

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3512

“Am I making baseless accusations?” Heinrich’s face filled with rage as he angrily threw the Five Elites’ item pouches in front of Lion Archon. “These are the item pouches of our Five Elites, which fell from Kai . Given Kai ’s capabilities, there’s no way he could have killed them. If it weren’t for a few of you aiding Kai in killing them, then who could it have been? Moreover, Fox Queen has been constantly accompanying Kai . Do you still dare to claim that you all didn’t lend a hand in this?”

After looking at the item pouches on the ground, Lion Archon glanced at Thousand- Faced Demon Archon, somewhat confused.

Lion Archon was well aware of the strength of the Five Elites. Although these five couldn’t surpass them, they were undoubtedly the best among the younger generation. There was no way Kai could have killed the Five Elites himself.

However, they indeed hadn’t helped Kai commit murder. Upon seeing the expression on Lion Archon’s face, Heinrich became even more convinced that it was Lion Archon and the others who had done it!

“Hmph, if you dare to act, then you should dare to accept responsibility. Are all of you beast race members nothing but cowards? Are you afraid to admit to your crimes?” Heinrich scoffed.

“Mr. Darkmore, we truly did not assist Kai in murdering the Five Elites. You only saw these item pouches fall from Kai ’s body, but did you actually see us helping him commit the murders? All of these are merely speculations from you all. There’s absolutely no evidence!” Thousand-Faced Demon Archon argued his case vehemently.

Heinrik was about to speak, but Lauden interrupted him, “Fine, if you all want evidence, then we will capture Kai and make him confess on the spot. However, during this time, you must stay with us and not leave this place!”

“What right do you have to stop us from leaving?” Lion Archon roared.

“Based on the strength of my fists. If you can defeat me, I’ll let you go,” Lauden declared, clenching his fists.

Seeing the situation, Lion Archon could only suppress his anger, daring not to say anything more.

Now that Lion Archon had fallen silent, Lauden waved his hand and commanded, "Lock them all up!"

Catina glanced at the surrounding terrain and said, "Spirit Beast Valley is just ahead. We're about to arrive."

Kai and his companions had been traveling continuously, exhausting a significant amount of their spiritual energy. Kai was somewhat regretful, wishing they had taken advantage of Cloud's airship instead!

Now, all Kai hoped for was to smoothly obtain a telepathic beast.

Soon, Kai and his companions arrived at Spirit Beast Valley. When Kai looked toward the mountain peak not far from Spirit Beast Valley, he was completely taken aback.

Kai felt a strong sense of familiarity with this mountain peak, as if he had seen it somewhere before.

"So this is the place!"

Suddenly, Kai let out a cry of surprise.

This was the very peak where he had obtained the Divine Bow. At that time, Kai had no idea that this place was the Ethereal Realm.

Unexpectedly, this territory was part of Demonia Mountain!

At that time, Hadad appeared, prompting Kai to return to the mundane world.

It turns out that Hadad is at Demonia Mountain, which means Whalreth and Baal could also be here!

After all, Demonia Mountain was considered a paradise for the demons in the Ethereal Realm as they wouldn't be chased down and killed there.

Upon hearing Kai's exclamation, Catina curiously asked, "Kai, have you been to Spirit Beast Valley before?"

Kai remained silent, unsure of how to explain things to Catina.

However, Catina quickly realized and said, “Oh, I remember now! You must have been here before because that peak not far from here is where the Divine Bow was kept. Since you obtained the Divine Bow, you must have visited that peak. I almost forgot about that fact. Beneath that mountain peak is Phantom Valley, and right before that is Spirit Beast Valley! Take a look around. The environment in Spirit Beast Valley is unlike that in Phantom Valley.”

Kai saw a vast valley covered in green trees and flowers, with small streams winding and flowing through it.

Moreover, flocks of large birds soared through the sky within the valley, and various wild beasts were seen running about everywhere.

Furthermore, nestled in the valley were numerous buildings where members of the beast race lived harmoniously.

Who could have anticipated that such a picturesque place would transform into a realm of eerie silence as one ventured deeper?

“Spirit Beast Valley is truly remarkable. Who would have thought that Lion Archon, that brute, could actually oversee such a splendid place!” Feenix exclaimed in admiration upon seeing Spirit Beast Valley.

“It is precisely because of Lion Archon’s rough temperament that he is able to effectively manage the beast race living here,” Catina said with a laugh, explaining the reason behind it.

Upon hearing Catina’s explanation, Kai also grasped the underlying meaning.

Every race harbored hidden tensions. As the saying goes, the benevolent do not wield weapons, and the righteous do not control wealth. The three kings and four archons each had their own unique methods of governance.

“Who are you all?” several figures suddenly appeared as Kai and his companions descended, questioning them with stern expressions.

“Who is currently in charge of Spirit Beast Valley? Is Lion Archon still present?” Feenix interrogated.

At that moment, Feenix exuded an air of superiority. After all, even Lion Archon had to submit to Feenix, who used to bully him in the past.

However, Feenix was currently only at the Body Fusion Realm, and these Spirit Beast Valley guards did not recognize her.

Upon realizing that Feenix was merely a Body Fusion Realm cultivator and hearing her refer to Lion Archon as “old chap,” the guards immediately became displeased.

“Where did this inexperienced person come from, daring to address our Lion Archon in such a manner? This is asking for trouble!” the guards exclaimed, preparing to take action against Feenix.

This greatly offended Feenix.

Witnessing the situation, Catina, who stood to the side, furrowed her brows and said, “Stop, you reckless fools!”

The moment Catina revealed a hint of her Seventh Level Tribulator aura, the guards turned pale. They fell to the ground, kneeling on one knee.

Their eyes filled with panic, and they were at a loss for words.

“I am the Fox Queen. Is Lion Archon present? Who is currently in charge of Spirit Beast Valley? Bring him out immediately!” Catina ordered in a cold, detached manner.

“Fox Queen, we apologize. It is our fault for not recognizing you.”

“Lion Archon is not present, so Mr. Grelamin is currently overseeing Spirit Beast Valley. We will inform him of your arrival right away.”

The guards were terrified. After all, Catina held a position of great importance, similar to their Lion Archon. As mere guards, they certainly couldn’t afford to offend her!

The guards hurriedly reported the situation. After a short wait, several figures swiftly approached, quickly arriving in front of Kai and his companions.

“Fox Queen, I was unaware of your esteemed visit and failed to welcome you. I sincerely beg your forgiveness!” the elderly man who led the group addressed Catina with utmost respect.

The people behind the elder quickly paid their respects to Catina, despite her not being their direct leader. However, Catina's position within the beast race was such that none of them dared to show the slightest hint of disrespect.

"You must be Mr. Grelamin, the person currently overseeing Spirit Beast Valley," Catina inquired.

"Yes, that is correct. May I ask what instructions you have for me, Fox Queen?" Evindal Grelamin asked.

"It's not a big deal. Since Lion Archon is absent, I will tell you what I need. I require one of your telepathic beasts. Retrieve one for me!" Catina stated straightforwardly.

Upon hearing Catina's request, Evindal's expression changed, and he appeared deeply conflicted.

"What? You are unwilling to provide me with even one telepathic beast? Do I not deserve that courtesy?" Catina's anger began to rise.

Witnessing Catina's anger, Evindal hastily explained, "Fox Queen, please do not misunderstand. It is not that we are unwilling to give one to you, but we also face insurmountable difficulties. Furthermore, without Lion Archon present, I am unable to make this decision."

"What do you mean by 'unspeakable difficulties?' It seems like you're just unwilling to give me one. If Lion Archon were here and I asked him for a telepathic beast, he wouldn't dare refuse!" Catina retorted angrily.

"Fox Queen, we truly have no other choice. It's not that we're unwilling to give it to you..." Evindal replied anxiously.

Just as Catina was about to continue her tirade, Kai interjected, "Mr. Grelamin, is there something troubling you here in Spirit Beast Valley? If it's convenient, you can share it with us. With Lion Archon absent, if there's any way we can assist, we certainly will."

Evindal glanced at Kai. Since he didn't know who Kai was, he remained silent.

Catina pointed at Kai and said, "This is Mr. Chance, a man whom even Lion Archon has to respect. He is the son of a dragon."

As Catina introduced him, Kai subtly emanated waves of draconic energy.

Sensing the draconic energy within Kai, Evindal and the others were clearly taken aback before they became very respectful. Evindal said, "Mr. Chance, we are indeed having trouble. Please, come inside. Don't stand here any longer!"

After learning that Kai was the son of a dragon, Evindal respectfully welcomed Kai and his companions into Spirit Beast Valley.

"It seems your status as the son of a dragon is quite useful. Despite my status, they didn't even invite me in to sit down."

Catina, somewhat dissatisfied, followed behind Kai. Kai gave a faint smile. "When I have some free time, I'll merge with you, elevating your bloodline as well."

Catina smiled prettily. "Indeed, we should increase the frequency in the future. You know what? Let's find a place to merge now."

Upon hearing this, Kai immediately waved his hands. "I was just joking! Don't take me seriously."

With that, he hurriedly moved a distance away from Catina.

Feenix walked over to Catina with a smile and said, "Fox Queen, that's enough. You're going to exhaust Master. He hasn't even spent any time with me lately!"

"Are you jealous, Feenix? Hahaha!"

Catina burst into laughter.

Evindal dismissed the others before he, along with Kai and the other two, traversed through the layers of buildings in Spirit Beast Valley, heading deep into its heart.

As Kai and his group ventured deeper, the scenery around them began to take on a desolate appearance.

Waves of lethal intent filled the air.

“Mr. Grelamin, are you leading us to Phantom Valley? We came for a telepathic beast, so why are you taking us to Phantom Valley?” Catina sensed that something was amiss, so she turned to Evindal and asked.

“Fox Queen, I am leading you all to telepathic beasts,” Evindal replied indifferently. As Kai and his companions ventured deeper, their surroundings gradually grew dimmer.

Soon enough, the surrounding flowers and plants completely vanished. Before Kai and his companions was a vast expanse of white. These were all skeletal remains!

However, atop these vast, bleached bones lay numerous animal carcasses, appearing as though they had only recently died.

Upon witnessing this situation, Catina couldn't help but be taken aback.

“Fox Queen, the telepathic beasts you're seeking are right here. For unknown reasons, these usually docile creatures rushed into Phantom Valley a few days ago as if possessed. Then, they mysteriously died...” Evindal said with a helpless expression.

At this point, Catina was at a loss for words. It seemed that Evindal truly had some unspeakable difficulties; he wasn't being deliberately difficult earlier.

Kai, on the other hand, was frowning as he watched the scene before him, his eyes filled with confusion.

Why would these telepathic beasts suddenly run to Phantom Valley to end their lives when they were perfectly fine just days ago?

“Lion Archon went to the Celestial Battlefield and has not returned yet, so I really don't know what to do about this situation...”

Seeing that Catina and the others remained silent, Evindal continued to speak.

“Is there not even a single telepathic beast left alive in Spirit Beast Valley?” Feenix asked.

“That’s not it. There’s another one…” Evindal said. Upon hearing that there was another telepathic beast, Kai and the others felt relieved. If they had all died, their journey would have been in vain.

The main issue was that they had no way of knowing who was responsible for the tragedy at Blood Spirit Valley.

“Since there’s one more, then take us to see it…” Catina said to Evindal. Reluctantly, Evindal nodded and led Kai and the others back the way they came.

After traveling for some distance, Evindal suddenly veered off their path, heading straight towards the stone wall of a mountain peak.

Just as Kai and his companions were confused, they saw Evindal gently pat the stone wall. To their surprise, the stone wall began to move.

There was a secret door here.

Perhaps the Spirit Beast Valley had confined the last of these creatures in a secret room upon noticing the anomalies in these telepathic beasts. After stepping through the secret door, the stone wall slowly closed behind them automatically.

They found themselves in an enormous cavern. Countless luminous pearls adorned the ceiling, illuminating the entire cavern as bright as day.

“Mr. Grelamin, why do I feel like there’s something strange about the aura inside?”

Upon entering, Kai furrowed his brows.

“Mr. Chance, this is a pregnant telepathic beast, likely in the midst of giving birth at this moment…”

After Evindal finished speaking, he led Kai and the others deeper into the cave. Feenix asked, “Master, what do you think is strange here? Why can’t I feel it?”

“It’s nothing.” Kai shook his head, but his furrowed brows remained. Soon, Evindal, accompanied by Kai and the others, arrived deep into the cave.

There were already several cultivators present, and several arcane arrays had been laid out.

These cultivators were visibly tense. Upon seeing Evindal's arrival, they hurriedly paid their respects.

Kai and his companions saw a telepathic beast. It was several meters tall and emitted a deep roar. Moreover, the eyes of this telepathic beast were glowing red.

Surrounding the telepathic beast, there were several corpses, evidently killed not long ago.

"Mr. Grelamin, just now, this telepathic beast was about to charge out of the cave. We desperately tried to stop it, and in the process, we lost and injured several people. Only then were we able to activate the arcane arrays to halt this telepathic beast," a cultivator reported.

"How could this happen? Telepathic beasts are usually gentle. Why would it behave like this?"

Evindal's face was full of questions, but it was clear that he too had no idea what was going on. At that moment, the telepathic beast suddenly roared in frenzy once again, relentlessly assaulting the arcane arrays.

It seemed as if this telepathic beast had given up on life, not even caring about the child in its womb.

"Hurry, stop it. Stop it. This is the last telepathic beast. We can't let it die," Evindal roared.

Seeing the situation, several cultivators had no choice but to rush past the arcane arrays, hoping to control the telepathic beast. They couldn't allow it to move violently anymore, fearing that both mother and child might not be saved.

However, as soon as a few cultivators rushed in, they were swiftly slain by the telepathic beast. Looking at the cultivators who had tragically died, Evindal felt helpless and cried out, "What should we do now?"

"Let me give it a try..."

After Kai finished speaking, he headed straight towards the arcane arrays.

“Master, you must be careful...”

“Kai , stop showing off and come out already...”

Both Feenix and Catina were worried about Kai .

Evindal watched with a look of astonishment. Kai , a cultivator at the First Level of Tribulation, stood before them. It was well- known that when a telepathic beast went into a frenzy, the power it unleashed was tremendous. There was doubt as to whether Kai could withstand it.

Nevertheless, seemingly oblivious to Feenix and Catina’s words, Kai approached the telepathic beast with measured steps.

The telepathic beast let out a thunderous roar, its eyes blazing with a fierce red glow as it fixed its gaze upon Kai .

“Don’t be afraid. I’m here to assist you...”

To everyone’s surprise, Kai began communicating with the telepathic beast. However, the telepathic beast ignored Kai ’s words and responded by emitting a terrifying aura and letting out a roar.

“Oh no...”

Evindal immediately cried out in alarm upon witnessing the situation. He knew that the roar and aura of the telepathic beast were incredibly terrifying.

Despite this, Kai remained motionless, allowing the terrifying aura to approach him. The aura shook several arcane arrays, but Kai ’s body remained completely still.

Although Kai was only a First Level Tribulator cultivator, his strength was unshakable to the telepathic beast. Evindal was utterly dumbfounded upon witnessing this scene.

“Is... Is this the cultivation level of a First Level Tribulator cultivator?”

Evindal’s face was filled with disbelief. Realizing that its roar had no effect on Kai , the telepathic beast retreated, planning to charge at him.

“I won’t harm your child...”

After Kai finished speaking, he gently waved his hand, casting a soft glow onto the telepathic beast’s body. The light formed a halo around it.

As Kai recited a calming incantation, the telepathic beast gradually calmed down, and the crimson glow in its eyes faded away.

“What’s happening?”

Catina and Feenix were also somewhat dumbfounded by this scene. The telepathic beast had completely calmed down. Under the embrace of the halo, it began to give birth continuously.

Accompanied by a roar from the telepathic beast, a mini telepathic beast came into existence. The telepathic beast licked its offspring ceaselessly, displaying the gentle demeanor of a mother. There was no trace of the ferocity it had shown moments ago.

Kai watched as the telepathic beast calmed down and then slowly emerged from the arcane arrays.

Upon seeing Kai emerge, Evindal asked with a confused expression, “What... What exactly is happening here?”

“I think I understand why these telepathic beasts choose to end their own lives.... Kai said with a serious expression.

“Why?” Feenix and Catina asked simultaneously.

“Because there’s an indiscernible lethal intent. This aura is almost imperceptible, but the telepathic beast is exceptionally sensitive to it and was disturbed by this lethal intent. I used magecraft to block that lethal intent, and the telepathic beast immediately calmed down. It seems that this lethal intent was the cause. From the beginning, I sensed an unusual aura, but I couldn’t quite grasp it. It was only when I stepped into the arcane arrays and the telepathic beast let out a terrifying roar, emitting a dreadful aura, that I was able to detect the presence of that lethal intent,” Kai explained.

“Why didn’t I sense the lethal intent?”

Catina was taken aback. Given her current cultivation level, she should have noticed what Kai did. It was strange that she didn't.

Evindal also wore a puzzled expression. "Lethal intent? That shouldn't be. Although there is lethal intent within the Phantom Valley, there is an arcane array in the middle that acts as a barrier. The lethal intent shouldn't be able to reach the Spirit Beast Valley."

"Let's go and investigate. Perhaps we'll understand then..."

After Kai finished speaking, he walked toward the entrance of the cave. Feenix and the others hurriedly followed, and together with Kai, they headed toward the Phantom Valley.

Upon exiting the cave, Kai could no longer sense the lethal intent, but he continued toward the Phantom Valley.

Returning once again to the Phantom Valley, Kai gazed upon the ground littered with skeletal remains and the motionless telepathic beasts. Slowly, he ventured further in. When Feenix and Catina attempted to follow and enter, Kai stopped them.

"Do not enter. This place cannot bear any other aura at the moment."

Kai was afraid that the presence coming from Feenix and Catina would conceal the subtle, almost imperceptible, deadly intention.

As Kai stepped into the Phantom Valley, he immediately felt himself surrounded by the thick, deadly atmosphere that filled the surroundings.

Kai had no fear of these deadly intentions. On the contrary, he rather enjoyed them.

However, this lethal intent was different from the one he had just sensed in the cave. Kai glanced at the deceased telepathic beasts. They all appeared as if they were merely sleeping, but there was no sign of life left in them.

Kai activated the Focus Technique, absorbing the surrounding lethal intent. At the same time, he had to sift through these intentions to find the specific one. By tracing this force, he could uncover the root cause.

Despite Kai 's diligent search, he was unable to find anything, which greatly frustrated him.

However, with so much lethal intent around, Kai wouldn't let it go to waste. Above his head, the intentions gradually condensed into a mist, continuously flowing into his body.

But just as Kai was greedily absorbing the intentions, his body suddenly shuddered.

He had sensed that unique intent, and it was clear that it seemed to possess a life of its own. It probed around Kai without being absorbed by him, and then quickly vanished.

A glint flashed in Kai 's eyes. Subsequently, he deactivated the Focus Technique and firmly locked onto that surge of intent with his spiritual sense.

Feenix and the others noticed that Kai had suddenly started running, even heading deep into the Phantom Valley.

However, Kai had given them instructions, so they didn't dare to interfere, fearing they might disrupt Kai 's important matters.

Before long, Kai 's figure had disappeared from their sight. Kai firmly tracked that intent, arriving at the foot of the mountain peak. This very peak was once the place where the Divine Bow was kept.

Following the intent, Kai climbed toward the mountain peak. Soon, he discovered a seemingly small cave halfway up the mountain.

And this intent was emanating from within the cave. Gazing into the seemingly bottomless cave, Kai didn't dare to rush in. He observed from the outside for a while, then decided to use demonic fire to force out the lurking intent.

Before Kai could even use demonic fire, a dark figure swiftly emerged and struck him with a palm strike.

Kai was taken aback, his body recoiling in shock, and he tumbled straight down from the mountainside.

The dark figure relentlessly pursued Kai , clinging onto him.

After Kai landed, he immediately countered with a palm strike.

Boom!

Following a thunderous boom, a dazzling beam of light radiated in all directions. The moment their palms touched, Kai was suddenly rendered speechless.

And the dark figure also halted, looking at Kai in disbelief.

“Mr. Hadad, why are you here?” Kai stared at Hadad. Hadad wore a shocked expression. “Why did you return? And it seems like your skills have significantly improved.”

“I have been in the Ethereal Realm for quite some time. What are you doing here, Mr. Hadad?” Kai asked, confused.

“I’m here to cultivate, of course. My suppressed soul remnant managed to escape back to the Ethereal Realm, and I’ve restored my physical form. I’ve lost a significant portion of my cultivation, so it’s only natural that I have to cultivate again. The Phantom Valley is filled with an abundance of lethal intent, making it the perfect place for cultivation. You rascal, you’ve obtained the Divine Bow and you’re not even hiding! You even dare to come here. Be careful of being discovered by the beast race.”

“No worries. Even if Lion Archon is here, he won’t dare to do anything to me.”

Kai gave a faint smile.

Hadad looked Kai up and down, then clicked his tongue in surprise. “I didn’t expect you, a First Level Tribulator cultivator, to be so strong. My previous attack didn’t seem to affect you much.”

“Mr. Hadad, it’s understandable that you harness lethal intents for cultivation purposes, but was it necessary to exterminate these telepathic beasts? Thankfully, Lion Archon is not present; otherwise, he would have likely uncovered your location.”

Kai gestured towards the lifeless bodies of the telepathic beasts strewn across the ground.

“Did I kill the telepathic beasts?”

Hadad stared at the scattered carcasses of the telepathic beasts, completely bewildered. "I didn't kill these telepathic beasts. I've been cultivating in the cave all this time, never once leaving. How could I have possibly killed these beasts? Besides, if I were to kill so many telepathic beasts, wouldn't it attract the attention of the Spirit Beast Valley? Where would I find the peace to cultivate then?"

Kai observed Hadad's expression. Upon learning that he had been cultivating, he released a strand of aura into the arcane array that connected to the Spirit Beast Valley.

Due to the faint aura, no one had noticed it. However, the telepathic beasts, highly sensitive to such auras, had been drawn to the Phantom Valley.

The overwhelming lethal intent in the Phantom Valley had proven too much for the telepathic beasts to bear, causing them to die one after another.

"It seems that your actions were unintentional. However, with so many telepathic beasts dead in the Spirit Beast Valley, they will surely investigate," Kai exclaimed.

"You mustn't allow anyone from the Spirit Beast Valley to enter. They will disrupt my peaceful cultivation. I am currently in a crucial phase of rapid recovery and cannot afford any interruptions. Moreover, if I were to leave this place, I wouldn't find such a strong presence of lethal intent elsewhere."

Hadad didn't want to leave, so he had to rely on Kai to find a way to prevent the people from the Spirit Beast Valley from investigating.

"Let me come up with a solution. When the time comes, I'll simply make up an excuse."

As Kai spoke, he retrieved a timepiece from his Storage Ring. "Mr. Hadad, do you recognize this object? Do you know how to use it?"

Hadad took the timepiece, glanced at it, and asked with a hint of surprise in his eyes, "Where did you get this?"

"I purchased it from a middle-aged man."

"This is a time magical item. However, this device seems to be damaged. Otherwise, it wouldn't have turned into something resembling a stone. If you wish to use this type of time magical item, you need to comprehend the essence of time itself.”

“The essence of time?” Kai was taken aback.

Hadad remained silent. Instead, he held the timepiece in one hand, and suddenly, a ray of light emanated from his palm.

Following that, the timepiece also began to emit a glow. The hands of the timepiece, which had remained still, suddenly moved.

In just a fleeting moment, the timepiece transformed back into a stone.

Kai’s face was filled with shock. He was about to speak to Hadad when he realized that Hadad had somehow already reached the halfway point of the mountain cave entrance.

Kai leaped in front of Hadad.

“Mr. Hadad, can you actually teleport? How did you get here in an instant?” Kai asked in great surprise.

“With my current strength, it’s absurd to think that I can teleport. What I just did was simply activate this time magical item. What you perceived as an instant, in reality, a significant amount of time has already passed.”

Hadad gave a faint smile, then picked up a stone and threw it down the mountain. The stone fell vertically, its speed incredibly fast.

However, as the timepiece in Hadad’s hand turned, Kai noticed that the speed at which the stone was falling had unexpectedly slowed down. It descended very slowly, reminiscent of gently falling snowflakes.

But it was only a matter of an instant. After the timepiece stopped moving again, the stone crashed onto the ground with great force.

“What did you see?” Hadad asked.

“It was as if time had slowed down. Even the stone had slowed down,” Kai exclaimed in surprise.

“This is the power of a time magical item. However, the magical item is now damaged, and I suspect it won’t last much longer. But once you have grasped the essence of time and truly mastered time spells, you will no longer rely on time magical items. Furthermore, this magical item was previously utilized by Whalreth. The moment I activated it, I could perceive his aura.”

“Mr. Whalreth?”

Kai was shocked, his eyes widening. From the very beginning, Kai had found the middle-aged man rather peculiar. The man had sat motionless in front of the stall, leaving a deep impression on Kai .

Was the middle-aged man a manifestation of Mr. Whalreth, or did Mr. Whalreth’s soul remnant possess the body of the middle-aged man?

When Mr. Whalreth escaped from the Pentacarna Tower, he was nothing more than a soul remnant. It was indeed challenging to rush to the Ethereal Realm and restore his physical form.

If it’s impossible to restore the physical body, one could choose a person and directly attach the soul remnant to that individual.

Kai had a feeling that this was what happened to Whalreth.

Upon seeing Kai ’s expression, Hadad hurriedly said, “I merely mentioned that this item was used by Whalreth, but it doesn’t necessarily mean he gave it to you. Don’t let your imagination run wild.”

“It’s just that the soul remnant of Mr. Whalreth has returned to the Ethereal Realm. However, it’s uncertain where he currently resides, or whether he has managed to restore his physical form.”

“Do you think it’s that easy to restore the physical body? If it wasn’t for my direct arrival at the Phantom Valley, it would have been extremely difficult to restore my physical body. You must understand that restoring the physical body and living again is against Heaven’s Laws. Not everyone can achieve it.”

Upon hearing this, Kai became even more certain that the middle-aged man who had sold him the timepiece must have been Whalreth.

“It seems that Mr. Whalreth was the one who sold me the timepiece. I really wish I had the chance to see him again.”

“I’m not going to talk to you anymore. I’m going to cultivate and recover as soon as possible. Don’t forget to take care of this for me, and make sure no one disturbs me.”

Hadad returned to the cave to resume his cultivation.

Kai leaped down from halfway up the mountain, his gaze falling upon the deceased telepathic beasts. Then, he turned his attention to the dense sea of skeletal remains.

He cast a beam of light onto the skeletal remains on the ground. They began to quiver and gradually gathered to transform into a colossal skull.

Kai glanced at the skull, nodding in satisfaction, before he dashed toward the entrance of the Phantom Valley.

The colossal skull pursued Kai from behind. Kai struck the skull with his sword, sparks flying in all directions. Yet, he was unable to halt the skull’s advance. Soon, Feenix and the others caught sight of his figure.

Upon seeing the enormous skull made of white bones behind Kai , everyone was utterly astounded.

“What is this thing?” Evindal exclaimed in shock.

“Master...”

Feenix was about to charge in.

“Don’t come in...”

With a loud shout, Kai halted Feenix from charging in. Then, in front of Feenix and the others, he began to battle the skull fiercely.

Feenix could only watch anxiously.

Kai engaged in a dozen or so rounds of combat with the enormous skull. Then, with a single stroke of his sword, he shattered the skull into pieces.

Kai feigned exhaustion, panting heavily as he emerged from the Phantom Valley.

Catina turned to Kai and asked, “What happened?”

“The bones in the Phantom Valley have surprisingly developed a form of spiritual sense. This then attracted the telepathic beasts to the valley as they utilized the unique aura of the beasts for cultivation. Now it’s settled. I’ve completely slain the skull. I’ll set up an arcane array, ensuring that the lethal intent from the Phantom Valley can never reach the Spirit Beast Valley.”

After Kai finished speaking, he began to set up an arcane array nervously.

He planned to set up a large one, ensuring that no one could enter the Phantom Valley. Otherwise, it would cause trouble if Hadad was disturbed.

Recognizing that Kai would need some time to set up the intricate array, Evindal suggested, “Mr. Chance, please proceed with your work. I will go and inspect the telepathic creature. Only this one and its offspring remain, so it is crucial that we provide them with proper care.”

“Very well. Please go ahead,” Kai agreed, nodding.

Evindal left, allowing Kai to focus on configuring the arcane array.

Meanwhile, a group of cultivators was slowly making their way towards the Spirit Beast Valley.

A man and a woman were leading the group.

“How could Elder Fabrizio betray us like this? It has left our master in such distress. We must capture Elder Fabrizio to resolve this. Mr. Cabeza of the Demon Seal Alliance has already made it clear. If we don’t capture Elder Fabrizio, he will have all of us in the Soulless Hall killed!” the woman, dressed in a black gown, said to the man in black standing beside her.

“How can I know? Now, our only hope lies with the telepathic beasts from the Spirit Beast Valley. I’ve heard that they are extremely sensitive to auras. Hopefully, they can help us find Elder Fabrizio. Otherwise, the Soulless Hall is truly doomed,” the man in black sighed.

“Halt! Who are you people?”

Just as the Demonic Cultivators reached the entrance of the valley, they were abruptly stopped by the people of the Spirit Beast Valley.

“We are from the Soulless Hall. We have come specifically to visit, hoping to purchase some spirit beasts,” Zander Everbleed, the man in black, said politely.

The guard glanced over, then said, “Just a moment...”

After speaking, the guard went to report

The Spirit Beast Valley also conducted business by selling spirit beasts to Demonic Cultivators or human cultivators. After all, taming a spirit beast was no easy task.

Therefore, the Spirit Beast Valley engaged in this kind of business, which could provide them with a large amount of resources. Moreover, as members of the beast race, taming beasts was much easier for them.

At that moment, Evindal was in the cave, observing the telepathic beast, when a guard hurriedly came to report.

“Mr. Grelamin, there are people from the Soulless Hall who claim they have come to purchase spirit beasts.”

“Soulless Hall?” Evindal furrowed his brows slightly. “Are they Demonic Cultivators? I don’t recall hearing about this sect before.”

“They are Demonic Cultivators, but probably not from the southern region.”

“Go ahead and invite them in.”

In this part of Demonica Mountain, Demonic Cultivators were not targeted, so Evindal didn’t have much to guard against these Demonic Cultivators.

Soon, several Demonic Cultivators from the Soulless Hall were brought before Evindal.

Zander began, “We are from the Soulless Hall. We have come to the Spirit Beast Valley to purchase a spirit beast.”

“What kind of spirit beast are you looking to purchase? As long as we have it here, we are willing to sell,” Evindal asked.

“A telepathic beast...” Zander replied calmly.

“Telepathic beast?”

Upon hearing this, Evindal immediately furrowed his brows. The telepathic beasts had all died, leaving only one mother and its cub. He couldn't possibly sell them. Evindal had not expected the telepathic beasts to suddenly become so desirable today.

“I apologize, but we can no longer sell the telepathic beasts from the Spirit Beast Valley,” Evindal said with deep regret.

Zander's face turned cold. “What, are you afraid we can't meet your price?”

“It's not that. It's just that the telepathic beasts have been dying off in large numbers recently. Now, only one adult telepathic beast and one young telepathic beast are left, so we can't sell them anymore.”

Evindal revealed the truth.

“Aren't there still two left? Why can't you sell one to us?”

Zander was extremely displeased.

“Although we have two, someone has already come ahead of time and asked for a telepathic beast, so I'm afraid you will have to leave empty-handed. I'm truly sorry,” Evindal said very politely.

After all, these several Demonic Cultivators were not weak. Evindal did not want a conflict to arise.

“What's the matter with you all? We can offer twice the price. Just sell us that telepathic creature...” Mayze Everbleed, the woman dressed in black, also exclaimed in dissatisfaction.

“I apologize sincerely. We-”

Before Evindal could finish his sentence, Zander interrupted, “Since you're not willing to sell, can we at least have a glimpse of the telepathic creatures? We've heard that they possess an extraordinary sensitivity to auras, and we're quite eager to see them.”

Initially, Evindal was reluctant to agree, but realizing that the other party would not easily give up, he decided to show them the telepathic beasts.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3513

Furthermore, nestled in the valley were numerous buildings where members of the beast race lived harmoniously.

Who could have anticipated that such a picturesque place would transform into a realm of eerie silence as one ventured deeper?

“Spirit Beast Valley is truly remarkable. Who would have thought that Lion Archon, that brute, could actually oversee such a splendid place!” Feenix exclaimed in admiration upon seeing Spirit Beast Valley.

“It is precisely because of Lion Archon’s rough temperament that he is able to effectively manage the beast race living here,” Catina said with a laugh, explaining the reason behind it.

Upon hearing Catina’s explanation, Kai also grasped the underlying meaning.

Every race harbored hidden tensions. As the saying goes, the benevolent do not wield weapons, and the righteous do not control wealth. The three kings and four archons each had their own unique methods of governance.

“Who are you all?” several figures suddenly appeared as Kai and his companions descended, questioning them with stern expressions.

“Who is currently in charge of Spirit Beast Valley? Is Lion Archon still present?” Feenix interrogated.

At that moment, Feenix exuded an air of superiority. After all, even Lion Archon had to submit to Feenix, who used to bully him in the past.

However, Feenix was currently only at the Body Fusion Realm, and these Spirit Beast Valley guards did not recognize her.

Upon realizing that Feenix was merely a Body Fusion Realm cultivator and hearing her refer to Lion Archon as “old chap,” the guards immediately became displeased.

“Where did this inexperienced person come from, daring to address our Lion Archon in such a manner? This is asking for trouble!” the guards exclaimed, preparing to take action against Feenix.

This greatly offended Feenix.

Witnessing the situation, Catina, who stood to the side, furrowed her brows and said, “Stop, you reckless fools!”

The moment Catina revealed a hint of her Seventh Level Tribulator aura, the guards turned pale. They fell to the ground, kneeling on one knee.

Their eyes filled with panic, and they were at a loss for words.

“I am the Fox Queen. Is Lion Archon present? Who is currently in charge of Spirit Beast Valley? Bring him out immediately!” Catina ordered in a cold, detached manner.

“Fox Queen, we apologize. It is our fault for not recognizing you.”

“Lion Archon is not present, so Mr. Grelamin is currently overseeing Spirit Beast Valley. We will inform him of your arrival right away.”

The guards were terrified. After all, Catina held a position of great importance, similar to their Lion Archon. As mere guards, they certainly couldn’t afford to offend her!

The guards hurriedly reported the situation. After a short wait, several figures swiftly approached, quickly arriving in front of Kai and his companions.

“Fox Queen, I was unaware of your esteemed visit and failed to welcome you. I sincerely beg your forgiveness!” the elderly man who led the group addressed Catina with utmost respect.

The people behind the elder quickly paid their respects to Catina, despite her not being their direct leader. However, Catina’s position within the beast race was such that none of them dared to show the slightest hint of disrespect.

“You must be Mr. Grelamin, the person currently overseeing Spirit Beast Valley,” Catina inquired.

“Yes, that is correct. May I ask what instructions you have for me, Fox Queen?” Evindal Grelamin asked.

“It’s not a big deal. Since Lion Archon is absent, I will tell you what I need. I require one of your telepathic beasts. Retrieve one for me!” Catina stated straightforwardly.

Upon hearing Catina’s request, Evindal’s expression changed, and he appeared deeply conflicted.

“What? You are unwilling to provide me with even one telepathic beast? Do I not deserve that courtesy?” Catina’s anger began to rise.

Witnessing Catina’s anger, Evindal hastily explained, “Fox Queen, please do not misunderstand. It is not that we are unwilling to give one to you, but we also face insurmountable difficulties. Furthermore, without Lion Archon present, I am unable to make this decision.”

“What do you mean by ‘unspeakable difficulties?’ It seems like you’re just unwilling to give me one. If Lion Archon were here and I asked him for a telepathic beast, he wouldn’t dare refuse!” Catina retorted angrily.

“Fox Queen, we truly have no other choice. It’s not that we’re unwilling to give it to you...” Evindal replied anxiously.

Just as Catina was about to continue her tirade, Kai interjected, “Mr. Grelamin, is there something troubling you here in Spirit Beast Valley? If it’s convenient, you can share it with us. With Lion Archon absent, if there’s any way we can assist, we certainly will.”

Evindal glanced at Kai . Since he didn’t know who Kai was, he remained silent.

Catina pointed at Kai and said, “This is Mr. Chance, a man whom even Lion Archon has to respect. He is the son of a dragon.”

As Catina introduced him, Kai subtly emanated waves of draconic energy.

Sensing the draconic energy within Kai , Evindal and the others were clearly taken aback before they became very respectful. Evindal said, “Mr. Chance, we are indeed having trouble. Please, come inside. Don’t stand here any longer!”

After learning that Kai was the son of a dragon, Evindal respectfully welcomed Kai and his companions into Spirit Beast Valley.

“It seems your status as the son of a dragon is quite useful. Despite my status, they didn’t even invite me in to sit down.”

Catina, somewhat dissatisfied, followed behind Kai . Kai gave a faint smile. “When I have some free time, I’ll merge with you, elevating your bloodline as well.”

Catina smiled prettily. “Indeed, we should increase the frequency in the future. You know what? Let’s find a place to merge now.”

Upon hearing this, Kai immediately waved his hands. “I was just joking! Don’t take me seriously.”

With that, he hurriedly moved a distance away from Catina.

Feenix walked over to Catina with a smile and said, “Fox Queen, that’s enough. You’re going to exhaust Master. He hasn’t even spent any time with me lately!”

“Are you jealous, Feenix? Hahaha!”

Catina burst into laughter.

Evindal dismissed the others before he, along with Kai and the other two, traversed through the layers of buildings in Spirit Beast Valley, heading deep into its heart.

As Kai and his group ventured deeper, the scenery around them began to take on a desolate appearance.

Waves of lethal intent filled the air.

“Mr. Grelamin, are you leading us to Phantom Valley? We came for a telepathic beast, so why are you taking us to Phantom Valley?” Catina sensed that something was amiss, so she turned to Evindal and asked.

“Fox Queen, I am leading you all to telepathic beasts,” Evindal replied indifferently. As Kai and his companions ventured deeper, their surroundings gradually grew dimmer.

Soon enough, the surrounding flowers and plants completely vanished. Before Kai and his companions was a vast expanse of white. These were all skeletal remains!

However, atop these vast, bleached bones lay numerous animal carcasses, appearing as though they had only recently died.

Upon witnessing this situation, Catina couldn't help but be taken aback.

“Fox Queen, the telepathic beasts you're seeking are right here. For unknown reasons, these usually docile creatures rushed into Phantom Valley a few days ago as if possessed. Then, they mysteriously died...” Evindal said with a helpless expression.

At this point, Catina was at a loss for words. It seemed that Evindal truly had some unspeakable difficulties; he wasn't being deliberately difficult earlier.

Kai, on the other hand, was frowning as he watched the scene before him, his eyes filled with confusion.

Why would these telepathic beasts suddenly run to Phantom Valley to end their lives when they were perfectly fine just days ago?

“Lion Archon went to the Celestial Battlefield and has not returned yet, so I really don't know what to do about this situation...”

Seeing that Catina and the others remained silent, Evindal continued to speak.

“Is there not even a single telepathic beast left alive in Spirit Beast Valley?” Feenix asked.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3514

“What do you mean by ‘unspeakable difficulties?’ It seems like you’re just unwilling to give me one. If Lion Archon were here and I asked him for a telepathic beast, he wouldn’t dare refuse!” Catina retorted angrily.

“Fox Queen, we truly have no other choice. It’s not that we’re unwilling to give it to you...” Evindal replied anxiously.

Just as Catina was about to continue her tirade, Kai interjected, “Mr. Grelamin, is there something troubling you here in Spirit Beast Valley? If it’s convenient, you can share it with us. With Lion Archon absent, if there’s any way we can assist, we certainly will.”

Evindal glanced at Kai . Since he didn’t know who Kai was, he remained silent.

Catina pointed at Kai and said, “This is Mr. Chance, a man whom even Lion Archon has to respect. He is the son of a dragon.”

As Catina introduced him, Kai subtly emanated waves of draconic energy.

Sensing the draconic energy within Kai , Evindal and the others were clearly taken aback before they became very respectful. Evindal said, “Mr. Chance, we are indeed having trouble. Please, come inside. Don’t stand here any longer!”

After learning that Kai was the son of a dragon, Evindal respectfully welcomed Kai and his companions into Spirit Beast Valley.

“It seems your status as the son of a dragon is quite useful. Despite my status, they didn’t even invite me in to sit down.”

Catina, somewhat dissatisfied, followed behind Kai . Kai gave a faint smile. “When I have some free time, I’ll merge with you, elevating your bloodline as well.”

Catina smiled prettily. “Indeed, we should increase the frequency in the future. You know what? Let’s find a place to merge now.”

Upon hearing this, Kai immediately waved his hands. “I was just joking! Don’t take me seriously.”

With that, he hurriedly moved a distance away from Catina.

Feenix walked over to Catina with a smile and said, “Fox Queen, that’s enough. You’re going to exhaust Master. He hasn’t even spent any time with me lately!”

“Are you jealous, Feenix? Hahaha!”

Catina burst into laughter.

Evindal dismissed the others before he, along with Kai and the other two, traversed through the layers of buildings in Spirit Beast Valley, heading deep into its heart.

As Kai and his group ventured deeper, the scenery around them began to take on a desolate appearance.

Waves of lethal intent filled the air.

“Mr. Grelamin, are you leading us to Phantom Valley? We came for a telepathic beast, so why are you taking us to Phantom Valley?” Catina sensed that something was amiss, so she turned to Evindal and asked.

“Fox Queen, I am leading you all to telepathic beasts,” Evindal replied indifferently. As Kai and his companions ventured deeper, their surroundings gradually grew dimmer.

Soon enough, the surrounding flowers and plants completely vanished. Before Kai and his companions was a vast expanse of white. These were all skeletal remains!

However, atop these vast, bleached bones lay numerous animal carcasses, appearing as though they had only recently died.

Upon witnessing this situation, Catina couldn't help but be taken aback.

“Fox Queen, the telepathic beasts you're seeking are right here. For unknown reasons, these usually docile creatures rushed into Phantom Valley a few days ago as if possessed. Then, they mysteriously died...” Evindal said with a helpless expression.

At this point, Catina was at a loss for words. It seemed that Evindal truly had some unspeakable difficulties; he wasn't being deliberately difficult earlier.

Kai, on the other hand, was frowning as he watched the scene before him, his eyes filled with confusion.

Why would these telepathic beasts suddenly run to Phantom Valley to end their lives when they were perfectly fine just days ago?

“Lion Archon went to the Celestial Battlefield and has not returned yet, so I really don't know what to do about this situation...”

Seeing that Catina and the others remained silent, Evindal continued to speak.

“Is there not even a single telepathic beast left alive in Spirit Beast Valley?” Feenix asked.

“That's not it. There's another one...” Evindal said. Upon hearing that there was another telepathic beast, Kai and the others felt relieved. If they had all died, their journey would have been in vain.

The main issue was that they had no way of knowing who was responsible for the tragedy at Blood Spirit Valley.

“Since there’s one more, then take us to see it...” Catina said to Evindal. Reluctantly, Evindal nodded and led Kai and the others back the way they came.

After traveling for some distance, Evindal suddenly veered off their path, heading straight towards the stone wall of a mountain peak.

Just as Kai and his companions were confused, they saw Evindal gently pat the stone wall. To their surprise, the stone wall began to move.

There was a secret door here.

Perhaps the Spirit Beast Valley had confined the last of these creatures in a secret room upon noticing the anomalies in these telepathic beasts. After stepping through the secret door, the stone wall slowly closed behind them automatically.

They found themselves in an enormous cavern. Countless luminous pearls adorned the ceiling, illuminating the entire cavern as bright as day.

“Mr. Grelamin, why do I feel like there’s something strange about the aura inside?”

Upon entering, Kai furrowed his brows.

“Mr. Chance, this is a pregnant telepathic beast, likely in the midst of giving birth at this moment...”

After Evindal finished speaking, he led Kai and the others deeper into the cave. Feenix asked, “Master, what do you think is strange here? Why can’t I feel it?”

“It’s nothing.” Kai shook his head, but his furrowed brows remained. Soon, Evindal, accompanied by Kai and the others, arrived deep into the cave. There were already several cultivators present, and several arcane arrays had been laid out.

These cultivators were visibly tense. Upon seeing Evindal’s arrival, they hurriedly paid their respects.

Kai and his companions saw a telepathic beast. It was several meters tall and emitted a deep roar. Moreover, the eyes of this telepathic beast were glowing red.

Surrounding the telepathic beast, there were several corpses, evidently killed not long ago.

“Mr. Grelamin, just now, this telepathic beast was about to charge out of the cave. We desperately tried to stop it, and in the process, we lost and injured several people. Only then were we able to activate the arcane arrays to halt this telepathic beast,” a cultivator reported.

“How could this happen? Telepathic beasts are usually gentle. Why would it behave like this?”

Evindal’s face was full of questions, but it was clear that he too had no idea what was going on. At that moment, the telepathic beast suddenly roared in frenzy once again, relentlessly assaulting the arcane arrays.

It seemed as if this telepathic beast had given up on life, not even caring about the child in its womb.

“Hurry, stop it. Stop it. This is the last telepathic beast. We can’t let it die,” Evindal roared.

Seeing the situation, several cultivators had no choice but to rush past the arcane arrays, hoping to control the telepathic beast. They couldn’t allow it to move violently anymore, fearing that both mother and child might not be saved.

However, as soon as a few cultivators rushed in, they were swiftly slain by the telepathic beast. Looking at the cultivators who had tragically died, Evindal felt helpless and cried out, “What should we do now?”

“Let me give it a try...”

After Kai finished speaking, he headed straight towards the arcane arrays.

“Master, you must be careful...”

“Kai , stop showing off and come out already...”

Both Feenix and Catina were worried about Kai .

Evindal watched with a look of astonishment. Kai , a cultivator at the First Level of Tribulation, stood before them. It was well- known that when a telepathic beast went into a frenzy, the power it unleashed was tremendous. There was doubt as to whether Kai could withstand it.

Nevertheless, seemingly oblivious to Feenix and Catina’s words, Kai approached the telepathic beast with measured steps.

The telepathic beast let out a thunderous roar, its eyes blazing with a fierce red glow as it fixed its gaze upon Kai .

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3515

“That’s not it. There’s another one...” Evindal said. Upon hearing that there was another telepathic beast, Kai and the others felt relieved. If they had all died, their journey would have been in vain.

The main issue was that they had no way of knowing who was responsible for the tragedy at Blood Spirit Valley.

“Since there’s one more, then take us to see it...” Catina said to Evindal. Reluctantly, Evindal nodded and led Kai and the others back the way they came.

After traveling for some distance, Evindal suddenly veered off their path, heading straight towards the stone wall of a mountain peak.

Just as Kai and his companions were confused, they saw Evindal gently pat the stone wall. To their surprise, the stone wall began to move.

There was a secret door here.

Perhaps the Spirit Beast Valley had confined the last of these creatures in a secret room upon noticing the anomalies in these telepathic beasts. After stepping through the secret door, the stone wall slowly closed behind them automatically.

They found themselves in an enormous cavern. Countless luminous pearls adorned the ceiling, illuminating the entire cavern as bright as day.

“Mr. Grelamin, why do I feel like there’s something strange about the aura inside?”

Upon entering, Kai furrowed his brows.

“Mr. Chance, this is a pregnant telepathic beast, likely in the midst of giving birth at this moment...”

After Evindal finished speaking, he led Kai and the others deeper into the cave. Feenix asked, “Master, what do you think is strange here? Why can’t I feel it?”

“It’s nothing.” Kai shook his head, but his furrowed brows remained. Soon, Evindal, accompanied by Kai and the others, arrived deep into the cave. There were already several cultivators present, and several arcane arrays had been laid out.

These cultivators were visibly tense. Upon seeing Evindal’s arrival, they hurriedly paid their respects.

Kai and his companions saw a telepathic beast. It was several meters tall and emitted a deep roar. Moreover, the eyes of this telepathic beast were glowing red.

Surrounding the telepathic beast, there were several corpses, evidently killed not long ago.

“Mr. Grelamin, just now, this telepathic beast was about to charge out of the cave. We desperately tried to stop it, and in the process, we lost and injured several people. Only then were we able to activate the arcane arrays to halt this telepathic beast,” a cultivator reported.

“How could this happen? Telepathic beasts are usually gentle. Why would it behave like this?”

Evindal’s face was full of questions, but it was clear that he too had no idea what was going on. At that moment, the telepathic beast suddenly roared in frenzy once again, relentlessly assaulting the arcane arrays.

It seemed as if this telepathic beast had given up on life, not even caring about the child in its womb.

“Hurry, stop it. Stop it. This is the last telepathic beast. We can’t let it die,” Evindal roared.

Seeing the situation, several cultivators had no choice but to rush past the arcane arrays, hoping to control the telepathic beast. They couldn’t allow it to move violently anymore, fearing that both mother and child might not be saved.

However, as soon as a few cultivators rushed in, they were swiftly slain by the telepathic beast. Looking at the cultivators who had tragically died, Evindal felt helpless and cried out, “What should we do now?”

“Let me give it a try...”

After Kai finished speaking, he headed straight towards the arcane arrays.

“Master, you must be careful...”

“Kai , stop showing off and come out already...”

Both Feenix and Catina were worried about Kai .

Evindal watched with a look of astonishment. Kai , a cultivator at the First Level of Tribulation, stood before them. It was well- known that when a telepathic beast went into a frenzy, the power it unleashed was tremendous. There was doubt as to whether Kai could withstand it.

Nevertheless, seemingly oblivious to Feenix and Catina’s words, Kai approached the telepathic beast with measured steps.

The telepathic beast let out a thunderous roar, its eyes blazing with a fierce red glow as it fixed its gaze upon Kai .

“Don’t be afraid. I’m here to assist you...”

To everyone’s surprise, Kai began communicating with the telepathic beast. However, the telepathic beast ignored Kai ’s words and responded by emitting a terrifying aura and letting out a roar.

“Oh no...”

Evindal immediately cried out in alarm upon witnessing the situation. He knew that the roar and aura of the telepathic beast were incredibly terrifying.

Despite this, Kai remained motionless, allowing the terrifying aura to approach him. The aura shook several arcane arrays, but Kai's body remained completely still.

Although Kai was only a First Level Tribulator cultivator, his strength was unshakable to the telepathic beast. Evindal was utterly dumbfounded upon witnessing this scene.

“Is... Is this the cultivation level of a First Level Tribulator cultivator?”

Evindal's face was filled with disbelief. Realizing that its roar had no effect on Kai, the telepathic beast retreated, planning to charge at him.

“I won't harm your child...”

After Kai finished speaking, he gently waved his hand, casting a soft glow onto the telepathic beast's body. The light formed a halo around it.

As Kai recited a calming incantation, the telepathic beast gradually calmed down, and the crimson glow in its eyes faded away.

“What's happening?”

Catina and Feenix were also somewhat dumbfounded by this scene. The telepathic beast had completely calmed down. Under the embrace of the halo, it began to give birth continuously.

Accompanied by a roar from the telepathic beast, a mini telepathic beast came into existence. The telepathic beast licked its offspring ceaselessly, displaying the gentle demeanor of a mother. There was no trace of the ferocity it had shown moments ago.

Kai watched as the telepathic beast calmed down and then slowly emerged from the arcane arrays.

Upon seeing Kai emerge, Evindal asked with a confused expression, “What... What exactly is happening here?”

“I think I understand why these telepathic beasts choose to end their own lives.... Kai said with a serious expression.

“Why?” Feenix and Catina asked simultaneously.

“Because there's an indiscernible lethal intent. This aura is almost imperceptible, but the telepathic beast is exceptionally sensitive to it and was disturbed by this lethal intent. I used magecraft to block that lethal intent, and the telepathic beast immediately calmed down. It seems that this lethal intent was the cause. From the beginning, I sensed an unusual aura, but I couldn't quite grasp it. It was only when I stepped into the arcane arrays and the telepathic beast let out a terrifying roar, emitting a dreadful aura, that I was able to detect the presence of that lethal intent,” Kai explained.

“Why didn’t I sense the lethal intent?”

Catina was taken aback. Given her current cultivation level, she should have noticed what Kai did. It was strange that she didn’t.

Evindal also wore a puzzled expression. “Lethal intent? That shouldn’t be. Although there is lethal intent within the Phantom Valley, there is an arcane array in the middle that acts as a barrier. The lethal intent shouldn’t be able to reach the Spirit Beast Valley.”

“Let’s go and investigate. Perhaps we’ll understand then...”

After Kai finished speaking, he walked toward the entrance of the cave. Feenix and the others hurriedly followed, and together with Kai, they headed toward the Phantom Valley.

Upon exiting the cave, Kai could no longer sense the lethal intent, but he continued toward the Phantom Valley.

Returning once again to the Phantom Valley, Kai gazed upon the ground littered with skeletal remains and the motionless telepathic beasts. Slowly, he ventured further in. When Feenix and Catina attempted to follow and enter, Kai stopped them.

“Do not enter. This place cannot bear any other aura at the moment.”

Kai was afraid that the presence coming from Feenix and Catina would conceal the subtle, almost imperceptible, deadly intention.

As Kai stepped into the Phantom Valley, he immediately felt himself surrounded by the thick, deadly atmosphere that filled the surroundings.

