not upset at all," Ghaylen replied calmly.

Hosen simply shot Ghaylen a glance without saying anything further. He then waved his hand and told the disciples, "You are now allowed to enter the medicinal pool, but if you feel unwell or believe you can't handle the test, consider forfeiting immediately. Once you step into the pool, there's no turning back. You'll be held accountable for any injuries or casualties resulting from your entry without meeting the requirements."

Of course, no disciple would willingly withdraw from such a rare opportunity. To enter the medicinal pool was something every disciple of Emerald Cauldron Sect dreamed of doing, so they would rather die in there than back away.

While scanning Hosen's disciples, who were standing before him, Kai was shocked to realize that Sigurd was not among them.

Huh... Maybe Hosen got mad at Sigurd for bringing me into Emerald Cauldron Sect and disqualified him....

The Mans Decree Chapter 2674 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2674-Both Hosen and Ebenezer's disciples were all glaring at Kai with a hostile look in their eyes. The four disciples chosen by Ebenezer displayed intense hostility as they directed their malevolent glares at Kai. Their eyes were brimming with murderous intent, giving the impression that their sole desire was to tear him apart.

However, Kai didn't seem bothered by their vicious gazes at all. He wasn't afraid of Ebenezer's disciples in the slightest. If those guys dare cause me any trouble, then I won't hold back either!

Of course, Kai knew that Ebenezer would surely have made some arrangements in advance, so this trip into the medicinal pool would definitely not be an easy one.

The thirteen disciples chosen for the medicinal pool were then sent to a mountain pass in the back, where they would continue the journey on their own. "Be careful, you three," Ghaylen reminded Kai. and the others.

"Don't worry, Mr. Samoll. These disciples aren't powerful enough to cause me any problems!" Kai replied confidently.

"That's right, Master! With me accompanying Mr. Chance, those punks won't dare cause any trouble!" Zebediah added. "Just be as careful as possible. I can't help but have a bad feeling about this."

Lately, Ghaylen had been grappling with a sense of unease, and his anxiety seemed to grow. He turned to Viola, his expression serious, and implored, "No matter what occurs, Ms. Viola, please stay close to Mr. Chance at all times." The girl nodded. "Got it, Mr. Samoll!"

As the thirteen disciples ventured into the mountain pass, an abrupt chill swept through the air, enveloping the surroundings in an intense coldness.

Kai could tell right away that it was due to the presence of a minuscule arcane array. Nevertheless, a little bit of cold was barely a challenge for someone like him.

The other disciples, too, paid no heed to the cold. After all, it was simply a mechanism meant to prevent those with low cultivation levels from getting into the medicinal pool.

Due to the ridiculously huge power within the medicinal pool, individuals with low cultivation levels would explode as soon as they entered it.

As such, there were mechanisms in place to eliminate disciples with low cultivation levels. The group soon made their way past the land of extreme cold, only to arrive at an area that was burning hot.

Kai let out a chuckle when he saw how simple the trials were so far. He then quickly entered the area with Zebediah and Viola following closely behind.

However, none of the disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect made a move after the three of them entered the area. It wasn't until they were halfway through the zone that Zebediah noticed something was off and turned around, only to see the other disciples standing outside with sadistic smiles on their faces.

"Mr. Chance, I have a feeling that something is awry," Zebediah alerted Kai. "What is it?" Kai asked. "Look, none of those guys are entering the zone, and they're all wearing sinister grins!" Zebediah pointed out, his concern evident. "I'm afraid we might have walked into some kind of trap!"

Kai glanced at the disciples and said with a smile, "It's fine! I suspect someone is manipulating this arcane array. Soon, these flames will intensify, which must be the reason they didn't join us inside."

His composure remained unwavering as he had encountered similar situations during the inner court trials.

"What? I didn't know they could control the difficulty level of the trial!" Zebediah was shocked as he had never heard of such a thing.

Kai gave Zebediah a reassuring pat on the shoulder and said, "I experienced it myself when I went through the inner court trials. We'll be fine as long as I'm around, so let's just keep going."

The arcane arrays in this trial were child's play for Kai, so it wouldn't be a problem for him. even if someone did raise the difficulty level.

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

The Mans Decree Chapter 2675 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2675-As the trio continued on, the intensity of the flames around them increased all of a sudden. Even with spiritual energy shields, they were still able to feel the heat waves all over their bodies.

As time passed, Viola and Zebediah started to struggle with their breathing, feeling the pressure of the surroundings taking a toll on them. Moreover, the spiritual energy shield that had initially protected them was gradually weakening.

Upon realizing that, Kai snapped his fingers and fired a few golden beams of light at the flames around them, causing the flames to disappear instantly.

“Do they honestly believe they can best me with such a feeble arcane array?” Kai mumbled with a disdainful sneer.

A sense of astonishment washed over Viola as she observed Kai with wide eyes. She had not anticipated that he could effortlessly neutralize the arcane array. She was so impressed that she had a hint of affection in her gaze when she looked at him.

Back then, Viola only agreed to become Kai’s partner to reclaim Emerald Cauldron Sect. Having witnessed how powerful Kai was, however, Viola found herself actually falling for the man.

“You sure are impressive, Mr. Chance! Is there anything you don’t know?” Zebediah exclaimed. with a look of admiration in his eyes.

He then glanced at the disciples behind them as he continued in frustration, “Those b*stards sure have it easy, though! They get a free pass through this zone now that we’ve disabled this arcane array for them!”

“Don’t worry. I won’t let them get through so easily!” Kai responded with a grin before. gesturing with two fingers and uttering a chant.

Zebediah and Viola stared silently at Kai as he completed his chant and retracted his hand. In the blink of an eye, a radiant arcane array materialized before them, emanating a brilliant white light.

“We’ll let those guys have a taste of my arcane array. Come on, let’s keep going!” Kai then led Zebediah and Viola out of the area after reenabling the arcane array..

The disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect wore frowns of frustration and annoyance as they witnessed Kai and the other two safely vanish from their sight, having encountered no harm.

“Did Master forget to switch the arcane array on?” asked one of the disciples in confusion. Seeing as Kai and the others were about to get away, Ebenezer’s disciples had no choice but to give chase.

As they stepped into the arcane array, a blindingly bright light erupted, engulfing them in its radiance. In an instant, a multitude of brilliant blue flames encircled them.

Those flames were no ordinary flames, though. They were made from spiritual fire, so those disciples would not be able to shield themselves from the flames using their spiritual energy shields.

“Argh!” Kai’s lips curled into an icy-cold grin when he heard the disciples screaming in agony behind them. Without stopping, the trio continued making their way forward.

Thinking that the screams were from Ghaylen’s disciples, Hosen and Ebenezer sneered as they listened on from outside the mountain pass.

Ghaylen frowned as he was worried about Viola. After all, he would be in deep trouble if anything were to happen to her.

It wasn’t long before the ten disciples came running out of the mountain pass, each of them covered in flames.

Everyone was frozen in shock and confusion when they saw that. No one had any idea what happened inside. “Help us, Master!”

“Argh!”

“It burns so bad!” The disciples screamed at the top of their voices as they came running out. Some of them were in so much agony that they dropped to the ground and started rolling around.

Ebenezer and Hosen gasped in shock when they realized that those screams were from their disciples. “Hurry, aid them!” Hosen shouted urgently, frantically waving his arms. At his behest, dozens of men then rushed forward to help put the flames out.

Despite their best efforts to quench the flames, the disciples had been burned so badly that they were either dead or crippled. Ebenezer and Hosen were consumed with fury.

when they saw that all ten of them were their disciples.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2676 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2676-“Ebenez, what on earth is going on? Why is this happening?” Hosen questioned Ebenez at the sight of those disciples whose faces were burned beyond recognition.

After all, the assessment arcane array was wholly managed by Ebenez, and he was also the one who came up with that idea, yet their own people were the ones being burned.

“I-I don’t know what’s going on.” Ebenez was also dumbfounded. I’ve already warned our disciples not to lead the way, so how did it end up like that?

At the same time, Ghaylen, standing at one side, also seemed to realize something and uttered gloatingly, “What goes around comes around. I suppose this is retribution.”

Ghayler’s remark prompted Hosen and Ebenez’s grimaces to turn a few shades darker. Meanwhile, Kai and the others had reached the medicinal pool.

Looking at the medicinal pool in front of him, Kai saw a thick white fog above the surface of the water, which was formed due to the dense spiritual energy. “Let’s head down.” Seeing that, Kai was eager to get into the pond.

“Mr. Chance, this medicinal pool is amazing. but we can’t soak in it for too long. We must know our limits and when to stop,” Zebediah reminded Kai.

“I got it.” The latter nodded, then jumped into the pool. As soon as he entered the medicinal pool, he felt the dense spiritual energy being absorbed effortlessly as it rushed into his body. Zebediah followed suit and indulged in the exhilarating effect brought by the medicinal pool.

Viola was the only one left hesitating. She was a woman, after all. If she jumped into the pool just like that, her body would be exposed once she soaked in the water, and her true gender would be discovered.

Zebediah was still unaware of Viola’s identity at that point. Kai could tell Viola’s concerns, so he turned to Zebediah and said, “Zebediah, this medicinal pool is so vast, so I think we should soak separately. If we are in proximity, I'm afraid it will affect our cultivation and absorption rate."

"You're right, Mr. Chance. I'll move a bit further." Zebediah nodded, then swam in the distance. After Zebediah swam away, Kai looked at Viola and said, "You can come down now. I'll go elsewhere too."

As he spoke and was about to swim to another spot in the medicinal pool, Viola jumped in before he swam away. As her body was bathed in the pool, her alluring figure was immediately plain to see.

However, Kai didn't even spare her a second look. After all, he had seen Viola in her birthday suit before, so her current state wasn't even a sight worth beholding anymore. Noticing Kai didn't even glance at her, Viola fumed with anger.

Still, as the spiritual energy continuously poured into her body, Viola fathomed how rare and valuable an opportunity it was to spend time in the medicinal pool, so she didn't argue further with Kai and hurriedly closed her eyes, focusing on cultivating.

Kai gradually submerged into the pool, desperately absorbing the highly concentrated spiritual energy. Moreover, even his cultivation level was increasing at an astonishing speed.

All of a sudden, an idea popped into his mind. Kai wanted to see what the bottom of the medicinal pool looked like.

Therefore, he channeled his energy to his elixir field, and his body began plummeting to the bottom of the medicinal pool.

After an unknown period of descent, Kai abruptly observed that the initially clear medicinal pool had turned a light blue color, giving him the sense that he was diving in a blue ocean.

While situated in the blue area, he found that both the concentration of spiritual energy and absorption speed were many times higher than: on the water's surface!

"This..." Kai was amazed. Could it be that the concentration of the spiritual energy increases with the depth of the medicinal pool? At that thought, he suppressed the excitement in his chest and continued to dive deeper.

During the plunge, Kai didn't even have to consciously activate his techniques to cultivate as limitless spiritual energy automatically surged into his body. No wonder people can't soak in this medicinal pool for a long time. If someone with a low cultivation level and inadequate capabilities were continuously bombarded by this strong flow of spiritual energy, they definitely couldn't withstand it and would explode and die.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2677 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2677-Unknowningly, Kai suddenly noticed the water in the medicinal pool in front of him was beginning to change into a different hue, turning light green. That meant he had reached another layer of the medicinal pool.

He soaked in the light green medicinal pool water, unmoving and not triggering any of his techniques, yet he could feel countless things pressing toward him from all directions.

That pressure was due to the overly dense spiritual energy diffusing into his body. Kai started to feel a stuffy sensation in his chest, and his bones were beginning to creak.

Realizing that, he activated Golem Body, and layers of golden scales covered his entire figure. Subsequently, he closed his eyes and remained motionless in place. At that point, Kai dared not venture rashly deeper into the pool, so he could only slowly adapt to the surrounding environment.

Endless spiritual energy swirled around him, and his elixir field continuously absorbed all the spiritual energy that was rushing into his body like a black hole.

Meanwhile, at the surface of the medicinal pool, Viola and Zebediah had already gone ashore and were anxiously searching for Kai.

After soaking in the pool for only fifty minutes, Viola successfully broke through Manifestor Realm, advancing to Body Fusion Realm. Zebediah also persisted for more than half an hour, but in the end, his body could not bear it anymore, so he went ashore.

However, over an hour after the two got out of the pool, Kai was still nowhere to be seen.

“W-What’s going on? Where did Mr. Chance go? Zebediah was overwrought. He had searched the entire area around the medicinal pool but didn’t see Kai anywhere. Viola was similarly ill at ease. The surface of the medicinal pool wasn’t expansive, so how could someone go missing just like that?”

Despite their efforts, Viola and Zebediah found no trace of Kai. They knew that even staying near the medicinal pool for too long could cause irreversible damage to their bodies.

After all, the spiritual energy there was passively diffusing into their bodies. If their abilities were not up to par and they couldn’t refine the spiritual energy in time, that would bring about deteriorating effects on their bodies.

At that instant, Viola and Zebediah had reached their limits. If they stayed any longer, they feared the repercussions would be dire. “Let’s go. We need to leave this place first.”

Although Viola wanted to keep looking, she knew if they lingered, they probably wouldn’t be able to leave anymore later. Zebediah could only hastily follow Viola out of the area of the medicinal pool in resignation.

At the same time, everyone from Emerald Cauldron Sect was still waiting at the entrance since even elites could last at most an hour or so inside the medicinal pool. Therefore, everyone would normally just wait outside the entrance.

Hosen and Ebenezer didn’t leave either. Although their disciples failed to enter the medicinal pool, and their faces were even burned beyond recognition, the duo insisted on staying, wanting to see how Kai was doing for themselves.

Soon, two figures appeared at the entrance. Viola and Zebediah had exited the medicinal pool area. When Ghaylen saw only the two coming out, he couldn’t help but be momentarily stunned before hurriedly stepping forward and asking, “Zebediah, where’s Mr. Chance?”

Zebediah glanced at his master, then hung his head in silence. Viola responded, “Kai is missing.” “Missing?” Ghaylen widened his eyes in utter disbelief.

“How could he go missing? The medicinal pool isn’t big, and this is the only way in and out.” Ghaylen couldn’t fathom how a grown man like Kai could enter the medicinal pool and vanish into thin air.

Viola briefly recounted everything that happened after they went into the medicinal pool. After listening to her story, Ghaylent furrowed his brows. Since Kai is not seen on the surface of the medicinal pool and hasn't come out from this path, there's only one possibility left. He dived to the bottom of the pool!

Hosen and Ebenez, standing at one side, also arrived at a similar conclusion as Ghaylen after hearing Viola's account. A person couldn't just disappear without a trace for no reason. The only explanation why Kai is nowhere to be found at the pool's surface is because he plunged into the depths of the medicinal pool!

"Hmph! This Kai guy really doesn't know his place. Over two hours have passed now. If he truly dared venture into the deeper part of the medicinal pool, I reckon he might already have died by now because his body exploded," Ebenez chimed in with hints of schadenfreude lacing his tone.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2678 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2678-"Is that so, Mr. Samoll? Is it dangerous to venture deep into the medicinal pool?" Viola asked anxiously in a hushed voice.

Ghaylen nodded solemnly. "According to records, the deeper one goes into the medicinal pool, the more concentrated and overpowering the spiritual energy becomes. It's challenging for an ordinary person's body to withstand. Even Helius, who had once soaked in the medicinal pool for three hours, didn't dare to venture deep inside. If Mr. Chance really wishes to dive into it, I'm afraid the chances of success are slim."

Viola's face turned grim after she listened to his explanation. She had just developed feelings for Kai, but now he was about to put himself in such a perilous situation.

"Master, maybe I should go back and take a look." Zebediah was ready to return to check on the situation.

"Stop right there!" Hosen exclaimed all of a sudden. "What do you take the medicinal pool for? Your family's bathhouse that you can just enter whenever you want? Now that you two have already come out, we'll close the medicinal pool."

Hosen was ready to close the medicinal pool. “Hosen, how can you close the pool when my disciple is still in there?” Ghaylen immediately questioned Hosen.

“It has been two hours. There’s no way Kai could have lasted that long inside. He might have already been reduced to a pool of blood,” Hosen said indifferently.

“Hosen, Helius has once stayed inside the pool for three hours. Kai is only in there for about two hours, yet you want to close it?” Ghaylen continued questioning him.

“Are you trying to compare Kai with Helius?” Hosen let out a cold snort. “Fine! If you say so, I’ll give you another hour. If Kai still doesn’t come out, I’ll close the medicinal pool!”

Hosen found a large rock to sit on and waited in silence. Ghaylen could only pray for Kai to come out soon, but he knew the odds were slim. At that moment, Kai was still floating calmly in the pale green area.

The Golem Body was still shining with a dazzling golden light. Kai gradually opened his eyes before going down into the pool once more. Soon, the surrounding light dimmed, and everything turned pitch-black. Even the water in the medicinal pool had turned dark.

Kai could only rely on his spiritual sense to cautiously explore his surroundings. Suddenly, a crisp sound rang out in his consciousness field. It sounded like a chick hatching from its shell.

His body trembled, and brilliance shimmered in his eyes. Kai immediately retracted his spiritual sense and stopped moving. He knew he was about to experience a breakthrough.

Kai’s meridians had been unblocked, enabling spiritual energy to flow freely through every part of his body without restraint.

Boom! Suddenly, the calm medicinal pool surged with immense waves, and a large water column shot up from the bottom of the pool and soared into the sky. I’ve reached the Top Level Manifestor!

Kai's face was brimming with excitement. He had never imagined achieving such a breakthrough within such a short time inside the medicinal pool. It had been difficult for him to reach that level.

He felt that the spiritual energy in his body had condensed to a new level, and both his spiritual sense and physical body had become much stronger.

Kai's heart swelled with excitement. Cultivating in this medicinal pool was far faster than outside by many times. It seems staying here a little longer can help me break through the Manifestor level, and reaching the Body Fusion Realm is just a matter of time.

He felt a sense of satisfaction with his decision to enter the medicinal pool. He had never imagined that the pool within Emerald Cauldron Sect could possess such immense power. At the entrance, the group of people waiting for Kai had heard the commotion inside.

"What's that noise?" The crowd turned their attention to the pool.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2679 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2679—"It sounds like someone is making a breakthrough," someone deduced. "The aura is so intense. Is Kai experiencing a breakthrough inside right now?" another person wondered.

Hosen and Ebenezer wore serious expressions as they directed their gaze toward the medicinal pool. Kai's potential breakthrough inside could indeed lead to complications. "Master, does that aura belong to Mr. Chance?" Zebediah asked Ghaylen right away.

Ghaylen remained silent because he could not answer Zebediah's question. If it was Kai who had experienced a breakthrough, it meant he had reached the Body Fusion Realm.

However, achieving such a feat in such a short time seemed implausible. What Ghaylen did not know was whenever Kai experienced a breakthrough, the impact would be far more powerful than others..

If Kai were to reach the Body Fusion Realm, the entire Emerald Cauldron Sect might be engulfed by the lightning tribulation. "Hosen, I think we should close the medicinal pool!" Ebenezer said.

Hosen nodded, preparing to close the medicinal pool. Regardless of who caused the disturbance, closing it would mean that anyone trapped inside would meet their end.

“Hosen, didn’t you promise to wait for two hours? It’s not time yet!” Ghaylen questioned Hosen. “I have other matters to attend to. I don’t have time for this!” Hosen replied firmly. With his hands slowly clasped together, the entrance to the medicinal pool began to close.

“Master...” Zebediah started panicking as he watched the medicinal pool close. Kai will be dead for sure if he’s still alive in there!

Ghaylen wore a displeased expression, but with the closure of the medicinal pool, there was nothing more he could do. “Come on. Let’s go,” he said with a hint of resignation, taking Zebediah and Viola away.

Just when they were about to leave, Ebenezer suddenly stopped him from leaving. “Ghaylen, why does this new disciple of yours look somewhat familiar? Have I met her before?”

The longer Ebenezer gazed at Viola, the more her appearance seemed familiar to him, yet he could not quite recall where they might have met before.

“How could you have met her? She’s just a new disciple I recruited from elsewhere!” Ghaylen replied with a forced smile, but inwardly, he was nervous to the extreme. It would be disastrous if Ebenezer were to discover Viola’s true identity.

“Well, maybe I’m mistaken. But this new disciple you’ve recruited seems quite formidable.” Ebenezer observed Viola for a moment before stepping aside to let them pass. Ghaylen hurriedly led Zebediah and Viola away. Hosen turned to Ebenezer and asked, “What’s wrong?”

“Nothing. She just looks familiar.” Ebenezer brushed it off before leaving the pool with his people.

However, a suspicion had arisen in Ebenezer’s mind. He chose not to share it with Hosen and decided to conduct a private investigation into Viola’s background.

Ebenez believed that if Viola turned out to be the person he suspected, he could use that knowledge to his advantage and implement his plan accordingly.

After everyone left, the medicinal pool regained its tranquility. Meanwhile, Kai continued his descent into the depths of the medicinal pool.

Despite the terrifying surge of spiritual energy engulfing him, he quickly neutralized it with the Focus Technique. His formidable physical body provided additional protection, keeping him safe for the time being.

As he ventured deeper, he lost track of time. Suddenly, he noticed a faint light illuminating a massive formation pattern at the bottom of the pool.

Kai followed the light, and to his astonishment, he discovered a colossal arcane array emitting a faint glow. It was evident that the formation was activating! The glow on the patterns appeared dim, possibly due to the passage of time.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2680 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2680-Kai was taken aback by the sight of the patterns. Could something be sealed at the bottom of the medicinal pool?

Undaunted, Kai was determined to uncover the truth hidden at the bottom of the pool.

As Kai continued to go deeper, the dim glow began to brighten, revealing the intricate design of an arcane array. He looked further and discovered that the area, spanning several miles, was filled with countless intricate runes.

He had never encountered an arcane array of such vast scale and complexity before.

The faint glow he had observed earlier was not a result of the activation of the formation, but rather a result of the dark, ink-like pool water making the light appear dim.

Now, the light on the arcane array became brighter as he arrived before it.

Looking at the complexity of the runes, Kai felt somewhat overwhelmed.

If this colossal arcane array was crafted by a single individual, that person must be an absolute master.

The sheer size and intricacy of the runes meant that even the tiniest flaw could cause the entire grand arcane array to fail.

Although Kai was considered one of the top experts in array formations, he doubted he could replicate an array of this magnitude.

He wondered why such a massive array was concealed at the bottom of a medicinal pool in Emerald Cauldron Sect and what purpose it served.

After descending carefully onto the arcane array, Kai gently touched its surface, hoping to sense any lingering aura left by its creator. He wished to unravel the mystery of this colossal arcane array and identify the mastermind behind it.

As Kai's hand made contact with the formation, a radiant white light instantly enveloped him. The gentle light had a soothing and inviting quality, making him feel at ease.

Simultaneously, the draconic essence on his chest started emanating a bright glow as the Power of Dragons began to fuse with the gentle light.

At that moment, Kai felt a peculiar connection as if he was being called by something. It was evident that there was something sealed beneath this vast arcane array.

He placed both hands gently on the formation and partially closed his eyes, extending his spiritual sense.

As the draconic essence within him flickered quicker, the Power of Dragons surged forth with increasing intensity.

Following the surge of the Power of Dragons in Kai's body, the soft white light emitted by the arcane array transformed into a dazzling display.

The Power of Dragons that Kai emitted started to charge at the formation.

It was as if the power had broken free from Kai's control, gaining an autonomous will. It relentlessly attacked the expansive arcane array beneath his feet.

Within the formation, brilliant white lights emitted one after another, attempting to disperse the Power of Dragons that emanated from Kai's body.

After descending carefully onto the arcane array, Jored gently touched its surface, hoping to sense any lingering aura left by its creator. He wished to unravel the mystery of this colossal arcane array and identify the mastermind behind it.

As Jored's hand made contact with the formation, a radiant white light instantly enveloped him. The gentle light had a soothing and inviting quality, making him feel at ease.

Simultaneously, the draconic essence on his chest started emanating a bright glow as the Power of Dragons began to fuse with the gentle light.

At that moment, Jored felt a peculiar connection as if he was being called by something. It was evident that there was something sealed beneath this vast arcane array.

He placed both hands gently on the formation and partially closed his eyes, extending his spiritual sense.

As the draconic essence within him flickered quicker, the Power of Dragons surged forth with increasing intensity.

Following the surge of the Power of Dragons in Jored's body, the soft white light emitted by the arcane array transformed into a dazzling display.

The Power of Dragons that Jored emitted started to charge at the formation.

It was as if the power had broken free from Jored's control, going on autonomous will. It relentlessly attacked the expansive arcane array beneath his feet.

Within the formation, brilliant white lights emitted one after another, attempting to disperse the Power of Dragons that emanated from Jored's body.

Kai knitted his brows. He waved his hands and opened his mouth to absorb the unruly power back into his body.

After suppressing the Power of Dragons, he cautiously examined the arcane array below.

Realization dawned on him that instant.

There seemed to be a mighty dragon underneath this arcane array, and it appeared to have a profound connection with him, causing his Power of Dragons to lose control.

Kai carefully inspected the formation and realized that it posed no immediate danger. As long as no one intentionally disrupted the arcane array, it would not strike.

On the contrary, standing on the arcane array could be highly advantageous, as it contained an abundance of power with a gentle and soothing intensity.

The soft white light that had just wrapped around him made him feel relaxed. If not for the sudden agitation of the Power of Dragons launching an assault on the formation, it would not have retaliated.

After observing for a while, Kai gently pressed his hand on a section of the arcane array and sent his spiritual energy into it.

Buzz...

Suddenly, an immense force ejected him from the formation.

Kai got up and began to study the arcane array more closely again.