

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3451

“Jennifer, please refrain from speaking nonsense. Father is already distressed enough.” Jacques quickly gave his sister a stern look, signaling for her to watch her words.

“She’s right. If I had listened earlier, Mr. Freddie wouldn’t have gotten hurt.” Tyler stood up and shifted his gaze towards Kai.

He had always been wary of Kai and his gang, fearing that they would seize the treasure he had discovered.

However, even though the Summers family were the first to discover this treasure, they simply did not have the ability to obtain it.

“Mr. Summers, Mr. Chance has the ability to discern the arcane array from outside, and that proves he truly possesses genuine skills,” Freddie stated.

The art of forming arcane arrays was ever- changing and unpredictable. It was nearly impossible to anticipate what might happen next unless one personally set up the arcane array or stepped foot in it.

However, Kai was able to predict that Freddie would get injured by observing the arcane array from outside. This proved Kai’s understanding of arcane arrays to be superior to theirs.

Tyler nodded. At this point, he had no choice but to admit that Kai indeed had some real skills.

“My friend, I wonder if you would join us in breaking the arcane array. We are willing to share a portion of the treasure we find,” Tyler humbly asked, setting aside his pride.

“Why should I join forces with you when I can break it myself? Why should I let you guys be a part of it? You want me to share the treasure with you, huh?” Kai asked with a faint smile.

His words left Tyler speechless.

The other members of the Summers family also looked at Kai in disbelief.

“Hey, you brat, don’t you think you’re being too arrogant? You dare to claim that you can break this arcane array yourself when both my father and Mr. Freddie failed to find the core?” Jacques said disdainfully, thinking Kai was just boasting.

Freddie furrowed his brows and struggled to his feet. “My friend, even though your understanding of arcane arrays might be deeper than ours, it is nearly impossible for you to dismantle such a grand arcane array all by yourself. Even if you located the core, you would need help to destroy it. Every member of our family is proficient in the art of arcane arrays, so collaborating with us is the best decision you can make.”

Freddie also didn't believe that Kai could break the arcane array alone.

"That's because you're incompetent. Don't judge others based on your own standards. Just because you can't do it, doesn't mean others can't," Kai sneered.

"Who are you calling incompetent? The Summers family is a prominent family throughout the entire southern region. We are at the top in the field of both arcane arrays and charms!" Jacques bellowed, seething with rage.

Kai remained calm in the face of the furious Jacques. He smiled. "The overall level in terms of arcane array and charm skills is extremely low in the entire Ethereal Realm, not to mention the southern region.

"In the Ethereal Realm, where combat skills are revered and magecraft is disdained, everyone aspires to become immortals, scoffing at the idea of arcane arrays and charms, leading to an extremely low level of proficiency in these arts." Kai's words left everyone in the Summers family stunned. They then fell into complete silence.

What Kai said was the truth. The Ethereal Realm used to produce plenty of talented individuals, but later on, the status of cultivators who specialized in arcane arrays and charms became lower, and their progress in cultivation slowed down, causing them to be looked down upon by others.

Not just experts in arcane arrays and charms, even alchemists were positioned at the bottom of the social ladder. As a result, many cultivators in the Ethereal Realm began to abandon the practice of alchemy as well as arcane arrays and charms, focusing all their energy on increasing their cultivation level.

Over the course of several millennia, the number of cultivators proficient in the art of arcane arrays and charms gradually dwindled, as well as alchemists. Following the decline of these cultivators, their importance slowly became more pronounced.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3452

Although the overall cultivation level of alchemists was currently low, their social status was high, and they were greatly respected by people.

As for cultivators of charms and arcane arrays, they were needed for their skill in creating charms. Even something as common as the simplest communication device required the skills of a charm master to forge.

However, both the art of alchemy and charm spells had experienced a decline, to the extent that the current charm masters in the Ethereal Realm could no longer create truly advanced charms.

What they considered advanced charms were nothing more than meaningless scribbles to Kai.

“My friend, even if you can break through the arcane array yourself, it might not be easy for you to obtain the treasure within. Such treasures are surely guarded by demon beasts. If you join forces with us, we can lend you a hand, too,” said Tyler, his tone pleading.

At that point, Tyler chose to trust Kai regardless of whether what he said was true or not. After all, he had no other choice.

“Mr. Chance, consider it as doing a favor for the Summers family. Feel free to state any conditions you might have,” Jennifer chimed in as well.

“Yes, you can state any conditions,” Tyler hastily agreed.

“I don’t have a problem with that, but you need to prove that you can indeed break this arcane array. Otherwise, on what grounds are you stating conditions?” Jacques still refused to believe that Kai was capable of dismantling that arcane array.

“Shut up, you jerk!” Tyler shot daggers at his son.

Jacques fell silent, but his gaze showed apparent defiance and displeasure. Kai had never showcased his skills. All he did was give a few pointers.

“Mr. Chance, please don’t take it to heart. My brother may come off as arrogant, but he truly has a good heart,” Jennifer quickly apologized.

“No problem, since you need me to prove my skills, then I’ll show you!”

After Kai finished speaking, he headed straight toward the arcane array.

Everyone present watched as Kai stepped into the arcane array. The array runes rippled as if Kai was immersed in water.

The onlookers’ expressions changed when they saw Kai enter the arcane array. They paid close attention, watching nervously.

Catina, too, appeared nervous, wondering if Kai would succeed in breaking such a massive arcane array on his own.

“Don’t worry. My master is all-powerful. You’ll see once you’ve been with us long enough,” Feenix consoled Catina.

Catina gave a slight nod, but her eyes remained firmly fixed on Kai’s retreating figure.

After stepping into the arcane array, Kai casually looked around as if he were browsing through items in a supermarket, then continued to walk forward.

All the Summers family members were dumbstruck when they noticed that the arcane array hadn't launched any attacks on Kai even after he was deep into it.

As Kai stepped into the arcane array, another group of people were also gazing up at the towering mountain peak on the other side of the mountain, fifty kilometers away.

The entire group was dressed in the same attire as the three Demonic Cultivators that Kai had slain, clearly indicating that they were from the same sect.

“Sect leader, we haven't found Denis and the other two members, and we can't get in touch with them. We're unsure if they've encountered any mishaps.” An elderly man with a goatee spoke to a middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man had a tattoo of an eye on his forehead, which bore a striking resemblance to Pablo's Nethersky Eye.

“That's unlikely. Denis has the charm of Myriad Ghouls in his possession, something that an average cultivator can't withstand. I suggest we break the arcane array first. There must be numerous treasures within this mountain...”

The middle-aged man gazed up at the mountain peak, his eyes filled with greed.

“This formation is too massive. I'm afraid our small group might not be able to break through it,” said the elderly man, clearly troubled.

“Mr. Solomon, when have you become so timid? There's no formation in this world that we, the Nethersky Sect, can't break! Don't forget that we still have the Nethersky Eye, which can see through everything.” The middle-aged man spoke with a cold, determined expression.

“You're not worthy of owning the Nethersky Eye!”

No sooner had the middle-aged man's words fallen than a figure astonishingly tore through the void, materializing right in front of him.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3453

“Who are you?”

Upon witnessing the sudden appearance of a stranger, the members of Nethersky Sect were immediately taken aback.

“Pablo...” The newcomer began to speak slowly.

“Pablo?” The middle-aged man furrowed his eyebrows slightly, then glanced at Pablo and said, “I’ve never heard of you. Since you’re also a Demonic Cultivator, leave immediately. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being rude.”

“Do you think you’re capable?”

Pablo smirked as the aura of his Eighth Level Tribulator cultivation level burst forth from his body in an instant.

The members of Nethersky Sect were instantly overwhelmed by the oppressive aura, struggling to catch their breath. Some even collapsed onto the ground.

Feeling Pablo’s aura, the middle-aged man widened his eyes in sheer terror.

“I apologize, I apologize, I failed to recognize your greatness...” The middle-aged man hurriedly apologized to Pablo.

Pablo reined in his aura. It seemed that he didn’t intend to take their lives after all.

“Who are you?” Pablo asked.

“We are from Nethersky Sect. I am the sect leader, Magnus Orozco,” Magnus responded cautiously.

Pablo looked at Magnus, scoffed coldly, and said, “Nethersky Sect? Can you also use the Nethersky Eye?”

Magnus’ face revealed his embarrassment, then he shook his head. “I can’t. I’ve only heard of the Nethersky Eye and admired it. That’s why I tattooed an eye on my forehead.”

Upon hearing Magnus’ words, the other members of Nethersky Sect were taken aback.

It seemed that they had all been deceived by Magnus, which led them to join Nethersky Sect.

Seeing Magnus’ demeanor, Pablo couldn’t help but let out a cold chuckle. Then, with a gentle sweep of his hand across his forehead, an eye appeared in an instant.

As his third eye blinked, the surroundings instantly turned dark red. A chilling scent of blood began to pervade the air.

Observing Pablo’s demeanor, Magnus suddenly fell to his knees.

Members of Nethersky Sect also began to kneel down one after another.

Those people had always held the Nethersky Eye in high reverence. Seeing that Pablo indeed possessed the Nethersky Eye, they were all utterly astounded.

“Demon Lord, it is an immense honor for us to witness the true Nethersky Eye. We are willing to follow you, Demon Lord,” said Magnus.

“We are willing to follow the Demon Lord...” The members of Nethersky Sect all shouted in unison. Pablo put away his Nethersky Eye. Looking at the crowd kneeling before him, he gave a faint smile.

“Rise, all of you. As long as you sincerely follow me, I will ensure that each of you attains the Nethersky Eye.” Pablo began to deceive those people.

Pablo knew that despite his formidable strength, he was, after all, a wandering cultivator and had no faction of his own.

Since he had encountered Nethersky Sect, they could be considered the first group of subordinates he had recruited.

Upon hearing the grand plans outlined by Pablo, Magnus trembled with excitement. “Master, from now on, you are the leader of our Nethersky Sect. We will certainly follow your commands...”

Without the slightest hesitation, Magnus handed over his position as the sect leader to Pablo.

Rather than coveting the position of a sect leader, Magnus was more inclined to master the Nethersky Eye.

“Everyone, rise...” With a wave of his hand, Pablo signaled, and Magnus and the others all stood up.

“What were you all doing here?” Pablo asked.

“Master, there is definitely a treasure hidden within the mountain range ahead,” said Magnus.

“Oh, how did you know?” Pablo asked curiously, wondering how Magnus knew there would be a treasure there.

“Master, please observe. This continuous mountain range is an arcane array. Right before our eyes lies an incredibly vast array, protecting the central peak. Surely, something protected by such an immense arcane array must be a treasure...” Magnus followed up with an introduction to Pablo.

“You understand arcane arrays?” Pablo looked at Magnus with surprise.

Seeing Magnus draw an eye on his forehead and claim that he possessed the Nethersky Eye technique, one would think he was a fraud. Surprisingly, he understood arcane arrays.

“I have a fair understanding,” Magnus admitted. “Not only am I knowledgeable about arcane arrays, but I also understand charm spells. Otherwise, my fake Nethersky Eye wouldn’t have fooled anyone.”

Magnus said with considerable embarrassment.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3454

It turned out that every time Magnus used the Nethersky Eye, he was actually utilizing a secretly laid-out arcane array. Those who didn’t understand mistakenly attributed it to the power of the Nethersky Eye.

“Then let’s hurry up and break this arcane array. Let’s see what treasure it is that requires such a massive arcane array for protection,” Pablo exclaimed excitedly.

“Master, please be patient. Such a vast arcane array requires us to locate the core. However, I will do my utmost to accomplish this,” Magnus assured.

After Magnus finished speaking, he turned to the elderly man with the goatee, Robyn, and said, “Mr. Solomon, let’s go in together. We must break this arcane array.”

“Yes, Master,” Robyn nodded.

Startled, Magnus hastily reprimanded Robyn. “You fool. He’s our master, not me.”

Leaving aside Pablo’s formidable strength, the fact that he truly possessed the Nethersky Eye alone was enough for Magnus to follow him devotedly and mix with Pablo’s crowd.

“I... I’m sorry, I made a mistake,” Robyn hastily apologized.

“All right, don’t dwell on these matters. Magnus, you’ll be the vice sect leader, continue managing the Nethersky Sect. Hurry up and break through this arcane array. I suspect the Celestial Battlefield won’t stay open for much longer,” Pablo urged.

“As you command,” Magnus personally led Robyn and others, slowly stepping into the arcane array.

Meanwhile, on the other side, Kai was in the midst of the arcane array, searching for the core. Kai moved as if he were casually strolling down the street, not triggering the arcane array’s defenses at all.

Seeing Kai in that state, everyone in the Summers family had no choice but to concede. No one dared to doubt Kai’s strength anymore.

Even Jacques was wide-eyed, utterly admiring Kai. After searching for a while, Kai suddenly pressed his palm lightly into the void. As a beam of light illuminated the scene, everyone became visibly tense.

They had assumed that Kai, like everyone else, had been sent flying due to the defensive arcane array.

Just as everyone was on edge, they saw that following the streak of light, the array in front of them suddenly began to tremble violently. It was as if a stone had been suddenly thrown into a tranquil river.

Amidst the intense trembling, the array patterns gradually faded, until finally, the arcane array that was before their eyes astonishingly vanished.

Tyler gasped in astonishment, his heart filled with shock. The hearts of the Summers family members were filled with indescribable complexity.

Freddie continuously expressed his admiration. “Unbelievable. This... This is nothing short of a miracle. To find and break the core of such a massive array in such a short time.”

“This was indeed an arcane array laid out by the immortals...” Freddie struggled to find words to express his feelings at that moment.

Kai slowly approached Jacques, his expression indifferent as he asked, “May I state my conditions now?”

With a face full of shame, Jacques lowered his head, not daring to speak. Meanwhile, Tyler approached Kai. “Mr. Chance, my rebellious son acted out of ignorance. I implore you not to take his words to heart. The sophistication of your array craft is something I’ve never seen before. Mr. Chance, feel free to state your conditions. As long as it’s within the capabilities of the Summers family, we will absolutely not refuse.”

“All right, once we find the treasure, I must be the first to choose. Only the items I deem useless will be given to you,” Kai said without any hesitation.

Kai was not known for his generosity as he broke through this arcane array for his own sake. However, since the Summers family decided to follow, they had to abide by the conditions he proposed.

“No problem, I agree. If Mr. Chance finds the treasure useful, my family will not take it,” Tyler said with great enthusiasm.

Kai was somewhat taken aback by the unexpectedly hearty agreement from the illustrious Tyler. He had originally speculated that Tyler would haggle.

Tyler had agreed, leaving Kai with nothing more to say. “Since you all agreed, let’s go then.”

Hence, the group headed toward the mountain peak.

Simultaneously, Magnus led his group into the arcane array. Just as a few people were about to be flung away by the activated defense, the arcane array suddenly disappeared. Magnus felt extremely puzzled, but he still managed to take credit for himself.

“Master, the arcane array has been broken. We can enter now,” Magnus exclaimed.

Upon seeing Magnus’s skills, Pablo nodded in approval and began to head toward the mountain peak as well.

The mountain peak was surrounded by celestial mist. Both the trees and the demon beasts seemed to have gained spirituality.

Kai walked ahead with extreme caution, unsure if there were any more arcane arrays surrounding the mountain peak.

“Mr. Summers, we’ve struggled to get in here. Wouldn’t it be a great loss if we didn’t take even a single piece of treasure?” On the road, Freddie asked Tyler with confusion.

Tyler glanced at Freddie and said, “You’re being short-sighted. If we don’t take the treasure, it could leave Mr. Chance feeling indebted to us. Moreover, given Mr. Chance’s understanding of arcane arrays, even casual instruction from him would greatly benefit our family. Wouldn’t that be better than any treasure? Moreover, with how dignified Mr. Chance is... If he could be united in marriage with my daughter, I fear that in the entire Ethereal Realm, in terms of arcane arrays, talisman, and spell techniques, my Summers family would be unparalleled...”

It turned out that Tyler had intended to arrange a marriage between his daughter and Kai. That was why he had taken the initiative to propose giving up his share of the treasure, offering it all to Kai.

Freddie said, “Mr. Summers, it seems Mr. Chance already has women by his side. The way those two women look at him, they’re clearly infatuated with him. You’re asking Ms. Summers to...”

Before Freddie could finish speaking, Tyler interrupted with a laugh, “Isn’t it quite normal for a man to have multiple wives and concubines? Moreover, considering Mr. Chance’s capabilities, as long as he doesn’t mind, she wouldn’t mind even being his third or fourth concubine.”

Upon hearing that, Freddie didn’t say anything more. He could only look at Jennifer, who was still completely unaware.

Unbeknownst to Tyler, Kai’s women were not limited to just the two present.

If Jennifer really ended up with Kai, the idea of her being the third or fourth wife would be out of the question. She would probably be relegated to being the tenth wife or even lower.

However, whether Kai would agree or not was uncertain. After all, not every woman was to Kai's liking.

As Kai and his companions traversed through the dense forest, heading toward the highest mountain peak, they suddenly heard a scream of terror.

Immediately after, the members of the Summers family began to scream in increasing horror.

The members of the Summers family were seen with wide eyes in terror, frantically slapping their bodies, and even rolling on the ground.

Upon witnessing that scene, both Tyler and Freddie were utterly dumbfounded.

Upon hearing the sound, Kai quickly turned around and ran back.

"Mr. Chance, what do you make of this situation?" Tyler asked anxiously, his face full of concern.

After a glance, Kai immediately concluded, "These people have fallen into an illusion..."

After speaking, Kai recited the calming Incantation, then proceeded to channel streams of aura into the bodies of the members of the Summers family.

Before long, those individuals ceased their agonizing screams. They then rose to their feet, their faces filled with bewilderment, their eyes brimming with confusion.

"What was going on with all of you?" Tyler asked with a furrowed brow.

A member of the Summers family said, "Master, just a while ago, I felt an unbearable itch all over my body, as if I was covered in venomous insects. Moreover, it felt as though I was surrounded by a raging inferno. The heat was intense."

"Indeed, that's how it was for us too..." The others also nodded in agreement, voicing their approval one after another.

"It's truly peculiar. If it were an illusion array, we should all be deeply trapped within it. Why is it that some people are unaffected, while others are affected? Moreover, I didn't sense the presence of any arcane array in the vicinity, so it couldn't possibly be an illusion array." Freddie felt extremely puzzled,

"There was no illusionary array here, and they were not deceived by any illusionary array either. After Kai finished speaking, he walked toward a member of the Summers family.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3455

Simultaneously, Magnus led his group into the arcane array. Just as a few people were about to be flung away by the activated defense, the arcane array suddenly disappeared. Magnus felt extremely puzzled, but he still managed to take credit for himself.

“Master, the arcane array has been broken. We can enter now,” Magnus exclaimed.

Upon seeing Magnus’s skills, Pablo nodded in approval and began to head toward the mountain peak as well.

The mountain peak was surrounded by celestial mist. Both the trees and the demon beasts seemed to have gained spirituality.

Kai walked ahead with extreme caution, unsure if there were any more arcane arrays surrounding the mountain peak.

“Mr. Summers, we’ve struggled to get in here. Wouldn’t it be a great loss if we didn’t take even a single piece of treasure?” On the road, Freddie asked Tyler with confusion.

Tyler glanced at Freddie and said, “You’re being short-sighted. If we don’t take the treasure, it could leave Mr. Chance feeling indebted to us. Moreover, given Mr. Chance’s understanding of arcane arrays, even casual instruction from him would greatly benefit our family. Wouldn’t that be better than any treasure? Moreover, with how dignified Mr. Chance is... If he could be united in marriage with my daughter, I fear that in the entire Ethereal Realm, in terms of arcane arrays, talisman, and spell techniques, my Summers family would be unparalleled...”

It turned out that Tyler had intended to arrange a marriage between his daughter and Kai. That was why he had taken the initiative to propose giving up his share of the treasure, offering it all to Kai.

Freddie said, “Mr. Summers, it seems Mr. Chance already has women by his side. The way those two women look at him, they’re clearly infatuated with him. You’re asking Ms. Summers to...”

Before Freddie could finish speaking, Tyler interrupted with a laugh, “Isn’t it quite normal for a man to have multiple wives and concubines? Moreover, considering Mr. Chance’s capabilities, as long as he doesn’t mind, she wouldn’t mind even being his third or fourth concubine.”

Upon hearing that, Freddie didn’t say anything more. He could only look at Jennifer, who was still completely unaware.

Unbeknownst to Tyler, Kai’s women were not limited to just the two present.

If Jennifer really ended up with Kai, the idea of her being the third or fourth wife would be out of the question. She would probably be relegated to being the tenth wife or even lower.

However, whether Kai would agree or not was uncertain. After all, not every woman was to Kai's liking.

As Kai and his companions traversed through the dense forest, heading toward the highest mountain peak, they suddenly heard a scream of terror.

Immediately after, the members of the Summers family began to scream in increasing horror.

The members of the Summers family were seen with wide eyes in terror, frantically slapping their bodies, and even rolling on the ground.

Upon witnessing that scene, both Tyler and Freddie were utterly dumbfounded.

Upon hearing the sound, Kai quickly turned around and ran back.

"Mr. Chance, what do you make of this situation?" Tyler asked anxiously, his face full of concern.

After a glance, Kai immediately concluded, "These people have fallen into an illusion..."

After speaking, Kai recited the calming Incantation, then proceeded to channel streams of aura into the bodies of the members of the Summers family.

Before long, those individuals ceased their agonizing screams. They then rose to their feet, their faces filled with bewilderment, their eyes brimming with confusion.

"What was going on with all of you?" Tyler asked with a furrowed brow.

A member of the Summers family said, "Master, just a while ago, I felt an unbearable itch all over my body, as if I was covered in venomous insects. Moreover, it felt as though I was surrounded by a raging inferno. The heat was intense."

"Indeed, that's how it was for us too..." The others also nodded in agreement, voicing their approval one after another.

"It's truly peculiar. If it were an illusion array, we should all be deeply trapped within it. Why is it that some people are unaffected, while others are affected? Moreover, I didn't sense the presence of any arcane array in the vicinity, so it couldn't possibly be an illusion array." Freddie felt extremely puzzled,

"There was no illusionary array here, and they were not deceived by any illusionary array either. After Kai finished speaking, he walked toward a member of the Summers family.

Kai pulled back the collar of the Summers family member, revealing a small black dot on the nape of their neck. It was almost impossible to spot unless one looked closely.

With a gentle suction from Kai 's palm, a thin
poison sting flew out from the black spot.

“They were fatally poisoned by the sting, which caused hallucinations. It wasn't due to any illusion array. Now, you can extract the poison stings from their bodies,” Kai said to Tyler.

Tyler looked at the thin poison sting in Kai 's hand, his eyes filled with astonishment.

Despite its small size, Kai was able to discover it.

Quickly, Tyler and Freddie managed to extract all the poison stings from the bodies of the Summers family members.

At that moment, everyone held Kai in high regard.

“Stay close behind me. Don't wander off,” he warned. “The plants and animals here have mutated due to the presence of celestial energy, making them difficult to deal with.” Kai reminded everyone.

“Everyone, follow Mr. Chance's instructions. No one is allowed to move around in disarray, Tyler roared at the Summers family.

Under Kai 's guidance, everyone arrived at the foot of the mountain.

From a distance, one could see the mountain peaks, but as they approached, they shockingly disappeared from sight.

“Mr. Chance, there must be an arcane array here. Could it be an illusion? How can such a tall mountain peak suddenly disappear?” Tyler asked in confusion.

“Mr. Summers, it probably wasn't as simple as a mere illusion. I suspect it was some sort of illusionary arcane array...” Freddie retorted.

Both of them turned to Kai , waiting for him to speak.

Throughout the journey, if it hadn't been for Kai , even if they had broken through that large arcane array, their losses might have been great.

“This isn't an illusion, nor is it a magic arcane array. The reason we can't see the mountain peak is because we have already ventured into the heart of the mountain.” After Kai finished speaking, he waved his hand.

Suddenly, a whirlwind arose from the place shrouded in celestial mist in front of him.

The celestial mist was instantly dispersed, and to everyone's surprise, they found themselves already halfway up the mountain peak.

What surprised them even more was that halfway up the mountain, there appeared a vast expanse of gentle terrain. Astonishingly, there were several structures there that clearly did not belong to the Ethereal Realm. Despite their ancient age, these buildings still exuded a majestic grandeur.

Above those structures, rainbow celestial clouds drifted, with unending celestial energy swirling around.

“How... How could there be buildings here? Could it be that after the Celestial Battle, there were still people living here?”

“Could this really be a genuine immortal sect?”

“Although the building appeared old and was not particularly large, it nonetheless exuded an aura of ethereal grandeur.”

Everyone in the Summers family stared at the building that had suddenly appeared before them, feeling utterly astonished.

Tyler and Freddie were both taken aback, their eyes filled with disbelief.

Kai, too, was struck by the incredulity of the situation. He didn't expect a sect to appear in the midst of the Celestial Battlefield.

If those buildings didn't represent a sect, then what would be the purpose of constructing them?

“Mr. Chance, what should we do? Should we continue up the mountain, or should we first explore these buildings?” Tyler asked Kai.

“We should investigate the situation. If there are no treasures within these buildings, we won't need to linger. We should leave immediately. However, everyone must be careful. The sudden appearance of a building in such a place is not a good sign. Beware of traps and arcane arrays,” Kai cautioned Tyler.

Kai didn't suggest going to explore himself because he was afraid that Tyler would overthink it.

Even though Tyler had said he would give all the treasure to Kai, it was impossible for Kai to keep it all. That would be completely unjustifiable.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3456

Kai pulled back the collar of the Summers family member, revealing a small black dot on the nape of their neck. It was almost impossible to spot unless one looked closely.

With a gentle suction from Kai 's palm, a thin

poison sting flew out from the black spot.

“They were fatally poisoned by the sting, which caused hallucinations. It wasn't due to any illusion array. Now, you can extract the poison stings from their bodies,” Kai said to Tyler.

Tyler looked at the thin poison sting in Kai 's hand, his eyes filled with astonishment.

Despite its small size, Kai was able to discover it.

Quickly, Tyler and Freddie managed to extract all the poison stings from the bodies of the Summers family members.

At that moment, everyone held Kai in high regard.

“Stay close behind me. Don't wander off,” he warned. “The plants and animals here have mutated due to the presence of celestial energy, making them difficult to deal with.” Kai reminded everyone.

“Everyone, follow Mr. Chance's instructions. No one is allowed to move around in disarray,” Tyler roared at the Summers family.

Under Kai 's guidance, everyone arrived at the foot of the mountain.

From a distance, one could see the mountain peaks, but as they approached, they shockingly disappeared from sight.

“Mr. Chance, there must be an arcane array here. Could it be an illusion? How can such a tall mountain peak suddenly disappear?” Tyler asked in confusion.

“Mr. Summers, it probably wasn't as simple as a mere illusion. I suspect it was some sort of illusionary arcane array...” Freddie retorted.

Both of them turned to Kai , waiting for him to speak.

Throughout the journey, if it hadn't been for Kai , even if they had broken through that large arcane array, their losses might have been great.

“This isn't an illusion, nor is it a magic arcane array. The reason we can't see the mountain peak is because we have already ventured into the heart of the mountain.” After Kai finished speaking, he waved his hand.

Suddenly, a whirlwind arose from the place shrouded in celestial mist in front of him.

The celestial mist was instantly dispersed, and to everyone's surprise, they found themselves already halfway up the mountain peak.

What surprised them even more was that halfway up the mountain, there appeared a vast expanse of gentle terrain. Astonishingly, there were several structures there that clearly did not belong to the Ethereal Realm. Despite their ancient age, these buildings still exuded a majestic grandeur.

Above those structures, rainbow celestial clouds drifted, with unending celestial energy swirling around.

"How... How could there be buildings here? Could it be that after the Celestial Battle, there were still people living here?"

"Could this really be a genuine immortal sect?"

"Although the building appeared old and was not particularly large, it nonetheless exuded an aura of ethereal grandeur."

Everyone in the Summers family stared at the building that had suddenly appeared before them, feeling utterly astonished.

Tyler and Freddie were both taken aback, their eyes filled with disbelief.

Kai, too, was struck by the incredulity of the situation. He didn't expect a sect to appear in the midst of the Celestial Battlefield.

If those buildings didn't represent a sect, then what would be the purpose of constructing them?

"Mr. Chance, what should we do? Should we continue up the mountain, or should we first explore these buildings?" Tyler asked Kai.

"We should investigate the situation. If there are no treasures within these buildings, we won't need to linger. We should leave immediately. However, everyone must be careful. The sudden appearance of a building in such a place is not a good sign. Beware of traps and arcane arrays," Kai cautioned Tyler.

Kai didn't suggest going to explore himself because he was afraid that Tyler would overthink it.

Even though Tyler had said he would give all the treasure to Kai, it was impossible for Kai to keep it all. That would be completely unjustifiable.

"Alright, I'll lead our family with Mr. Freddie," Tyler nodded, then turned to Jennifer and Jacques, instructing, "You two stay put and don't wander off. Make sure to wait for us to come out."

Tyler didn't allow Jennifer and Jacques to accompany them, fearing that there might be danger within the building.

"Master, we will accompany you..." Feenix spoke up.

She wanted to accompany Catina and follow Kai into the building. In case of any danger, they would be there to help.

"No need. You all stay outside. If there's any real danger, we can cooperate," Kai spoke to Feenix.

Seeing that Kai wouldn't allow her to follow him, Feenix could only nod in agreement.

Kai chose a building and walked right in, while Tyler and Robyn led the others to search through a different building.

Everyone's hearts were filled with a mix of anxiety and excitement. They feared the presence of traps or arcane arrays, yet the thrill of possibly finding treasure kept them going.

After Kai entered a building, waves of celestial energy fluctuated, causing the very void to tremble.

Immediately after, Kai's eyes lit up. Before him was a vast expanse of various mystical herbs and a multitude of flowers in full bloom, all growing incredibly lush.

"Indeed, there was an arcane array within this building. I really can't fathom what these immortals were thinking. It's as redundant as taking off one's pants to fart," Kai was somewhat at a loss for words, not understanding why the immortals had set up such a large array, and even an array within an array. "What on earth was it all for?"

Just as Kai was puzzled, he suddenly felt a strange movement. Following that, the spirit beast egg astonishingly made its way out on its own.

The spirit beast egg was the only item that Kai didn't have to manage. It could emerge on its own from the storage ring.

The spirit beast egg was pulsating, emitting a faint glow as it continuously absorbed the celestial energy.

Faiyar spoke to Kai in the latter's mind. "Mr. Chance, why not cultivate once more amidst this dense celestial energy? Otherwise, all this energy will go to waste..."

"Indeed, this place is far superior to that celestial ore mine..." Kai gazed at the boundless field of mystical herbs, filled with profound emotion.

Feeling the abundant celestial energy, Kai couldn't help but sit cross-legged, beginning to absorb it fervently.

The spirit beast egg was also absorbing the celestial energy on its own.

While Kai was practicing, Feenix and the others outside surprisingly discovered that after Kai and his group entered those buildings, the buildings mysteriously disappeared.

"Master. Master..." Startled, Feenix hastily called out, but her voice echoed empty with no response at all.

"Could these buildings all be traps?" Catina anxiously wondered. They didn't understand arcane arrays, nor did they know whether those structures were traps.

Catina turned to Jennifer and asked, "Ms. Summers, are there also arcane arrays within these buildings?"

At that moment, Jennifer was also completely baffled, shaking her head and saying, "I have no idea either. I didn't notice any arcane array at all."

"I also didn't realize. What on earth is going on?" Jacques also turned pale.

He hastily ran around the flat terrain, but there were simply no buildings in sight.

It was as if those buildings had never existed.

Just as Feenix and her group were growing anxious, a team of people was rapidly approaching their direction.

These were indeed the people from Nethersky Sect, led by Pablo.

Throughout the journey, Nethersky Sect had lost several cultivators.

After all, the plants and animals there were nourished by celestial energy, making them quite formidable.

If it hadn't been for Pablo accompanying them, the losses of Nethersky Sect would have been even greater.

"Master, I truly didn't anticipate the danger here. If it weren't for you, I fear many of us would have perished," Magnus spoke with fear in his heart.

"The greater the risk, the greater the return. The more perilous it is, the more it signifies that the treasures here must be incredibly valuable, Pablo gave a faint smile.

At that point, he had already developed a deep longing for the treasures within those mountain peaks.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3457

“Alright, I’ll lead our family with Mr. Freddie,” Tyler nodded, then turned to Jennifer and Jacques, instructing, “You two stay put and don’t wander off. Make sure to wait for us to come out.”

Tyler didn’t allow Jennifer and Jacques to accompany them, fearing that there might be danger within the building.

“Master, we will accompany you...” Feenix spoke up.

She wanted to accompany Catina and follow Kai into the building. In case of any danger, they would be there to help.

“No need. You all stay outside. If there’s any real danger, we can cooperate,” Kai spoke to Feenix.

Seeing that Kai wouldn’t allow her to follow him, Feenix could only nod in agreement.

Kai chose a building and walked right in, while Tyler and Robyn led the others to search through a different building.

Everyone’s hearts were filled with a mix of anxiety and excitement. They feared the presence of traps or arcane arrays, yet the thrill of possibly finding treasure kept them going.

After Kai entered a building, waves of celestial energy fluctuated, causing the very void to tremble.

Immediately after, Kai’s eyes lit up. Before him was a vast expanse of various mystical herbs and a multitude of flowers in full bloom, all growing incredibly lush.

“Indeed, there was an arcane array within this building. I really can’t fathom what these immortals were thinking. It’s as redundant as taking off one’s pants to fart,” Kai was somewhat at a loss for words, not understanding why the immortals had set up such a large array, and even an array within an array. “What on earth was it all for?”

Just as Kai was puzzled, he suddenly felt a strange movement. Following that, the spirit beast egg astonishingly made its way out on its own.

The spirit beast egg was the only item that Kai didn't have to manage. It could emerge on its own from the storage ring.

The spirit beast egg was pulsating, emitting a faint glow as it continuously absorbed the celestial energy.

Faiyar spoke to Kai in the latter's mind. "Mr. Chance, why not cultivate once more amidst this dense celestial energy? Otherwise, all this energy will go to waste..."

"Indeed, this place is far superior to that celestial ore mine..." Kai gazed at the boundless field of mystical herbs, filled with profound emotion.

Feeling the abundant celestial energy, Kai couldn't help but sit cross-legged, beginning to absorb it fervently.

The spirit beast egg was also absorbing the celestial energy on its own.

While Kai was practicing, Feenix and the others outside surprisingly discovered that after Kai and his group entered those buildings, the buildings mysteriously disappeared.

"Master. Master..." Startled, Feenix hastily called out, but her voice echoed emptily with no response at all.

"Could these buildings all be traps?" Catina anxiously wondered. They didn't understand arcane arrays, nor did they know whether those structures were traps.

Catina turned to Jennifer and asked, "Ms. Summers, are there also arcane arrays within these buildings?"

At that moment, Jennifer was also completely baffled, shaking her head and saying, "I have no idea either. I didn't notice any arcane array at all."

"I also didn't realize. What on earth is going on?" Jacques also turned pale.

He hastily ran around the flat terrain, but there were simply no buildings in sight.

It was as if those buildings had never existed.

Just as Feenix and her group were growing anxious, a team of people was rapidly approaching their direction.

These were indeed the people from Nethersky Sect, led by Pablo.

Throughout the journey, Nethersky Sect had lost several cultivators.

After all, the plants and animals there were nourished by celestial energy, making them quite formidable.

If it hadn't been for Pablo accompanying them, the losses of Nethersky Sect would have been even greater.

"Master, I truly didn't anticipate the danger here. If it weren't for you, I fear many of us would have perished," Magnus spoke with fear in his heart.

"The greater the risk, the greater the return. The more perilous it is, the more it signifies that the treasures here must be incredibly valuable, Pablo gave a faint smile.

At that point, he had already developed a deep longing for the treasures within those mountain peaks.

Pablo and the others quickly reached the middle of the mountain peak. Feenix and her companions anxiously waited for Kai and his group, completely unaware of their surroundings.

It wasn't until Pablo and the others were almost upon them that Feenix and her group sensed their arrival. Feenix was utterly stunned when she laid eyes on Pablo.

Pablo was also taken aback when he saw Feenix. He had given Feenix a poison pill, yet she appeared perfectly fine. This clearly indicated that Feenix was unaffected.

Upon recalling the scene where Feenix summoned the three kings and four archons, Pablo began to feel apprehensive.

"People from the Summers family are here as well..." Magnus didn't know Feenix and Catina, but he recognized Jennifer and Jacques at first glance.

The two were indeed familiar to Magnus. After all, in the southern region, the Summers family's arcane arrays and charm spells were well-known.

Magnus was well-versed in the art of arcane arrays and charm spells, so he was quite familiar with the Summers family.

"The Summers family?" Pablo furrowed his brow. "The family known for their understanding of arcane arrays and charms?"

"Yes, those two are the children of the Summers family. If they are here, then the head of the Summers family, Tyler, must be here as well." Magnus pointed at Jennifer and Jacques, explaining to Pablo.

"Do you know those two people over there?" Pablo asked Magnus.

Pablo inquired about Feenix and Catina, but Magnus simply shook his head.

Feenix was also extremely nervous at that moment. She knew the strength of Pablo. With only Catina present, it would be nearly impossible for them to deal with him.

Moreover, Pablo had been relentlessly pursuing Kai . If he found out that Kai was right there, it would cause trouble.

Catina stared at Pablo, feeling somewhat surprised. She hadn't expected that Pablo, despite his young age, had reached the Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator.

“This guy is the one who wants to kill Master.

We mustn't let him know that Master is here.” Feenix whispered to Catina.

Upon hearing that, Catina became tense.

She knew that Kai had been obedient those past few days, serving her every day, all to leverage her strength.

However, Catina had not anticipated that the person pursuing Kai would be so formidable. If a fight broke out, she stood no chance.

For a moment, both parties silently stared at each other, neither willing to break the silence first.

Pablo was also feeling nervous at that moment, especially with Catina, a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, present.

If those elite beast race members from before were there, Pablo knew that his only option would be to flee for his life.

He couldn't understand how Feenix, a person who hadn't even reached the Tribulation cultivator, commanded such respect from Seventh Level Tribulator cultivators.

“Master, the Summers family has shown up here. They may have already discovered something. I suggest we take action first, control these two from the Summers family, and then force them to work for us. There must be arcane arrays on top of this mountain peak. It's perfect to let the Summers family take the lead, serving as cannon fodder...” Magnus wanted Pablo to take action and capture Jennifer and Jacques.

Then, using these two individuals, he planned to control the entire Summers family, paving the way for them to lead from the front.

In that case, Nethersky Sect wouldn't have to suffer any more losses. They had already lost quite a few members on this journey.

“Don't attack them!” Pablo was instantly startled, his body shuddering slightly.

“Master, we have the numbers. Should we really be afraid of them?” Magnus was utterly confused.

“Shut up.” Pablo glared fiercely at Magnus, silencing him.

After a moment of silence between the two parties, Pablo slowly retreated and headed toward the mountain peak.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3458

Pablo and the others quickly reached the middle of the mountain peak. Feenix and her companions anxiously waited for Kai and his group, completely unaware of their surroundings.

It wasn't until Pablo and the others were almost upon them that Feenix and her group sensed their arrival. Feenix was utterly stunned when she laid eyes on Pablo.

Pablo was also taken aback when he saw Feenix. He had given Feenix a poison pill, yet she appeared perfectly fine. This clearly indicated that Feenix was unaffected.

Upon recalling the scene where Feenix summoned the three kings and four archons, Pablo began to feel apprehensive.

“People from the Summers family are here as well...” Magnus didn't know Feenix and Catina, but he recognized Jennifer and Jacques at first glance.

The two were indeed familiar to Magnus. After all, in the southern region, the Summers family's arcane arrays and charm spells were well-known.

Magnus was well-versed in the art of arcane arrays and charm spells, so he was quite familiar with the Summers family.

“The Summers family?” Pablo furrowed his brow. “The family known for their understanding of arcane arrays and charms?”

“Yes, those two are the children of the Summers family. If they are here, then the head of the Summers family, Tyler, must be here as well.” Magnus pointed at Jennifer and Jacques, explaining to Pablo.

“Do you know those two people over there?” Pablo asked Magnus.

Pablo inquired about Feenix and Catina, but Magnus simply shook his head.

Feenix was also extremely nervous at that moment. She knew the strength of Pablo. With only Catina present, it would be nearly impossible for them to deal with him.

Moreover, Pablo had been relentlessly pursuing Kai . If he found out that Kai was right there, it would cause trouble.

Catina stared at Pablo, feeling somewhat surprised. She hadn't expected that Pablo, despite his young age, had reached the Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator.

“This guy is the one who wants to kill Master.

We mustn't let him know that Master is here.” Feenix whispered to Catina.

Upon hearing that, Catina became tense.

She knew that Kai had been obedient those past few days, serving her every day, all to leverage her strength.

However, Catina had not anticipated that the person pursuing Kai would be so formidable. If a fight broke out, she stood no chance.

For a moment, both parties silently stared at each other, neither willing to break the silence first.

Pablo was also feeling nervous at that moment, especially with Catina, a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, present.

If those elite beast race members from before were there, Pablo knew that his only option would be to flee for his life.

He couldn't understand how Feenix, a person who hadn't even reached the Tribulation cultivator, commanded such respect from Seventh Level Tribulator cultivators.

“Master, the Summers family has shown up here. They may have already discovered something. I suggest we take action first, control these two from the Summers family, and then force them to work for us. There must be arcane arrays on top of this mountain peak. It's perfect to let the Summers family take the lead, serving as cannon fodder...” Magnus wanted Pablo to take action and capture Jennifer and Jacques.

Then, using these two individuals, he planned to control the entire Summers family, paving the way for them to lead from the front.

In that case, Nethersky Sect wouldn't have to suffer any more losses. They had already lost quite a few members on this journey.

“Don't attack them!” Pablo was instantly startled, his body shuddering slightly.

“Master, we have the numbers. Should we really be afraid of them?” Magnus was utterly confused.

“Shut up.” Pablo glared fiercely at Magnus, silencing him.

After a moment of silence between the two parties, Pablo slowly retreated and headed toward the mountain peak.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3459

Magnus was momentarily taken aback, but he still followed Pablo and left. Only after Pablo and the others had departed did Feenix and Catina finally relax. At that moment, the siblings, Jennifer and Jacques, were also drenched in sweat.

They had heard of the infamous Nethersky Sect, known for their wickedness. Just a while ago, the two of them were also afraid that the Nethersky Sect would suddenly strike.

The other party had said nothing, just abruptly left, leaving the siblings with a feeling as if they had survived a catastrophe.

Jennifer and Jacques glanced at Feenix and Catina. They speculated that the pair had said nothing before turning to leave, surely out of apprehension toward them.

After all, Catina was a Seventh Level Tribulator. She was not so easily dealt with.

“Feenix, why did they leave?” Catina asked, with a hint of confusion.

“How would I know?” At that moment, Feenix was also somewhat bewildered. She had assumed that when Pablo saw her, he would undoubtedly be livid, even resorting to physical violence against her.

After all, not too long ago, she had just instructed Monkey Archon and his companions to teach Pablo a lesson.

Upon this thought, a spark lit up in Feenix's eyes, and a smile crept onto her lips. She finally understood why Pablo and the others had left without uttering a single word.

She thought Pablo must have mistakenly thought that Monkey Archon, Lion Archon, and others were still by her side, which was why he didn't dare to make a move and quickly left.

However, just because Pablo and the others had left, it didn't mean that the danger was over

Kai and his companions hadn't emerged yet. If they had emerged and encountered Pablo, she would have undoubtedly taken action without hesitation.

After all, the one Pablo was relentlessly pursuing was Kai .

At that moment, Feenix could only wait for Kai to emerge and inform him of the situation. Afterward, they had to leave that place as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, Kai , who was cultivating, felt the celestial energy around him gradually thinning. When he opened his eyes, he found that the mystical herbs had all withered, and the patterns on the spirit beast egg were emitting a dazzling light.

"Could it be that this spirit beast egg is about to hatch? Kai was extremely excited.

However, after waiting for quite some time, Kai found that the spirit beast egg remained utterly still, and the blinding radiance gradually faded away.

"D*mn! Even after absorbing so much celestial energy, it still hasn't hatched. Just what on earth is inside this thing?" Kai was somewhat speechless. He wanted to probe with his spiritual sense, but when he thought of the radiant, multicolored light emitted by the spirit beast egg, Kai immediately dismissed the idea. "If someone were to discover this place again, I reckon it would lead to a whole lot of trouble down the line!"

Kai had no choice but to place the spirit beast egg back into the Storage Ring and step out.

When Kai 's figure appeared, the vanished building surprisingly reappeared as well.

At that moment, Tyler, Freddie, and the others had also emerged. However, quite a few people from the Summers family were injured this time.

“F*ck! Who would have thought that this seemingly ordinary old building would actually contain an arcane array? It has injured quite a few people. However, fortunately, after breaking the arcane array, I obtained a set of charm spells... Freddie pulled out an ancient book, its pages already yellowed with age. It contained detailed instructions on how to use the set of charm spells.

“Let me see.... Tyler’s face was filled with astonishment as he hastily took it over and began to examine it carefully.

After a good while, Tyler was so moved that he unexpectedly knelt directly on the ground, bowing his head in reverence to the ancient book. “Haha! These are the charm spells of the Skywrath Sect. We are the orthodox. Our Summers family is the orthodox descendants of the Skywrath Sect...

Tyler bowed repeatedly.

Upon hearing that, the rest of the Summers family members also fell to their knees one after another.

Even Freddie, who had obtained the charm spells, wore a completely bewildered expression on his face.

Upon hearing about the Skywrath Sect, Kai was taken aback. Turning to Tyler, he asked, “Mr. Summers, may I have a look, if you don’t mind?”

“Of course!” Tyler nodded and carefully handed the ancient book to Kai .

Kai took the ancient book and skimmed through its pages. He discovered that it contained charm spells, specifically those of the Skywrath Sect. This was because Kai had received the true teachings of the Skywrath Sect. In the past, within the ancient ruins, Kai had even been fortunate enough to witness the full glory of the Skywrath Sect.

Kai couldn’t understand. How could the records of the Skywrath Sect’s charm spells exist in the Ethereal Realm? And what about Tyler, claiming to be the true inheritor of the Skywrath Sect? What was that all about?

Kai returned the ancient book to Tyler and asked, “Mr. Summers, are you familiar with the Skywrath Sect?”

“Of course. The Skywrath Sect was a major sect thousands of years ago, specializing in the practice of charm spells. However, after the Celestial Battle, the sect was destroyed. Yet, some of the charm spells from the Skywrath Sect were passed down. The charm spells that the Summers family practices are said to be from the Skywrath Sect. Therefore, our family could be considered a continuation of the Skywrath Sect, although there is no corroborating evidence. Now that we have this ancient book from the Skywrath Sect, our family has truly become the legitimate inheritors of the Skywrath Sect.” Tyler’s face was filled with excitement, and his body trembled slightly.

Listening to Tyler’s words, Kai also understood something. The Skywrath Sect must have been a sect in the Immortal Realm that had fallen during the Celestial Battle.

When in the mundane world, the so-called Skywrath Sect ruins that Kai followed Flaxseed to seemed more like a teleportation array, transporting from the mundane world to the Skywrath Sect.

Reflecting on the words of the leader of the Skywrath Sect, Kai could indeed discern that the Skywrath Sect was not a sect from the mundane world.

After all, the day when the leader of the Skywrath Sect saw the blood demon’s zombie puppet, he recognized it at a glance and even teased it for a while.

That indicated that the status of the Skywrath Sect was definitely not low.

Flaxseed’s elder in the Guild of Theurgists was once a junior disciple of the Skywrath Sect in his early years, and that was a testament to the formidable strength of the Skywrath Sect.

Naturally, Tyler was excited when he saw the charm spells recorded by the Skywrath Sect. He was so overwhelmed that he both bowed his head in respect and laughed heartily.

But if Tyler were to find out that all the charm spells of the Skywrath Sect were stored in Kai’s mind, one could only imagine the look on his face.

“Mr. Summers, even if you obtain these charm spells, it’s not guaranteed that you’ll be able to master them. Advanced charm spells like these require the subjugation of the charm spirit, so don't celebrate too soon..." Kai thought he would dampen Tyler's mood with those words.

After all, mastering the charm spells, especially advanced ones, wasn't something one could learn just by taking a glance. If it were that easy, everyone could become a charm master.

Upon hearing Kai's words, Tyler laughed and said, "Of course, the charm spells recorded in it are beyond our ability to master. However, with this ancient book, our family can proudly claim to be the descendants of the Skywrath Sect."

Kai chuckled but did not continue speaking. The charm spells of the Ethereal Realm had fallen into such a state of desolation. Now that the Summers family had acquired these charm spells from the Skywrath Sect, they could indeed boast about it.

Right then, Feenix stepped forward and said to Kai, "Master, I have some unfortunate news to share. Pablo was just here!"

"What?" Kai's face instantly turned extremely unpleasant.

He hadn't expected that Pablo would actually follow him all the way there. It seems this guy is truly persistent!

However, Kai was unaware that Pablo didn't go there to pursue him. Instead, he was on a treasure hunt.

Upon seeing Kai's complexion, Feenix hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Master. Pablo has left and gone to the mountaintop. Therefore, we won't run into them as we descend the mountain now."

"What is Pablo doing on the mountain peak?" Kai's brow slightly furrowed.

"Mr. Chance, who is this Pablo you speak of? The young lady just mentioned that people from the Nethersky Sect came by but left without causing any trouble."

At that moment, Tyler came over.

It seemed that Jennifer also shared her recent ordeal with Tyler.

“You could say he’s an enemy. This guy has been relentlessly pursuing me!” Kai explained.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3459

Magnus was momentarily taken aback, but he still followed Pablo and left. Only after Pablo and the others had departed did Feenix and Catina finally relax. At that moment, the siblings, Jennifer and Jacques, were also drenched in sweat.

They had heard of the infamous Nethersky Sect, known for their wickedness. Just a while ago, the two of them were also afraid that the Nethersky Sect would suddenly strike.

The other party had said nothing, just abruptly left, leaving the siblings with a feeling as if they had survived a catastrophe.

Jennifer and Jacques glanced at Feenix and Catina. They speculated that the pair had said nothing before turning to leave, surely out of apprehension toward them.

After all, Catina was a Seventh Level Tribulator. She was not so easily dealt with.

“Feenix, why did they leave?” Catina asked, with a hint of confusion.

“How would I know?” At that moment, Feenix was also somewhat bewildered. She had assumed that when Pablo saw her, he would undoubtedly be livid, even resorting to physical violence against her.

After all, not too long ago, she had just instructed Monkey Archon and his companions to teach Pablo a lesson.

Upon this thought, a spark lit up in Feenix’s eyes, and a smile crept onto her lips. She finally understood why Pablo and the others had left without uttering a single word.

She thought Pablo must have mistakenly thought that Monkey Archon, Lion Archon, and others were still by her side, which was why he didn’t dare to make a move and quickly left.

However, just because Pablo and the others had left, it didn't mean that the danger was over

Kai and his companions hadn't emerged yet. If they had emerged and encountered Pablo, she would have undoubtedly taken action without hesitation.

After all, the one Pablo was relentlessly pursuing was Kai .

At that moment, Feenix could only wait for Kai to emerge and inform him of the situation. Afterward, they had to leave that place as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, Kai , who was cultivating, felt the celestial energy around him gradually thinning. When he opened his eyes, he found that the mystical herbs had all withered, and the patterns on the spirit beast egg were emitting a dazzling light.

“Could it be that this spirit beast egg is about to hatch? Kai was extremely excited.

However, after waiting for quite some time, Kai found that the spirit beast egg remained utterly still, and the blinding radiance gradually faded away.

“D*mn! Even after absorbing so much celestial energy, it still hasn't hatched. Just what on earth is inside this thing?” Kai was somewhat speechless. He wanted to probe with his spiritual sense, but when he thought of the radiant, multicolored light emitted by the spirit beast egg, Kai immediately dismissed the idea. “If someone were to discover this place again, I reckon it would lead to a whole lot of trouble down the line!”

Kai had no choice but to place the spirit beast egg back into the Storage Ring and step out.

When Kai 's figure appeared, the vanished building surprisingly reappeared as well.

At that moment, Tyler, Freddie, and the others had also emerged. However, quite a few people from the Summers family were injured this time.

“F*ck! Who would have thought that this seemingly ordinary old building would actually contain an arcane array? It has injured quite a few people. However, fortunately, after breaking the arcane array, I obtained a set of charm spells...

Freddie pulled out an ancient book, its pages already yellowed with age. It contained detailed instructions on how to use the set of charm spells.

“Let me see.... Tyler’s face was filled with astonishment as he hastily took it over and began to examine it carefully.

After a good while, Tyler was so moved that he unexpectedly knelt directly on the ground, bowing his head in reverence to the ancient book. “Haha! These are the charm spells of the Skywrath Sect. We are the orthodox. Our Summers family is the orthodox descendants of the Skywrath Sect...

Tyler bowed repeatedly.

Upon hearing that, the rest of the Summers family members also fell to their knees one after another.

Even Freddie, who had obtained the charm spells, wore a completely bewildered expression on his face.

Upon hearing about the Skywrath Sect, Kai was taken aback. Turning to Tyler, he asked, “Mr. Summers, may I have a look, if you don’t mind?”

“Of course!” Tyler nodded and carefully handed the ancient book to Kai .

Kai took the ancient book and skimmed through its pages. He discovered that it contained charm spells, specifically those of the Skywrath Sect. This was because Kai had received the true teachings of the Skywrath Sect. In the past, within the ancient ruins, Kai had even been fortunate enough to witness the full glory of the Skywrath Sect.

Kai couldn’t understand. How could the records of the Skywrath Sect’s charm spells exist in the Ethereal Realm? And what about Tyler, claiming to be the true inheritor of the Skywrath Sect? What was that all about?

Kai returned the ancient book to Tyler and asked, “Mr. Summers, are you familiar with the Skywrath Sect?”

“Of course. The Skywrath Sect was a major sect thousands of years ago, specializing in the practice of charm spells. However, after the Celestial Battle, the sect was destroyed. Yet, some of the charm spells from the Skywrath Sect were passed down. The charm spells that the Summers family practices are said to be from the Skywrath Sect. Therefore, our family could be considered a continuation of the Skywrath Sect, although there is no corroborating evidence. Now that we have this ancient book from the Skywrath Sect, our family has truly become the legitimate inheritors of the Skywrath Sect.” Tyler’s face was filled with excitement, and his body trembled slightly.

Listening to Tyler’s words, Kai also understood something. The Skywrath Sect must have been a sect in the Immortal Realm that had fallen during the Celestial Battle.

When in the mundane world, the so-called Skywrath Sect ruins that Kai followed Flaxseed to seemed more like a teleportation array, transporting from the mundane world to the Skywrath Sect.

Reflecting on the words of the leader of the Skywrath Sect, Kai could indeed discern that the Skywrath Sect was not a sect from the mundane world.

After all, the day when the leader of the Skywrath Sect saw the blood demon’s zombie puppet, he recognized it at a glance and even teased it for a while.

That indicated that the status of the Skywrath Sect was definitely not low.

Flaxseed’s elder in the Guild of Theurgists was once a junior disciple of the Skywrath Sect in his early years, and that was a testament to the formidable strength of the Skywrath Sect.

Naturally, Tyler was excited when he saw the charm spells recorded by the Skywrath Sect. He was so overwhelmed that he both bowed his head in respect and laughed heartily.

But if Tyler were to find out that all the charm spells of the Skywrath Sect were stored in Kai’s mind, one could only imagine the look on his face.

“Mr. Summers, even if you obtain these charm spells, it’s not guaranteed that you’ll be able to master them. Advanced charm spells like these require the subjugation of the charm spirit, so don’t celebrate too soon...” Kai thought he would dampen Tyler’s mood with those words.

After all, mastering the charm spells, especially advanced ones, wasn’t something one could learn just by taking a glance. If it were that easy, everyone could become a charm master.

Upon hearing Kai 's words, Tyler laughed and said, "Of course, the charm spells recorded in it are beyond our ability to master. However, with this ancient book, our family can proudly claim to be the descendants of the Skywrath Sect."

Kai chuckled but did not continue speaking. The charm spells of the Ethereal Realm had fallen into such a state of desolation. Now that the Summers family had acquired these charm spells from the Skywrath Sect, they could indeed boast about it.

Right then, Feenix stepped forward and said to Kai , "Master, I have some unfortunate news to share. Pablo was just here!"

"What?" Kai 's face instantly turned extremely unpleasant.

He hadn't expected that Pablo would actually follow him all the way there. It seems this guy is truly persistent!

However, Kai was unaware that Pablo didn't go there to pursue him. Instead, he was on a treasure hunt.

Upon seeing Kai 's complexion, Feenix hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Master. Pablo has left and gone to the mountaintop. Therefore, we won't run into them as we descend the mountain now."

"What is Pablo doing on the mountain peak?" Kai 's brow slightly furrowed.

"Mr. Chance, who is this Pablo you speak of? The young lady just mentioned that people from the Nethersky Sect came by but left without causing any trouble."

At that moment, Tyler came over.

It seemed that Jennifer also shared her recent ordeal with Tyler.

"You could say he's an enemy. This guy has been relentlessly pursuing me!" Kai explained.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3460

Kai took the ancient book and skimmed through its pages. He discovered that it contained charm spells, specifically those of the Skywrath Sect. This was because Kai had received the true teachings of the Skywrath Sect. In the past, within the ancient ruins, Kai had even been fortunate enough to witness the full glory of the Skywrath Sect.

Kai couldn't understand. How could the records of the Skywrath Sect's charm spells exist in the Ethereal Realm? And what about Tyler, claiming to be the true inheritor of the Skywrath Sect? What was that all about?

Kai returned the ancient book to Tyler and asked, "Mr. Summers, are you familiar with the Skywrath Sect?"

"Of course. The Skywrath Sect was a major sect thousands of years ago, specializing in the practice of charm spells. However, after the Celestial Battle, the sect was destroyed. Yet, some of the charm spells from the Skywrath Sect were passed down. The charm spells that the Summers family practices are said to be from the Skywrath Sect. Therefore, our family could be considered a continuation of the Skywrath Sect, although there is no corroborating evidence. Now that we have this ancient book from the Skywrath Sect, our family has truly become the legitimate inheritors of the Skywrath Sect." Tyler's face was filled with excitement, and his body trembled slightly.

Listening to Tyler's words, Kai also understood something. The Skywrath Sect must have been a sect in the Immortal Realm that had fallen during the Celestial Battle.

When in the mundane world, the so-called Skywrath Sect ruins that Kai followed Flaxseed to seemed more like a teleportation array, transporting from the mundane world to the Skywrath Sect.

Reflecting on the words of the leader of the Skywrath Sect, Kai could indeed discern that the Skywrath Sect was not a sect from the mundane world.

After all, the day when the leader of the Skywrath Sect saw the blood demon's zombie puppet, he recognized it at a glance and even teased it for a while.

That indicated that the status of the Skywrath Sect was definitely not low.

Flaxseed's elder in the Guild of Theurgists was once a junior disciple of the Skywrath Sect in his early years, and that was a testament to the formidable strength of the Skywrath Sect.

Naturally, Tyler was excited when he saw the charm spells recorded by the Skywrath Sect. He was so overwhelmed that he both bowed his head in respect and laughed heartily.

But if Tyler were to find out that all the charm spells of the Skywrath Sect were stored in Kai 's mind, one could only imagine the look on his face.

“Mr. Summers, even if you obtain these charm spells, it’s not guaranteed that you’ll be able to master them. Advanced charm spells like these require the subjugation of the charm spirit, so don’t celebrate too soon...” Kai thought he would dampen Tyler’s mood with those words.

After all, mastering the charm spells, especially advanced ones, wasn’t something one could learn just by taking a glance. If it were that easy, everyone could become a charm master.

Upon hearing Kai 's words, Tyler laughed and said, “Of course, the charm spells recorded in it are beyond our ability to master. However, with this ancient book, our family can proudly claim to be the descendants of the Skywrath Sect.”

Kai chuckled but did not continue speaking. The charm spells of the Ethereal Realm had fallen into such a state of desolation. Now that the Summers family had acquired these charm spells from the Skywrath Sect, they could indeed boast about it.

Right then, Feenix stepped forward and said to Kai , “Master, I have some unfortunate news to share. Pablo was just here!”

“What?” Kai 's face instantly turned extremely unpleasant.

He hadn’t expected that Pablo would actually follow him all the way there. It seems this guy is truly persistent!

However, Kai was unaware that Pablo didn’t go there to pursue him. Instead, he was on a treasure hunt.

Upon seeing Kai 's complexion, Feenix hurriedly said, “Don’t worry, Master. Pablo has left and gone to the mountaintop. Therefore, we won’t run into them as we descend the mountain now.”

“What is Pablo doing on the mountain peak?” Kai 's brow slightly furrowed.

“Mr. Chance, who is this Pablo you speak of? The young lady just mentioned that people from the Nethersky Sect came by but left without causing any trouble.”

At that moment, Tyler came over.

It seemed that Jennifer also shared her recent ordeal with Tyler.

“You could say he’s an enemy. This guy has been relentlessly pursuing me!” Kai explained.