

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3533

Upon arriving at the Summers residence, they noticed that the doors were tightly shut. Observing the closed doors, Catina expressed her confusion, "The Summers family is considered prominent in Forlisle, so why have they gone to bed and closed their doors so early?"

Cloud also found it extremely strange. "It's rather odd for such a prominent household to close its doors so early. It shouldn't be the case."

It wasn't that late, but the doors of the Summers residence were tightly shut. This was somewhat unusual.

"Cloud, go knock on the door and see."

Kai furrowed his brows and instructed Cloud to knock on the door. He wanted to find out why the Summers family had closed their doors so early. Did something happen?

Cloud stepped forward to knock on the door. He knocked for quite a while before someone finally opened it from the inside.

"What's all this knocking about? Who are you people, banging on the door of the Summers residence so recklessly?" a young man bellowed angrily.

Upon seeing the other party open the door with anger and speaking inappropriately, Cloud instantly became furious.

"What's the issue with knocking on the door? Is it forbidden to knock on the doors of the Summers residence?" Cloud retorted with a cold expression.

The young man was taken aback, about to yell, but Kai quickly stepped forward with a faint smile. "My friend," he said, "we are here to see the head of the family. My name is Kai, would you mind informing him?"

Kai believed that as long as the gatekeeper revealed his name to Tyler, Tyler would undoubtedly come to greet him personally.

To his surprise, the young man waved his hand and said, "The head of the family is in seclusion. He's not seeing anyone..."

“Seclusion?” Kai ’s face was full of surprise. He had only just left the Celestial Battlefield not long ago, so how could he be in seclusion so soon?

“Then I’ll look for Jacques. Jennifer will do as well...”

Although Tyler had retreated from the world, Jacques and Jennifer were always around.

“They have also gone into seclusion,” the young man said impatiently.

“They’ve gone into seclusion as well?” Kai ’s face was filled with surprise. How could those two possibly have gone into seclusion?

At that moment, Kai ’s brows were already furrowed.

“Where is Mr. Freddie? I’m fine with seeking Mr. Freddie,” he pressed on. He refused to believe that all the people he knew had gone into seclusion.

“Mr. Freddie isn’t in seclusion, but he is occupied with other matters and isn’t present at the moment. You should leave for now and come back later,” the young man said with a wave.

Then, showing signs of impatience, he was about to close the door. However, Kai held the door open, not allowing the young man to close it.

“What are you planning to do? I already told you to come back later. If you refuse to leave, don’t blame me for using force!” the young man said with a gloomy expression.

“What the heck? Who do you think you are threatening? You’re nothing but a mere watchdog! How dare you speak to Mr. Chance in such a manner? You must have a death wish or something!” Cloud shouted as he stepped forward and knocked the young man to the ground with a single kick.

Having spent some time with Kai , Cloud had indeed changed a lot. However, this young man’s attitude was truly more than Cloud could bear.

Kai didn’t blame Cloud either. The young man did indeed need to be taught a lesson.

The young man quickly stood up, glaring angrily at Cloud and Kai . “How dare you touch me? I am a member of the Summers family! You have truly crossed the line! Guards! We have intruders breaking in!”

With the young man's loud shouts, an elderly man swiftly arrived, followed closely by a dozen cultivators.

"What is happening? Who dares to enter the Summers residence?" the elderly man asked, his face filled with anger.

The young man pointed at Kai and Cloud, saying, "It's them, Mr. Vilhelm. I already told them that the head of the family is in seclusion, but they insisted on entering!"

Vilhelm Summers looked at Kai and Cloud with disdain in his eyes.

Cloud was a cultivator in the Body Fusion Realm, while Kai was a First Level Tribulator. Although the Summers family was knowledgeable in the study of magecraft, they were still far more advanced in terms of cultivation levels compared to Cloud and Kai .

"Who are you people? Why did you break into the Summers residence? If you cannot provide a convincing reason, do not blame me for using force!" Vilhelm said with a cold snort.

"We were friends of the head of the Summers family, specifically visiting to pay our respects, not to cause trouble," Kai said calmly and peacefully.

"Friends of the head of the family?"

Vilhelm glanced at Kai , then sneered, "How could the head of the Summers family possibly have a friend like you? Are you trying to infiltrate the Summers family, hoping to obtain some charms? I've encountered plenty of people like you. Regardless of whose friend you are, if you want to acquire the arcane arrays and charms, you must pay with spirit coins."

"I truly am a friend of the head of the Summers family. If you don't believe me, you can ask the head of the family himself," Kai said, furrowing his brow.

"The head of the family is in seclusion, so there is no way for us to ask him," Vilhelm said, rolling his eyes in exasperation.

"You could ask Jacques and his sister, Jennifer. They know me as well," Kai suggested.

"I won't ask anyone. You all had better leave immediately, or I will use force!"

Vilhelm waved his hand, and a dozen cultivators surrounded Kai and Cloud. Kai's brow furrowed, his expression turning ominously cold and fearsome.

He had simply come to visit the Summers family. He hadn't expected the members of the Summers family to be so unreasonable.

Although Kai couldn't quite articulate what had specifically happened, he had a vague feeling that something seemed to have gone wrong with the Summers family.

"I won't leave until I have seen the head of the Summers family today," Kai said coldly.

"Very well, if you won't leave, then I'll have to drive you away!"

With a subtle signal from Vilhelm, over a dozen cultivators simultaneously launched their attacks toward Kai and Cloud.

Those cultivators included First Level Tribulators, Second Level Tribulators, as well as Body Fusion Realm cultivators. It was evident that the overall strength of the Summers family was still relatively weak.

"I really didn't want to resort to this, but since you insist on forcing my hand, don't blame me for what happens next!"

Kai's aura erupted in an instant.

No one saw how Kai moved, but more than a dozen cultivators from the Summers family were all sent flying in the blink of an eye.

Kai couldn't care less about the First Level Tribulators and Second Level Tribulators, let alone the Body Fusion Realm cultivators, who couldn't even get close to Kai. They were blown away by the aura that Kai exuded.

Upon seeing what was before him, Vilhelm's expression instantly turned to shock. He shouted angrily, "You audacious brat! How dare you pretend to be weak to deceive us? Do you think those in the Summers family are pushovers? Set up the arcane array! Neither of these two people shall leave today!"

The Summers family was renowned as a lineage of magecraft experts, hence they were the most proficient in setting up arcane arrays.

No sooner had Vilhelm finished speaking, than a terrifying aura suddenly swept over them. Vilhelm was forced to back away again and again, while the other cultivators all fell flat on the ground.

“Is this how the Summers family treats their guests? The head of the family personally invited us, and now he’s avoiding us?”

Catina slowly walked in from outside.

The aura of Catina, who was a Seventh Level Tribulator, made Vilhelm’s expression incredibly unpleasant.

At first, he had no respect for the abilities of Kai and Cloud. But now that Catina has shown up, Vilhelm dared not underestimate them anymore.

“You must be the Fox Queen from the three kings and four archons, right? My apologies for any disrespect...”

Vilhelm recognized Catina and quickly approached to ingratiate himself. Catina gave Vilhelm a cold glance, snorted dismissively, and said, “Summon the head of your family. I don’t have time to waste with you.”

“Fox Queen, the leader of our family, has indeed retreated from public life...”

Vilhelm found himself in a difficult situation.

“What about his two children?” Catina inquired.

“Um...”

Vilhelm hesitated, unsure of how to answer.

“Mr. Vilhelm, as they are Tyler’s long-time friends, please invite them inside and ask Jennifer to join us. They have traveled a great distance, after all.”

Just then, a middle-aged man wearing a blue robe approached and spoke.
