

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1802

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1802 -Hayden had a team of bodyguards, and she could ask one of the bodyguards to act as Kevin's driver to take him back to the hotel.

Thinking of this, Hayden replied in a low voice: "Dad, it's okay, but don't drink too much wine."

Donald: "It will make me drunk."

He needed his wife to serve him if he was drunk or high. He usually wasn't allowed to get drunk because his wife didn't want to serve him because she was concerned about his body.

Hayden stopped talking.

Since her parents wanted to stay with Kevin for dinner, Hayden, who originally wanted to come back to see her parents before leaving, could only stay at home and wait for dinner, but it was still early for dinner, she was really bored and felt a little uncomfortable.

The main reason was that Kevin would look at her from time to time, not knowing if he was overthinking or if it was the fact, Hayden always felt that Kevin looked at her with unusual eyes.

"Ah, it's the first time for Kevin to come to our house. It's not time for dinner yet. Take Kevin out for a walk to get familiar with the environment of our house." Mrs. Queen saw that her daughter was impatient, so she said. As the things were arranged so that her daughter would not get impatient and leave without eating.

This was obviously a house, but because her daughter was always working, she treated it like a hotel and always left after eating. She could sometimes spend the night at home, but she didn't feel like she was at home. Instead, she felt like a guest.

Hayden did not refuse her mother's arrangement, she said to Kevin: "Mr. York, I will take you out for a walk."

Kevin stood up with a smile, and walked out of the main house with her.

Out of the main house, Kevin said to Hayden: "Mr. Queen, I feel like you're uncomfortable in your own home. You doesn't usually live at home, right?"

Hayden: "The old mansion is too far away from the company. I bought a house near the company, I usually live there, and I seldom go home."

Kevin understood: "It's similar to our brothers, and we are also like this. We rarely go back to Wildridge Manor, but we grew up in the Villa, so we are very fond of the Villa. If you have feelings, if you go back to the villa once in a while, it's like returning to your main battlefield, free from restraint."

Unlike Hayden who was like a guest in her old mansion, sitting on the sofa gave him a feeling of pins and needles.

After Hayden was silent, she said, "I only go back to the old mansion for a few days during the New Year."

Although the Queen family's old mansion was not a villa like the York family's old mansion, it still occupied a large area. The layout was excellent, and the scenery was stunning; it was a very modern garden villa.

"Mr. York, You're on a business trip to Jensburg this time, did something happen to the hotel?" Hayden asked Kevin looking for a topic.

A hotel owned by Queen's was diagonally across the street from York's hotel. They were all so-called seven-star hotels, and they belonged to Jensburg's two most upscale and luxurious hotels.

Because of the competition for business, the two hotels would have some minor conflicts, but they would be minor, owing to the fact that both hotels' business was very good.

Jensburg was the Queens's main battlefield, and the Yorks would not venture too far. The Queens feared the Yorks and would not attack their hotel. There were minor conflicts that were caused by the people, so there was no need to be concerned. The hotel's upper management could handle it themselves.

Due to such a "hostile" relationship, Hayden was very aware of the hotel opposite, and had never heard of any problems with Yorks's hotel.

Kevin smiled and said: "Mr. Queen, Let me tell you the truth. The business trip is fake, and it is true to avoid my parents' urging marriage. Mr. Queen, you should have heard the news that my second brother is engaged. The eldest brother is married, and the second brother is engaged recently. I am in the third place, and the two shields in front are useless, so all the arrows are shooting towards me. If I don't run away, a thousand arrows will pierce my heart."

Hayden: "..."