Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1794 -She is a v!xen, a slut, hooking up with other people's husbands, meddling in other people's marriages.

There are very few accusations against Hank, in fact, the two of them should blame Hank more. Young and beautiful girls still want to pursue him, but he can't keep his heart.

"Of course, Jessica is also at fault, she can completely reject Hank, she can even resign and stay away from Hank, but she doesn't enjoy Hank. All the beauty that Hank brought to her gave birth to her ambition to replace my sister as Hank's wife.

Now that she has ended up like this, she is not worthy of sympathy, and Hank is also not worthy of sympathy. If it is not for Sonny's Dad, if he's dead, my sister won't go back and look at him.

Jessica just thinks that everyone blames her, and the retribution falls on her. She thinks it's unfair, and she probably lost it because of the torture of the Brown family. When she was disheartened, she slashed at Hank who she thought would bring her happiness, just like she told the police, she would drag Hank to h-e-l-l with her!"

After speaking, Serenity hugged Zachary and kissed him a few times and said, "Thank you, Zachary. My sister and I can see Hank and Jessica suffer retribution and end up going to h-e-l-l together today because of your help."

Neither Hank nor Jessica would lose their jobs. They were still managers in the company. They were powerful and have high income in the company. The life between him and Jessica would only get better and better. But the Brown family would not treat Jessica like they did now, they would only think that Hank was right to divorce, and would only show off in front of Liberty.

Might be Liberty couldn't even fight for the custody of Sonny, and it's hard for her to share the property after marriage.

Liberty was particularly partial to her brother-in-law Zachary, and often made Serenity jealous, and felt that her sister was partial. In fact, Liberty was very grateful for this brother-in-law's help. Another point is that, as a natal family, she treated her brother-in-law well and hoped that her brother-in-law could be nicer to her sister.

"We are husband and wife, and your business is mine. I definitely can't watch our sister being bullied." Zachary hugged her tightly, "That's probably why Analia came here, she just didn't cry when she didn't see the coffin."

Serenity: "It's no wonder, I don't know how many people are envious of me, sometimes, I worry that I'm living in a dream, waking up Back to reality. I never dreamed that one day I would become the eldest mistress of your York family."

At the beginning, she was a little stupid, and the surname York was rare, so she didn't even associate her with the richest man of York's family.

The main reason was that she felt that Zachary and her were people from two worlds, and it was impossible for them to have any intersection in eight lifetimes.

She never thought that she was cheated by his grandma, and was also cheated by him.

"I'm also afraid it's a dream." Zachary tightened his arms and hugged her even tighter, for fear that if he let go, she would disappear out of thin air.
