

The Mans Decree Chapter 2936 -

“This is Dragon Bell, the magical item of magical items. It is a hundred times stronger than your useless magical item!” Kai scoffed.

“Impossible. That’s impossible. You’re merely at Third Level Body Fusion Realm. Even if you have a top-grade magical item, you won’t be able to use it!” Barken refused to believe that the magical item in Kai’s possession was a top-grade magical item.

“Yeah, whatever,” Kai responded contemptuously.

“You insolent brat! I’ll tear you to shreds for destroying my magical item!” Barken bellowed as he launched a furious punch in Kai’s direction. Unfazed, Kai pressed his palm on the Dragon Bell, channeling the Power of Dragons into it.

Roar! Following the thunderous roar, the intricate patterns adorning the Dragon Bell began to glow. These patterns appeared to take on a life of their own as they detached from the Dragon Bell and transformed into a dragon hovering above Kai’s head.

Barken was taken aback by the sight. He immediately retracted his fist and gazed at Kai in shock.

“Is this a dragon? A real celestial beast?” Barken and the other guardian swiftly retreated, their faces drained of color.

Cloud, Sunny, and the rest were also filled with shock as they looked at the scene before them. The appearance of the dragon had mixed feelings swirled within their hearts.

They were glad to have buried the hatchet, for. they had never expected Kai to have so many tricks up his sleeves. If they hadn’t made peace with Kai, they might have been the ones facing the dragon’s attack.

Roar! With a roar, the dragon ripped the void open with its paws and headed straight for Barken. The dragon was as swift as lightning as it reached out to him.

Seeing that, Barken spun on his heels to flee, but the dragon’s claw scratched his back, ripping out a piece of his flesh. Barken fell to the ground with serious injuries, his eyes filled with fear. The other guardian immediately stood in front of him in a protective manner, his body trembling slightly.

Roar! The dragon let out another roar, opening its jaws wide, which almost made that Demonic Cultivator p*ss himself.

Instead of launching another attack, the dragon slowly retreated and flew above Kai's head before returning to the Dragon Bell.

Kai calmly stored the Dragon Bell in his Storage Ring, then glanced at the Demonic Cultivator. "Who was the one who said I was ignorant earlier? Watch as I send you to hell, you fools."

His eyes gleamed icily. At the same time, Cloud, Sunny, and the rest heard Kai's voice ringing in their ears. "What are you guys waiting for?"

Their eyes lit up, and they attacked the Demonic Cultivator without hesitation. The Demonic Cultivator, petrified by the dragon's presence, was in a state of panic, leaving him vulnerable to the attacks launched by Sunny and the others.

When Cloud was engaged in battle with that Demonic Cultivator, Kai pulled out his Demon Flogger and headed straight for Barken.

Recognizing the significance of capitalizing on Barken's injury, he was determined to seize this opportunity and ensure that neither of the Demonic Cultivators escaped with their lives intact.

At that moment, Barken was severely injured and lying on the ground. He could do nothing but watch as Kai approached him with Demon Flogger in his hand.

"Kid, if you have the audacity to end my life, Inferno Devil will not let you off!" Barken screamed in terror.

"Ha! Whatever devil doesn't bother me!"

Kai cracked the whip that carried a pure demonic fire at Barken. "W-Why do you have the demonic fire, too?" Barken could barely believe his eyes.

He couldn't fathom how Kai was able to refine pure demonic fire as well. Can the demonic fire of Inferno Devil be easily refined by human cultivators?

When he was in a state of confusion, Kai's whip landed on him. He let out a miserable cry as his body was engulfed by the flames. His body and spirit turned into ash instantly.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2937 -

"Barken!" The other Demonic Cultivator let out a thunderous roar when he saw his companion being struck to death by Kai.

Nonetheless, Sunny and the others swiftly launched a counterattack, not giving the Demonic Cultivator a chance to catch his breath.

Kai stared at the Demon Flogger in his hand, a delighted grin playing on his lips. This is an effective weapon against the Demonic Cultivators indeed.

"All of you step back. I'll handle him." Gripping the Demon Flogger tightly, Kai executed a swift, forceful leap, then whipped it toward the Demonic Cultivator.

An aura as fast as lightning emerged and raced toward the Demonic Cultivator. Sunny and the others promptly retreated upon witnessing that.

The Demonic Cultivator fixed a furious glare on Kai, his eyes blazing with anger. In an instant, he released a powerful palm strike, summoning a roaring fire dragon that charged menacingly at Kai.

The moment the Demon Flogger struck the fire dragon, a resounding thunderclap reverberated across the entire snowy plains.

The fiery dragon instantly dissipated, and Kai's Demon Flogger, charged with demonic fire, materialized in front of the Demonic Cultivator in the blink of an eye.

Thud! A sharp crack echoed as the demonic fire on the Demon Flogger transformed into a sea of fire, engulfing the Demonic Cultivator. A towering blaze soared into the sky.

Confronted with the purest demonic fire from the demon race, the Demonic Cultivator had no chance whatsoever. From the instant he engaged with Sunny and his companions to when he was struck by Kai's Demon Flogger, the Demonic Cultivator was enveloped in dread throughout the process.

His profound terror hindered him from unleashing his utmost potential. Otherwise, Kai would not have been able to dispatch him effortlessly with a single lash.

Amidst the demonic fire, the Demonic Cultivator shrieked in pain before turning into ashes and vanishing completely.

The rest of the group looked at Kai in silent admiration as he extinguished the life of an Eighth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator with a single lash of his whip.

The Dragon Bell and the Demon Flogger were both powerful divine weapons. Anyone who possessed even one of those treasures would probably be overjoyed.

Kai alone now possessed two, and these might not even be his entire arsenal. The fact that a mere cultivator in the Third Level Body Fusion Realm possessed two divine weapons was truly unbelievable.

What Sunny and the others did not know was that the Dragonslayer Sword in Kai's hand was also another divine weapon, especially considering the sword spirit, Zelda, residing in it. If Zelda fully recovered, the Dragonslayer Sword's power could increase many folds!

Furthermore, there was still the Divine Bow. If Kai still had the bow with him, he might even be able to take Lynette on. If Kai were to reveal all of his divine weapons, Sunny and the group would likely be left speechless with envy.

"Let's move quickly. We need to find a secure location now to hasten our recovery!" Kai urged the people, who were still reeling from the shock. Sunny and the rest nodded before catching up with Kai.

They had to leave the area as soon as possible. Otherwise, they would be doomed if the other Demonic Cultivators detected their presence. Just when Kai and his companions were about to make an escape, several terrifying auras approached them from behind.

They could not help but knit their brows. "We're doomed. What the hell is wrong with these Demonic Cultivators?"

Cloud was already severely injured. If they were to fight the Demonic Cultivators again, his demise would be unavoidable.

“D*mn it. Why are there so many Demonic Cultivators in the far north? I thought they’d all been eradicated? They’re all still so formidable! It seems luck is not on our side this time!” Konce could not stop cussing.

What was supposed to be a treasure hunt in the north had turned into a disaster. Not only did they not find the treasure, but they might also lose their lives in this expedition.

Kai held his breath, gathered his spiritual sense, and heightened its intensity. Soon, Kai flashed a grin and said, “They’re not Demonic Cultivators. Those guys have come to save us.”

With that, Kai led the others and charged in the direction of the auras. The group heaved a sigh of relief when they saw the figures from a distance.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2938 -

“Kai!” Quinley called out loudly to Kai, then quickly made her way over. Following right behind her were a few skilled warriors from the Tall family, either Eighth or Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivators. This clearly showed that the Tall family’s strength was not to be underestimated.

“Are you guys okay? Jerison returned and told me about your situation, and my brother sent me and a few subordinates over to rescue you,” Quinley said.

“Let’s head back to the Tall residence. You can continue with your treasure hunt after you’ve recuperated,” Quinley suggested. “Recently, Demonic Cultivators have been causing havoc in the far north. Many cultivators who came in search of the treasure have met with brutal ends. It’s perilous for you to persist in your current condition.”

Kai nodded in acknowledgment. Although he wished to discover the treasure and acquire the Ice Soul Pill, the present circumstances did not allow him to do so. Furthermore, Feenix and Aislin were still at the Tall residence, and Kai wished to meet them.

Sunny and the others, too, agreed to head to the Tall residence because they knew they were not in the perfect condition to continue exploring the far north.

The group then departed and headed for the Tall residence. Meanwhile, Lynette, who had been teleported away earlier, had arrived at the location where Kai and Barken had dueled.

Looking at the chaos the duel had left behind, as well as the remnants of the tower strewn across the ground, Lynette furrowed her brow.

“All of Barken’s magical items have been shattered into pieces. What kind of formidable cultivator did he encounter?” Lynette did not know Barken was killed by Kai and his companions.

Even the destruction of the tower was the result of Kai’s actions.

Just as Lynette was still pondering if there were other powerful cultivators nearby, the voice of Inferno Devil echoed in her ear. “The two guardians I sent with you are dead. What have you done? Get back here right now!”

Lynette could not help but break out in a cold sweat after hearing Inferno Devil’s voice. However, she obediently complied and vanished with a leap.

Meanwhile, at the Tall residence, Feenix and Aislin anxiously awaited Kai’s return, having learned that Quinley had gone to fetch him.

“Aislin, you’ve been in the Ethereal Realm with us for quite some time, all for the sake of Master. When Master arrives, I’ll make sure he showers you with affection,” Feenix uttered.

Upon hearing that, Aislin blushed instantly and responded, “Don’t talk nonsense. I hardly know Kai...”

“Just sleep with him, and you’ll know him better,” Feenix responded with a chuckle.

“Josephine is his official girlfriend, but she hasn’t slept with him. Yet, the rest of you have already done it with him,” Aislin said. Feenix burst into laughter. “Josephine is his wife-to-be, but we’re not...”

Soon, Kai appeared, and Feenix and Aislin, who had been eagerly awaiting his arrival, dashed out of the house. After spending a significant amount of time in the Ethereal Realm and enduring many hardships in their search for Kai, they had finally reunited with him.

“Master! Master!” Feenix rushed toward Kai before finally throwing herself into his arms.

“Feenix.” Kai held her close.

“Kai...” Aislin, too, called his name as she walked up to him. “Master, Aislin also fearlessly followed you into the Ethereal Realm when you were pulled into it because she wanted to rescue you,” Feenix explained.

“Thank you, Ms. Yuchamore,” Kai responded politely. Quinley turned to Feenix and suggested, “Kai and the others must be exhausted, having been relentlessly pursued by the Demonic Cultivators. How about we allow them to rest for now? We can discuss matters once they’ve had enough time to recover.”

Feenix nodded in agreement, and together, they entered the Tall residence. Prior to their arrival, Quinley had already made the necessary lodging arrangements for them.

Once everyone had settled in, Quinley sought out Kai and said, “Kai, my brother would like to meet you. Please come with me.”

The Mans Decree Chapter 2939 -

Kai followed Quinley over when he heard that Mason, the head of the Tall family, wanted to see him. He wanted to meet Mason in person too. Kai was not very sure about Mason as a person for now.

If Mason was an evil man who even colluded with Demonic Cultivators, then it would be dangerous for them to live in the Tall residence. Soon, Quinley brought Kai to the living room.

Kai saw a middle-aged man sitting in the main seat. He knew that the latter must be Mason, the head of the Tall family, while the person sitting beside Mason was Jerison.

When Jerison saw Kai, he stood up and greeted him politely. After all, if it wasn’t for Kai, Jerison could have died in the Demonic Cultivators’ trap, and Jerison was well aware of this fact. Mason also got up and welcomed Kai when he saw him..

“Mr. Chance, thank you so much for saving not only Quinn but also Jerison! I don’t know how to repay your kindness to us.”

Mason didn’t put on airs like how a head of a family usually would. Instead, he was nice and polite. Kai was very comfortable with such a first impression.

He flashed a faint smile and said, “Don’t worry about that, Mr. Mason. We can’t avoid running into problems out there, and it’s normal for us cultivators to help each other!”

“Mr. Chance, please have a seat!”

Mason gestured for Kai to take a seat before he returned to his own seat. Then, he clapped his hands once and somebody entered with a very exquisite bronze plate. There was a crystal clear ice soul fragment shining on the plate.

Mason said sincerely, “Mr. Chance, you should know that there are many ice soul fragments in the far north. However, it’s not easy to find them. The ice soul fragment is very helpful for cultivation as well as for recovering spiritual energy. I don’t have much to repay your kindness for saving my brother and sister, so I can only gift you with an ice soul fragment. I hope you like it...”

Kai was a little shocked as he stared at the ice soul fragment. He did not expect Mason to give him such a precious item.

“Mr. Mason, this is too precious! I can’t possibly accept that! Also, Ms. Tall saved two of my friends and even allowed them to stay here peacefully. I am very grateful for that too!” Kai was very grateful that Quinley had saved Feenix and Aislin and had even given them a place to stay.

“Mr. Chance, I heard that the two girls are your good friends. My incompetent brother almost made a huge mistake! I have already taught him a lesson. Mr. Chance, please accept this ice soul fragment,” Mason said.

Seeing that Mason was so persistent, Kai had no choice but to keep the ice soul fragment.

Mason smiled when he saw Kai accepting it. Then, he waved his hand and said, “Quinn, Jerison, leave us. I need to discuss something with Mr. Chance.”

Quinley and Jerison nodded and left. Kai's face was full of confusion as he didn't know what Mason wanted to talk to him about. After Quinley and Jerison left, Mason suddenly enveloped Kai with his aura.

Kai did not expect Mason to make a move against him. He frowned, and the Power of Three in his body erupted instantly. Then, a strong spiritual sense tried to enter Kai's body forcefully, seemingly trying to find out Kai's every secret.

Just when the spiritual sense was about to enter Kai's body, he released his own spiritual sense from his huge consciousness field, trying to devour or destroy the foreign spiritual sense that was trying to enter his body.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2940 -

Kai's consciousness field was huge but Mason's spiritual sense was oddly strong. There was still a huge gap between their powers.

Soon, Kai couldn't hold on anymore. Mason's spiritual sense entered his body and successfully retrieved the secret of Kai's body from his consciousness field.

Just when Mason's spiritual sense was about to find out more in Kai's consciousness field, the Golden Tome suddenly moved. A ray of golden light shone from it. The speed of the light was very fast, and it had a strange aura.

At once, Mason's spiritual sense was crushed. The restraining aura surrounding Kai immediately disappeared. Mason looked pale and there was even a streak of blood on the corner of his lips.

"Mr. Mason, what is this supposed to mean?" Kai stared at Mason coldly as he was furious that Mason had suddenly made a move against him.

"Mr. Chance, please don't misunderstand me. I just wanted to have a look at your body. I did not expect a cultivator like you to have obtained the nascence aura when you're only in Third Level Body Fusion Realm! It's unbelievable!"

Mason's face was filled with shock.

"Nascence aura?" Kai frowned. "What is that?" Mason was stunned. He glanced at Kai and asked, "You're a cultivator. Don't you know what a nascence aura is?"

Kai shook his head in response. "I only know that breaking through the realm of Tribulator is akin to remodeling one's entire physical being. One can comprehend nascence and reach a new level of understanding of all things. After breaking through the realm of Tribulator, one can become a half-immortal, and as long as one continues to cultivate, one can eventually become an immortal.

Mason nodded and said, "That is correct. You will be able to comprehend nascence once you break through the realm of Tribulator, and it is also used to confirm the strength of each cultivator after breaking through to this realm. However, it's not just breaking through the realm of Tribulator that one can comprehend nascence.

Some exceptionally gifted individuals can experience nascence aura even when they're in the realm of Tribulator, and this is not surprising. But I have never seen anyone with nascence aura in Body Fusion Realm. Yet, you have it! Understanding nascence may be easy, but acquiring nascence aura requires arduous cultivation. And one must create a nascence space within their body, which is akin to a cultivator's elixir field."

Mason tried his best to explain to Kai, but the more he explained, the more Kai was confused.

Kai had never felt that he had nascence aura. It was just that a random ray of golden light had shot out from the Golden Tome. However, the aura of that golden light was indeed different.

Seeing that Kai looked confused, Mason knew that he had zero idea what he was talking about. "I'll bring your primordial spirit to my nascence space to have a look. Don't try to resist me anymore. The nascence aura in you is too strong. If you attack me, I won't be able to take it."

Mason was indeed a little scared that Kai would release his nascence aura again.

However, Mason didn't know that it wasn't. Kai's nascence aura but the aura released by the Golden Tome. Kai couldn't control it, and it wasn't something he could use whenever he wanted to.

"Mr. Mason, don't worry..."

Kai nodded.

Mason then waved his hands.

Buzz!

Kai could feel a slight tremor in his consciousness field before a ray of light shone down on him, enveloping his primordial spirit. In the blink of an eye, Kai appeared in the middle of a palace that was completely made of ice.
