

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3441

Upon witnessing the lion-tiger beast come to a halt, Kai realized that its range of movement was limited. Therefore, his idea of keeping it as a pet was simply unfeasible.

Catina understood Kai's thoughts and said, "Let's go. The lion-tiger beast no longer has its beast core, so its power has greatly diminished. Keeping it as a pet won't be of much help to you."

Kai had absorbed the beast core of the lion- tiger beast, resulting in a significant decrease in its strength.

If they were to take action now, the lion-tiger beast would definitely be no match for them!

Kai glanced at the lion-tiger beast and drew out his Dragonslayer Sword.

"What are you planning to do?" Catina expressed her surprise upon seeing Kai draw his Dragonslayer Sword. "The lion-tiger beast's beast core is gone. You've already consumed it. There's nothing useful left on its body. Why do you still want to kill it?"

As Catina was also from the beast race, she couldn't bear to watch Kai kill the lion-tiger beast.

Moreover, it was likely that the lion-tiger beasts in the Ethereal Realm had long since become extinct. Only the lion-tiger beasts on the Celestial Battlefield remained.

"Who said I wanted to kill him?" Kai replied before swinging the Dragonslayer Sword against the stone walls on either side of the crevice. Eerie lines began to appear, revealing that Kai was actually setting up an arcane array.

Before long, Kai had set up a Concealment Arcane Array. As the grand formation activated, Catina looked ahead. The shadow of the lion-tiger beast was nowhere to be seen. All she saw was an empty road stretching out before her.

"The lion-tiger beast has lost its beast core, causing a significant drop in its strength. If anyone else were to enter this crevice, the lion- tiger beast might be in danger. I set up this Concealment Arcane Array to help it. Unless one is a high-level array master, it's simply impossible to see through it. This way, the lion- tiger beast can live here peacefully," Kai explained.

Catina glanced at Kai, a faint smile gracing her lips. "I never expected you to have such a compassionate side," she said. "Don't forget to show some of that compassion toward me as well. After all, I'm much more delicate and pitiful than that lion-tiger beast..."

Upon hearing this, Kai rolled his eyes instantly. He was nearly drained dry by Catina, yet she dared to call herself delicate and pitiful.

"Who's there? Come out!" Feenix suddenly let out a loud roar toward the corner.

Kai and Catina turned around cautiously.

Cameron emerged, his face showing a hint of panic. “Mr. Chance, please don’t misunderstand. It’s me...”

Upon seeing someone emerge, Cameron immediately hid himself. He was immensely shocked when he realized it was Kai and his group who had come out.

Especially the lion-tiger beast, it was actually following behind Kai and the others like a pet, which left Cameron even more dumbfounded.

He couldn’t comprehend it. Just moments ago, they were engaged in a fierce battle, with the lion-tiger beast intent on killing these individuals. Yet, it ended up following them.

Moreover, the Ice Seal on Kai and the others had been lifted, and Cameron had no idea why that was happening.

He had also witnessed Kai meticulously crafting the large formation just a moment ago.

“It’s you! Where is our technique?” Catina’s rage flared up upon recognizing Cameron. She strode forward and seized him by the collar of his shirt.

In front of Catina, Cameron was as helpless as a chick, utterly lacking the strength to fight back!

Cameron hurriedly explained, “I... I had given the technique to Elder Nesser. It’s not with me anymore!”

“Where’s your elder?” Catina inquired. Cameron shook his head. He had no idea where Skylar had gone. All Skylar had told him was to wait there.

“Mr. Chance, when I seized that technique just now, it was because I saw the lion-tiger beast put the Ice Seal on you. I used this method to save you and to distract the beast. I certainly had no intention of taking advantage of someone in a vulnerable state. After all, you saved my life once. How could I possibly commit such an ungrateful act?” Cameron fervently explained things to Kai.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3442

Kai’s fear of Kai losing his temper and killing him was deeply rooted. He knew he was no match for Kai’s strength, especially with Catina and Feenix present.

However, Kai simply gave Cameron a cold glance, fully aware that he was lying. Despite this, he allowed Catina to release him.

Turning to Cameron, Kai asked, “Are you truly unaware of your elder’s whereabouts?”

Cameron replied truthfully, “I don’t know. The technique was meant to be a demon’s method, which is why we couldn’t open it at all. Elder Nesser instructed me to try and find a way, telling me to wait here...”

Just as Cameron finished speaking, Skylar gracefully descended from the marked aura in mid-air. “This technique is a relic of the demon, completely impenetrable. I attempted to unlock it using the aura here, but to no avail...”

After Skylar finished speaking, he surprisingly handed the technique directly to Kai.

Kai took the martial arts documentation device and channeled his spiritual energy into it. However, the device remained motionless, its contents invisible.

“This object is only useful in the hands of a demon. It seems our efforts were in vain. Since you want it, I’m giving it to you. Let’s continue our search for other magical items.”

After Skylar finished speaking, he gave Cameron a knowing look, then turned around and left. Kai silently watched as Skylar and Cameron departed. Catina and Feenix didn’t say much. After all, the martial arts documentation device had been promptly returned.

“Master, what should we do now? Should we wait until we leave and seek assistance from Mr. Lothian of Blood Spirit Valley? After all, he is a Demonic Cultivator,” Feenix asked Kai.

“No need. I myself am somewhat of a Demonic Cultivator. You two wait here for me...”

After Kai finished speaking, he leaped up, hovering amidst the marked aura of the crevice. The Focus Technique spun rapidly as Kai absorbed the marked aura greedily.

Meanwhile, Skylar and Cameron, who had already left, slowly raised their heads, noticing the diminishing marked aura within the cracks.

The crevices, previously obscured by clusters of black fog, gradually began to fade. Astonishingly, one could now see the scenery above through these cracks.

“Cameron, what’s happening?” Skylar asked, confused.

“Perhaps it’s because the technique was taken away, causing the marked aura here to dissipate as well,” Cameron replied. Skylar’s heart filled with seething resentment, making his teeth itch.

However, he knew he had to endure it. Kai, who could tame the lion-tiger beast and free himself from its Ice Seal, undoubtedly possessed a power he was yet unaware of.

Originally, it was believed that Kai was dead. Unexpectedly, he was still alive. However, this worked in Skylar's favor, as he could personally kill Kai and exact his revenge.

But it wasn't the right moment. Skylar was no longer the reckless person he used to be. He had to act only when he was absolutely certain he could kill Kai.

His identity had not yet been exposed. He remained in the shadows, while Kai was in the light. This was Skylar's greatest advantage, and he would not reveal himself easily.

"Cameron, it's a shame that you gave away the technique so easily..." Cameron expressed regret on his face.

"Since we couldn't open it, there was no point in keeping it. We might as well do someone a favor. If we didn't give it to him, would he have let us leave?" Skylar replied with a faint smile, leaping out of the crevice.

After leaving the crevice, Skylar glanced back at the fissure behind him, a cold smirk playing on his lips. One couldn't be certain if Kai had opened the technique, let alone seen its contents!

After an unknown amount of time, Kai slowly opened his eyes and burst into laughter.

With the marked aura, he could once again wield the Divine Bow. During his last battle with Pablo, Kai had nearly exhausted all the strength within his body.

The Celestial Battlefield was filled with spiritual energy and omnipresent celestial energy, which quickly replenished Kai.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3443

Replenishing the marked aura proved to be quite a challenge. It could only be supplemented by slaying objects imbued with negative energy or utilizing decayed corpses, and even then, the process was incredibly slow.

However, within this fissure, there was an abundance of marked aura that Kai delightedly absorbed to his heart's content.

Kai wondered if Hadad had cleaved this crack open. Could that technique possibly be Hadad's? Was that lion-tiger beast Hadad's?

Kai was oblivious to all of this, and his thoughts were merely speculation. To truly understand, he would need to meet Hadad. I can't imagine how difficult it will be to meet Hadad. Those old fellows are hiding somewhere, secretly conducting their investigations! After all, given their status, if their secrets were exposed, it would certainly create quite a spectacle!

Kai slowly descended from mid-air. Catina and Feenix hurriedly rushed over to him.

“So, have you figured out what’s in that technique?” Catina hastily inquired.

Intrigued, Feenix was all ears.

However, Kai simply shook his head. “I haven’t read it yet...”

Upon hearing that Kai hadn’t opened it yet, Catina anxiously said, “Hurry up and open it to see...”

Kai nodded, subsequently channeling streams of marked aura into the martial arts documentation device.

Accompanied by the documentation device, a gentle white light began to flicker. Eventually, the white light transformed into a golden hue, casting a faint shadow into the mid-air.

Kai hastily released his spiritual sense, swiftly perusing the technique inscribed on the documentation device. In just a fleeting moment, the martial arts documentation device had already entered Kai’s spiritual sense.

The light quickly faded, and soon, nothing could be seen. Afterward, the martial arts documentation device turned into ashes in Kai’s hands.

“What on earth is this? I didn’t understand a thing... Feenix, have you understood?” Catina couldn’t help but curse.

“I didn’t understand it either...” Feenix also shook her head.

“Kai, hurry up and investigate. What exactly is this technique?” Catina urged Kai. Kai hurriedly immersed himself in his consciousness field, carefully examining the technique he had just acquired. However, this technique was indeed somewhat obscure and difficult to understand, leaving Kai somewhat baffled.

After all, Kai was not a real Demonic Cultivator, so there were many aspects of this technique that Kai simply couldn’t comprehend.

Suddenly, Faiyar exclaimed excitedly, “Mr. Chance, t-this is the Impersonation Technique, considered a rather decent technique...”

Upon hearing Faiyar’s voice, Kai instantly remembered that there was a Demonic Cultivator within his own consciousness field.

During this period, Faiyar had been busy nurturing the parasitic silkworm. Hence, he hadn’t interacted with Kai, causing Kai to forget about him.

Kai turned to Faiyar and asked, “What’s the Impersonation Technique?”

“This Impersonation Technique is a deceptive technique, capable of transforming one’s physical appearance and even altering their aura, effectively turning you into an entirely different person!” Faiyar explained.

“Become someone else?” Kai was taken aback. “Does this mean, once I master this Impersonation Technique, I can undergo seventy-two transformations?”

After hearing this, Faiyar was momentarily speechless. All he could say was, “Mr. Chance, this Impersonation Technique can only alter your physical appearance and aura, transforming you into another person. It cannot turn you into something else.”

“Would anyone recognize me if I became someone else?” Kai continued to ask.

“It all depends on the level of your mastery over this Impersonation Technique,” he said. “However, if you aspire to transform into someone far more powerful than yourself, there will inevitably be flaws. After all, you are a cultivator, and no matter how you change, it’s impossible for your aura to reach that of an immortal. As long as the difference in strength wasn’t too great, this Impersonation Technique could deceive anyone. Even close acquaintances would find it hard to distinguish,” Faiyar explained.

Kai nodded, indicating that he understood the purpose of the Impersonation Technique. This is indeed a valuable tool! This Impersonation Technique is not only unexpected, but it can also provide an escape during dangerous times. It’s simply fantastic!

Upon seeing Kai emerge from his consciousness field, Catina hurriedly asked, “Kai, do you know what this technique is?”

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3444

“This technique is known as the Impersonation Technique, a skill that allows one to change their appearance and aura,” Kai explained to Catina.

Upon hearing this, Catina was immediately surprised and exclaimed, “I’ve heard of this technique before, and there’s even a rumor about it! A Demonic Cultivator who mastered this skill transformed into the leader of a sect, controlling the entire sect himself. However, later on, a drunken mistake led to his cover being exposed, and he was killed outright...”

“Is this technique really that powerful?” Feenix asked with great interest.

“Absolutely. If one were to master this Impersonation Technique, they could transform into someone else so convincingly that even their own family wouldn’t be able to tell!” Catina exclaimed.

“Wow! That’s impressive!” Feenix was utterly astonished, then turned to Kai and said, “In that case, Master is indeed fortunate. You’ll probably be overwhelmed with joy...”

“What do you mean?” Kai was taken aback, not understanding what Feenix meant.

“Once you’ve mastered this Impersonation Technique, you’ll be able to change your appearance at will, and even your loved ones won’t be able to tell. In other words, you’ll be able to transform and meet up with other people’s wives.... With a laugh, Feenix chose not to continue speaking. However, both Kai and Catina understood completely.

“What are you talking about?” Kai glared at Feenix.

Catina burst into laughter, saying, “He can’t even fully satisfy the women by his side, yet he dreams of someone else’s wife....

“Let’s just leave!” Kai was somewhat overwhelmed by these two women. They are too forward...

Kai leaped up, springing directly out of the crevice. Catina and Feenix followed behind. The two girls were still chattering away, engrossed in their discussion about the Impersonation Technique.

Kai and his two companions journeyed westward. At this moment, Kai’s heart was much more at peace.

The marked aura within his body was extremely abundant, so much so that even if he encountered Pablo, he could still defend himself using the Divine Bow.

Moreover, with Catina by his side, there was absolutely nothing to fear.

After flying for a while, Kai and his companions discovered that the mountain range ahead stretched like a vast sea, with its peaks and valleys undulating to distinguish it from other places they had seen.

And at the highest point of the mountain range, there stood a peak, its slopes steep and rugged, as if they had been carved by the blade of an axe. From a distance, it looked like a sharp sword piercing straight into the clouds.

The mountain peak was shrouded in a misty haze, with strands of celestial energy subtly encircling it, yet they did not dissipate.

Kai could sense the faint, elusive celestial energy, causing his brows to furrow involuntarily.

Feenix gazed at the distant mountain peak and said, “What an unusual mountain range...

“Look at these endless mountain ranges, all surrounding that peak. Moreover, that peak is enveloped in celestial energy. How could the mountain ranges surrounding the peak appear to be man-made? Could they have been an arcane array set up by someone during the Celestial Battle?” Catina murmured to herself.

Upon hearing Catina’s words, Kai also looked around. He, too, noticed something peculiar about the continuous mountain range, but he didn’t associate it with an arcane array. After all, how grand must the scale be for such a massive arcane array?

However, upon further thought, during the Celestial Battle, immortals descended to the Ethereal Realm. If the arcane array was created by an immortal, it could indeed be possible.

“Let’s go. We should descend and take a closer look...”

After Kai finished speaking, he gracefully descended.

Catina followed Feenix down. After all, they were aimlessly searching for treasures. Who knows? There might be some within this mountain range!

After Kai and his companions descended, they realized that the mountain range, which had just been in full view, was completely out of sight.

Their figures had disappeared into the mountain range, and they were as tiny as ants.

After Kai descended, he exclaimed, “If this mountain range was indeed created by human hands, then the person who did it was incredibly impressive!”

“What’s so impressive about that? Once you ascend to immortality, moving mountains and filling rivers will be as simple as a wave of your hand. As long as you reach the required strength, everything becomes easy,” Catina said to Kai.

“Becoming an immortal? I wonder when...” With a bitter smile, Kai started to walk forward.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3445

“Help! Help!”

Not long after Kai and his companions had departed, they suddenly heard desperate cries for help.

The cries for help were emanating from a young girl, and they sounded urgent.

Initially, Kai had no intention of getting involved. After all, within the Celestial Battlefield, all sorts of people could be found. Everyone was in search of treasure.

Since it was a quest for treasure, they were mentally prepared to encounter all sorts of situations.

Just as Kai was about to pretend he hadn't heard anything and continue walking, he spotted a disheveled young girl, no older than seventeen or eighteen, running towards him in a state of panic.

The girl had fair skin, and her features were delicate and refined. At first glance, she was a beauty. Moreover, her aura was not weak at all. Surprisingly, she was even a Tribulator.

At such a young age, she had already become a Tribulator. If she wasn't naturally intelligent, then she must have had a powerful backing, or perhaps she was an heiress of a certain sect.

After all, only an abundance of resources could sustain cultivation. Just like those impoverished mountain dwellers, even though they were all cultivators, they might spend their entire lives cultivating without ever becoming a Tribulator.

In that moment, the girl's forehead was drenched in cold sweat, and she kept anxiously looking back.

Behind the girl, two Demonic Cultivators were rapidly closing in.

"Little girl, you can't escape! Just surrender obediently..." Those Demonic Cultivators had lecherous grins on their faces.

The girl refused to listen. She ran forward as fast as she could. However, when she saw Kai, she abruptly halted and looked at him with a face full of caution.

She didn't know who Kai really was, whether he was associated with those Demonic Cultivators or not, so the girl remained highly vigilant.

However, the two Demonic Cultivators behind her were getting closer and closer.

At that moment, the girl noticed Catina and Feenix. Being of the same gender, she thought they might naturally feel a sense of closeness.

To everyone's surprise, the girl bypassed Kai and ran straight towards Catina and Feenix.

"Miss! Save me!" The girl ran up to Catina and Feenix with a look of panic. She hid behind the two of them.

Catina, along with Feenix, looked at the pitiful state of the girl, their hearts filled with worry. They reassured her, "Don't be afraid. We are here. No one will harm you..."

At that moment, two Demonic Cultivators had already caught up. When they saw Catina and Feenix, they unexpectedly cracked a smile. “Haha! What a great day! We’ve been graced with the presence of two beauties. We’re truly in luck now.”

The eyes of the two Demonic Cultivators were fixed intently on Catina and her companions, completely oblivious to Kai, who was not far away.

Catina, filled with anger, questioned the two Demonic Cultivators, “You two are Demonic Cultivators. How could you bully a girl? Have you no shame?”

A frenzied Demonic Cultivator exclaimed, “On the Celestial Battlefield, what use is there for shame? Moreover, this is Demonica Mountain, the territory of us, the Demonic Cultivators. What else can you dare to do?”

The Celestial Battlefield was initiated on Demonica Mountain, a territory of the demons. Hence, they were not afraid at all.

“I advise you to behave and follow our orders. As long as you keep us comfortable, your lives will be spared. I can see that you’re not virgins anymore. Accompanying us for some fun won’t be a big deal.” Another Demonic Cultivator was growing impatient, gradually moving closer to Catina and her group.

Listening to the words of that Demonic Cultivator, both Catina and Feenix were thoroughly infuriated.

“Dare you covet my woman? Have you lived too long?”

Behind the two Demonic Cultivators, a playful voice echoed.

The two Demonic Cultivators quickly turned around, only to find Kai standing not too far away, watching them with a cold gaze.

Upon seeing that Kai was merely a First Level Tribulator, the two of them instantly relaxed.

“Brat, do you, a First Level Tribulator, even deserve a woman?”

“The fact that my friend and I want your woman is a favor to you. You should consider yourself lucky!”

Those two Demonic Cultivators mocked Kai.

Swoosh!

Kai didn’t utter a word. Instead, the Dragonslayer Sword suddenly appeared in his hand, followed swiftly by a streak of light that cut through the air.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3446

The two Demonic Cultivators had no time to react, and the sword's light instantly cleaved their bodies in half.

Their eyes widened, and their faces filled with shock as they looked down at their bodies, already severed at the waist by a lazy stroke. Finally, they fell.

Until their dying breath, they couldn't comprehend how Kai, a First Level Tribulator, managed to slay two Third Level Tribulators with a single stroke of his sword.

It defied all logic.

The girl's eyes widened in disbelief when she saw Kai single-handedly slay two Demonic Cultivators with just one swing.

Catina, with a gentle smile on her face, walked over to Kai. "I didn't expect your heroic rescue to be so charming," she said. "Were the words you spoke earlier true?"

"What did I say?" Kai was taken aback.

Catina moved closer to Kai, continuously batting her eyelashes at him as she asked, "You said that we were all your women. Do I count as well?"

"Let's go. It'll be dark soon..." Kai did not want to respond to Catina. Although he had slept with Catina numerous times, they were merely transactions devoid of any emotions.

They had simply struck a deal for their mutual benefit. Feenix turned to Kai and asked, "Master, what should we do with this girl?"

Kai glanced at the girl, and she knew he was the one calling the shots. So, she quickly ran toward Kai, pleading, "Mister, I beg you. Please don't leave me behind. I'm begging you..."

The girl clung to Kai's arm, her eyes filled with pleading. Kai didn't utter a word. He was no great philanthropist. He was on the Celestial Battlefield for treasure hunting. Bringing along another person would only add to his burden.

Seeing that Kai remained silent, the girl fought back tears and gritted her teeth, pleading, "Mister, I beg you. Don't abandon me. I'll do anything you ask. I can even offer you my body..."

Upon hearing this, Kai felt a chill run down his spine. "Catina has tormented me for quite some time now."

“I’m no saint, and your body holds no value to me. However, I might consider taking you along if you can present other treasures of appropriate worth,” Kai said to the girl.

The girl glanced at her own body, her face showing distress. “I got separated from my father, and I don’t have any treasures on me. However, if you could help me find my father, I’m sure he would reward you. I hail from the Summers family of Forlisle. My name is Jennifer Summers...”

Upon hearing this, Catina hurriedly asked, “The Summers family of Forlisle? Is your father Tyler?”

Jennifer nodded, looking at Catina with a touch of curiosity. “Do you know my father, Miss?”

Catina curiously asked, “The Summers family is most renowned for its mastery of magecrafts and charms, and its fame resonates throughout the entire southern region. I never expected that you would also venture into the Celestial Battlefield. Why were those Demonic Cultivators chasing after you? And why did you part ways with your father?”

“I followed my father, Mr. Freddie, and the others to this mountain range. My father said that a vast arcane array shrouded these mountains, so we needed to split up to find the weak points in the arcane array. I followed my brother to this place, never expecting to encounter a Demonic Cultivator. We ended up getting separated while trying to escape, and that’s how I ran into all of you,” Jennifer answered truthfully.

Upon hearing Jennifer’s words, Catina immediately responded, “That’s right. This mountain range is an arcane array. It seems our guess wasn’t too far off!”

“Miss and Mister, if you help me find my father, I’m certain he will be deeply grateful. I beg of you...” Tears began to stream down from Jennifer’s eyes once again.

Catina dared not make the decision herself, and she could only look toward Kai.

“All right. You may follow us...”

Kai nodded in agreement, promising to comply. Seeing this, Jennifer quickly wiped away her tears and smiled.

Just as Kai and his companions were preparing to leave, a middle-aged man suddenly emerged, his face revealing a sinister expression.

The man glanced at the two Demonic Cultivators’ corpses on the ground, his gaze fierce as he said, “Do you think you can just walk away after killing my friends? No chance...”

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3447

The man's face contorted into a sinister expression, sending shivers down the spines of Kai and his companions. With a swift motion, he produced a mysterious charm from his pocket.

It was adorned with eerie etchings of malevolent spirits baring their fangs and claws. As soon as the charm was revealed, an ominous breeze swept through the air, casting a chilling aura over Kai and his comrades.

In a low, guttural voice, the man muttered incantations under his breath, weaving a dark spell. Suddenly, the charm erupted, unleashing a horde of malevolent spirits in a chaotic burst. Following that, enigmatic array runes enveloped Kai and his companions.

“Who would have thought that such a high-level charm existed in the Ethereal Realm...”

As Kai observed the charm unveiled by the mysterious man, astonishment washed over him. In the Ethereal Realm, even the simplest communication device demanded a price, and the skill to craft charms was a coveted rarity.

It struck Kai as truly remarkable that this man possessed the ability to produce such an advanced and potent charm.

At this moment, Kai found himself thinking of Flaxseed. If Flaxseed were here, this man's charm would pale in comparison, akin to mere discarded trash. After all, Flaxseed was no ordinary practitioner but an advanced charm master.

A multitude of malevolent spirits swirled incessantly around Kai and his companions, casting an eerie aura that saturated the air. The group found their vision blurring, heads spinning with dizziness in the face of this spectral onslaught.

“This is Myriad Ghouls. Everyone stay alert!”

However, amid the disorienting chaos, Jennifer swiftly reacted. She produced a yellow charm from her person, and with determination in her eyes, she bit her finger and deftly drew a peculiar symbol on it.

The yellow charm erupted, unleashing waves of yellow mist that enveloped the area. The disoriented group, including Kai, found themselves revitalized, their senses sharpened and alert once more in the wake of Jennifer's decisive action.

Kai looked at Jennifer in surprise. He hadn't expected her proficiency in charms despite her young age.

“The Summers family specialized in the study of charm spells. Despite their modest cultivation level, they're esteemed as among the finest in this field. Many practitioners across the southern region rely on the Summers family for their charms,” Catina explained to Kai.

Meanwhile, Jennifer, beads of cold sweat forming on her forehead, focused on muttering incantations under her breath. It became evident that she was having a hard time, struggling to restrain their adversary using her charm.

“Oh, you’re that girl from the Summers family! But with your level of skill, you think you can break my Myriad Ghouls?”

The man’s laughter carried a chilling edge as he mockingly assessed Jennifer’s abilities. With a cold smile, he gently pressed his palm down, unleashing a horde of malevolent spirits in the form of a dense black fog. The fog swallowed Kai and his companions, plunging them into boundless darkness.

Upon witnessing the unfolding situation, Catina swiftly summoned a series of whirlwinds with determined movements of her palms, aiming to disperse the suffocating black fog. However, her efforts seemed futile, as if her actions were mere whispers against the howling wind, yielding no discernible response from the enveloping darkness.

All they felt was their bodies plummeting continuously, as if a bottomless abyss lay beneath their feet.

At that moment, panic overcame Jennifer, while Catina and Feenix found themselves somewhat flustered as well in the disorienting situation.

Meanwhile, Kai faced them with a smile, calmly saying, “There’s no need to panic. It’s just a minor charm. I’ll break it for you.”

Surprisingly, he began carving intricate symbols on the ground with his foot. Array runes emerged and started rippling, creating a palpable change in the atmosphere. Suddenly, a brilliant spiritual light shot up toward the sky, piercing through the oppressive black fog. The radiant light not only dispersed the darkness but also engulfed the countless malevolent spirits, causing them to vanish without a trace.

Jennifer’s eyes widened in sheer astonishment as she beheld the unfolding spectacle.

The formidable reputation of the Myriad Ghouls charm was well-known to her, making the scene even more surreal. Kai, with seemingly careless strokes on the ground, effortlessly dismantled the powerful enchantment.

Not even her own father could rival the formidable skills displayed by Kai in that moment.

Perplexed and in awe, Jennifer found herself wondering when such a formidable charm master had emerged in the southern region.

On the other hand, the man who had confidently confronted Kai and his gang earlier was now utterly shocked. Without a moment’s hesitation, a palpable fear seizing him, he swiftly turned on his heel and fled.

The only reason he had the audacity to face Kai and his gang was because he had the charm of Myriad Ghouls at his disposal.

However, now that the charm was dismantled, he realized that doom was the only thing that would await him if he lingered any longer.

“Where do you think you’re going?”

A faint smile graced the corners of Kai’s mouth, and with swift precision, he swung the Dragonslayer Sword in his hand. In an instant, a brilliant streak of sword light was unleashed, cutting through the man’s body. The powerful strike cleaved him in two, killing him instantly and sealing his fate.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3448

After eliminating the man, Kai turned to Jennifer and asked, “Do you know where your father is? I’ll take you to him now!”

Jennifer was stunned, her mouth hanging open in disbelief as she stared at Kai. It took her a moment to regain her composure before nodding and saying, “I know...”

“Let’s go!” Kai turned and started walking ahead.

Jennifer watched Kai’s retreating figure for a moment before catching up to him. Meanwhile, Catina stood still, her eyes fixed on Kai as he walked away, as if she was completely infatuated.

She was captivated by Kai, suddenly finding him incredibly cool and charming. Despite being only a First Level Tribulator, Kai seemed to excel in everything, possessing an innate mastery that surpassed conventional levels. There was a possibility that his true strength surpassed even Catina, a Seventh Level Tribulator.

Noticing Catina’s awestruck expression, Feenix asked with a faint smile, “Catina, do you think my master is cool?”

Catina nodded. “Yes, indeed. I didn’t expect this guy to be so all-powerful...”

“Let’s go, or they’re going to leave us behind. Look at you swooning over him!” Feenix pulled Catina along, and the two of them hurried to catch up with Kai and Jennifer.

In a forest located fifty kilometers away from Kai and his group, several cultivators were taking a break.

One of the cultivators, who appeared much younger than the others, was kneeling on the ground, weeping uncontrollably. “Dad, I was wrong. I shouldn’t have run off on my own and ended up losing Jennifer. But those cursed Demonic Cultivators relentlessly pursued us. I had initially told Jennifer to run ahead and wait for me. But, I couldn’t find her anywhere.”

The cultivator kneeling on the ground was none other than Jennifer’s brother, Jacques.

Holding a whip and mercilessly lashing at Jacques was none other than the head of the Summers family, Tyler Summers, who was seething with uncontrollable rage.

He cherished his young daughter the most and was deeply frustrated now that she was missing.

“Mr. Summers, our top priority should be to find Ms. Jennifer. Those Demonic Cultivators are extremely vicious. If they were to capture her, the consequences would be unimaginable!” An elderly man with gray-white hair spoke.

“Mr. Freddie, please lead the search. We must find Jennifer no matter what. This treasure trove is protected by an arcane array. Even if others discovered it, they won’t be able to enter. Don’t worry,” said Tyler to the elderly man, Freddie Summers, the Grand Elder of the Summers family.

“I think it’s best if I leave two people behind with you. Breaking through the formation just now took a great toll on you. Besides, you’re injured. If something were to happen, it would be difficult for you to handle it on your own,” said Freddie, concerned.

“That won’t be necessary. Take everyone with you and don’t worry about me. We must find her no matter what!” Tyler’s complexion was pale, and he struggled to catch his breath between words.

Seeing this, Freddie could only nod in silent agreement. Just as he was about to leave with the others to search for Jennifer, he noticed someone approaching from a distance.

“Who is that?” he asked cautiously, moving forward.

“Mr. Freddie, it’s me!” Jennifer ran over with joy when she saw Freddie.

“Ms. Jennifer, you’re back! We were just about to look for you!” exclaimed Freddie happily upon seeing Jennifer.

“Jennifer!” Tyler rushed forward, overjoyed to see his daughter safe and sound.

“Dad!” Jennifer hugged her father, tears welling up in her eyes.

“Jennifer!” Jacques quickly got to his feet, relieved.

If anything were to happen to his younger sister, he knew he would be in serious trouble.

“Kneel down! Who said you could stand?” Tyler thundered, forcing Jacques to kneel back down.

“Dad, don’t blame Jacques. I ran in the wrong direction. Luckily, I ran into a few kind-hearted people. Otherwise, I would’ve been captured by that Demonic Cultivator,” Jennifer explained, still traumatized by the incident.

Tyler cast a wary glance in Kai and his companions’ direction, his eyes betraying a hint of caution.

By now, the other members of the Summers family had subtly adjusted their positions, quietly surrounding Kai and his two companions.

They remained vigilant, unsure of the true intentions harbored by Kai and his gang.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3449

“Fellow cultivators, I am deeply grateful for your assistance in saving my daughter. May I know how to address you?” Tyler asked Kai and his group.

“Mr. Summers, don’t you recognize me?” Catina stepped forward, flashing a faint smile.

Tyler scrutinized Catina carefully as realization dawned upon him. “Fox Queen, it’s you. Thank you for saving my daughter. We didn’t bring anything with us to the Celestial Battlefield this time, but once we get out, I will definitely repay you generously for rescuing my daughter. However, we are currently occupied with some matters, so we won’t be able to entertain you!”

Tyler was indirectly asking Catina and the others to leave.

“Mr. Summers, you seem eager for us to leave. Is there a treasure hidden here, perhaps?” Catina questioned, smiling.

Tyler paused for a moment before smiling. “To be honest, there is indeed a treasure here. However, it’s impossible for us to get in because there’s an arcane array protecting it. See this range of mountains? This entire mountain range is an arcane array, and the highest peak in the middle should be the location of the treasure. I tried breaking the arcane array just now, but I failed and also got injured. So, obtaining this treasure isn’t as easy as it seems.”

Tyler didn’t hesitate to tell them the truth because he was certain that Catina and her group wouldn’t be able to break through this arcane array either, so it would be of no use even though they knew about the treasure’s existence.

“Dad, Mr. Chance here is also a highly skilled charm master, and he’s well-versed in arcane arrays, too. He even effortlessly dismantled the charm of Myriad Ghouls, which that Demonic Cultivator had summoned,” Jennifer told Tyler.

“What? He dismantled Myriad Ghouls?” Tyler furrowed his brows in disbelief, casting a doubtful glance at Kai.

“Ms. Jennifer, stop joking around. You should know that throughout the entire southern region, no one can surpass your father’s skills in charms or arcane arrays. Myriad Ghouls is a formidable charm of the demons. Even Mr. Summers might not be able to break it easily. How can such a young lad like him possibly do it?” said Freddie.

“It’s true. I saw it with my own eyes!” Jennifer was anxious when Freddie didn’t believe her.

“Jennifer, we can’t team up with them regardless of whether he is a charm master or not. However, we’ll certainly repay them for saving you once we’re out of here,” Tyler said.

With that, he turned to Kai and his group clearly intending to send them away. “My friend, I would have to ask you to leave.”

Though dissatisfied, Jennifer couldn’t do anything to change her father’s mind. She could only cast an apologetic glance in Kai’s direction.

“The Celestial Battlefield belongs to everyone and is not separated by region. It shouldn’t concern you if we decide to rest here, right? Besides, there are only three of us. Are you afraid we’ll snatch the treasure from you?” said Kai, wearing a playful expression.

Tyler furrowed his brows in annoyance but could only suppress his fury at the thought of them being Jennifer’s saviors.

“Since you all want to stay here, feel free to do so. But I’m telling you, this massive arcane array is nothing ordinary. You’ll either die or end up severely injured if you wander into it accidentally, warned Tyler.

“Thanks for the reminder, Mr. Summers. We’ll just hang around here,” Kai replied before leading Catina and Feenix to the side, distancing themselves a few kilometers away from the Summers family members.

“Dad, you-” Jennifer looked at her father with dissatisfaction, clearly displeased at how he treated Kai and his group.

“Enough. Stop talking. There are all sorts of people in the Ethereal Realm nowadays. You can’t tell who is good and who is bad!” After reprimanding Jennifer, Tyler turned to Freddie and spoke. “Mr. Freddie, please try probing it again. We have to locate the core of the arcane array and break it.”

Freddie nodded with determination and proceeded cautiously forward. A ripple of elusive array runes began to unfurl before the onlooking crowd. Taking a deep breath, Freddie stepped into the array runes.

Nervous anticipation hung in the air as everyone watched Freddie's silhouette gradually become blurry with bated breath.

Their anxiety was well-founded because not long ago, Tyler did the same and barely escaped, even sustaining injuries in the end.

However, this time was different. Learning from Tyler's experience, Freddie stepped into the array runes calmly and composedly. Hardly any reaction was stirred up within.

He proceeded one step at a time, his actions seemingly random, but in reality, every step was taken after meticulous consideration.

Tyler's eyes finally lit up with excitement when he saw that Freddie had already delved deep into the arcane array.

"It looks like my calculations were accurate. If all goes well, I believe Mr. Freddie will soon be able to locate the core of the arcane array," Tyler exclaimed joyfully.

"Master, look at that arcane array. The array tunes stretch for what seems like a few hundred kilometers. It's so vast. Is it really possible for a single person to break such a massive array?" asked Feenix, intrigued

"If the arcane array's core is located, it'll be easy to break it. However, these people have made a mistake. They won't be able to succeed," Kai spoke in a nonchalant manner.

Upon hearing Kai's words, everyone in the Summers family turned to look at him. Tyler's face darkened as he said, "Young man, do you realize that our ability to advance even a few steps within such a massive array indicates that this area is undoubtedly where the core lies? And yet, you dare to say we are wrong?"

"You are indeed wrong. The person inside will surely get hurt within twenty seconds if you don't get him to come back out right away," Kai declared with utmost certainty.

"Really?" Jennifer exclaimed in surprise.

Kai nodded, yet he did not utter a word. In response, Jennifer hurriedly spoke. "Dad, ask Mr. Freddie to come out. Mr. Chance might be right. I've seen his abilities with my own eyes, I swear!"

Meanwhile, Freddie, who was within the arcane array, also heard Kai's words. Traces of doubt stirred in his heart, causing him to frown in concern.

Tyler chided his daughter angrily when he noticed Freddie's mental state was affected. "Silence! I've tread this path before. Nothing will happen! Mr. Freddie will find the core as long as he soldiers through!"

"Dad, stop having Mr. Freddie risk his life!" Jennifer exclaimed nervously.

"Shut up! If you keep talking, I'll have your brother take you away!" Tyler warned furiously. At that point, Freddie's breathing began to grow heavy. With a wave of his hand, he performed a hand seal, deducing the location of the core.

Tyler watched Freddie anxiously.

Just as Freddie was about to take another step, a sudden burst of dazzling light erupted.

"Oh, no!" Tyler exclaimed in alarm, urging, "Mr. Freddie! Get out of there right now!"

Alas, as soon as Tyler finished shouting, Freddie was sent flying like leaves in the autumn breeze, propelled into the air following a huge noise. He spat out a mouthful of blood in mid-air before falling heavily outside the arcane array.

All the Summers family members were dumbfounded upon witnessing that and hurriedly rushed forward to check on Freddie. Tyler quickly produced a pill and fed it to Freddie.

Freddie ate the pill, waited for the spiritual energy in his body to stabilize, before exhaling. "Mr. Summers, that arcane array is too peculiar. I was certain my deductions were correct, yet I didn't expect to trigger the arcane array's defense system."

Tyler sighed. "Neither you nor I can locate the core. It seems we won't be able to obtain the treasure before us..."

Now that both he and Freddie were injured, no one else could dismantle this arcane array.

"It's all your fault for not listening to Mr. Chance, Dad. If you had listened to him and told Mr. Freddie to come out sooner, he wouldn't have gotten hurt!" Jennifer couldn't help but complain when she saw Freddie injured.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3450

Freddie nodded with determination and proceeded cautiously forward. A ripple of elusive array runes began to unfurl before the onlooking crowd. Taking a deep breath, Freddie stepped into the array runes.

Nervous anticipation hung in the air as everyone watched Freddie's silhouette gradually become blurry with bated breath.

Their anxiety was well-founded because not long ago, Tyler did the same and barely escaped, even sustaining injuries in the end.

However, this time was different. Learning from Tyler's experience, Freddie stepped into the array runes calmly and composedly. Hardly any reaction was stirred up within.

He proceeded one step at a time, his actions seemingly random, but in reality, every step was taken after meticulous consideration.

Tyler's eyes finally lit up with excitement when he saw that Freddie had already delved deep into the arcane array.

"It looks like my calculations were accurate. If all goes well, I believe Mr. Freddie will soon be able to locate the core of the arcane array," Tyler exclaimed joyfully.

"Master, look at that arcane array. The array runes stretch for what seems like a few hundred kilometers. It's so vast. Is it really possible for a single person to break such a massive array?" asked Feenix, intrigued

"If the arcane array's core is located, it'll be easy to break it. However, these people have made a mistake. They won't be able to succeed," Kai spoke in a nonchalant manner.

Upon hearing Kai's words, everyone in the Summers family turned to look at him. Tyler's face darkened as he said, "Young man, do you realize that our ability to advance even a few steps within such a massive array indicates that this area is undoubtedly where the core lies? And yet, you dare to say we are wrong?"

"You are indeed wrong. The person inside will surely get hurt within twenty seconds if you don't get him to come back out right away," Kai declared with utmost certainty.

"Really?" Jennifer exclaimed in surprise.

Kai nodded, yet he did not utter a word. In response, Jennifer hurriedly spoke. "Dad, ask Mr. Freddie to come out. Mr. Chance might be right. I've seen his abilities with my own eyes, I swear!"

Meanwhile, Freddie, who was within the arcane array, also heard Kai's words. Traces of doubt stirred in his heart, causing him to frown in concern.

Tyler chided his daughter angrily when he noticed Freddie's mental state was affected. "Silence! I've tread this path before. Nothing will happen! Mr. Freddie will find the core as long as he soldiers through!"

“Dad, stop having Mr. Freddie risk his life!” Jennifer exclaimed nervously.

“Shut up! If you keep talking, I’ll have your brother take you away!” Tyler warned furiously. At that point, Freddie’s breathing began to grow heavy. With a wave of his hand, he performed a hand seal, deducing the location of the core.

Tyler watched Freddie anxiously.

Just as Freddie was about to take another step, a sudden burst of dazzling light erupted.

“Oh, no!” Tyler exclaimed in alarm, urging, “Mr. Freddie! Get out of there right now!”

Alas, as soon as Tyler finished shouting, Freddie was sent flying like leaves in the autumn breeze, propelled into the air following a huge noise. He spat out a mouthful of blood in mid-air before falling heavily outside the arcane array.

All the Summers family members were dumbfounded upon witnessing that and hurriedly rushed forward to check on Freddie. Tyler quickly produced a pill and fed it to Freddie.

Freddie ate the pill, waited for the spiritual energy in his body to stabilize, before exhaling. “Mr. Summers, that arcane array is too peculiar. I was certain my deductions were correct, yet I didn’t expect to trigger the arcane array’s defense system.”

Tyler sighed. “Neither you nor I can locate the core. It seems we won’t be able to obtain the treasure before us...”

Now that both he and Freddie were injured, no one else could dismantle this arcane array.

“It’s all your fault for not listening to Mr. Chance, Dad. If you had listened to him and told Mr. Freddie to come out sooner, he wouldn’t have gotten hurt!” Jennifer couldn’t help but complain when she saw Freddie injured.

