

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree

Chapter 3276 Recognize Mistake

“Uncle Enrique, don’t slander others! Jadiel died from self-destruction. You can ask your children. They witnessed it, too!” Miya said to Enrique.

“There’s no need to ask. He was murdered!” Enrique only wanted to look for an excuse at that moment. The truth behind what actually happened wasn’t at all important to him.

“Dad, stop being unreasonable. Mr. Jadiel really did self-destruct!” Genya bellowed.

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Enrique instantly glared at Genya.

“Dad, Mr. Jadiel did self-destruct. His death has nothing to do with others. Stop making baseless accusations.” Yorath stepped forward and dragged Enrique aside with all his might. If they didn’t stop Enrique, their lineage would truly be doomed.

“What’s gotten into the two of you today?” Enrique was caught in utter disbelief, unable to comprehend why his children were no longer taking his side all of a sudden.

“Dad, stop being obstinate. Old Mr. Ozrell has spoken and asked you to join him in the ancestral land. He’s very well-informed of everything that’s been happening outside,” Yorath said anxiously.

“Nonsense! Old Mr. Ozrell has been confined to the great hall within the ancestral land for many years, so how could he possibly know? You must be lying to me.” Enrique refused to believe it. How could Old Mr. Ozrell possibly learn of the circumstances outside?

As soon as Enrique finished his sentence, an ancient voice rang out, seemingly echoing from the heavens. “Unfilial descendant, how dare you keep me waiting!”

Ozrell’s voice came from the hall within the ancestral land. Hearing that, the Seizon family members were stunned. Lawrence immediately knelt down.

At that sight, the other members of the Seizon family quickly followed suit. That was because it was the first time they had heard Ozrell's voice outside the ancestral land in so many years. Enrique widened his eyes, terror and incredulity filling his gaze.

He had never imagined his scheme would alarm Ozrell. Yorath, standing at one side, reminded Enrique, "Dad, hurry up and enter the ancestral land. If Old Mr. Ozrell gets angry, our lineage will be done for!"

Enrique slowly got to his feet in a daze and walked toward the ancestral land.

Seeing that, Gideon hastily shouted, "Mr. Enrique!"

He had gone to the Seizon residence for Enrique's support. Now that the latter was abandoning their rebellion, Gideon's efforts would be in vain. Not to mention, even with the party he led, they still didn't stand a chance against the Seizon family.

As if he hadn't heard a thing, Enrique continued moving forward and eventually disappeared into the ancestral land. No one knew what punishment awaited him there.

Despite the reluctance surging within Yorath and Genya as they watched their father enter the ancestral land, they could do nothing. After all, they had followed him in causing harm to the Seizon family, conspiring with outsiders to seize the position of the family head.

After Enrique stepped into the ancestral land, Yorath, Genya, and the rest of their disciples approached Lawrence. Then, Yorath and Genya knelt before Lawrence.

"Uncle Lawrence, we were led astray and did many things that harmed the Seizon family. We beg for your forgiveness." The two groveled at Lawrence's feet, pleading with him earnestly.

At that moment, they were sincerely owning up to their mistakes and no longer intending to rebel. Now that even Ozrell had intervened, they dared not harbor any schemes.

Besides, since Miya had unlocked the nascence space and comprehended the nascence of the Seizon family's elder, Enrique's lineage had even less chance of snatching the position of the family head.

“Get up. It’s fine as long as you recognize your mistakes and are willing to turn over a new leaf.” Lawrence didn’t make things difficult for Yorath and Genya.

After all, it wasn’t Lawrence’s wish to see infighting within the Seizon family.

Gideon was beside himself with fury upon witnessing that scene. I’ve led a party here from afar, only to gain nothing and even lose a son!

Chapter 3277 Breeding

“Mr. Gideon, since your son died because he self-destructed, I don’t think there’s a need for you to linger here any longer, right?” Lawrence asked Gideon. Gideon was visibly discontented, yet he couldn’t lash out.

After all, they were in the Seizon family’s territory. If a fight truly broke out, he reckoned none of them from Behemoth Palace could leave unscathed.

“Let’s go!” Gideon gritted his teeth, waved his hand, and led his subordinates away.

“Dad, why did you let him go? You should’ve taught them a lesson!” Livya piped up in displeasure after seeing her father allow the people from Behemoth Palace to leave.

“It’s better to resolve enmity rather than prolong it. Provoking them would bring us no good. This time, the Seizon family has been sufficiently blessed to have avoided internal strife. Hurry up and tell me what exactly happened to all of you in the ancestral land. How did Miya suddenly unlock her nascence space and comprehend nascence?” Lawrence was deeply intrigued by how Miya achieved that.

“Dad, let’s talk about it back home.”

Livya knew that revealing Miya’s matters in front of so many people would embarrass the latter, so she planned to discuss it later at home.

“All right. Let’s go back!” Lawrence nodded. When they returned to their residence, Livya recounted everything to Lawrence.

Upon learning Miya’s talent and bloodline had turned extraordinary after she copulated with Kai, Lawrence was utterly astonished.

Little did he expect Kai to possess Supreme Bloodline, which meant any woman who fornicated with him could have their talents and bloodlines altered. This is simply too incredible!

At that moment, even the look Lawrence regarded Kai with seemed different, making Kai quite uncomfortable.

“Mr. Seizon, I’m tired, so I’ll go rest now.” Kai quickly got up, wanting to take his leave.

“Mr. Chance, please wait. I have something to discuss with you!” Lawrence hurriedly stopped Kai, then gestured for everyone else to clear out.

Once everyone had left, Lawrence shifted his gleaming eyes onto Kai, looking ecstatic as if he had found a treasure.

Under Lawrence’s intense and watchful gaze, Kai felt goosebumps all over his body. Don’t tell me after Lawrence hears that anyone who sleeps with me can have their talent and bloodline augmented, so he’s thinking...

The mere thought made Kai nauseous. He suppressed his urge to throw up and said, “Mr. Seizon, why don’t you just speak your mind?”

“Mr. Chance, I-I have a somewhat presumptuous request, so I’m a little embarrassed to say it...” Lawrence dithered.

Seeing that, Kai broke out in a cold sweat and swiftly responded, “In that case, I shall take my leave now.”

Then, Kai started walking away but was stopped by Lawrence.

“Mr. Chance, as they say, a hero deserves a beautiful woman. As you can see, there are quite a few ladies in the Seizon family. I hope you can select a few from among them and bed them. Naturally, you can choose the ones with figures and appearances that fit your preference. Moreover, I assure you they are all virgins. Mr. Chance, please stay in the Seizon residence for a little longer so that I can host you properly as well,” Lawrence uttered.

Hearing that, Kai was stunned. Any other man might’ve jumped for joy upon receiving such a request, but Kai wore a long face. He’s trying to keep me here as a breeding pig.

Still, noticing the fervent look in Lawrence's gaze, Kai didn't dare to refuse outright and could only flash an awkward smile. "Mr. Seizon, can I rest first and take some time to consider?"

"Of course. You should rest well to replenish your energy, Mr. Chance," Lawrence replied delightfully, thinking his offer might've piqued Kai's interest, judging by the latter's response.

After exiting Lawrence's residence, Kai realized his body was drenched in sweat. It's seriously time for me to leave. When night falls, I'll sneak off. If I really become his breeding pig, I'll eventually exhaust myself regardless of my vigor!

Chapter 3278 I Am Not That Kind Of Person

Cloud and Feenix went up to Kai when he returned. "Mr. Chance, what did Uncle Lawrence talk to you about? You guys looked so secretive," Cloud asked curiously.

"Master, I heard you have a new addition to your harem, and she's Cloud's sister. Why don't you just take both sisters in? Doesn't a threesome with twin sisters sound awesome?" Feenix joked.

Kai shot a glare at Feenix, then answered resignedly, "Pack up your things. We'll be leaving here tonight."

"What happened, Mr. Chance?"

Cloud was stunned at the sudden order and assumed Lawrence had done something untoward to Kai.

"Why are we in a hurry to leave tonight, Master?" Feenix questioned with the same confusion.

Noticing their puzzlement, Kai had no choice but to repeat Lawrence's words. The two couldn't stop laughing after that.

"Why are you sighing over such good news, Master? You'll get to choose any woman you want throughout the entire Seizon family. Just one thing, though. Mr. Lawrence treats you like a studhorse to improve the Seizon family genes," Feenix laughed.

On the other hand, Cloud was embarrassed. "How can Uncle Lawrence have such thoughts? This is too embarrassing."

"Well, power dominates over everything here in Ethereal Realm. Many are willing to do whatever they can just to strengthen their abilities. They're even willing to sleep with others for that reason," Feenix said casually.

If sleeping with another person can improve one's bloodline, tons of women in the Ethereal Realm will throw themselves at Kai.

"All right, make the necessary preparation, you two. We'll be leaving in secret tonight. Cloud, if you want to stay with the Seizon family, it's fine. You don't have to accompany me to Demonica Mountain."

Kai knew Cloud had been through a lot to find his family, and it might be unfair to him to leave after just a few days of reunion.

"I'll follow you, Mr. Chance. I already said I would follow you everywhere you go. I'll be wherever you are," Cloud announced with determination.

"Great! You guys go and pack your stuff. We'll be leaving discreetly tonight, so don't alert anyone else."

Kai sent Feenix and Cloud to pack their things. The sky began to darken, and Kai lay on the bed, waiting for the night to deepen before he left.

Right when he was bored, someone lightly opened the door to his room. Thinking it was Feenix, Kai didn't pay any heed to the intruder.

Soon, two figures stopped before Kai's bed. Despite the pitch blackness, Kai could still discern the two were Miya and Livya.

Both of them were naked, and Livya even looked shy. They figured Kai had fallen asleep but didn't know he was scrutinizing their every move.

"Miya, I'm scared," Livya whispered.

"What are you scared of? Don't you know how many women are eager to sleep with Kai? I heard all the women in the Seizon family are open for his choosing tomorrow. There will be so many women by then, and you won't even stand a chance. Thus, enjoy tonight because you won't have this opportunity tomorrow," Miya enticed Livya.

Livya nodded and finally mustered up her courage to climb into Kai's bed discreetly. Livya's body trembled slightly. After all, it was a first for her to be in such close proximity to a man and be naked at that.

However, right when Livya was about to pounce on Kai, he suddenly sat up, startling her.

"I hope you can respect me before deciding on your own. What kind of man do you take me as?" Kai scolded sternly.

Miya was taken aback. She didn't expect Kai to reject a woman sent to his bed. Meanwhile, Livya was flushed from humiliation and hurriedly hid behind Miya.

"Miya, let's go." Livya tugged on Miya's arm to leave.

Chapter 3279 Exchange

However, Miya didn't budge. Instead, she asked, "Kai, feelings can be developed. We didn't feel anything for each other too, but you still slept with me in the end-"

"I did that to enter the Seizon family's ancestral land," Kai stated with a deadpan expression. Kai knew he was about to leave the Seizon residence and might never return, so he didn't want Miya to fall for him.

He wanted to hurt her so that she wouldn't long for him. As expected, Kai's cruel words were like a wet blanket to Miya. Her body shook as she stuttered, "You..."

She was at a loss for words because she was the one who initiated, while Kai only accepted her advances passively.

"Let's go, Miya. This is too embarrassing."

Livya yanked at Miya to leave. She didn't expect that outcome. Two beautiful twins stood naked before Kai, yet he was completely indifferent.

Maybe Kai was unlike any other man or hated being treated as a studhorse. With a wave of his hand, a bed sheet covered Miya's and Livya's bodies.

The two women were stunned, not knowing his intention. Yet, Kai's spiritual sense caught something, and he said, "Come out."

Miya and Livya looked around but didn't see anyone. They had no idea who Kai was talking to. With a slight fluctuation in the void, an elderly soon appeared in his room out of the blue. The elderly wasn't a random person, he was Ozrell of the Seizon family.

Miya and Livya immediately dropped to their knees and bowed their heads at his appearance. Their eyes were filled with confusion.

Didn't they say Old Mr. Ozrell never takes a step out of the ancestral land? But he's here!

"Two of you leave first. I have something to say to this young man."

Ozrell waved his hand dismissively. Miya and Livya obediently left. After they were gone from the room, Ozrell started, "You can actually stay composed with two beauties in front of you."

"It's true that I'm a man, but I'm not a tool for the Seizon family to improve your bloodline."

Kai's expression darkened.

"Haha! I see you have a personality, but I can make a deal with you. I can pass my lifelong knowledge to you if you sleep with them tonight. You're considered half of the Seizon family after all," Ozrell negotiated.

Kai's interest was piqued by his offer. "What's your specialty?"

"I can demonstrate to you. If you're interested, then let's strike up a deal."

Ozrell suddenly held up a finger, and a sliver of odd aura was swirling atop it. Next, Ozrell pointed at the table, and the table broke in an instant.

Breaking a table with an aura wasn't anything special. With just a shake of his body, Kai could destroy every piece of furniture in the room, much less a finger. He couldn't understand what kind of specialty was it.

"That's it?" Kai asked with a look of disdain.

Ozrell smiled faintly. "Look closely."

Kai didn't understand what he was asking him to look, so he asked, "What are you asking me to see?"

"The destroyed table, of course," Ozrell answered.

Kai turned to look at the destroyed table and was surprised to learn that the pieces had kept the exact shape when it broke. It didn't fall apart as if frozen.

Kai's eyes widened at the discovery. Disbelief crossed his face as if he had been thunderstruck. However, something more unbelievable happened next.

The destroyed table pieced itself together again and appeared perfect the way it originally was. He hurriedly rubbed his eyes, doubting his sight.

Chapter 3280 His Ultimate Skill

"Did you catch that?" Ozrell asked with a faint smile.

"Catch what? It seems like you didn't do anything. Did you cast some kind of illusion spell on me just now?"

Kai noticed that nothing in the room had changed. Even the table that was shattered a moment ago was now intact in its original place.

It seemed like Ozrell's spell had not destroyed anything and was using an illusion spell to show Kai a different sight.

"An illusion spell?" Ozrell scoffed. "Since you don't get it, I won't insist. Maybe my ultimate skill isn't the right fit for you."

With that, Ozrell began walking away. Kai furrowed his brow; he had illusion nascence himself. Even though illusion spells were profound and unpredictable-if Ozrell had cast an illusion spell in front of them, he should have been aware of it.

But earlier, he clearly did not sense the presence of an illusion spell, and what he saw had been real. But how did the broken table become whole again?

Just as Ozrell was about to leave the room, Kai widened his eyes and cried out, "I get it now! This is... This is a time spell! You didn't use an illusion spell; you used a time spell. You can freeze time, even rewind it, so the broken table can become whole again."

Ozrell smiled when he heard Kai's words. "You have potential. Do you think we can exchange what we have?"

"Of course, of course!"

Kai nodded fervently. His feelings mattered not. Even if he were to sleep with all the women in the Seizon family, he would do it, let alone the sisters, Miya and Livya.

This was a time spell. If he could learn it, he would be able to reverse time and bring the dead back to life. He would become a miracle worker. Even if it meant becoming a sperm bank for a few days, he was more than happy to oblige with Ozrell's request.

Ozrell smiled, then left.

Both Miya and Livya were still lingering outside, waiting for him.

"Head inside and do everything to drain him. This is our family's chance and yours as well. I'm afraid we won't get a chance like this anymore, and you won't come across him in the future," Ozrell muttered.

Upon hearing this, Miya and Livya remained silent but obediently walked in. This time, Kai did not resist at all; instead, he was unusually proactive.

Soon, sounds of intimate moments echoed from the room. It was a threesome and a truly exhilarating experience for Kai. After a while, Miya and Livya, exhausted, emerged draped in bedsheets. Both staggered back to their respective rooms.

"Sir, I've kept my promise. Shouldn't you teach me your ultimate skill?" Kai shouted toward the outside. With a slight tremor in the void, Ozrell appeared. Kai, looking at Ozrell in the room, could not help but joke, "Sir, you weren't peeking the whole time, were you?"

"Nonsense! I am the Seizon family's ancestor. How could I possibly watch the Seizon women do such things?" Ozrell replied, irked.

"Sir, calm down. I was just joking. No need to get angry," Kai hastily apologized. If Ozrell got angry and refused to pass on the ultimate skill, Kai would be suffering a huge loss.

“This technique is the Immortal’s Pointer. It can only be unleashed after attaining time nascence. You should know that both time nascence and space nascence involve true immortal techniques, making them quite challenging to learn. Also, this Immortal’s Pointer can’t casually alter the flow of time or reverse it. At my current level, I can only use it on lifeless objects and restore them.

Resurrecting the dead is something beyond my capabilities,” explained Ozrell.
