

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3541

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3541-As Jennifer listened to the crowd's discussion, her expression turned icy.

Suddenly, she spoke out loudly. "Everyone, please be quiet. Today, I have brought everyone here to have a serious discussion with Uncle Oscar about the future direction of our Summers family." Upon hearing Jennifer's furious rebuke, everyone promptly fell silent.

"Jennifer, what would you like to discuss? Feel free to speak your mind in front of the entire Summers family..." Oscar said calmly.

"Alright. Uncle Oscar, I want to ask you this. Why did you imprison my father and brother? Why did you kill Mr. Freddie? Are you trying to get our Summers family to join the Demon Seal Alliance? Are you plotting to take over as the head of the Summers family?" Jennifer fired off a series of sharp questions. Upon hearing Jennifer's words, everyone in the Summers family was taken aback.

"What? Mr. Tyler was arrested? Isn't he in seclusion?" "What's going on?" "Could it be that Mr. Oscar is planning a rebellion?" The members of the Summers family quietly discussed among themselves.

Listening to Jennifer's interrogation, Oscar responded with a faint smile, "Jennifer, I can tell you now. I locked up your father and brother solely for the development of the Summers family! Our Summers family relied on magecraft to establish ourselves, yet our overall strength is not particularly formidable. Not even within the entire southern region do we hold much significance. If we want the Summers family to grow and prosper, we must seek alliances. What's wrong with cooperating with the Demon Seal Alliance? I believe that a significant number of us in the Summers family are interested in collaborating with the Demon Seal Alliance." Jennifer was stunned. She hadn't expected Oscar to drop all pretenses and admit it outright.

This was beyond her expectations.

"Even if we were to cooperate with the Demon Seal Alliance, it would require the consensus of our entire Summers family, not your forced confinement of my father and brother, or your reason for killing Mr. Freddie. Release my father and brother now! If the majority of the Summers family wishes to join the Demon Seal Alliance, we will not stand in their way.” Jennifer’s current demand was for Oscar to first release her father and brother.

As for joining the Demon Seal Alliance, once her father was released, there would naturally be a way to handle it.

“Hahaha, I can hear the little schemes you’re concocting in your mind from here!” Suddenly, Oscar burst into hearty laughter. Then, he turned to the members of the Summers family and asked, “I intend to lead the Summers family to join the Demon Seal Alliance. Are you willing to support me?” The members of the Summers family exchanged glances, none daring to utter a word.

The situation was unclear, and the members of the Summers family were uncertain about whom to support.

However, at that moment, a somewhat hunched, thin-framed old man walked in from outside.

“I disagree with joining the Demon Seal Alliance. As the second master of the Summers family, you should have supported Mr. Tyler’s decision. Yet, unexpectedly, you secretly imprisoned him, intending to join the Demon Seal Alliance on your own. This is the home of all of us, the Summers family, not just your personal domain, Oscar...” The elder’s voice was strong, his eyes filled with anger.

The elder was the chief butler of the Summers family. Although he was not technically a member of the Summers family, he had served several generations of the family’s masters.

“Mr. Rowland...” Upon seeing the elderly man, Jennifer felt her heart immediately fill with joy, and her eyes began to well up with tears.

“Ms. Jennifer, rest assured. I was unaware that such a significant event had occurred in the Summers family. As long as I’m alive, I won’t allow the Summers family to cooperate with the Demon Seal Alliance. This is a rule set by the family head, and no one can break it!” Todd Rowland comforted Jennifer.

When Oscar caught sight of the elderly man entering, his previously calm demeanor vanished from his face, replaced by an unattractive expression.

"I, too, am opposed to collaborating with the Demon Seal Alliance. We should prioritize the release of Mr. Tyler before delving into any further discussions."

"Absolutely, let's release Mr. Tyler first and then address other issues!"

"Release Mr. Tyler!" As soon as Todd appeared, the entire Summers family rallied behind Jennifer, offering their overwhelming support.

It was clear that Todd held a prominent position within the Summers family.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3542-Oscar stood up slowly, observing the crowd demanding Tyler's release. He nodded and said, "Very well, I will release my elder brother before making a decision on this matter." With that, Oscar got up from his seat and made his way towards the hall's entrance. As Oscar reached the entrance, a cold glint appeared in his eyes and he reached into his pocket.

In an instant, he pulled out a charm and shouted, "Explode!" Boom!

Suddenly, a large amount of red smoke filled the hall. Taking advantage of the chaos, Oscar rushed out and quickly closed the door behind him.

"That was a despicable act of Blood Dispersion!" someone shouted angrily. The door was forcefully kicked open and members of the Summers family poured out of the hall.

However, their expressions were grim and they were drenched in cold sweat.

Their inner spiritual energy was rapidly depleting, and even standing felt incredibly exhausting.

Instead of fleeing, Oscar stood quietly in the courtyard, waiting for everyone.

Since everyone had been affected by the Blood- Red Scatter, their spiritual energy was completely drained, leaving them with nothing to fear.

Furious, Todd glared at Oscar, gritting his teeth as he yelled, "Oscar, you are despicable for using such poisonous means against your own family!"

"Hahaha! In this world, might makes right. Now that you are all in my grasp, surrender to me and support me. I can provide you with the antidote. I have already contacted the Demon Seal Alliance, and they will soon send someone to the Summers family. If you come to your senses now, you might still be able to save your lives. If the people from the Demon Seal Alliance arrive, don't blame me for not giving you a chance to live." Oscar laughed heartily without restraint.

Upon hearing Oscar's words, everyone in the Summers family gritted their teeth in anger, but they were utterly helpless.

They were so drained that they couldn't even move, let alone keep up with Oscar.

"This guy actually managed to get his hands on Blood Dispersion! It seems he has been colluding with the Demon Seal Alliance for a long time!" Catina said angrily.

"What is Blood Dispersion?" Jared asked, observing the weakened state of everyone around him, while he himself seemed unaffected.

Catina followed Jared and explained, "Blood Dispersion is a type of poison used by demons. Even the strongest individuals, once afflicted by Blood Dispersion, would instantly lose their spiritual energy and become incredibly weak.

However, if the antidote is administered promptly, there wouldn't be any significant harm. If the antidote isn't given in time, the body could suffer damage, and it might become impossible to practice cultivation in the future. In severe cases, it could even result in loss of life." Jared couldn't help but exclaim, "This fellow is truly a monster, resorting to using such poison on his own family!" With a face full of shame, Jennifer apologized, "I'm sorry, Mr. Chance. It was my fault that you all got involved in this..." If it hadn't been for the Summers family's affairs, Jared and his group wouldn't have ended up in such a dire situation.

"Ms. Summers, it's just Blood Dispersion. There's no need to be overly anxious, Jared said with a slight smile.

Upon hearing this, Jennifer looked at Jared with a puzzled expression. She noticed that Jared seemed very relaxed, as if he hadn't been poisoned at all.

Catina also wore a surprised expression. "Jared, are you not affected by the poison?" Cloud, who was standing nearby, said, "Mr. Chance is immune to all poisons, so how could he possibly be affected?" Upon realizing that Jared had not been poisoned, Jennifer felt relieved. Oscar glanced at the members of the Summers family and stated, "You have ten minutes to think it over. Those who are willing to submit and support me can come forward now." Despite their frustration, not one member of the Summers family approached Oscar. Nevertheless, Oscar remained patient, wearing a cold smile on his face.

"May I offer my support?" In that instant, Jared emerged from the crowd and made his way towards Oscar.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3543-Oscar glanced at Jared, his eyes filled with disdain as he said, "You're not even a member of the Summers family, so your support is completely useless to me.

Since you wanted to stand out, prepare yourself to become a cripple!" Oscar had no respect for Jared whatsoever. Even if Jared were to compromise, there was no way Oscar would give him the antidote.

"Worthless, huh? How about this?" With a casual smile, Jared suddenly attacked Oscar.

Jared simply swung his hand, and in an instant, Oscar was sent flying, his face swelling up like a pig's head.

"H-How are you still able to fight?" Oscar covered his face, his eyes filled with disbelief.

"Did you really think a mere dose of poison could strip me of all my powers?

What a joke!" Jared smirked and continued, "Now, hand over the antidote, release the head of the Summers family, and then kneel down to sincerely repent. Perhaps then, you might still have a chance to live." In Oscar's eyes, there was nothing but ferocity.

He scoffed coldly, "Are you spouting nonsense, you brat? Do you even dare to kill me? I assure you, no one but me can neutralize the poison in their bodies. If you kill me, they will all be left crippled." Oscar knew that Jared didn't dare to kill him, which was precisely why he acted the way he did.

"You seem quite confident. Who said that only you have the antidote for this poison? Don't you think that if I can avoid being poisoned, I could also find a cure?" Jared retorted with a cold laugh.

“Brat, there’s no need for pretense here. I may not know how you managed to avoid being poisoned, but if you think you can cure these people of their poison, that’s nothing more than a foolish fantasy.” Oscar was no fool. Although Jared had not been poisoned, it didn’t mean that Jared could neutralize the poison.

“Since you don’t believe, then let me show you.” After Jared finished speaking, he looked at Cloud and said, “Cloud, come here...” Cloud nodded, dragging his extremely exhausted body as he slowly walked up to Jared.

At first glance, Cloud was clearly poisoned. However, Jared quickly pressed a few acupoints on Cloud’s body. To their surprise, Cloud spat out a mouthful of black blood, and his overall condition seemed to improve significantly.

Upon witnessing this scene, the expression on Oscar’s face instantly turned extremely unpleasant.

He hadn’t expected that Jared could actually neutralize the poison.

However, it didn’t take long for Oscar to seemingly realize something, and he suddenly burst into laughter. “There’s no need to deceive me, you brat. If you could neutralize the poison, you would have killed me by now. You’re merely using your own spiritual energy to temporarily suppress the toxins in his body. I refuse to believe that with so many people, you could suppress them all with that little spiritual energy you possess. Even if you know how to concoct antidotes, there are no mystical herbs here, so you’re completely helpless. All you can do is kneel before me and beg for mercy, surrendering to my will.

Otherwise, it won’t be long before you become crippled, even if you were to consume an antidote.” Listening to Oscar’s words, Jared couldn’t help but express his admiration.

“Impressive. I originally thought all villains like you were stupid, but I didn’t expect you to be so clever.” “Hmph, if it weren’t for my father’s favoritism, the position of the head of the Summers family should have been mine. With my intelligence and wisdom, I could have definitely led the Summers family to great heights!” After receiving praise from Jared, Oscar began to boast about himself.

“I gave you an inch, and you took a mile. Well, let me show you if I can concoct a remedy.” After Jared finished speaking, he effortlessly summoned the Divine Cauldron into the courtyard. Subsequently, he retrieved a substantial quantity of mystical herbs from his Storage Ring During his time in Yellow Blue City, Jared had managed to acquire a generous supply of mystical herbs from the Supreme Alchemist.

As Oscar gazed upon the Divine Cauldron and the plentiful mystical herbs before him, he was left in a state of bewilderment.

He simply couldn't comprehend it.

Who exactly is this individual? It was one thing to possess mastery in magecraft, but how did he acquire knowledge in alchemy as well?

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3544-Upon witnessing Jared bring out the cauldron and the mystical herbs, excitement filled everyone in the Summers family. This confirmed that Jared was indeed capable of concocting the antidote, which meant they no longer had to accept their fate of being crippled or submit to Oscar.

"Mr. Chance is truly an enigmatic individual!" Jennifer looked at Jared, her eyes filled with a mix of emotions.

"Do you have feelings for Jared?" Catina asked.

Jennifer blushed and exclaimed, "No, not at all! Besides, Mr. Chance already has a woman by his side..." "What does it matter if he has other women? For a man like him, it's normal to have multiple partners. If you like him, you have to pursue him yourself, and tonight is a great opportunity!" Catina teased Jennifer playfully.

Blushing, Jennifer lowered her head, not daring to say another word.

Meanwhile, Jared had already placed all the necessary mystical herbs into the Divine Cauldron.

"Even if you possess the mystical herb and know how to concoct pills, it's futile.

You simply cannot create the antidote. Blood Dispersion is one of the top ten poisons within the demon race. To concoct an antidote, you must use demonic fire!" Oscar exclaimed loudly.

He knew that only demonic fire could be used to create the antidote. However, Jared was not a member of the demon race, making it impossible for him to possess demonic fire.

Jared feigned surprise and exclaimed, "I have to use demonic fire?" "Hmph, in the end, you all still had to beg me obediently..." Upon seeing Jared in that state, hope was reignited in Oscar.

But what happened next completely caught Oscar off guard. Jared snapped his fingers, and a ball of flame instantly danced at his fingertips.

The flames blazed a fiery red, and Jared hurled it into the air. The flames erupted suddenly, spreading intense heat throughout the entire Summers family estate.

Jared looked at Oscar with a smile and asked, "Is this the Demonic Flame you mentioned?" Oscar's eyes widened in disbelief as he pointed at Jared and stammered, "You... How could you possess demonic fire? Are you a Demonic Cultivator?" "Whether I am a Demonic Cultivator or not is none of your concern. Now, I will concoct the antidote!" After Jared finished speaking, he threw the demonic fire directly into the Divine Cauldron. The mystical herbs ignited instantly.

Accompanied by waves of medicinal fragrance, crystal-clear pills began to appear one by one in the Divine Cauldron.

In just one hour, Jared had successfully concocted the antidote. After distributing the antidote, every member of the Summers family received and consumed it.

Upon taking the antidote, the discomfort among the crowd vanished instantly, filling everyone with immense gratitude towards Jared.

Todd looked at Jared with deep gratitude and said, "You saved our lives today."

We, the Summers family, are eternally grateful..." "Thank you, Mr. Chance!" Jennifer approached Jared to express her gratitude. However, as she looked at Jared, her face turned a deep shade of red.

Jared was still somewhat puzzled, wondering what was going on with Jennifer.

Little did he know that Catina had just teased Jennifer, causing her heart to flutter with affection in that very moment.

Jared turned to Oscar and asked, "Have you given up?" Oscar's face was clouded with uncertainty, and he did not respond to Jared's words.

While Jared was momentarily distracted, Oscar suddenly turned and ran.

"Planning to run away?" Upon seeing the situation, Catina let out a cold huff. In an instant, she was by Oscar's side.

Before Oscar could react, he felt his legs give way, and he fell to his knees on the ground.

Catina had broken Oscar's legs with a kick.

Jared followed Jennifer and the others in pursuit.

"Uncle Oscar, where are my father and brother? Where have you hidden them?" Jennifer inquired.

"Hmph! Feel free to kill me if you wish! I won't utter a single word!" Oscar understood that his only hope lay in keeping the location of their confinement a secret. If he were to reveal it, he would undoubtedly meet his demise.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3545-You..." Jennifer was seething with anger, but since Oscar was her uncle, she couldn't bring herself to lay a hand on him.

"You monster!" Jennifer hesitated to raise her hand in conflict, but Todd did not. As the butler of the Summers family, having looked after several generations of family heads, he was not at all intimidated by Oscar. He directly slapped Oscar across the face.

"I will make you talk," Jared said and turned to Jennifer as he continued, "Ms.

Summers, please restrain your uncle first. Then, prepare the place. I believe it won't be long before the members of the Demon Seal Alliance arrive." Since Oscar had sent someone to invite the members of the Demon Seal Alliance, Jared knew for sure that they would come.

Originally, Jared had planned to stay for just one night and then leave. However, if the Demon Seal Alliance were to come after the Summers family now, he feared the Summers family wouldn't be able to withstand them.

"Alright; I'll go set it up right away." Jennifer had someone lock up Oscar, and then began to set up arcane arrays around the Summers family's premises.

Meanwhile, in Henningsen City, Ilias was engaged in a discussion with Zayan in the grand hall of the Henningsen residence.

A servant walked in and told Ilias, "Mr. Henningsen, representatives from the Summers family of Forlisle have arrived..." Upon hearing this, Ilias immediately burst into laughter. "Let him in! It seems the matter has been settled!" "What happened?" Zayan asked in confusion.

He was still unaware of the fact that Ilias was collaborating with Oscar.

"Mr. Cabeza, as I've said before, the Summers family will surely take the initiative to join the Demon Seal Alliance. Well, they've just sent someone over to our doorstep! In fact, I've been in touch with Oscar of the Summers family for quite some time now. Oscar was also willing to bring the Summers family to join the Demon Seal Alliance. Given that they are sending someone over at this hour, they must have succeeded!" Ilias replied with great satisfaction.

While Ilias was explaining things to Zayan, Oscar's subordinate had already entered, carrying an item pouch.

The subordinate handed the item pouch over to Ilias and said, "Mr. Henningsen, Henningsen could dispatch someone to the Summers family and assist him in gaining control over the Summers family." Ilias didn't speak; instead, he opened his item pouch. Inside, there were tokens from the Summers family, along with several secret scrolls of magecraft from the Summers family.

The most significant item was a map, which depicted the secret location of the Summers family.

Tyler and Jacques were confined in this secret land. Originally, this secret place was intended to serve as a refuge for the Summers family in times of catastrophic disaster.

Moreover, very few people knew about this place; it was the most closely guarded secret of the Summers family.

Now, Oscar had willingly handed it over to Ilias.

“Hahaha, it seems that Oscar is indeed trustworthy!” Looking at the object in his hand, Ilias burst into triumphant laughter.

After laughing, Ilias waved his hand and said, “Grand Elder, take the Henningsen family’s men and follow him to the Summers family. If you find any stubborn individuals in the Summers family who refuse to join the Demon Seal Alliance, they are to be killed without question.” “As you wish...” The Grand Elder of the Henningsen family nodded, then led his people to follow Oscar’s subordinate to the Summers family.

Regarding the strength of the Summers family, Ilias felt quite assured sending the Grand Elder. After all, the Summers family primarily focused on the study of magecraft and charms, and they still lacked a bit in terms of their cultivation level.

This was also why there were so few prestigious families and sects in the Ethereal Realm practicing the art of magecraft.

The impact of magecraft on the speed and progress of one’s cultivation level was significant. After all, a person’s energy was limited. Engaging in the practice of magecraft would reduce the time required to increase one’s cultivation level.

Individuals as versatile as Jared were truly rare. Not only in the mortal realm, but also throughout the entire universe, there were very few who could match the genius of someone like Jared.

After the departure of the Grand Elder, Ilias held a map in his hands, a smile spreading across his face as he said, “Mr. Cabeza, I will now take you to meet the head of the Summers family. He is currently nothing more than a prisoner.”
