

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3411

Catina looked at Kai, smiling faintly. “You care so much about that little demoness. Do you perhaps fancy her?”

“No!” Kai shook his head.

“Since you’re the one who found it, I can give the little demoness a few. However, you must exchange something for these.”

“Exchange what?” Kai was unsure what Catina wanted.

“What do you think?” Tenderly, Catina caressed his cheek. Immediately, Kai understood her intentions and said resignedly, “One fruit for one more time in bed with me, I see. Very well. Give two to Ms. Lothian first. I commit to two more such moments with you in the future.”

Catina chuckled. “I see you’ve gotten smarter now. I’ll give her two, then.”

As she spoke, she tossed two fruits to Rosetta. Holding the two spiritual fruits, Rosetta was overjoyed, but she wasn’t aware Kai had exchanged those two fruits with his body.

“We should leave immediately. The arcane array is broken, and the light earlier has no doubt caught someone’s attention,” said Catina.

However, Kai didn’t leave at once. He gently touched the seemingly withered tree, absorbing the celestial energy within through its trunk.

Despite the tree’s apparent condition, the celestial energy within it remained thick.

“What are you standing there for? Let’s go!” exclaimed Catina when she saw Kai hugging the tree instead of moving.

“There is celestial energy within the tree. I want to absorb some of it.”

“There are many magical items in the Celestial Battlefield, yet you’re clinging onto this tiny amount of celestial energy. You’re useless, you know that?” Catina gazed at Kai helplessly.

“You can’t expect a mule to work without letting it rest. How can you ask me to keep on moving if I don’t absorb some celestial energy? I’m exhausted right now.” Kai was displeased.

Rolling her eyes, Catina uttered, “Fine. Absorb the celestial energy to your heart’s content. We’ll camp here today.”

Following that, she swiped her finger across the tree, creating a hole. They could rest well while absorbing the celestial energy within the tree. Catina entered the hole and summoned Kai in.

On the side, Rosetta was savoring the spiritual fruits. It would be great if I could open a nascence space and attain a nascence power. She was so focused on her task that she didn't hear the moans coming from within the tree hole.

The moans lasted for two hours before fading away. After that, Kai used Focus Technique and sucked the celestial energy within the tree as fast as he could.

Soon, the night went by.

That night, Kai had sex with Catina three times. If not for the celestial energy to restore his stamina, he might've struggled to keep up. Meanwhile, Catina grew more charming and the bloodline in her body was starting to become powerful.

Suddenly, Rosetta let out scream. Upon hearing that, Kai rushed out and saw Rosetta shouting with unbridled excitement.

Confused, Kai asked, "What's with you, Ms. Lothian?"

"Mr. Chance, I've successfully opened a nascence space! I've grasped nascence!"

"Really? What kind of nascence did you obtain?" Kai was happy for Rosetta, too.

He didn't expect Rosetta to need only two spiritual fruits to open a nascence space and acquire a nascence power.

"I think I've grasped blood nascence." As Rosetta spoke, she made a gentle tap on the void. Instantaneously, the void responded with a ripple, which then radiated outward, permeating the surroundings.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3412

When the ripples passed through Kai's body, he suddenly shuddered.

Following that, a dragon roar was heard from an unknown source. Kai could only feel the blood in his body begin to boil.

"W-What's going on?" Kai was astonished.

"This is the blood nascence I've just acquired, Mr. Chance. I haven't gotten a handle on it yet, but I detected your Draconian bloodline."

As Rosetta spoke, Catina walked over.

Rosetta once again made contact with the void, setting off a series of ripples. When the ripples passed through Catina's body, she was stunned for a moment. Above her head materialized the image of a fox demon.

However, the image of the fox demon wasn't very clear. All Rosetta could make out was a silhouette.

"Hmm? Why does her bloodline share similarities with Mr. Chance's?" Rosetta was shocked. Upon hearing that, Kai panicked and changed the topic. "Can your blood nascence only be used to detect other people's bloodline, Ms. Lothian?"

"I don't know. This is its only function I'm aware for the moment," said Rosetta, feeling awkward. As she had only grasped the blood nascence, she hadn't mastered it, so she didn't yet understand the full extent of its power.

Catina piped up, "Observing the bloodline of others isn't the sole capability of the blood nascence. It possesses the potential to enhance them as well. Mastery over the blood nascence could empower you to elevate one's bloodline to its utmost level. Everyone has a bloodline, regardless of their race. Of course, there are strong and weak bloodlines. While Kai possesses a Draconian bloodline, not every Draconian's bloodline is as strong as his. Those who have a blood nascence can elevate the people with weaker bloodlines to greater heights. With the power of the blood nascence, one need not resort to bloodline fusion to grow mightier. If I had known this little demoness could obtain the power of blood nascence, I wouldn't have allowed you to take advantage of me."

Kai put on an awkward look and didn't retort her. I'm clearly the victim here, yet she's acting as though she's the one who's the victim.

Upon hearing Catina's words, Rosetta was startled. She turned and looked at Kai in disbelief. At that moment, she finally realized why Catina's bloodline was so similar to Kai's.

As a result of the bloodline fusion, a portion of Kai's bloodline had successfully integrated itself into Catina's, thereby fortifying her own bloodline.

Sensing Rosetta's gaze, Kai awkwardly explained, "Don't misunderstand, Ms. Lothian. It's not what you think it-"

"You don't have to explain, Mr. Chance. Everyone has their own choices, and I don't think you made a bad decision." Rosetta smiled.

"All right, let's go," Catina said.

Right then, she sensed a pretty large group of people approaching them rapidly. "I sense people coming. You two head out first. I'll stay and take a look."

After all, in her eyes, Kai and Rosetta were far too weak to battle against the incomers.

If the incoming party were indeed foes, not only would the two be useless, but Catina would also have to split her attention to defend them.

Without delay, Catina leaped forward. At this moment, just a few miles away from Kai and the others, five or six people were running in their direction.

Those people were covered in wounds, and they were exhausted. If Kai saw them, he would be shocked because that group of people included Misho and Hamish.

“I doubt we can escape like this, Mr. Chevalier. You guys proceed. I’ll stay and stall them. You must find Mr. Chance and rescue my granddaughter!” said Misho to Hamish.

“Hold on a little longer, Old Mr. Giuvali, I can sense Master is ahead. Things will be fine once we find him,” Feenix reassured.

“Okay!” Misho nodded and began sprinting again.

Behind them were a dozen similarly dressed cultivators chasing after them.

“Stop! Who are you people?”

Suddenly, Catina appeared before Misho’s group, stopping them in their tracks.

When they saw Catina blocking their path, they ceased their steps. All of them grimaced upon realizing Catina was exuding an aura only a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator could possess.

Misho was the most powerful among them, and he was only a Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator. Additionally, he was injured. Even if his group worked together, it was unlikely they could defeat Catina.

Hamish stepped forward and asked politely, “May I know why you’re stopping us?”

Catina swept her gaze past the group and realized they were all weak and wounded. In other words, they wouldn’t pose a threat to her, and she relaxed.

“Ahead is my territory. None of you are allowed to go forward.”

“Enemies are pursuing us, and we must continue our journey to survive. No matter what’s in your territory, we don’t desire it or wish to snatch it away from you,” said Hamish humbly.

“No. Leave here at once or face the consequences.” Catina didn’t believe him.

At that moment, Hamish felt somewhat awkward. Cloud was enraged by her words. “How can you be so bossy? We’re-”

Before he could finish his sentence, Catina waved her hand, sending him flying away. His life wasn't in danger because she didn't wish to kill anyone. When Catina attacked, Feenix widened her eyes in surprise. "Fox Queen?"

Catina turned to Feenix in slight confusion, frowning. "Who are you? Why do you know me?"

"It's me, Feenix!" As Feenix spoke, flames engulfed her body, and she let out a phoenix cry.

Catina looked at Feenix in disbelief and astonishment. "Feenix? How... did you end up like this?"

"It's a long story." Feenix sighed. "I didn't expect your strength to rise so quickly after so many years. I remember you were the weakest among the kings and archons way back when."

"It's all thanks to you. If you hadn't defended me back then and granted me many resources, perhaps I'd still be struggling and subjected to humiliation." A wave of solemnity washed over Catina's face as she journeyed back in memory.

Feenix looked even more despondent when she heard that. "In the past, you kings and archons were nothing before me, but now you can kill me in the blink of an eye."

The crowd breathed a sigh of relief upon learning that Feenix knew Catina. After all, they wouldn't have been able to get through a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, not to mention they were still being chased after.

At that moment, the enemies had caught up with Hanish's group. Among them was a bald man with tattoos on his left arm. He sneered, "There's nowhere for you to run now. Why not give up now?"

Misho and the others all grimaced as they stared at their foes.

Feenix also frowned grimly.

"What's going on?" asked Catina.

"These guys are from Bulrush Sect. When we discovered a celestial ore mine earlier, we were targeted by them. Due to their superior numbers and strength, they killed a few of us and pursued us here," Feenix answered.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3413

"Hold on a little longer, Old Mr. Giuvali, I can sense Master is ahead. Things will be fine once we find him," Feenix reassured.

“Okay!” Misho nodded and began sprinting again.

Behind them were a dozen similarly dressed cultivators chasing after them.

“Stop! Who are you people?”

Suddenly, Catina appeared before Misho’s group, stopping them in their tracks.

When they saw Catina blocking their path, they ceased their steps. All of them grimaced upon realizing Catina was exuding an aura only a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator could possess.

Misho was the most powerful among them, and he was only a Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator. Additionally, he was injured. Even if his group worked together, it was unlikely they could defeat Catina.

Hamish stepped forward and asked politely, “May I know why you’re stopping us?”

Catina swept her gaze past the group and realized they were all weak and wounded. In other words, they wouldn’t pose a threat to her, and she relaxed.

“Ahead is my territory. None of you are allowed to go forward.”

“Enemies are pursuing us, and we must continue our journey to survive. No matter what’s in your territory, we don’t desire it or wish to snatch it away from you,” said Hamish humbly.

“No. Leave here at once or face the consequences.” Catina didn’t believe him.

At that moment, Hamish felt somewhat awkward. Cloud was enraged by her words. “How can you be so bossy? We’re-”

Before he could finish his sentence, Catina waved her hand, sending him flying away. His life wasn’t in danger because she didn’t wish to kill anyone. When Catina attacked, Feenix widened her eyes in surprise. “Fox Queen?”

Catina turned to Feenix in slight confusion, frowning. “Who are you? Why do you know me?”

“It’s me, Feenix!” As Feenix spoke, flames engulfed her body, and she let out a phoenix cry.

Catina looked at Feenix in disbelief and astonishment. “Feenix? How... did you end up like this?”

“It’s a long story.” Feenix sighed. “I didn’t expect your strength to rise so quickly after so many years. I remember you were the weakest among the kings and archons way back when.”

“It’s all thanks to you. If you hadn’t defended me back then and granted me many resources, perhaps I’d still be struggling and subjected to humiliation.” A wave of solemnity washed over Catina’s face as she journeyed back in memory.

Feenix looked even more despondent when she heard that. “In the past, you kings and archons were nothing before me, but now you can kill me in the blink of an eye.”

The crowd breathed a sigh of relief upon learning that Feenix knew Catina. After all, they wouldn’t have been able to get through a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, not to mention they were still being chased after.

At that moment, the enemies had caught up with Hanish’s group. Among them was a bald man with tattoos on his left arm. He sneered, “There’s nowhere for you to run now. Why not give up now?”

Misho and the others all grimaced as they stared at their foes.

Feenix also frowned grimly.

“What’s going on?” asked Catina.

“These guys are from Bulrush Sect. When we discovered a celestial ore mine earlier, we were targeted by them. Due to their superior numbers and strength, they killed a few of us and pursued us here,” Feenix answered.

“Bulrush Sect?” Catina was momentarily stunned. “Are you talking about that group of perverts from the sect that absorbs negative energy to replenish positive energy?”

“Yes! Them!” Feenix nodded.

“Let me deal with these people,” Catina uttered and stepped forward.

The bald man couldn’t help chuckling when he saw that. “Another girl? What a pleasant surprise for our men! The two girls we caught just now aren’t enough for everyone.”

Misho and Hamish trembled when they heard those words.

Those two girls Bulrush Sect had caught were none other than Izolda and Kiara. Those men from Bulrush Sect were known for taking advantage of female cultivators and draining them. Catina narrowed her eyes when she heard that bald man. “You’re f*cking dead!”

Quickly, she unleashed her Seventh Level Tribulator aura that was filled with the stench of blood. The members of Bulrush Sect were stunned when they sensed Catina’s aura.

The bald man immediately apologized to Catina, “We didn’t know it was you, Fox Queen. We’re sorry. Please don’t hold it against us. Bulrush Sect has never crossed the beast race. Please stay out of this, Fox Queen.”

“What if I don’t want to stay out of it?” Catina retorted.

The bald man frowned and answered, “If you insist, then don’t blame us for being ruthless. Although you’re a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, we outnumber you. It’s still uncertain who’s going to win or who’s going to lose.”

With that, the bald man unleashed his Sixth Level Tribulator aura.

The rest of the Bulrush Sect members also readied themselves for battle, and they were rather powerful individuals.

Although the members of Bulrush Sect weren’t Demonic Cultivators, they cultivated through twisted and evil ways. They could strengthen themselves faster than the regular cultivators.

Catina’s expression grew tense. I’m all alone, and I can’t defeat all the members of Bulrush Sect. I can’t ask Feenix and the rest to help me. They’re weak and injured!

In an instant, she found herself caught between a rock and a hard place.

“Fox Queen, I’m giving you another chance to walk away,” the bald man said coldly.

“What if she wants to stay?” Right then, a voice rang out from nearby. Misho, Feenix, and the others were overjoyed when they heard that voice, and they quickly looked over.

They saw Kai and Rosetta walking toward them.

“Mr. Chance!” Misho and Hamish dashed toward him and dropped to their knees.

“Old Mr. Giuvali, Mr. Chevalier, what are you guys doing?” Kai quickly helped them up.

“Mr. Chance, please rescue Izolda and Kiara! Bulrush Sect has taken them. If no one saves them, they’re doomed!” Misho and Hamish pleaded.

“What?” Kai’s gaze turned icy. He glanced at the others and noticed they were all injured. Cloud stepped forward and shouted emotionally. “Mr. Chance!”

Feenix’s eyes were brimmed with tears. “Master!”

“What’s going on here? Where are the others?” Kai asked Feenix.

Feenix told Kai what had happened, and immediately after, Kai unleashed a surge of murderous intent.

Catina was puzzled when she found out that those people knew Kai. How is Kai Feenix's master? Kai is merely a First Level Tribulator cultivator. Everyone is stronger than him! One of them is even a Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator! Yet, everyone is treating Kai with respect! This doesn't make sense!

"Feenix, why did you call him your master? What's going on?" Catina asked Feenix.

"Well, he's my master! Do you know my master too?" Feenix asked.

Catina cast Kai a glance and nodded. "Well, yes..."

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3414

"Bulrush Sect?" Catina was momentarily stunned. "Are you talking about that group of perverts from the sect that absorbs negative energy to replenish positive energy?"

"Yes! Them!" Feenix nodded.

"Let me deal with these people," Catina uttered and stepped forward.

The bald man couldn't help chuckling when he saw that. "Another girl? What a pleasant surprise for our men! The two girls we caught just now aren't enough for everyone."

Misho and Hamish trembled when they heard those words.

Those two girls Bulrush Sect had caught were none other than Izolda and Kiara. Those men from Bulrush Sect were known for taking advantage of female cultivators and draining them. Catina narrowed her eyes when she heard that bald man. "You're f*cking dead!"

Quickly, she unleashed her Seventh Level Tribulator aura that was filled with the stench of blood. The members of Bulrush Sect were stunned when they sensed Catina's aura.

The bald man immediately apologized to Catina, "We didn't know it was you, Fox Queen. We're sorry. Please don't hold it against us. Bulrush Sect has never crossed the beast race. Please stay out of this, Fox Queen."

"What if I don't want to stay out of it?" Catina retorted.

The bald man frowned and answered, "If you insist, then don't blame us for being ruthless. Although you're a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, we outnumber you. It's still uncertain who's going to win or who's going to lose."

With that, the bald man unleashed his Sixth Level Tribulator aura.

The rest of the Bulrush Sect members also readied themselves for battle, and they were rather powerful individuals.

Although the members of Bulrush Sect weren't Demonic Cultivators, they cultivated through twisted and evil ways. They could strengthen themselves faster than the regular cultivators.

Catina's expression grew tense. I'm all alone, and I can't defeat all the members of Bulrush Sect. I can't ask Feenix and the rest to help me. They're weak and injured!

In an instant, she found herself caught between a rock and a hard place.

"Fox Queen, I'm giving you another chance to walk away," the bald man said coldly.

"What if she wants to stay?" Right then, a voice rang out from nearby. Misho, Feenix, and the others were overjoyed when they heard that voice, and they quickly looked over.

They saw Kai and Rosetta walking toward them.

"Mr. Chance!" Misho and Hamish dashed toward him and dropped to their knees.

"Old Mr. Giuvali, Mr. Chevalier, what are you guys doing?" Kai quickly helped them up.

"Mr. Chance, please rescue Izolda and Kiara! Bulrush Sect has taken them. If no one saves them, they're doomed!" Misho and Hamish pleaded.

"What?" Kai's gaze turned icy. He glanced at the others and noticed they were all injured. Cloud stepped forward and shouted emotionally. "Mr. Chance!"

Feenix's eyes were brimmed with tears. "Master!"

"What's going on here? Where are the others?" Kai asked Feenix.

Feenix told Kai what had happened, and immediately after, Kai unleashed a surge of murderous intent.

Catina was puzzled when she found out that those people knew Kai. How is Kai Feenix's master? Kai is merely a First Level Tribulator cultivator. Everyone is stronger than him! One of them is even a Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator! Yet, everyone is treating Kai with respect! This doesn't make sense!

"Feenix, why did you call him your master? What's going on?" Catina asked Feenix.

"Well, he's my master! Do you know my master too?" Feenix asked.

Catina cast Kai a glance and nodded. "Well, yes..."

Kai glanced at the members of Bulrush Sect before saying to Catina, "Help me kill all these people."

"I don't think I can do it on my own," Catina answered truthfully.

"Well, you're not on your own. You have me," Kai said with a cold expression. Catina looked at Kai's expression and realized it was an expression she had never seen on his face.

"You?" Catina sized Kai up. "What can you do?"

Instead of replying, Kai slowly took out his Dragonslayer Sword. At the same time, his Golem Body shone brightly and covered his entire body.

Although Kai was a First Level Tribulator cultivator, the aura he exuded was utterly terrifying. Catina widened her eyes in shock and stared at Kai.

Kai pointed his sword at the members of Bulrush Sect and said, "You've hurt the people around me. You all deserve to die!"

The bald man was also startled by Kai's aura.

However, he quickly came to his senses and sneered, "Brat, who are you trying to fool? You're nothing but a First Level Tribulator cultivator. How dare you speak so haughtily?"

"Did I?" Kai narrowed his eyes which were filled with murderous intent. Those men had harmed Cloud, Feenix, and the others. Kai would not show them mercy.

The Power of Dragons was ceaselessly channeled into the Dragonslayer Sword, from which emanated beams of resplendent golden light.

Immediately after, Kai swung his sword outward. As soon as he did that, a dragon roar rang out, and as a ray of light shot into the sky, a golden dragon appeared and roared ferociously.

The members of Bulrush Sect were flabbergasted when they saw the golden dragon. The golden dragon descended from the sky and turned into countless rays of light. Seeing that, the bald man threw out a fiery punch to form a shield and told his associates to retreat. "Hide!"

Unfortunately for them, it was too late.

None of them had taken Kai, a First Level Tribulator cultivator, seriously.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The countless rays of light shot out and turned three Third Level Tribulator disciples from Bulrush Sect into a mass of gore.

Moreover, a few Fourth Level Tribulator disciples were crippled on the spot. They had all suffered severe injuries.

When the bald man saw what happened to his subordinates, he was astounded. Was that even a move a First Level Tribulator cultivator can pull off? This is f*cking terrifying!

The bald man furrowed his brows, fear etching across his face. At that moment, even Catina's eyes went wide in shock. She didn't know Kai was that impressive. Those people were either Third or Fourth Level Tribulator cultivators! Yet, in front of Kai, they were defenseless! This is outrageous!

With an ambiguous look in her eyes, Catina said to Kai, "I didn't know you were this strong! No wonder you could pound me a few times a day!"

Before that, Catina had only gotten close to Kai because she wanted to take advantage of his Draconian bloodline.

At that moment, however, traces of affection had appeared in her gaze. Kai's expression turned slightly awkward when he heard those words. "Deal with that bald man. Leave the rest to me."

"Sure! I'll do as you say!" Catina answered and turned toward the bald man.

Instantly, the bald man panicked and threatened Catina, "Fox Queen, we're from Bulrush Sect. If you kill me, my leader will surely come after you! You know how ruthless Bulrush Sect is. By then, you'll definitely get tortured!"

"Pfft! I despise everyone from Bulrush Sect! All you guys do is bully women, and you call yourselves men?"

With that, Catina charged at the bald man.

Even without the manifestation of any aura, the activation of her spiritual energy, or the utilization of her magecraft, Catina was still capable of exhibiting remarkable speed. She was just charging at the bald man like an ordinary person.

Even so, there were several afterimages left behind as she rushed forward. That was how fast Catina was.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3415

Kai glanced at the members of Bulrush Sect before saying to Catina, "Help me kill all these people."

"I don't think I can do it on my own," Catina answered truthfully.

“Well, you’re not on your own. You have me,” Kai said with a cold expression. Catina looked at Kai’s expression and realized it was an expression she had never seen on his face.

“You?” Catina sized Kai up. “What can you do?”

Instead of replying, Kai slowly took out his Dragonslayer Sword. At the same time, his Golem Body shone brightly and covered his entire body.

Although Kai was a First Level Tribulator cultivator, the aura he exuded was utterly terrifying. Catina widened her eyes in shock and stared at Kai.

Kai pointed his sword at the members of Bulrush Sect and said, “You’ve hurt the people around me. You all deserve to die!”

The bald man was also startled by Kai’s aura.

However, he quickly came to his senses and sneered, “Brat, who are you trying to fool? You’re nothing but a First Level Tribulator cultivator. How dare you speak so haughtily?”

“Did I?” Kai narrowed his eyes which were filled with murderous intent. Those men had harmed Cloud, Feenix, and the others. Kai would not show them mercy.

The Power of Dragons was ceaselessly channeled into the Dragonslayer Sword, from which emanated beams of resplendent golden light.

Immediately after, Kai swung his sword outward. As soon as he did that, a dragon roar rang out, and as a ray of light shot into the sky, a golden dragon appeared and roared ferociously.

The members of Bulrush Sect were flabbergasted when they saw the golden dragon. The golden dragon descended from the sky and turned into countless rays of light. Seeing that, the bald man threw out a fiery punch to form a shield and told his associates to retreat. “Hide!”

Unfortunately for them, it was too late.

None of them had taken Kai, a First Level Tribulator cultivator, seriously.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The countless rays of light shot out and turned three Third Level Tribulator disciples from Bulrush Sect into a mass of gore.

Moreover, a few Fourth Level Tribulator disciples were crippled on the spot. They had all suffered severe injuries.

When the bald man saw what happened to his subordinates, he was astounded. Was that even a move a First Level Tribulator cultivator can pull off? This is f*cking terrifying!

The bald man furrowed his brows, fear etching across his face. At that moment, even Catina's eyes went wide in shock. She didn't know Kai was that impressive. Those people were either Third or Fourth Level Tribulator cultivators! Yet, in front of Kai, they were defenseless! This is outrageous!

With an ambiguous look in her eyes, Catina said to Kai, "I didn't know you were this strong! No wonder you could pound me a few times a day!"

Before that, Catina had only gotten close to Kai because she wanted to take advantage of his Draconian bloodline.

At that moment, however, traces of affection had appeared in her gaze. Kai's expression turned slightly awkward when he heard those words. "Deal with that bald man. Leave the rest to me."

"Sure! I'll do as you say!" Catina answered and turned toward the bald man.

Instantly, the bald man panicked and threatened Catina, "Fox Queen, we're from Bulrush Sect. If you kill me, my leader will surely come after you! You know how ruthless Bulrush Sect is. By then, you'll definitely get tortured!"

"Pfft! I despise everyone from Bulrush Sect! All you guys do is bully women, and you call yourselves men?"

With that, Catina charged at the bald man.

Even without the manifestation of any aura, the activation of her spiritual energy, or the utilization of her magecraft, Catina was still capable of exhibiting remarkable speed. She was just charging at the bald man like an ordinary person.

Even so, there were several afterimages left behind as she rushed forward. That was how fast Catina was.

Before the bald man could react, Catina had arrived right in front of him. In response, the bald man unleashed a palm strike to ward her off, but Catina managed to dodge with a gentle sway of her body. Thereafter, she landed a kick right on his groin.

Thud!

Despite the ordinary-looking kick, it was enough to castrate the bald man.

"Argh!"

A cry of agony was subsequently heard from him. Against a Seventh Level Tribulator like Catina, the Sixth Level Tribulator had no chance of fighting back at all.

It was clear that the Bulrush Sect's method of improving their cultivation level by mixing negative and positive energy through black magic didn't work. It still wasn't enough when faced with true power.

Also, trying to increase one's cultivation level without going through actual training and battles of survival wouldn't be effective due to a lack of practical experience.

On top of that, Catina was the only woman among the three kings and four archons.

Due to that, she had always been looked down upon and bullied. If it wasn't for Feenix's assistance, Catina wouldn't have achieved her current cultivation level.

She had put in the required effort to become a Seventh Level Tribulator; the bald man clearly paled in comparison.

"Is that all you got?"

When Kai saw how the bald man was rendered defenseless with a single kick from Catina, he exclaimed, "If I had known his bark was worse than his bite, I would have annihilated them myself! There was no need to get you involved."

Breaking into a smile, Catina stepped back. "In that case, be my guest. I'm curious to see how powerful you really are."

Kai responded with a grin before charging forward with Dragonslayer Sword. Even though he was faced with the group of Third to Fourth Level Tribulators, Kai was confident he could defeat them.

Normally, it was unfathomable for a First Level Tribulator to take on a group of four to five Tribulators who had higher cultivation levels than him. One wouldn't believe it unless one had seen it with their own eyes.

Now that Catina did, she couldn't help but admit how talented Kai was. A few minutes later, the members of Bulrush Sect were all lying on the ground.

Kai hadn't killed them. Instead, he had broken all their limbs. After putting Dragonslayer Sword away, he shifted his gaze toward Misho, Hamish, and the others.

The group could immediately tell what Kai's intention was. Without any hesitation, they charged forward and massacred the rest of Bulrush Sect.

Kai hadn't finished them off on purpose, allowing Misho and the others to have their revenge.

After annihilating the Bulrush Sect members, Misho and Hamish approached Kai, pleading, "Mr. Chance, please help us rescue Izolda and Kiara as soon as possible."

“Don’t worry. I’m going to do it right now. Feenix will lead me there, so you lot should find a place to rest.”

Kai decided to go rescue the two girls with Feenix.

As for the rest who were injured, they needed to recuperate and would be a hindrance if they were to follow him.

“Thank you, Mr. Chance...”

Misho and Hamish dropped to their knees to express their gratitude, but Kai quickly helped them up.

“Kai, I came to the Celestial Battlefield to hunt for magical items, not for a rescue mission. Have you forgotten what you’ve promised me? Do you now think that you’re so capable that you no longer need me?” Catina protested.

She didn’t want to waste time saving others, as time was of the essence on any battlefield.

“If you don’t come with me, I won’t be able to take them on alone. At most, I’ll increase the frequency...”

Kai had no choice but to resign himself to selling his own body.

I guess allowing her to do it a few more times a day is better than not rescuing the girls, isn’t it?

“Master, what are you talking about?” the curious Feenix inquired.

“Enough with the questions. This is a private matter between the two of us,” Kai stopped Feenix, who ended up shifting her attention to Catina.

“Fox Queen, what sort of secret do you share with my master? Why is he being so secretive about it? Please, you have to help save those two girls. At least do it on my account because they’re friends of mine too.”

