

The Mans Decree Chapter 2691 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2691-Kai instantly understood what the man meant. He turned his palm around, and a pale blue flame appeared on it.

He waved his hand, and the blue flame immediately wrapped around the demonic fire.

Both flames merged together, both engulfing each other.

Kai was planning to use his spiritual fire to refine the demonic fire. There's only one demonic fire. It shouldn't be too hard to refine it!

However, Kai soon realized that wasn't the case. Although the demonic fire was just a small ball of flame, it seemed to have unlimited energy.

Even after Kai had almost emptied his spiritual energy, he still couldn't refine the demonic fire.

On the contrary, he saw that his spiritual fire was slowly getting devoured by the demonic fire.

He gritted his teeth and continued unleashing his spiritual energy. The pale blue spiritual fire burned brighter.

Suddenly, a black flame filled the entire draconic essence. The pale blue spiritual fire was completely engulfed, and even Kai was wrapped in the demonic fire.

The man instantly knitted his brows when he saw that, but there was nothing he could do to help.

After the black flame filled the entire draconic essence, the arcane array that was used to contain the demonic fire suddenly collapsed.

"Oh, no... It's over. Perhaps this is my fate..." The man heaved a sigh and shut his eyes. At that moment, he was just waiting for the demonic fire to devour him whole.

However, nothing happened after he waited a long while.

The man opened his eyes and saw that there was a faint golden light flickering within the black flame.

“What?” He widened his eyes in bafflement.

He saw that the golden light was shining more and more brightly as it spread outward. Soon, the black flame was suppressed by the golden light.

The entire draconic essence was covered with streaks of light, and around Kai’s body, three draconic essences of different colors were floating in the air.

There was also an enormous arcane array underneath Kai’s feet, and waves of aura surged within it. Along with the continuous burst of the Power of Dragons in the draconic essence, the demonic fire was eventually trapped.

The demonic fire could be seen jostling around, but Kai had completely trapped it within the arcane array.

Rays of light then slowly appeared and shone on the demonic fire like sharp swords. The demonic fire seemed to be in torment.

Kai flipped his palm, and the three draconic essences spun quickly and finally merged into one. A large vortex materialized, and the demonic fire was drawn into it.

Very soon, the demonic fire became increasingly weaker. In the end, the draconic essence in Kai’s body engulfed it, and he swallowed the draconic essence whole.

The man was shocked to the core when he saw Kai swallowing the demonic fire.

After the demonic fire reached Kai’s stomach, he quickly activated the Power of Three and used the demon’s power to guide the demonic fire forward. Since I can’t extinguish the demonic fire, I have no choice but to refine it.

Under Kai’s guidance, the demonic fire arrived in his elixir field. On his elixir field, a symbol of a black flame slowly appeared.

In that instant, Kai felt a surge of power flowing within his body.

“Is this the strength of the demonic fire? It’s an extra tool I can use to defend myself!” Kai smiled when he sensed the power of the demonic fire. The demonic fire is small but has great power. If I can act faster than my opponent, I can launch an attack using this demonic fire and get twice the result with half the effort!

The Mans Decree Chapter 2692 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2692-Taking in that scene, the man first felt shocked, then relieved. He smiled faintly and said, "This is unexpected, truly unexpected. A man possessing the Power of Three. Perhaps you're the person destined to reshape the Heavenly Law."

After saying that, the man gently waved his sleeve, and Kai's body instantly detached from the draconic essence. Immediately afterward, the draconic essence radiated light and gradually entered Kai's body.

Kai seemed to feel that too. He closed his eyes, and the draconic essence within him shone with dazzling light as it merged with the new draconic essence flowing into his body.

At the same time, that man's figure slowly turned transparent and ultimately disappeared without a trace.

Meanwhile, far away in a place of extreme cold in the Ethereal Realm, a massive palace floated in midair.

That palace gave off a majestic aura and took up a vast area. It hung in the sky, obscured by the clouds so that it was only faintly discernible, much like a fairyland.

Antiquated furniture adorned a room inside the palace, and wisps of incense smoke wafted in the air.

"After so many years, someone has actually refined my demonic fire."

The old man's eyes were pensive and ablaze with dancing flames.

“Master, an Inferno Devil’s Form has appeared in the southwest. Could this be our chance?” the girl asked the old man.

“An Inferno Devil’s Form has appeared? No wonder my demonic fire could be refined by someone.”

“Lynette, go and find this Inferno Devil’s Form, and gather our disciples on your way. The other demons are also here in the Ethereal Realm. I can sense their presence! Perhaps the day for us demons to rise has truly arrived!” The elder’s eyes gleamed, and his voice was laced with hints of excitement.

Lynette nodded. “Understood.”

In the next second, her body transformed into a ball of fire and quickly disappeared.

Meanwhile, Kai gradually opened his eyes. He noticed that man was gone, and the draconic essence within him was shining brightly, surging with the Power of Dragons and buffeting him incessantly like tidal waves.

“This is it. This is the moment I’ll achieve a breakthrough.” Kai hurriedly channeled the Power of Dragons in his body to circulate within his elixir field.

At the same time, the chaotic battle dragged on in the main hall of Emerald Cauldron Sect.

Ghaylen had sustained multiple injuries, and his aura had grown weak.

As for Viola, she looked pale, and blood was gushing from several wounds on her body.

Countless corpses of the disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect lay cold on the ground. Those Demonic Cultivators were ruthless, killing one disciple of Emerald Cauldron Sect with each strike.

Hosen was also in a sorry state at that point. A tense expression spread across his countenance.

Even after they joined forces, they still couldn't deal with those Demonic Cultivators led there by Ebenezer. Everyone felt hopeless. If that situation persisted, only inevitable death awaited them.

"Ebenezer, since you wish to become the lord of Emerald Cauldron Sect, I'll let you have it. As long as you spare my life, I'll leave Emerald Cauldron Sect at once, and the position will be yours." Hosen conceded.

At that instant, his only wish was to survive.

Ebenezer glanced at Hosen and sneered, "All these disciples wouldn't have had to be sacrificed if you had made this decision sooner. You may leave. I won't make things difficult for you."

Ebenezer allowed Hosen to depart. After all, he only aimed to become Emerald Cauldron Sect's leader, not to push everyone in the sect to the brink of desperation and kill them.

If he truly wiped out all of the disciples, his taking over the position as the leader would be pointless.

After acquiring Ebenezer's permission to leave, Hosen leaped up and escaped without a moment of hesitation.

Hosen left and headed straight for Norwal City. He was naturally unwilling to give up his position just like that, so he wanted to leverage Norwal City's powers to reclaim his status as the leader.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2693 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2693—"Ms. Viola, Ghaylen, have you made up your minds? If you surrender now and acknowledge me as the lord of Emerald Cauldron Sect, I can spare your lives," Ebenezer said while staring at Ghaylen and Viola.

"You can give up on that idea. Unless I'm dead, I will not admit defeat," Viola snapped furiously.

Ebenezer snorted, then turned to the numerous disciples and said haughtily, "Disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect, listen well. If you choose to submit to me now, you can still enjoy the perks of being disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect. Conversely, if you decide to resist to the end, only death awaits you."

Ebenez's words caused many disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect to hesitate. Now that Hosen had surrendered and fled, was there still a need for them, mere ordinary disciples of the sect, to struggle?

"I'm willing to surrender. Mr. Erdell is a legitimate elder of Emerald Cauldron Sect, so what difference would it make who becomes the sect leader!"

"I'm willing too!"

"Greetings, Mr. Erdell, the new leader of Emerald Cauldron Sect!"

Many disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect had capitulated. They voiced their support for Ebenez and lined up behind him.

Seeing that, Ebenez revealed a triumphant expression on his countenance. However, part of Emerald Cauldron Sect's disciples stood firm behind Viola, resolutely supporting her. Among them was Sigurd, the eldest disciple of Emerald Cauldron Sect.

"Sigurd, even your master has given in and fled for his life, yet you still dare to oppose me?" Ebenez sternly questioned Sigurd.

"I refuse to stoop so low as to join your side. Even if I were to die today, I would never yield," Sigurd responded icily.

Since he had chosen to side with Viola, there was no turning back. Moreover, Kai was not dead. Sigurd was hoping Kai would show up at any moment now.

"Fine. If that's the case, you can all perish together," Ebenez scoffed.

Just as he was about to launch himself forward, the earth abruptly shook.

Immediately afterward, everyone turned to look in the direction of the medicinal pool in astonishment.

They noticed that dense dark clouds had gathered in the sky atop the medicinal pool, and lightning flashed incessantly.

Rumble!

A thunderclap sounded, and a bolt of lightning struck the medicinal pool, causing the surge of a column of water.

Boom!

Lightning bolts continued to strike down, each one causing a tumultuous wave.

Ebenез and Faiyar were also staring intently at the unusual phenomenon with furrowed brows.

“That’s lightning tribulation. Did someone from Emerald Cauldron Sect achieve a breakthrough? Judging by how terrifying the lightning tribulation is, that person must be highly formidable!” Faiyar said with a grim expression on his face.

“Who is it? Could it be Helius?”

Ebenез was bewildered. He wondered who could have achieved a breakthrough at that instant. Considering the intensity of the lightning tribulation, that person must be extremely powerful.

Still, he couldn’t think of any expert in Emerald Cauldron Sect who could be advancing in their cultivation level right then.

Ebenез didn’t relate the ongoing situation with Kai at all. After all, the latter was merely a Manifestor. Even if he broke through to Body Fusion Realm, he couldn’t possibly trigger such a fearsome lightning tribulation.

At that moment, Sigurd was the only person who was gazing at that frightening lightning tribulation with a look of shock and anticipation in his eyes.

Others might not be aware of it, but he could guess that the person advancing in their cultivation level was Kai.

Everyone assumed Kai was long dead for having stayed in the medicinal pool for an extended period, but Sigurd knew Kai was still alive. It seems that Mr. Chance has absorbed the medicinal pool’s energy and made a breakthrough.

As the spine-chilling lightning tribulation continued striking the earth, a figure soon rose slowly and imposingly from the large column of water into the sky.

The dark clouds gradually dispersed, and the lightning tribulation faded away. Kai hovered in mid-air, his body radiating a dazzling holy light. He resembled a celestial being descending from the heavens.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2694 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2694-“Kai! It’s Kai!” Viola shrieked excitedly when she made out the figure in mid-air.

“It’s Mr. Chance! It’s really him, Master!” Zebediah likewise hollered in jubilation upon seeing that it was Kai.

Tears brimmed in Ghaylen’s eyes and streamed down his face.

Kai isn’t dead! Not only is he still alive, but he also broke through Manifestor! With this, there’s hope of survival for us all!

Contrarily, both Ebenezer’s and Faiyar’s expressions turned frightfully grim the instant they realized that Kai had attained a breakthrough.

Faiyar immediately waved a hand. Several Demonic Cultivators charged at Kai with various weapons, attacking him in concert.

Seeing that, Ghaylen and Viola leaped into the air as well.

“Protect Mr. Chance!” Ghaylen roared.

He knew they must keep Kai safe at that moment, for only when he had completed the breakthrough would there be hope for them all.

Kai abruptly opened his eyes, upon which an immense burst of aura engulfed the entire Emerald Cauldron Sect.

A few Demonic Cultivators were promptly sent flying, all spewing blood and losing the ability to battle.

On the heels of that, Kai flicked his hand. Thousands of waves of spiritual energy condensed into blades and swiftly shot out.

Whizz! Whizz! Whizz!

The blades crisscrossed in the air. Failing to dodge in time, the Demonic Cultivators were instantly hit, all falling to the ground while howling in agony.

In the blink of an eye, Ebenezer's disciples and the Demonic Cultivators Faiyar had brought suffered untold casualties and injuries from the flick of Kai's hand.

Every one of them gaped at Kai with disbelief etched across their features.

They had all risen up and fought, yet they ended up almost annihilated.

The man had merely flicked his hand, but that single move had either wounded or killed most of the Demonic Cultivators.

He had only broken through Manifestor a moment ago to attain the cultivation level of the Body Fusion Realm.

Conversely, the weakest of the Demonic Cultivators were at Eighth Level Manifestors. There were even a number of warriors of the Body Fusion Realm among them. Yet, they could not even withstand a single blow from Kai.

"I... I'm glad you're still alive, Mr. Chance. This is great!"

As Ghaylen stared at Kai, tears suddenly escaped his eyes.

"Mr. Chance!" Sigurd hurriedly stepped forward and bowed to Kai respectfully.

Kai inclined his head a fraction in return. Then, he asked, "What exactly happened here? Why are there so many Demonic Cultivators?"

He was unaware that Ebenezer had also been plotting and scheming to seize the position of sect leader.

"Here's what happened, Mr. Chance..."

Ghaylen proceeded to narrate the chain of events to the man in detail.

After listening to the entire story, Kai could not help swinging his gaze at Ebenezer with a hint of admiration in his eyes.

He had never expected the latter to be meticulous to the point of fooling both Ghaylen and Hosen.

“Your plan was impeccable. Regretfully, you forgot to take me into consideration,” he said with a sneer, his eyes fixed on the man.

Ebenez glowered at Kai, his face as dark as thunder. Never in his wildest imagination did he expect him to survive, much less experience a breakthrough.

Unfortunately, the indications of the breakthrough of Manifestor were simply too subtle.

“Don’t think that you’re all high and mighty just because you abruptly made a move and killed some of my subordinates. No matter who comes today, nobody can stop me from taking the position of sect leader,” he hissed through gritted teeth. Subsequently, he turned to Faiyar and said, “I’ll leave Kai to you. So long as you kill him, you have free rein of Emerald Cauldron Sect’s resources!”

Faiyar instantly gave a dip of his head. He regarded Kai coldly and stated, “Kid, I failed to kill you the previous time, but I won’t allow you to escape again this time.”

After he said that, raging flames erupted all over him. He shot his palms forward, and an inferno swept toward Kai like a tidal wave.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2695-“Mr. Chance!”

“Kai!”

Both Ghaylen and Viola could not help worrying when they saw Faiyar making a move against Kai and using his ultimate technique to boot.

Although Kai had already accomplished a breakthrough, he had just reached Body Fusion Realm. Faiyar, on the other hand, was a warrior at Third Level Body Fusion Realm and a Demonic Cultivator who possessed demonic fire.

There was still a gap in the two men's cultivation levels. They were worried Kai would not be Faiyar's match.

However, Kai remained as confident as ever, not at all concerned about Faiyar's attack.

"You guys deal with Mr. Erdell. As for this Demonic Cultivator, leave him to me. If I want to kill him, I can do so anytime," he said with a smile.

"You're simply too damn arrogant, kid! I shall see how you're going to kill me!" Faiyar roared.

In the next heartbeat, flames engulfed Kai.

Despite that sight, Ghaylen and Viola could only turn their eyes to Ebenezer. Leaping into the air, they attacked the man in unison.

Since Ebenezer had lost Faiyar's help and most of the Demonic Cultivators were dead presently, they had the upper hand against him.

"Kill them all! None of these traitors are allowed to escape!" Viola cried out at the top of her lungs.

People continued dying, and blood spurted everywhere, staining the ground bright red.

Ebenezer's party started losing ground, retreating steadily in the face of the onslaught of Ghaylen, Viola, and the others.

Faiyar used blazing flames to surround Kai. The fire raged, the temperature so blistering that one could hardly breathe.

"I'm going to burn you to ashes today, kid. We shall see how you can continue being so arrogant!" Faiyar declared smugly upon seeing the man trapped in the fire.

"You've only got such paltry fire, yet you want to burn me to ashes? How weak! Make it stronger!" Kai said playfully.

"Fine. Since you still dare act egotistically, I'll give you a taste of demonic fire's might!"

Faiyar flicked his hands incessantly. The flames began to rage, and the temperature around Kai grew increasingly higher.

That was precisely the effect Kai wanted. He had refined a wisp of demonic fire earlier, but it was too little. If he wanted to intensify the power of the demonic fire within him, he needed to absorb more externally to strengthen it.

He had deliberately provoked Faiyar so that he would unleash all the demonic fire he had.

As Kai sensed the fire around him, the mark that resembled a black flame in his elixir field started to flicker unceasingly.

The demonic fire around him formed a mini vortex, absorbed as energy by the wisp of demonic fire within him.

Nonetheless, Faiyar remained wholly oblivious to it. He flicked his hands continuously, unleashing the force of his capabilities.

Derisiveness was written all over his face as he watched Kai being roasted in the flames.

But soon, a frown marred his countenance. He stared intently at the demonic fire around the man, his expression turning beyond somber.

"How crafty, kid! You can actually absorb energy from my demonic fire. No wonder you have no fear!"

Faiyar discovered Kai's little ploy.

At once, a suction force sparked off his palms as he regathered the flames around the latter, shaping it into a fireball the size of a football.

He flipped his hands back and forth. The fireball gradually extinguished before turning black in the next second.

Then, he tossed the black ball at Kai's head.

Boom!

A bang split the air, and a substance resembling black oil rained from the sky.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2696-The substance was viscous. When the droplets fell onto Kai's body, they sizzled and smoked, leaving a deep burn wound on Kai's skin.

Kai frowned and activated Golem Body. The golden scales soon covered his body and protected him like golden armor.

However, the black droplets still burned when they landed on Kai. In fact, it started damaging the golden scales of Golem Body.

"What the f*ck? What is this? Why is it so annoying?" Kai cursed as he swiftly retreated from the area.

Like phosphorus, when the droplets touched him, they began heating and burning up. He could not get rid of them from his body.

Faiyar cackled. "Are you trying to run? That's impossible. This is liquid black phosphorus condensed by demonic fire. There's no way you can extinguish it."

Kai quickly unleashed a large amount of spiritual energy to form a transparent shield around him.

Hiss...

The liquid black phosphorus soon burned through the shield and started corroding Kai's Golem Body again.

Staring at the liquid black phosphorus, Kai realized that he had been forced into a defensive position. He had never expected Faiyar to be so skilled in his control of the demonic fire.

"Hahaha! Give up! Nothing can resist the incineration of the liquid black phosphorus. You'll be turned into ashes!"

Faiyar laughed maniacally. From what he observed, Kai was already at his limits. Soon, victory would be his.

All of a sudden, an idea occurred to Kai, and his eyes lit up.

"It's too early to celebrate. You're not the only one with demonic fire. I have it too. Let's see whose demonic fire is stronger!"

With that, Kai channeled the demonic fire in his elixir field to his palm.

Faiyar could see a black demonic fire dancing on Kai's palm.

"Demonic fire? That's really a demonic fire. Why do you have that?"

Faiyar could not believe it. How can Kai possibly have a demonic fire?

After all, only Inferno Devils could have it. Only Inferno Devils could cultivate demonic fire, and yet, Kai, a human, had a demonic fire too.

Faiyar looked at Kai in shock. He could sense that, despite the weak appearance of the demonic fire in Kai's palm, the power it held was one not to be underestimated.

"Could this be the Inferno Devil's elder's Flame of Sanctitude?"

At that very moment, Faiyar's mouth was wide as fear crept into his eyes. He could already sense the difference between his and Kai's demonic fire.

However, Kai did not know anything about the Inferno Devil's elder's Flame of Sanctitude. All he knew was that the flame he had was a demonic fire.

"If I can't shield myself from your liquid black phosphorus, I'll just burn them all!"

With that, Kai waved his hands, making that flame rush toward the liquid black phosphorus droplets.

When the droplets of liquid black phosphorus touched the demonic fire, it began to spark. Then, all of them exploded into tiny flames.

While the liquid black phosphorus caught on fire, dark fog surrounded the area.

Once the liquid black phosphorus droplets were burning, they no longer posed much of a threat to Kai.

His demonic fire started passing through the flames, absorbing them to strengthen itself.

In no time, the demonic fire that was the size of a palm grew. Even the flames kept rising.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2697 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2697-“How did this happen? Impossible, absolutely impossible. How could you possibly have the Flame of Sanctitude?”

Faiyar stared at the rising demonic fire and was dumbfounded.

His whole face was filled with bewilderment. He had never expected Kai to possess the Flame of Sanctitude, the demonic fire that belonged to their lineage.

The Flame of Sanctitude was a hundred times stronger than the demonic fire he possessed.

“There are many impossible things in this world, and now, I will show you even more astonishing things.”

As Kai spoke, his eyes flickered with a cold light, and flames began to circulate around him.

The flames on Kai’s body were much fiercer than those on Faiyar. Even the scorching heat emitted by the flames was on a different level.

Kai, at that moment, was like the sun, making the area around him scorching hot. Many people could not bear it and hurriedly fled to a distance.

“This is the Inferno Devil’s elder’s demonic fire. Why do you have it? Who are you? What is your relationship with the Inferno Devil’s elder? Tell me!”

Faiyar trembled.

The Inferno Devils were all disciples of the Inferno Devil’s elder. Yet, Kai unexpectedly possessed the Inferno Devil’s elder’s demonic fire. If Kai had any connection with the Inferno Devil’s elder, then what Faiyar did was disrespectful to his elder.

No Inferno Devils dared to offend the Inferno Devil’s elder, and the demonic fire they possessed was all passed down by the Inferno Devil’s elder.

If they didn’t have the demonic fire, perhaps their Inferno Devil lineage would have been exterminated and vanished without a trace just like the other demons.

Their survival in the Ethereal Realm was all thanks to the demonic fire they possessed.

“Do you want to know?” Kai sneered, engulfed in flames. “I am friends with the Inferno Devil’s elder, and I once saved his life. The Inferno Devil’s elder isn’t the only one. I’m familiar with Whalreth, Baal, and Hadad too. Without me, they would still be nobodies. I also possess Hadad’s Ultimate Force, which you already know.”

Kai’s words left Faiyar deep in thought. He remembered that during their previous fight with Kai, he had sensed the presence of Ultimate Force within him. Now, with Kai possessing the Inferno Devil’s elder’s demonic fire as well, Faiyar was unsure if he should believe Kai’s words.

“Faiyar, don’t listen to him. How can someone so young and with such limited strength possibly know all those prominent demonic figures he mentioned? Moreover, those demons he spoke of were trapped within arrays many years ago. How could you be fooled by him?” Ebenezer shouted from afar.

Faiyar was momentarily stunned, but he quickly regained his senses. He glared at Kai and said, “You almost fooled me. I don’t know where you learned all this, but claiming to be friends with the demons is shameless!”

“Am I? Since you don’t believe me, let me show you the skills of other demons!” Kai retorted.

The flames around him gradually extinguished, and he was enveloped in a radiant golden light.

With a punch, the brilliant golden light turned into a ball of light and shot straight toward Faiyar.

Faiyar widened his eyes when he saw that, and he quickly moved backward. He knew he couldn’t directly confront Kai’s attack.

Although he had never seen the Sacred Light Fist before, he could feel the terrifying power emanating f

The Mans Decree Chapter 2698 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2698-Faiyar did not know if the Sacred Light Fist was a demon’s ultimate technique, but the power unleashed by this punch filled him with extreme fear.

Faiyar quickly retreated, and as he did, a strange aura emanated from him.

The strange aura spread out in all directions, causing the air in the surrounding space to contract rapidly.

“Dual Flames of Infinity!” Faiyar roared, and the rapidly contracting air exploded violently.

For a moment, the void trembled, and Kai’s surroundings were plunged into darkness.

Faiyar had brought Kai into another space. He had used teleportation magecraft.

Kai saw that Faiyar’s body had begun to burn, but the flames were of two different colors: black and white. With Faiyar’s forehead as the center, two distinct flames formed.

The flames on both sides of Faiyar's body trembled, then continuously merged and condensed.

In the pitch-black space, a massive Circle of Duality appeared above Kai's head. It was made of two different flames.

Kai was trapped within the teleportation magecraft and had no way to dodge it.

Faiyar laughed maniacally at the sight of him restraining Kai. "Even though I don't know where you stole the Inferno Devil's elder's demonic fire from, when it comes to using and understanding demonic fire, you still have a long way to go. Even if you possess the Inferno Devil's elder's demonic fire, you won't be able to use it, let alone defeat me with it!"

The Dual Flames of Infinity was one of the most formidable techniques of the Inferno Devils, and there were not many who had mastered this technique. Faiyar had gone through hardships to somewhat grasp the concept of the Dual Flames of Infinity.

However, even with just a partial understanding of the technique, it was more than enough to deal with Kai, who had just reached Body Fusion Realm. It was overkill, in fact.

Kai felt the pressure from above as he looked at the Circle of Duality that kept rotating downward. However, he remained motionless and sat down cross-legged.

Since he couldn't escape from the teleportation magecraft, he decided to sit down.

The demonic fire started burning around his body, and his spiritual sense rapidly spread out, gradually meeting Faiyar's attack of the Dual Flames of Infinity.

Since this technique also belonged to the Inferno Devils, Kai felt that he could refine the demonic fire and make use of this technique.

As Faiyar had pointed out, even though Kai now possessed a strand of the Inferno Devil's elder's demonic fire, he did not know how to use it effectively. He lacked a complete understanding of demonic fire, so he wanted to learn some moves from Faiyar.

When Faiyar saw Kai face his Dual Flames of Infinity without any intention to dodge, he was completely stunned.

Did this guy give up because he realized that escape was impossible?

Faiyar couldn't understand why Kai wasn't resisting.

Although the Dual Flames of Infinity was powerful, Faiyar had only grasped the surface of it. It did not make sense for Kai to give up resisting at the first encounter.

He allowed the two-colored flames to engulf him.

Kai's figure became increasingly faint as if he was being absorbed by the Circle of Duality.

Seeing that, Faiyar finally let out a sigh of relief.

However, just as Faiyar was preparing to lift the spell, he suddenly realized that the Dual Flames of Infinity, which was burning before, was slowly extinguishing.

Faiyar was shocked. He saw that the flames around Kai's body had turned into two colors: pale blue a

The Mans Decree Chapter 2699 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2699-"W-What's going on?"

Faiyar couldn't understand why Kai's demonic fire had turned into two colors and why it was different from his own flames.

But before Faiyar could make sense of it, the two flames around Kai instantly merged together, forming an immensely gigantic Circle of Duality that pressed down on Faiyar.

"Dual Flames of Infinity? H-How do you know our ultimate technique?"

Faiyar was completely bewildered. After all, stealing a ball of flame from the Inferno Devil's elder's demonic fire was possible for many, but mastering the Inferno Devil's ultimate technique was not something just anyone could achieve.

Yet, Kai had just shown him that he, too, knew the Inferno Devils' ultimate technique. Faiyar was utterly dumbfounded. How on earth did he learn that?

If Faiyar knew that Kai had just learned the technique from witnessing his attack, he would probably be infuriated.

While Faiyar was still in a daze, Kai's Dual Flames of Infinity had already descended upon him.

The immense and terrifying power struck Faiyar's head in an instant.

"Argh!"

He felt intense pain in his head, and his whole body was engulfed in an uncomfortable scorching heat far more powerful than his own demonic fire.

At that critical moment, Faiyar desperately activated his internal spiritual energy to resist while his own demonic fire burned fiercely, trying to stop the force of the Dual Flames of Infinity.

Seeing that, Kai frowned slightly, and several strands of flames shot from his palms, enhancing the power of the Circle of Duality and raising the might of the Dual Flames of Infinity once again.

"Argh!"

Another agonizing cry came out of Faiyar's mouth as he was instantly overwhelmed. His body burned ferociously.

Kai could clearly see Faiyar's body gradually turning into ashes. Even his sturdy skull had been reduced to nothing.

However, just as Kai let out a sigh of relief, a flame shot up into the air.

"Kai, just you wait! Our demonic fire never extinguishes, and our divine forms never perish."

The roaring flame quickly fled.

Seeing that, Kai exerted force under his feet and instantly caught up with the fleeing flame. Having gone through the trouble of killing Faiyar, he would never let him escape. He was determined to make sure the opponent's divine form was destroyed.

"You can't escape. Stay and become part of my resources."

Kai caught up with the flame and reached out, directly seizing it in his palm.

No matter how the flame struggled, it could not escape.

Since Kai also possessed demonic fire, he did not feel any burning sensation at all while holding the flame.

In Kai's palm, Kai's own demonic fire started rising to envelop Faiyar's flame. Then, it began absorbing and refining it.

Faiyar was completely flustered. If his primordial demonic fire was absorbed and refined, he would lose any chance of resurrection.

"Kai, I belong to the Inferno Devil lineage. You can't kill me. Our people won't spare you. Don't assume that we Demonic Cultivators are despised by all. We're a powerful lineage in the Ethereal Realm. Let me go, and I promise not to make an enemy of you again."

Realizing that Kai was not afraid at all, Faiyar grew desperate. He began to reveal the secrets of the Inferno Devils, hoping it might save his life.

“While you possess the Inferno Devil’s elder’s Flame of Sanctitude, it’s too little. Your demonic fire won’t become powerful. You must continue to absorb the demonic fire of others. I can help you with that. Without my help, you won’t be able to find any Demonic Cultivators from the Inferno Devil lineage.”

To save himself, Faiyar had no choice but to betray his own kin.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2700 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2700-Kai could not help but be moved by Faiyar’s words. He had little knowledge of the demons in the Ethereal Realm, let alone the lineage of the Inferno Devil. He knew nothing about it at all.

If Kai were to ramp up the demonic fire in his body, he would have to look for Demonic Cultivators who belonged to the Inferno Devil lineage.

“Fine. I’ll spare your life.” After speaking, he retracted his demonic fire, and in one swift motion, he devoured Faiyar’s primordial demonic fire.

Next, using his spiritual energy, Kai sealed Faiyar’s primordial demonic fire and tossed it directly into his consciousness field.

Doing so allowed Kai to communicate with him more effectively, and he could also obtain some information about the Inferno Devil’s lineage from Faiyar.

After he subdued Faiyar, the teleportation magecraft began to tremble and collapse right away.

Gazing at the wobbly teleportation magecraft, Kai flashed an indifferent smirk. He then waved his hand, unleashing an outpouring of spiritual energy in all directions.

In the blink of an eye, the teleportation magecraft shattered, and Kai’s figure gradually took form.

The crowd had been watching the battle between Kai and Faiyar closely. Although the battle took place within the teleportation magecraft, the violent vibrations in the void still allowed everyone to sense the intensity of their fierce exchange.

With the collapse of the teleportation magecraft, everyone knew the battle between the two had come to an end.

“Faiyar must have won because he inherited the ultimate skills from the Inferno Devil’s lineage.” Ebenezer, upon seeing the shattered teleportation magecraft, showed a glimmer of joy.

To him, Faiyar was the one who set up the teleportation magecraft, so he was definitely capable of optimizing his skills to slay Kai.

The collapse of the space indicated that the battle had ended. Ebenezer was confident that Faiyar had defeated Kai.

Upon hearing Ebenezer’s remark, Ghaylen, Viola, and the others were all stunned. They fervently hoped that Kai would come out of the space unharmed.

“Mr. Samoll, Ms. Viola, don’t worry. I’m sure Mr. Chance will be fine. He’ll come out of it alive.” Sigurd spoke with unwavering confidence.

“Why are you so certain?” Ghaylen looked at Sigurd with great curiosity as he had consistently made accurate predictions. It seems he has always had absolute faith in Kai.

“Yeah, how can you be so sure that Kai will be stepping out of the space?” Viola, too, cast a doubtful glance at Sigurd.

Sigurd responded with a wry smile. At this point, he thought he might as well tell them the truth. “My bodily spirit is in Mr. Chance’s hands. If something had truly happened to him, I would have been dead now.”

Ghaylen finally understood why Sigurd always carried out Kai’s orders and treated his disciples well even though he was Hosen’s principal disciple.

It turned out that Kai held control over Sigurd’s bodily spirit, leaving him with no choice but to obey him.

Ghaylen and Viola were also shaking when they saw Kai.

All eyes were fixed on Kai with astonishment. He had just experienced a breakthrough and made it to the Body Fusion Realm not long ago, yet he still managed to defeat Faiyar. The crowd could not believe their eyes.

Ebenez's face revealed sheer disbelief as he looked at Kai. Then, he scanned the area around him to see if Faiyar was still alive.

"Don't bother looking for him anymore. He's been reduced to ashes," Kai responded, a cold smirk forming on his lips.

Kai's words sent Ebenez and the Demonic Cultivators who followed Faiyar into a state of panic.

Faiyar's death served as evidence that Kai's strength surpassed his. The sheer shock left the Demonic Cultivators that Faiyar had brought to the scene trembling and devoid of fighting spirit.
