Marriage Beyond Redemption by Lesley Harte Chapter 26

Chapter 26 Don't You Give Up on Him Yet?

Peyton was pretty good—looking. Even when she wept silently and did not speak, she looked lovely and pitiful.

Lucian whispered to her, “Mr. Dalton is waiting for you.”

Peyton, recovering her senses, touched her wet face. She realized that she had wept a gain.

“Lucian, I must be looking ugly now.

Lucian, who had worked for Nolan for a long time, knew exactly how bouncy and energetic Peyton used to be. It had only been two years, but Peyton seemed to have withered like a flower that had not yet reached its full bloom.

“No, you are the most beautiful one,” Lucian replied and handed Peyton a napkin.

Peyton cleaned her face. “I hated those who cried all the time the most, but I never thought that I would be one of them one day. I didn’t understand that the world is capricious and fate is deceitful until now.”

Lucian looked into her sorrowful eyes and comforted her rarely, “Do not indulge in grief. Why don’t you just take the chance to live a different life?”

Nolan modified the divorce agreement after a night of contemplation. Clearly, he had made up his mind to let bygones be bygones.

The Schmitt family had been ruined, and Kason, who bore all the blame, had been more dead than alive. As for Peyton, she had suffered a lot of torture over the past two years. Nolan decided to let her off.

That was why he agreed to give her rich compensation for divorce. He didn't wish her to be down and out the rest of her life.

It was time for Peyton to leave Nolan. As a sensible person, she should have known that Nolan would never come back to her.

She had suffered a lot in the past few years. If she continued to be obsessed, her obstinacy would drive her to tragic doom.

Peyton avoided Lucian's question and let out a sigh, "If my baby were still alive, he would be the same age as Chris."

Lucian wanted to say something else to smooth her, but at last, he only said, "You are young. Don't worry. You will have a baby again."

"I can't have a baby anymore."

Looking at her desolate face, Lucian felt somewhat strange and wanted to say something else. Just then, Peyton said, "Let's go."

Nolan had been in the car for a while. With his pretty face turning gloomy, he didn't cast a glance at Peyton at all.

After Peyton got in the car, he said indifferently with his arms crossed, "You can't get anything from me this month."

"It's enough to spend this month with you." Peyton put herself into Nolan's arms.

Before she found the evidence yesterday, she resented Nolan and wanted revenge. She felt mixed and didn't know what to do. She hated Nolan for what he had done to the Schmitt family and his betrayal of her.

However, the evidence showed that Kason was not innocent, which was indeed a shock to Peyton. Given that things had turned out like this, Peyton had no choice but to sacrifice her life to end it all. She wanted to leave with no regrets, so she made the deal with Nolan.

Nolan didn't hug Peyton. Instead, he said with a cold face, "I will be engaged to Helena next year."

In an instant, Peyton tightened her grip on his coat, and her smile froze on her face.

It was deadly silent in the car. Although the heating was on in the car, Jayson felt extremely cold.

After a long while, Peyton raised her head and said, "You can take it easy. I will leave you in a month."

Nolan couldn't help feeling complicated
