

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3416

Before the bald man could react, Catina had arrived right in front of him. In response, the bald man unleashed a palm strike to ward her off, but Catina managed to dodge with a gentle sway of her body. Thereafter, she landed a kick right on his groin.

Thud!

Despite the ordinary-looking kick, it was enough to castrate the bald man.

“Argh!”

A cry of agony was subsequently heard from him. Against a Seventh Level Tribulator like Catina, the Sixth Level Tribulator had no chance of fighting back at all.

It was clear that the Bulrush Sect’s method of improving their cultivation level by mixing negative and positive energy through black magic didn’t work. It still wasn’t enough when faced with true power.

Also, trying to increase one’s cultivation level without going through actual training and battles of survival wouldn’t be effective due to a lack of practical experience.

On top of that, Catina was the only woman among the three kings and four archons.

Due to that, she had always been looked down upon and bullied. If it wasn’t for Feenix’s assistance, Catina wouldn’t have achieved her current cultivation level.

She had put in the required effort to become a Seventh Level Tribulator; the bald man clearly paled in comparison.

“Is that all you got?”

When Kai saw how the bald man was rendered defenseless with a single kick from Catina, he exclaimed, “If I had known his bark was worse than his bite, I would have annihilated them myself! There was no need to get you involved.”

Breaking into a smile, Catina stepped back. “In that case, be my guest. I’m curious to see how powerful you really are.”

Kai responded with a grin before charging forward with Dragonslayer Sword. Even though he was faced with the group of Third to Fourth Level Tribulators, Kai was confident he could defeat them.

Normally, it was unfathomable for a First Level Tribulator to take on a group of four to five Tribulators who had higher cultivation levels than him. One wouldn’t believe it unless one had seen it with their own eyes.

Now that Catina did, she couldn't help but admit how talented Kai was. A few minutes later, the members of Bulrush Sect were all lying on the ground.

Kai hadn't killed them. Instead, he had broken all their limbs. After putting Dragonslayer Sword away, he shifted his gaze toward Misho, Hamish, and the others.

The group could immediately tell what Kai's intention was. Without any hesitation, they charged forward and massacred the rest of Bulrush Sect.

Kai hadn't finished them off on purpose, allowing Misho and the others to have their revenge.

After annihilating the Bulrush Sect members, Misho and Hamish approached Kai, pleading, "Mr. Chance, please help us rescue Izolda and Kiara as soon as possible."

"Don't worry. I'm going to do it right now. Feenix will lead me there, so you lot should find a place to rest."

Kai decided to go rescue the two girls with Feenix.

As for the rest who were injured, they needed to recuperate and would be a hindrance if they were to follow him.

"Thank you, Mr. Chance..."

Misho and Hamish dropped to their knees to express their gratitude, but Kai quickly helped them up.

"Kai, I came to the Celestial Battlefield to hunt for magical items, not for a rescue mission. Have you forgotten what you've promised me? Do you now think that you're so capable that you no longer need me?" Catina protested.

She didn't want to waste time saving others, as time was of the essence on any battlefield.

"If you don't come with me, I won't be able to take them on alone. At most, I'll increase the frequency..."

Kai had no choice but to resign himself to selling his own body.

I guess allowing her to do it a few more times a day is better than not rescuing the girls, isn't it?

"Master, what are you talking about?" the curious Feenix inquired.

"Enough with the questions. This is a private matter between the two of us," Kai stopped Feenix, who ended up shifting her attention to Catina.

“Fox Queen, what sort of secret do you share with my master? Why is he being so secretive about it? Please, you have to help save those two girls. At least do it on my account because they’re friends of mine too.”

Feenix enlisted Catina’s help as she and Kai alone were not enough to save Izolda and Kiara from the hands of Bulrush Sect.

Faced with Feenix’s pleas, Catina nodded, saying, “Fine. I’ll do this for you, but I want a stake in the celestial ore mine too.”

“Deal!” Kai agreed readily. Without the help of someone as powerful as Catina, they would never be able to take over the celestial ore mine even if they somehow managed to rescue Izolda and Kiara.

Also, given the number of injuries they had suffered, they weren’t strong enough to protect everyone. This was on top of Kai’s concern that Pablo would find him anytime.

“Let’s go,” Catina said in response to Kai’s agreement. With that, Feenix led the two to the celestial ore mine, the three of them staying vigilant throughout the entire journey.

“We’re almost there,” Feenix said as she pointed up ahead. Right then, Kai could clearly sense a different aura.

“Let’s sneak in so that they don’t know we’re here,” Kai instructed, as their objective was to rescue their friends and not start a fight.

If their presence was detected, they would not only be put at a disadvantage but Izolda’s and Kiara’s lives could also be put in danger.

With that thought in mind, they hid their auras as they quietly approached the celestial ore mine.

Soon, the three of them arrived on a hill slope. When they looked into the horizon, they saw a cave in the mountains, with five to six cultivators patrolling its entrance.

“The celestial ore mine is inside that cave. When we found it by chance and tried to obtain some celestial ore, members of Bulrush Sect discovered our presence and began to attack us.”

Staring at the Bulrush Sect cultivators nearby, Feenix remarked through her gritted teeth, “If I hadn’t been exiled to the mundane world, I would have ripped them into shreds.”

“What? You were missing for the past few years because you were exiled?” Catina asked in shock.

After Feenix nodded in response, Catina was about to probe further when a convoy of people walked toward the cave.

“Quiet. Someone’s coming,” Kai quickly shushed the two.

The group comprised more than twenty people, all dressed in dark red and wearing hats. Even though their faces couldn’t be seen, it was clear that they belonged to the same sect.

“Ruby Sect?” Catina remarked with her brows furrowed.

“Ruby Sect? Does that mean they’re all women?” Kai exclaimed in surprise.

Catina nodded. “They are, indeed. Ruby Sect is constantly colluding with Bulrush Sect. Both their sects are constantly helping each other with the manipulation of negative and positive energy. Now that Bulrush Sect has found the celestial ore mine, I’m surprised that they have invited Ruby Sect over.”

Catina spoke with a gloomy expression. The mention of Ruby Sect had clearly upset her.

“Hmph, I’ve heard of their sect many years ago, and they are nothing but a bunch of sl*ts.”

Feenix spat at the ground in disgust.

“That said, their presence has complicated the situation. With so many of them, I’m afraid even the three of us are not enough to carry out the rescue,”

Frowning, Kai remarked, “I wonder how Izolda and Kiara are doing...”

Noticing the conflicted look on Kai’s face, Catina suggested, “Both of you, stay here. I’m going to get reinforcements. Just the three of us alone are too little for this task.”

Catina planned to seek help from the rest of the three kings and four archons. Only then would they not have to fear Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect.

“Please hurry. If you’re too late, I fear for Izolda’s and Kiara’s fates...” Kai said to Catina.

“I know.” With that, she turned around and vanished without a trace.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3417

Feenix enlisted Catina’s help as she and Kai alone were not enough to save Izolda and Kiara from the hands of Bulrush Sect.

Faced with Feenix's pleas, Catina nodded, saying, "Fine. I'll do this for you, but I want a stake in the celestial ore mine too."

"Deal!" Kai agreed readily. Without the help of someone as powerful as Catina, they would never be able to take over the celestial ore mine even if they somehow managed to rescue Izolda and Kiara.

Also, given the number of injuries they had suffered, they weren't strong enough to protect everyone. This was on top of Kai's concern that Pablo would find him anytime.

"Let's go," Catina said in response to Kai's agreement. With that, Feenix led the two to the celestial ore mine, the three of them staying vigilant throughout the entire journey.

"We're almost there," Feenix said as she pointed up ahead. Right then, Kai could clearly sense a different aura.

"Let's sneak in so that they don't know we're here," Kai instructed, as their objective was to rescue their friends and not start a fight.

If their presence was detected, they would not only be put at a disadvantage but Izolda's and Kiara's lives could also be put in danger.

With that thought in mind, they hid their auras as they quietly approached the celestial ore mine.

Soon, the three of them arrived on a hill slope. When they looked into the horizon, they saw a cave in the mountains, with five to six cultivators patrolling its entrance.

"The celestial ore mine is inside that cave. When we found it by chance and tried to obtain some celestial ore, members of Bulrush Sect discovered our presence and began to attack us."

Staring at the Bulrush Sect cultivators nearby, Feenix remarked through her gritted teeth, "If I hadn't been exiled to the mundane world, I would have ripped them into shreds."

"What? You were missing for the past few years because you were exiled?" Catina asked in shock.

After Feenix nodded in response, Catina was about to probe further when a convoy of people walked toward the cave.

"Quiet. Someone's coming," Kai quickly shushed the two.

The group comprised more than twenty people, all dressed in dark red and wearing hats. Even though their faces couldn't be seen, it was clear that they belonged to the same sect.

"Ruby Sect?" Catina remarked with her brows furrowed.

“Ruby Sect? Does that mean they’re all women?” Kai exclaimed in surprise.

Catina nodded. “They are, indeed. Ruby Sect is constantly colluding with Bulrush Sect. Both their sects are constantly helping each other with the manipulation of negative and positive energy. Now that Bulrush Sect has found the celestial ore mine, I’m surprised that they have invited Ruby Sect over.”

Catina spoke with a gloomy expression. The mention of Ruby Sect had clearly upset her.

“Hmph, I’ve heard of their sect many years ago, and they are nothing but a bunch of sl*ts.”

Feenix spat at the ground in disgust.

“That said, their presence has complicated the situation. With so many of them, I’m afraid even the three of us are not enough to carry out the rescue,”

Frowning, Kai remarked, “I wonder how Izolda and Kiara are doing...”

Noticing the conflicted look on Kai’s face, Catina suggested, “Both of you, stay here. I’m going to get reinforcements. Just the three of us alone are too little for this task.”

Catina planned to seek help from the rest of the three kings and four archons. Only then would they not have to fear Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect.

“Please hurry. If you’re too late, I fear for Izolda’s and Kiara’s fates...” Kai said to Catina.

“I know.” With that, she turned around and vanished without a trace.

Catina backtracked while Kai and Feenix stared at the entrance to the celestial ore mine.

“I wonder how Izolda and Kiara are doing...” Kai was concerned because Hamish and Misho had been of great help to him during his journey to Demonica Mountain.

As such, he’d feel guilty if he couldn’t save the two women.

Feenix glanced at Kai, then said, “Master, I’ll head inside and check how they’re doing.”

“No, you mustn’t. It’s too dangerous,” rejected Kai immediately. Feenix is still too weak. If she heads inside, she won’t leave alive!

“Worry not, Master. I have a way to get in and out safely!” Upon ending her sentence, she concealed her aura and sneaked in.

Staring at Feenix, he wondered how she could avoid detection while heading inside. Then, he witnessed Feenix approaching a disciple of Ruby Sect.

In a flash, Feenix assassinated the Ruby Sect disciple, put on the latter's clothes, and sauntered inside. Kai was impressed by Feenix's reaction speed as he watched the scene unfold.

Upon entering the celestial ore mine, Feenix spotted plenty of Bulrush Sect's disciples transporting the celestial ores. Among them were disciples from Ruby Sect.

She also detected sensual voices in certain hidden corners.

Based on the sounds alone, Feenix determined the male disciples of Bulrush Sect were having sex with women from Ruby Sect. How shameless can they be? To think they have no reservations about performing such an act here!

Feenix lowered her head and rapidly searched the cave for Kiara and Izolda. During her investigation, a burly man with a beard blocked her way. "Hey, how about we spend some quality time together?"

The man ogled Feenix, almost drooling.

Feenix instantly tensed up when she spotted the burly man.

"I didn't expect Ruby Sect to have such a beautiful disciple like you. How about we cultivate together, hmm? I'll take good care of you..." The bearded man wiped his saliva away and marched toward Feenix.

Panicked, Feenix stepped backward.

She couldn't attack him because if she did, her identity would be exposed, and she wouldn't be able to leave unscathed. At worst, she might even be sexually assaulted by them.

However, the man had clearly taken a liking to Feenix and was closing the gap between them. It would seem he wouldn't rest until he had his way with Feenix.

Just as Feenix was feeling troubled, someone in the distance shouted, "Hey, Beardo, Mr. Hendley's asking you to hurry up and transport the celestial ores."

When the bearded man heard that, he reluctantly replied, "Coming!"

Then, he leered at Feenix again. "Wait for me, okay? Don't cultivate with someone else. I'll be back soon..."

Upon ending his sentence, he dashed away.

Following that, Feenix explored the cave speedily.

The cave was big and practically a world on its own. Within it were countless shining celestial ores.

Soon, Feenix spotted two figures in a dark corner.

Upon approaching them, she discovered they were Kiara and Izolda. The women were lying on the ground, their clothes torn and bodies naked. Surrounding them was an arcane array.

Most importantly, their crotches were bloody. Clearly, they had suffered inhumane torture.

Feenix gritted her teeth in fury as she peered at Izolda and Kiara.

While she hadn't known them for a long time, she was still enraged upon seeing that scene.

At that moment, she wished she could murder everyone from Bulrush Sect.

"Bulrush Sect, you animals! I swear, all of you shall be granted an excruciating death!" A fiery rage burned in Feenix's eyes.

Suddenly, someone roared at her, "Hey, what are you doing? Go transport the celestial ores!"

In response, Feenix hastily nodded and departed.

At that moment, she didn't have any way to rescue Izolda or Kiara.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3418

Catina backtracked while Kai and Feenix stared at the entrance to the celestial ore mine.

"I wonder how Izolda and Kiara are doing..." Kai was concerned because Hamish and Misho had been of great help to him during his journey to Demonica Mountain.

As such, he'd feel guilty if he couldn't save the two women.

Feenix glanced at Kai, then said, "Master, I'll head inside and check how they're doing."

"No, you mustn't. It's too dangerous," rejected Kai immediately. Feenix is still too weak. If she heads inside, she won't leave alive!

“Worry not, Master. I have a way to get in and out safely!” Upon ending her sentence, she concealed her aura and sneaked in.

Staring at Feenix, he wondered how she could avoid detection while heading inside. Then, he witnessed Feenix approaching a disciple of Ruby Sect.

In a flash, Feenix assassinated the Ruby Sect disciple, put on the latter’s clothes, and sauntered inside. Kai was impressed by Feenix’s reaction speed as he watched the scene unfold.

Upon entering the celestial ore mine, Feenix spotted plenty of Bulrush Sect’s disciples transporting the celestial ores. Among them were disciples from Ruby Sect.

She also detected sensual voices in certain hidden corners.

Based on the sounds alone, Feenix determined the male disciples of Bulrush Sect were having sex with women from Ruby Sect. How shameless can they be? To think they have no reservations about performing such an act here!

Feenix lowered her head and rapidly searched the cave for Kiara and Izolda. During her investigation, a burly man with a beard blocked her way. “Hey, how about we spend some quality time together?”

The man ogled Feenix, almost drooling.

Feenix instantly tensed up when she spotted the burly man.

“I didn’t expect Ruby Sect to have such a beautiful disciple like you. How about we cultivate together, hmm? I’ll take good care of you...” The bearded man wiped his saliva away and marched toward Feenix.

Panicked, Feenix stepped backward.

She couldn’t attack him because if she did, her identity would be exposed, and she wouldn’t be able to leave unscathed. At worst, she might even be sexually assaulted by them.

However, the man had clearly taken a liking to Feenix and was closing the gap between them. It would seem he wouldn’t rest until he had his way with Feenix.

Just as Feenix was feeling troubled, someone in the distance shouted, “Hey, Beardo, Mr. Hendley’s asking you to hurry up and transport the celestial ores.”

When the bearded man heard that, he reluctantly replied, “Coming!”

Then, he leered at Feenix again. “Wait for me, okay? Don’t cultivate with someone else. I’ll be back soon...”

Upon ending his sentence, he dashed away.

Following that, Feenix explored the cave speedily.

The cave was big and practically a world on its own. Within it were countless shining celestial ores.

Soon, Feenix spotted two figures in a dark corner.

Upon approaching them, she discovered they were Kiara and Izolda. The women were lying on the ground, their clothes torn and bodies naked. Surrounding them was an arcane array.

Most importantly, their crotches were bloody. Clearly, they had suffered inhumane torture.

Feenix gritted her teeth in fury as she peered at Izolda and Kiara.

While she hadn’t known them for a long time, she was still enraged upon seeing that scene.

At that moment, she wished she could murder everyone from Bulrush Sect.

“Bulrush Sect, you animals! I swear, all of you shall be granted an excruciating death!” A fiery rage burned in Feenix’s eyes.

Suddenly, someone roared at her, “Hey, what are you doing? Go transport the celestial ores!”

In response, Feenix hastily nodded and departed.

At that moment, she didn’t have any way to rescue Izolda or Kiara.

Suppressing her rage, Feenix left the celestial ore mine and arrived by Kai’s side.

“What did you find, Feenix? Did you locate the two of them?” asked Kai.

Feenix nodded wordlessly.

Seeing her expression, Kai frowned, a bad feeling swelling in him.

“Tell me, what happened to them?” asked Kai urgently.

“The people from Bulrush Sect... They’re monsters, Master. Every last one of them. Kiara and Izolda were tortured and ruined by them...” Feenix sobbed.

Kai was stunned for a moment. Then, his eyes turned crimson red, wrath boiling within his chest.

However, he didn’t lose his rationality. He knew that if he charged into the mine recklessly, not only would he fail to save Kiara and Izolda, but he might even put them in danger.

While they had been sexually assaulted, their lives weren’t in danger at that moment.

Kai shut his eyes slightly, calming himself with great effort. It’ll be too late by the time Catina returns with aid. Feenix and I must rescue them immediately!

After a moment of contemplation, he asked, “When you were inside, what did you see the people from Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect doing?”

“Some of them are transporting celestial ores while others are cultivating together,” informed Feenix.

“Did they pile the celestial ores together, or do they store the ores separately?” asked Kai.

From his perspective, while Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect disciples tended to cultivate together, it was only for their own benefit.

At that moment, they were only working together to mine celestial ores.

“They’re mining and storing their celestial ores separately. I don’t think they’re cooperating,” said Feenix.

In response to hearing that, Kai had an idea. He retrieved the Stillwind Orb from his Storage Ring.

“Feenix, I want you to reenter the cave with the Stillwind Orb. Then, I want you to say you dug this out in the cave. Remember, only hand the Stillwind Orb to the head of Ruby Sect. Don’t pass it to anyone else, commanded Kai.

“This is your magical item, though, Master. How can you give it to someone else?” Feenix was confused.

Thus, Kai explained, “I’m planning to use the Stillwind Orb to start a fight between Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect. Once they’re occupied with each other, we’ll have a chance to extract Izolda and Kiara out of that place.”

In response, Feenix nodded and grabbed the Stillwind Orb.

Of course, Kai was aware of the Stillwind Orb’s value. With that magical item, he could grasp wind nascence with less effort. However, if he didn’t bet a remarkable magical item on his strategy, then Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect wouldn’t start a fight over it.

Holding the Stillwind Orb, Feenix marched into the celestial ore mine.

At that moment, in a small cave beside the celestial ore mine, Anders Hendley, the head of Bulrush Sect, and Natasha Fuller, the head of Ruby Sect, had just finished their cultivation.

Though they were sweating, they were utterly satisfied.

“I treat you pretty well, don’t I, Ms. Fuller? Instead of hogging this celestial ore mine for myself, I called you over.” Anders grinned.

Natasha sneered, “Don’t make it sound so nice, Mr. Hendley. I bet it’s simply because you can’t extract all the ores in this massive mine and are afraid others will discover it. You needed help to deal with potential enemies, so you summoned me here. Don’t make yourself sound so noble. Our relationship is strictly business. I suggest you refrain from talking about feelings.”

In response, Anders revealed an awkward smile. “Nothing can escape your eyes, can it, Ms. Fuller? Still, I did discover the mine first and called you over. Hence, I hope you won’t fight with me over the amount of ores we each can keep.”

“Don’t worry. We’ll only keep forty percent of the ores, while you can have sixty percent. We won’t fight you over it,” spat Natasha with disdain.

“That’s good.” Anders smiled.

Just as they concluded their conversation, they suddenly heard people shouting outside their little cave.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3419

Suppressing her rage, Feenix left the celestial ore mine and arrived by Kai’s side.

“What did you find, Feenix? Did you locate the two of them?” asked Kai.

Feenix nodded wordlessly.

Seeing her expression, Kai frowned, a bad feeling swelling in him.

“Tell me, what happened to them?” asked Kai urgently.

“The people from Bulrush Sect... They’re monsters, Master. Every last one of them. Kiara and Izolda were tortured and ruined by them...” Feenix sobbed.

Kai was stunned for a moment. Then, his eyes turned crimson red, wrath boiling within his chest.

However, he didn’t lose his rationality. He knew that if he charged into the mine recklessly, not only would he fail to save Kiara and Izolda, but he might even put them in danger.

While they had been sexually assaulted, their lives weren’t in danger at that moment.

Kai shut his eyes slightly, calming himself with great effort. It’ll be too late by the time Catina returns with aid. Feenix and I must rescue them immediately!

After a moment of contemplation, he asked, “When you were inside, what did you see the people from Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect doing?”

“Some of them are transporting celestial ores while others are cultivating together,” informed Feenix.

“Did they pile the celestial ores together, or do they store the ores separately?” asked Kai.

From his perspective, while Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect disciples tended to cultivate together, it was only for their own benefit.

At that moment, they were only working together to mine celestial ores.

“They’re mining and storing their celestial ores separately. I don’t think they’re cooperating,” said Feenix.

In response to hearing that, Kai had an idea. He retrieved the Stillwind Orb from his Storage Ring.

“Feenix, I want you to reenter the cave with the Stillwind Orb. Then, I want you to say you dug this out in the cave. Remember, only hand the Stillwind Orb to the head of Ruby Sect. Don’t pass it to anyone else, commanded Kai.

“This is your magical item, though, Master. How can you give it to someone else?” Feenix was confused.

Thus, Kai explained, “I’m planning to use the Stillwind Orb to start a fight between Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect. Once they’re occupied with each other, we’ll have a chance to extract Izolda and Kiara out of that place.”

In response, Feenix nodded and grabbed the Stillwind Orb.

Of course, Kai was aware of the Stillwind Orb’s value. With that magical item, he could grasp wind nascence with less effort. However, if he didn’t bet a remarkable magical item on his strategy, then Bulrush Sect and Ruby Sect wouldn’t start a fight over it.

Holding the Stillwind Orb, Feenix marched into the celestial ore mine.

At that moment, in a small cave beside the celestial ore mine, Anders Hendley, the head of Bulrush Sect, and Natasha Fuller, the head of Ruby Sect, had just finished their cultivation.

Though they were sweating, they were utterly satisfied.

“I treat you pretty well, don’t I, Ms. Fuller? Instead of hogging this celestial ore mine for myself, I called you over.” Anders grinned.

Natasha sneered, “Don’t make it sound so nice, Mr. Hendley. I bet it’s simply because you can’t extract all the ores in this massive mine and are afraid others will discover it. You needed help to deal with potential enemies, so you summoned me here. Don't make yourself sound so noble. Our relationship is strictly business. I suggest you refrain from talking about feelings."

In response, Anders revealed an awkward smile. "Nothing can escape your eyes, can it, Ms. Fuller? Still, I did discover the mine first and called you over. Hence, I hope you won't fight with me over the amount of ores we each can keep."

"Don't worry. We'll only keep forty percent of the ores, while you can have sixty percent. We won't fight you over it," spat Natasha with disdain.

"That's good." Anders smiled.

Just as they concluded their conversation, they suddenly heard people shouting outside their little cave.