

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1789

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1789 -When Serenity was looking at Analia, Analia was also looking at Serenity.

Everyone in Wiltspoon now knew that Serenity was the eldest mistress of the York family, but not many people could remember Serenity's appearance. She rarely showed her face in front of the media, and Zachary protected her very well.

Every time she was on the trending search, she would be taken down soon.

Zachary knew that his beloved wife still preferred a peaceful life. Because of him, she had to show her face in public often, but he could protect her from being affected too much, so he tried his best to protect her from being affected.

Analia searched for Serenity's photos on the Internet, and found that she could only find some blurred or no frontal photos. At this moment, she could truly appreciate the good looks of Serenity in person.

Analia was also very beautiful. The moment she saw Serenity in person, she had to admit that Serenity's appearance was very good, and she was not inferior to her.

In addition, she was proud of her high temperament, which couldn't suppress Serenity. Serenity was born with a good temperament. She had been the eldest mistress of the York family for nearly a year. In various activities, her natural good temperament became more apparent.

"You are Serenity?" Analia asked.

Serenity asked her back: "Ms. Dawson, you want to see me, but you don't know what I look like?"

Analia: "I have seen your photo, but the photo is very blurry and I can't see clearly. Miss, you're much prettier than the photo."

Serenity smiled, "Thank you, Ms. Dawson, for your compliment. Ms. Dawson, you'er also very beautiful. But Ms. Dawson, I don't know why you want me?"

Analia was silent for a while, probably wondering whether to stick to her own ideas, after struggling for a while, Analia was still unwilling to give up.

She grew up so big, she had seen countless men, only Zachary hit her heart directly, she liked Zachary.

So what if Serenity was young and beautiful? So what if it smelled good? Her family background was flawed, and she had been married to Zachary for so long, and her stomach had not moved. Many people privately said that Serenity could not have children.

Zachary responded to this question publicly, saying that he thought about the world of two people and didn't want to have children too soon.

It was Zachary's defense of Serenity, not Zachary's heartfelt words. It is said that both the York family and Zachary himself were looking forward to Serenity's pregnancy.

"Miss Hunt, is it convenient for you now? I want to treat you to dinner and chat." Analia said with a smile, " It's just me and you."

She didn't like seeing Serenity with bodyguards. A country girl, her parents died, she was brought up by her older sister, but once she turned over, she was driven in and out of a luxury car, picked up by a driver, followed by a bodyguard, it really made people jealous.

Serenity looked at the women's wristwatch she was wearing. Naturally, this watch was also given by her man, and the watch that Zachary was wearing was a couple's watch.

"Ms. Dawson, my husband will be back soon. If he doesn't see me at home, he will be anxious. Look, can you make a long story short here? Or can you change the time?"

Analia's beautiful eyes flashed. She asked: "Did Mr. York return home so early?"

York's family was led by Zachary. It was reasonable to assume that he was overworked and couldn't get home until late at night.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-