

The Mans Decree Chapter 3233

“Cade, go fetch Cloud over. I need to ask him how exactly he became acquainted with an alchemist like Mr. Chance.”

Lawrence was also curious about how Cloud had come to know Kai. Cade nodded and went to find Cloud. Facing Lawrence’s series of questions, Cloud didn’t hide anything and recounted his experiences with Kai in detail.

Lawrence and Cade were astounded after listening to Kai’s various feats. Both of them couldn’t imagine Kai, who seemed to be a mere Body Fusion Realm cultivator, was able to defeat a Tribulator.

Moreover, he even dared to offend Demon Seal Alliance and killed the head of a subbranch of Demon Seal Alliance.

“Cloud, you’re not lying, are you? If that’s the case, Mr. Chance truly is an extraordinary person.” Cade was somewhat skeptical.

After all, everything Kai had done was beyond their comprehension. “Demon Seal Alliance. He actually dared to provoke them?” Lawrence furrowed his brows.

After a moment, Lawrence said to Cloud, “Cloud, you must remember not to mention Mr. Chance’s identity to anyone. If Mr. Chance truly cures your grandpa, I’ll provide you with some resources, and you should leave this place quickly. Also, the journey to Demonica Mountain is long, and you’ll need a Teleportation Array. I can arrange for someone to send you to Crimson Imperial City, where a Teleportation Array can transport you to the southern region.”

Cloud turned to Lawrence in bewilderment and asked, “Uncle Lawrence, is something going to happen to the Seizon family? I can’t shake off the feeling that you and Cade are hiding some matters from me.”

“There’s nothing to worry about. The Seizon family is supreme in Yellow Blue City, so what could possibly happen? Stop overthinking. Let Cade show you around properly.”

Lawrence patted Cloud’s shoulder and told Cade to bring Cloud away.

Meanwhile, after a night of refining, Kai finally finished crafting the pill for Claudius and was about to send it to Lawrence.

However, just as he stepped out the door, he saw Miya and Livya pacing at the entrance.

“Ladies, is there something I can help you with?” Kai inquired upon seeing the two.

Livya looked at Kai and expressed her gratitude, “Mr. Chance, we deliberately came to apologize to you. Also, Miya wants to thank you. We did misunderstand you before, and we hope you won’t hold it against us. It’s all thanks to the whip you provided yesterday that Miya could defeat Genya.”

“Don’t mention it. Cloud and I are friends. It’s not a big deal.” Kai gave a faint smile.

Livya asked, “Mr. Chance, do you have some time, then? We would like to show you around and let you appreciate the beautiful sceneries of Yellow Blue City.”

“I’m planning to meet with your father now. I’ve done refining the pill for your grandpa, and it’s ready to be consumed,” Kai replied.

“In that case, allow us to lead you there!” Livya offered enthusiastically.

Kai nodded and then followed the sisters toward Lawrence’s residence.

On the way, Livya kept up a lively conversation with Kai. On the other hand, the usually more assertive Miya was behaving like a shy girl at that moment, stealing glances at Kai without uttering a word.

Miya’s gaze toward Kai was laced with a special affection. In fact, he could sense it too but decided to feign ignorance. We’re only staying for a short period here in the Seizon residence. In just a few days, we’ll be departing for Demonica Mountain. I have no desire to entangle myself in any romantic complications during these few days. Besides, I don’t lack women. Feenix is always by my side. If I have any needs, she’s fully capable of quelling my desires.

Lawrence’s place was located at the very back of the Seizon residence, right at the edge of Yellow Blue City.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3234

Behind them was a range of mountains. The Seizon family's vast estate was built upon those mountains. The entire Yellow Blue City could also be considered to have been established beside the mountains, with the Seizon residence nestled within them.

Looking at the mountain range not far away, Kai stopped short as he suddenly felt an aura that was simultaneously familiar and strange.

Noticing Kai pausing abruptly and staring blankly at the nearby mountain range, Livya quickly asked, "Mr. Chance, what's wrong?"

"Oh, it's nothing." Kai hastily shook his head.

"Those mountains are the Seizon family's ancestral land. All of our family's ancestors are buried there. Only the men of the Seizon family are allowed to enter; us girls aren't permitted," Livya explained to Kai.

Kai turned to Livya and couldn't help but smile. This girl is too naive. She's even sharing things like that with me! Regardless of the circumstances, I'm still considered an outsider, yet this Livya has no guard up and even talked about the Seizon family's ancestral land.

Soon after, Kai was led into Lawrence's residence. When Lawrence saw Kai's arrival, he quickly got to his feet and greeted the latter.

After hearing about Kai's various glorious deeds the day before, Lawrence had come to respect Kai even more.

"Mr. Chance, why are you looking for me? If you need something from me, you could've sent someone to summon me," Lawrence uttered politely.

"Mr. Seizon, I've done preparing Old Mr. Seizon's pill. He just needs to take it as I've instructed, and I guarantee he'll be able to move in three days and fully recover in ten days," Kai assured confidently.

Taking in Kai's confident demeanor, Lawrence believed him. After all, even Jubilante had conceded to Kai's alchemy skills.

"Mr. Chance, I really can't thank you enough. The Seizon family will never forget your kindness!" Lawrence said gratefully.

“You’re too kind, Mr. Seizon. I’m friends with Cloud, so these are things I should do.” With that, Kai handed the pill he crafted to Lawrence.

After exchanging some pleasantries, Kai turned around, planning to leave. However, when he reached the door, he suddenly halted and turned to ask Lawrence curiously, “Mr. Seizon, on my way here, I noticed some fluctuations of nascence aura in the mountain range not far away. What’s that all about?”

Kai was eager to know why the nascence aura was present on the Seizon family’s ancestral land.

Hearing Kai’s question, Lawrence fell into a daze, momentarily at a loss for a response.

Seeing Lawrence’s reaction, Kai hastily added, “Mr. Seizon, I was just asking casually out of curiosity. You don’t have to divulge anything to me if it’s inconvenient to say.”

Kai fathomed that was the Seizon family’s secret, so even if Lawrence couldn’t tell him, he wouldn’t mind.

“Mr. Chance, not at all!” Lawrence flashed a faint smile, then shifted his attention to Livya and Miya. “You two can go play outside. I want to chat with Mr. Chance.”

Only after sending his two daughters away did Lawrence resume his conversation with Kai. “Mr. Chance, to be frank, that place is the Seizon family’s ancestral land. Our family’s elders all passed away there, so the nascences of our elders remain there.”

Lawrence’s words only served to deepen Kai’s confusion. “Mr. Seizon, nascence power originates from heaven and earth. Following a cultivator’s passing, their nascence space would cease to exist, so the nascence power stored within should return to nature. How could someone’s nascence be left behind after they die?”

“You’re right, Mr. Chance. After a person dies, everything turns into nothingness, and all kinds of power and aura will become one with nature again. However, there’s also another possibility, which is when a cultivator expires in a void world or a separate space formed by an arcane array, the nascence power within them would not dissipate into the heaven and earth but will be stored in the void world, becoming chaotic, masterless nascence power.”

The Mans Decree Chapter 3235

“These nascence powers can be directly absorbed and refined. Thus, they can be thought of as a resource our ancestors left behind for their descendants. However, you’re only a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, Mr. Chance, so how do you know about nascence and can detect nascence aura?” Lawrence was quite curious.

After all, many experts had visited the Seizon residence before, but none of them had ever detected the nascence aura coming from their ancestral land.

Seeing that Lawrence didn’t withhold the truth, Kai decided to reveal his nascence power. “To be honest, I already possess nascence power. That’s why I’m sensitive to nascence aura.”

“What?” Lawrence widened his eyes in disbelief. “Even though you’re only a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, you’ve already grasped the power of nascence? I can hardly believe it! If you don’t mind me asking, how developed is your nascence space, Mr. Chance? What does it look like?”

Kai thought about what to say before answering, “My nascence space is a cosmos filled with stars.”

The instant Kai ended his sentence, Lawrence was utterly stunned. Then, he shook his head. “Don’t jest, Mr. Chance. I can still believe a prodigy like you is able to open their own nascence space and obtain the power of nascence as a Body Fusion Realm cultivator. However, I’ve never heard of a person’s nascence space being the cosmos. It’s impossible.”

In response, Kai smiled. “If you don’t believe me, feel free to insert a thread of your spiritual sense into my nascence space to take a gander.”

Seeing that Kai didn’t appear to be joking, Lawrence replied with skepticism, “Very well, then. I’ll take a look inside.”

Without delay, Lawrence dispatched a thread of spiritual sense from his consciousness field into Kai’s. Following that, Kai brought Lawrence into his nascence space.

As Lawrence gazed upon the cosmic sky and the unlimited stars above him, he was flabbergasted. Though the stars are all greyed out, there is an endless amount of them. To think a nascence space without horizons exists. Heaven knows how many types of nascence Kai can grasp in this space and how much nascence power he can store!

“This is truly terrifying...” Still stunned, Lawrence suddenly pointed at the three blinking stars above him. “I see three bright believe a prodigy like you is able to open their own nascence space and obtain the power of nascence as a Body Fusion Realm cultivator. However, I’ve never heard of a person’s nascence space being the cosmos. It’s impossible.”

In response, Kai smiled. “If you don’t believe me, feel free to insert a thread of your spiritual sense into my nascence space to take a gander.”

Seeing that Kai didn’t appear to be joking, Lawrence replied with skepticism, “Very well, then. I’ll take a look inside.”

Without delay, Lawrence dispatched a thread of spiritual sense from his consciousness field into Kai’s. Following that, Kai brought Lawrence into his nascence space.

As Lawrence gazed upon the cosmic sky and the unlimited stars above him, he was flabbergasted. Though the stars are all greyed out, there is an endless amount of them. To think a nascence space without horizons exists. Heaven knows how many types of nascence Kai can grasp in this space and how much nascence power he can store!

“This is truly terrifying...” Still stunned, Lawrence suddenly pointed at the three blinking stars above him. “I see three bright at least ten times more than other cultivators of my level. If everyone in the Ethereal Realm is akin to me, then all resources in the realm would’ve long been exhausted.

“It’s not until I met you, Mr. Chance, that I truly understand the saying, ‘There is always a bigger fish.’” Lawrence sighed.