

A Man Like None Other

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3551-At the Henningsen residence, Ilias led Tyler to the Holy Pond of the Henningsen family.

The dark green pool water and the peculiar smell made Tyler's face turn somewhat unpleasant.

Ilias pointed to the Holy Pond in front of him and said, "Tyler, what you see is the Holy Pond of our Henningsen family. Legend has it that within this Holy Pond, there is ancient energy. If one can soak overnight, they can undergo a transformation, greatly enhancing their cultivation." "Why don't you go and soak to enhance your cultivation?" Tyler asked.

"Can't you see? This Holy Pond is surrounded by an arcane array. To enter the Holy Pond, the array must be broken. The arcane array has only been partially broken now, and we can't enter the Holy Pond yet..." Ilias explained.

"Ilias, don't you find your words amusing? If this Holy Pond belongs to your Henningsen family, even if there's an arcane array, you should be able to easily break it, right? Now that you can't even break the arcane array, it proves that this Holy Pond doesn't belong to your Henningsen family at all. You're just occupying it and taking it by force," Tyler laughed heartily.

He had long noticed that a very secure arcane array was set up around the Holy Pond. The array was extremely complex, clearly crafted by a senior array master.

Despite that, Ilias didn't get angry.

"Whether it's occupying or taking by force, the Holy Pond is now ours. I brought you here this time to help me break this arcane array. As soon as the arcane array is deactivated, I can let you leave immediately," Ilias said with a faint smile.

"Do you think it's possible? Why would I do things for you?" Tyler snorted.

"You will, you definitely will," Ilias said, then lightly clapped his hands. Soon, Jacques was brought out by members of the Henningsen family.

"Dad!" Seeing Tyler, Jacques was somewhat excited.

They hadn't seen each other since Oscar captured them both.

"Jacques." Tyler saw Jacques and immediately understood that Ilias intended to threaten him with his son.

"Tyler, if you don't agree, I can't guarantee what will happen to your son," Ilias threatened.

"Ilias, as the family head of the Henningsen family, can you stoop to such despicable acts?" Tyler was filled with anger, glaring fiercely at Ilias.

"Of course, I can do anything to achieve my goal." Ilias' laughter carried a chilling edge as he waved his palm gently.

"Ah!" Jennifer let out screams. Jacques' arm twisted strangely, and he looked extremely agonized. Ilias was ruthless. Without waiting for Tyler's reaction, he acted on Jacques.

"Stop, stop!" Seeing his son's painful appearance, Tyler became anxious.

Ilias didn't stop and instead coldly threatened, "Help me destroy the arcane array. You have only one day and one night. Otherwise, watch how your son gets tortured." "Fine, I agree, I agree." Tyler nodded hastily.

Seeing Tyler agree, Ilias stopped. Jacques, who had been tortured, lost all strength to stand. Ilias waved his hand, signaling for his men to take Jacques away.

Although Tyler was filled with reluctance, he was helpless. All he could do was glare at Ilias. With a sense of resignation, he began to inspect the formation, initiating the process of destroying the arcane array!

"Remember, you have only one day and one night." After saying that, Ilias turned and left.

He wasn't afraid that Tyler wouldn't comply. As long as Jacques remained in his hands, Tyler had no choice but to follow his orders.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3552-Early the next morning, the entire Henningsen family gathered together, including Cloud, Montane Daemon, and Igor.

However, even with Montane Daemon and Igor, the Summers family would still struggle to match the strength of the Henningsen family.

After all, the Summers family members were significantly weaker, putting them at a clear disadvantage.

“Ms. Summers, Mr. Rowland, please prepare yourselves along with the other Summers family members and Mr. Daemon. Mr. Oscar and I will go to the Henningsen residence first to assess the situation. If necessary, I will inform you, and you can attack the Henningsen family to divert their attention. I’ll try to rescue Mr. Tyler and Mr. Jacques,” Jared explained his plan to Jennifer and Todd.

“Mr. Chance, the Demon Seal Alliance is our archenemy. They must be searching for you everywhere. If you enter the Henningsen residence like this, aren’t you walking into a trap?” Montane Daemon asked.

Since the Henningsen family was a branch of the Demon Seal Alliance, it was dangerous for Jared to go there.

“I can use the Impersonation Technique. The Henningsen family won’t realize it,” Jared reassured.

He then used the Impersonation Technique to transform himself into an exact replica of Vilhelm.

Many members of the Summers family were astonished to see him transform into Vilhelm.

Oscar was also visibly surprised.

“Mr. Chance, even if you can change your appearance, it’s still...” Jennifer glanced at Oscar, worried that he might change his mind and reveal Jared’s true identity at the Henningsen residence. That would be troublesome.

Oscar understood Jennifer’s concern and said in displeasure, “Jennifer, although Tyler and I have different political views, I won’t harm him or let him die. I want to lead the Summers family to prosperity and make it even more glorious!” “Rest assured, Ms. Summers. Unless he wishes to meet his own demise, he wouldn’t dare to play any tricks. The poison in his system hasn’t been neutralized yet,” Jared explained cheerfully.

Jared would never risk Oscar’s conscience. At that time, Oscar was still poisoned, and only Jared could cure him. Therefore, he wouldn’t dare to play any tricks!

With everything settled, Oscar led Jared towards the Henningsen residence.

Meanwhile, Ilias was in a room made of unique stones within the Henningsen residence.

In this room, Rueben Henningsen, Ilias’ son, resided.

Rueben’s face was deathly pale, almost frightening. He looked like a lifeless person, and his eyes were bloodshot.

Ilias gazed at Rueben with indulgence and said, “Rueben, hold on a little longer.

I’ve already brought the head of the Summers family here to destroy the arcane array. Once the array is destroyed, you can enter the Holy Pond. Your bloodline will be restored, and you won’t have to be locked up here anymore.” “Dad, I’ve lost all hope. I’m worse than a cripple now. Don’t waste time on me.

Let me die,” Rueben’s eyes were filled with despair.

“Silly child, what are you saying? Wait until you recover in the Holy Pond, and everything will be fine. I’ve also prepared a large amount of resources for you.

Once your body recovers, I can help you break through quickly! You must have confidence and never give up on yourself!” Ilias tried to persuade Rueben, fearing that he might lose hope.

“Yeah, I understand,” Rueben nodded. Just then, Russell’s voice echoed from outside. “Mr. Henningsen, Mr. Oscar from the Summers family has arrived. He wishes to discuss joining the Demon Seal Alliance with you.” “Understood!” Ilias replied.

After giving Rueben's shoulder a comforting pat, Ilias exited the room. As soon as he stepped outside, the indulgent expression on his face transformed into a cold and ruthless demeanor.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3553-Oscar and Jared were waiting in the living room for Ilias.

"When you meet Ilias later, make sure to stay calm and not act recklessly. He is a Ninth Level Tribulator cultivator, someone you cannot handle," Oscar advised Jared.

At that time, Jared was only a First Level Tribulator. Dealing with a cultivator at the ninth level of the same realm was simply impossible.

"Don't worry, I know my limits!" Jared nodded.

Soon, Ilias arrived.

"Mr. Oscar, it is an honor to have you here. Please forgive my lack of courtesy." Ilias laughed heartily, entering the living room and patting Oscar's shoulder.

Just by this gesture, it was clear that Ilias was being polite and didn't hold Oscar in high regard.

Upon seeing Ilias, Oscar felt a bit nervous. He bowed and said, "Mr.

Henningsen, I apologize for the intrusion. In the future, when our family joins the Demon Seal Alliance, we will need your guidance and care." The Summers family had joined the Demon Seal Alliance early on, becoming a branch with considerable seniority.

"Mr. Oscar, you're too polite. Now that your family has joined the Demon Seal Alliance, we are essentially one family. Together, we will stand unchallenged in the region of Demonica Mountain, Ilias said with a smile, "You're right. As long as we unite and work together, even the entire Southern Region poses no threat to us, let alone within Demonica Mountain," Oscar agreed.

"Joining the Demon Seal Alliance brings countless benefits and no harm to your family. Currently, although the Summers family's charms are formidable, your overall strength is not strong. If someone were to covet the Summers family's techniques, you wouldn't be able to stop them. However, by joining the Demon Seal Alliance, it's different. If anyone dares to target the Summers family, it's equivalent to targeting the entire Demon Seal Alliance. With branches spanning the Southern Domain and even the entire Ethereal Realm, you will be safe wherever you go," Ilias praised the Demon Seal Alliance.

Although he was exaggerating, what he said was true to some extent. With the Demon Seal Alliance's influence growing in the Ethereal Realm, more families and sects wanted to join.

In this way, a positive cycle was established, causing the power of the Demon Seal Alliance in the Ethereal Realm to grow increasingly stronger!

"You're right!" Oscar nodded in agreement.

"Mr. Oscar, by joining the Demon Seal Alliance, you can enjoy its protection.

However, you must understand the rules of the alliance," Ilias said.

"Of course, I understand. We have already provided you with various secret scrolls on magecraft. I have also provided the location of our family's sanctuary, showing my determination, right?" Oscar quickly responded.

"Indeed, it demonstrates the determination of the Summers family. However, there is one more thing I need to emphasize. I need to specially remind you," Ilias said with a slightly cold expression. "Upon joining the Demon Seal Alliance, while you can enjoy its protection, you must also obey its commands.

Disobeying orders is not allowed. As for the consequences of betraying the Demon Seal Alliance, I won't say. I believe you can guess." "Understood, understood. I will definitely be loyal to the Demon Seal Alliance." Sensing the chilling aura of Ilias, Oscar hurriedly nodded in agreement.

"Hahaha, that's good. From now on, we are one family." Ilias seemed satisfied with Oscar's response, and a smile spread across his face. Once again, he patted Oscar on the shoulder.

"Mr. Henningsen, since we are now family, there is something I would like to ask of you," Oscar said softly.

"Whatever it is, feel free to speak!" Ilias said with a laugh.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3554-“I wonder if you brought my brother and nephew to the Henningsen family? I hope you can release them. Now that our family has agreed to join the Demon Seal Alliance, my brother shouldn't cause any trouble,” Oscar pleaded with Ilias.

“I did bring your brother and nephew here, but rest assured, I won't harm your brother. I simply invited him to assist with something. Once everything is settled, I will naturally release him. You can trust me on this,” Ilias assured.

Upon hearing this, Oscar felt uncertain about what would happen next and subtly glanced at Jared.

Noticing this, Jared had no choice but to speak up. “Mr. Henningsen, in that we are at your service.” Jared's attitude was very humble, and Ilias didn't notice anything unusual.

“You've reminded me. Of course, you can be of assistance. I'll take you there.” Ilias brightened up and quickly led Oscar and Jared out of the living room.

Jared exchanged a glance with Oscar. They hadn't expected that Ilias would allow them to meet Tyler.

As they followed Ilias through the Henningsen residence's backyard, Jared began sensing peculiar aura fluctuations.

However, Jared dared not show too much anomaly as he was masquerading as Vilhelm.

Ilias led them to the Holy Pond.

There, Tyler sat on a large rock, eyes closed as if in meditation.

“Tyler!” Oscar called out eagerly upon seeing him, seemingly wanting to rush over.

However, he was subtly restrained by Jared.

“Mr. Oscar, your brother is helping me break the formation. This is the Holy Pond of our family, but there's a protective arcane array around it. Due to its ancient age, we've forgotten how to deactivate the formation, so we can only forcefully destroy it," Ilias explained.

However, this explanation seemed extremely far-fetched. It was clear that this didn't belong to the Henningsen family, but rather something they had seized.

Therefore, it was only natural that they couldn't activate the arcane array.

"Mr. Henningsen, destroying formations happens to be a specialty of the Summers family," Oscar nodded.

On the other hand, Jared was studying the Holy Pond, with its dark green liquid and mirror-like surface. Due to the arcane array, he couldn't examine it closely.

"Mr. Oscar, it's perfect timing that you're here. Why don't you and Tyler help me destroy this formation? As soon as it's destroyed, you will be duly rewarded," Ilias suggested, knowing that having more people destroying the formation would expedite the process.

Oscar glanced at Jared, uncertain whether he should agree to Ilias' proposal.

"Mr. Henningson, now that we're one family, we'll certainly help with anything you need. Moreover, judging by the size of this formation, it might take a considerable amount of time for Mr. Tyler to do it alone. With our assistance, it should be much faster," Jared said.

It was clear that Jared had agreed to Ilias' proposal.

"Indeed, working together will certainly yield twice the result with half the effort.

However, after the formation is destroyed, I hope that you can let Tyler return home," Oscar said.

"Of course, I'll let him go and also prepare generous gifts for you," Ilias said as he laughed.

With Ilias agreeing to release Tyler, Oscar felt a sense of relief. If Ilias had indeed taken action against Tyler, he would never forgive himself. He didn't want any harm to befall his brother.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3555-Oscar accompanied Jared in preparing to dismantle the arcane array, while Ilias, not wanting to disturb them, chose to depart.

Several members of the Henningsen family stood guard outside Holy Pond, so Ilias wasn't concerned about Oscar and Jared attempting to escape.

Instead, he carefully observed the intricate arcane array surrounding them.

He noticed that the arcane array had already been weakened, as if someone had partially damaged it. However, the core of the arcane array remained untouched, keeping it active.

"Let's proceed with destroying the arcane array. Once it's destroyed, everything else can be negotiated," Oscar informed Jared.

As Oscar finished speaking, he suddenly felt a strong gust of wind behind him.

Instinctively, without turning, he lowered his head and quickly rolled forward.

When Oscar looked up, he saw Tyler glaring at him with anger.

"Traitor! I will teach you a lesson on behalf of the Summers family," Tyler gritted his teeth and launched another palm strike.

"Tyler, it's a misunderstanding..." Oscar anxiously dodged, but he was no match for Tyler.

If it weren't for him secretly manipulating Tyler's actions by exploiting Tyler's carelessness, Oscar wouldn't have been able to capture Tyler.

"Stop..." Jared intervened, blocking Tyler.

It wasn't the right time to kill Oscar. They were still in the Henningsen residence, so none of them could act recklessly.

"Hmph, Mr. Vilhelm, you're assisting the evildoer, betraying the Summers family.

Today, I'll kill both of you!" Tyler was infuriated to see Vilhelm there.

“Mr. Summers, it’s me!” Jared quickly revealed his identity when he realized Tyler was about to attack him.

An aura surrounded Jared, allowing him to gradually regain his original appearance.

“Mr. Chance?” Tyler was confused to see Jared there.

“Mr. Summers, please conceal your aura. We don’t want to attract the attention of the Henningsen family,” Jared advised Tyler.

At this moment, Tyler was consumed with rage, causing his aura to fluctuate wildly. If the Henningsen family were to notice, they would undoubtedly come to investigate.

Upon hearing Jared’s explanation, Tyler suppressed his aura and asked with confusion, “Mr. Chance, what’s going on?” Jared explained the entire incident to Tyler.

Oscar quickly stepped forward, saying, “Tyler, I really don’t want Ilias to capture you or cause any harm to you.” Tyler snorted coldly, casting a sidelong glance at Oscar.

Tyler probably wouldn’t be able to forgive Oscar for the time being.

“Mr. Summers, regardless of the current situation between you and your brother, you must not engage in a conflict here. If there are any issues, we can resolve them back at the Summers family. Right now, we need to help the Henningsen family destroy this arcane array and find a way to leave. Once we’re away from the Henningsen family, things will be easier,” Jared advised Tyler.

Tyler understood that they were essentially in a dangerous situation at the moment, and a wrong move could trap them.

Moreover, Jacques was still in Ilias’s grasp. If anything happened here, Jacques’s life might be at risk.

“As you say, Mr. Chance.” Tyler decided to follow Jared’s plan.

“Okay. First, let’s destroy this arcane array, and then we can take our time to discuss what comes next,” Jared told them.

“Mr. Chance, this arcane array must be destroyed within three days. Otherwise, Ilias will target my son,” Tyler emphasized.

“Don’t worry, destroying this arcane array won’t take three days. I’ll have it done by tomorrow,” Jared confidently assured.
