

The Mans Decree Chapter 3231

Chapter 3231 Strange Method

“Now, let’s get this started. Bring out all the necessary mystical herbs,” Kai told Jubilante, who was still staring intently at the Divine Cauldron.

“Sure.” Jubilante nodded. Then, he ordered his men to bring out the various mystical herbs required to craft the Aksum Pill.

However, the confidence that adorned Jubilante’s face earlier had vanished. Kai’s reveal of the Divine Cauldron had shaken Jubilante’s self-assurance. The Divine Cauldron was akin to Kai’s trump card; it unsettled Jubilante’s composure.

“Jubilante, focus your mind. As long as you win, this guy is as good as dead, and the Divine Cauldron will be yours,” one of Jubilante’s subordinates approached and whispered, noticing Jubilante’s distracted state.

Jubilante’s expression lit up at the idea, and he cast another covetous glance at the Divine Cauldron.

“Lad, let’s get started. The one who crafts the purest Aksum Pill in the shortest time wins,” Jubilante declared.

“No problem.” Kai nodded. With the sound of a bell, the competition officially began. Everyone watched intently, eager to witness the ancient Divine Cauldron in action.

After the competition started, Jubilante immediately conjured a spiritual fire and carefully observed its intensity. He then began placing different mystical herbs into the cauldron at different times.

This was a crucial step in pill crafting- controlling the spiritual fire’s intensity and arranging the mystical herbs in the correct order.

However, Kai took a different approach. He threw all the mystical herbs needed for the Aksum Pill into the Divine Cauldron in one go.

Then, with a blue spiritual fire in hand, he thrust it into the cauldron. In an instant, a blazing fire erupted inside the Divine Cauldron.

Witnessing this scene, everyone was left dumbfounded. Even Jubilante, who had stopped placing his mystical herbs, looked at Kai in disbelief. He had seen various alchemy methods, but this one was entirely unfamiliar.

Is this even a valid pill-crafting method? Throwing all the mystical herbs in and setting it on fire? If this can yield a pill, it seems absurd.

“Is this alchemy? It looks more like cooking over an open fire.”

“Are we sure this method won’t blow up the cauldron?”

“I’ve lived this long and have never seen such an alchemy method.”

A fervent discussion broke out among the onlookers. Jubilante, concerned about Kai’s cauldron potentially exploding, cautiously moved his own cauldron further away.

As the flames in Kai’s Divine Cauldron diminished, Jubilante, realizing he had neglected his own pill crafting, focused intently on his task. Others also retreated, wary of the potential explosion from the Divine Cauldron.

Observing Kai’s unconventional alchemy method, Cade wore a puzzled expression. While he was not an alchemist, he had seen many alchemists practicing alchemy, and none had used such a method.

“Mr. Chance, what... kind of alchemy method is this? Is it effective?” Cade asked in astonishment.

“Wait a moment, and you’ll find out if it’s effective,” Kai replied with a faint smile. Just as Kai’s words faded, there was a sudden, resounding bang that startled everyone. Everyone thought that Kai had blasted his Divine Cauldron.

However, what they saw was a plume of white vapor rising from the Divine Cauldron, accompanied by a rich medicinal fragrance.

With this fragrance, a colorful glow instantly shimmered in the sky, forming a beautifully radiant Spirit Cloud.

“Oh my goodness, he produced a Spirit Cloud with just a mere Aksum Pill? What kind of alchemy technique is this?”

“We don’t even need to care about the Aksum Pill anymore. Just the appearance of the Spirit Cloud tells us that this guy has definitely won. Jubilante has created numerous Aksum Pills, but not once has a Spirit Cloud appeared.”

Everyone stared in awe at the Spirit Cloud hanging in the air, utterly shocked.

Jubilante, on the other hand, had fallen to the ground on his bottom and was staring at the pill. He rubbed his eyes forcefully, unable to believe that Kai’s pill crafting had resulted in the formation of such a remarkable Spirit Cloud.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3232

Chapter 3232 Unbelievable

After a long while, the crowd gathered around Kai. Then, a middle-aged alchemist spoke. “Will you be willing to show us the Aksum Pill you’ve crafted, brat- I mean, Mr. Chance?”

“Of course!” Without hesitation, Kai tossed the Aksum Pill he produced over to the middle-aged alchemist.

The middle-aged alchemist examined the Aksum Pill in detail. Meanwhile, everyone else leaned toward him, wanting to study the pill as well.

The Aksum Pill Kai manufactured was obviously of high quality, seeing how fragrant and rich in color it was. Everyone else there was also an alchemist. Thus, they could discern the quality of the pill themselves.

“This is too perfect. I’ve never seen an Aksum Pill more flawless than this in my life before.”

“To think he crafted such an impeccable Aksum Pill in only a few short minutes. This is a miracle!”

“If he already possesses this level of alchemical skills at such a young age, he’ll no doubt become a legendary alchemist in the future!”

The crowd all praised Kai’s Aksum Pill. Jubilante, who had fallen to the ground earlier, hastily crawled up and dashed toward the pill, eager to scrutinize it.

Upon laying his eyes on the pill, he grimaced because he knew he had lost. After all, not only was Kai's Aksum Pill flawless, but it even resulted in a Spirit Cloud. Shocked, Cade stared at Kai. "I didn't expect you to be this incredible, Mr. Chance."

He never could've imagined the friend Cloud brought along would be so proficient in alchemy. Even the master alchemist in Yellow Blue City, Jubilante, was no match for Kai.

At that moment, Cade's respect for Kai grew. Kai turned to Jubilante and asked, "Who do you think is the winner in our little competition, Jubilante?"

Staring at Kai, Jubilante spoke with embarrassment and shame. "You are..."

"Since I'm the victor, that means this manor and all the mystical herbs now belong to me, right?" Kai smiled faintly.

Jubilante nodded. "Yes. I'll guide you to where I keep the mystical herbs now. After the handoff is complete, I will leave."

While Jubilante was a prideful man, he was a good sport, considering he was willing to admit defeat.

Because Jubilante had good sportsmanship, Kai changed his mind. "I'm only passing by, so I don't have the time to tend to this manor or the mystical herbs. You can continue to stay here and manage all this for me."

Jubilante was slightly taken aback before he understood Kai's intention. Gratefully, he nodded. "Thank you, Mr. Chance. I'll do my best to protect this place for you."

"Please take me in as your disciple, Mr. Chance!"

"Me, too!"

"I love you, Mr. Chance! I'm willing to do anything for you, including sleeping with you!"

Many alchemists kneeled before Kai, wishing the latter would take them in as disciples. A few shameless female alchemists even attempted to seduce Kai with their alluring figures.

However, Kai ignored them all and asked Jubilante to lead the way to the mystical herbs. Upon acquiring Rooster's Crow, Kai and Cade returned to the Seizon residence.

Since Kai had all the mystical herbs he required, he started producing the pill. Meanwhile, Cade relayed everything he had witnessed to Lawrence without embellishment.

"What? You're not lying to me, are you? Even Jubilante was defeated by Mr. Chance?" Lawrence was shocked.

"It's true, Dad. Mr. Chance's alchemical skills are unparalleled. You should've seen that arrogant Jubilante lowering his head before Mr. Chance!" Excitement flooded Cade's heart when he recalled the scene at Jubilante's manor.

"Unbelievable. To think the friend Cloud brought over here is this talented. It seems your grandfather's illness may be cured after all." Lawrence sighed in relief.

Curious, Cade remarked, "There's no doubt about it! Though I wonder where Cloud befriended such a prodigious alchemist as Mr. Chance."
