

The Mans Decree Chapter 3221

chapter 3221 Silencing The Alchemists

Lawrence had a moment of comprehension as he studied the three alchemists' expressions. Looking livid, he said, "Cade, seize those three b*stards. They dared to come into our house and cause harm. I'll make them suffer a fate worse than death!"

"Got it." Cade nodded, then instructed some men to capture the alchemists.

The trio was powerless to resist and did not even put up a fight before they were swiftly subdued. Overcome with panic, the alchemists hurriedly turned to Enrique and pleaded, "Mr. Enrique, help us! Please save us!"

Enrique looked at them grimly. "You three b*stards! You still expect me to save you after you've harmed my father? Dream on! Take them out and kill them!"

One of the alchemists struggled desperately and shouted, "Mr. Enrique, you can't do this! This is-"

Enrique suddenly waved his hand as the alchemist was in mid-sentence. A burst of aura penetrated the latter's chest, and he ended up dying before he could finish what he was saying.

The remaining alchemists stood stunned after witnessing their comrade's death. A second later, they began yelling at Enrique, "You vicious b*stard! We did all this because you told us to! But now, you

Thump! Thump!

Enrique's expression shifted drastically, and in the blink of an eye, he had delivered another two blows that killed the two alchemists.

When Lawrence saw that his brother had killed all three alchemists, his face hardened.

"Don't listen to all the crp those bstards said, Lawrence. They were spewing baseless accusations. Although I was the one who brought them here, I've no idea how they went about the treatment. After all, I have no medical knowledge," Enrique hastily explained. Even though I desperately want to take over Lawrence's position as head of the family, now is not the time. I need to hold it in!

Meanwhile, Lawrence stared at Enrique while seething with anger. I never imagined that this brother of mine would actually dare to do something to harm our father! However, what can I do now? I can't do anything, at least not in front of Dad.

"I'm sorry you had to see that, Mr. Chance. May I know if you can really cure my father of his ailment?" After Kai had exposed the three alchemists, Lawrence's attitude toward him had altered significantly.

Brimming with confidence, Kai answered, "Don't worry. Since I dared to say that, it means it won't be a problem. However, I need a few mystical herbs that can be quite tricky to find."

"Don't worry, Mr. Chance. We have a medical hall in Yellow Blue City, and the alchemist in charge has all kinds of medicinal herbs," Lawrence replied.

Kai nodded and wrote a prescription for him. The latter glanced at it before instructing Cade, "Go and personally get the medicine according to the prescription."

"Okay!" With that, Cade left with the prescription. Then, Lawrence turned to Enrique and said, "Dad is fine now, so take your family and leave. Let him have some peace and quiet."

"All right." Not daring to say anything else, Enrique promptly left with his children. Once they had gone, Lawrence looked at Cloud. "You can go and see your grandfather now."

Cloud nodded and rushed over to the bed, tears streaming down his face. Claudius seemed to sense something as he was lying on the bed and struggled to open his eyes. It was only briefly, but he managed to glance at Cloud before his eyes closed again.

At the moment, his body was far too weak. If not for Kai, Claudius might not have made it through the day!

The Mans Decree Chapter 3222

Chapter 3222 Defeated

“Boy, let your grandpa rest.” Lawrence helped Cloud up to his feet before turning to his two daughters. “Miya, Livya, bring Cloud and the others to rest. Don’t stir up trouble this time.”

“Don’t worry, Dad. We won’t...” Miya stiffly replied.

Then, Miya and Livya led Cloud’s group out of the room. Just as they reached the front yard, Genya stopped them. With a sword in her hand, Genya fiercely uttered to Miya, “B*tch, I dare you to a fight!”

Miya’s fury burned bright the moment she was insulted. Jabbing a finger at Genya, she snapped, “You arrogant wench, how dare you curse at me? Bring it on! I’m going to beat you until you sht your pants!”

“Miya, ignore her. If you fight with her and Dad finds out about it, he’ll surely reprimand you,” Livya reminded as she tugged Miya.

“Let me go! I’m going to beat her up so badly she won’t ever forget about it!”

With that, Miya readied herself for battle. From the way Miya and Genya yelled at each other, this did not seem like their first fight.

In the next second, Miya smacked her waist, and out came a foil. Simultaneously, Genya pulled out her sword. Upon seeing the sword in Genya’s hand, Kai frowned.

“What’s the matter, Mr. Chance?” Cloud whispered when he noticed the shift in Kai’s expression.

“There’s demonic aura on the magic sword that Genya’s wielding. My guess is it’s a demon spirit sword. It’s best if you warn your older sister to be more careful,” Kai explained.

At that, Cloud swiftly said to Miya, “M- Miya, be careful of her sword. There’s something strange about her weapon!”

“What’s wrong with it?” Miya asked.

“It...” Cloud hesitated. “Forget it. She’s just a loser. No matter what sword she uses, she’ll never be a match for me and my foil.”

Miya was evidently confident in her ability. In the next second, her sword trembled, and her blade shot forward like a venomous snake after its prey.

Genya lunged forward as well, and in no time, they were tangled in a fight.

The two individuals displayed evenly matched strength, but it was clear that Miya held a slight advantage, especially with her foil. Thus, Miya temporarily gained the upper hand. In the sky, swords flashed, and spiritual energy roared.

“Livya, do they always duke it out like this?” Cloud asked Livya beside him. “Eight times in ten days, but Miya wins every time. Genya can’t keep up with her, don’t worry,” Livya replied with a smile.

“Ms. Seizon, have you ever seen the sword in Genya’s hand?” Kai asked Livya.

Livya shook her head. “Never seen it. This girl frequently changes her sword, and she’s always claiming them as some kind of divine weapon, but every time Miya defeats her, she’ll switch to a different sword.”

Kai nodded, already having an idea of the overall situation.

Meanwhile, Genya began to show signs of exhaustion as she continuously retreated. Miya’s lips curled into a cold smile. “A loser as always. It won’t be any different today.”

Just as Miya raised her sword, a sudden red light flashed in Genya’s eyes. Her long sword emitted countless sword lights like a storm, and they rushed toward Miya.

Miya stepped back, and her foil, shaken in mid-air, produced a humming sound, creating blossoms of sword flowers. The clash between sword lights and sword flowers emitted a dazzling glow.

At that moment, Genya’s sword seemed to gain consciousness, releasing a black mist. Then, a sword spirit emerged from the sword.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3223

Chapter 3223 There Are Thieves

Miya had never encountered such a situation before and was momentarily stunned. Meanwhile, the sword spirit automatically wielded the sword, slashing toward Miya.

“What... What is this?”

Miya’s eyes widened in terror as she watched the sword shrouded in black mist coming toward her, her face turning pale.

“Miya!” Livya shouted in alarm, witnessing the unexpected turn of events. Kai, in response, swiftly summoned the Demon Flogger and handed it to Cloud, signaling him with a glance.

Cloud immediately understood and shouted, “Miya, use this whip to attack!”

Cloud tossed the Demon Flogger to Miya. Miya, caught off guard, instinctively grabbed the Demon Flogger.

The whip started to vibrate in her hand, and the sword enveloped in black mist halted its attack as it froze in place. Even true demons would fear the Demon Flogger, let alone a demon spirit sword.

Witnessing her sword suddenly halt and refusing to attack, Genya was stunned. She desperately tried to activate her spiritual sense, attempting to make the demon spirit within the sword strike.

Unfortunately, instead of attacking, the demon spirit turned around and bolted. Genya grabbed her sword, attempting to regain control, but it proved futile. The sword seemed to have gone crazy and started to escape on its own.

Observing this bizarre turn of events, Miya was also bewildered, unable to grasp how the sword had autonomously turned and fled.

Nevertheless, Miya had no intention of letting Genya off the hook. She leaped toward her, wielding the Demon Flogger. and delivered a powerful lash.

Crack!

A crisp sound echoed as the sword fell, and the demon spirit within it soared into the air, trying to escape. Kai, quick on his feet, chased after it. The Dragonslayer Sword in his hand emitted a radiant glow and a potent suction force, drawing the demon spirit into it.

The demon spirit, being a kind of sword spirit, could help the Dragonslayer Sword’s spirit, Zelda, recover faster when absorbed.

Without the sword, Genya became even less of a match for Miya. Miya ruthlessly lashed her twice with the Demon Flogger, leaving deep imprints on her snow-white skin.

“You wicked woman, just you wait!”

After uttering these words, Genya swiftly fled the scene.

Miya chose not to pursue further; after all, Genya was her cousin. She could not bring herself to actually harm her. A couple of lashes with the Demon Flogger served as sufficient discipline. Descending from mid-air, Miya handed the Demon Flogger to Cloud.

“Cloud, what kind of whip is this? It’s surprisingly effective,” Miya asked as she cast a grateful look at Cloud.

Cloud took the Demon Flogger and passed it to Kai, explaining, “This is Mr. Chance’s Demon Flogger. Genya used a demon spirit sword, so this Demon Flogger is the most effective against it.”

“A demon spirit sword?” Miya exclaimed, her anger evident. “That devious woman dared to use a demon spirit sword? I almost fell for her trick.”

Miya looked at Kai and expressed her gratitude, “Thank you. I didn’t expect you to have such a treasure. But you better hide it well; otherwise, it’s sure to be stolen.”

Kai smiled faintly. “No one can steal my things.”

“Don’t be too sure. Even the Seizon family has thieves,” Miya said.

“Miya, does the Seizon family really have thieves?” Cloud was surprised. With such a grand family, who would dare to steal from them?

“Cloud, don’t listen to Miya’s nonsense. She’s talking about Yorath Seizon. He’s the one who indulges in vices, steals things from the family, and sells them. That’s why Miya said that,” Livya explained with a laugh.

Cloud laughed upon understanding the context. After settling Cloud and the others in their resting place, Miya and Livya left.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3224

Chapter 3224 Take Action First

At Enrique's place, Enrique wore a terribly grim expression. Initially, he had planned to wait for his father to pass away before teaming up with Behemoth Palace to seize the position of the family head.

However, with the old man seemingly not on the verge of death anytime soon, Enrique's plans needed adjustment.

"Dad, we need to figure something out. We absolutely cannot let them revive Grandpa. If necessary, we should act preemptively," Yorath suggested, his gleaming with determination. eyes

"If things get desperate, it seems we might have to resort to patricide. Immediately contact Behemoth Palace and have them move to Yellow Blue City. To prevent your Uncle Lawrence from making a move against us first, we need to be prepared." Enrique acknowledged, aware that his elder brother might turn against him after today's disgraceful incident.

Committing patricide was the most shameful act, something Lawrence would find utterly unacceptable.

Despite Lawrence not saying anything today, Enrique knew that his elder brother attacking him was just a matter of time. He had to be ready in advance.

"All right, I'll inform Behemoth Palace and have them get ready for action." Yorath nodded. As Yorath was about to leave, he noticed his younger sister, Genya, entering. She appeared downcast and bore injuries.

"What happened?" Yorath frowned.

"Blame it on that w*nch Miya! She beat me up. I'll get my revenge sooner or later!" Genya gritted her teeth.

"Genya, you're no match for Miya. Why do you keep picking fights with her?" Enrique, eyeing Genya's injuries, voiced his concern.

"Hmph! Originally, I was on the verge of defeating Miya. Then, someone handed her an incredibly powerful whip. Even the demon spirit sword cowered in fear at the sight of that whip. If it weren't for that, Miya would have undoubtedly lost to me," Genya stubbornly explained.

“What? You took the demon spirit sword? Where is it now?” Enrique exclaimed in shock.

Genya lowered her head slightly and muttered, “The sword was destroyed, and the demon spirit inside it was killed by someone.”

“You’re too reckless! Who gave you the right to take the demon spirit sword? If your uncle finds out about this, we’re in big trouble!” Enrique roared, his expression tense. Genya dared not raise her head upon receiving the scolding.

“Dad, even if Uncle Lawrence finds out, so what? We can confront him directly. We’ll have to do it sooner or later anyway,” Yorath insisted, a discontented look on his face.

“We’re not ready yet. If we confront him now, we won’t stand a chance.” Enrique sighed but suddenly had a realization. He turned to Genya and continued, “So, you’re saying that after Miya pulled out a whip, the demon spirit sword and took off?” grew scared

“Yeah, and when Miya struck it with the whip, the demon spirit sword hit the ground, and the spirit bolted.” Genya nodded in agreement.

“A demon spirit sword being so afraid of a whip... Could it be that the whip is...” Enrique furrowed his brows, deep in thought. Suddenly, his eyes lit up, and he said, “Could that be the Demon Flogger?”

“Dad, what’s a Demon Flogger?” Yorath asked with curiosity.

“This Demon Flogger is quite something. Many demons fear it. However, it’s supposed to be in the possession of Archaic Body cultivators from the far north. How did it end up here all of a sudden?”

Enrique looked puzzled.

“Dad, have you forgotten how those two guys and the woman Cade brought are from the northern region? Maybe one of them is an Archaic Body cultivator,” Yorath suggested.

“Impossible. Those three don’t give off the aura of Archaic Body cultivators. Their cultivation methods are similar to those of Behemoth Palace, and a bit of investigation would reveal the difference. They couldn't be Archaic Body cultivators." Enrique shook his head.

"Maybe they swiped the Demon Flogger from the Archaic Body cultivators," Yorath suggested again.

"For now, let's not stress about that. You go and contact Behemoth Palace right away," Enrique instructed as he waved his hand.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3225

Chapter 3225 No Trouble

Meanwhile, Kai's group was resting. Feenix had already hopped on top of Kai, saying, "Master, let me help you unwind a bit..."

Feenix exuded a seductive charm as she gazed passionately at Kai. Seeing Feenix in this state, Kai could not help but grin and say, "Feenix, are you here to help me relax, or are you aiming to drain me of my vitality?"

"Master, do you not like to experience bliss with me?" Feenix queried, a pitiful look on her face.

"I do, for sure," Kai replied, flipping over to once again pin Feenix beneath him. However, just then, there was a knock on the door.

"Mr. Chance, Uncle Lawrence has some matters to discuss. He wants us to go over." Cloud said from outside.

"Got it," Kai responded as he swiftly got up. Hence, Feenix had no choice but to follow suit in exasperation. Upon leaving the room, Kai asked, "What's the matter?"

"It might be related to the prescription; some of the mystical herbs are unavailable," Cloud explained.

"Unavailable?" Kai frowned. "These herbs, though rare, should be obtainable in the surrounding mountains of Yellow Blue City."

As they spoke, they strolled toward Lawrence's place. Once they arrived, Kai inquired, "Mr. Seizon, what's going on?"

“Cade, you explain to Mr. Chance,” Lawrence instructed Cade.

“Mr. Chance, some of the herbs in your prescription are accessible, but a few are impossible to purchase,” Cade explained.

“What? Can you really not get these mystical herbs despite being in a massive city like Yellow Blue City?” Kai asked in disbelief.

“That’s not it. To buy these mystical herbs, you’ll need to be an alchemist. They don’t sell to non-alchemists, not even if I were to use the Seizon family’s name. The Alchemist Guild holds a high position in our city, especially with Jubilante overseeing it. That’s why we can’t resort to force,” Cade explained awkwardly.

Hearing that, Kai chuckled. “That makes sense. It’s pretty straightforward, then. I’ll just come with you.”

Kai did not anticipate the rules and regulations of Yellow Blue City’s Alchemist Guild. Like pharmacies in the mundane world, certain medications could not be sold without a doctor’s prescription.

“I appreciate your help, Mr. Chance,” Lawrence politely said.

“It’s no trouble,” Kai replied with a faint smile. Then, he asked Cloud and Feenix to stay in the Seizon residence while he followed Cade to the Alchemist Guild.

In the Ethereal Realm, alchemists held a high status. Otherwise, Emerald Cauldron Sect would not have survived with the existence of Norwal City and Imperial Beast City.

Soon, they reached the entrance of the Alchemist Guild, where many people dressed in alchemist attire confidently came in and out. Despite their humble strength, their status was elevated.

That was because injuries and illnesses were impossible to avoid in life, and when the time came, people’s lives were in the alchemists’ hands..

Thus, no one wanted to offend these alchemists. Cade led Kai into the Alchemist Guild. Despite the aloof expressions of the alchemists, they warmly greeted Cade, recognizing the immense influence of the Seizon family in Yellow Blue City.

After entering the Alchemist Guild, Cade brought Kai straight to a counter where herbs were sold.

“Mr. Seizon, is this the alchemist who provided you with the prescription?” a female alchemist inquired with a smile.

“Yes, Mr. Chance is the alchemist. Can we purchase the herbs for the prescription now?” Cade asked.

“Of course, but we would need this gentleman to present his alchemist token. In the Ethereal Realm, every alchemist has their own token that’s usable in all five regions,” the female alchemist went on to say.