Chapter 921 A Rare Opportunity

Meanwhile, in the Deragon residence, Ryker had an unreadable expression as he received news about Kai's victory.

He looked at Godrick and asked, "Godrick, do you think you can win if you fight Kai alone?"

Godrick hesitated for a moment before shaking his head. "I'm not sure..."

Previously, Godrick would have nodded without hesitation. He had looked down on Kai then.

However, Godrick lost his confidence after finding out that Kai defeated someone as powerful as Ichiro.

Ryker looked at Godrick and replied, "I don't think you will stand a chance if you enter a one-on-one battle with Kai. Do you know why?"

"Why?" Godrick looked at Ryker with a confused expression.

"It is because Kai has the true Deragons bloodline in his veins. On the other hand, yours is only a collateral lineage," Ryker answered.

Godrick looked down immediately upon hearing Ryker.

He had always felt ashamed about his status as a collateral lineage of the Deragons.

Therefore, he cultivated hard and used his talent to become Martial Arts Grandmaster at a young age. He wanted to depend on his hard work to enter the core of the Deragons.

However, that was not an easy task.

"Mr. Deragon, are you sure that Kai is the child Ms. Beatrice lost all those years ago?"

Godrick asked.

"Other than those from the Deragons bloodline, no one could reach Martial Arts Grandmaster in such a short time. Furthermore, I have sent someone to investigate Kai's background. He learned cultivation from an elderly three years ago while he was in prison. Moreover, I suspect that the elderly was-"

Godrick widened his eyes slightly and interrupted, "Could he be Mr. Draco?"

Ryker nodded. "That's right. Mr. Draco and Rayleigh escaped from the Deragon residence three years ago. We still do not know where they are now. It seems they have found Beatrice's child, and that child is Kai."

"Mr. Deragon, what should we do? Should we send someone to capture Kai? Since we have confirmed Kai's identity, we should capture and bring him here," Godrick suggested.

"If we capture him now, it would be akin to opposing the officials. Kai has just defeated Ichiro and is now a hero. Furthermore, the team event is in three days. Don't you think the officials would come after us if we abduct him now?" Ryker replied solemnly. Godrick seemed ashamed of his suggestion and said cautiously, "Mr. Deragon, what should we do?"

Ryker did not answer Godrick but asked, "I sent you to the Warriors Alliance to find out something. Have you found the answer? Do you know where they will hold Trial this year?"

"Mr. Deragon, even the Warriors Alliance has not received confirmation about Trial's location.

The higher-ups have not discussed this matter with them. However, President Zeigler said he would inform us immediately once the higher-ups announced the location. But I feel it is coming soon. We should inform Mr. Edgar to rush home," Godrick answered immediately.

"Edgar will not be coming back this year. Therefore, I permit you to attend Trial. You must make the most of this chance." Ryker patted Godrick's shoulder solemnly. Godrick was stunned and began to tremble from excitement.

"Thank you, Mr. Deragon. I won't disappoint you." Godrick quickly kneeled before Ryker.

One should know that the annual Trial was the best opportunity for young martial artists to grow their powers.

There were unknown magical items to be found. Since Trial was usually held in ancient ruins, caverns, or ancient tombs, no one knew the kind of magical items one could find there.

Previously, Ryker always sent his son, Edgar, to attend Trial. However, it was finally Godrick's turn this year, so he was determined to make the most of it.

Chapter 922 I Will Drink With You

The Department of Justice's martial arts arena was brightly illuminated with more than ten tables arranged in it.

Everyone within the department had gathered there, for it was a day of celebration.

By defeating Ichiro, Kai had brought glory to all of them.

"Mr. Chance, you're amazing today. I would like to make a toast to you..."

"Mr. Chance, by standing up for all of us, you are the savior of the Department of Justice."

“Mr. Chance, you’re my idol now, and I’ll be worshipping you from now on.”
One by one, the members of the Department of Justice came to offer Kai a toast.

After accepting every single one of the toasts gracefully, he ended up drinking an entire barrel of beer.

“Don’t drink too much,” Lyanna advised with concern when she saw the amount of alcohol Kai was downing.

“Don’t worry, I’ll never get drunk.” Given that he had achieved Transcendence Phase, his alcohol tolerance was tremendously high.

Anne, who was sitting opposite Kai, commented with a smile, “Kai, your girlfriend cares a lot about you.”

As it was an event organized by the Department of Justice, Theodore had also invited representatives from Seneris. Since they were on good terms with each other, it was a wonderful opportunity to bond.

“Princess Anne, you have misunderstood. We’re nothing more than friends,” Kai explained.

“It doesn’t look that way to me. The look that Ms. Lyanna throws at you is one that’s filled with admiration,” Anne remarked after shooting Lyanna a glance.

“You must have been mistaken,” Kai replied with an awkward smile.

When she saw the look on Kai’s face, Anne burst into laughter. “Since Ms. Lyanna isn’t your girlfriend, where is she then? I’m interested in seeing what the woman worthy of you looks like.”

Just as she spoke, Anne took a seat beside Kai with a drink in her hand. When Lyanna saw what the former was trying to do, she looked displeased.

“Neither is my girlfriend here nor do I know where she is.”

Amidst his reply, Kai’s eyes glistened with a sense of longing. He missed Josephine after being away from her for almost two months. Furthermore, he had no idea where Rayleigh had taken Josephine and the others.

“How can you not know where your girlfriend is? You truly are a terrible boyfriend. That aside, your girlfriend seems pretty easy going to give someone as eligible as you so much freedom. Isn’t she worried that another girl might steal you away?”

While chatting with Kai, Anne moved closer to him and even put her hand on his lap, just a few inches from where his crotch was.

At that moment, he could feel Anne’s breath and the warmth of her hand. It brought chaos into his mind and caused his heart to race.

Meanwhile, the frostiness on Lyanna's face intensified as she watched Anne come onto Kai.

She had assumed that her actions were forward enough, but didn't expect a foreigner to be more aggressive than she was.

"Anne, there's something I need to do. Why don't you chat with someone else first."

Kai quickly got up, for he was cognizant that sitting there would allow Anne to have her way with him.

"Kai, don't go. We haven't even shared a drink together, have we?"

Just when Anne tried to stop Kai, Lyanna unexpectedly got in her way.

"Princess Anne, let me drink with you."

After downing a glass of wine, Lyanna eyes bristled provocatively.

Meeting Lyanna's gaze, Anne responded to the challenge by downing her drink. As Seneris' princess, she was afraid of no one, especially when it came to drinking.

Ignoring them, Kai found a quiet place to settle down. Despite the star-filled sky, he could barely lift his spirits.

Even though he had defeated Ichiro, Kai was aware that it came at the cost of revealing his true strength to everyone. Going forward, he could no longer rely on the element of surprise to defeat his enemies.
