

The Mans Decree Chapter 2981

When the wandering cultivators realized that Sunny, Lofton, and the others standing beside Kai were all incredibly capable cultivators at Eighth Level Body Fusion Realm, they nodded and agreed to follow Kai.

With the wandering cultivators joining them, Kai no longer feared the Nesser family, so he led the group into the territories marked by the Nesses.

Several Nesser family cultivators, surrounding the territory, stiffened upon seeing Kai and his entourage approaching with an intimidating aura.

“What do you lot plan to do?” a cultivator from the Nesser family questioned loudly.

“We plan to do whatever we want to do. Does this place belong to the Nesser family?” said Sunny boldly as he stepped forward.

“The Nesser family has taken over the entire- Before the cultivator could finish, Sunny slapped him across the face. The slap was so forceful that it sent the Nesser family cultivator flying instantly.

Upon witnessing the scene, the wandering cultivators felt so good that they clapped and cheered to express their satisfaction.

The few Nesser family cultivators dared not speak, knowing they were outnumbered and no match for Kai and his men.

They knew they had to wait for Cameron, and soon enough, he arrived with his men.

Cameron immediately discerned the situation upon seeing Kai and the group of wandering cultivators exuding an overpowering aura.

The wandering cultivators who had been asked to leave earlier started raising a ruckus when they saw Cameron. “Does this place belong to the Nesser family?

Why are you chasing us away?”

“Is this your demon beast? Why can’t we hunt here?” “You guys are such bullies! We insist on hunting for demon beasts here. What can you do about it?”

The wandering cultivators bellowed indignantly. Cameron’s expression darkened. If not for Kai leading Sunny and the rest here, those wandering cultivators wouldn’t have dared speak to him so rudely.

“What is this all about? Are you standing up for these wandering cultivators?” Cameron looked at Kai.

“That’s right. I’m standing up for them. Do you own this place? Why can’t we hunt for demon beasts here? Don’t talk to me about superiority. If a fight breaks out between us, we’re not afraid of the Nesser family. You can give it a try if you don’t believe me,” Kai said disdainfully.

Without a doubt, the Nesses were no match for Kai in a battle.

Cameron was the only one at the peak of Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm, whereas the other cultivators from the Nesser family were merely at Sixth or Seventh Levels.

Moreover, they were disadvantageously outnumbered.

Cameron cast a glance at Kai before shifting his gaze to Sunny and the other three at Eighth Level Body Fusion Realm. He was comparing both parties’ combat power. Moments later, Cameron asked Kai, “What exactly do you want?”

“Get lost with your men, and we will kill all the demon beasts here!”

Cameron frowned at his request, his eyes ablaze with anger. “Don’t be so full of yourself, kid. If we engage in a full-blown battle, how many of you do you think will make it out alive? If you provoke me, I won’t hesitate to fight you until the very end, and none of you should entertain thoughts of leaving here unscathed.”

Cameron had never endured such humiliation before. While the Nesser family might not be as renowned as some other sects, they were not to be trifled with or underestimated.

“Sure, if you want to fight to the bitter end. Let’s do this,” Kai said as he instantly assumed his fighting stance. He did that because he knew very well that Cameron would not take the risk.

As the head of the Nesser family, Cameron would not engage in a losing battle with the group of wandering cultivators.

Seeing that Kai showed no fear, Cameron froze, uncertain about how to proceed.

“Shall I give you a hand, Mr. Nesser?” A voice rang out in Cameron’s ear when he was at a loss for what to do.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2982

The crowd swiftly redirected their attention, only to find that the person who spoke was none other than Typhon.

Typhon approached Cameron with a smile and said, “Mr. Nesser, isn’t it rather embarrassing for the head of the family like you to be humiliated by a group of wandering cultivators? If word of this got out, it could severely tarnish the reputation of the Nesser family. Let me assist you. With both of our combat abilities, I’m confident the wandering cultivators won’t pose a threat.”

Kai’s expression immediately darkened as Typhon opted to collaborate with Cameron. He regretted not finding an excuse to get rid of Typhon right from the start.

If Typhon were to work with Cameron, our chances of winning would be slim. We are not the rightful opponents of two cultivators at Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm.

While Cameron was still in a quandary, Typhon had taken the initiative to join forces with him. Of course, Cameron was more than willing to accept the offer. Otherwise, he would really be intimidated by the wandering cultivators.

“This is the best outcome. With our collaboration, this entire area will be under our control. The wandering cultivators won’t be able to claim any of it, be it Flamestones or demon beast.”

With Typhon backing him up, Cameron grew arrogant. Now, he wanted to bar all the wandering cultivators from gaining access to any part of the entire area.

Nobody dared to refute him this time because none of them could defeat two Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivators.

Upon seeing Cameron's acceptance of the offer, Typhon chuckled. He then directed his cold gaze at Kai. "Kid, do you still think I'm an easy target? Hand over the Flamestones immediately, or I'll make you regret this."

Typhon had been holding a grudge against Kai and the others for threatening him to surrender the Flamestone.

As a member of the Demon Seal Alliance, he had never suffered such mistreatment in his entire life, for they could always do as they pleased. Typhon was determined to vent his frustration and reclaim his dignity.

"It's with me, but why should I give it to you?" asked Kai coldly.

"Why should you?" Typhon snorted. "Because I'm simply more powerful than you, and this is a realistic world! Superiority is everything."

"How are you more powerful than me? From what I see, your metallic cultivation technique won't give you an advantage in a place as scorching as this fiery furnace."

Kai had learned that Typhon was practicing a metallic cultivation technique. However, the entire area, including the fire lizard and Flamestone, was of the fire element.

Since the element of fire was known to weaken the element of metal, that place would hinder Typhon from unleashing his full potential.

"Even if my capabilities are restrained, it's still a piece of cake for me to kill a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator like you."

As soon as Typhon said that, he struck Kai with his palm. The latter reacted swiftly and took a step backward. Next, he leaped to his feet and avoided Typhon's attack.

When Cloud, Sunny, and the others saw that, they immediately prepared for battle. Right then, Cameron shouted, "Don't blame me for what I'll do if any of you dare to intervene!"

His warning prevented anyone from joining the fight, and no one dared to assist Kai. Truth be told, Kai had known that Typhon had chosen to become Cameron's ally not to support Cameron but to confront him directly.

Cameron, too, was aware of that. However, he still went ahead to join forces with Typhon. After all, the enemy of one's enemy is a friend.

"You guys don't act recklessly. He's just a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. Watch and see how I deal with him," Kai yelled.

He did not slow down as he continued to run away. Fighting someone at Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm was a challenge for him, but he would not be defeated so easily.

Since Typhon underestimated Kai's capabilities, the latter could take advantage of that to catch him unprepared and gain the upper hand in the battle.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2983

"Kid, you may not be strong, but your mouth sure runs wild. You dare to look down on me, a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. Today, I'll show you that I can crush you with just one hand..."

Typhon leaped high into the air and chased after Kai. Kai quickly concealed his aura and fled far away, feigning an escape. In mid-air, Typhon extended his spiritual sense, only to find that Kai's aura had disappeared.

"Where is he? This kid's skill in concealing his aura is quite impressive!" Typhon furrowed his brows slightly. He hadn't expected Kai to completely hide his aura, making it impossible for him to sense him.

However, Typhon wasn't afraid. He casually pulled out what looked like a gold coin with a small hole in the center. While uttering an incantation, Typhon made the coin rise into the air, then it rapidly spun around in mid-air.

"You can hide your aura, but you can't conceal the heat of that Flamestone." With a flick of his finger, he struck the coin with a wisp of flame. The coin instantly ignited and started heading in a certain direction.

Typhon followed closely behind, tracking Kai. using the heat source from the Flamestone. Kai was taken aback. He immediately took out the Flamestone from his Storage Ring.

He stared at the Flamestone in his hand, then closed his eyes and entered his nascence space. Many stars twinkled, but only one shone brightly. Kai glanced at the constellation of the fire nascence, then swiftly absorbed the energy from the Flamestone.

He hoped that while absorbing the Flamestone's energy, he could comprehend the fire nascence. Unfortunately, the stars in the fire nascence constellation showed no response whatsoever.

Meanwhile, Typhon was getting closer and closer. Kai had no choice but to put away the Flamestone. He no longer concealed his aura and descended rapidly toward the ground.

Typhon was in hot pursuit, and there was no way he would let Kai go. Kai fled at high speed, leading Typhon along. On the ground, everyone watched intently as the two chased each other in circles.

Soon, Typhon's face contorted. As a cultivator at the peak of Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm, he couldn't catch up with Kai, a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. This was quite embarrassing.

"Kid, you don't have any skills, but you sure are fast. Let's see where else you can run!" Typhon roared angrily and then suddenly grasped the sand from the ground below.

Countless glittering metallic particles within the sand floated up, then collectively transformed into a sharp sword. Holding the sword in his hand, Typhon thrust it toward Kai.

Kai swiftly dodged the attack, and with a counterattack, he struck the sword with his aura. The sword instantly dissipated, turning back into the scattered metallic specks that drifted downward. By then, Typhon was already right in front of him. He grabbed the specks, reforming them into a sword once more.

He attacked three times in succession, but Kai managed to evade each strike. This left Typhon a little dumbfounded. A Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator had managed to dodge his attacks three times. Is this some kind of joke?

Typhon began to reevaluate Kai's true strength. Kai's ability to conceal his aura is formidable. Perhaps he deliberately hid his true strength, which made him appear to be only a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator.

Maybe Kai's true strength is even greater. Otherwise, he wouldn't have such speed and reflexes.

Kai, too, was impressed by Typhon's strength. Even though the environment here disadvantaged Typhon, he still displayed considerable power.

Now, neither side was underestimating the other.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2984

"Kid, are you hiding your strength and planning to catch me by surprise? Let me tell you, it's impossible!" Typhon roared angrily and once again launched an attack at Kai.

Kai could only continue evading, knowing that if he were to fight Typhon head-on, he might encounter unknown dangers. He could end up exhausted, defenseless, and at Typhon's mercy.

Seeing Kai's speed and feeling as if he was being toyed with from behind, Typhon suddenly pulled out a golden net from his pocket and hurled it at Kai.

Startled, Kai swiftly descended, attempting to avoid the net. However, the net seemed to have a life of its own as it followed behind him closely.

"Kid, you're the first to force me to use this golden net but don't think you can escape. Even if you tear through the void, you won't get away..." Typhon sneered. Suddenly, the net expanded, seemingly covering the entire sky.

It descended upon Kai, ensnaring him completely. The net continued to change until Kai was thoroughly trapped.

Seeing this, Kai quickly retrieved a charm and chanted incantations under his breath. At once, his entire being sank into the ground. Since the net could trap him in mid-air, once he entered the soil and sand, the net wouldn't be able to deal with him.

Sure enough, as Kai's body swiftly descended into the sandy ground, he was able to pull himself out of the net. Typhon was left momentarily dumbfounded..

“Don’t think that hiding underground will save you. You can’t stay down there forever...”

Typhon knew that no matter how powerful Kai was, he couldn’t stay underground for very long. In the depths of the earth, Kai surrounded himself with a substantial amount of spiritual energy to prevent the surrounding sand from restricting his movement and allow him some room to maneuver.

However, he also understood that he couldn’t stay underground indefinitely. Concealing himself like this consumed too much spiritual energy. If he continued, he’d become weak even before Typhon made a move.

Kai glanced at his Storage Ring and then took out a fire lizard’s beast core and the Flamestone. After that, he quickly ingested them both.

He didn’t have time to slowly absorb them now. As soon as he swallowed them, he felt a searing sensation spreading within his body.

The demonic fire within Kai’s body began to surge. Kai hastily closed his eyes, sensing the fiery power coursing through him as he entered his nascence space. Before long, a terrifying force surged within his body.

Intense waves of scorching energy pulsed uncontrollably. Kai watched as the fire nascence constellation that was once dim began to flicker. He was filled with ecstatic joy. However, he remained still as if his entire being was ablaze.

Boom! Suddenly, an incredibly powerful aura exploded. It carried intense heat like a scorching tidal wave that swept across the entire starry space.

That fire nascence constellation sparkled brilliantly at this moment, casting a radiant glow across Kai’s nascence space.

“Haha, I did it. I did it! Fire nascence! I’ve grasped fire nascence...”

Kai’s eyes were fixed on the shimmering constellation as his heart pounded with exhilaration. He had mastered two varieties of nascence power, and within his nascence space, there was still a multitude of dim constellations.

Kai couldn’t fathom how many nascence powers he might ultimately grasp, but as a recent attainer of Body Fusion Realm, he had already possessed the nascence space and understood two types of nascence power.

Should Mason learn of this, he'd surely be green with envy. Presently, the demonic fire within Kai had vanished, melding itself into nascence and finding its place among the nascence constellation.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2985

Kai gazed at the shimmering constellation of the fire nascence, his heart pounding with exhilaration.

Now, even if he didn't absorb other demons' demonic fire and merely cultivated using various fire attribute resources, the fire nascence and demonic fire within him would still continue to be enhanced.

Kai's demonic fire was the purest of its kind, inherited from the demon's lineage. Even if he absorbed and refined the demonic fire of an ordinary Inferno Devil, he couldn't merge them with the purest demonic fire within him.

Now that he possessed the fire nascence, Kai no longer needed to search for pure demonic fire to refine. As long he continued augmenting his comprehension of fire nascence, his demonic fire would also grow more powerful.

"Mr. Chance, your fire nascence seems to be more potent than the pure demonic fire! This is truly incredible. No wonder one would gain insight into nascence after breaking through the realm of Tribulator. This technique is much more formidable than those before the realm of Tribulator! You're just a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, yet you possess nascence space and managed to comprehend two types of nascence. How extraordinary! I'll devote my life to following you in the future even if I have to go through fire and water, Mr. Chance."

Faiyar realized the fire nascence Kai comprehended was even stronger than the pure demonic fire of the Inferno Devil clan. It was unbelievable.

Kai was also surprised, not expecting himself to grasp the nascence so quickly. According to Mason, comprehending nascence was extremely challenging.

Some worked hard their entire lives and could only comprehend one type of nascence by natural means upon breaking through the realm of Tribulator.

Those who could further grasp two or three types of nascence were considered geniuses, yet Kai, a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, not only had a nascence space as vast as the galaxy, but he also comprehended two types of nascence within a short period.

That was an utterly absurd feat. At that moment, Typhon was hovering in midair, waiting for Kai's emergence. However, when he felt the immense aura gushing out from the ground, a look of bewilderment spread across his countenance.

Kai's figure gradually surfaced from underground until he was standing on the floor. Taking in Kai's appearance, Typhon furrowed his brows. "What have you been doing underground?"

Kai stared at Typhon coldly in silence, emanating an overwhelming aura. Boundless flames blazed beneath his feet, surging around him.

Typhon practiced metallic cultivation techniques, so he was very susceptible to such raging demonic fire. He was dumbfounded at the sight of the roaring flames enveloping Kai's body. The strength within Kai was also steadily rising, further baffling Typhon.

"Don't tell me you swallowed that Flamestone?" Typhon's heart quivered. From the looks of it, he seems to have directly consumed that Flamestone.

Flamestone contained substantial power and had to be gradually absorbed. If one gulped the stone in one go, they might suffer backlash, causing their body to explode or be burned to ashes.

However, Kai appeared unharmed and unfazed by the scorching flames around him. It seemed he had hidden strengths Typhon couldn't yet fathom.

A sense of crisis crept into Typhon's heart as he fixed his eyes on Kai's ablaze figure. He prepared his golden net to attack Kai at any moment. Not far away, Cloud, Sunny, and the others stared at Kai in astonishment.

Considering the vast difference in capabilities between a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator and a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, the one-on-one duel should've been a one-sided victory for the latter..

Yet, surprisingly, Kai seemed composed at that moment, and it was Typhon who was looking nervous. Konce and Lofton both sighed in relief. Thankfully, we're on Kai's side. Otherwise, we would've died long ago.

"Didn't you say you could kill me with one hand? I'll give you the chance to do it now. I won't run, so why don't you give me your best shot now?" Kai regarded Typhon with a sneer.

However, the more Kai spoke in that manner, the more reluctant Typhon was to launch an attack on him..

The Mans Decree Chapter 2986

Typhon dared not act recklessly. Instead, he manipulated his golden net, using it to envelope Kai. Gazing at the descending golden net, Kai showed no inclination to run or dodge. He fathomed there was no escape unless he burrowed underground once again..

Typhon was well-prepared this time and would surely strike the moment Kai went underground. Kai would be rendered powerless to retaliate and be at the mercy of his opponent.

Cloud, Sunny, and the others were worried for Kai, seeing that the latter did not dodge. Typhon, who was witnessing the same scene, didn't feel triumphant. Instead, slight unease surged within him.

Soon, the golden net encased Kai and began to tighten, immobilizing him. Only after seeing that did Typhon let out a sigh of relief.

"Kid, let's see if you can still behave arrogantly. I don't care whether you possess the Flamestone. I'll suppress you today and confine you for eternity," Typhon said with a smirk.

Typhon quickly produced the gold coin-like object. He tossed it into the air, and it instantly expanded to a gigantic size before pressing down on Kai.

Kai remained expressionless. Inside his nascence space, the constellation of fire nascence shimmered, followed by the ignition of the terrifying demonic fire.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

Incinerated by the demonic fire, the golden net began to fracture, emitting sounds as if it was breaking. In no time, the net started to melt, turning into mist.

The sight of his magical item melting broke Typhon's heart. Before he could even reach out to retrieve the golden net, it had been reduced to nothing but a cloud of mist.

The intense demonic fire continued to rage on, burning wildly and shooting flames up to the skies, causing the already scorching weather to become even hotter. Waves of heat crashed onto Typhon, forcing him to retreat.

The next second, he seemed to have thought of something as he tried to retrieve the gold coin he was using to incarcerate Kai.

Unfortunately, it was too late. As the gold coin- like magical item continued to drop, it, too, ultimately went up in smoke, destroyed by the demonic fire.

Watching as another one of his magical items got destroyed, Typhon looked as if he was about to burst into tears.

While the demonic fire burned around Kai, an overwhelming energy surged within him. At that moment, Kai felt unparalleled confidence. He had never harnessed the power of nascence before, yet it now filled him with unyielding assurance.

Without the fire nascence, the demonic fire within Kai couldn't have burned for so long, let alone unleash such tremendous force. So, this is the potential of nascence. With this power, I don't think there's anything I can't do!

Transforming into a ball of flames, Kai instantly materialized before Typhon. When Typhon sensed the fiery aura from Kai, his face turned extremely pale.

"Aren't you a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator? Didn't you say you could eliminate me with a slap? Come on! Hurry up and give it a try!" Kai taunted.

Typhon's eyelids twitched uncontrollably. He gritted his teeth in anger, yet he dared not make a move. He cultivated metallic techniques, to begin with, so his abilities were weaker in the middle of this hot desert.

Now that Kai was using fire attribute techniques against him, he was further restrained. He no longer dared to act rashly.

“Since you’re too much of a coward to attack, I shall make my move.”

After saying that, Kai dashed up to Typhon. The latter instinctively stepped back, but a wall of demonic fire blocked his way, leaving him at a loss for what to do.

Kai delivered a slap packed with the force of an erupting inferno. A large palm covered in blazing demonic fire pressed down on Typhon.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2987

When that flaming blow landed on Typhon, his face promptly contorted into a mask of agony. He was sent flying before he crashed to the ground hard. Everyone witnessed that scene, and they were all stumped.

After all, Typhon was at the peak of Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm. It was somewhat absurd for him to have been sent flying by a single strike. Cameron gaped at Kai with puzzlement brimming in his eyes. He could not fathom that turn of events.

Even if Kai had concealed his capabilities, he couldn’t possibly have sent Typhon flying with a single blow. He’s a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator at his peak!

In truth, it was because Typhon’s capabilities had been suppressed there and Kai’s demonic fire was mutually destructive to his metallic technique that he was sent flying with a single strike. If it were Cameron, Kai would never have succeeded in so effortlessly sending him flying with a single blow.

That blow had come at just the right time and place. On top of that, Typhon had a psychological fear of fire, which contributed to the matter.

Right then, blood trickled out the corner of Typhon’s mouth. He slowly climbed to his feet from the sandy desert, fury blazing in his eyes. Never had he suffered such humiliation.

Kai charged toward Typhon once more with murderous intent in his eyes upon seeing that the man was injured. He thought it wise to capitalize on his weakness to take his life, and he was determined not to miss that opportunity again this time.

However, just as he lunged at Typhon, several cultivators of the Nesser family rushed forward and attacked him without warning.

They intended to save Typhon. Since the man was temporarily allied with the Nesser family, Cameron could not possibly just watch and do nothing as he was killed by Kai. If Typhon were to die, next would be those from the Nesser family.

Cameron, however, did not budge because he wanted to intimidate the wandering cultivators such as Sunny and Lofton.

The few cultivators of the Nesser family blocked Kai's path, upon which the man frowned. The demonic fire around him spread wildly in all directions like a tidal wave, with him at the center.

Sensing the scorching heat, the few cultivators of the Nesser family backed away continuously, for they could not withstand the demonic fire's intensity.

"Anyone in my way shall die!" Kai roared, terrifying them so much that they trembled violently.

He was too petrifying at that moment, for he could even send a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator at the peak flying with a single blow. That was downright mind-boggling.

When Cameron saw that the cultivators of the Nesser family were terrified of Kai, embarrassment flooded him, and he bellowed, "Don't be so arrogant, kid!"

He leaped up, then landed right in front of Kai. Following that, all the cultivators of the Nesser family gathered behind him.. At that sight, Cloud, Sunny, and the others likewise leaped up and stood behind Kai.

In the middle of the desert, the two parties stood facing each other with daggers drawn. Having recuperated to a certain extent, Typhon leaped up and stood beside Cameron.

"Let's attack together and kill them all, Kai. Someone at the peak of Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm is nothing more than a worthless piece of trash before you. You can send them flying with a single blow, so we don't have to be afraid of them in the least!"

At that moment, Beau was utterly confident in Kai. With the latter there, he felt that there was nothing to fear even if God Himself came.

The fact that a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator could send a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator at his peak flying with a single strike had long since made him regard Kai as an immortal.

"Yes, let's attack together and kill them all! They've simply gone too far. Let's go all out!" The wandering cultivators were also very much excited.

They had all been oppressed by the Demon Seal Alliance and the Nesser family. Since Kai was beyond powerful, they wanted revenge.

However, Kai knew they had no chance of winning if a battle broke out. His capabilities were also inadequate to send a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator at his peak flying. In reality, he merely occupied a favorable geographical environment.

Alas, the wandering cultivators were wholly oblivious to that and had mistakenly assumed that he was so powerful that he did not care about a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator at his peak.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2988

The two parties remained in a standoff, neither daring to make a move at that moment. Considering the situation at present, it was very likely that they would both suffer devastating losses if they were to battle.

After an indeterminate time, the space around them gradually started to turn blurry. However, no one noticed that.

Soon, an aura permeated the air, and everyone's vision blurred. When they gathered their wits around them, they found themselves in the center of an enormous altar.

Countless massive and thick pillars stood among them. Not only was it exceedingly dark all around, but there was also an eerie feeling to it. That aside, people started materializing around Kai and the others.

Those who had initially disappeared all reappeared there. But then, many of them were littered with injuries, and their faces were lined with exhaustion.

“Mr. Chance!”

At that precise moment, Kaison spotted Kai and hurried over with the Tall family.

Kai noticed that the man was also injured. Worse still, two of the few cultivators of the Tall family who were with him were gone.

“What exactly happened, Kaison?” he asked with a slight frown.

“I’ve got no idea what happened either, Mr. Chance. After passing through the portal of light, I arrived in a forest. There were a lot of mystical herbs and beasts there, and we got into a conflict with other cultivators in gathering mystical herbs and beast cores. Two of our men ended up killed,” Kaison answered dejectedly.

Hearing that, Kai swept his eyes around, only to see that less than half of the hundreds of cultivators were left. The wandering cultivators, in particular, were in a tragic state. Even if they survived, they had sustained severe injuries.

It was the epitome of giving up one’s life for the sake of riches. Just to obtain the treasure, everyone had no qualms about taking such a great risk.

Besides, Kai realized that there were the most numbers of cultivators on their side. He surmised that it was probably because their capabilities were on par, so no one dared make a move against them.

If he had not teamed up with the wandering cultivators in the very beginning, they would have likely been killed off slowly, with few of them left.

“What happened to you, Typhon?”

Meanwhile, the other four members of the Five Slayers voiced that question in surprise upon noticing the blood at the corner of Typhon’s mouth.

They were the strongest among the cultivators there, and they would never be injured unless targeted by a group of cultivators.

The instant Typhon saw that his companions were there, his confidence ballooned. He then swung his gaze at Kai icily.

“A kid caught me off guard and injured me!” he snarled, murderous intent radiating off him.

“Who dared to make a move against a member of the Demon Seal Alliance? Woodley demanded furiously, his brows knitted together.

“It was him!”

Typhon pointed right at Kai. The other four men swung their gazes at Kai. When they perceived that he was merely at Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm, they were all stunned. Disbelief was written all over their faces.

“You’re not kidding us, are you, Typhon? That kid is just at Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm. How could he sneak an attack on you? Even if you stood still, he’d never be able to hurt you!”

Phaethon did not believe it at all. The others did not believe it either since the gap in capabilities between them was too vast.

If the person were an extraordinarily talented Eighth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, there was a possibility of battling someone a level higher and defeating a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator.

However, it was absurd for Kai at Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm to defeat a Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator at his peak.

“I’m not kidding. The fire he has is even more powerful than yours. As you know, I fear fire the most. My capabilities are compromised in this land of fire,” Typhon said.

“Even if he could play with fire, he’s just at Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm. How powerful could he be? I think you’re pulling our leg. I don’t believe you!”

Still, Phaethon remained skeptical.

Seeing that none of them believed him, Typhon said, “I’ll take you all over to him right now and show you his true capabilities. I suspect he concealed part of them.”

The Mans Decree Chapter 2989

As Typhon spoke, he led the other four men toward Kai. At the sight of the Five Slayers heading toward him, Kai frowned slightly. His expression turned solemn as well.

It was already beyond difficult for me to deal with Typhon alone. With all five of them now, we've got no chance of winning!

Meanwhile, Cameron was frantically searching for his son, Chev. Chev's capabilities were not that impressive. Cameron had been worried something would happen to him since they were separated.

However, he did not see any sign of his son among the crowd after scanning his eyes over everyone there. His face went as black as thunder. He knew that Chev's absence might very likely mean that some tragedy had befallen him.

As long as someone is alive, he'll definitely be transported over. Even those severely injured and on the verge of death are here so long as they have breath left. The only ones absent are the ones dead.

His heart promptly sank. While he persisted in looking for Chev, he noticed that someone was seemingly avoiding him.

He strode over and quickly discovered that it was a servant of the Nesser family who had been by Chev's side. He yanked the man out in a flash. "M-Mr. Nesser..."

When the servant of the Nesser family laid eyes on Cameron, he was so terrified that he trembled all over and went as pale as a sheet.

He had deliberately avoided the man earlier, but unexpectedly, Cameron had noticed him. "Where's my son?" Cameron demanded with a chilly look on his face.

"M-Mr. Chev..."

The servant of the Nesser family did not dare answer that question. "Spit it out! Where is he?" Cameron shot daggers at him.

"He's dead!" the servant of the Nesser family replied at long last. Cameron's head started buzzing, and he almost collapsed to the ground. Despite having guessed it ages ago, he still could not accept it when his conjecture was affirmed.

After taking a moment to compose himself, he questioned, “How did he die? And who killed him?”

He knew Chev still had the servants of the Nesser family to protect him by his side although they got separated.

The capabilities of the servants of the Nesser family were all pretty high, so they would never allow Chev to be killed without putting up a fight.

Thud! The servant of the Nesser family abruptly dropped to his knees on the ground. With tears streaming down his face, he uttered, “It was all on us, Mr. Nesser. We failed to protect Mr. Chev. He was burned to death by Phaethon of the Five Slayers. At that time, Phaethon burned him to death for a mystical herb. We wanted to save him, but we weren’t Phaethon’s match. Everyone died at his hands, and I only narrowly escaped to get here. Please spare me, Mr. Nesser. Please have mercy on me!”

As Cameron listened, his body shook incessantly.

He had never expected his son to die such a tragic death, much less that the Five Slayers of the Demon Seal Alliance would go against the Nesser family without fear.

Not too long ago, he had just allied himself with Typhon. But in the next second, one of the man’s companions had burned his son to death. His fury blazed increasingly hotter, causing terror to fill the eyes of the servant of the Nesser family.

“Since you couldn’t keep my son safe, you serve no purpose at all!”

Cameron killed the man with a single blow. The moment the servant of the Nesser family died, a ray of white light burst out of his body. Like fireworks, it shot up to the sky and soon disappeared into the darkness.

However, no one noticed that. Everyone was observing their surroundings, very much apprehensive in an unfamiliar environment.

After killing that servant of the Nesser family, Cameron turned, only to see Typhon heading his way with the others. The rage in his eyes consumed all reason.

“Return my son to me!”

The Mans Decree Chapter 2990

Cameron leaped into the air and shot his hand out at Phaethon. That blow carried infinite power, for he intended to take the latter’s life.

The sudden attack took all the Five Slayers by surprise. Typhon was the first to react. He promptly shot his hand out and met Cameron’s blow.

Bang! As the two hands collided, a terrifying aura burst forth and swiftly spread in all directions. Like a sickle, it harvested the lives of the cultivators around them.

One could only imagine the force produced by two Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivators at their peaks when they battled on that cramped altar. Kai, Sunny, and the others hastily released their spiritual energy and formed a shield to block off the terrifying force.

The other cultivators likewise used various methods to protect themselves. Unfortunately, some injured and dying cultivators had no ability to protect themselves. The aura swept over them. They were instantly crushed and turned into a pile of powder.

Several rays of white light again rose and shot up into the sky before disappearing into thin air. Kai had been keeping an eye on things, so he noticed that the capabilities of any cultivator who died would turn into a ray of white light before getting absorbed.

Following that exchange of blows, Cameron stumbled back two steps while Typhon went flying. Injured in the first place, Typhon was on the losing end to fight Cameron head-on.

“Typhon!”

The others quickly helped Typhon up. “How audacious of you to attack someone from the Demon Seal Alliance, Cameron! You must be sick of living!”

With a roar, Woodley geared up to make a move against Cameron.

“Stop!” Typhon stopped Woodley from doing so. Then, he turned to Cameron with puzzlement and asked, “What’s the meaning of this, Mr. Nesser? Why did you suddenly attack us?”

“You’ve still got the nerve to ask me that? Ask your companions what they have done!”

Cameron glared at Phaethon with fury blazing in his eyes. Shifting his gaze to Phaethon, Typhon questioned, “What did you do, Phaethon?”

“Nothing. That kid of the Nesser family dared to fight me for a mystical herb, so I burned him to death,” Phaethon answered nonchalantly. The instant Typhon heard that, his brows creased.

When Cameron saw that Phaethon was still acting blithe despite killing his son, his wrath blazed even hotter.

“I want you to pay for my son’s life with yours!”

Cameron bellowed.

“I hope you can calm down, Mr. Nesser,” Typhon urged. “Calm down? Could you calm down if I were to kill your son?” Cameron barked.

“If you insist on making a move, Mr. Nesser, do you think you and your worthless subordinates are our match?” Typhon asked, his expression going cold.

Cameron stared at him without saying anything. With all Five Slayers there then, the few men of the Nesser family he had brought were not their match.

He was utterly livid right then. He could not defeat them, yet he could not allow his son to die unavenged either. For a moment, he plunged into a dilemma.

Meanwhile, Kai was over the moon upon seeing that the Nesser family had fallen out with the Five Slayers. Since he injured Typhon, the Five Slayers would never let him off the hook. Regretfully, he, Sunny, and those of the Tall family alone were not their match.

But if they were to join hands with the Nesser family and the rest of the wandering cultivators, they would not have to fear Typhon's revenge.

"You Five Slayers are downright despicable to throw your weight around and kill other cultivators at will!" Kai stepped forward with his men just then. "If you want to take revenge, Mr. Nesser, we can work together. Then, you'll stand a chance."

His words stunned Cameron. Even Typhon was taken aback, for he had never expected Kai to propose a collaboration with Cameron.

After all, he had join forces with the latter to deal with Kai just an hour ago. In the blink of an eye, things had changed.

Nonetheless, there were no eternal friends in the Ethereal Realm. All that existed was perpetual interests. The enemy of one's enemy is a friend.
