

The Mans Decree Chapter 3145

The runes on Apex Spear lit up once again. Astonishingly, tiger roars began to echo from Bone Cliff's body. Immediately after, Bone Cliff's form began to fade as a fierce tiger merged with his figure.

When the tiger charged, Apex Spear incredulously fused with it. The ferocious tiger emanated a faint red glow, distorting the space and making it nearly impossible to discern the tiger's actual appearance.

At that instant, the tiger was like a projected image displayed in midair. However, the terrifying aura it gave off unmistakably bore the awakened bloodline of a celestial beast.

As the tiger seemed to meld with the very space around it, even Bone Cliff's body started turning translucent. The vicious tiger's eyes flashed red, focusing on Kai like two headlamps.

"Brat, even though my original form has vanished, the magecraft and techniques I possess are still beyond the comprehension of an insignificant Ethereal Realm cultivator like you. Prepare to meet your doom!"

With that, Bone Cliff gently waved his hand. The tiger immediately roared and lunged at Kai.

The attacking entity constantly shifted between the form of a tiger and Apex Spear, making it impossible to distinguish the true nature of the assault. Nevertheless, facing the onslaught, Kai sneered.

The next second, Kai's figure in the sky suddenly disappeared. When he materialized again, there were six identical Kais, each carrying the same aura.

As a result, it was virtually not possible to differentiate which was the real him by examining their auras.

The abrupt turn of events caused Bone Cliff to be momentarily stunned. Even the tiger stopped moving, uncertain of how it should proceed with its attack.

"Hmph! Do you think that a simple illusion spell will hinder me?" Bone Cliff snorted. As he spoke, his form shuddered, and Apex Spear swiftly fragmented into eighty-one spears again, each then transforming into a roaring tiger.

For a moment, the entire island resonated with those tigers' deafening and mighty roars, prompting every onlooker to feel a crushing weight upon their chests. The eighty-one tigers surrounded the six Kais, trapping the latter.

The crowd grew anxious. Under such circumstances, they wondered if Kai could still match up against his opponent, as they were under the assumption that Kai's shadow clones were just illusions and that only one of the figures was the true Kai.

Yet, unbeknownst to them, all six Kais could be considered his true forms since they possessed the aura and capabilities equivalent to the actual Kai.

"Brat, let's see how you can still hide from me with your lousy illusion spell!" Bone Cliff scoffed. Unfazed, Kai raised his Dragonslayer Sword and uttered a dragon's roar.

Dazzling golden lights burst forth from his figure as the Power of Dragons surged skyward through Dragonslayer Sword.

Immediately afterward, Kai's six shadow clones merged, intensifying the golden radiance. In no time, a Golden Dragon's apparition took shape behind him.

The massive Golden Dragon hovered in midair, glaring down with its eyes that were as big as water barrels. The Golden Dragon let out a series of roars, its overpowering aura causing the entire void to tremble violently.

Even when faced with eighty-one ferocious tigers, the Golden Dragon exuded an air of authority, its eyes filled with disdain. Bone Cliff's expression changed drastically when he saw the Golden Dragon materializing behind Kai.

Even in his wildest dream, he never imagined a mere Body Fusion Realm cultivator and inconsequential youngster of the Golden Dragon lineage could unleash the soul of the Golden Dragon. This is impossible! Only those with the purest and noblest bloodline of the Golden Dragon lineage can manifest the Golden Dragon's soul! How could an insignificant Ethereal Realm cultivator like him possibly possess the most aristocratic of the Golden Dragon lineage? Impossible. This is absurd!

Still, the Golden Dragon circling atop Kai's head was a reality that Bone Cliff couldn't refute regardless of his willingness.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3146

All onlookers were left in sheer astonishment at the sight of the Golden Dragon revolving above Kai's head. Kai, a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, had given them more shocks than they could handle.

In the presence of the Golden Dragon, even the eighty-one ferocious tigers began to shudder fearfully. That was a result of bloodline superiority. Those ancient beasts knew all too well the might of the Golden Dragon race.

The Golden Dragon was considered the apex of Draconians, while tigers were merely kings among beasts. The distinction in their status was stark in comparison. Watching the eighty-one tigers shivering, Bone Cliff felt his confidence waning as well.

He had never expected Kai to summon the Golden Dragon's soul. That was simply unthinkable! Even after witnessing Bone Cliff's pale expression and those tigers quivering, Kai didn't stop.

As he swung the Dragonslayer Sword in his hand, the Golden Dragon roared and dashed toward the eighty-one tigers, rushing into their midst and effortlessly decimating the tigers: with its fangs and claws.

The tigers scattered and fled in panic but couldn't escape the island. The tigers returned to their Apex Spear form after being slaughtered by the Golden Dragon. They dropped from the sky one after the other and were reduced into heaps of broken bones.

In a mere blink of an eye, not a single one of the eighty-one tigers remained. The Apex Spears Bone Cliff had refined through thousands of years of hard work were now all obliterated. Without Apex Spear, Bone Cliff was as powerless as a tiger without fangs.

After wiping out the tigers, the Golden Dragon let out a roar, soared into the sky, and integrated back into Kai's body.

Kai gazed indifferently at Bone Cliff. Meanwhile, Bone Cliff, devoid of his earlier arrogance, now looked despondent.

"I never imagined that after enduring for thousands of years and being on the verge of restoring my physical form, I would fall at the hands of a mere whelp. Forget it. Perhaps this is my fate and destiny. Still, how can I make peace with the thought of getting eliminated by a Body Fusion Realm cultivator like you? Even if I die, I will make sure all of you perish alongside me!” After finishing his sentence, Bone Cliff formed a seal with his hands and floated: midair.

Subsequently, a sound akin to the tinkling of bells reverberated, seemingly originating from beyond the skies yet simultaneously coming from the depths of the earth, echoing throughout the island.

Hearing the sound, everyone was stunned. When Bone Cliff parted his lips, chants resonated in the air. The earth shook, and waves of scorching heat arose from the island and the Night Sea.

Flames, embedded with countless shimmering runes, approached Bone Cliff. Everything seemed ablaze as the Night Sea churned tumultuously, and a sea of fire filled the sky.

Kai frowned slightly while watching Bone Cliff perform the magecraft. As expected of an ancient cultivator. Even without a physical form, his mere soul remnant can still unleash such a formidable technique!

Bone Cliff slowly lifted his right hand. A black flame lotus appeared above the Night Sea, distorting the void and drawing all the flames in the surroundings to surge toward Bone Cliff.

Columns of fire shot up from the depths of the Night Sea like volcanos erupting. The flame lotus grew larger while Bone Cliff hovered in its center, engulfed in inferno. The columns of fire converged upon the flame lotus like countless fire dragons.

Everyone was utterly astounded by the scene unfolding before their eyes. Bone Cliff is bringing about a calamity for everyone to perish together!

The flame lotus continued absorbing the flames, expanding in size and eventually blanketing the whole island.

“Get to the spirit ship! Hurry up! Quickly!” Kai shouted at the dazed crowd.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3147

Once Montane Daemon and the rest registered it, they began running toward the spirit ship by the shore. Everyone scrambled to board it. Then, the spirit ship sped away from the island and only stopped when it was dozens of miles away from the island.

“Kai! Kai!” Quinley shouted. Kai was on the island, facing the frightening flame lotus in the sky. She could not help but wonder if he could survive it.

“Will Mr. Chance be all right?”

Cloud’s concern was apparent in his eyes, but he knew that he could not get on the island with his ability, let alone save Kai. “He’ll be fine. He’s far more powerful than we imagine.”

Montane Daemon had endless trust in Kai, for everything Kai had done so far had always taken him aback.

As soon as everyone had evacuated the island, Kai’s Golem Body shone with the utmost brilliance, and he was also surrounded by a layer of flames. In Kai’s nascence space, his fire nascence constellation had become bright. He was planning to fight fire with fire.

Bone Cliff’s flames were only the fire of the Earth’s core, but Kai’s fire nascence was derived from demonic fire. His fire was more potent than Bone Cliff’s.

However, Bone Cliff had reached a state of desperation, and fear was no longer a consideration. Otherwise, he would not have expanded the flame lotus to such an extent.

When Bone Cliff saw that Kai hadn’t fled and was instead confronting him, he sneered, “You don’t stand a chance, kid. No being can endure the flame lotus, and even this island will be erased from the face of the Earth.”

“It’s not up to you to decide. There are many people who want to kill me, including formidable ancient beings, but I’m still alive and well. This won’t be any exception!” Kai retorted with disdain as he harnessed the power of his demonic fire nascence.

Instead of replying to Kai, Bone Cliff descended rapidly. The giant flame lotus crashed toward the island. His gaze fixed on the flame lotus, Kai stood straight as roars of dragons sounded within him.

Although Kai was shrouded by flames, the flames seemed insignificant in the face of the flame lotus. Despite that, Kai did not cower.

“Die!”

The flame lotus ultimately descended upon the island with a resounding crash. The entire island was engulfed in a vast sea of flames. Waves towering as high as a hundred meters rose from the sea, crashing relentlessly in all directions.

The spirit ship was not immune to the influence of the waves, and it rocked perilously as if it was about to capsize at any moment.

“Kai!” Quinley yelled in despair upon witnessing the scene. The others shared their concern for Kai as well. After all, even a Tribulator cultivator would find it challenging to emerge unscathed from such a predicament, let alone a Body Fusion Realm cultivator like Kai.

“Ugh!”

Bone Cliff coughed out a mouthful of blood as he swayed. After the attack, he knew his time was ticking.

The flames continued to rage on the island. The entire island had sunk, leaving only one-tenth of its surface still visible above the Night Sea. It looked as though it was going to sink into the sea in no time.

As the flames gradually went out, Bone Cliff cast a glance at the island, where only a small piece of land remained above water. To his delight, Kai was nowhere to be found.

His lips quirked up, for even a cultivator mightier than Kai would have trouble fleeing from the attack.

He was certain that Kai had been reduced to ashes. After all, it was the fire of the Earth’s core, with a temperature reaching tens of thousands of degrees. How could Kai possibly withstand such extreme heat?
